IV.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. Myron Dewey,

DIED at the residence of his father, in Danville, Iowa, August 9th, 1866, of pulmonary consumption, aged 32 years and 2 months.

Brother Dewey was born in Deerfield, Oneida County, New-York. At the age of 20 years he experienced religion under the labors of Rev. P. Burroughs of the Erie Conference, and soon after received license to exhort. In March, 1856, he was married to Miss Anna Briggs, of Arkwright, New-York. In June, 1857, he removed to Livingston County, Illinois. In September, 1858, he was licensed to preach by the quarterly conference of Avoca Circuit. In September, 1859, he was admitted into the Central Illinois (then Peoria) Conference on trial, and in 1861, was admitted into full connection, and ordained Deacon by Bishop Ames, and Elder by Bishop Scott, in 1863.

Bro. Dewey's appointments were successively, Five Mile Grove, Chebanse, Waupeean, New Michigan, Utica, Braeenville and South Ottawa.

Brother Dewey's health began to decline in the summer of 1865, and he went to his last field of labor very feeble. He was able to labor but a short time. His last sermon was preached November 12th, 1865. His funeral sermon was preached in Danville, Iowa, by Rev. J. Craig, assisted by Rev. C. Elliott, D. D., of the Iowa Conference.

Brother Dewey lived the life of the religion he preached, and died in full hope of a blissful immortality beyond the grave.

But a few moments before he died he was asked "is Jesus precious?" He whispered, "yes," and soon after passed to his reward on high. He leaves a wife and two children to the care of the church.

S. G. J. WORTHINGTON,
H. RITCHEE.

3. On Bible Cause.

WHEREAS, The "Bible is the only, and the sufficient rule, both of our faith and practice." And,

WHEREAS, The subjects presented are of first importance to all men, and, whereas, the American Bible Society in America, and the British and Foreign Bible Society in England, are using diligence to supply the whole world with the Holy Scriptures. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That our warmest gratitude is due to God, for the gift of his word, and the manifest tokens of his approval of these great Continental Bible Societies.

Resolved, 2. That we have undiminished confidence in the catholicity and efficiency of the American Bible Societies.

Resolved, 3. That we will welcome its Agents to our fields of labor, and assist them in their work.

Resolved, 4. That it is the duty of each preacher in charge to report to the Annual Conference the amount contributed by his congregations to the American Bible Society.

5. On Centenary of Methodism.

LEXINGTON, September 20th, 1866.

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Illinois Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your Committee on the Centenary of Methodism beg leave to present the following suggestions for the October celebration, viz:

Resolved, 1. That in accordance with the recommendation of the General Centenary Committee, we will devote the month of October to protracted religious services, securing, if possible, daily service in all our places of worship; looking to, and laboring for, a pentecostal baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Resolved, 2. That during the first half of the month, we will endeavor earnestly, to complete our subscriptions already begun, and to press subscriptions where none have been taken, so as to secure, if possible, the name, and a subscription from every member of the Church, and from every friend of the Church.

Resolved, 3. That on the third and fourth Sabbaths of the month we will take up centenary plate collections in all our charges.

Resolved, 4. That the several pastors be instructed to enter upon the Centenary Records the name of every member and probationer in the Church, arranging them, as far as practicable, in families, (parents and children,) affixing the amount, (if anything), given by the family, or the individual; noting the fact of the absence of any member, if absent, during the centenary year.

Resolved, 5. That every pastor be required, during the month of November, to forward to Rev. O. S. Munsell, D. D., Conference Centenary Agent, a detailed report of the Centenary Subscriptions and Collections, including a complete copy of the record, provided in the 4th resolution; and to forward all collections to the Centenary Agent, or to the Treasurer of the Centenary Committee, Ira Benton, Esq., of Peoria.

Resolved, 6. That the Centenary Agent be instructed to collate the reports, and have them suitably bound, for preservation, among the Conference Records; and to publish a summary of them in the North Western Christian Advocate.

Resolved, 7. That the Bishops be requested to appoint O. S. Munsell, Conference Centenary Agent, in connection with his usual appointment to the University.

It is suggested, in view of the fact that many of the pastors, in consequence of the time necessarily lost in moving, may not be able to commence the October meeting with the first Sabbath in the month, that the services may, without impropriety, be extended over the first week in November, so as to make up the full month of prayer, thanksgiving and praise.

It is desirable in accordance with the 4th resolution that the name of every member and probationer in the Church, whether a contributor to the centenary funds or not, should be entered upon the Centenary Records, and in view of the fact that members of the family, not being members of the Church, will contribute, and as it is desirable that their names should appear in their proper place in the list of the family, the fact that they are friends but not members of the Church should be noted in the margin of the record. Contributions from friends of the Church, not members of families, the major part of which are members of the Church, should be entered in a separate list, properly headed, as contributions by friends of the Church.

No subscriptions should be entered upon the Centenary Records, until paid in cash, or properly secured by note, duly executed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Z. HALL, Chairman Committee.

6. On State of the Country.

SEPTEMBER 19th, 1866.

Committee on the State of the Country to C. I. Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your Committee on the State of the Country beg leave to report:

That in regard to political matters which have no moral bearing, if there are such, we would not, as Christians, assume any partizan relations; but we consider the great questions which now agitate the public mind, inseparably connected with the essential principles of morality and religion; and upon their correct solution, the welfare of unnumbered millions, who shall inhabit this country, now depends.

We believe that righteousness exalteth a nation, and that the Almighty can not approve of legislation that shall deviate from the principles of justice between men, or deprive any of their natural and inalienable rights.

We are persuaded that the dominant party in the lately rebellious States, are not disposed to deal justly with the Freedmen, and that justice can not be secured to them, nor the pledges, made during the war, fulfilled, if their late oppressors are restored to power without restriction and restraint from the general government.

Again we are more than ever impressed with the importance that those who are in office should be men of sound minds, and of temperate habits, whose known principles, rather than any matters of expediency, shall recommend them for stations of responsibility and influence.

We also believe that our national legislation devolves, by the Constitution, upon the Congress of the U. S., and that each House must determine the qualifications of its members; and that our present Congress, in refusing seats to men who are still rebels at heart, and sent from States which are virtually in rebellion, merits the approval of every American patriot. Therefore,

Resolved, 1 That the events of the recent past teach us that our dependence must be upon God—for vain is the help of man—and that we earnestly pray that He will direct our rulers and our people, and imbue them with wisdom, with patriotism, and religious principle, and overrule all our affairs for His own glory and the promotion of righteousness,

Resolved, 2. That no less vigilance and earnest effort are required of Christian patriots now, than at any time during the past six years.

Resolved, 3. That only tried and proved men, of good morals, and especially temperate habits, should be brought before the people for their suffrages.

Resolved, 4. That Missionary labor and schools among the Freedmen, should be promoted to the full extent of the ability of the Church, and we, therefore, rejoice in the organization of the Freedmen's Aid Society of our Church, and our contributions to this cause shall be to this society.

Resolved, 5. That, as Ministers, we consider it, not only our right, but our duty, to exhibit the moral bearings of political questions, and urge upon Christians, that religion should always modify and direct in all their political action.

J. LUCCOCK, Chairman Committee.

7. On Education.

The Committee on Education take pleasure in making the following favorable report concerning the literary institutions within our bounds:

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Of this Institution, your Committee, upon careful examination of the report of the Trustees, are thankful to Almighty God for the success that has crowned the labors of those engaged in laying the foundations of a first class University.

We are highly gratified that, without pecuniary embarrassment, the necessary repairs have been made upon the building and grounds, and that such a large number of pupils are in attendance under the instruction of an efficient Faculty, which already has the prestige of success.

The munificent contributions of the public, during this centenary year of American Methodism, in raising a permanent endowment for the Institution, indicates to us its popularity, and the ardent appreciation of a surrounding public to its present and future interests.

We learn with much pleasure that the family of the late Senator Funk, have honored themselves, and testified their love to the Church of their honored parents, by endowing an Isaac Funk Professorship of Agriculture, by the gift of $10,000, and we trust this worthy beginning may extend soon to a Department worthy alike of the Church, and of the great agricultural State of Illinois.

We rejoice also in the fact that the Trustees have found themselves able to strengthen the Faculty, by the election of an additional Professor, W. R. Goodwin, A. M., late President of Brookville College.

Resolved, That we will, with increased attention to the interests of the Illinois Wesleyan University, co-operate with its Agent in our respective charges, in adding to its number of students.

We recommend the re-election, as Trustees, of D. C. Benjamin, J. S. Cummings, L. Hall and C. W. Holder, whose term of office expires at this time.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. O. S. Munsell, D. D., to the Presidency of the University, and the appointment of Rev. J. R. Jaques, A. M., to the chair of Ancient Languages.

We also ask the appointment of the following Visiting Committee :

R. Haney, P. A. Crist, C. C. Knowlton, E. D. Hall, P. T. Rhodes and W. H. Hunter.

HEDDING SEMINARY AND CENTRAL ILLINOIS FEMALE COLLEGE.

In the history of this institution, the past year has been one of the most marked for prosperity.

The attendance of students is large, numbering in all 245.

The institution bids fair to be self-supporting under the successful presidency of President John T. Dickinson, A. M., and an able corps of teachers.

We are further happy to learn that $50,000 is anticipated as the result of the centenary offerings toward its endowment this year.

The agency of Rev. F. M. Chaffee has been very successful the past year, and the reliable assets exceed the liabilities of the Institution, so with the favor of God, a glorious future of eminent usefulness is before it, in which we can confidently expect it to become a blessing to the Church for generations yet to come.

The religious influence of the Seminary is as pleasing to your Committee as to its friends generally, who can testify, during the last year, to the influence of the Faculty and society of that community in leading many souls to Christ.

We cannot too highly estimate the religious influence of our literary institutions and their bearings upon all the interests of the Church.

Resolved, That the following brethren be appointed Trustees of the third class, viz: Revs. B. C. Swarts, F. M. Chaffee and G. C. Woodruff; also, that Revs. H. Ritchie, G. M. Irwin, Wm. Watson, J. W. Haney, G. R. Palmer, W. J. Beck, J. Mathews and J. S. Millsaps, be appointed a Visiting Committee for the coming year.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY AND COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

We are highly gratified that this institution reports the most encouraging success, and is, we trust, placed on such a permanent foundation that it will stand second to none of a similar grade in our country. It is believed that they have a property well worth $15,000; also notes and claims collectable in excess of all liabilities.

Important changes and expenditures have been made to accommodate the increasing number of students. We learn also, with much pleasure, that an earnest effort has been made this centenary year, for a permanent endowment. Therefore,

Resolved, That Revs. S. G. Havermale, E. D. Hall, F. M. Chaffee, J. B. Craig and D. H. Kreidler, be appointed as a Visiting Committee for the coming year.

As the Rev. Geo. W. Gray has been elected to the chair of Mathematics in Quincy College, Therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend the Bishop to appoint Brother G. W. Gray to that chair.

GARRET BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

It is with much pleasure that we continue to hear the most cheering reports of the progress and prosperity of this Institution, and we trust that the most sanguine expectations of its friends will be more than realized in its near future. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we continue to recognize the G. B. Institute as one of our cherished Conference Institutions.

Resolved, 2. That Rev. John Lucecock and O. S. Munsell, D. D., be appointed a Visiting Committee to the Institute.

Respectfully submitted.

C. C. KNOWLTON, Chairman.

J. W. STEWART, Secretary.

LEXINGTON, September 22d, 1866.

W. H. HUNTER, Chairman.

B. C. SWARTS, Secretary.

I concur in the above—M. SIMPSON.

9. On Tract Cause.

The Committee on Tract Cause beg leave to report:

There has been collected the past year $232.16, being a decrease of $34.59 from the collections of the previous year. The Committee feel that there is a great lack of interest in the Tract Cause. Out of nearly one hundred and forty charges only seventy-six have reported Tract collections. We therefore offer the following resolution :

Resolved, That every pastor is expected to raise a Tract collection on his charge during the coming Conference year, and that an effort be made at least to double the collections of the past year.

W. J. BECK, Chairman.

S. C. MILLINGTON, Secretary.

10. On Temperance.

Your Committee on Temperance would present the following report for adoption.

Resolved, 1. That the increased facilities of temptation, the fearful prevalence of drunkenness, the laxity of temperance men, and the manifest frailty of all temperance organizations, unaided by the Church, call loudly for increased, immediate, and persistent action on the part of our Ministers and people.

2. That we will gladly co-operate with all vigorous Temperance Societies, and in so doing, aim at uniting against this monster evil the whole moral power of the country.

3. That as citizens, as Christians, and as Ministers, we will prudently, but persistently oppose the elevation to civil offices, all intemperate men.

4. That we re-affirm our former faith in the wisdom of legislative and municipal enactments for the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks, and will give our whole influence in favor of the passage and enforcement of the most efficient prohibitory laws.

5. That we will earnestly inculcate temperance in the Sabbath Schools, and preach at least one sermon on Temperance in all our charges during the year.

6. That we will, by precept and example, urge upon our people the moral wrong of feeding depraved appetites by tampering with domestic wines, ale, lager beer and tobacco.

[On behalf of the Committee.]

M. L. HANEY, Chairman.

J. MATHEWS, Secretary.

11. On Freedmen.

Your Committee appointed further to consider the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, respectfully report,

That at this late stage of our Conference it is not expedient to organize an auxiliary society at the present session. But would recommend the appointment of Rev. J. Chandler, our Conference Vice-President, a Committee to prepare a Constitution for such Society, to be presented to our Conference at its next session. We would present the following :

Resolved, That every preacher in charge be requested to bring the claims of said Society before their congregation, and take collections at the time of our annual Thanksgiving. And that the funds so collected be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

LEXINGTON, September 22d, 1866.

E. RANSON, } Committee.

12. On Church Extension.

Your Committee are happy to be able to report that a Church Extension Society, connected with our denomination, is no longer something merely desirable and in contemplation, but an accomplished fact. The multiplication of houses of worship, at all proper points through our growing country is indispensable, if we keep pace with the increase of the population and bring to bear upon it in the most efficient manner the soul-saving influence of the Gospel. In addition to regular calls for aid in this work, the special necessities of the sections opened by the results of the late civil war, require present and liberal attention. The appeals to assist in building up the altars of God there, among the loyal whites and the Freedmen, cannot be allowed to pass unheeded. To enable the Parent Society to do this great work, it must have from our ministry and people everywhere, such a support as will show that we consider this to be among the chief agencies on which we depend to assist in "spreading Scriptural Holiness throughout all these lands."

Your Committee respectfully submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the successful inauguration of the Church Extension movement among us, is a matter in which we greatly rejoice; and that coming with the Centennial year of American Methodism, we trust that the Church-Extension Society of our Church, will prove to be a most efficient contributor to the development of our denominational strength, and the up-building of Christ's Kingdom in this land through all coming time.

2. That we will faithfully take up, in all our appointments, the collection in behalf of the Church-Extension Society, ordered in the Discipline.

3. That in view of the vital relation which this Society sustains to the prosperity of Methodism, we will endeavor to secure a response to its claims, second only to that given to our general Missionary cause, and will report the collections in the same manner as our Missionary collections are now reported.

WM. UNDERWOOD, Chairman.

JAMES W. HANEY, Secretary.

13. Resolutions Adopted.

1. Resolved, That we tender our thanks to brother J. S. Millsaps, for his constant labor and untiring zeal, which he has manifested in providing us with comfortable homes during our stay among this people.

2. That the generous and pleasant entertainment given by the citizens of Lexington to this Conference, merits our most cordial thanks; and that we shall cherish pleasing recollections of our visit as a Conference, to Lexington.

3. That we also thank the pastors of the Churches here for their courtesies extended to this Conference.

4. That we tender a vote of thanks to Bishop Simpson, for the able manner in which he has acted as our presiding officer; and for the eloquent manner in which he addressed the public. And that he will carry with him our earnest prayers for long life and future usefulness.

5. That Rev. R. Haney be requested to furnish a copy of his Centenary Sermon for publication with our Conference Minutes; and that the Committee on Conference Minutes be instructed to publish the sermon with the minutes.

6. That the Bishops be requested to fix the time for our Conference Sessions in the last week in August, or the first week in September, if it is practicable for them to do so.

WHEREAS, The Rev. F. M. Chaffee, Agent of the Hedding Seminary, prior to the publication of the programme of the Conference Centenary Committees, received subscriptions to Hedding Seminary as Centenary offerings, but which technically do not come within the programme of the Committee:

Resolved, That Brother Chaffee be requested to furnish a list of such donations to the several pastors of the parties making them, and that they be instructed to enter the proper credit on the Centenary Record.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE CASE OF A. P. HULL.

SEPTEMBER 19, 1866.

To the Central Illinois Conference :

The Committee to whom the case of A. P. Hull was referred, having heard the statements of Brother Borland, P. E., and of Brother Hull, are of the opinion, unanimously, that Brother Hull was indiscreet in repeating as fact that which was mere rumor; that he was sometimes rash and unguarded in his expressions; and that he manifested a spirit of insubordination in refusing to submit to a change of his pastoral charge when proposed by his P. E. But in view of some extenuations known to the Committee, we do not think the case requires any further investigation, and, therefore, recommend that his character pass.

A. MAGEE, Chairman.

NOTE.—The above Report did not come to hand in time to be inserted with the other Reports, hence it is inserted here.—PRINTER.

CENTENARY SERMON,

PREACHED BEFORE THE CENTRAL ILLINOIS CONFERENCE ON SUNDAY,
SEPTEMBER 23D, 1866.

BY REV. R. HANEY,

[Published by request of Conference.]

ISAIAH IV, 12. "For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace."

WHAT wonderful and mysterious lessons we are taught in the providence of God. When men undertake the disenthralment of an empire they build navies, equip armies, monopolize the press, and gather the omnipotence of public opinion. God takes a little child by the hand, and the work is done. To break up caste, and overthrow the institutions sanctioned by the approval of accumulated ages, His providence has placed an exile in a foreign land, and from the bottom of the lion's den, the shout of victory proclaims the overthrow of idolatry in one hundred and twenty-seven provinces.

One hundred and thirty years ago, five young men, while attending Oxford College, saw, while reading the Greek Testament, that men must be holy or they cannot be saved. At this time, from so small a commencement, began that wonderful revival of primitive christianity and apostolic zeal, which in the language of our venerable founder, is to "spread scriptural holiness over these lands," and now may be found in every zone.

A minister in the National Church, in which he lived and died, Mr.

Wesley, as his followers have always believed, never intended that a distinct ecclesiastical organization claiming him as their founder, should ever rise in the earth. In this, however, God "led him by a way he had not known." After witnessing the wonderful display of divine power in the conversion of the multitudes who attended his ministry wherever he went, in the year 1739, in the City of London, he formed the first society. With a simplicity and power which showed most clearly that the work was of God, he waited the opening of the door of God's providential indications, and then with a zeal which has not been equaled since the days of the Apostles, he addressed himself to the work, and throughout his long and eventful life, whether preaching to thousands, explaining saving faith to a heart-broken penitent, or in the hands of a merciless mob, "Lord what wilt thou have me do," seems ever to have been the language of his heart. And how he did his work, the church and world know by heart.

Wrapped in the fire of prophetic vision, the old seers had declared that "many should run to and fro, and knowledge should be increased," and when the Lord from heaven had redeemed our world and "brought life and immortality to light," having selected the heralds who were to carry the glad tidings, He commanded them to go into all the world and preach His gospel to every creature, and as long as the heralds carried out the divine command, the work spread wonderfully, and the darkness of ages was receding from the face of the earth; but when they ceased to itinerate they became secular—the church lost her moral power, and long ages of spiritual darkness covered her with a pall. From Constantine to Luther, the church seems to have "retired into the wilderness."

From the sending forth of the disciples to convert the world until this day, whenever and wherever the church puts on her strength, two things, an itinerant ministry and a missionary spirit, have been her prominent and peculiar characteristics. The reformation of the sixteenth century was not an exception.

Luther, Calvin, Zwingle and Knox, all, not only wrote, but like Wesley, traveled extensively, and wherever these characteristics fail to appear in the church, the cloud has settled upon the ark and Israel remains within her tents.

Whoever undertakes the study of methodism, as he follows along her pathway, will find himself traveling with the grandest missionary movement that has ever been seen upon this earth. Methodism and the missionary spirit cannot be separated. This was her spirit when God called her into existence, and having always walked hand in hand, should they ever become separated, methodism would be a body without a soul, and the power which forms the first, if not the most striking peculiarity of our Israel, will have passed away. Whether at home or in distant lands, looking after the lost, and leading men to God, her success may be measured by the potency of her missionary spirit which animates the hearts of ministry and membership. Dr. Coke was the most indefatigable missionary that has lived since St. Paul. After visiting the greater portions of England, Ireland, Scotland, the West Indies, the British Provinces and the United States, in all of which he established missions, and when he was an old man, early in the present century, during the last session of the British conference he ever attended, he plead eloquently for the heathen.

“Give me” said this wonderful man, “give me six young men to go with me. You will break my heart if you say no.” Such an appeal will never be made in vain to the followers of John Wesley. His prayer was granted.

On his way to the heathen, in company with the six young missionaries, far out on the Indian Ocean, the death angel came in the stillness of night; and when, the next morning, the young missionaries opened the door of his room, there lay the body of Dr. Coke on the floor, where he had offered his last prayer for the conversion of the world. His spirit had ascended to heaven. Dr. Coke commanded the van of our advancing missionary host, and when the rear-guard shall have passed the gates of heaven, then, and not until then, will it be known what this missionary accomplished. More than half a century has passed away since this standard bearer fainted, and standing as we do at the close of the first century of our existence as a denomination, should any ask, “has the Church since then lost her missionary spirit?” let our German, African and Indian mission conferences and our stations in South America, Bulgaria, China and Scandinavia, to say nothing of missions, domestic and among our own foreign population at home, answer the question. We record with gratitude to God that the sun never sets upon our mission fields, and this year the mission board has appropriated one million dollars. The fields abroad are white to the harvest, and by the abolition of slavery a door has been opened for our church in this country which promises wonderful results.

In the year 1766, in a sail loft, where now stands the John street Methodist church in the city of New-York, five persons had met for prayer. They were emigrants from the North of Ireland. Two of that number are to be remembered until the end of time. Phillip Embury and his aunt, Barbara Heck—converted under Mr. Wesley's ministry, and by him Embury had been licensed to preach. After coming to this country, he neglected his duty, until, as we are told, while leading the others in prayer, his aunt rose from her knees, and laying her hands upon his head, said, "Phillip, preach to us, or our blood will be required at your hands." Rising to his feet, he preached to them, and at the instance of this elect lady, he formed them into a society, and thus Barbara Heck became the foundress of American Methodism. That was the handful of corn planted in the earth upon the top of the mountains, the fruit of which now shakes like Lebanon.

Within a few years from this time, other methodist emigrants having come to this country, and settling in different places, and being without pastors, they importuned Mr. Wesley to send them ministers who would break to them the bread of life in the wilderness. In 1773, at conference, Mr. Asbury informed Mr. Wesley that God had called him to go to America. The spirit of the Lord which moved the mighty Sampson in the camp of Dan had at times moved the heart of Asbury to go to the new world. Whether the ordination of Francis Asbury and Mr. Wesley's sending him here were in the order of God's providence, let the multitudes who have already gained their rest in heaven, and the millions in this country who are following those holy men to Abraham's bosom, answer.

Of the glory of the coming future we may not speak. Shortly after Mr. Asbury's arrival in this country, the Revolutionary war broke out, which greatly impeded the work. When peace was declared, and our country took her place among the nations of the earth, Bishops Asbury and Coke waited upon President Washington, and history says the methodists were the first body of christians who assured him they were the friends of civil and religious liberty. The first conference was organized June, 1773, in the city of Philadelphia. We had then ten preachers, and eleven hundred and sixty members. We have now seven thousand traveling, and nine thousand local preachers, and one million of members. This does not include the church south and other smaller bodies who have left the old church. In reviewing this, the first century of our denomination, we may well exclaim, "What hath God wrought." If it opened with our fathers gloriously, it is closing upon the children of the third generation with the conviction upon every heart that the conversion of the world cannot be far off.

The men who, under God, laid the foundations and died upon the walls of our zion, were wonderful men. They founded societies, organized circuits, districts and annual conferences. With a salary of sixty dollars per year, these self-sacrificing men went every where from the Atlantic sea board to the wilderness of the great West, pioneering the way of civilization as well as christianity. With a contempt for the honors of the world, and with a zeal the world has not seen since the days of the apostles, they endured as seeing him who is invisible.

Worthy successors of those who, for Christ's sake, took joyfully the spoiling of their goods and the confiscation of their estates, "clothed in sheep skins and goat skins, they wandered from place to place, dwelling in mountains, dens, and caves of the earth," while their unwavering faith and moral heroism proclaimed that Jehovah's chivalry were preparing for the marriage supper of the lamb. Among those whose names are to be associated in our history, Bishop Asbury will ever be assigned the post of honor. The first Bishop in the Western Hemisphere, and more than fifty years in the christian ministry, enduring more hardships, preaching more sermons than any man who ever toiled for the Master on this continent. He presided at more conferences, and ordained more ministers than any other Bishop the church has ever raised up; and although he has long since left the field of toil for the haven of rest, his name is cherished, and his character and labors will be studied more and more as the ages pass away. It is unnecessary to go into a minute detail of what, under God, Bishop Asbury and his co-laborers have done. The church is bringing her thank offering into the courts of the Lord's house, while all over the earth her people are putting on their strength for the harvest of the world.

The book concern and our periodical literature were in their infancy at the time of Mr. Asbury's death. The infant has become a mighty giant, and we speak innocently when we say that the Methodist Church, during the first hundred years of her existence, has produced more books and learned men than have ever appeared in the world in the same length of time. Mr. Wesley, Dr. Clarke, Joseph Benson and Richard Watson in the old, and Drs. Whedon and Nast in the new world. These men, in theology, are assigned the first rank, and their writings are found in the libraries of the greater part of the ministers and members of other denominations in all parts of the earth.

Samuel Drew, as a Metaphysician, stands first, and Chas. Wesley, Dr. Watts being judge, stands without a rival as a christian poet.

The hymns of our sweet singer may be found in every collection for divine worship; and having been translated into other languages, are sung to the praise of God all over the globe.

Our church has ever been the friend and patron of learning. Mr. Wesley had his Kingswood school for young ministers, and in this country, during the life of Asbury and Coke, among the first things undertaken were the founding of institutions of learning. It is characteristic of our people that they accomplish great results with little means, and such a word as failure is not known in our vocabulary. If those who come after us build upon the foundation already laid, and carry to completion the institutions already in existence, the wants of the church will be met for generations to come in those parts of our country now covered by population. From our literary institutions, found throughout the whole church, we are expecting great things.

That wonderful auxiliary to the church, the Sunday School, was early introduced into the church. From the first, our people, with whom the Sunday School originated, have carried it forward with wonderful success. Miss Hannah Ball, a Methodist lady, seeing some children playing in the streets upon the Sabbath, suggested the idea to Mr. Raikes of forming a Sunday School; which he did at once.—As they lived and died in the same work, so let them live in history in all coming time. Wherever we have organized schools and carefully attended to the religious training of the children, we have been prospered. To neglect it would be disastrous. If in this department we have gone beyond others, it is because of the adaptation of our system to the work. We go everywhere and to every one, and it is patent to all, that when other churches want to send out agents to establish Sabbath Schools, they prefer Methodist ministers to any other. They have better success.

The catholicity of our church is acknowledged all over the world. We have never been charged with sectarian bigotry. The church has not lived and labored for herself exclusively. Thousands who were converted at her altars may be found in other churches, and while others have been gathering largely of her fruits, she has permeated the doctrines of every church, and changed the theology of christendom. "Go," said Bishop Simpson to Dr. Butler, when giving him directions touching his contemplated operations in India, "go as far as you can from all others. Go where none have ever been. Let methodism pioneer her way in India. She never travels in the wake of others." This is the spirit which characterized our Israel from the first. And, indeed, we do not know how to build ourselves up by pulling others down. Our ministers and people for three generations have moved straight forward to accomplish the work the master has given them to do. And this will be done in our own way, for we never fight in borrowed armor.

In an address to his people, Mr. Wesley once said, "If you become proud, go after the rich and neglect the poor, I pray God to root you out of the land of the living." Our church has ever been the friend of the poor. We gather the masses, and this tells why to-day we control one fourth of the wealth of the United States; and one fifth of her population attend upon our ministry.

God has scattered endless variety throughout all his works. Hence it is not a matter of surprise that He should have raised up one church upon earth, in her polity, different from all others. With a power the philosophy of the world cannot understand, and with primitive simplicity, she is seen moving upon the masses, and in this, our first centenary, we behold her building and paying for two churches every day in the year. We do not claim to have made any new discoveries in theology; neither have we anything novel in our polity, but are simply carrying out the faith and practice of the primitive church. Prominent among the doctrines of the Bible, with our people and ministers, are, the total depravity of the human heart, the universality of the atonement, justification by faith alone, and the direct witness of the Holy Ghost, with the believing heart; and that we must be made holy in this life, or we cannot be saved.

We never contract with our people for a salary. We do not wait for them to come and call us—we go and call them. Every traveling minister has a field of labor, and all our congregations are supplied with pastors. Others are stationary—we itinerate. With us, the people do not choose their pastors, and our ministers never select their fields of labor. Upon this mutual surrender of our people and ministers our itinerancy rests.

To see a million of church members cheerfully declining to select their pastor, and seven thousand ministers toiling from year to year with a bare competency for themselves and families, going any where that God and his church shall direct, exhibits a self-sacrificing devotion worthy the commendation of all.

The wonderful results of our itinerancy for a hundred years have left the conviction upon the hearts of all, that it is the will of God; that we hold fast the form of sound words, and from generation to generation never remove the "ancient land marks our fathers have set." In this we are the more convinced when we remember that other churches who were in this country one hundred years before us with a local ministry, have long been left in the rear, while the success that has attended our itinerancy has surprised and astonished the world.

We have had in this country a number of secessions. Some of these took place early in our history; but these have never been the result of differences in doctrine. There has never been a controversy in our church upon that point. Differing with us upon church government and failing to mould our polity to suit their views, they left us and formed organizations differing from ours only in church government. What has been the result? Have they gathered strength by the change? Have they been more successful in winning souls to Christ? Have the clouds of God's providential indications left our ark? And has He been thus showing us from time to time that it is His will that we should abandon our peculiarities and become like other people? We think not.

No minister with us ever takes an appointment for more than one year, and never remains on one field of labor more than three years out of six. Yet it is universally admitted that the permanency of the pastoral relation is found in the methodist church more than any other in existence. Our people and ministers admiring and loving our economy, we shall pass it down to our children as we received it from the hands of our fathers. We pay ourselves no compliment when we say that, under God, the world must be converted through the agency of an itinerant ministry. None other will ever accomplish the work. We believe that God in His word and in history clearly indicates this. Mr. Wesley in the old, and Asbury in the new world, set an example worthy the imitation of their sons and successors.

And from their day to ours, all along the pathway have been kindled the fires of a genuine heroism and a martyr's zeal. We cannot forget that Holland and Kelly were brave in the hands of a southern mob. And Andrew Bewley upon the plains of Texas, connected Fort Worth with Roman dungeons and the fires of Smithfield. And to-day we most devoutly thank God that the religion of Jesus is as powerful to save upon the Mississippi and St. Lawrence as it was eighteen hundred and thirty-four years ago, when the disciples left the upper room in the city of Jerusalem and moved for the conversion of the world. The holy lives and triumphant deaths of our people prove it.

Illinois first appears upon the minutes in 1804—Benjamin Young, missionary. Within that part of the State now covered by the Central Illinois Conference, the first society was formed by Jesse Walker in the spring of 1825, in Peoria. Walker was then on his way to visit the Indian tribes North and West of where Chicago now stands. In company with Mr. John Hamlin and six others, they ascended in a Mackinaw boat, the Illinois, Kankakee and DesPlaines rivers. "Walker," says Mr. Hamlin, "had prayers with us night and morning, and as we laid too early every afternoon, the old pioneer would line hymn after hymn, and he and the boys made the woods ring with old methodist hymns." He also formed a society where Lewistown now stands, Daniel McNeil leader, and one upon Totten's Prairie, with John Harris for leader. Both of these venerable men are still living. Brother Walker came to Illinois in 1807. He preached the first protestant sermon in St. Louis, and formed the first society of our church in Missouri.

He was from one of the Carolinas, and having traveled and preached in Indiana, Missouri and Illinois, upon his farm given him by the Indians when they disposed of their lands to the United States, on the 5th day of October, 1835, the old pioneer warrior struck his tent preparatory to the grand march.

Samuel H. Thompson was the first Presiding Elder, being here when his district embraced the States of Indiana, Missouri and Illinois. William See was the first regularly appointed traveling preacher west of the Illinois river, being here in the Autumn of 1826. The first quarterly meeting was held in Lewistown in 1827, Peter Cartwright, P. E. At this time was held the first love-feast and sacramental meeting within our bounds. At this place was born the first white child, Lucinda Ross, in 1821. John Addis died near Canton in 1826, being the first member of our church who passed from earth in full assurance of eternal life.

William Cundiff was the first traveling preacher who died within our bounds. A native of the south, a holy man and a good preacher, his memory is still cherished by the old men who fought at his side. He died in 1839, while traveling the Hennepin Circuit.

Brother Henderson Ritchie is the first native preacher, having been born, converted, licensed to preach, and graduated to elders orders within the bounds of our conference. The first house of worship was built in 1831, four miles West of Canton—was a small frame and called Wesley Chapel. It stood on the North side of the road opposite where now stands Moore's Chapel. John Jordan was the first man licensed to preach, his license bearing date 1831. This venerable man, yet living, has labored and preached at one hundred camp-meetings.

The first session of our conference was held in 1856. We had then eighty-six traveling preachers, eleven thousand one hundred and two members and probationers. We have now one hundred and seventy-five preachers and two thousand one hundred and twenty-seven members and probationers. Since the organization of our conference eighteen of our fellow laborers have fallen in the work.

Wilson Head, William Brewer, Abbot Goddard, Nimrod H. Gregg, Jonas J. Hedstrom, J. Soule, Wm. Wilson, J. T. Whitson, A. D. McCool, G. G. Green, B. P. Wheat, J. O. Gilbert, S. B. Baker, D. O. Carmack, P. I. Williams, J. C. Knowlton, R. H. Moffett, and Myron Dewey. These brethren sleep in honored graves, and we shall cherish their memory until our re-union in heaven.

Of the honored dead who have ever labored within our bounds, without disparaging others it may safely be said that Jesse Walker, Samuel H. Thompson, Peter R. Borein, and Ashael E. Phelps would have been men of renown in any age of the world; and Americans and Scandinavians will remember Jonas J. Hedstrom as long as the Methodist Episcopal Church shall gather within her folds the children of Sweden.

When, in 1861, the foul spirit of slavery struck for the life of our government, and it became evident that the battle of the world between slavery and liberty was to be fought on this continent, our conference held no equivocal position.

True to their principles and the faith of their fathers, our people rose in their might with a unanimity which can only be comprehended when we remember that God has the hearts of the children of men in the hollow of His hand. The old men sent their sons, and the younger and middle aged brethren, believing that the time had come when the man who had no sword should procure one, repaired to the field. In every neighborhood the voice of our ministers could be heard encouraging the loyal and gathering supplies for the sick and wounded. Some shouldered the musket, others went as officers and chaplains in the army and hospitals, and four of our brethren who were with us when the war cloud burst upon us, gave their lives for their country. And though the names of Whitson, Knowlton, Williams and Green will never be called again in our conference, their names are upon the death-roll of our country's patriots.

Our Church sent to the front one hundred and seventy-five thousand warriors. And we shall not be charged with extravagance when we say that in the six hundred and twenty-five battles fought for the life of the government of Washington and Lincoln, the blood of methodists baptized the soil of every battle-field.

With us it would be difficult to find a congregation in which you cannot meet the bereaved mother, broken-hearted widow and orphans, whose son, husband or father, sleeps in a soldier's grave. They come to our churches for sympathy and consolation. During the four years the war lasted, at each annual session, our conference resolutions sent words of cheer to our brave countrymen in the field and sympathy and co-operation with the State and General Government; and the Central Illinois Conference was the first ecclesiastical body upon this continent who moved the President to proclaim the liberty of every slave in the United States. Of this we do not boast, but place it here for those who are to come after us, when any shall ask where stood our ministers and people in this night of darkness. What we affirm of our conference may be said of the whole church. We have no pastorate that would receive or support a disloyal man. We shall ever be true to God and humanity. Our past history has told the world what our future will be.

Standing as we do between the two centuries, may we catch the fire of the fathers in the retrospect, while in prospect we see the glories that settle upon our beloved zion. Let the failures of the past century teach us lessons of prudence and caution; let the victories of the past cheer us forward in the grand march; let the responsibilities of the present, and the glory of our future nerve us to renewed, self-sacrificing and consecrated toil in our Master's vineyard.

And to the duties of the coming century may we "go out with joy and be led forth with peace."

COMMON - SCHOOL DECISIONS.

SECOND EDITION—REVISED AND ENLARGED.

CONTAINS:

- I.—THE COMMON-SCHOOL LAWS OF THE STATE, WITH ALL THE LATE AMENDMENTS.
- II.—AN EXAMINATION AND EXPLANATION OF EACH SECTION OF THE AMENDATORY ACT OF FEBRUARY 16, 1865.
- III.—THE OFFICIAL DECISIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS OF THE STATE SUPERINTENDENTS, AND THE DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT IN RELATION TO COMMON SCHOOLS.

The whole work has been carefully revised, and is much enlarged, containing about seventy pages of entirely new matter. The official decisions are confirmed by copious references to, and citations of, judicial authorities. To this end, the Supreme Court Reports have been carefully and exhaustively searched. It is hoped that this feature of the work will make it of some value to members of the bar, in the management of cases arising under the School-Laws of the State. The number of decisions is nearly doubled; embracing a wide range and great variety of subjects, all of a practical nature. It is believed that questions can hardly arise under our present school-laws upon which some light, if not a definite answer, will not be found in the three hundred decisions of this volume. Forms of all the more common and necessary school instruments are added, for the convenience of school officers. The index to the official and judicial decisions will be found more copious and exhaustive than before.

The aim, throughout, has been to render the work a plain, practical, and reliable, and no pains have been spared to accomplish that end. The unexpected favor with which the first edition was received, and the assurances of its usefulness which have been given from every portion of the State, have prompted the reissue of the work, in its present enlarged and improved form.

COMMON-SCHOOL MANUAL;

As this book is prepared for the especial purpose of aiding school officers in the discharge of their official duties, they may lawfully purchase and pay for it out of the school-funds.

A STATEMENT.

This edition of the Minutes has been published under embarrassing circumstances. With no money in the Treasury, we were obliged to borrow to meet our contract with the printer. The Conference subscription for minutes was too small to justify publishing an edition that could be made profitable, without causing the price per copy to seem exorbitant.

There may be errors, but I trust they will be looked upon with a degree of indulgence. It is due Brother Evans to say that he has not been able to give any attention to the preparation of the minutes for the press, since he was excused from Conference Session to attend the death of his little boy.

We shall, Providence permitting, be prepared to publish the Minutes next year with correctness and dispatch.

Onarga Commercial College !

The First Chartered Commercial College in the Land Belonging to a Religious Denomination !

Established with a view of offering to young gentlemen and ladies the very best facilities for acquiring a Thorough Business Education.

It has a decided advantage over those located in cities, being under the patronage of a Church, while all sectarianism is strictly avoided; the culture of the heart, as well as the mind, receives attention. Being located in a small but beautiful village, the health will be generally good; temptations to vice will be few, and the expenses of tuition and board not more than one-half what they are in the city. It has a THEORY DEPARTMENT and a PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT. Science of Accounts, Commercial Calculations, and Business Correspondence, taught in a most practical manner.

PENMANSHIP.—An experienced teacher and splendid penman has charge of the Writing Department, and teaches the Spencerian system.
