

President Ann Marie Langford convened United Methodist Women at 11:00 a.m. in the Bradshaw Room. She opened with group singing of "For the Beauty of the Earth". Mary Whanger gave the devotional, followed by a solo by Gretchen Ruffy.

Linda Wilson introduced our speaker, John Semingson, our Organist/Choir Director. His enthusiastic presentation described his plans for a great music program for the entire church.

Business:

Minutes of the October meeting were read and approved with the following correction: lunch was provided by Circle One for the October meeting. Treasurer Doris Bridges gave her report, reflecting a balance of $6,457.75 as of October 31, 1990. The Finance Committee will recommend to the Executive Committee that we allocate about $1000.00 for special projects.

Corresponding Secretary Ellen Dozier read a letter from Ann Wilson, thanking UMW for its participation in the "World Summit for Children". Ellen also had a note of thanks from Lynn James for the Food Lion tapes submitted by our group.

Announcements:

Church Women United will hold their meeting here on Friday, November 9th. UMW is responsible for light refreshments.

A sign-up sheet was circulated for commitments to provide refreshments for the joint Thanksgiving Service to be held on Wednesday evening, November 21. Temple Baptist and Immaculate Conception will join us here for the community service this year.

Omar Fink asked for our support in buying greeting cards to lend support for a project in Zimbabwe.

Juanita Stott from Methodist Retirement Home Circle called our attention to greeting cards for sale from that group.

Betty Craig has received the appointment calendars. They are available for sale today.

Our church will have Advent luncheons and an Advent dinner in December. Volunteers are needed to set the tables.

Amy Kellum from the Weekday School announced a Gift Fair and Book Sale to be held on November 14 and 15. Proceeds will be used to purchase supplies.

Ann Stallings reminded us of the dinner and square dance to be held on November 10. Advance tickets are available.

Meeting adjourned at 12 noon. Ann Marie urged everyone to vote on November 6. Circle Three served a delicious lunch to approximately 60 members and guests.

Beulah Latta, Recording Secretary

President Ann Marie Langford convened United Methodist Women at 11:00 a.m. in the breakfast room. She opened with group singing of "For the Beauty of the Earth".
Mary Wagner gave the devotional, followed by a solo by Gretchen Kelly.

Kinda Wilson introduced our speaker, John Bengtson, our Organist, Chris Dizon.
His enthusiastic presentation described his plans for a great music program for the entire church.

Business:

Minutes of the October meeting were read and approved with the following correction:
Lunch was provided by Circle One for the October meeting. Treasurer Linda Bridges gave her report, reflecting a balance of $1,157.75 as of October 31, 1990. The Finance Committee will recommend to the Executive Committee that we allocate about $100.00 for special projects.

Corresponding Secretary Ellen Gorder read a letter from Ann Wilson, thanking MW for the participation in the "World Service for Children". Ellen also had a note of thanks from Lynn James for the food item tapes submitted by our group.

Announcements:

Church Women United will hold their meeting here on Friday, November 23rd, 1991 in rooms 101 & 102.

A sign-up sheet was circulated for commitments to provide refreshments for the joint Thanksgiving Service to be held on Wednesday evening, November 21. Temple Baptist and Baptist Church will join us here for the community service this year.

Our thank you for our support in buying greeting cards to send support for a project in Ethiopia.

Thank you to all from Methodist Women Circle called our attention to greeting cards for sale from that group.

Just Quik has received the appointment calendars. They are available for sale today.

Our church will have Advent luncheon and an Advent dinner in December. Volunteers are needed to set the tables.

Any letters from the Wesley School announced a Gift Fair and Book Sale to be held on November 14 and 15. Proceeds will be used to purchase supplies.

Ann Ballinger reminded us of the dinner and square dance to be held on November 10.
Advance tickets are available.

Meeting adjourned at 12 noon. Ann Marie urged everyone to vote on November 6.
Circle Three served a delicious lunch to approximately 60 members and guests.