VOTE 7: To adopt the resolution on landmines.

RESOLUTION ON LANDMINES

Whereas, our partner church, the Evangelical Congregational Church of Angola has called upon the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ to advocate for a comprehensive global ban on anti-personnel landmines, and

Whereas, in Angola alone there are estimated to be between nine million and twenty million mines and an estimated 70,000 people of that country have become amputees as a result of landmines, and

Whereas, the United Church of Christ, through the Board for World Ministries, has been providing aid to victims of landmines, and

Whereas, landmines amount to endless war, remaining hidden for years after soldiers leave the battle fields to destroy and terrorize communities and returning refugees; and

Whereas, many military leaders, including Retired General Norman Schwartzkopf have called for such a ban on anti-personnel landmines, and

Whereas, the use of landmines results not only in unconscionable human casualties, but also pollutes the land and the environment and renders farm land untillable, and

Whereas, the United Church of Christ Board for World Ministries and the Office for Church in Society are urging congregations and conferences of the United Church of Christ to join the international effort to lift our voices in opposition to the production, trade, stockpiling, and use of landmines,

Therefore be it resolved: that The Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ supports a comprehensive global ban on antipersonnel landmines; that the Government of the United States is urged to participate in the "Ottawa Process" to implement such a ban; that the Conference Minister is requested to communicate this resolution to the Secretary of State, Ms. Madeleine Albright, the National Security Advisor, Mr. Samuel Berger, and to the Senators of Virginia and North Carolina; and that the congregations of the Southern Conference and their individual members are urged to raise their voices in support of a ban on anti-personnel landmines;

And be it further resolved, that The Southern Conference calls on the General Synod of the United Church of Christ to seek a ban on the production, trade, stockpiling and use, of anti-personnel landmines.

Submitted by:

The Christian Unity Commission and the Justice and Racial Reconciliation Commission of the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ.

The Southern Conference delegation to General Synod was introduced and made a presentation on the business to come before Synod.

A slide presentation on Lake Prince Retreat Center was shown.

After announcements by Rev. Alan Miller, the meeting recessed and a hospitality time was offered by the Camps and Conference Centers.

The Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds video presentation was presented. Dr. Donald Freeman brought greetings from Lancaster Seminary. Nick Pence, Jr., student at Lancaster presented the resolution on Seminary Debt.

VOTE 9: To amend the resolution on seminarian debt to ask the Southern Conference delegates to General Synod to express the desire for Synod to seek to budget National support for seminaries.

VOTE 10: To amend the resolution by striking "subject to availability of funds" from the last line of the resolution.

SEMINARIANS EDUCATIONAL DEBT

Whereas God provides for God's church by calling and gifting persons for ministry in a variety of ways, including pastoral leadership for the church itself;

Whereas the church participates in this providence of God by equipping and authorizing the ministries of some of its called and gifted members through theological education and ordination or commissioning;

Whereas the well-being of the church of Jesus Christ, and particularly of each local church, is enhanced by calling faithful, educated and competent pastors, teachers and other leaders, and jeopardized by the unavailability of such leadership;

Whereas the church has historically provided for its leadership needs through institutions of theological-pastoral education;

Whereas by action of General Synod III, the United Church of Christ phased out national direct support to seminaries and called upon Conferences and local churches to assume this responsibility;

Whereas although General Synod X urged each local church to support the closely related seminary or seminaries (now "of the United Church of Christ") in its region at a level equivalent to two percent of its operating budget, few local churches have done so;

Whereas the cost of educating persons for ministerial leadership has therefore gradually shifted from the church itself to the persons themselves, and, inclusive of living expenses, has increased to more than $24,000 per year for many seminarians;

Whereas many of the current generation of seminary graduates have borrowed large sums of money to complete their theological education, the average student loan for the year 1996-97 at one seminary of the United Church of Christ being $10,200, accumulating to over $30,000 in three years, not considering any undergraduate student loans still being carried;

Whereas indebted seminary graduates must seek starting salaries sufficient to enable debt repayment on top of costs of living, while the salaries offered by many local churches are marginal at best and inadequate to do so, and these local churches are increasingly hard-pressed to finance even marginally-paid leadership;

Whereas these trends point toward a dearth of church leadership, in which only wealthy persons being able to afford to answer God's call to full-time leadership and only wealthy churches being able to call them;

And Whereas the efforts of seminaries of the United Church of Christ and of the Make A Difference Campaign, although providing some increase in scholarship resources, have not been sufficient to stave off these trends;

And Whereas the crisis calls for at least a four-pronged approach, (a) to hold down the tuition costs at the Seminaries of the United Church of Christ by supporting their educational programs directly, (b) to assist seminarians with scholarship support, (c) to assist seminary graduates with the repayment of their educational debts, and (d) to seek new and creative ways to finance the pastoral leadership of local churches;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Southern Conference asks that the Twenty-first General Synod of the United Church of Christ

* acknowledges the mounting educational debt load of seminarians and seminary graduates as an alarming symptom of a growing crisis for the ongoing leadership of the church;

* requests the Office for Church Life and Leadership to present to the Twenty-second General Synod a pronouncement and proposal for action concerning the financing of theological education for the leadership of the church;

* calls local churches to faithfulness to covenants of financial support of seminaries in their regions, established by the tenth General Synod at the level of two percent of their local expense budgets;

* calls upon local churches and Committees on Ministry to include provisions to enable gradual repayment of educational debt in pastoral covenants and terms of call, and upon Conferences to include such provision in their guidelines for clergy compensation;

* calls upon Conferences and Associations to explore with local churches creative arrangements to distribute available wealth, to reduce the financial burden of their educational-debt-laden pastors and their hard-pressed churches;

*calls upon the Office for Church Life and Leadership to provide national leadership to the implementation of this resolution, and upon the officers and the other instrumentalities of the United Church of Christ to support this Office in its efforts.

VOTE 11: To adopt the resolution as amended.

A resolution on hog farming was introduced by Rev. Bill Smith.

A STATEMENT OF CONCERN AND RESOLUTION REGARDING THE ENVIRONMENT

Theological Basis:

Holy Scripture proclaims that "The earth is the Lord's and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it. (Ps.24:1)

Human beings, we are taught (Gen. 2:15) are charged with caring for God's garden, the earth.

A portion of the sin we bear collectively (Rom. 3:10-18) is our abuse and exploitation of the earth our pollution of its soil, air, and water, the result when we consider only our immediate wants, beyond our needs.

Meanwhile, "The creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children God" (Rom. 8:19)

Moreover, we servants of Christ, are called to be agents of God's reconciliation in Christ with the world (II Co. 5:18)

Present Situation

The eastern portion of North Carolina is presently undergoing extreme stress to its water systems particularly, but also to its general well being (SHALOM) brought about by several factors, notable among them being huge hog processing operations. Two years ago the House of Delegates of the North Carolina Council of Churches adopted the attached statement of concern and resolution.

Presently legislation is being considered to declare a moratorium on the establishment of large hog factories for either one or two years. Additionally,, the proposed legislation will invest counties with authority to control zoning for these operations. Discussion is also underway aimed at addressing other causes of pollution.

Resolution

Therefore, be it resolved that the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon its members to support the passage of legislation designed to restrain the proliferation of large hog factories in eastern North Carolina while studies go forward to reduce or remove the negative impact of these operations and that of other sources to the environment, communities and small family farmers; and that this resolution be communicated to all members of the North Carolina General Assembly, the Governor, and the Secretary of Agriculture immediately by your Conference Minister.

VOTE 12: To close debate on the resolution.

VOTE 13: To adopt the resolution regarding the environment.

VOTE 14: To adopt the amenities resolution. Be it resolved: The Southern Conference in its 32nd Annual Meeting expresses its deep appreciation to Catawba College and the WNCA for so ably and graciously hosting this Annual Meeting:

Alan Miller and Jo Carpenter for the very able planning and administration of the meeting;

LouCinda Graves and Rosemary Clark for preparing and managing our registration and information materials;

Rena Langdon and Carroll Bartholomew for so ably conducting our business sessions;

Charlotte Still, Geoffrey Black and Gene Krauss for our theme presentations and their gifted leadership;

All those who led workshops to help us better see our way into God's future;

Lynn Hinton, our worship planner, and all those who led us in our inspiring services of worship.;

Mel Palmer our Parliamentarian and Rollin Russell our Conference Minister for the smooth flow of our business;

All those who have made this meeting successful.

President Langdon thanked the delegates and her fellow officers for assistance during her term. Rev. Alan Miller made announcements and then the meeting recessed for a theme presentation by the staff of OCLL.

Dr. Russell presented plaques to several outgoing officers and then presided at the installation of officers.

Closing worship was held and the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Bruce A. Havens, Secretary

Still, Office for Church Life & Leadership, United Church of Christ, delivered the message. The offering from the service ($1,200) was given to the "Re-Building Fund" of Pleasant Ridge UCC Greensboro, NC. Related to the Proposed 1997 Budget, he pointed out that items 027 and 028 are included for planning purposes. The National Youth Event and the German Trips are not yearly events, but funds need to be accumulated for these events so that on the years that they are held, we have the funds available.

A motion was made and seconded from the floor to receive the Treasurer's Report. Motion passed. Ms. Byrd announced that the Proposed Budget would be voted on during the Second Business Session.

Dr. Rollin O. Russell, Conference Minister for the Southern Conference, brought greetings from the Southern Conference and highlighted current activities. He told briefly of just returning from Angola where he visited a congregation whose message and mission came as a "Singing Congregation."

Wike made a motion on behalf of the Nominating Committee that these names be placed in nomination. The motion was seconded. With no further nominations for Officers, Board Members, or Commission Members, a motion was made and seconded to close the nominations, thereby casting a unanimous ballot for these offices. President Byrd asked for additional nominations from the floor for General Synod Delegates. No further nominations were made, followed by a motion and a second to close the nominations. President Byrd announced that ballots would be distributed during the Second Business Session for the election of the three General Synod Delegates.

He gave the background, history, and process for the origin of this resolution. Ballots would be distributed during the Second Business Session for the voting FOR or AGAINST this resolution.

Rev. Miller then called upon Rev. Charlotte Still, who presented to those in attendance an interesting program on "Discerning the Future of Faith Communities".

The meeting adjourned for lunch at 12:30 p.m. Lunch instructions and grace was given by Rev. Robert Thompson.

The Second Business Session was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Byrd. Business began with the distribution of ballots for the election of three General Synod Delegates. A count of the ballots showed the following winners: Mr. Nick Pence, Jr. (a first year seminary student at Lancaster Seminary and a member of Grace UCC, Newton), Mrs. Debbie Johnson (Director of Christian Education for First UCC, Salisbury), and the Rev. Julie Peeples (Pastor of Congregational UCC, Greensboro).

President Byrd then called the delegate's attention to the 1997 Proposed Budget. A typographical error had been discovered, namely the total for Section B should read $17,600.00 and the Total for Section C should read $5,550.00. With these corrections being made, a motion was made and seconded to adopt the 1997 Proposed Budget. Motion carried.

Business continued with the distribution of ballots for a vote FOR or AGAINST the creation of a new association in the State of North Carolina. Ballots were cast. While the ballots were being counted, Rev. Alan C. Miller offered his report and comments about the State of the Association.

Results of the vote on the New Association in the State of North Carolina were as follows: FOR - 104, AGAINST - 18.

President Byrd called upon Rev. Miller to install the new WNCA officers, board members, commission members and General Synod Delegates. Rev. Miller directed the Installation Service.

The meeting was again turned over to Rev. Charlotte Still for continued discussions on "Discerning the Future of Faith Communities". Delegates, clergy and visitors participated in an informal session, discussing the future of UCC churches.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:00 p.m. with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Ms. Lucy Rice, Secretary

A RESOLUTION TO CREATE A NEW ASSOCIATION IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

PART I - BACKGROUND, HISTORY, & PROCESS

October, 1993 The Southern Conference Board of Directors votes to form a Long-Planning Committee.

January, 1994 The Long-Range Planning Committee meets for the first time.

January, 1994 to The Committee meets 4 times, including 2 retreats. Data is collected

February, 1995 from:

- Over 100 surveys conducted at the 1994 Annual Meetings of the Conference and each of the 3 Associations.
- Focus group interviews conducted within 12 local churches.
- Interviews with Conference Staff and institutional officials.
- Personal interviews with past Conference & Association leaders

February, 1995 The Committee makes an initial report to the Conference Board of Directors in which they state that initial findings point to a mandate to:

make the local church the focus of our activity through a structure & organization (that) will make it possible to take programs more to the people, and to increase the visibility of conference staff among the congregations.

June, 1995

The Committee makes a report to the Annual Meeting of the Southern Conference in which they state:

The Conference, the institutions that are related to it, and the ministries of the United Church of Christ are all extensions of the mission of each local church and of all corporately. Hence, the programs and services of the Southern Conference are to be made as available and accessible as possible to local churches, responding to their needs, promoting the fullest possible participation, and providing the linkage of our oneness in Jesus Christ with the Whole Church. (Taken from the Committee's Mission Statement for the Conference) The ministry of the Associations should be focused on providing direct consultant services and support to each member congregation and planning programs that will benefit and be most accessible to all. (Taken from the Guiding Principles of the Committee's Report.) There could be four (4) Associations. A new Association in North Carolina could be formed in such a way as to produce three North Carolina associations composed of approximately 80 congregations each. The Eastern Virginia Association would remain as it is with approximately 61 congregations. Such a division would enhance the capability of present staff and volunteers to effectively serve the constituent congregations. (Taken from the recommendations included within the Committee's Report.)

- October, 1995 Hearings are conducted at the Annual Meetings of each of the 3 Associations to discuss the Conference Long-Range Planning Committee Report and in particular the recommendation to create a new association in the State of North Carolina. Initial feedback appears positive, however the participants say that they need a specific proposal identifying which churches would be in each of the 3 North Carolina Associations before they can proceed with any further discussions. At this point it is important to realize that both the Long-Range Planning Committee and the Boards of Directors had intentionally not offered such a proposal in an attempt to hear the will of the churches. There was a concern that if such a proposal were offered the churches would assume that this was a done deal and not offer their opinions.
- October, 1995 The Associations report back to the Conference Board of Directors as to the data collected at the hearings conducted at their Annual Meetings. The Eastern Virginia Association reports that they felt that this was a decision that needed to be made by the 2 North Carolina Associations, and that they would support whatever decision was made. The Conference Board votes that enough positive interest has been expressed to proceed with the discussions.
- November, 1995 The ENCA & WNCA Boards of Directors appoint persons to serve on a joint Committee to draft a Proposal for a New Association.
- February, 1996 The joint Committee meets in Graham, NC, and drafts a Proposal for a New Association.
- February, 1996 The Proposal is taken to the Board of Directors meetings of the ENCA & the WNCA for discussion and for permission to present it to the churches.
- March, 1996 The Proposal is shared with the Southern Conference Board of Directors for informational purposes.
- April to June, 1996 The ENC & WNC Associations conduct area hearings to get feedback from the churches regarding the Proposal. A total of 15 hearings are held.
- July 27, 1996 A joint meeting of the Boards of Directors of the ENCA & the WNCA is held in Graham, NC. The Boards consider the data collected at the hearings. The majority of the data presented suggested support for the Proposal. Concerns were expressed primarily around issues of racial diversity. Some were worried that the Conference might lose some of the diversity that it had worked so hard to achieve. Others were concerned that the entire concept was racially motivated. Others were concerned that the Associations would have an unequal distribution of financial resources to do programming. However there were no clear divisions among the concerns expressed. Both black and white constituents were on either sides of the arguments. Some actually felt that the Proposal might strengthen our diversity by encouraging smaller groupings of churches to work together. Many felt that the mere drawing of Association lines would have little or no effect on our diversity; that if individual congregations were going to take advantage of the opportunities to celebrate and to learn from our diversity it required grass root efforts by local congregations and would not happen automatically due to the establishment of Association lines. Financially it was pointed out that the cost of area Associate Conference Ministers, Program Associates, and the Association Offices was met by OCWM giving to the Conference Budget, not by Association dues. Likewise, some felt that smaller Associations might encourage smaller congregations to become more active in the Association and thus lead to a stronger financial base.

Finally the Boards felt that the following strengths outweighed the concerns:

- Smaller Associations will cut down on travel time to Association meetings and events and might help to encourage greater participation.
- Smaller Associations will mean smaller groupings of churches which might encourage more churches to work together and might encourage greater participation, particularly among the smaller congregations.

- Smaller Associations will give area Associate Conference Ministers, Program Associates, and programmatic volunteers more time and opportunities to meet and to work with individual congregations, thus honoring the churches' mandate to make the local church the focus of the Conference's activity.

Thus, both Boards voted jointly by consensus, and officially individually, to take the following resolution to the Annual Meetings of their Association. In each case the vote was unanimous.

PART II - THE RESOLUTION

A new Association is to be formed in the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ in the State of North Carolina. And that, the new Association and the former Associations be comprised of the congregations listed below the resolution does not pass at either Association Meeting, then the discussion ends and we continue under our present structure.

ART III - WHAT'S NEXT?

the resolution passes at each Association Meeting, then we will proceed with the creation of a New association and the reorganization of the 2 existing Associations. This means that representatives from both existing Associations, who will be in the new Association, will be appointed to a Transition committee. This Committee will construct a constitution and bylaws and nominate a slate of officers to be adopted and elected at a constituting meeting of the New Association early next spring.

Presentations were made to the Rev. Joseph Burwell celebrating 60 years since his call to ministry, and to the Rev. Walter Snowa celebrating 30 years of ministry.

3. The minutes from the 1995 Annual Meeting were presented by the Secretary, Lisa Reece, and were approved. Treasurer, Melvin Goodman presented the Report of the Treasurer and the 1996-1997 Budget and each were approved. Lary Diehl presented the Nominating Committee Report. The report was accepted and since there were no nominations from the floor, the nominees were elected.
4. The Listening Visitor's Reports and Break Out Session I was explained and eight groups were formed to discuss the following questions:

* How can the EVA communicate better with EVA congregations?

*What kinds of services and programs would be helpful to small membership congregations and/or churches with limited financial resources?

*(For Youth) What kind of activities/ministries do we need from the local church and association as we grow as Christians?

*What can the EVA do that a local church can not do for itself?

*How can the Association do a better job of supporting the needs of licensed and ordained clergy?

*What does it mean to be a United Church of Christ congregation?

*How can our local churches claim the attention of "missing" adults (Ages 18-40)?

*How can the Association equip congregations for the work of ministry in their own backyard?

The Annual Meeting adjourned momentarily for the Christian Missionary Association to conduct business. The CMA report was accepted and elections were held. Expenditures of $2,000 to Community UCC in Nags Head, NC and $6,000 to Christian Temple UCC in Norfolk, VA were approved. A check for $150,000 has been given to Tidewater UCC, Virginia Beach, VA, to purchase land for a building site. CMA offerings were presented.

A delicious lunch was served by the Tabernacle UCC membership.

In the Listening Visitor's Reports: Break Out Session II, delegates returned to the eight groups formed earlier to discuss proposals concerning their question topic.

Several announcements and short reports were offered: Carol Good was thanked for creating and making the Annual Meeting theme banner, "That They May All Be One."

Rollin Russell reported on the proposed Conference organizational changes. The affected associations at their fall Annual Meetings did not accept the changes.

Julie Thomas from Franklinton Center was recognized and spoke briefly about up coming events at Franklinton Center.

Ruth Varner, EVA Program Associate, led the Commission Reports. The commissions were thanked for their work this past year. The Church & Ministry Commission Report was presented and accepted.

0. Lisa C. Reece presented a report on behalf of the Lake Prince Conference Center Committee. Six recommendations from this committee were offered and accepted with one correction.

1. Reports from the Listening Visitors Break Out Sessions were presented. The Annual Meeting accepted these reports and voted to give the recommendations to the commissions for implementation and meet again in six months to evaluate progress.

2. The Annual Meeting concluded with music from the Youth Delegate Choir, the installation of officers by Ruth Varner, worship and communion.

The meeting was adjourned.

EXHIBIT 1 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Christian Education Commission has been working hard on four projects for the year. We met 50% of our goal and will continue on the remaining 50% of our goal next year. With great success and cooperation from area churches, we completed two big projects. These projects included: 23 campers from eleven EVA churches went to Johns River Valley Camp in July and August of 1996. We had five adults that served as directors and counselors participating in the 1996 program. Christian Education helped with transportation arrangements for the week of July 14-20. Many thanks to Lynn Pope and Brad Bradshaw who coordinated this event. Brad drove the van from Suffolk Christian United Church of Christ while funds were donated from EVA Christian Education and EVA Annual Meeting offering. Oakland United Church of Christ made arrangements to take the campers to Burlington, NC. The parents paid for the expenses for taking the campers to Burlington to meet up with Mount Hope United Church of Christ who took the campers to JRVC. The other three weeks of camp, we helped put campers in touch with pools. The week of July 7, campers from Oakland and Holy Neck pooled together. The week of July 14-20, Oakland and Hampton United Church of Christ met in Windsor, VA to ride with Bobby Claud, Camp Director. The week of July 28, Oakland campers met campers in Clayton, NC with Amelia United Church of Christ, Rev. Ben Franklin, pastor.

Six campers from Zion Bethel United Church of Christ, Portsmouth went to Franklinton Center August 8-10, 1996. The cooperation that we received from the churches in Eastern Virginia and Western North Carolina was terrific. We hope we will continue this great fellowship. We all have earned a gold medal for setting a record, for the most campers ever participating from Eastern Virginia.

Our next event and record setting was thirty adults and youth from Eastern Virginia attending the National Youth Event sponsored by the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. This event was held on the campus of the University of South Carolina the week of July 25-29. The Christian Education Commission also helped provide transportation and one person represented Christian Education. We had youth from Union, St. Mark, Antioch, Tabernacle, Chapel Grove, Zion, and Rising Star United Church of Christ for these five exciting days. Carlton Everette, Clairine Jones, and Arlethia Crocker were the principle drivers for the van pool. Many, many thanks to them for taking our youth and bringing them back home safely. A rewarding experience was the result. The youth quickly learned the significance of the event theme "One In The Spirit" as they became aware of the diversity of the United Church of Christ in its racial and cultural composition. The youth participated in various worship activities with peers from all over the globe learning that despite our differences, we all worship the same God. The youth really got to know Rev. Paul Sherry, President of the United Church of Christ. All youth were housed in college dormitories and received a preview of campus living. Five busy days consisted of worship services with the "Spirit" as the recurring theme. Themes of the Bible Studies and worship were: "One In The Spirit", "Living In The Spirit", "Working In The Spirit", "Faces of The Spirit", and "Empowered By The Spirit". Numerous workshops were held each day. These seminars presented to the youth the many challenges of the churches and young people with the approach of the twenty-first century. The youth came from each workshop with new ideas for growth. After hours activities and recreation were posted daily for our youth. One of the most enjoyable workshops was "Youth Produced Radio Station" supported by the United Church of Christ and George Gund Foundation. Topics were: "Are You Trying to Reach Youth in Today's Confusing World?" This program explored hard hitting contemporary topics such as Glad Days Sad Days, youth depression, suicide, and youth violence. Another good workshop was "Praising God Through Dance". This workshop taught us the arts through movement. The youth learned how to combine lyrics and movement to create meaningful expressions. "How Do We Blend When We Don't Look Alike" was another popular workshop. "Bringing Many Gifts, Bring One, Give One", was a program at the NYE (National Youth Event) whereby the youth and adults brought books to give to the South Carolina Public School System.

Many, many thanks to Alma Lundy, Carlyse Ashe, Clairine Jones, Carlton Everette, Katherin Batts, Jimmy Batts, Arleathia Crocker, Bernice Townes, and Sandra Simpson for their excellent support to help build our youth for future leaders within, throughout the United Church of Christ and for participating in the National Youth Event. Look Out!!! Eastern Virginia, our youth will be in "Maine" in 2000 for another youth event.

The President of the UCC, Paul Sherry, was the main speaker for the event.

ADOPT-A CHURCH

Six EVA churches have adopted New Church Starts: Hunterdale UCC adopted Tidewater United. Berea Christian UCC adopted Community, Nags Head. They also plan to send a love offering to Tidewater United. Lynnhaven Colony UCC split their adoption papers between Christian Temple UCC and Tidewater United. Oak Grove Christian UCC in Sunbury, North Carolina has adopted Community, Nags Head. St. Mark UCC adopted Christian Temple, and Oakland Christian UCC adopted Tidewater United.

FORMER CC CHURCHES

The Church Development Committee is attempting to make personal contact with each former CC church. Rev. Reuben Askew has agreed to lead us in this endeavor.

It is the hope of this committee that each member, church and the Association will continue to support these very worth while ministries with their time, talent, and money.

EXHIBIT 3 CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES COMMISSION

The Christian Social Ministries Commission held its first meeting at the All-Commission meeting on October 28, 1995 at Laurel Hill UCC Suffolk, VA. Members present at this meeting were: Rev. Alexander Jamison, Chairman; Rev. Thomas J. Hart, and Dr. Julia T. Avery. Mrs. Ruth Varner and Mrs. Kathy Zaak were also present to talk to the Commission about a special project they felt the Commission would be interested in for 1995-1996 church year. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Commission had agreed to focus on four targeted goals for 1995-1996. They were: (1) To implement a special project: A New Church--A New World. This project focused on "Dismantling Racism" through exposure, awareness, and training interested individuals (key church members/officers). These individuals would in turn, develop programs, workshops, training sessions, etc. and work with other church members in an effort to dismantle racism in our communities. (2) Church Pairing/Pulpit Exchange. This goal would be focused on local churches exchanging pulpit ministers, officers, and youths in an effort to bring our churches closer together and to understand the various customs that each practice. (3) Youth Involvement. This goal centered around involving our youth in more activities and programs in the church and communities, and (4) Tidewater Work Camp. This goal involved providing Christian experiences for youth and young adults in the local communities. Also as a continuing goal and joint effort, the Commission agreed to work with "MRS J". Our next meeting would be held on November 27 at the Golden Corral Restaurant, Battlefield Blvd., Chesapeake, VA at 6:30 p.m. Rev. A. Jamison and Rev. T. Hart gave a brief overview of the 1995-1996 goals for the Christian Social Commission at the All-Commission meeting.

At the November 27, 1995 meeting (see enclosed minutes) the following members were present: Rev. A. Jamison, Rev. T. Hart and Dr. J.T. Avery. Minutes were read from the October 28, 1995 All-Commission meeting (see enclosed minutes). The discussion focused around the project, A New Church--A New World and what steps would be taken to assure the success of such a project. Concerns centered around members listed on the Commission not coming to the meetings. A decision would have to be made immediately concerning this matter if the Commission was to function at all this year. ALL members would be contacted for their interest and participation in working with this Commission. The next meeting was scheduled for December 18, 1995 at 6:30 p.m. at Providence UCC, Chesapeake, VA (Rev. Jamison's Church).

The December meeting was postponed until February 29, 1996. The February 29, 1996 meeting started at 6:00 p.m. with Rev. Jamison presiding. Members present at the February 29, 1996 meeting were: Rev. A

Jamison, Rev. T. Hart, and Dr. J. T. Avery. Mrs. Ruth Varner and Kathy Zeek were invited to attend this meeting (see enclosed minutes). Discussion. It was voted that the Commission would work with the active members and that Kathy Zeek would serve as an advisor to the Commission along with Mrs. Varner. A New Church--A New World was the major focus of the discussion at this meeting. It was decided that this project would be given first priority and a seminar would be scheduled for a two-day workshop for Friday, April 19, 1996 at Christian Church United, 6049 Indian River Road, Virginia Beach, VA. Expenses, income, and working budget were also discussed. To cut down on expenses, each member of the Commission, including the advisors, volunteered to bring items for the seminar. Items that would reduce expenses. A list of churches and suggested participants were divided as equally as possible with approximately 14 blacks and 18 whites to attend. The seminar will consist of no more than 30 key (leaders)

Christian Social Ministries Annual participants from area churches and EVA. The next meeting would be held on Monday, 25, 1996 at 7:00 p.m. to finalize all plans for the seminar.

The Monday, 25, 1996 meeting was short, no minutes were taken. Plans were finalized for the seminar "A New Church--A New World" for Friday, April 19, 1996 and Saturday, April 20, 1996. Rita Hill and Janet Katzenberger would be the workshop leaders.

A NEW CHURCH -- A NEW WORLD SEMINAR

Friday, April 19, 1996. Schedule and activities (see enclosed schedule)

Registration (7:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.).

Each participant was requested to pay $5 for registration. Eighteen persons registered for the seminar (see registration sign-up sheets). Introduction of Workshop leaders and participants. Activities included: participants' discussions about their early childhood, community and environmental effects on their lifestyles. Also, discussions included how these factors have played an important part in their development as to what kind of individuals they have become. Refreshment break. Afterward, songs were sung and more discussion and activities continued. Participants freely gave their interpretations and expressed their feelings concerning racial tensions, interactions, and reactions of individuals and society toward race relations. This session concluded at 10:00 p.m.

Participants and workshop leaders resume discussions and activities on racism and dismantling racism. The participants were divided into two groups: blacks and whites. Each group held a discussion. After the discussion, a film followed. Groups were not to exchange discussion or viewpoints with the other group nor were they to view the other group's film. Some participants felt that this was not fair as they wanted to view both films. The films were related and directed specifically for "blacks" and for "whites" Lunch was served. Near the end of the afternoon session, participants were to give a pledge as to "intended" ways, means, and method to dismantle racism on an individual (personal) and community (church) basis. Partners were selected to ensure participants' "intended" pledge would be completed. A closing service was conducted. This session concluded at 4:30 p.m. One interesting point that the workshop leaders stated that was different about this seminar than other seminars that they had was that there were more blacks in these sessions. This was not the norm.

In summary, this was a most unusual and interesting workshop. Participants were indeed stepping into a new approach toward dismantling racism. the goal now would be: To make others in our homes, church and community aware of their "inner" feelings toward racism; discuss how these feelings affect our lives and those around us; and eventually develop programs, workshops, and seminars directed toward dismantling racism. An excellent seminar.

NOTE: As a result of this seminar/workshop, EVA, and interested persons in this area; a weekend training session has been scheduled for October 18-20 at Franklinton Center, NC.

As a result of the concentration of A New Church -- A New World, goals 2, 3, and 4 were not completed. These goals would be recommended to the 1996-1997 Christian Social Ministries Commission.

Faithfully submitted,
Rev. Alexander Jamison, Chairman

Dr. Julia T. Avery,
Secretary

EXHIBIT 4 EVANGELISM COMMISSION

The Evangelism Commission has had only one formal meeting this year, however, it has been very busy with two major projects. The first project was the development of an "Evangelism Tool" by a subcommittee of our Commission. This tool was developed and presented to the Conference Evangelism Commission which accepted it, massaged it where needed, and recommended it to each Association to be used in whatever manner the Evangelism Commissions would desire.

The tool, EVANGELISM QUESTIONNAIRE, is designed to help churches inventory their Evangelism programs and Practices in order to improve or develop more Evangelism tactics for the local church. It is hoped that our Commission will begin processing the tool with local churches in the coming year. (See attached.) Our second project involved creating a display for the Annual Meeting. We were pleased with the amount of materials removed from the display, assuming that it meant persons were interested in the formation. We look forward to having a more total Commission involvement during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
Susie S. Keele, Chairperson

EVA STEWARDSHIP COMMISSION 1996 ANNUAL REPORT EASTERN VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION

During the past year the Southern Conference has made substantial changes in the number and function of many Boards and Commission. In addition, Association Stewardship Commission members have been reporting results from the Association's "Listening Visitor" program for any guidance in developing future stewardship support programs. As a result, the Stewardship Commission has concentrated on its primary responsibilities, establishing OCWM guidelines for each member church, stewardship education, and consultation on the "Consecrating Stewards" program.

CONSECRATING STEWARDS PROGRAM

In March, the Commission met at the Warwick UCC in Newport News where presentations were made by members of the church who had conducted that church's implementation of the consecrating Stewards program last fall. All of the participants reported very positive experiences in that program and many "Lessons Learned" were shared with the Commission. Warwick UCC was the first church in the Association to conduct an unadulterated version of the program, and they reported a 12-15% increase in the total "estimate of giving". Two presentations on the Consecrating Stewards program were made to leaders of the First UCC of Hampton, one meeting attended by members from Rising Star UCC of Newport News, regarding the program. The first UCC will be using the program this year. A similar presentation was made to leaders of the Bethlehem Christian Church of Suffolk as they consider various approaches to their stewardship program. A phone consultation with a Hendersonville, NC UCC was made regarding the program, and a summary of the experiences from the Warwick UCC was sent to them. First UCC, Chesterfield, is using the Consecrating Stewards program this year after attending one of our 1995 training sessions.

OUR CHURCH'S WIDER MISSION (OCWM)

The Commission decided to make a radical departure from past procedures regarding our OCWM goal setting duties. The new procedures are as follows:

1. Appeal early, before each church's fall budget process takes place.
2. Include their church's historical information for consideration. (past 10 years)
3. Solicit prayerful consideration as they set their own goals for 1997.
4. Ask the return of their "estimate of giving" for 1997 to the Southern Conference.

It was felt that this process was more in concert with the Consecrating Stewards concept and placed stewardship as a province and responsibility of the local church.

As in the past, if there is any way the commission can assist your congregation in the areas of financial development, stewardship education, or mission interpretation, please inform us and we will endeavor to find the resources to meet your needs.

Respectfully submitted,
Harlan K. Homes,
Chairman, Stewardship Commission

THIRTIETH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CHURCH WOMEN OF THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
JUNE 16, 1997

The thirtieth Annual Meeting of the Church Women of the Southern Conference was called to order at 3:45 p.m. by President, Susie Keele. First Vice President, Cynthia Buckwell presented a brief devotional on the theme of "Liberate" with each letter standing for a thought on the topic.

Minutes of the twenty-ninth annual meeting were approved as printed in the yearbook with the exception of one correction. Shirley Eley reported that twelve churches attended the Spring Rally on April 9, 1996 at Zion U.C.C. in Suffolk rather than twelve women as recorded.

The Treasurer's report was given by Carol Diehl. She presented a corrected version of the June 17, 1996 report along with the current report which shows Income to be $13,062.17 and Disbursements of $8,903.39. Treasurer's report was accepted as printed in the yearbook.

Association Reports: Lisa Barrows, President of ENC reported a very good Fall Enrichment meeting at Pinehurst U.C.C. with 55 women in attendance. Yvonne Marrow spoke about her experiences at the national meeting in Boston and an offering of $362.00 was collected to be divided between OCWM and the Fund for Burned Churches. Katherine Floyd was honored as Southern Conference Laywoman of the Year. Several churches which have not been active have requested information. Fall Enrichment will be held on September 13, 1997 at Franklinton First U.C.C.

EVA - Shirley Eley, President reported that Fall Enrichment was held on September 14 at Bayside U.C.C. with 72 in attendance. Their "Brown Bag" Auction raised $387.50 plus matching funds for a total of $775.00. This money is the beginning of a fund established by EVACW in order to furnish or partly furnish a room for the proposed EVA Retirement Center. Spring Rally was held April 1 with an attendance of 67 women and three ministers. Fall Enrichment will be held on September 13, 1997 at Eure Christian, Eure, N.C.

WNC - Margie Weavil reported that Fall Enrichment was held in September at First E&R UCC in Asheboro with 55 present. Rev. Sterling Whitener and Barbara, his wife, gave an inspiring presentation on China, the country of mission emphasis this year. An offering of $387.00 was given to the Nazareth Scholarship Fund. Margie and other WNC women assisted in the annual 'Flea Market' at Nazareth Children's Home and helped to raise $755.00 also for the Scholarship Fund. The WNC women are also selling a book of "Party Recipes" for $5.00 which will contribute toward the Scholarship Fund. Fall Enrichment will be held on September 13, 1997 at Heidelberg UCC in Thomasville, N.C. Attendees from each association were recognized with 16 from ENC, 54 from EVA and 31 from WNC. There were 21 first time attendees.

First Vice-President, Cynthia Buckwell presented the possibility of changing the times of our summer conference to a weekend. A 'straw' vote indicated that a large majority of those present wanted to continue as is. Each association will vote at Fall Enrichment to indicate their desires. The booklet of Working Rules was again offered to any fellowship needing one.

Proposed Budget - Carol Diehl, Treasurer presented the Proposed Budget which has changed very little from 1996. Treasurers from each association prepared the budget. It was moved and seconded that we adopt the proposed budget. Motion carried.

Second Vice-President - Dot Ballinger is responsible for Leadership Workshops in the fall and also at Summer Conference on Monday morning. Both of these were well planned and valuable information was presented to those attending. Thirty women attended the one-day workshop at Hillsborough UCC in October. CWSC are again hosting the Southern Regional Meeting to be held at BRAG September 26-28. Dot and her committee have worked hard for many months planning this event. Dot asked for volunteers who can help and encourages our CWSC to attend.

Assistant Secretary - Gail Hooper requested that snapshots of CWSC events with identified persons and places be given to her for our scrapbook.

A page entitled "Lest We Forget" with the history of Reformed Church Women was placed in our yearbook this year. Also, the names of the first decade of presidents of CWSC and Honored Lay Women of previous synods were indicated as a tribute to them.

Lightbourne Scholarship Committee - Clarine Ingold, Chairperson, Evelyn Cutler (EVA), Dorothy T. Wilson (ENC), and Mary Dearborn (WNC). Scholarships of $300.00 each are to be awarded to 13 young people for the 1997-98 school year. The number of students we can assist depends on the amount of money collected during the year for Life Memberships, Honor and Memorial Certificates. Clarine urged church women to continue to support this very worthy endeavor of helping our young people to achieve a college education. The cost of each certificate is $30.00 which is mailed to CWSC treasurer no later than April 15. Applications for scholarships must be received by Clarine by March 10.

Nominating Committee Report - Faye Humphrey reported in absence of Chairperson, Doris Hartzog. Faye stated that Gail Hooper and Katherine Floyd are serving a first term rather than second as printed in the yearbook. Lisa Barrows is nominated for Second Vice-President, Myrtice Deshields is nominated for Treasurer to succeed Carol Diehl whose term has expired. No new nominations were made from the floor. Motion made and seconded that we accept the slate of officers as presented by the committee; motion carried. Officers are: President- Susie Keele, Vice-President - Cynthia Buckwell, Second Vice-President - Lisa Barrows, Secretary - Katherine Floyd, and Assistant Secretary - Gail Hooper, Treasurer- Myrtice Deshields.

President's Report - Susie referred to her report printed in the yearbook and asked that we all read it carefully. Susie has had a very busy schedule during this year as she has represented CWSC at many meetings; speaking, installing officers, leading worship and singing, sharing information concerning CWSC and the UCC. She thanked everyone for their support and all the good things that each person has accomplished in their respective roles.

Elon Homes For Children - Lisa Barrows made a presentation at the request of Dr. Raymond Hargrove, Director of Spiritual Life for Elon Homes for Children. We are requested to continue to save soup, etc.; labels to enable them to purchase another needed van. Please identify the sending group if mailing them. The Homes For Children now serve 114 children on the two campuses, Snyder in Elon College and Kennedy in Charlotte. Dr. Fred Gross, Executive Director and Dr. Hargrove would be available to speak to your church or fellowship.

Other Business: President Keele recognized all clergy women and all clergy wives. Thelma Norfleet has now received her doctorate and was applauded by the group. Rev. Katrin Schirmer of Germany who is serving an internship (EKU) at Mt. Hope UCC in WNC was recognized. Susie gave a brief, inspiring speech entitled, "Rekindle, Relax and Reclaim". She urged us to reach out when we return home and bring more women into our fellowship. Susie read a list of previous Honored Lay Women and recognized all those present. Each association president presented their current Honored Laywoman, EVA - Doris Hartzog, WNC - Margie Weavil and ENC- Katherine Floyd. Katherine was elected at the March Executive Board Meeting to represent the CWSC at the General Synod 21 meeting in Columbus, Ohio during July 1997. Susie recognized Doris Yeattes for her devoted service to Church Women United, serving as President of the N.C. CWU in most recent years. Susie recognized Sharyn Jones and Diane Snowa, Coordinators for Summer Conference 1997. They were presented with a corsage and gift of inspirational book and thanked for their leadership and hard work in preparing for Summer Conference. Diane was commended for her excellent presentation on Angola.

The Reverend Doctor Thelma Norfleet conducted a brief Installation Service for new officers adapted from the printed service included in the program packet "Voices of Vision". This contained a tribute to our departing officers, Second Vice-President - Dot Ballinger and Treasurer - Carol Diehl.

Respectfully Submitted,
Susie Keele, President
Katherine Floyd, Secretary
