Our Covenant

Having been brought, by Divine Grace, to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ, and to surrender ourselves wholly to Him; we do now solemnly and joyfully covenant in His name, to walk together in brotherly love and in Christian service. We pledge ourselves, through the leadership of the Holy Spirit;

To exercise a loving watch-care over one another; and to strive to promote the growth of the whole body in Christian knowledge, holiness, and hope;

To forsake not the assembling of ourselves together in our appointed place of worship, and to uphold the ordinances and doctrines of the Scriptures;

To contribute cheerfully and righteously of our means for the support of the needy, for the maintenance of a faithful ministry of the Gospel among us, and for the spread of salvation to earth's remotest bounds;

To pray without ceasing for the good of one another, for the salvation of the lost, and for the coming of the kingdom of Christ;

To shew forth the spirit of our Saviour in the home, in the social circles, in the marts of business, and wheresoever we go;

To admonish and exhort the erring ones according to the plan and the spirit of the Scriptures; considering ourselves, lest we also be tempted;

“And may the God of Peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make us perfect in every good work to do His will, working in us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.”

Historical Sketch

HAT is known to-day as the "First Baptist Church" grew out of the "Rose of Sharon Church," which was organized August 12, 1845, by a presbytery consisting of Jesse Howell, William Dupre, and John Judd. The church was organized at Piney Grove School house, one mile South of West Durham. In 1850 the church removed to what was then know as Prattsburg, now Durham. The site selected having proved too near the Railroad, a lot consisting of four acres fronting on Cleveland Street was given, and a new house was built on the site of the present home of the pastor.

The congregation entered the new house on Cleveland Street in 1854. Rev. Jesse Howell was the first pastor here, and at this period it was customary to call a pastor for one year at a time. This custom was abolished in 1876.

In 1867, the third Sunday in April, the Sunday School was organized. As the City grew larger, the church organized other Sunday Schools, from which, in most instances, strong Baptist churches have sprung. The mother church has always taken the liveliest interest in these churches; having secured the ground, and, for the most part, furnished the money for each when the time came to erect a building.

In 1873 the church provided for preaching twice each month, and in 1876 for preaching twice each

Sunday, and communion each month. At this time the church first called a pastor for all his time, Rev. C. Durham being the first one so called. Until 1876 it was an invariable custom for the male members of the congregation to occupy seats to the right of the pulpit, and for female members to occupy those on the left of the pulpit. Prior to this year certain seats were reserved for negroes, a large number of whom were members of the church in full fellowship. After the war they began to organize churches of their own.

Pastor C. Durham instituted a plan of systematic giving to State, Home and Foreign Missions, Education, and the Orphanage, and the people responded generously. In 1877 the name of the church was changed from "Rose of Sharon" to "Durham Baptist Church," and in 1888 to the "First Baptist Church." In 1878 all its property on Cleveland Street was sold except that which it now holds, and the present brick church house was built on Mangum Street.

In 1888 the church purchased a lot on Chapel Hill Street, and built a brick church house on it, and on January 18th of this year 55 members were dismissed to organize the "Blackwell Baptist Church," now known as the "Second Baptist Church." In 1889 the East Durham Baptist Church was organized, and 29 of our members were dismissed to effect this organization.

It is said by those who are in position to know that no church in the South has shown superior wisdom or nobler sacrifice in establishing and building mission churches than has the "Old

First" of Durham. In addition to those mentioned above she established and furnished most of the money to build "West Durham Baptist" in 1893, "Edgemont" in 1902, and "North Durham" in 1907. At the same time, she has not turned deaf ears to either State, Home, or Foreign Missions. To these causes she has always been in the front rank of the liberal givers of the State.

In 1895 substantial improvements were made on the church property, the building was remodeled and new pews were bought all at a cost of $13,000. Again in 1902 improvements were made costing $3,000.

In 1910 improvements were made on the church house and the pastor's home, and a pipe organ costing $6,000 was installed. At the present time the membership of the church is 690, the Sunday School has an average attendance of about 350, the various societies are aggressive, and the future is "as bright as the promises of God."

Church Roll

February 12, 1913

THIS roll is the result of many weeks of the most earnest striving after perfection. Nevertheless, we shall not be surprised if errors are found. The pastor, or any church officer, would like to know of any errors, that they may not occur again.
