Southern Conference United Church of Christ

The Vision

To be a living expression of the Body of Christ strengthening the ties that join
God's people together in mission.

The Mission

To create an environment for the continued spiritual growth of all our members.

To proclaim the saving grace, compassion, justice and peace of Jesus Christ for all people.

To pray, worship and work in covenant with the congregations of our conference and with mission partners at home and throughout the world.

To empower and equip clergy and laity for transforming ministry in the Body of Christ (Romans 12: 1-2).

A Service of Installation was held for those who will be serving as officers, commission and board members, institutional representatives, and General Synod delegates. The break-out session was based on discerning how we, as an association, will live out the different aspects of our Southern Conference Vision and Mission, as adopted by the 2001 Annual Meeting of the Southern Conference. The groups were guided by the EVA commissions that will be charged with the implementation of the various facets.

Following the break-out sessions, the various groups reported on their discussions. During these reports, Walker Hughes observed, "Unless we get the covenant part right, nothing works. We can't use autonomy to our own advantage. Sometimes autonomy has to take a back seat to covenant."

H. K. Holmes declared the adjournment of the 2001 Annual Meeting of the Eastern Virginia Association following a service of worship led by many of our new or newly-relocated clergy. Music for this celebration was offered by Fabius Tucker (saxophone) and his wife, Hazel, (piano).

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL GATHERING MINUTES WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL MEETING

Southern Conference Annual Gathering 2002 Standing Rules

1. "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised" may be followed unless otherwise ordered by the conference. We will be guided by a parliamentarian and a discernmentarian as we seek to act responsibly as a Christian body.
2. Matters deemed by the President to be merely formal, routine, and non-controversial may be disposed of by common consent. If there is objection, however, the chair will await a formal motion and submit the question to debate and vote.
3. Resolutions deemed not merely formal and non-controversial may be submitted by any voting delegate, congregation, commission, or committee of the Conference for action by the Annual Gathering. They may be submitted by May 4 for inclusion in an advance mailing, or by May 25 for inclusion in the Annual Meeting packet.
4. Resolutions that are of a timely or emergency nature (having to do with events/circumstances that develop after the resolution deadline) may be submitted to the Secretary of the Conference by 6:00 PM on Thursday, June 6. Such late business will be dealt with at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Resolutions submitted in advance will be listed in the final agenda and the time of their consideration indicated.
5. Amendments must be presented in writing to the chair after they have been presented and seconded. Not more than one amendment will be considered at the same time. One wishing to offer an additional amendment should announce the intention to offer the further amendment after action is completed on the pending amendment.
6. To close debate, the proper motion is "I move the previous question" or "I move to move to close debate." The mover must gain recognition and the motion must be seconded. The motion cannot be amended and requires a two-thirds vote, for adoption. It will not suffice merely to call "Question" if there are still delegates who wish to speak.
7. Delegates shall state their names when they are recognized to speak. No speaker shall speak to the same issue more than twice except to answer questions addressed to him/her from the floor. A maximum of five (5) minutes is allowed to the first speech by any a two-third vote, without debate, unless granted by common consent. Except when rising to a point of order or to second a motion, delegates may be requested to speak from a microphone.
8. The president with the assistance of a parliamentarian and a discernmentarian are charged with the duty of providing orderly disposition to the business of the Southern Conference. A delegate may appeal any ruling. The appeal requires a second. The majority vote by the delegates upon the appeal will prevail. We will also be guided by a discernment process to aid in the deliberation(s) and decision-making steps.

Commonalities in the Southern Conference

A Testimony of Faith and Hope

“In essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, in all things charity.”

(Rupertus Meldinius, c. 1627*)

Whereas, the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ stands at a historic crossroads,

Whereas, we have engaged in a self-study process leading to a renewed sense of vision and mission, and

Whereas, many of our churches are embracing a three-year covenant based on our common vision and mission, and

Whereas, we are preparing to welcome a new Conference Minister, and

Whereas, we have nevertheless found ourselves burdened at times with a divisive spirit, with a lack of trust, and with the resulting loss of collective resources, and

Whereas, we still find many points of commonality and value our connection, and

Whereas, we desire to seek a greater future of faithfulness to Jesus Christ,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ, meeting Virginia Beach, Virginia, June 6-8, 2002, affirms the following commonalities:

Common Beliefs

- We believe in one God, in Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord, and in the Holy Spirit – affirming the apostolic faith expressed in the ancient creeds, in the Statement of Faith of our United Church of Christ, and in the ecumenical expression of Churches Uniting in Christ.
- We believe that Holy Scripture contains all things necessary for our salvation and is the rule and ultimate standard of faith.
- We believe in the transforming power of the gospel of Jesus Christ, bringing wholeness to brokenness, pardon to sinfulness, hope to desperation, provision to need, and community to loneliness.
- We believe in a better, stronger, and more unified future for our churches, our Conference, and the church of Jesus Christ because of the promise of the One who prayed, “That they all may be one.”

Common Values

- We value the covenantal community of the wider Christian church, and we desire to increase our understanding of God and our commitment to follow Christ by interacting with our districts, associations, conference, the wider United Church of Christ, and all who share our faith in Jesus Christ.
- We value the autonomy of the local church and the freedom of our congregations to seek the leadership of the spirit as they discern God’s leading.
- We value the primacy of the local church and place first importance on providing our churches with leadership, resources, technology, and training that will help our churches be strong, attain and maintain health, and grow as the Spirit guides and helps them.
 - We value the presence and gifts of all who join us in our journey of faith, and we deplore the racism, sexism, and classism we find in our midst and in our world.
 - We value the work that we can accomplish together as being greater than the work we can achieve on our own.

Common Commitments

- We commit ourselves to live in covenant as the people of the Southern Conference, and to seek the health, progress, faithfulness, and unity of our churches and of our conference with prayers and gifts of time and treasure.

- ❑ We commit ourselves to give one another the benefit of the doubt as being people of sincere faith longing to know God's truth and do God's will.
- ❑ We commit ourselves to the ongoing process of dialogue and discernment based on Scripture, prayer, and the various historic traditions of our churches.
- ❑ We commit ourselves to use our common resources (staff, money, property, connections, publications, gatherings, etc.) to advance our common values, and not to use our common resources to advance causes for which we have no unifying consensus.
- ❑ We commit ourselves to allow other Christians and local congregations the freedom to affirm their beliefs and live out their values, even when they are different from our own.
- ❑ We commit ourselves to deal with one another with respect and in Christian love, even when we disagree, and to seek tirelessly a greater unity and effectiveness in the mission to which Christ has called us.
