"A Friendly Community Church"

God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

"Let Us Worship God"

A PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Thank you, O God, for the home and for the parents you have given me.

Thank you for

All the loving care which I received when I was a child and when I could not care for myself;

All that was provided for me - food and clothes and shelter - in the years before I could earn my own living and support myself;

All the opportunities of education and of learning
which my parents gave to me;

All the security I have enjoyed, the door of home always open, the sympathy and the love when I was hurt or discouraged or depressed.

Thank you for all the loving care with which I have been surrounded ever since I was born.

Forgive me, if I have done anything to hurt or to grieve my parents, and, if, as I have grown older, I have drifted away from them until we are almost strangers.

or,

Thank you, if the passing of the years has made me understand my parents better, and has made me love them more,
and has drawn me closer and closer to them.

Forgive me, if I have taken everything for granted, if sometimes I just made use of my home, if I took everything and gave nothing.

Forgive me, if sometimes I have been difficult to live with,
irritable, rebellious, disobedient, uncommunicative,
impatient of advice, angry at restraint.

Help me at least to try to do something to show my gratitude, and to try to repay the debt I owe, even if it can never be fully repaid.

Help me so to value my home, to love my parents, and to show them that I love them, that some day, when they are gone and I look back, I may have nothing to regret.

Hear this my prayer for Jesus' sake. AMEN.

A CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN

- A Christian gentleman will be slow to lose patience - a Christian grace.
- A Christian gentleman will look for a way to be constructive, even when provoked.
- A Christian gentleman will not envy the good fortune of others.
- A Christian gentleman will refrain from trying to impress others with his own importance.
- A Christian gentleman will have good manners.
- A Christian gentleman will not be "touchy," even when he feels the right of resentment.
- A Christian gentleman will think the best, not the worst, of others; and he will try to be as wise as the serpent and as harmless as a dove in handling others.
- A Christian gentleman will not gloat over the wickedness of other people.
Above all else,
- A Christian gentleman will exhibit the love of Christ in his heart and life.

- L. Bell
