God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

ADORATION

CONFESSION (In Unison)

Almighty and everlasting God, who alone amid the changes of this mortal life abidest ever the same: We confess before Thee the uncertainty of our life upon the earth. Thou hast made our days as a handbreadth; and our age is as nothing before Thee. All flesh is as grass; and all the goodliness thereof as the flower of the field. The grass withereth; the flower fadeth but the Word of God shall stand for ever. Therein is our hope, for Thou art our Father. We confess, even in the valley of the shadow of death, that Thou art with us. O Lord, make us to know our end, and the measure of our days what it is, that we may know how frail we are. Hear our prayer, and give ear unto our cry. Hold not Thy peace at our tears; for we are strangers with Thee and sojourners, as all our fathers were. But Thou art the same, and Thy years shall have no end. Amen.

O Lord God, the Light of the faithful, the Strength of those who labor, and the Repose of the blessed dead: We give Thee thanks for Thy saints who have witnessed in their lives a good confession, for all the faithful departed, and for those dear to our own hearts who have entered into rest ... Grant us grace so to follow their good example that we may be one with them in spirit, and, at the last, together with them be made partakers of Thine eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

O Lord our God, the Author and Giver of all good things; we thank Thee for all Thy mercies, and for Thy loving care over all Thy creatures. We bless Thee for the gift of life, for Thy protection round about us, for Thy guiding hand upon us, and for the tokens of Thy love within us. We thank Thee for friendship and duty, for good hopes and precious memories, for the joys that cheer us, and the trials that teach us to trust in Thee. Most of all we thank Thee for the saving knowledge of Thy Son our Saviour; for the living presence of Thy Spirit, the comforter; for Thy Church, the body of Christ; for the ministry of Word and Sacrament, and all the means of grace.

In all these things, O heavenly Father, make us wise unto a right use of Thy benefits, that we may render an acceptable thanksgiving unto Thee all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPEN A DOOR TO A CHRISTIAN HOME FOR CHILDREN

The Presbyterian Child Care Program at Barium Springs is happy to be the arm of our great Church that provides the means of opening many doors to security for children. Almost two hundred different children receive direct help and many others indirect help each year. Here are children whose homes have been broken to pieces and here find love and care in a new home. Since the agency is family centered, mothers and fathers and even other relatives get service along with their children. What a glorious opportunity we as christians have in this organized effort of putting together pieces into a new home.

Thank goodness for some mothers and fathers who are able to work closely with the trained casework staff we provide. The result is a rehabilitated home and more understanding of their christian responsibility. For many children the security is found in the sheltering arm of love in Barium Springs Home for Children, the institution. Others are able to adjust to a new life in a foster or adoptive situation. There are those for whom we do not yet have the best resource for help but for whom we do make plans through cooperative agencies.

Jesus said, "Inasmuch as you have done it unto the least of them you have done it unto me." He admonishes us over and over in His WORD that those who love Him also must love their fellowman. He always had a helping hand for those in need. Dare we to do less?

STOP and THINK! Has Not God been good to you in this year 1966? His Son, our Lord has asked us to give as we have prospered. You are urged at this Thanksgiving season to remember those less fortunate than you and your family. A "special offering" envelope is provided for this purpose.
