

The December Christmas meeting of United Methodist Women was held in the Bradshaw Room at 3:00 p.m. President Ann Marie Langford presided. The group participated in singing carols.

A short business session was convened to vote on the distribution of funds to the various projects, as recommended by the Executive Board. (See minutes of Executive Board meeting on November 14 for details.) The vote was in the affirmative.

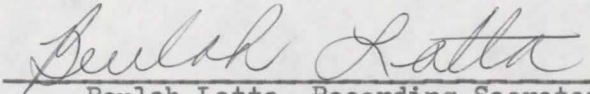

Ann Marie expressed appreciation to members who assisted with the Community Thanksgiving Service and the recent meeting of Church Women United which was held at Duke Memorial.

She announced that 15 additional health kits have been provided for the Rescue Mission.

On behalf of UMW, Hilda Coble presented mission recognition pins to the following individuals for longtime service to the Sunday School at Duke Memorial: Mary Canada, Jeanne Robbins, Margaret McCotter, Grace and William Guyer. For work with United Methodist Women and other church and community activities, pins were awarded to Nancy Stark, Mary Lee Bailey, Kathleen Fitzsimmons, Judy Coman, Amy Kellum and Ann Wilson.

Melissa Carson read a beautiful version of the Christmas Story.

Circle Two provided delightful refreshments for approximately 60 members and guests in the Church Parlor.
