

General Meeting - United Methodist Women - Duke Memorial Church - January 9, 1990

President Ann Marie Langford convened Duke Memorial United Methodist Women at 11:00 a.m. in the Bradshaw Room. Edith Toms and Caroline Sasser presented the devotional and program with focus on "Children". Staff members from the Week Day School gave visual explanations of the training and teaching methods used with the various age groups in the Week Day School.

Nancy Stark and Amy Kellum from Wesley Women reported on meals for the homeless which they prepare and serve at the Homeless Shelter on a Sunday evening every other month. Volunteers were invited to assist in this endeavor.

Minutes of the December meeting were read and approved.

Charlotte Corbin, immediate past Treasurer, gave the quarterly report for October 1 through December 31, 1989, reflecting a balance of $4523.41.

Ann Clark, Chairperson of Staff-Parrish Relations, announced that a reception will be held on January 28 for Jane Lynch who is retiring as Organist and Choir Director. Members were asked to make cookies for this event.

Members were asked to remember Meta and Norman Metcalf in prayer as he undergoes open heart surgery today.

Ann Marie announced that a large, black book, containing old financial records, has been placed in the vault at the church.

Circle <sup>one</sup> 2 is responsible for the Community Life Birthday party in January.

Ann Marie has called an Executive Board Meeting for Wednesday, January 24 at 1:15 p.m. at the church. She asked that each Circle Chairperson or a representative be present.

Blankets to be donated to Church World Service should be deposited here at Duke Memorial prior to February 19 when the collection will be taken to Carr United Methodist Church for pickup and shipping to its destination.

Para Drake reported that funds given by UMW to the Nurseries have been utilized to purchase two appropriate children's Bibles and new rugs.

Lorraine Chappell sent a thank you note to UMW, expressing appreciation for the service pin awarded her in December.

The program for our February 5 meeting will be devoted to a dedication of the Prayer and Self-Denial collection envelopes with emphasis on the "Homeless".

Circle 4 will be responsible for lunch for the general meeting on February 5.

Meeting adjourned at 12:15 p.m. for a covered dish lunch.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Marie Langford, President

Beulah Latta
Beulah Latta, Recording Secretary

President Ann Marie Langford convened Duke Memorial United Methodist Women at 11:00 a.m. in the Breakroom Room. With Tom and Caroline Gasser presented the devotional and program with focus on "Children". Staff members from the Week Day School gave visual explanations of the training and teaching methods used with the various age groups in the Week Day School.

Nancy Clark and Kay Kellum from Wesley Women reported on needs for the homeless which they prepare and serve at the Homeless Shelter on a Sunday evening every other month. Volunteers were invited to assist in this endeavor.

Minutes of the December meeting were read and approved.

Charlette Gordon, immediate past Treasurer, gave the quarterly report for October I through December 31, 1988, reflecting a balance of $1253.81.

Ann Clark, Chairperson of Staff-Parish Relations, announced that a reception will be held on January 28 for Jane Lynch who is retiring as Organist and Choir Director. Members were asked to make cookies for this event.

Members were asked to remember Mel and Norman Melale in prayer as he undergoes open heart surgery today.

Ann Marie announced that a large, black book, containing old financial records, has been placed in the vault at the church.

Circle 2 is responsible for the Community Life Birthday party in January.

Ann Marie has called an Executive Board Meeting for Wednesday, January 24 at 7:15 p.m. at the church. She asked that each Circle Chairperson or a representative be present.

Blankets to be donated to Church World Service should be deposited here at Duke Memorial prior to February 19 when the collection will be taken to City United Methodist Church for pickup and shipping to the destination.

Pam Drake reported that funds given by UMW to the Wrens have been utilized to purchase two appropriate children's bibles and new toys.

Lorraine Chapell sent a thank you note to UMW, expressing appreciation for the service pin awarded her in December.

The program for our February 9 meeting will be devoted to a dedication of the Prayer and Self-Denial collection envelopes with emphasis on the "Homeless".

Circle 1 will be responsible for lunch for the general meeting on February 9.

Meeting adjourned at 12:15 p.m. for a covered dish lunch.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Marie Langford, President

Debbie Latta, Recording Secretary