"A Friendly Community Church"

God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

AN ORDER FOR MORNING WORSHIP
SUNDAY, MAY 28, 1967

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Vestry Prayers with the Session
Prelude * "In All Lands Rejoice" arr. Bach
"Let Us Worship God"
Introit "Come, Bless the Lord" Choir

PROCESSIONAL HYMN NO. 399 * Charles Wesley, 1747
-congregation sings all stanzas, stand on second-

CALL TO PRAYER

M. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us.
R. And grant us thy salvation.
M. O God, make clean our hearts within us.
R. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.
M. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.
M. Let us worship God.

APPROACH (In Unison)

Like pillow to tired head, like light to watching eyes, like wine to fainting heart, be Thou our God to us.

Wearied by the conflict of life, worn by the burden of the day, we seek Thee as our resting place. May Thy eternal calm descend upon our troubled spirits and give us all Thy peace. Amid the treacherous sands of time Thou standest still,
The Rock of Ages. In life's desert places Thou art a spring whose waters never fail.

We turn from our perplexities, our imperfections, and our sins to Thine infinite perfection, goodness and beauty; like men who turn from dusty toil to cleansing streams, like those who raise their eyes from the city's foul and narrow streets to snow-clad mountains and the light of stars.

Appear to our waiting eyes, welcome us with outstretched arms, clasp us to Thy heart, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS

Thanksgiving (In Unison)

O God, Giver of life and of all that makes life good, we lift our hearts to thee and bless thy name for all that thou bestowest upon us. We thank thee not so much for the things which we call ours as for those things which we share with all thy children - sunshine and wind and rain and flowers and the far horizons. We give thee thanks not that thou hast made life easy, but that thou givest us strength equal to life's demands. We bless thee not so much for what we know, for that is meagre, but that under the inspiration of thy Spirit we can learn what life means and how to live. We do not thank thee for what we are, for we are shamed as we remember our wasted talents, but we thank thee for what in thy Providence we may be,
for all that we may yet do to retrieve the past, and for what thou canst do with us and through us insofar as we yield our wills to thine. Accept us, Most Holy God, as we pledge ourselves to thee, our reasonable service, to live not for ourselves but for our brothers, and for thee, to count ourselves rich not in what we keep but in what we share, and to strive to live in fellowship of spirit with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
