WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 11, 1933

AFTER the sectional conferences, the President called the session to order. The assembly joined in singing, "Come, Thou Almighty King."

Mrs. C. W. Burns, Fifth Vice-President, and Miss Bertha McCreight, deaconess at Ellen Stark Ford Home, were presented.

The Recording Secretary announced that any conference having a quorum of the executive board or business committee present may elect alternates. An alternate so elected at once comes under the ruling as contained on page 252, Sec. 2 (a) of the Fifty-first Annual Report: "Each conference sending delegates to the annual meeting of the Board of Managers shall pay to the Committee on Arrangements for entertainment ten dollars for each ex-officio member and delegate."

Proposed changes in the Constitution were read by the Recording Secretary for notification as follows:

Page 250, Art. V, Officers—amend to read as follows: "The officers of the Society shall be a president, one or more vice-presidents as provided in the by-laws, a corresponding secretary, a recording secretary, and a treasurer."

Page 250, Art. VI, Board of Managers—amend to read as follows: Sec. 1—"The Board of Managers shall consist of the Board of Trustees and other officials and conference representatives as may be designated in the by-laws and are in attendance at the meeting." Sec. 2—"The regular meeting of the Board of Managers shall be held annually or biennially as provided in the by-laws."

Page 250, Art VII, Trustees, Sec. 1—amend to read as follows: "The Board of Trustees shall consist of the officers of the Society and such additional trustees as may be provided in the by-laws, elected by the Board of Managers."

Page 251, Art. X, Membership and Dues—strike out words "And Dues." Amend the article to read as follows: "Membership in this Society shall be active and associate; there shall also be life, perpetual, and memorial memberships as provided in the by-laws."

Page 252, Art. XI, Relation to other branches of church work. In Sec.

3, seventh line, change "Annual" to "Regular." Strike out "for the ensuing year" in the nineteenth line and substitute "until the next regular meeting."

Page 252, Art XII, Amendments—shall read: "This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, said amendment having been previously published three times in WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS. Article XI may not be amended except to conform to action of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

Upon motion by Mrs. J. N. Rodeheaver, it was carried with only seventeen votes in the negative, that as an emergency measure for this year fourteen trustees only be elected at this meeting by the Board of Managers.

Mrs. J. H. Freeman called attention to the value of the President's address, and it was moved and carried that it should be printed and read in every auxiliary this year, as early as possible.

In the interests of efficiency and economy the Board of Trustees reported the consideration of new plans for regional divisions of the work of the Society and the appointment of a committee of seven, three from the Board of Trustees, three from the bureau secretaries, and the secretary of Education and Personnel, to study regional divisions and the administrative plans of other denominations. The President appointed the following: Mrs. Adelaide Hudd, chairman; Mrs. F. D. Leete, Mrs. Foss Zartman, Mrs. H. S. Osborn, Miss Laura May Robinson, Mrs. Anna L. Zook, and Miss Muriel Day. This was approved.

The assembly moved to the study classes at 9.15 o'clock.

The reassembling group was called to order at 10.15 by Mrs. Walter Raymond Brown, First Vice-President. Following the hymn, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah," Mrs. G. W. Bristow made the announcements.

The Young People's Department makes the following recommendations:

"1. That the leadership training course for leaders in conjunction with the Board of Education of our church be formulated for our department.

"2. That a field worker be assigned to the Young People's Department, and that for this year the worker be Miss Helen Johnson.

"3. That, if possible, there be given to the Young People's Department, at this meeting, the name of the project for the $100,000 fund from Girls' Golden Year." This report was accepted.

Mrs. Dan B. Brummitt presented the findings of the study class on the textbook, "Christianity and Industry in America":

"In the use of leisure there is either recreation and culture or dissipation and evil. We therefore respectfully request that through our publications in WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS, or in leaflets, we be kept informed on how best to conserve this element of leisure time, not only in our own lives but in the lives of those with whom we share social and industrial problems, and believe that the statement of the International Missionary Council of five years ago is as true to-day as it was five years ago. 'You cannot at once preach the religion of Christianity and practice the religion of material success, which is the creed of a great part of the Western world, and is the true competitor of Christianity for the allegiance of mankind.' " The entire report was approved.

Mrs. Ethel T. Holland submitted the findings from the Workers' Conference as follows:

"We must meet the changing conditions of the day with a new appraisal of 'Ourselves and Our Society.' We must choose the most important things and bring our very best efforts to them, by recognizing our own responsibility and by preparing ourselves carefully to win and hold the uninterested and uninformed Methodist woman. A thorough and careful study of our booklet, 'Study for Better Service,' will give this necessary preparation. We recommend its wide use.

"We must learn the value of publicity. Let us make wide use of our local newspapers. Letters have gone out from the office of the National Corresponding Secretary to every Methodist pastor in the entire United States where the Society is not organized, carrying an offer to supply them free of cost with facts about the Society.

"During November we shall give further publicity to our Society by a poster map.

"We endorse the Conference Mentor Plan as suggested by our National Corresponding Secretary, whereby the larger conferences become the big sisters of the smaller conferences.

"Realizing that more responsibility should be placed on district executive boards, we approve the District Zoning Plan outlined by the National Corresponding Secretary.

"We endorse whole-heartedly 'Girls' Golden Year' and the Junior Department plans, and pledge our support of them.

"Two groups of women who offer a great field for cultivation are the business and professional women and the young married women and girls in the later twenties. By the promotion of Wesleyan Service Guilds and the organization of Young Woman's auxiliaries, a field of almost uncultivated potentialities is reached.

"We call upon our women to use the plan presented by Mrs. Ruckdeschel and outlined in the August number of WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS by forging a chain of witnesses and where possible by observing the 9 A. M. daily prayer circle for home missions.

"The development and furtherance of a well-rounded, well-informed, active Christian Citizenship Department is urged.

"We recommend the promotion of combined societies, only where such a combination would truly promote a wider interest in and service for the missionary cause.

"To the auxiliaries which feel they must disband if forced to pay dues and accept budgets, we recommend that program material be sent them by the conference and that they be urged to hold on to their organizations, continue regular meetings, if possible use a mite box or blessing box, and in every way seek to retain the interest of their women.

"We heartily endorse the subscription envelop plan of five cents per week for ten weeks to encourage subscriptions to WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS. We urge every officer of conference, district, and auxiliary to become subscribers as well as every member. The increasing use of the Study Course for auxiliary meeting programs is recommended." The entire report was approved.

Mrs. Daniel Stecker closed the morning session with a message on "Personal Service."

"2. The immediate urgency of helping the membership realize that the work of missions is influenced by the civic activities of Christian women;

"3. The renewed recognition of the challenge and joy of knowing and working with youth and the hearty endorsement of the plans for 'Girls' Golden Year';

"4. The importance of developing trained leaders for the Juniors who are members of The Woman's Home Missionary Society organizations while also encouraging all educational agencies in the church to make a larger place for the missionary emphasis;

"5. The opportunity for constructive criticisms and appreciations offered by the editor of WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONS and approval of the plan for increasing subscriptions through the Testimony Parties;

"6. The necessity for continuous study of conference needs and trends to be met by definitely planned methods and contacts.

"7. That the presidents—auxiliary, district, and conference—conscientiously recognize their responsibility for the total program of the Society.

"8. The deep appreciation of the leadership of Mrs. W. H. C. Goode, the National President, and the pledge that her masterly presidential address will be distributed, read, and acted upon in our respective conferences, districts, and auxiliaries.

"MRS. A. O. ALDRICH,

DEACONESS WORK

Miss Grace G. Steiner, Secretary
420 Plum Street, Cincinnati, Ohio

We have 424 deaconesses listed under our administration. The number has been decreased due to one death, three marriages, one withdrawal, one transfer to the Missionary Department, one request for transfer to the Methodist Deaconess Association, seven honorable discharges, and by dropping a number who have not been in touch with the administration for a long time and have shown no desire to be continued. Two deaconesses have received the retired relation with pension. Seventeen graduates applied for admission as deaconesses. Six of this number have received appointment, two are in school for additional training, three are in temporary work, and six have no work as yet.

The statistical report shows:

- 49,390 different persons taught in religious work.
- 19,886 different persons taught in industrial work.
- 9,830 enrolled in daily vacation church schools.
- 10,193 enrolled in week-day church schools.
- 1,884 enrolled in kindergarten and day nursery.

The financial report of deaconess institutions is as follows:

Total balance in treasuries, 1932 . . . . .	$74,830 11
Total receipts of deaconess institutions . . . . .	169,514 80
Debit balance of one institution . . . . .	622 71
	$244,967 62
Total disbursements of deaconess institutions . . . . .	170,528 85
Balance in treasuries, June 30, 1933 . . . . .	$74,438 77
Value of property and furnishings . . . . .	$1,008,206 48
Endowment . . . . .	283,145 00
Total indebtedness on property . . . . .	56,350 00

The Deaconess Emergency and Relief Fund has given aid to twenty-nine deaconesses this year, amounting to $4,870.18.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

Mrs. Merle N. English, Secretary
723 Emerson Street, Evanston, Illinois

In spite of the discouraging conditions in the business world, twenty-three new groups of adult employed women have been organized this year into two units of the Wesleyan Service Guild.

Over seventy-five per cent of these have been organized from independent groups with no missionary background or from Sunday school classes.

While the Annual Report indicates a small loss in membership because of inability of many to pay dues, it does not show a loss in number of units or in interest in the work.

There has been an increase in the number of conference Guild secretaries during this past year. (See the Wesleyan Service Guild constitution on page 153 for method of nomination.) This perhaps accounts for the increase in interest.

The changed method of sending appropriations to units through conference treasurers is getting under way in many of our conferences and appropriations have reached units during the summer when they are planning their work for the year. This is as it should be.

Any questions which conference officers may have concerning procedure, the chairman of the Central Committee will gladly try to answer.
