"A Friendly Community Church"

11/5/1967

God make the door of this House wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship, and the Father's care; and narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred. Make its threshold smooth enough for the feet of little children and rugged enough to call forth our mature powers.

CALL TO PRAYER

M. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us.
R. And grant us thy salvation.
M. O God, make clean our hearts within us.
R. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.
M. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.
M. Let us pray.

APPROACH

CONFESSION (In Unison)

O Lord, holy and righteous God,
we acknowledge before thee that we do not fear thee
and that we do not love thee above all things.
We do not delight in prayer, nor take pleasure in thy Word.
We do not really love our neighbor;
we lack the conscience that should accompany our Christian profession.
Our hearts are divided, crossed by doubts and guilty desires.
We accuse ourselves before thee, O God,
we implore thee, whose nature and whose name is love,
to forgive us, and in forgiving, to heal us
so that in our lives something will finally be changed. Amen.

HYMN FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

"Praise God, Ye Servants of the Lord"

Hymnbook, No. 19

William B. Bradbury took this paraphrase of the 113th Psalm from the 1912 Psalter and set it to a tune known as "Andre."

All singing Christians owe Mr. Bradbury a debt of gratitude for bringing to light and practical use a multitude of hymns during the 19th century. He was prolific in composing, paraphrasing and arranging texts to known and unknown tunes. We are told that over 2,000,00 copies of his books and hymn settings have been sold.

This particular hymn is quite easy to learn and sing and should eventually take its place with our other well known praise hymns.

The choir will introduce the new hymn this morning for the offertory. Turn in your hymnbook and follow.

CHRISMONS

Those on display in the Narthex today are:

1) Jerusalem Cross

A symbol of the crusades, this cross appeared on the shield of the Crusader Kings of Jerusalem. Some suggest the five crosses symbolize the five wounds of our Lord. Another interpretation: The four Tau crosses which make up the center cross represent the Old Testament prophecies of a Savior. When the prophecies culminated on a hill outside Jerusalem, our salvation was accomplished. The four small crosses represent those who take up a cross, follow Him, and proclaim and live the gospel in the four corners of the world. Thus, the history of Christianity - prophecy, fulfillment, and acceptance throughout the world.

2) Stylized Fish

Early Christians used the fish widely as an easily made and recognized secret sign. During the times of the persecution of the early Church, Christians could find one another by using this simple password. To the outsider, the fish was a mere decoration; to the Christian, it held deep significance. Centuries later, in 1963, a newstory reported that Cuban Christians, when they found themselves in a situation similar to that faced by the first Christians, revived the use of this emblem.

ICHTHUS (ΙΧΘΥC), the Greek word for fish forms an acrostic on the Greek phrase, Jesus (I) Christ (X), God's (Θ) Son (Υ), Savior (C).

3) Cross Triumphant or Cross of Victory

A cross supreme over the world which is represented by a ball. The divisions suggest continents which are united into one by the circular extension of the cross. Thus - the world united in Christ who has dominion over all.

Women of the Church meet every Wednesday morning at 9:30 in the dining halls to make Chrismons. Interested persons are invited to join the group.

Mrs. George W. Brunley, Jr. Chairman
Mrs. L. W. Horton, Jr., Co-Chairman

A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING IS CALLED THIS MORNING AFTER the Worship Service for the purpose of electing Deacons. Members are asked to remain seated during the Postlude. AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

A Creed in the Words of St. John.

Minister: Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true Church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now declare:

Minister and People: We believe that God is Spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

We believe that God is Light, and that if we walk in the light, we have fellowship one with another.

We believe that God is Love, and that everyone that loveth is born of God and knoweth God.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

We believe that he is the Resurrection and the Life, and that whosoever believeth on him, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

We believe that we are children of God, and that he hath given us of his Spirit.

We believe that if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all uncleanness.

We believe that the world passeth away and the lust thereof, but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever. Amen.
