

President Ann Marie Langford convened United Methodist Women of Duke Memorial at 11:00 a.m. on February 4, 1991 in the Bradshaw Room. Helen Fink led the devotional, using as her theme, "Listening to God".

Vice-president Linda Wilson introduced Mrs. Rachel Shanberg, Director of the Duke Cancer Patient Support Program at Duke Hospital, who gave an interesting and challenging presentation on the organization and ongoing work of that volunteer program. Additional volunteers are needed. Training is provided periodically for new volunteers.

Minutes of the January meeting were read and approved as corrected by Beulah Latta, Secretary. Doris Bridges presented the treasurer's report, reflecting a balance of $5159.18.

Martha Hawley was recognized as a new member. Barbara Young from Australia was greeted as a visitor. Announcement was made of the fact that Dr. Arthur Kale is presently in the Infirmary at Methodist Retirement Home.

Mary Lee Bailey from Wesley Women announced that soup will be for sale following the church service on February 17. A sign-up sheet was circulated for orders and/or contributions for soup preparation.

A work team from The Wesley Fellowship at Duke is going on a work project to Honduras soon. The cost for each student is $750.00. We are being asked to support one student for one day for the sum of $75.00. Linda Wilson moved that we provide $75 for this worthwhile purpose. Motion was seconded by Mary Whanger and voted in the affirmative.

Ann Stallings has requested $50 for use in completion of refurbishing one of the Sunday School nurseries. Motion was made by Ann Clark, seconded by Virginia Massey, and voted in the affirmative that we provide this funding. It was also noted that we cleared $55 on the January luncheon provided for UMW.

Kay Herman asked that an announcement be made of the availability of some tickets for the play, "Rumors" which will be given at Duke on February 9. Cost of same is $19.00. Call Kay after 7:00 p.m. if interested.

A question was raised regarding the annual collection of blankets for church world service. Ann Marie stated that she thinks some changes have been made. She will look into this and advise later.

Due to limited time, Ann Marie asked that we carefully read the information regarding meetings, etc, which has been distributed.

Meeting adjourned at 12:15 p.m. Approximately 45 members and guests were present. All were invited to lunch at a cost of $2.00, consisting of a delightful potato bar and accompaniments.
