H. L. Merrick, Mrs. C. F. Jay, and Mrs. W. G. Hale, relinquish their claim for this year.

We recommend that the sum of $11,000.00 be apportioned to the charges to be raised next year.

For members of the Board we recommend F. M. Van Treese and J. W. Flint to serve three years; L. W. Thrall and B. A. Hoar to serve two years; J. Y. Reid and J. C. Kinison to serve one year; also J. B. Stout and W. O. Edwards to serve one year as laymen.

Officers of the Board—

F. M. VAN TREESE, President.

J. W. FLINT, Secretary.

J. Y. REID, Treasurer.

Respectfully,

J. W. FLINT, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

That there is an increase among Church members in the matter of Sabbath non-observance is cause for alarm. Our Saviour, Christ said, "It is lawful to do well on the Sabbath day"; but our people in doing, do much that is not "well" on the Sabbath day.

Therefore, be it resolved that we discourage by precept and example every custom which does violence to the sacredness of the day, or tends to deprive some of the benefits of its blessing; among which customs we make mention of the following: Patronizing of the grocery stores, meat markets, confectioneries, and news stands; the taking of long and tiresome automobile drives; the beginning of long railroad journeys, all of which lead not only to the spiritual poverty of the patron, but also of those patronized.

H. W. SMOOT, Chairman.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, That we, the members of the Southern Illinois Conference, extend our hearty thanks and appreciation to the members of the Robinson Methodist Episcopal Church for the very cordial welcome accorded us, for all the provisions and facilities afforded for conducting the affairs of the Conference. And the people of Robinson, who have so graciously opened their homes to and so royally entertained us and to the entertainment committee which has so earnestly and zealously performed its functions.

To the pastor, M. H. Loar, who in his fine fraternal spirit has labored so untiringly for the comfort and happiness of all in attendance, and who has left nothing undone to make this Conference an helpful and inspiring one.

To Bishop William A. Quayle, who has conducted the affairs of the Conference with such a fine brotherly spirit and for the inspiring and helpful addresses and the masterful lecture given to the great delight and satisfaction of all.

To the Choir and Organist, and to J. D. Shaddrick, George A. Preston, and the Conference Quartette, for the splendid music and unselfish service they have given.

To the city papers for all kindnesses shown.

To J. W. Hopper, Conference Postmaster, for his ever faithful and painstaking care in the performance of his work.

And to all who have contributed in any way to make this Conference the great success that it is.

M. C. FOLTZ.

C. H. SPRAGG.

FREEDMEN'S AID

The work of this Society has been carried on for fifty years. The General Conference authorized and directed each pastor to observe the Lincoln Day Anniversary, February 11, 1917, as a Semi-Centennial celebration.

As a result of the work of the Society we have 350,000 colored members and 2,000 ministers to supply these with pastors and intelligent Christian leaders. The twenty-one schools of the Freedmen's Aid Society with their 351 teachers and 5,804 students must be maintained. The solution of the race problem is not to be found wholly on industrial and commercial lines. The uplift of a race means in addition moral and spiritual standards in accordance with the teachings of Jesus, and these are secured only through the Christian school and the Christian Church. To maintain our present standards and advance them further, we must maintain our Church schools.

We recommend, therefore, that each pastor observe Lincoln Day as directed by the General Conference, and that in addition to raising the full apportionment for the work of the Society, an effort be made to secure subscriptions toward a Thankoffering of $100,000 to be used for new buildings and increased equipment sorely needed by these schools.

We further recommend that the program and literature prepared by the society be distributed in our Sunday Schools and public congregations. This literature can be secured on request without cost by sending to the office of the society at 220 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, O., a postal card request.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. CUMMINS, Chairman.

H. A. LITHERLAND, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE

Recognizing the Bible as the Word of God and the one infallible guide for faith and practice, we urge all our people to read it daily in private and in the family circle. We rejoice in the work done by the American Bible Society in its efforts to reach men of all language, and urge all our people to give it their earnest support.

RESOLUTIONS

Organic Union

Rejoicing with Christian people in the prospect of a speedy union of the two great families of the Methodist Church in our land, and that all of the plans are soon to be put in operation to perfect the desired union; therefore, be it

Resolved, first, That the Southern Illinois Conference will hail with delight the consummation of the long-prayed-for union.

Resolved, second, That as we are one of the border Conferences, having within our bounds the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that we will begin as early as possible to practice this spirit of active union in our midst.

Resolved, third, That when this good time shall have come, we hope not later than the end of this quadrennium, that we join in singing a doxology of praise to Him who prayed the Father "That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me."

B. A. HOAR.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

1. We call your attention to the fact that the committee on foreign missions at the General Conference gave much consideration to the report of the secretaries of the board, which has been sent to every pastor under the title of "The World Situation." Among other things this committee recommends:

(a) That the income of the Board of Foreign Missions and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society be doubled, in order to meet adequately the needs of our work.

(b) That an endowment be created, the income to be used for our educational institutions abroad, and to provide for the administrative part of our work.

(c) That large special sums should be secured for the erection of buildings and the proper equipment for hospitals and educational institutions throughout the world.

2. Reports at the General Conference also show that while there was a great advance in membership during the last quadrennium, our giving to benevolences did not keep pace. So far as foreign missions is concerned our contributions per member per year was forty-nine cents, while that of the Presbyterian Church was one dollar and twenty-nine cents, and that of the United Presbyterian Church two dollars and fifty-seven cents.

We wish to commend these points to the attention of the Conference and urge hearty coöperation.

3. (a) We wish, further, to commend to our district superintendents, the departments of foreign evangelism established by the parent board, through which they offer to send missionary teams into any district where desired for the purpose of creating missionary education and enthusiasm.

(b) To our entire people—The periodicals of the board, the World Outlook and Missionary News, and many helpful pamphlets made available to us.

(c) And, lastly, the call to earnest, intercessory prayer for the war-stricken Methodists in Europe and its foreign dependents, and in Mexico at our door; and for all the field, both that God may bless the missionaries and give hearts to the reception of the gospel.

We are devoutly thankful to God for the mass movement in India, the continuing revival in Korea and the Philippines, and the literati movement in China, and pledge our support and prayer for the future as well as for the Thru the Year Evangelistic Company in Japan.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONMcKendree College

Your committee on education rejoices in the progress and present outlook of McKendree College. Under the inspirational leadership of President H. W. Hurt, LL.D., new courses in Bible Study, Social Service, and College History are being offered and the other departments of this glorious old institution are being strengthened.

We recommend that the district superintendents request each pastor to prepare a constituency roll of his charge, upon blanks to be furnished by the college authorities, by means of which the activities, plans and needs of McKendree College may be made known to our entire Methodism in southern Illinois. It shall be understood that such roll shall be available when permission is granted by the presiding Bishop of the Conference for the use of any general church board.

We recommend the appointment of a Board of Lay Visitors, correlated with the Board of Ministerial Visitors, whose selection shall be made by the president of the college with the approval of the Board of Trustees after consultation with the pastors.

We recommend that in harmony with the action of the last General Conference an annual Conference Board of Education shall be established to fulfill all the functions of such board as outlined in the discipline, and we nominate the following to constitute that board for the years 1916 and 1917: Revs. J. W. Cummins, Ralph Wakefield, W. H. Whitlock, O. F. Culver, G. R. Goodman and Messrs. C. M. Roos, P. M. Johnson, Frank Condrey, Dr. Harry C. Moss and John Abbott.

We nominate visitors to McKendree College as follows:

For one year—J. G. Tucker, C. L. Peterson, J. D. Shaddrick.

For two years—C. Harmon, W. T. Cline, W. H. Whitlock.

For three years—O. F. Culver, M. H. Loar, J. W. Cummins.

Alternates—F. O. Wilson, W. I. Terhune, L. S. McCown.

Schools of Theology

We commend the splendid work of our schools of theology and urgently suggest that our young ministers secure the enlarged equipment which they afford through their splendid courses of study.

We nominate the following seminary visitors:

Garrett—C. C. Hall, Alternate W. H. Whitlock.

Boston—E. T. Carroll.

Drew—Ralph Wakefield.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION

James C. Baker, Director

A substantial beginning has been made this year toward the realization of the plans for the social and religious care of students at the University of Illinois. Citizens of Urbana-Champaign have raised $50,000 to pay for the Wesley Foundation site. This site is central and adequate for present purposes. It is ideal in its location.

The trustees at their annual meeting voted to draw plans at once for the erection of the first building—the social center—at a cost of $100,000. An anonymous friend made the first contribution toward this building, a cash gift of $10,000. Additional special gifts are $5,000 from the Rev. M. P. Wilkin, and $500 from the Rev. L. F. Walden.

Trinity Church has had the most successful year of its history in its work for students. A new feature of its work was a training class in Rural Church Service conducted by Dr. C. L. Stewart. Sixty students enrolled, all of whom expect to spend their life in rural districts. The work was eminently practical and the class attendance averaged ninety per cent of the enrollment. Because the Trinity Church building could not accommodate the numbers of students enrolled for Bible study, the authorities of the University of Illinois granted temporary quarters in the Transportation Building.

Board of Education

The Children's Day collections, assisting 23,386 students during its history and 2,288 this year is a most deserving agency for good.

We rejoice in the projected educational jubilee and commend it to our people to support.

We recognize in the Christian student a helpful agency in the propagation of the educational interests of the Church.

The Educational Collection

Realizing that funds intended for the endowment of our Conference educational institutions may be unintentionally diverted from their intended channel by improper returns being made to the Conference treasurer by the pastors, we recommend:

That the district superintendents instruct the pastors at the fourth quarterly Conference relevant to their educational returns, so that the division of 80% to the Conference institution and 20% to the General Board shall not infringe upon funds given toward the permanent endowment of our local educational institution.

Woman's College

Rejoicing in the splendid and distinctive work of the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville and in its enlarged endowments, we commend it to our young women.

We nominate as visitor to this institution, P. R. Glotfelty.

O. F. CULVER, Chairman.

RALPH WAKEFIELD, Secretary.

CHURCH INSURANCE

In view of the fact that many of our congregations have been through a great financial strain to build and maintain our church property throughout Methodism; and in view of the fact that many of our churches and parsonages are being destroyed by fire, lightning, tornado, etc., and in many of these places the people are not financially able to rebuild;

Resolved, That we, the Committee on Church Insurance, urge upon all our preachers to insist upon all our congregations taking out insurance on both church and parsonage at the earliest possible moment in the Methodist Mutual Church Insurance.

J. E. SHAFER,
S. D. BERST.

COMMISSION OF FINANCE

An adequate financial support is indispensable to the propagation of the kingdom of Christ. Giving of one's material substance to the maintenance of the church in her world-wide work is a means of grace and truly an act of worship. Be it therefore resolved:

1. That we rejoice in the improved methods of finance adopted by our General Conference, and that we diligently instruct our people in the duties and blessings of Christian Stewardship as enjoined by our Discipline, and that we urge the adoption of the New Financial Plan on all our charges.

2. That in addition to providing for our regular benevolences, we open our pulpits at such intervals as the needs may demand and the work of the local church may permit, to the representatives of McKendree College, the Conference Claimants' Endowment Commission, the Orphans' Home, the Old People's Home, the Slavonic settlement work, and the Anti-Saloon League.

3. That we carefully protect our official benevolences from the multiplicity of nonofficial appeals often from irresponsible persons, and that our regular boards and benevolent and educational institutions afford unexcelled opportunities for the upbuilding of the cause of Christ and the salvation of souls.

O. L. MARKMAN, —
W. T. CLINE.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

The following names are submitted as members of the board of the Old People's Home: F. O. Wilson, Cameron Harmon, J. M. Adams, A. R. Ransom, D. W. Baker, E. T. Carroll, W. I. Terhune, C. H. Spragg, W. H. Whitlock, Ralph Wakefield, O. L. Markman, J. W. McNeill, J. D. Shaddrick.

Trustees' Report No. 2

The Board of Trustees recommends that the Rev. J. S. Cummins be authorized to liquidate the Johnson note and the Salem note out of money he holds in hand for the Board of Trustees; and that he be secured by a note given by the Board of Trustees.

B. A. Hoar was given permission to withdraw from the Board of Trustees.

Ressho Robertson was elected to fill the place made vacant on the Board by the withdrawal of B. A. Hoar.

F. M. VanTreese, G. E. McCammon, C. C. Hall were nominated to serve as members of the Board of Trustees for three years.

F. M. VanTreese was elected chairman of the Board.

C. C. Hall was nominated as president of the board of managers for the Orphanage.

For Members of Board of Managers of Orphanage

For Carbondale District—Laurence Smith, George E. Martin. For Centralia District—P. R. Glotfelty, C. E. Shumaker. For East St. Louis District—Robert Morris, L. B. Alger. For the Mount Carmel District—C. B. Whitesides, V. E. Richardson. For the Olney District—L. W. Porter, N. E. Prince.

F. O. Wilson was nominated as president of the board of managers for the Old People's Home.

M. B. Baker was nominated custodian of the notes for McKendree College.

G. E. McCammon was nominated for treasurer of the Board of Trustees.

A joint field agent is recommended to be appointed to represent the Orphanage and the Old People's Home, the money raised to be divided in the ratio of eighty per cent for the Orphanage and twenty per cent for the Old People's Home.

M. B. BAKER, Secretary.

A CONFERENCE EDITOR FOR THE "CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE"

Your committee appointed to suggest a means of increasing the efficiency of the Central Christian Advocate as a Conference organ, would express appreciation of the spirit of Dr. C. B. Spencer, the editor, and of his desire to serve the interests of this Conference.

With the hearty concurrence of Dr. Spencer, we nominate Dr. Cameron Harmon as Conference editor, with the expectation that he will report our Conference in its educational, material, and evangelistic interests. We pledge Dr. Harmon our hearty coöperation and agree to forward to him items of special and general interest. Realizing that news must reach the office of the Central Christian Advocate not later than Wednesday for insertion in the issue of the following Wednesday, we pledge speedy forwarding of all news, for in the Central, with its 40,000 circulation, we have a most efficient helper in the work of the Kingdom among us.

C. L. PETERSON, Chairman.
RALPH WAKEFIELD, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE ORPHANS' AND CHILDREN'S HOME OF THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

This institution for the care of dependent children continues its merciful work of visiting the orphans in their afflictions by providing for them a home with food and raiment. So generous has been the response of the people to the appeals for aid for the work of the home that almost from the beginning it has been filled to its capacity. During the year eighty-eight children have been received and eighty-one have been placed in permanent homes or returned to their parents. Of the number received, thirty-four have been received from the courts, ten retaken from foster homes, and the remainder have been taken temporarily to be returned later to their parents.

One hundred and twenty-two children have found shelter some time during the year in this asylum for the homeless. And yet for lack of room many have been turned from our door. The number of children received represents only about one third of those for whom applications have been made.

We now have in the home thirty-nine children. Nineteen of these are to be returned to their parents; twenty are to be placed in foster homes. Thirty-four of these are of school age and have been placed in school.

The management of the home is very satisfactory. Not only are the physical wants of the children cared for, but an excellent Christian atmosphere is maintained. The children are regular in attendance at church and Sunday School and five have been received into the church during the year.

The board of managers requests of pastors their hearty coöperation in securing funds for the maintenance of the Home by opening their pulpits to its representatives and by informing the superintendent of any who might be disposed to remember the Home by bequests. They are also urged to assist in finding homes for children by keeping the people informed of its mission, and its readiness to meet their wants in this way.

A generous donation this year of $2,000 from Mr. D. W. Kirk of near this city has made it possible for us to purchase eleven acres of land lying just east of the Home, on which is located a very good dwelling which when remodeled, will add considerably to our capacity.

The treasurer reports as follows:

Received from former treasurer.....	$ 800.17
Received from superintendent.....	7,501.29
Total receipts	$8,301.46
Paid out during the year.....	$7,496.68

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

We stand at the turning point of history. The great war will not only roll up the map of Europe and make it obsolete, but the world will never be the same again. The present and the future bring to the United States an unequalled opportunity to serve God and man. Let us Christianize our own country and thereby prepare the mightiest human agency for the salvation of every man.

Respectfully submitted,

CAMERON HARMON, Chairman.

S. S. SMITH, Secretary.

SELECT NUMBER IN CASE OF M. B. HOLLOWAY

The select number of nine appointed to try the case of M. B. Holloway, who had been requested to locate, met in the City Hall, Robinson, Ill., Friday, October 5, at 1 o'clock P. M. and adjourned to meet at 4:30. At the appointed time they met again. Members present: Chairman, J. W. Flint; Attorneys McNeill and McCammon; and of the select number Wilson, Mumford, Tucker, Robertson, Hearn, Cummins and Kinison.

Upon investigation it was found that the proceedings had not been disciplinary and the chair ruled as follows: Inasmuch as the disciplinary steps had not been taken in the case of M. B. Holloway, who was to be tried in order to location, the chair therefore rules that we have no case.

J. W. FLINT, Chairman.

C. B. WHITESIDE, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE

We call attention to the advanced attitude of our Church toward temperance, as expressed in our new discipline, and we highly appreciate the remarkable work of the Temperance Society and urge coöperation in their splendid work.

We are grateful for the continuous increase of "dry" territory throughout the nation, and urge a concerted activity along all lines leading to the final goal of nation-wide prohibition.

We recommend the following committee be nominated to serve on the state board of the Anti-Saloon League: Ministers, F. O. Wilson; alternate, M. J. Mumford; laymen, Dr. U. G. Auer; alternate, W. O. Edwards.

J. H. DAVIS.

VAN B. SULLINS.

HOSPITALS

We are profoundly grateful to God that His church is coming to see the great spiritual service it can render through the relief of suffering. Our hospitals have in recent years rapidly multiplied in numbers, equipment, and efficiency. It is now recognized that our hospitals are a "social, scientific, and religious necessity."

We rejoice with the Woman's Home Missionary Society that they have secured for Holden Hospital a location which makes possible greatly increased efficiency and hereby pledge them our heartiest coöperation that its ministry be enlarged.

We are grateful to see the development of our Wesley Memorial Hospital in Chicago and appreciate its unsurpassed equipment for the treatment of the most difficult cases of all kinds. We heartily recommend it to the support and patronage of our people and especially we recommend its unsurpassed advantages for the training of nurses.

MANLY J. MUMFORD,
W. E. BENNETT.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

We recognize the value to the church of the great organization of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. We delight to see the splendid results being obtained through the efforts of our consecrated women, who make this society possible. We therefore urge our pastors to heartily coöperate in this work, thus bringing to the stranger coming to our shores the influences and protection of Christ's gospel.

REPORT OF THE INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN IN THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE FOR THE CONFERENCE
CLAIMANTS' PERMANENT ENDOWMENT
DURING THE CONFERENCE
YEAR 1916

Providing for the Expense of the Campaign

The Conference Board of Trustees was authorized to underwrite a note for $2,000 to provide for the expense of the campaign at once. The Conference voted that effective ministers should pay towards the expense of the campaign one and one-half per cent of their cash salary annually, so that all the money subscribed and collected should go directly into the treasury for the permanent fund.

The Plan of the Campaign

The executive committee of the commission met in East St. Louis soon after Conference and decided upon the following plan of campaign for the entire Conference. The corresponding secretary was requested to arrange for district conventions and subdistrict conventions in each district in the Conference as soon as practicable. These conventions were held as planned. A profitable and comprehensive program was presented in each district and all the subdistricts, in which the Conference Claimants' Endowment Movement had its rightful place. The District Superintendents and the pastors co-operated and made the conventions interesting and profitable to pastors and people. The corresponding secretary was authorized to prepare or have prepared and published suitable literature for the campaign. One hundred and five thousand leaflets were printed and sent to the preachers to be distributed during the month, of information and preparation for subscriptions.

Each district or subdistrict fixed the time and arranged the details of its campaign. It was planned to spend one month in distribution of literature, to preaching sermons, and making announcements. The next month was spent in the intensive campaign, the preachers helping each other. Several gifted and influential laymen assisted the pastors on subscription days. Where the recommendations of the commission were followed and the pastor put himself behind the movement, the results were gratifying as reports will show.

Literature for the Campaign

The corresponding secretary was fortunate in securing four of the best leaflets possible. Dr. D. B. Parkinson of Carbondale prepared for us a valuable leaflet, "The Minister as a Community Asset." Dr. C. C. Hall wrote for us a clear, strong, and timely leaflet; subject, "Will Your Son Be a Preacher?" The other leaflets were taken from the best of those prepared by the Board of Conference Claimants. All of these leaflets were prepared and adapted to our own Conference. These leaflets touch almost every phase of the pastor's work and his relation to his people.

One hundred thousand subscription cards were prepared for the intensive campaign and sent to each pastor for use on the day the subscription was taken. The preparation and printing of these supplies required much expense and some labor on the part of the secretary. We are persuaded that it was money well spent and the returns will be seen many days hence. Large posters showing the features of six of our honored retired preachers were printed and sent to every pastor in the Conference to be placed in every church and Sunday School room, giving the days of information and the days for subscription in the districts.

These six men have worn themselves out in the service of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southern Illinois Conference and they are worthy of a better support than we give them.

The Board of Conference Claimants

Through Dr. Hingeley the Board of Conference Claimants has been helpful to our campaign without any expense to our commission. Dr. E. C. Clemans, assistant corresponding secretary of the board, was sent to assist in organizing and planning our intensive campaign. He attended all the district conventions, delivering addresses and greatly aided us by his wise council, in preparing the way for our successful campaign. Dr. Hingeley has kept in touch with our movement and sent us generous supplies of literature when requested without cost.

Gifted laymen have rendered valuable service. Prominent laymen have responded to our appeals, not alone with generous gifts, but have made forcible and touching appeals for the retired ministers at our conventions. Some of these have assisted the pastors on the day when subscriptions were taken, by making the appeal to the people and asking the congregation for contributions. Among these I desire to name J. B. Stout, Lawrenceville; Dr. H. W. Hurt, Lebanon; President McKendree College; H. H. Bailey, Altamont; and Hon. G. P. Denton, Effingham; and many others rendered the pastors valuable services.

Basis of Our Appeal

The justice of the claim of the retired minister. He gave himself wholly to the work of the ministry. It was a complete consecration to a lifework. His pay for service is as just a claim in his retirement as in the days of his efficiency. His claim is as just as that of the Bishop, the District Superintendent, or the pastor. The law of the church demands that where there is a deficiency in one salary, the other salaries shall be prorated. Where this is not done the retired minister is the one that suffers most. Hundreds of dollars are lost every year to the Conference Claimant fund by this unjust treatment of the retired minister. He of all the ministers is least able to bear this loss.

The average cash salaries of the effective ministers in the Southern Illinois Conference is $900. This does not count the salaries of probationers nor supplies, only effective men. The law says where a minister serves thirty-five years and retires he is entitled to one half of the average cash salary paid by his Conference. This would be in our Conference $450—or for more or less number of years $13 per year annuity.

The Southern Illinois Conference paid its retired men last year $600 annuity, or forty-seven per cent of their just claim. Hence, the necessity of this campaign to raise a permanent fund of $100,000, the interest of which shall be added to that already raised by Conference apportionment that the retired men of the Conference shall be paid their just claim in full.

Some Painful Facts from the Conference Minutes

The deficiencies in the salaries of our preachers in the last nineteen years is $100,887 and in twenty-five years $137,350. In this campaign we are only asking that the Southern Illinois Conference raise in the next five years $100,000, which is less than the sum estimated for the comfortable support of the pastors, but was withheld and unpaid in the last nineteen years. They needed their full claim in the days of their efficiency and now in retirement they need it more. Will the church now pay its just obligation and meet the claim?

The Minister Cannot Save

The Methodist Episcopal Church requires more of her preachers than any other Protestant Church. They promise to devote themselves wholly to the work of the ministry. They cannot step aside into the secular pursuits of life to make money. They go where they are sent. They cannot determine the amount of salary they shall be paid. They cannot collect deficiency in salary by law. They have expenses and demands upon them that other families do not have. Impossible for them to save. The minutes of 1916 shows that:

14 preachers in our Conference received $ 300 or less.
34 preachers in our Conference received $ 500 or less.
34 preachers in our Conference received $ 600 or less.
41 preachers in our Conference received $ 700 or less.
18 preachers in our Conference received $ 800 or less.
20 preachers in our Conference received $1,500 or over.

The question with some is not how to save money, but how can these men live and keep their families on so small a salary. They remain in the ministry because of their convictions and vows. Other men can turn aside and make money, but the preacher cannot.

Here are some of the results of our policy in the past. We omit names and only give cases by number:

1. The preacher served 12 years. The deficiency in salary, $2,045.
2. The preacher served 21 years. The deficiency in salary, $4,411.
3. The preacher served 39 years. The deficiency in salary, $5,121.
4. The preacher served 41 years. The deficiency in salary, $5,350.

These four men retired to an humble home and provided for themselves and those depending upon them the best they could. If they could have secured their back pay it would have been a great comfort to them and their families. Two of these men are still living. Cases like these, by going over past records, could be multiplied.

Methods Adopted by the Conference Claimants' Society in Handling This Permanent Fund

The money is loaned on real estate mortgage after an abstract has been furnished or invested in bonds after the courts have passed upon their legality. These funds are surrounded with all the safeguards approved by the most careful corporations.

This Campaign Paramount

Ours is a great church. We can do great things. To meet our responsibility to God and our obligations to the world we must do great things in the future for God and man. The intensive campaign for a permanent fund to provide for the retired minister and his family is one of the great things that challenges the attention of the church. Other things may be done, but this is one of the things that must be done now. Other things can wait; this cannot wait.

Results of the Campaign

FINANCIAL

Total subscribed to be paid in five years	$38,288.85
Total paid on subscriptions	$6,865.42
Received from wills	1,000.00
Interest-bearing notes	200.00
Received from sale of Annuity Bonds	300.00
Total receipts for the year	$8,365.42

Moral and Spiritual

It is difficult to estimate the value of this intensive campaign on the moral and spiritual interests of the church. We believe that there will be higher and better appreciation of the labors and sacrifices made by our effective preachers. The retired ministers will receive greater honor and love than has ever been before accorded them by the laity. The church will require a higher standard of intellectual preparation for the work of the ministry in the future. The effective minister will be freed from anxiety and care of himself and his family, and can give the church a more efficient service. The minister must be effective or lose his standing. The superannuated man can retire and cease to be a burden on the church after he has lost his efficiency by age or infirmities. We believe there will be given by the Great Head of the church that does this righteous thing, His divine approval. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." If God does not bless a defaulting man, will he bless a defaulting church?

Some Recommendations

That the commission appointed at the last Conference be made permanent until the task is finished.

That vigorous plans be adopted by the commission in each district to bring every charge into the intensive campaign the coming year, and where the subscription was taken and was only partially successful, that an effort be made as soon as practicable.

That all probationers of the Conference be required to pay toward the expense of the campaign one and one-half per cent of their cash salary because they are benefited by the results of the campaign the same as full members of the Conference.

That the commission arrange to bring on the intensive campaign early in the Conference year so that it will be out of the way of other interests of the church. We would, therefore, recommend to the commission as a good time the last two weeks in November and the first two weeks in December.

We further recommend that a suitable memorial service be held in every Sunday School in the Conference the Sunday nearest Thanksgiving Day, and a cash subscription be taken and an effort be made to raise in each school as much as ten cents per member, the same to be applied on the apportionment of $2.00 per member from each charge.

That since the standard of $2.00 per member has been established in the intensive campaign during the last year, and we believe it is not too high and should not be less, we recommend that all gifts to the permanent fund by annuity and bequests be excluded from the standard adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. VANTREESE, Corresponding Secretary,
Conference Claimants' Endowment Commission,

PETITION

To the Board of Control of the Epworth League:

Since the Epworth League Institute is to be reestablished at Havana, we of the Epworth League Board of the Southern Illinois Conference feel that to attempt to maintain the Institute at Hillsboro-Litchfield Chautauqua would be an additional hardship because of its location so near to Havana and so far from the territory dependent for its support and we very much desire to have Lebanon selected as a location for an Institute, on the campus of McKendree College. St. Louis Leagues are to date favorable to this arrangement and the state cabinet members have expressed favor toward the matter.

We, the board of the Southern Illinois Conference, petition the General Board of Control, or whatever function of its organization has to do with this, to grant their permission to the location at Lebanon, and extend to them the coöperation and support they have formerly given the Institute at its present location. With such support we promise as a Conference to get back of the Institute and see it through to its best.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The debt on the Church at Salem is in such serious condition; and

WHEREAS, The trustees of this church have sold their parsonage with the intention of building a much smaller house, thus reducing their obligation by about $2,000, and thereby allowing them to give their entire attention to the debt on the church; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Southern Illinois Conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to cancel all interest prior to July, 1916, on condition that the said church will pay the interest when due from July, 1916.

S. A. D. ROGERS.

JOINT RESOLUTION

At a joint meeting of the board of trustees and managers of the Old People's Home and the managers of the Southern Illinois Conference Orphanage the following resolutions were recommended to the Annual Conference for its adoption:

Resolved First, That we reaffirm our loyalty to the cause of the Old People's Home; although the home has been destroyed by fire, temporarily rendering it difficult to take care of its inmates.

Resolved Second, That we authorize the employment of a field secretary to raise funds jointly for the Old People's Home and the Orphanage.

Resolved Third, That after all expense incurred in collecting the funds has been paid, the money remaining be divided between the Orphanage and the Old People's Home at the ratio of eighty per cent to the Orphanage and twenty per cent to the Old People's Home.

Resolved Fourth, That the board of managers of the Orphanage be empowered to employ such agent.

F. M. VANTREESE, Chairman.

J. M. ADAMS, Secretary.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Your visitor to the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Ill., reports that the college is in flourishing condition, having grown under the present administration from a plant valued at $75,000 to one valued at $675,000; from a girls' school to a woman's college. Having in the last seven years grown from a college with two seniors and ten freshmen to one with twenty-one seniors and eighty-five freshmen in the school of liberal arts alone, and with a faculty increased by more than as many again.

Having also a program for the next four years which includes the entire removal of the academy, and the increasing of the properties to $1,000,000.

By reason of its splendid equipment, superb faculty, deep religious life, and nominal expense the college commends itself as a place for the training of our young women for their life's work.

Respectfully submitted,

P. R. GLOTFELTY.

PERIODICALS, PUBLICATIONS, AND COLLECTIONS

Believing that we recognize a certain lack of the knowledge of the principles of Methodism, both in doctrine and discipline, and that this lack of knowledge is hindering the vital work of the church, and that the great educational force of the people of Methodism is the church press; therefore

We earnestly urge every pastor to press upon the minds of his people the reading of such books and papers from the Methodist press, as will develop a stronger Methodism in every way; and that, whereas, the price of paper has advanced until it became necessary to increase the subscription rates of many publications, and among which is our own Advocate; we earnestly urge a hearty and loyal support for the same, both by pastor and membership.

W. D. RICHARDSON,

H. B. SHOAFF.

CLASS MEETINGS

Recognizing the class meeting as a vital factor in strengthening of the Christian life, and recognizing it a service peculiar to Methodists and the large and important place accorded it, we hereby recommend and urge on all our members their hearty support for this important service.

G. A. PHELPS,
D. O. McROBERTS.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Recognizing the great work which this efficient branch of our church is doing, we heartily approve of their earnest efforts and methods, and urge our preachers to encourage and open the way for the officers of this society to organize an auxiliary in every church, whenever and wherever possible.

JOHN H. JONES, Chairman.
W. R. BRADLEY, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Sunday School is indeed the church studying and teaching the Bible, but in too many places, the church members, both official and nonofficial, take little or no interest in this great work which gives greater returns than any other activity in the church.

Since our Board of Sunday Schools has created an efficiency standard which would greatly aid every Sunday School, we suggest that as pastors we do our best to have our Sunday Schools measure up to this plan.

Since we have new legislation requiring each district superintendent to hold annually a Sunday School Institute for the training of Sunday School officers and teachers, we here call attention to this requirement and urge the pastors to give their earnest coöperation in carrying out the plan of our district superintendents in this Institute work.

F. O. WILSON,
E. T. CARROLL.

THE CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS

Memoirs

REV. JOTHAM ALL SCARRITT, D.D.

Jotham All Scarritt was born June 23, 1827, at what is now Godfrey, Ill., but then known as Scarritt's Prairie, so named for Nathan Scarritt, our subject's father, a most hardy pioneer and sturdy Christian, who came from New Hampshire and made the first settlement on that wild and lonely prairie. Nathan Scarritt was many years a great class leader, a most tender under-shepherd of the flock, and his home was the headquarters in all the region for the early Methodist circuit riders; and here the boy Jotham often sat before the fireplace of a winter's night listening to high converse upon the great themes of the spirit world between his father and such great pioneer preachers as Peter Cartwright, W. D. R. Trotter, and Samuel Thompson, all of whom, with many others, preached in the schoolhouse his father had been the chief promoter in building.

In this blessed atmosphere, Jotham All Scarritt grew to a blessed manhood as was most natural he should.

At the age of twenty-two came two great events into his life—he was married and licensed to preach.

On October 4, 1849, he was united in marriage with Hannah Rebecca Meldrum. Three children were born to them, two of whom passed to the glory world in infancy. The third, Ada V., became the wife of the Hon. George Parsons of Cairo, Ill., where she passed within the veil a few years ago.

After doing considerable preaching for two years as a local preacher, he was received on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference at its session in 1851. The Southern Illinois Conference was organized the next year and his membership on trial fell automatically to this Conference. The following year, 1853, he was received into full membership. He was, therefore, sixty-two years a full member of the Southern Illinois Annual Conference. If we add the two years on trial, he was sixty-four years a traveling preacher. Again, if we add the two years he was a local preacher, he was a Methodist preacher sixty-six years. Thirty-eight years he was in the active (or effective) relation, two years a local preacher, sixteen years a supernumerary, and ten years retired. But it should not be forgotten that during the years he was supernumerary he preached and worked with an unflagging zeal, doing larger work than many in the effective relation, and in his retirement he could not stay retired. Very often he went hither and thither, preaching and delivering addresses in his great desire to help carry through some drive for the kingdom of God, when he must have known that the strenuous efforts could mean for him nothing short of a period of illness following.

He belonged peculiarly to the Southern Illinois Conference. His entire ministry was spent within its bounds. The space is all too short to do justice to such a career as his. He heralded the glad tidings in every sort of charge from the poorest circuit to the finest city churches in the Conference, retiring at the age of seventy-eight at the close of a most remarkable eight-year pastorate at Cairo, where he had been pastor twice before. His companion of fifty-six years was suddenly called to her eternal home while they were in process of moving from Cairo to Alton. Dr. Scarritt carried out so much of the plan of moving to Alton as possible and made his home there the rest of his days, always aglow with a deep and intense enthusiasm for the triumph of the Master's kingdom.

On November 10, 1909, in Alton, he married Miss Fanny Johnson, one of the most devoted Christian women within the bounds of the Conference. The harmony of their united life was singularly beautiful and their united zeal for the Kingdom in our Wesley Church, where they made their church home, in the Conference, in the wide field of all our land, and in the wider field of the whole world was such they never ceased to work and pray and sacrifice in a large way for Jesus and His blessed kingdom. And now that Dr. Scarritt has gone, it is a great joy to know that his companion in her loneliness is doing and will continue to the end of her days to do all in her power to carry on all the works he loved so well to promote with all his powers and means.

Dr. Scarritt's last illness was not prolonged. It was just the general breakdown of a tired body, and after a few weeks he came to realize that the end of his journey was at hand. And when he knew this he faced the future, not so much with resignation as with joyous anticipation. Much of the time of his last days was spent in the other world rather than this, calling familiar names of bygone days and blessing and praising God.

On the last Sunday evening he said, "I am going home in the morning." On Monday morning it became evident that the end was, indeed, near. A little after eleven o'clock, while his devoted wife held his hand and talked to him of heaven, ministering to his every want to the very last moments, several of us stood about his bed and watched the glorious sunset of a long day of life whose sun had lighted souls by thousands here to find the path that leads within the gates of fair, sweet Paradise, where some have met him now, and others will come on until we all are there; and then the long, long reaches of eternal years of glory—and of God.

Thus closed the long career on earth of Jotham All Scarritt, D.D., February 28, 1916, in his home in Alton, Ill., at the age of eighty-eight years eight months and five days.

EDMUND BARNES

Edmund Barnes was born at Union Star, Breckenridge County, Ky., April 15, 1848, and departed this life at Chautauqua, Ill., October 3, 1916, aged sixty-eight years five months and eighteen days. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church August 15, 1870. He was licensed to preach in the fall of 1870 and joined the Kentucky Conference in the spring of 1871. He transferred from the Kentucky Conference to the Southern Illinois Conference in 1884. He remained in the effective relation until 1912, when he received the relation of a retired minister, in which relation he was very happy. His death was quite sudden. He had been supplying the Ramsey charge since the regular pastor left for theological school. He had closed up the year's work and mailed his reports to Robinson, Ill., the seat of the Annual Conference. He and Mrs. Barnes then went to Chautauqua, Ill., and were preparing to move to Medora, Ill., where they had purchased a home. He died of neuralgia of the heart. His remains were taken to Medora, Ill., for interment. By the appointment of the Conference the funeral was conducted by Rev. M. H. Ewers and Rev. L. Cramp, the other neighboring pastors being away at the seat of Conference. The Rev. Mr. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, and a friend of the family also took part in the services.

Rev. E. Barnes was married to Miss Catherine S. Hall December 11, 1871. Two sons and three daughters were born to them; namely, J. E. Barnes of Bremerton, Wash.; R. W. Barnes of Elsau, Ill.; Mrs. F. S. Miller of St. Elmo, Ill.; Mrs. Charles McCrellis of Medora, Ill.; and Mrs. J. A. Rodgers of Ramsey, Ill. The widow will reside in Medora, Ill.

Brother Barnes was a good man and a good preacher. He served in many of the difficult fields of the two conferences and was always successful in that many persons were converted under his preaching. He always emphasized the evangelistic work and as a result many to-day "rise up and call him blessed." A brother beloved has gone from our midst and we will greatly miss him.

Brother Barnes served the following charges, beginning his ministry in Kentucky in 1871: Little Barrons, two years; Caneyville, one year; Warren, two years; Scottsville, one year; Tompkinsville, two and one-half years; Prestonburg, one year; Onton, two years; Hartford, two years. He then entered the Southern Illinois Conference in 1884 and was appointed to Harrisburg, where he served one year; Hawthorn, three years; Vienna, one year; Moccasin, two years; Avena, two years; Xenia, two years; Potoka, two years; Bunker Hill, two years; Elsay, two years; Medora, one year; Gillespie, four years; Ramsey, two years; Coffeen, two years; Belleville (Epworth), one year; Grafton, two years; Oden, one year. He took the retired relation in 1912, having served continuously for forty-one and one-half years. During the last year of his life he served the Ramsey Church for several months most acceptably.

During this long term of service Brother Barnes reported over thirty-two hundred conversions. He preached over thirteen thousand sermons, and at one time preached two sermons a day for 105 consecutive days. He made over twelve thousand pastoral calls, built seventeen new churches, and influenced about twenty young men to give themselves to the preaching of the Word either as exhorters or minister.

THOMAS H. HERDMAN, D.D.

Thomas H. Herdman, son of Robt. and Jane Herdman, was born July 8, 1829, at Noblestown, Pa. His parents were strict Presbyterians and maintained a family altar. The children were taught the principles of religion. Under the direction of his mother he had completed the reading of the Bible before he was ten years old.

In 1839 the family moved to Beverly, O., where the father soon died. Thus at an early age our brother was left to the care of his mother. Life's conditions changed and he spent four years at farm labor under the direction of an uncle. During these years a short term of school each winter afforded opportunity to study the common branches, including first lessons in English grammar.

In 1844 he was placed under the care of another uncle, Rev. Samuel Findlay, to be prepared for the ministry. Here he began to study algebra, philosophy, Latin, and Hebrew. These privileges continued for two and one-half years.

In 1846 he united with the Presbyterian Church at Troy, O., of which church his uncle was the pastor. Shortly after this while he was teaching school near Mansfield, O., certain Methodist preachers held services in his schoolhouse, thus acquaintance was formed with the Methodist Episcopal Church, where he afterward found field for the main activities of his life.

In 1848 he enrolled as a student in Muskingum College at New Concord, O. Here he spent three years in attending college and teaching school alternately. In 1852 he organized a high school at Chandlersville, O., where he taught for one and one-half years. He matriculated as student in Madison College at Antrim, O., in 1854 and graduated July 1, 1856. This was followed by eight more years' teaching, when yielding to a strong conviction of a call to the ministry he accepted license as a local preacher from the quarterly conference at Greenfield, O. Having served the church in this relation for five years, he was received on trial in the Cincinnati Conference in September, 1864, and appointed junior preacher on the Highland Circuit. Just at this juncture in life he was invited to take charge of a Methodist seminary at Mount Vernon, Ill. As this seemed to promise a solution of certain health problems with his young wife the invitation was accepted and he was transferred as a probationer to the Southern Illinois Conference at its session in Olney, September, 1865. While teaching in Mount Vernon he supplied the pulpit for seven months, during which time the church was blessed with a gracious revival, increasing the membership from eighty-three to 161.

September 29, 1852, he was married to Miss Celia C. Joseph at Zanesville, O. January 5, 1869, at Mount Vernon, Ill., he was bereaved in the death of his young wife, after which he completed his engagement with the seminary and gave himself exclusively to the work of the ministry.

December 20, 1870, he was married to Miss Eliza H. Peck at Du Quoin, Ill. This happy union continued till February 4, 1915, when the devoted wife, having made herself a part of all best things in the lifework of her husband, went to her coronation. Returning to the pastorate in 1869 he served at Du Quoin, Litchfield, Lebanon (twice), Vandalia, Mount Carmel, Brighton, Collinsville, and Effingham. Also for nearly four years as presiding elder of Lebanon District.

In 1890 he was elected president of McKendree College and served three years, when he accepted the financial agency of the college. In 1894 he was made dean of the theological department and in 1895 took charge of the postgraduate department. For a long term he was a member of the board of trustees and for six years was president of the board. His work and sacrifices form no inconsiderable part of the history of the college. In recognition of his scholarship and other eminent qualifications, McKendree College conferred on him the degree of master of arts in 1876 and doctor of divinity in 1889.

In 1896 he again took up pastoral work and served at Okawville, Summerfield, and Denverside Mission, now Century Church, East St. Louis, which last charge he organized. At the Conference session in 1902 Bishop Vincent appointed him Conference historian. While filling this position he copied with his own hand the entire record of the Illinois Conference from its beginning in 1824 till the organization of the Southern Illinois Conference in 1852. He also wrote a history of Illinois Methodism during the time prior to the formation of the Illinois Conference. These writings with much other valuable historical data which he had collected are now in possession of the Conference Historical Society.

For seven years Dr. Herdman served as Conference secretary and was sent as a delegate to the General Conference at Cincinnati, O., in 1880. He was found faithful and efficient under every responsibility placed in his hands. In 1911, full of years and honors, crowned with the love of the entire Conference, he was at his own request granted the retired relation. As pastor, presiding elder, and college president he was tender, thoughtful, and safe.

On the morning of April 8, 1916, in his own home at Lebanon, Ill., this warrior tried and true laid his armor by and answering God's call entered into rest. The funeral services at Lebanon, Ill., were conducted by Dr. C. C. Hall, superintendent of East St. Louis District, assisted by members of the Conference.

"The memory of the just is blessed."

J. W. FLINT.

JAMES M. MULVANEY

James M. Mulvaney was born in Harrison County, Indiana, August 13, 1861, and died at Anna, Ill., October 15, 1915.

He was the son of Henry and Catherine Mulvaney.

From his infancy he was surrounded by religious influences, trained and schooled in the practice and theology of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He began his public life as a teacher in the public schools of Illinois. After a few years of faithful work in this calling, he found that this would never satisfy his conscience for the Spirit of the Lord said, "Go work in my vineyard."

After a brief period of partial resistance to this urgent call, he yielded to the divine influence. He entered the ministry and joined the Southern Illinois Conference in the year 1886 and acceptably served several charges, giving evidence of great natural ability, apparently destined to fill places of great importance.

But when serving the Odin charge he was stricken with typhoid fever, from which he never fully recovered, lapsing into a deterioration of the mind which finally brought on permanent mental derangement, from which he was at last released by death.

Before entering the ministry he was married to Miss Emily Murphy, who proved to be a capable and able helper to him in his labors. To them were given seven children, all of whom are living—one in Illinois, two in Utah, three in Nebraska, and one in California. Mrs. Mulvaney preceded her husband to the glory world by several years.

His father was a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church all the latter part of his life, and his older brother, W. H. Mulvaney, is a member of the Kansas Conference, now serving Cherryvale charge.

The funeral services were conducted in Fairfield, Ill., by Rev. J. W. Flint, assisted by Rev. O. O. Maxfield. The remains were interred in Maple Hill cemetery, Fairfield, Ill.

MATILDA A. SNELL

Matilda A. Dees was born near Staunton, Ill., January 4, 1829, and grew to womanhood on her father's farm at that place. She was the daughter of Levi and Marjorie Dees, well-known citizens of Macoupin County.

March 1, 1849, she was married to Asa Snell, who, although not a minister at the time, yet had felt God's call to that work, and planned to devote his life to the same, all of which was talked over and definitely understood between them before their marriage, so that she knew that she was to be a Methodist minister's wife, and share in his joys and responsibilities.

After their marriage they resided on a farm near Staunton for more than four years, when she accompanied her husband as he took up his life's work in the ministry, and for thirty-nine years was a real helpmeet for him.

Theirs was certainly a marriage made in heaven and approved of God, and during fifty years of happy wedlock he blessed them and made them a blessing.

Nine children came to bless their home, three of whom—Collins, Lucy, and George—went to heaven in infancy, and one, Jesse, followed them at the age of thirty. The five living are: Mrs. Martha Fahnestock, Wanda, Ill.; Mrs. Nancy Farmer, Buckley, Wash.; Mrs. Eady Philbrook, Avena, Ill.; and Mrs. Mary Glass and Miss Addie Snell of Edwardsville, Ill.

Sister Snell was converted at the age of sixteen at home, alone with God, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for seventy-one years was a faithful, consistent, and useful member. She let her light shine so steadily that no one could visit her and get away without a reception and message from her that would convince him that there was a mother in Israel who had been with Jesus and learned of him.

She loved ministers, all God-called ministers, and daily held them up in her prayers to a throne of grace.

She had been in fairly good health up to three years ago, when in April, 1913, she suffered a stroke of paralysis, since which time she had been an invalid. She suffered a second stroke in September of the same year. On the fourth of January, 1916, at four o'clock in the morning of her eighty-seventh birthday anniversary, her entire right side became paralyzed. Medical skill and loving hands ministered to her tenderly and did all that could be done to prolong earthly stay, until at five o'clock on the morning of January 24, when, with her loved ones gathered about her bedside singing "In the sweet by and by," and other favorite songs, and repeating God's Word and the Lord's Prayer, Grandma Snell slipped out of the earthly house, and went to live with God in the heavenly mansion, transferring her membership from the church militant in Edwardsville to the church triumphant in the city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.

She is survived by five children, thirteen grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, two brothers, and one sister. In her going Edwardsville loses one of its oldest and most respected citizens, the church a faithful member, and the family a devoted mother.

The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Robert Morris, assisted by the following brethren: Dr. C. C. Hall, Dr. F. M. Van Treese, Rev. O. B. Kinsey, Rev. J. W. Smith, Rev. David S. Wahl, and Rev. Wm. F. Siple of the German Methodist Church, after which the body was fittingly laid to rest by the side of her husband in Woodlawn cemetery, Edwardsville.

ANGELINE HARPER

Angeline Harper (nee Hayes) was born in Kentucky, July 24, 1835. She departed this life in Fairfield, Ill., December 14, 1915, at the age of eighty years four months and twenty days.

She was married to the Rev. L. A. Harper on September 18, 1868, at Murphysboro, Ill. To them were born two children, one of whom died in infancy. The other one, Mrs. Ella Jessup of Fairfield, Ill., survives. There are seven living grandchildren. Mrs. Harper entered into and shared with her husband, the toils and responsibilities, the sorrows and the joys of a pastor's life, serving on the following charges: Walnut Hill, Litchfield, Mount Vernon, Spring Garden, Greencastle, New Douglas, Johnsonville, Avena, Mason, Irvington, Benton, Jeffersonville, Clay City, and Mount Erie. Rev. Mr. Harper retired from the active ministry in 1890 and the family resided in Mount Erie, Ill. In 1902 Brother Harper went to his heavenly home. Mrs. Harper continued to live in Mount Erie, and was active in all the work of the church and of the uplifting plans of the city. She was a regular attendant at the preaching services, the Sunday School, Epworth League, and Ladies' Aid Society.

Her last illness was of a month's duration, but it was spent in the home of her daughter in Fairfield, Ill., where she had every care and help that loving hands and hearts could give. From this home she went to her heavenly home to be with the loved ones gone before.

The funeral services were conducted at Mount Erie, Ill., by the Rev. J. W. Flint, D.D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Fairfield, and the interment was in the Mount Erie cemetery. Peace to the memory of "A mother in Israel."

MRS. CANNA BRUMBAUGH CATES

Of those borne home this year on the Father's love none will be more missed by the Conference and by the bereaved one whose constant companion she was than will Mrs. Canna Brumbaugh Cates. She was the daughter of Dr. A. M. and Sarah F. Brumbaugh of Dalgren, Ill., where she grew to womanhood.

October 1, 1882, she was united in marriage to Theodore Cates. Their union was blessed by four children—Elmer Theodore died at the age of five. Those surviving are Bessie Maude, wife of Rev. H. C. Brown of Byron, Ill.; Rev. Andrew M. Cates of Fair Oaks, Cal.; and Miss Jennie Ophelia, at home with her father.

She was converted at the age of eleven and united with the Methodist Church, remaining in its fellowship to the end. She loved her church and when the call came to her husband to enter its ministry, she joined heart and hand with him in pressing forward the kingdom of God. She specialized on work with the children and in a marvelous way succeeded in shaping their lives for Christ and the church. The writer married one of her girls of an early pastorate, who loved her next to her mother and still prays to be able to become as good a woman as Mrs. Cates. She entered heartily, however, into the work of all the departments of the church and was never happier than when busy in the service.

She had as high ideals for the parsonage home. Hers was always neat and clean and ready with a welcome for the members and friends of the church. She made every effort to mold the principles of Christianity into the lives of her children at any sacrifice, often saying, "My life is a life of sacrifice."

Her health began failing about a year and a half before she was taken. She was again and again brought to death's door but struggled and prayed to remain with the loved ones and her beloved church work. But at last she said, "I can now suffer the will of God to be done." On Sunday, March 19, all the children were at home for the last time. She had them assemble at her bedside and with them partook of the Holy Communion administered by the district superintendent, Dr. C. C. Hall, who was often a welcomed visitor in their home. At its close she said, "I will partake of it no more until I partake of it anew in my Father's kingdom." After weary months of suffering, borne always with great patience, her spirit took its flight to be with the Lord on Monday morning, March 20.

Services were held both at Collinsville and Dalgren. Twenty-eight ministers, many ministers' wives, and immense audiences of people by their presence attested the high esteem in which she was held. Truly Sister Cates was "a woman beloved by her friends."

MRS. CANA BRUMBAUGH CATES

MRS. ADAM YINGST

Mina Forquer was born near Belleville, Ill., January 3, 1857. She was married July 4, 1875, to John Bartelmy. Mr. Bartelmy departed this life in February, 1901. On June 26, 1901, the subject of this sketch was united in wedlock with the Rev. Adam Yingst, a member of the Southern Illinois Conference, and for fifteen years she shared the toils and hardships as well as the joys and triumphs of the Methodist itinerant's life. At the time of her death they were serving their second year on the Beaucoup charge. Sister Yingst endured severe bodily suffering for thirteen months, after which she was called from the little parsonage in Beaucoup to the mansion in Heaven. She went to the heavenly home June 19, 1916. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Carlyle, Ill. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. E. Shafer, assisted by the Rev. S. H. Hoar and the Rev. S. S. Smith.

A good woman has gone to her reward. She was a devout Christian and bore her bodily affliction with great patience. To know her was to love her.

MEMORIAL GIFTS

The Southern Illinois Conference adopted a resolution providing for the publication of a memorial list to be a part of its records, the names of those who by legacies, memorials, and gifts of $1,000 or more who have manifested their love and high esteem for the beneficiaries we serve. The Conference is entering upon a campaign to raise a Permanent Fund of $200,000, the interest of which is to provide a more adequate support for the retired preachers, their widows, and dependent children of the Southern Illinois Conference.

Those interested in any way in this great movement should write F. M. VanTreese, corresponding secretary Endowment Commission Southern Illinois Conference, 629 Veronica Avenue, East St. Louis, Ill.

Benefactors' Memorial

(In recognition of the benefits accruing from Gifts and Devises made in behalf of its Beneficiaries, the Retired Ministers, Widows and Orphans, The Conference Claimants' Endowment Commission of the Southern Illinois Conference publishes the names of those making Memorial Gifts.)

In grateful memory of her now sainted

For the first seven years of the Conference, the Secretary or the assistant did the work of the Statistician.

Standing Rules of Conference

I. When any member of the Conference intends to object to the passage of the character of any member, he shall hand the name of such member to the President, who shall pass the name by and direct the case to be investigated.

II. When any one of our members is called from earth, it shall be the duty of the nearest pastor or District Superintendent of the district to notify all the preachers in the district of such death, and of the time set for the funeral services.

III. At each session of Conference a publisher shall be elected to publish the minutes of the next session, who shall be authorized to make arrangements and enter into a contract for the publication in advance of the session.

IV. The District Superintendent of the district, and the preacher in charge of the station where the Conference is to be held, together with the presidents of the several Conference societies, are instructed to arrange the program of religious exercises, and if practicable, secure their publication in the Central Christian Advocate.

V. The Board of Stewards shall consist of six members of the Conference, each of whom shall serve three years, two being elected at each session of the Conference. The Conference may, at its discretion, add two laymen, to be elected annually. The Board shall organize each year by electing a President, Secretary and Treasurer, whose names shall be published in the Conference minutes.

VI. When the names of candidates for admission, on trial or for orders, are called, they shall, if present, be called forward and introduced to the Conference.

VII. All candidates for recognition of orders shall, unless excused by vote of the Conference, be examined in the same manner as candidates for ordination, and the Committee on Conference Relation shall inquire into the character and fitness for the traveling connection of each candidate for admission on trial, for admission into full connection, or for readmission into the Conference, and all persons desiring a change of relation or any special appointment.

VIII. There shall be a meeting of the Statistical Secretaries with the Conference Treasurer at eight o'clock on Saturday morning, for the purpose of comparing the money reported in the statistical tables.

IX. When a member of the annual Conference or the wife of a member of the Conference dies, the Conference shall appropriate seventy-five dollars to provide a monument for him or her. The Conference to elect annually a custodian of Monument Fund, who shall apportion the amount necessary to this fund to the several charges on the basis of the amount paid by the charge for pastoral support the previous year. The pastor to report this under the head of other collection. The publisher of the minutes will reserve a column in the statistical tables for this report.

X. Each District Superintendent, at the close of the term, shall prepare a report of his district, not to exceed one thousand words, for publication in the minutes.

XI. The Stewards are authorized to take annually from the pro rata due the claimants from the Book Concern, a sum according to their discretion, not to exceed ten per cent of their indebtedness to the Book Concern, until it shall be paid in full.

XII. All reports of committees and resolutions shall be handed to the Secretary in duplicate.

XIII. No person shall have his orders recognized who comes from a church that requires a lower standard of literary qualification than the Methodist Episcopal Church, without passing an examination with us.

XIV. To admit on trial any candidate who is over thirty-five years of age, it shall require a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting, provided the two thirds equal a majority of all members of the Conference.

XV. It shall require two thirds of those present and voting to change or suspend any of these rules, except rule fourteen, which has its own provision.

XVI. All charges entertaining the Annual Conference shall provide lodging and breakfast only, leaving the attendants to provide for the mid-day and evening meals. Provided, this does not apply to superannuated members, their wives, the widows of deceased ministers, deaconesses and guests officially invited, who shall have full entertainment. The Committee on Entertainment shall see that sufficient and wholesome meals shall be provided at reasonable rates.

XVII. All members of the Conference under appointment as Conference Evangelists shall, on the call of their names for passage of character, report their work for the past year, stating number and place of revival meetings held, number professed conversions and accessions to membership of the church.

XVIII. All reports from the charges not received by Thursday evening of Conference week will not appear in the published minutes of the Conference.

XIX. On the first day of the Conference, at the hour following the Communion Service, a memorial shall be held for the ministers and the ministers' wives who have died during the year. The Bishop shall appoint someone to deliver the address, and also an alternate.

DISTRIBUTION OF MINUTES

Each pastor receiving $1,200 or above shall receive fifteen copies of the minutes and pay $2.50. Those receiving $900 and less than $1,200, shall receive thirteen copies of the minutes and pay $2. Those receiving $700 and less than $900 shall receive eleven copies of the minutes and pay $1.75. Those receiving $500 and less than $700 shall receive ten copies of the minutes and pay $1.50. Those receiving less than $500 shall receive eight copies and pay $1. The District Superintendents shall receive fifteen copies and pay $2.50 each.

PASTORAL ADDRESS

Nineteen hundred and sixteen years ago "unto us a child was born, unto us a son was given." He was to be christened "Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." His shoulders were to become government pillars.

In due time He stood forth to found a kingdom which was to be an everlasting kingdom, in the course of the history of which it should be said: "The kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ." The strength of this kingdom was to be such as to defy the gates of Hell. The nature of its growth was to be such that its founder in a parable which He spake likened it to a grain of mustard seed.

Two thousand years of Christian history have passed and the gates of hell have not prevailed; the mustard seed has become a great tree; and the kingdoms of this world are becoming the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

In the days of His flesh competent critics declared that they found no fault in Jesus. And of His words it was said: "Never man spake like this man."

After twenty centuries of favorable and unfavorable criticism, surely,

"No mortal can with Him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train."

"Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people, for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord." So spake the angel which announced His birth. And immediately there broke forth from the sky the chorus: "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men."

"That song is sung by rich and poor,
Where'er the Christ is known;
'Tis sung in words and sung in deeds,
Which bind all hearts in one.
Angels are still the choristers,
But we the shepherds are;
To bear the message which they bring,
To those both near and far."

Paul, the greatest of the apostles, and who had the best opportunity of testing the gospel by its fruit, declared of it: "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believes." And such is the testimony of every evangel who gives the gospel a fair chance.

In 1771 there came to America by appointment of John Wesley a man who was to become to American Methodism what Wesley himself had been to Methodism in England. He became our first regularly elected general superintendent, and has lately been styled "The prophet of the long road." He gathered about him a saddle-bag brigade, who seemed peculiarly fitted for the task of evangelizing the people of that day.

We are their sons in the gospel ministry. The road of the prophet has been greatly shortened, and the conditions and problems of our day are very unlike those of their day, calling for a different type of man to apply the remedy for sin, and different methods of application. But in men and methods our Church has been so adapted to the task that we are able to number our membership by millions.

Sixty-five years ago the Southern Illinois was carved out of the Illinois Conference. It was organized with 65 itinerant preachers and 14,948 members. To-day, by the grace of God, we number 272 itinerant preachers and more than 54,000 members, a gain of more than 400%. Every pulpit in our Conference has a preacher, and only 15 of these are supplies, while from the itinerant ranks we have 21 under special appointment. In the last two decades we have lost by transfer 168; by death 70; by withdrawal and location 17. Total loss 255. We have received by transfer only 90, making a net gain by admission on trial into our Conference of 185, or a net average annual gain of 9.

Methodism in the past has been especially noted for its evangelistic zeal and success. In imitation of its Saviour its mission has been to seek and to save that which was lost. As a result it has outstripped its sister denominations in numbers, has been a feeder for other churches and "by its (evangelistic) zeal hath provoked many." But Methodism has been also a militant church and has championed every reform. When the colonies were in the death struggle for liberty Methodism offered herself, and when the infant nation arose to its feet, among the first official declarations of loyalty was that of the Methodist Church.

When our nation was trying to abolish human slavery and turned to arms as a last resort, Mr. Lincoln declared that the Methodist Church sent more soldiers to the field, more nurses to the hospitals and more prayers to Heaven than any other Church.

The cry of unrest in the social world has come to our ears and in the General Conference of 1912 we recorded our convictions in words that were later adopted almost verbatim by the federated churches of America, composed of about thirty denominations.

The legalized liquor traffic has recognized in us one of its most dreaded foes. From this position we do not propose to retreat until this nation is without a saloon and our flag without its stain.

We recognize in the gospel the only remedy for sin. May we not invent anew but apply the true—

“O, what amazing words of grace are in the gospel found, Suited to every sinner’s case who knows the joyful sound.”

The forces of evil are powerful and well organized, and he who fights against them must have on the whole armor of God. Satan is wise and has many devices. No dullard can successfully contend against him. He is busy seven days in the week and twenty-four hours in the day. No idler can hope to tend the flock of God and rescue the lost in his community.

Great is our heritage; heartening is our history; urgent is the call of God.

“Be strong!
Say not the days are evil, who’s to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce, O shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God’s name.”

Illinois Woman's College

Jacksonville, Illinois

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements:

First—The instruction should be thorough.

Second—The equipment should be generous.

Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.

Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.

Fifth—The Christian influence should be positive and attractive.

Sixth—The charge should be reasonable.

They Will Find Every Requirement Fully Met at the Illinois Woman's College.

The College offers full College Courses and special advantages in Music, Art, Domestic Science and Expression.

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized, the College would not be able to take care of half the applications."
