UPLANDS

This annual report continues to be the most feasible and practical way to first convey to the churches our deep appreciation for the fine relationship that Uplands has enjoyed with the Southern Conference, and also to briefly share with you something of our activities this past year.

All of us at Uplands are deeply grieved by the death of Dr. James Lightbourne, Jr., but even in our sadness we are heartened in the knowledge that his life was so full and complete in terms of service to others. In his capacity as Conference Minister he served on the Uplands Board of Directors, representing the Southern Conference, and we shall always deeply appreciate his contributions and wise counsel as a friend and member of the Board.

As has been reported at other times, the work of Uplands is broadly in three areas: Wharton Nursing Home, Community Service Work and the Retirement Village. It is in the first two areas that contributions are solicited and gratefully received, since reimbursement received for services rendered, are, for the most part, inadequate to cover costs. We must rely heavily on the generosity of churches and friends if many of these services are to continue.

Wharton Home is a sixty-two bed ICF facility serving the needs of persons who require full nursing care. As is true of all such licensed facilities, Wharton Home must meet all state and federal requirements in areas of staffing, safety and quality of service. The Home has, through the years, established for itself the reputation of being a "Home that Cares", and we constantly strive to maintain that quality of excellence.

Community Service is a large aspect of our work at Uplands. We have a staff nurse, under the direction of our Medical Director, who is available to people of the community twenty-four hours a day. A clinic is held once a week for those of the community who need regular routine care. A 14 passenger bus, able to accomodate wheel chairs, provides daily transportation in the community and makes regular runs to nearby Crossville for medical appointments, shopping, etc. Meals are available to people in the community, and a broader meals program is being developed in the dining room of Heritage Hall which will be available to persons, thus providing at least one good, nourishing meal a day to the elderly. Financial assistance for indigent families is available through the Baird fund, set up some years ago to provide glasses, dental work and emergency health care for families unable to pay the cost themselves. About $4000.00 was paid out last year for this purpose.

The Retirement Village is the third area of work, providing not only physical accommodations for people who choose to live here, but also equally important, providing an atmosphere that has made Uplands a truly unique retirement community. At present there are 148 persons living in apartments or single-dwelling homes that they have built or purchased. Plans for future construction are now being made for a congregate living unit, which we have chosen to call Sheltered Care, and another complex of apartments near Heritage Hall. In terms of priority, the Sheltered Care unit is the most important at this time and the Building Committee has met numerous times, as well as has visited other facilities, to make plans for such a unit. With the completion of a Sheltered Care unit, we will be able to offer the full range of care that ideally can be provided in a retirement community; independent living to intermediate level and finally to nursing care if and when it is ever needed. We are obviously quite excited about the possibility of such a unit, and we hope to have a more positive report to give later this year.

We extend to you our hearty thanks for the generous support that has come from individuals and churches of the Southern Conference. We pledge to you that we shall strive to be the kind of Health and Welfare Agency that justifies the confidence you place in us and one that brings honor to the United Church of Christ.

Executive Director

CATAWBA COLLEGE

The twelve months which have elapsed since the last annual meeting of the Southern Conference have been filled with events of significant importance to the life of Catawba College. There have been times of great sadness, times when the reality of our fiscal situation became quite sobering, and times of high expectation and excitement when we looked to our future with confidence.

The end of the 1979-80 academic year last spring brought the resignation of Dr. Martin L. Shotzberger as our president. He announced his resignation on May 8, two days before commencement. The impact of the loss of the administrative leader was sobering to the College community.

There were some other more sobering happenings to face Catawba College. The first was finding sufficient funds to fulfill our obligations for the remainder of the year. The trustees had been told earlier that a deficit was foreseen. As the year progressed, the deficit grew, and as the fiscal year closed, had climbed to $124,000. This added to our financial difficulties and made the total of accumulated deficits over $866,000.

I have appointed a special trustee committee, chaired by Dr. Adrian L. Shuford, Jr. of Conover, to seek funds, first among the trustees themselves, to retire this deficit, helping to restore financial stability to our College.

Upon the resignation of Dr. Shotzberger, the Board of Trustees decided that I would be the acting president and serve until a new president was found.

When I came on the scene in early July, I found morale on the campus to be very low. We had not been able to raise salaries, make necessary improvements, provide travel funds for faculty and staff professional training, among other things, due to our financial condition. I also found out that the Catawba faculty, staff, and administration were not fully aware of the reasons behind the College's financial difficulties.

Catawba has suffered three tragedies in recent months, of great loss to the College community; the auto accident which took the life of sophomore Joseph Gallagher, 19, of Cherry Hill, New Jersey and severely injured sophomore Art Rose, 19, of Knightstown, Indiana, one of our basketball players; the untimely death after Thanksgiving of Adele Swaim, our bursar for the past 18 years; and the tragic accident January 13 which took the life of Forest Pridgen, our superintendent of buildings and grounds since 1958. In the deaths of Miss Swaim and Mr. Pridgen, the College has lost two devoted friends and colleagues.

During the summer months, the Catawba campus was the scene of a great deal of activity since we were finishing up the H. U. D. project in the dormitories and the dining hall. The new private dining room was completed as a wing of the dining hall, which was also redecorated and renovated, with new carpet, air conditioning, a lowered ceiling and new lighting. The dormitories were recarpeted, painted and brought up to standard where needed. Some dormitories received more work than others, especially Salisbury-Rowan, which was improved from top to bottom.

All of this work provided a new look when the students arrived in late August. We heard many positive comments from both students and parents about the extensive work which was done to the living and dining areas.

In my report to the Board of Trustees at the annual meeting February 17, I outlined some of the needs, both long-range and immediate, which I felt the trustees should address with all our energies and resources. These needs include:

- o- additional funds for academic honors scholarships;
- o- retirement of the College's accumulated deficit;
- o- a significant increase in the College's endowment fund so that additional operating monies could be earned;
- o- a new computer to serve the College's business needs as well as the computer science curriculum;
- o- explore the possibility of a new H. U. D. loan to modernize our heating plant and campus steam lines and improve heat conservation in the buildings;
- o- investigate a solar heating system for hot water generation in the summer months to open the campus facilities for camps, conferences, and workshops;
- o- salary increases for our faculty, staff, and administration with larger increments than have been made in the past two years;
- o- make some improvements in and strengthen our departments of music; education; and health, physical education and recreation;
- o- implement and bring on line the new Contemporary Studies program to reach out academically to the greater Salisbury-Rowan community; and
- o- development of a new series of convocation and chapel programs to improve community and bring us closer together.

One of the points I stressed to the trustees, and they agreed, is the need to rebuild Catawba's relationship with the United Church of Christ. The church is the reason for Catawba's existence, the "why" it was founded nearly 130 years ago. Our mutual goals have become obscured in recent years, and it is time now to merge our common efforts in this creative educational enterprise which is Catawba College.

Catawba College needs the support of the United Church of Christ, and the Southern Conference in particular, in the form of its sons and daughters as students, and its gifts of financial support to continue, and improve, the unique style of liberal arts, private higher education which has been the hallmark of this College over its many years. In this effort, we ask for your full material and prayerful support.

As this report was being prepared, the 18th president of Catawba College, Dr. Stephen H. Wurster, was making his final arrangements to assume the mantle of leadership, effective March 1, 1981. His selection is the result of seven months of intensive work, study and prayer by a large group of people representing all of the constituencies of the College, and headed by a committee of trustees chaired by Dr. Lonnie A. Carpenter. Their work involved a critical analysis of the College and where it stands today, as well as considerable study into what style of leadership can best move the College through the decade of the 1980s and on into the future.

The search committee's efforts culminated in the unanimous recommendation that Dr. Stephen H. Wurster become the 18th president of the College. His personal background of undergraduate education at one of our sister schools, Ursinus College, and his graduate study in the field of American religious history, plus his professional experience in the classroom, in administration, in management and personal relations, make him uniquely qualified to be Catawba's leader at this special time in her history. I ask that you join with all of us at Catawba College—trustees, faculty, staff, administration, and students—in supporting him as he leads the College to the high level of performance and service all of us envision for it.

My nine months as the 17th president of Catawba College have been a challenging, learning, and satisfying experience for me. The College leadership is composed of dedicated, talented people, the students have performed well during this interim period, and I leave the position with some mixed emotions.

I return now to my previous position as president of the Catawba board of trustees, where I believe I can function in a more knowledgeable manner as a result of my tenure as college president.

The years ahead for Catawba will be filled with challenges and rewards not unlike some which have come in the past, but with differences brought on by the changes inherent in our rapidly changing society. With our new president, and the continued support of alumni, parents, friends, and especially the people who represent Catawba's rich heritage, the church, Catawba will grow and prosper.

Dr. Theodore P. Leonard,
President

UNITED CHURCH RETIREMENT HOME

"You Can Help—Add Life To Years" is the call The United Church Retirement Home is making to the members of the Southern Conference throughout 1981. A Capital Funds Campaign, authorized by the Southern Conference is being conducted across the Conference to raise a minimum goal of $500,000. Churches and individuals are urged to make commitments to this three year goal for the purpose of helping to expand our work on behalf of the elderly.

Our major effort at the moment is directed towards construction of a new retirement "total life-care center" near Thomasville, North Carolina. This Center will be located on a 49.4 acre tract of land donated to The United Church Retirement Home by Mrs. Anice Shuler from Emanuel Church, Thomasville. Application has been made to the Department of Human Resources of North Carolina for a Certificate of Need for the certification of Skilled and Intermediate beds. A loan application has been made to the Farmers Home Administration for money needed to construct the central nursing-home building. Behind a central building will be cottages, duplexes and apartments. These independent living units will be built in the total community concept expanded as quickly as funds are available.

Plans continue to move along in Virginia for a Center to be located in that area. The Executive Committee of The United Church Retirement Home voted to extend financial campaign into the Virginia area during the spring and fall of 1981. The goal of the Campaign in Virginia will be to acquire an appropriate site and get the process moving for the establishment of a Center to help meet the needs of that area.

The major thrust of The Capital Funds Campaign to date has been to hold ten public relation-type dinners across North Carolina. The pastor and two representatives from each local church were invited to attend one of these dinners and learn about the expanding concerns of The United Church Retirement Home. There was a total of 347 persons present for the dinners representing 107 congregations. A packet of material was presented to each congregation which included samples of available promotional items and a guidebook to help congregations relate in a more meaningful way to the work of Southern Conference among the elderly. The objectives of the dinners were twofold:

1. To help congregations and individuals feel a sense of ownership for the work and ministry of The United Church Retirement Home.
2. To challenge churches and individuals to make a commitment to the financial campaign and thus help meet the $500,000 goal.

An effort will be made to see that every local church gets a copy of the packet and is challenged to give prayerful consideration to supporting this important ministry. A set of slides telling the story of The United Church Retirement Home and the reason for The Capital Funds Campaign is available from the Corporation office in Newton. Speakers are also available to explain the future plans and dreams.

The ministry at the J. W. Abernethy Center in Newton continues to expand with a village now being open for persons to retire in an independent living setting. It is our hope these facilities can be marketed in a way that will make them available to persons who must live on a moderate income.

Another exciting project of the Corporation is the construction of a Corporate Office Building on the Newton Campus. This is made possible by a generous gift designated for this specific purpose. The Morrison Building will be available not only to house the Corporate Office, but also for inservice training programs and the planning and carrying out of supportive community services. The office building should be completed by the end of 1981.

The ministry of The United Church Retirement Home continues to grow because there is a need and the members of Southern Conference continue to respond to that need. The nursing home at the J. W. Abernethy Center stays full and operates with a rather long waiting list. This is indicative of both the quality of care offered and the need for such a ministry. We are committed to providing the best possible care at the lowest possible cost. As a church-related facility, we offer a caring ministry to those unable to pay for such needed services. The members of the Southern Conference make this "second mile" ministry possible through what is called the "Sustaining Fund." Congregations and individuals contribute to this fund which is used to underwrite the ongoing administrative budget so persons on limited income can be served. We urge the congregations of Southern Conference to continue to put the Sustaining Fund in their yearly budget so we will never have to turn away anyone in need.

1981 marks the Tenth Anniversary of our first unit in Newton. It is an important year for The United Church Retirement Home and for the members of the Southern Conference as we plan our ministry among and on behalf of the elderly. How well we plan and how well we support this planning will determine to a great extent the course of the future across the Conference in this area of service. Please raise this concern before the people of your congregation and be sure it is a vital part of your wider ministry.

This past November we added an Administrative Assistant to our staff. This person will assist us not only with the day-to-day operations of the Corporation, but will also lead us in our concern for planning and development. He also brings to our staff expertise in helping to assist congregations in strengthening their ministry among the elderly in the communities where they serve. If the staff of The United Church Retirement Home can be of service to you or your congregation, please call on us. We are interested in keeping you informed concerning this work with the elderly which is in reality your work. We are also interested in helping in whatever way we can to strengthen the ministry of your congregation as it faces the growing challenge of responding to the concerns of the elderly. We extend our sincere thanks to the members of Southern Conference for the privilege of working on your behalf in this field of service. We ask for your continued spiritual and financial support, so essential if we are to meet the growing challenge before us.

TASK FORCE ON NEW INITIATIVES
IN CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

The members of the Southern Conference Task Force on New Initiatives in Church Development, in keeping with its mandate voted at the Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the Conference, and following suggestions approved by the Twelfth General Synod of the United Church of Christ, have been developing plans for the first of three Pentecost Sunday offerings to be received in the churches, scheduled for June 7 of this year. The proceeds of these offerings are to be used to underwrite an effort "to increase the number of UCC churches and members, by establishing new congregations and assisting 'parishes of promise' in their response to new opportunities."

The approved goal of this effort is the raising of $150,000 over a period of three years. One-third of the funds received are to be retained for use in the Southern Conference, and the other two-thirds are to be administered by the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries.

Promotional materials are now being prepared for use by the churches, and supplies are to be available at the Sixteenth Annual Meeting at Virginia Beach. Please pick up your packet of materials at the registration table. Valuable counsel in the selection and preparation of promotional materials has been received from the Stewardship Council through the Rev. Milton Gockley, and it is acknowledged with gratitude.

The churches of the Conference are encouraged to give their whole-hearted support to this important opportunity.

"For All The Saints"

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

“AMAZING GRACE”

Amazing Grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

ELON COLLEGE

Higher education, especially institutions such as Elon College which are supported primarily through private gifts and tuition, is being hit and hit hard—from several angles. The number of college-age students graduating from high school is expected to decline substantially over the next 10 years. On the average, colleges can expect a 25 percent decline in enrollment.

Another problem involves the increasing cost of education due to inflation. Tuition at private colleges must increase annually to meet the demands of higher utility and personnel costs, widening the gap between the costs of private and public institutions. As private colleges are forced to increase costs, more and more students are forced into the public sector at greater eventual costs to the taxpayer.

The final blow comes from both private and public gifts. Budget cuts for educational funding from governments have a double effect on private institutions. As funds are reduced and a greater share must come from private sources, public institutions become more aggressive in fund-raising, taking additional dollars from the private sector. And as the economy becomes less stable, corporations and donors of large gifts become more cautious in their planning.

With other sources of funding sharply reduced, Elon must rely on the generosity of the churches. The importance of strong church ties and support has never been more vital since the Christian Church established the college 92 years ago.

Although Elon expects to experience, to a certain degree, the problems common to all private institutions when the economy is strained, the College has maintained strength and is positioned to face the challenges of the decade. We enter the eighties with our best year ever, with the fall enrollment at an all-time high of 2,576 students, primarily from North Carolina and Virginia. Major emphasis has been placed on the continuing effort to strengthen and diversify programs.

A new major in English-Journalism is preparing students to enter the expanding fields of print and broadcast journalism. Many of these students work on the campus newspaper, The Pendulum, while others have joined the college radio station, WSOE-FM. Others are placed in internship positions with local media and businesses.

Elon has begun a major in public administration to prepare students for careers in local, state and national government agencies. In the field of allied health, the College, in cooperation with Biomedical Reference Laboratories, Inc. of Burlington, has started a major in cytotechnology.

This discipline prepares students to help in the diagnosis of diseases through the study of cells. Courses for the first three years are taken on campus, with the senior year spent primarily at Biomedical Laboratories.

Next fall a minor in computer information science will be instituted. The College's computer facilities for student use are among the best in the region. The computer information science curriculum is designed for a wide range of student interests. Realizing the need for computer literacy, the College urges every student to take a one-semester introductory course. The computer information science minor is designed to be combined with a variety of majors such as business administration, mathematics, social science, accounting, economics, and political science.

The College's Honors Program received national recognition last year at the National College Honors Council convention in Fort Worth, Texas. A major development in 1980-81 has been the beginning of the Academic Advising Center. While the Center serves all students, the staff has primary responsibility for working with students who have not decided upon their major field of study.

Of course, the most notable accomplishment in athletics was the achievement of the 1980 NAIA National Football Championship. Not only is this a first in Elon's history, but it also marked the first time a national football championship has been decided on North Carolina soil.

Elon's physical plant has continued to expand to meet the needs of the growing enrollment. In the fall of 1980, 144 students moved into a new dormitory complex, The Oaks, and the John A. Koury Field House was completed. Large gifts from Ernest and Maurice Koury, in memory of their father, made this facility possible. Currently, another dormitory is in the planning stages. Funded by a long-term federal loan, the new complex will house 300 students to relieve overcrowding. It is expected to be completed by the beginning of the 1982-83 academic year.

The first phase of the PRIDE Campaign for capital construction and improvements is almost completed. Churches have continued their support and have contributed, so far, more than 70 percent of their pledges. Several churches which have already met their pledges are including the same amount in their budgets to subscribe to Elon's much-needed Annual Fund.

While costs continue to increase, Elon remains one of the lowest among the private colleges in terms of tuition and fees. Total costs for dormitory students next year will be approximately $4,000. Scholarships established by friends and alumni, plus grants and loans make it possible for many deserving students to attend Elon. Gifts from the Southern Conference churches and individuals in our churches play a vital part in meeting the annual budget and are greatly appreciated.

The Reverend H. Reid Montgomery has been named director of Elon's Planned Giving Program. He can be reached in the Development Office and welcomes calls for assistance in deferred giving and retirement planning.

Response to the Dr. H. S. Hardcastle Memorial Scholarship Fund, established by the Eastern Virginia Association, continues to grow. Friends and alumni are supporting the Reverend Lacy M. Presnell Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Reverend J. Frank Apple Memorial Scholarship Fund, while the Lee County UCC churches continue their efforts to establish a Lee County Scholarship Fund for needy and deserving students from that county.

Religious life on campus, a primary concern in accordance with the school's charter, has been strengthened by the appointment of a chaplain, the Reverend William G. Sharpe IV. Under his leadership the activities of existing religious organizations are being coordinated and encouraged. Working with the Religious Life Committee and several subcommittees, the chaplain has initiated a weekly chapel service, made transportation available for students to attend area churches on Sunday morning, and helped to promote the 10-mile "CROP Walk" which raised almost $1,000 for world hunger. He is bringing area ministers to the campus and encouraging students to reach out into the community through service projects.

Dr. Clyde Fields, Elon's director of church relations, has been wearing two hats since the untimely death of Dr. James Lightbourne, Jr. In addition to his duties as liaison between the College and the Southern Conference, he has been serving as interim Southern Conference Minister.

With your help, the administration at Elon will meet and overcome the challenges faced by private institutions. Our record for providing educational opportunities of the highest quality will be sustained. We will continue to make these opportunities available to all students regardless of financial status.

COMMISSION ON CHURCH LIFE AND LEADERSHIP

1. The Commission on Church Life and Leadership continues to assist in providing programs and services which strengthen the vitality and effectiveness of local churches, associations, and the Conference. The Commission urges clergy and laity to participate in learning opportunities at Summer Conference, Southern Region Women's Gathering, Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds, at association levels and elsewhere.
2. The Office for Church Life and Leadership provides packets of program materials. One of the 1981 packets will be devoted to celebration of the 25th anniversary of the UCC. Order it from: Church Leadership Resources, 1400 N. 7th St., Suite B, St. Louis, Mo. 63106.
3. The Commission requested that a few key people in local congregations review clergy salary and benefits, giving consideration to inflation.
4. The Heritage Tours continue to receive excellent response. Rev. Frank Snider serves as Coordinator. Rev. Thomas Hamilton and Rev. James Peeler served as co-chairmen for the Fall Tour, highlighting

E and R Historical Society Meeting in Nebraska. Two tours are being planned: a seven day tour (June 25-July 1, 1981) to Pennsylvania and a visit to General Synod; a ten day tour (June 22-July 1, 1981) to Canada and General Synod.

5. The response was excellent to the chaplains event on October 30, sponsored by the Commission.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

The Commission on Evangelism was set up by action of the Southern Conference at the annual meeting held in Elon College in 1980. Since this is a new commission, we have found ourselves busy getting organized and setting our priorities. We have had excellent co-operation from Commission members, ex-officio members from the Conference, Association Evangelism Commissions and from the National staff. We now believe the proper organization has been done and our plans are beginning to take growth and will reach out through the local churches within the near future.

The Commission on Evangelism has the responsibility for:

- 1) Co-ordinating the work of the Association Commissions on Evangelism.
- 2) Developing the spiritual life of the churches.
- 3) Promoting the recruitment of the unchurched.
- 4) Developing and distributing materials on evangelism and church growth.
- 5) Providing opportunities for clergy and laity to increase their knowledge in Theology, Bible, Church History, and related subjects.
- 6) Planning and sponsoring workshops and consultations on Evangelism and Church growth.

The Commission is composed of the following:

The Chairpersons of the Association Commissions on Evangelism.

Eight members-at-large; including at least (2) youth.

In our meeting and planning sessions we have heard about the work being done already by each Association Commission and about their needs. With all these Association Commissions being very active, with their interest and wisdom, and with the national leadership which I'm pleased about, I believe the Southern Conference can and will experience great gains in Evangelism and Church Growth within the next five years.

The Eastern Virginia Association is already working on an excellent program on "How To Help Meet the Needs of the Local Church." Specific dates and plans will be worked out in their March meeting. The Western North Carolina Association Commission is also planning a program on "Witnessing, Outreach and Growth". They too will finalize their plans in early spring. The Eastern North Carolina Commission is fully organized and making great plans for the local churches.

There is a great concern over the existing congregations which are located where there is population increase or change. There are challenges, opportunities and struggles unique to these churches. How can these churches reach out? How can they grow? How can their ministry continue or begin in new ways to be faithful to the gospel of Christ as well as effective in meeting the needs of the congregation, the community and the world? Many of our churches in areas like this are searching for ways to extend their evangelism and church growth possibilities.

The Evangelism Committee of the Board for Homeland Ministries has begun an Evangelism/Church Growth Project. The purpose of this project is to help these churches focus on their evangelism and church growth possibilities.

Our plan now in Southern Conference is to have one area of the Conference (probably in the Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill area, or maybe in the Salisbury area) become involved in such a project. It will involve about fifteen churches in this given area giving full commitment to the project. Plans are still in the selection of area, church invitations being made, and follow-up commitments stages.

There will be Training Events in Evangelism/Church Growth, local church team participation, conference and Board for Homeland Ministries staff leadership given, other association teams observing and a real sense of the presence of the Holy Spirit working in these local congregations. This is not a pilot or testing project. We know already that it works. However, it will be a different approach and most certainly will help our local churches. Your Commission members and Conference Staff members are excited! You will be too and you will be given more information within the near future. Read your Southern Conference News!

The Reverend R. Alan Johnson, Secretary Evangelism/Church Growth, UCBHM will be working with us in this project. More later.

Please continue to remember us in your prayers as we seek together to do the needed work and give leadership in this area of ministry. Our thanks to all Staff and Members.

BLACK CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

The Black Church Development Commission had an active year in 1980. Its objectives for 1980-81 are: (1) Leadership training and recruitment and strengthening existing Black churches; (2) Strengthening local churches; and (3) program development in Black Churches.

In addition to the variety of ongoing programs and projects, one particular event is noteworthy. An Intergenerational Conference was held at Franklinton Center on December 11-13, 1980. The purpose of this Conference was to provide information on resources in the UCC which are available for the growth and Development of Black Churches.

The Commission continues to develop Programs to strengthen the life of Black Churches and Church people in Southern Conference. A variety of programs were sponsored covering leadership training in Christian Education, Church offices, Stewardship, Worship and Evangelism.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMISSION

The word "family" probably best summarizes the life and work of the Christian Education Commission. Christian educators are a family, sharing goals related to teaching and learning in the church. One senses this whenever one attends a meeting of the Commission or one of its task forces. The commission is also about the work of The Christian Family as can be seen through the efforts of its various task forces.

(a) Family stands out because 1981 is "the year of the family." The Task Force on Family Life is lifting up this theme in various activities it has sponsored, as is obvious in the Advent Family Workshop and the May 3 Family Life Workshops.

(b) In 1979 twelve young persons returning from a van trip to the twelfth General Synod consciously identified themselves as "a family" after spending a week together centering on the events of Indianapolis. 1980 marked the year of the National Youth Event, when 28 young persons from the Southern Conference discovered they were part of a national church family, with 1500 youth and youth leaders representing all conferences of the church meeting at Carlton College in Minnesota. The Youth Task Force, with persons from the above sponsored events and other persons, has now emerged as a group called SCY (Southern Conference Youth)—hardworking, dedicated, determined to be instrumental in the revitalization of youth ministry in the local church across the Conference.

The SCY group has been meeting on a regular basis to enact youth programming on a cluster level (a modification of an old district youth program). This youth family is also planning an annual conference wide youth event and a caravan to the 13th General Synod in Rochester, N.Y.

(c) If the reader or a person in his/her family has ever gone to a church camp, then it is not news that a camp group can easily come to see itself as a family. The Outdoor Ministries Task Force annually works with the camp program coordinator (Richard N. Rinker) in evaluating, planning, and implementing outdoor ministries that stand out as uniquely church oriented and specifically camp natured. A present priority of this task force is the development of outpost camping—moving campers beyond the developed area of the camp with emphasis on skills necessary for living in such a setting. Last year a work camp erected two A-frame cabins in one outpost area of Johns River Valley Camp. This year another work camp will do some additional work in the A-frame area of the camp. During the coming spring and summer, two persons will be instrumental in the area of planning for future camp programs. Rev. Richard Chamberlain, from the UCBHM will work with the commission and the JRV Board in a consultant role. Rev. Homer Yearick will be resident for the summer—exploring the camp property and making recommendations to the commission for program planning.

(d) Anyone who came to Blowing Rock last fall for the Fimprovement Revival, a retreat for Christian Educators in the Conference, would have also witnessed the family. For two years now, the Leadership Development Task Force of the Commission has sponsored such a retreat as an inspirational event for educators in the church.

The Christian Education Commission with its four Task Forces—(a) Family life, (b) youth, (c) outdoor ministry, (d) leadership—finds itself busy bringing people together into working “families” who are constantly facing the task of Christian Education in Southern Conference.

NAZARETH CHILDREN'S HOME

This is the Diamond Anniversary Year . . . our 75th! Although the original plans for a Home were proposed in 1903, it was actually December 1, 1906 when Miss Mary Abbott and four children moved into the McNairy home on Crescent Road to give birth to the Nazareth Orphans' Home. Since then, 823 children have called Nazareth “home”.

So much has changed . . . the original 85-acre farm has become 290 acres of campus farm, and woodland! The ten-room frame house has been replaced by four brick cottages, an administration building, a dining hall, two duplex apartments, two mobile homes, the superintendent's residence, and the Assistant Superintendent's house (formerly the farmer's house). Seven other buildings are related to the farm program, including the recently completed garage-shop. This building will soon be dedicated to a new program of repair and maintenance for teaching children about mechanics.

Even the name has changed . . . no longer are we an “orphanage” our charter now reads “Children's Home.” Currently we have no full orphans and just seven with only one parent living. The major age range has shifted from grammar grades to junior high school—eight in grades 2-6; 20 in grades 7-9; and 10 in 10-12—with 20 boys and 18 girls. We have increased from a low of 22 children in August to 38 children at present, and expect soon to reach our capacity of 46 as permitted by our license from the Department of Human Resources.

The emphasis in type of care has changed, as reflected in our recently revised Statement of Purpose:

“Nazareth Children's Home provides residential and therapeutic support services to dependent, neglected, and mildly to moderately emotionally and behaviorly disturbed children and adolescents. We also seek to provide a wholesome, Christian living environment, which will assist children in developing greater self-responsibility and more constructive relationships with others, preparatory to returning to their family and community environment.”

There have also been changes in the overall program! We now have greater flexibility in admitting children with special needs, as we have arrangements to use other schools in the county outside our district for placement of Nazareth children. Previously our Home could not accept children who could not function in the local schools.

The Title I reading program on campus is now in its second year. Since nearly 90% of our children read below grade level, this after-school instruction by four in-service teachers with new techniques and aids for remedial reading has been of great value toward improving reading skills. In addition, volunteer tutors and "Big Sisters/Brothers" from both Catawba College and Pfeiffer College assist in study hours.

We have revised our outvisit and sponsorship programs, in keeping with more professional standards of child care. There is increased flexibility in the times of visitation and closer screening of sponsor applicants to assure the best possible visiting resources for our children.

The citizenship program, a campus-wide behavior modification system, was implemented in September, following intensive staff training during the summer, and, and is now fully operational. Our professional services are now well underway.

Our staff has remained rather stable this past year, except for retirements and additions. Our two dietitians, who had served for nearly eight years as housemothers or cooks, retired in the fall. Increased enrollment made it necessary to add a second social worker, a part-time cook, and a child care worker for the reopened Smith Cottage for boys. We have also added a maintenance worker and a child care worker to replace those who transferred to other jobs on campus. Two of our new child care workers came through the United Church of Christ, one from North Carolina and one from Florida. At present we have a staff of sixteen.

The cost of caring for children, like everything else, has risen sharply. In the fiscal year 1979-80, our total expenditure was $256,000. For this present year our budget is almost $100,000 more because of increased enrollment, added staff, inflation, equipment replacement, and building repairs. Our "new" buildings are now ten years old, and the boys' cottages are twenty years old.

Who supports Nazareth? Over 60% of our income is from governmental agencies, but 18% comes from religious organizations. Although we have seen the contributions rise from $38,758 to $47,788 in the past three years, we must ask if the churches are doing their share in supporting our Home. However, we are grateful for these contributions and the variety of support we do receive from churches, church groups, and individuals. "White Christmas" gifts augment our school supplies; "Fun-Fund" money helps improve recreational activities; camperships send children to Johns River Camp. Others have donated equipment (cub lawn-mower, a second-hand pickup truck); food (fruit cakes, meat, bread); clothing (gloves, sox, bedspreads, tee-shirts); furniture (chairs, sofas); appliances (toasters, scales, poppers, hair dryers).

During the year I was invited to twenty-seven churches to tell the Nazareth Story and to preach. Ten of these churches were a "first-time" situation. I also visited all three associations and had an opportunity to get acquainted with delegates from the eastern part of our state and our Virginia area. I hope you have read the brochure telling of our 75th Anniversary which was sent to all churches in February.

This year we established a Longrange Planning Committee to make projections toward our 100th year, trying to set goals for new and expanded services and facilities. A friend from Ohio has pledged $20,000 to help us build an outdoor swimming pool. We will need additional help on that project. We are one of a few homes lacking a pool and an all-purpose building for recreation, study, meetings, music, and activities.

Remember that Saturday, August 1st, will be our big Anniversary Celebration. We plan a day-long program with concession stands, a flea market, pastry shop, novelty shop, food stands, etc. This means church groups must prepare to donate time for making articles and goodies and to be present on the big day to help. Please plan to make Anniversary Day a day to remember!

The Board of Managers, the staff, and I thank you for your faithful support. We are grateful for your many gifts of money, materials, time, and concern.

ELON HOME FOR CHILDREN

It was with a warm feeling of pride that Elon Home for Children greeted the New Year of 1980.

There were several good reasons for this sense of well being—among them the excellence of the staff, the quality of the program provided for young people and children in our care, the increasing interest of our churches, and the enrichment of our opportunity to serve families in need of encouragement and help as they faced the difficult problems of today's world. Contributing greatly to our enthusiasm for the new year and its challenge to the achievement of fresh and more demanding goals was the memory of the honor received late in 1979 when Elon Home became the first child-caring institution in the country to earn accreditation of the National Association of Homes for Children.

With this auspicious beginning, Elon Home was ready for an outstanding year of service in 1980. Its broad program for the new year included addition of The Oaks, a residential group home in Burlington, N. C. for six children. With a staff especially trained to work with emotionally disturbed children, the facility is meeting a need that had been evident for some time. Its establishment illustrates the determination of Elon Home to meet changing conditions and needs with an expanded program designed for this purpose.

Other services provided were institutional care, group home care, day care, after-school care, foster home care, advanced care, preparation for independent living, and a Family and Community Service Department devoted to the strengthening of families. In each of these, 1980 was a good year marked by very worthwhile accomplishments.

Programs in institutional care, preparation for independent living, Family and Community Service, day care, after-school care, and advanced care centered on the beautiful campus at Elon College, N. C., where there are cottages serving as homes for 62 children and young people and the auxiliary facilities necessary to their proper care and to operation of the other services offered there. Each residential cottage has a young couple as houseparents. We are greatly pleased with these houseparents and the skill they brought to their duties.

In the program of Preparation for Independent Living, a number of young people who soon would be leaving us to go out "on their own" received advice, experience, and knowledge to help them face the future. At the Turner Memorial Group Home in Suffolk, Virginia, boys and girls who need special attention as they complete high school and go to work earning a living are given a foundation for success and happiness they might otherwise have failed to receive.

"Full enrollment with a waiting list" was the story of our day care and afterschool care programs. Little children under kindergarten age whose parents worked away from home were given the best of care by our competent staff. The after-school program, in which children needing care from the time school was out until the time their parents completed the day's work and could be home with them, continued to be a tremendous help to many families.

We had three children in our foster care program in which those who have difficulty adjusting to institutional or group living can be served. All these did well in school and in their foster homes and are benefiting from the opportunity of living in one of our good foster homes. These homes are licensed for foster care, and the children's care is supervised by our staff.

In the advanced care program, we, as in former years, kept in close touch with numbers of our alumni. When a young person finishes high school and leaves the Home, we assure him or her that we shall always be ready when help or advice is desired. We are anxious for our young people to know we are their friends and can be depended upon. We are delighted with the number of alumni who attended the annual homecoming in June and with the interest shown by many through the year.

Much satisfaction resulted from the work in the Family and Community Service Department. Meetings, seminars, and a variety of events were provided in the interest of strengthening families. The program found growing acceptance.

The staff was strengthened greatly in 1980. For The Oaks, we employed a director who had been in private practice as counselor to clients from a variety of socio-economic backgrounds and age groups and has a Master of Social Work degree from the University of North Carolina. As counselors for this group home, we employed a couple with long experience in counseling in this country and Europe. The clinical co-ordinator has a PH.D degree in clinical psychology from the University of Chicago and has received national recognition for her work.

The casework staff devotes full time to helping our children and young people meet many problems they face. To fill a vacancy, we had the good fortune to be able to employ a young woman with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Tufts and a Master's degree from Northwestern University. Her concern for troubled young people is indicated in her experience as foster mother for a teenage girl and as a counselor for teenagers.

A former houseparent who is experienced in dealing with young people and in farm and maintenance work joined us as successor to the retired farm supervisor.

We made another valuable addition to our staff when the recently retired minister of the Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ joined us as development associate. His duties consist of working with the churches and their individual members in the Southern and Southeast Conferences.

Among the most important positions at the Home are those of houseparents, for these persons have a close relationship with the young people day in and day out. They are in charge of the everyday lives of the boys and girls, and much of how a young person benefits from the advantages available to our children depends upon the personality, character, and ability of the houseparent.

To the fine houseparents already on our staff, we added houseparents for Montgomery and Rudd Cottages and Turner Memorial Group Home.

The year 1980 was not by any means a period in which routine "business" was allowed to take precedence over new efforts in the interest of the Home. An outstanding accomplishment was the production of a film, "Touch A Child", which was developed for use in telling the story of Elon Home to the Churches, interested civic organizations, and other groups. With attractive pictures of the children and young people, buildings, activities, staff members, and campus scenes and an effective narration, it shows how the Home endeavors to provide the best in modern care for those it serves. In the first few weeks after its completion, "Touch A Child", was shown to many audiences and was praised highly.

Another special concern was Elon Home's Diamond Jubilee, which will be celebrated in 1982. The Board of Directors, staff members, alumni, churches, and many friends began working on 75th anniversary plans when 1980 was still a young year. Committees are developing plans which promise to make 1982 a great year for the Home. It is hoped that the program being planned will result in informing those interested in child care of the accomplishments of Elon Home and of the possibilities of increased achievement as it gains growing support.

As we strive to render better service to children and their families, we hope our friends in every walk of life will grow in realization that Elon Home for Children is making a valuable contribution to the development of children and young people into well-adjusted, self-reliant, successful adults of strong Christian faith and to the preservation of families throughout our country. Through a generous sharing of themselves and their material blessings with the Home and its children, they can have an effective part in this work.

BLOWING ROCK ASSEMBLY GROUNDS

If you think you have experienced all there is to experience at the Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds, you better think again. The progress detailed below has paved the way for many new and exciting things at "your place in the mountains" in 1981. Among the new offerings at BRAG will be first and third Saturday evening 'pig-pickins', the Emporium featuring bakery products from the BRAG kitchens, guided canoe trips on the scenic New River, Friday evening crepe parties, dining under the awning in the Berry Patch and increased offerings for retired persons, youth groups and other organizations. Add to this tennis, racquetball, lawn bowling, miniature golf, 'lazy-day' hikes and mountain explorations and you have "what's happening at BRAG" in 1981. All that remains is for you to be a part of the learning, growing, enjoying taking place there.

The 1980 program ministry began with a full house for the conference wide Confirmation gathering. The Third Annual Confirmation Gathering is scheduled for May 15-17. The Evangelism Conference had fewer participants than hoped for but more than compensated for the lack of numbers in the enthusiasm and fellowship. The Retired Persons' Week was overbooked and enthusiasm for this type of worship/learning/fellowship experience has led to the scheduling of 3 such events for 1981.. The Oktoberfest and July 4 package were very successful. Numerous youth retreats, consistory workshops, women's meetings and the annual Men's Brotherhood weekend filled the schedule.

Again in 1980 one of the greatest assets for BRAG was the dedicated young people who gave tremendously of themselves to provide staffing for BRAG.

Although the statistics do very little to reflect the real picture, in 1980 BRAG once again recorded an almost 100% increase in usage with people coming from 16 states and 12 foreign countries, 13,688 meals were served and 4,728 nights lodging recorded. Revenues increased from $33,442.06 in 1979 to $64,940.63 in 1980.

The Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds continued during 1980 to emerge on its journey into becoming a first class retreat facility for use by the churches and people of the Southern Conference. Much was done to improve the facility physically. A new cottage, fully winterized, and capable of accommodating 24 people was constructed. The remaining dormitory rooms were remodeled so that all rooms in the Walter Rowe Dorm now are paneled and carpeted. Led by the women's groups in the Charlotte churches, funds were made available to give these rooms a new, cheery look with bedspreads, pictures and other furnishings. A miniature golf course, 2 racquetball courts, and a new 'football size' activity field have been put into use with the tennis court nearing completion.

Faced with having to turn away numerous persons and groups due to the lack of space to accommodate them, the Board of Trustees voted to embark upon a campaign to secure pledges of $350,000 from individuals and businesses for the purpose of constructing a new lodge. To date, the campaign has passed the half way mark with anticipation of reaching the goal by early Summer. The architects are completing the plans for the new lodge containing winterized dining facilities for 100, guest rooms with private baths, an office suite, meeting rooms and indoor recreation space. Anyone wishing to participate in this project by making a pledge should contact the Director.

1980 was a year of excitement and growth for 'your place in the mountains'. The secret is out of what the Southern Conference has at BRAG and the demand to use the facility grows daily. Churches and individuals are encouraged to make reservations at least 90 days in advance with 6 months to a year being advisable. We hope you will be a part of the excitement in 1981. Your continued prayers and support are greatly appreciated.

TASK FORCE ON WOMEN IN CHURCH & SOCIETY

Four areas of concern served as focal points for this task force this year. They were sexism/racism, the Equal Rights Amendment, inclusive language, and abortion. Each of these issues was studied, debated, and related to our biblical heritage, cultural values, legal ramifications, current theology, and our own experiences. Foremost in all our deliberations was our concern for mercy and justice. Rarely did we reach unanimous decisions, but in sharing our individual viewpoints we grew into a cohesive group of pilgrims searching for the truth.

We encourage all congregations to join us in:

- studying liberation theology
- discussing the Equal Rights Amendment
- using the Statement of Faith as revised by Dr. Robert Moss
- considering abortion as a woman's choice based on personal religious principles and free from government interference
- utilizing the many gifts of women to strengthen and enrich the church
- praying for equality of opportunity and freedom of choice for all people

The three Associate Conference Ministers were invited to meet with us, as were female clergy. We appreciated the participation of Vera Parker, representing the UCC Coordinating Center for Women's Concerns; Nora Norred, president of the Southern Conference Women's Fellowship; and Cally Rogers-Witte, N. C. Council of Churches ERA representative. Our meetings are always open and visitors welcomed.

It was a real joy for me to work with the following Task Force members. They came to the meetings, participated in all our events, and, most importantly, lived out their beliefs in their communities:

EVA—Fran Carnright, Forest Wells, Susie Keele

ENC—Peg Hulslander, Jill Edens, Winfred Bray

WNC—Dot Ballinger, Gail Hooper, John Kernodle

A real void now exists in our group. Jimmy Lightbourne was instrumental in our formation. He helped make things happen. He stuck with us. It was not an easy task. Jimmy understood the importance of our concerns and they became his concerns. He took us seriously and provided the support we needed. We miss our friend.

THE STEWARDSHIP COMMISSION

Among items of interest that surfaced at recent Stewardship Commission meetings, the following are called to your attention:

(1) Missionary visitors are an excellent way to lift up the mission work of the United Church of Christ for our churches. For example, this past Fall Western North Carolina Association enjoyed having James and Jean Winter visit twelve churches and organizations. In Togo, Africa, Jim is engaged in well drilling, cattle and poultry projects, and a tractor cooperative. Jean is busy with a child health clinic.

(2) Literature, speakers, and study opportunities can be worked out in local churches to help them discover the total mission of our denomination as an ongoing concern with the needs of people in many places. The resources called Growing Up in Mission is a fine starting point for children and, through them, adults who help them learn. There are numerous filmstrips with records available free from the Conference Audio-Visual Library in Burlington to encourage real growth in knowing what is happening in our mission work around the world.

(3) The importance of regular, year-round support of OCWM through monthly or quarterly mailings of funds to the Conference cannot be overstated. Needs are present all the time. Every effort should be made to see that this support becomes a regular function of sharing in missions at the local level.

(4) Watch for training events sponsored by association Stewardship Commissions during the coming year. This is another excellent way to discover how the local church's outreach can be stimulated and made more effective.

(5) It is highly noteworthy to report that in 1980 giving for regular OCWM purposes increased over the preceding year by the amount of $17,469. Giving for unbudgeted special gifts, such as One Great Hour of Sharing and other similar projects, increased by an amount of $35,862.

Local churches sharing in these increases are commended for their increasing support. Keep up the fine work.

Remember—we are all participants in the wider outreach of the church as it seeks to discover needs and respond to them in ways which reflect our love and our faithfulness.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

During the year the Commission made a Grant of $250.00 to the Yokefellow Ministry of North Carolina. The Rev. Max B. Vestal, Fayetteville, N. C. is a part-time staff member of Yokefellow.

The Rev. Paul B. Robinson has represented the Southern Conference on the special committee on Refugee Resettlement of the North Carolina Council of Churches. The Rev. Ruth Minter, a minister of the Southern Conference, is the Executive Director of the Refugee Program of the Council.

The Rev. James E. Humphrey, Sanford, N. C., represents the Southern Conference on the Advisory Committee on Prison Ministries in North Carolina.

The churches and ministers in North Carolina and Virginia should be aware that both the North Carolina and Virginia Councils of Churches have strong programs in social ministries. The Commission urges our churches to become more informed about and involved in these programs and to make sure they are on the mailing lists to receive information about activities and programs. The persons are:

The Rev. James A. Payne
Virginia Council of Churches
2321 Westwood Avenue
Richmond, Virginia 23230

The Rev. S. Collins Kilburn
N. C. Council of Churches
Bryan Building
201-A Cameron Village
Raleigh, N. C. 27605

The Association Commissions have been very active addressing such concerns as:

1. Spouse and Child Abuse
2. World Hunger
3. Racism
4. ERA
5. Capital Punishment
6. Labor and Management Relations
7. The effects of Mass Media (Television) on family life.

The Commission urges its constituency to do the following: (1) to subscribe to IMPACT, the UCC Network of concerned individuals on matters of Public Policy; and (2) to keep in contact with their legislators, especially on social issues.

Finally, this Commission feels greatly the loss of our Conference Minister, Dr. James H. Lightbourne, Jr., who stood tall for Social Justice for all people.

LANCASTER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Southern Conference and Lancaster Seminary share together in the work of the United Church of Christ. This special relationship with the Conference reinforces the Seminary's purpose of preparing persons for leadership in parish churches and fostering life-long learning.

There are many ways in which Southern Conference and Lancaster Seminary are Partners in Mission.

- 41 graduates of LTS serve churches in Southern Conference.
- One of the members of the Conference Staff is an LTS alumnus, Edwin M. Alcorn.
- Dale Bennett, a layman from Peace United Church of Christ, Greensboro, N. C. and D. Lee Jessup, Jr., pastor of First Reformed United Church of Christ, Lexington, N. C., are members of the Seminary Board of Trustees. Lonnie Carpenter, former pastor of First Church, Salisbury, N. C., is a trustee emeritus.
- Gordon Sperry, pastor at Corinth United Church of Christ, Hickory, N. C., serves on the Alumni/ea Council.
- One student from Southern Conference, Marc Wessels, graduated from Lancaster in 1981 and was ordained by Eastern Virginia Association in January.
- The LTS Arts Ensemble included Southern Conference stops in its concert tour during late January: Bethlehem Christian, Suffolk, Va.; Elon College Community, Elon College; First Reformed UCC, Lexington; Catawba College Chapel; and Corinth UCC, Hickory.
- 37 congregations in Southern Conference have pledged $48,079 to the Partners in Mission campaign. More detailed report on the campaign will be available at the Annual Conference Meeting.
- Friends, alumni/ea, churches and trustees contributed $4,665 to the Friends Fund in 1979-80.

You are familiar with Lancaster Theological Seminary's work related to your Conference. We want to share with you some other notes about the Seminary's life.

Our basic purpose is to prepare persons for leadership in parish churches. This is done in the context of an educational program that seeks to combine spiritual depth, intellectual rigour, and practical competence in a balanced curriculum of basic studies and field experience.

Our students this year come from 18 states and the District of Columbia, as well as from Korea, Australia, and Nigeria. Nearly half of the Master's students are UCC. About one-third are women. During the fall term 1980-81, 240 persons were enrolled. Of these, 102 were seeking Master of Divinity degrees, and 103 Doctor of Divinity degrees.

In September, David and Denise Hopkins began their joint teaching ministry as Instructor in Hebrew and Old Testament. Also in September, Richard Glatfelter joined the Development staff as alumni officer, and director of student recruitment.

The Seminary community mourned the loss of Dr. Bricker, Professor of Theology, and Director of Library Services. The life and ministry of this remarkable scholar and churchman was celebrated in Santee Chapel with a memorial service January 14.

Fostering life-long professional learning is an important priority at Lancaster. Most of this work is carried out by the Center for Professional Development in Ministry. During the past year more than 800 clergy participated in some event planned by CPDM either on or off campus.

RECOMMENDED MINIMUM SALARY
SCALE FOR FULL-TIME
MINISTERS—MEN AND WOMEN
SOUTHERN CONFERENCE UCC—1982

1. Minimum Cash Salary for Seminary Graduates:

	Accumulated Professional Experience
	1 thru 5 years	6 thru 10 years	11 years up
Up to 250	$11,500	$13,200	$14,850
251-500	12,100	13,750	15,400
501-750	12,650	14,300	15,950
751 and up	13,200	14,850	16,500

2. Parsonage with all utilities paid or a housing allowance of no less than $6,000.
3. Other professional expenses, including education opportunities—a minimum of $275 per year.
4. Travel allowance 20c per mile or a minimum of $2,600 per year.
5. Retirement—11% of base salary. (This base salary is cash salary plus the value of the parsonage. 30% of the cash salary should be added to arrive at the base salary. The base salary thus is 130% of the cash salary. Thus, if the cash salary is $10,000, the base salary would be 130% of that amount or $13,000).
6. Ministers are enrolled in Social Security as self-employed persons. The church should pay at least ½ of the Social Security Tax to the minister on a quarterly basis. The minister must report this as income for both state and federal income tax purposes.
7. Hospital-Medical Insurance—The church should make sure its pastor is enrolled in the group plan of the Southern Conference and should pay the premium in full.
8. Family Protection Plan—The United Church of Christ provides a plan covering life and disability insurance for ministers. The church should make sure its pastor is enrolled and should pay the premium in full. The program is 1% of the base salary (130% of the cash salary.)

9. Each minister should receive a vacation of one month per year with pay.
10. Sabbatical leave—The church should provide a sabbatical leave of two months with pay after five years of service to the church.
11. Moving expenses should be paid by the calling church.
12. The church should review the compensation paid to its minister each year. Salary increases should be given both on the basis of cost of living increases and on merit.

NOTE: Ministers without full academic preparation (college and seminary degrees) should be compensated at the rate of at least 80% of the above scale for cash salary. The other benefits should be the same.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
Church Women of the Southern Conference
United Church of Christ
Elon College, N. C., June 15, 1981

The Annual Meeting of CWSC was called to order at 3:30 P. M. by President Nora Norred.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "Jesus Calls Us". Mrs. Shirley Cannon led in prayer.

President Norred expressed deep appreciation to Shirley Cannon, Chairperson; Dolores Rawles, Co-Chairperson; and the Summer Conference Committee, for putting together such a fantastic conference. Members of the Board present at this time were introduced. Presidents of the three associations were also recognized as members of various committees. The Presidents of the three associations recognized their officers, district representatives and all members present from their districts. Dates for Fall Enrichment Meetings were announced: Eastern Virginia at Chesapeake, Providence, September 17th; Eastern North Carolina at Apex, Christian Chapel, September 18th and Western North Carolina at Troutman, Shinnsville, September 19th.

Special guests were introduced: Rev. Ervin Milton, Association Conference Minister of Eastern North Carolina, who brought greetings from the Association and Ms. Nancy Keppel, Chairperson of Southern Conference Task Force on Women. Dr. Fred Young brought greetings from Elon College and Dr. Clyde L. Fields brought greetings from the Southern Conference.

Business Meeting Minutes

The President asked the body for the approval to have the minutes of the Annual Meeting held at Catawba College, June 15, 1980, dispensed. The minutes stood approved.

Treasurer's Report: Mrs. Elaine Simmons.

The Treasurer called attention to her report printed on page 16 of the year book. She presented the expense proposed budget for 1981-82. The budget showed monies for Administrative use: $1,272.00, for Outreach, $4,500.00. Total Expenditures were $5,772.00 for 1981-82. The President thanked Mrs. Simmons and her committee for the most efficiently kept budget. Mrs. Simmons' term as Treasurer has expired. After June 30, 1981, all monies will be sent to our new Treasurer:

Mrs. William H. Perkins, Jr.

4105 Trotter Ridge Road

Durham, N. C. 27707—Tel. (919) 489-3383

Working Rules: Mrs. Shirley Cannon

The Working Rules Committee brought to the Conference a recommendation asking that the Conference add to the Working Rules Committee an additional Standing Committee—which is a History Committee and that this committee be composed of the Secretary of Church Women of the Southern Conference and the three Association Secretaries, and that this committee would compile and keep ongoing records of the Southern Conference Women. The motion was made and adopted.

Leadership Development Report: Mrs. Marion Sperry

Mrs. Sperry made a plea for the Fall Regional meeting to be held October 16-18, 1981, in Monteagle, Tennessee. Approximately 200 Women will attend this meeting. There will be 50 spaces for 50 persons going from Southern Conference.

The THEME is WOMEN OF FAITH: VARIED GIFTS—ONE SPIRIT.

Leadership will come from National and Local levels.

Scholarship Aid Committee: Ms. Susie Keele

President Norred confirmed that Mrs. Ruth McDowell had to resign as chairperson of this committee due to illness of her husband but is still a member. Ms. Susie Keele has accepted this Chairperson role. Scholarship Fund explained by President Norred of the action that the full board took concerning the Scholarship Fund in March, 1981. The Board was seeking an appropriate way to sufficiently remember Dr. James H. Lightbourne, Jr., who had meant so much to women in the Southern Conference. It was felt that an ongoing fitting way would be to name the Scholarship Fund the Dr. James H. Lightbourne Scholarship Fund. The motion was carried.

Task Force: Ms. Nancy Keppel, Coordinator

This report is found on page 18 of the yearbook.

President Norred stated that we are called to wholeness and we would like to lift up again the tremendous importance of a cooperative spirit between Church Women and the Task Force. Mrs. Norred stressed the importance of keeping an updated mailing list. If you are a new officer or President of Church Women, please give your names to your association president.

Nominating Committee Report:

This report is found on page 17.

Two officers were replaced at this conference.

Mrs. Gordon Sperry graciously accepted to remain as 2nd Vice President and Mrs. Nancy Perkins graciously accepted the office of Treasurer. The body duly elected Mrs. Sperry and Mrs. Perkins to serve.

Installation: Former President Lucille Smith.

Mrs. Smith charged the two of their duties and responsibilities. She gave the pledge to the membership; she offered a prayer for the two and congratulated them for wanting to serve.
