Rev. Ruth Harper Stevens presented an over view of United Methodist Women; Where It comes From - Where It Is Going. She compared 1950's families to 1990's families. Her observations are that UMW cannot continue as usual. Stay at home Moms used to look forward to functions that gave an opportunity for them to be away for a short time. Today's Moms resent being away. Suggestions made for increasing participation were:

- 1) Family events
- 2) Shorter duration
- 3) Fewer meetings at the church
- 4) Clearly defined goals
- 5) Counting on older women
- 6) Be productive/ have meaningful meetings
- 7) Fellowship
- 8) Start meetings on time
- 9) Better communication

We need to meet the needs of new family structure.

1999 UMW Directories prepared by Debbie Fedyshyn were distributed.

Elisabeth adjourned the meeting with a prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Priscilla Shepherd, Secretary
