Thank you for coming to our very special event as we celebrate our 87th anniversary as a chartered congregation. This Shabbat we honor all those generations of men, women and children who from 1922 to the present helped to make our congregation the spiritual, religious and cultural center for Jewish life in Henderson County.

We dedicate ourselves to the same tradition of giving back to the entire community as the generations of Agudas Israel have done in the past.

This 87th anniversary also has a special significance. According to Hebrew gematria (numerology), the two letters that make a value of 87 are pei and zayin, together they form the Hebrew word "PAZ" (gold). Our 87th Anniversary is our 2nd Gold Anniversary.

We hope you enjoy the festivities!

Welcome

Shalom

I have been hoping for an event like Founders' Shabbat at Agudas Israel almost since I first arrived here. Honoring the past is an important part of having a sense of belonging and of being part of something important.

At my first Ritual Committee meeting I said that I would bring some changes but that I would respect and build on this community's past and traditions. Morris Kaplan responded that the people who remember the traditions and the past were not going to be around much longer and I should do what was needed for the future and for the new people who had moved here.

I am deeply honored by having been Morris' Rabbi and feel blessed that I knew him. His statement was all too true. In the four years since then most of the people who knew Agudas Israel as a small local shul have gone from this world and we are the poorer for it.

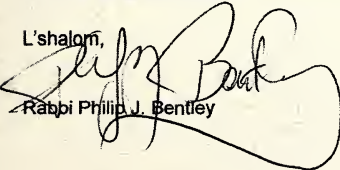

However I must disagree with Morris. We are now largely a congregation of transplants from other places. Our membership comes from many different communities with many different ideas about what a congregation should be like. We need to have a sense of being part of this congregation and this congregation is still redefining itself.

I was once the Rabbi of a congregation founded in 1651, one with a very rich tradition, which the people there wanted to preserve. Even they knew that changes were necessary to meet the present and future needs of their members.

A lot of people have worked very hard to make this special Shabbat a reality and we are blessed with the presence of several people who grew up here and who came here for this celebration of our past. Together with our most senior members who deserve our deep respect for their efforts for this congregation these people from our past can help show the way to our future.

That is truly a Simhat Dor L'Dor (Rejoicing From One Generation To The Next) and I hope this will become an annual event.

It is such an honor to be President of Agudas Israel Congregation as we celebrate our 87th anniversary.

Having been involved in the establishment of a new congregation and its trials and tribulations of building our own Synagogue I am well aware of the excitement our Founding Families must have felt on September 24, 1922 when they met for the purpose of organizing a congregation. They voted to name this congregation Agudas Israel Congregation. The name and congregation as withstood all of the trials and tribulations put in their path. What an exciting time for our founding families when on July 16, 1925 we had our synagogue on King Street. This building served our families through the 20th century and into the 21st when a major building campaign took place in 2000 to build the beautiful building we now call home.

It was not until the 21st century that we even had a Rabbi to lead services. Hopefully our founding families are looking down on us now, smiling as we plod through the trials and tribulations that not only will take us through the 100th anniversary of Agudas Israel Congregation but into the 22nd century.

Both Sisterhood and Brotherhood are going strong and are still the backbone of this congregation.

With gratitude to our founders and their families I say thanks for everything. Hopefully, we will all be able to get together in 13 more years as we celebrate Agudas Israel Congregation's 100th anniversary.

87th Anniversary Celebration

Simhat Dor L'Dor—Celebrating Generations

Dear Congregational Family and Friends,

Great things happen when the whole community gets involved. This event is an example of our commitment to the continued strength of our congregation. Our weekend has arrived, so enjoy it!

It has been my honor to serve as Chairperson and work with our members and community friends. Our Committee has chosen to use the Hebrew word for living, "Chai", as our theme. Judaism, as a religion, is focused on life and the word "Chai" signifies the essence of life. The customary Jewish toast is to say "L'Chaim", meaning to life. We take this opportunity to celebrate the generations.

From the early founders to the present descendants, we have inherited a rich heritage. It is very important to look back and recognize their accomplishments. I am certain that the festivities in their honor will be remarkable and we are extremely happy that so many are sharing this simcha.

There are many people, who have worked countless hours to make this weekend a momentous occasion. Their names can be found in this journal. It is a tribute in itself that so many congregants wanted to be a part of this celebration. One gentleman stands tall - Richard Savitt. Under his incredible care and diligence, this commemorative journal will mark history for years to come. He has responded in his own inimitable way - quiet, sincere, words of commitment, care and concern. Thank you for your devotion to present us with a historical journal.

I recognize that these are extraordinarily difficult times financially. Yet, the benefits far outweigh the costs in making this event happen. Consider all the learning, inspiration, sharing, camaraderie - the strength that we bring to one another is the investment we each need to make our future secure and to those who follow. We have our vision and fortitude, challenges and opportunities. Let's continue in the footsteps of our ancestors creating an experience for the next generations of dedicated Reform Jews.

I wish everyone "L'Chaim". May we continue to celebrate life together for many years to come.

B'Shalom,

Sherry Harris, Event Chair

Agudas Israel Congregation

Established 1922

Member of Union For Reform Judaism

Greetings to all,

When I first heard Sherry Harris ask for volunteers for planning a Founders' Event, I decided to volunteer and help create the commemorative journal. At the time my main reason for volunteering was because I had done this type of journal for other synagogues. I felt this was an opportunity for me to volunteer in something I had expertise. I wasn't focused on the event in and of itself. That all changed when we actually started the project.

As a relatively new member I never experienced the King Street location as the synagogue. Sitting in our beautiful modern sanctuary gave me little thought about the fact that the congregation is over eighty years old. But now, as I started to go through the available resources of Agudas Israel history, I started to see the congregation in a whole new way.

The congregation's founders and their families (and the members that soon followed them) started to come to life for me. I was fascinated by learning about the Jewish families that came here about century ago and set down roots in a small southern town. The idea of learning who they were became important to me. I am originally from New York where there is a large Jewish population. There are so many synagogues to choose for membership. Up there, knowing the founders of one's synagogue is not as important because, unlike in Hendersonville, those people weren't creating something that hadn't been done before. They weren't pioneers.

The small enclave of Jews in Henderson County were different. They had come to an area in which they were strangers. Their customs and traditions were foreign to the local population, yet they established themselves with their local gentile friends and became important members of the community. Building a house of worship was an important goal for these people because it would deepen their roots and ties to the community. Now it became so clear to me why we must honor these people.

Luckily, for those of us that worked on this book, much organization had already been done with the historical records of the congregation. Not very long ago, Claire and Dick Savitt and family (no relation to me) put a lot of information neatly in binders and also interviewed many of those who were old enough to remember those earlier days.

We also obtained historical information from the out-of-town families with the help of Phyllis Bentley and David Kaplan. I want to thank all the families who contributed their own histories.

I thank, and we as a congregation should thank, Sherry Harris for planning this event. It was her clear vision and hard work that made the event possible. I also would like to thank all of you that helped with this event by volunteering, placing a greeting or business ad, or becoming an underwriter. Also due praise needs to go to all the members who went to businesses and obtained ads.

I hope you enjoy having this souvenir journal and most of all I hope you enjoy the event!

Dear Members of the Agudas Israel Congregation:

Shabbat Shalom! Thank you for inviting me to join in the celebration of Agudas Israel Congregation's 87th anniversary. While I regret that I am unable to attend the celebrations, I would like to congratulate you for over eighty years of education, worship, and fellowship in the Hendersonville community.

The Jewish community in Western North Carolina, while not large in number, is rich in history. Jews have brought diversity to our mountain region since 1900 when the Lewis and Patterson families arrived and began small businesses in the area. It is heartwarming that this community of Jews in Appalachia continues to grow. Your spiritual home, constructed just in this decade, shows the permanent presence of your community of faith in our Western North Carolina mountains.

I hope that I am able to join you in future celebrations. I know that there will be many more anniversaries for Agudas Israel. Again, Mazal Tov and Shabbat Shalom!

Dear Friends:

Thank you for your kind invitation to share in tonight's celebration of Agudas Israel Congregation's charter members on the occasion of the synagogue's 87th anniversary. It is my pleasure to wish you a warm and hearty mazel tov, both personally and on behalf of the Union for Reform Judaism. Unfortunately, a previous commitment prevents me from joining you for this joyous simcha in the life of the congregation.

Since its founding nearly nine decades ago, when the town's Jewish families gathered to organize a synagogue, Agudas Israel Congregation has been an exciting and unique Jewish presence in Hendersonville for both residents and visitors alike. Today, Rabbi Bentley leads a true kehillah kedosha that is deeply devoted to promoting the values of our Judaic tradition and to bringing God and Torah into the lives of members and their families. The congregation has strong connections to the Union for Reform Judaism and is a vital and precious link in our network of congregations throughout North America. Of special note is the dignity with which the congregation has served as the Jewish voice of the town, as well as the cadre of highly qualified Agudas Israel lay leaders who serve with great distinction as members of the Union's board of trustees.

This evening, as you joyously acknowledge the congregation's rich history and its most promising future, so too are you demonstrating deep affection, respect and admiration for those in the congregational family who came before you and on whose shoulders you now stand. May tonight's worship and festivities be a wonderful reflection of Jewish living, learning and celebration for the Agudas Israel family and under God's countenance, may the congregation and its members continue to flourish and grow from strength to strength for many years to come. Yasher koach.

Sincerely,

The History of Agudas Israel Congregation

OUR FOUNDERS STORY

During the turn of the last century, a large influx of Jewish people emigrated from Eastern Europe to the United States. Many found comfort living in the Jewish enclaves that began to grow in the big cities throughout the country. But there were some adventurous souls who chose to move to small rural American towns to live their new lives. Edward Lewis and his family eventually settled in the rural southern town of Hendersonville, North Carolina. Edward Lewis was the first Jew to live in Henderson County. We, at Agudas Israel Congregation have a connection with this man because it was his son Abraham Lewis who became a driving force in creating our congregation.

As time went on, other Jewish families came to Hendersonville. Many of them, in addition to Edward Lewis, became local merchants, adding to the economic growth of the area and bringing goods and services that were not easily available before. These families were very devoted to their Jewish faith and brought with them their customs and observances. They would take turns having services in each other's homes.

By 1922, a group of these families decided to formalize their religious practices and charter a congregation. A meeting was held on September 24, 1922 at the home of Mrs. A. Kantrowitz. The names of the families that were present included: Lewis, Patterson, Brenner, Kantrowitz, Sherman, Fred, Lazarus, Pushnell, Morris, Cooley, Bercoff, Ebenstein, Marrigan, Jerome, and Patla. Our own Kalman Sherman's father was present at that meeting and even though Kalman was only two years old at the time, we consider him the living bridge between our generation and theirs.

Soon the families, who still did not have a permanent place to hold services, decided that there was need to have an actual synagogue building. They did this for two reasons: One was to make it much more convenient to pray by having added space to hold services. The other reason was to show their Gentile friends in town the legitimacy of their own faith by having a permanent house of worship. In 1925 a building on King Street, that had housed the Home Electric Company, was purchased and renovated as the new synagogue. The building was remodeled in 1964 and remained home for Agudas Israel Congregation until our present location was dedicated in 2002.

Once a sanctuary was in place, the founding families sought out spiritual leadership. The need for a teacher to instruct the youth and a shochet for kosher meats was met by Abraham Lewis, who sent for his brother-in-law Beryl Cohen. Beryl was a humble, yet learned man. He was a graduate of Diskin Orphanage and Yeshiva Seminary in Jerusalem. Beryl arrived in 1920, and immediately set about leading religious services, teaching Hebrew school and ritually slaughtering chickens. He served faithfully until his death at the age of 63 in 1964, having taught three generations of our youth. The need for a qualified person to conduct Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services was filled by traveling qualified lay persons, senior student rabbis, and visiting rabbis.

The founding of the Congregation and purchase of the synagogue increased the popularity of Hendersonville as a Jewish summer resort. The Jewish Community, prior to World War II, was strengthened by the presence of five Jewish boarding houses. Families from Florida, Georgia and South Carolina spent their summers and High Holy Days in Hendersonville, adding to the religious and social life of our Congregation. The High Holiday meals at Abe Horowitz's boarding house were a long-standing tradition for local congregants and guests.

As time progressed, other families came, many of them marrying into the families of the original charter members. Our own Sammy Williams' family became a part of the Agudas Israel Congregation family in 1926. Morris Kaplan, of blessed memory, married into the Williams' family in 1945.

So who are the Founders and the Founding Families of Agudas Israel Congregation?

Those of us on the event committee have been asked this many times. Who actually are we honoring? Are they just the people that sat together 87 years ago and chartered our congregation? Or are they all the members who joined the temple later and contributed to its growth and standing in the community? It is both. We are honoring all of the early leaders and families of Agudas Israel Congregation. The people who served on the Boards, the Brotherhood and Sisterhood/Jewish Ladies Auxiliary, Past Presidents, Clergy, Lay Religious Leaders, Sunday School Teachers, those who worked on various committees, those who worked tirelessly within the community helping the disadvantaged and revitalizing and contributing to the greater good of Henderson County and beyond. And those who, just by joining the synagogue, kept it going by contributing their dues.

By their example, in a way, we are honoring ourselves. All of our current members are honoring the past just by the virtue of becoming a member. Doing so keeps Agudas Israel Congregation alive as an important institution in the community, that it may reach the next 87 years and beyond.

During this event we are giving special tributes to Kalman Sherman and Sammy Williams for their many years of dedication to Agudas Israel Congregation.

We are honoring the memory of Morris Kaplan through two events: a Memorial Dedication presented by the Pardee Hospital Interfaith Chaplaincy Association and the dedication of the Morris Kaplan Walkway and Morris Kaplan Drive (the driveway leading to our synagogue).

We are also giving tributes to Francee Sherman and Flossie Williams as representatives of the Jewish Ladies Auxiliary for all their contributions to Agudas Israel.

So who are we honoring at the event?

It is all the generations of members, throughout the years, who gave of themselves and became role models for us to continue with their good works. In the pages that follow, some of our families have shared their stories, illustrating how the good works of their grandparents, parents, aunts and uncles have guided the community and modeled our values. We trust you will find in them, inspiration and hope for a bright future and continued success.

THE LOUIS AND ROSENA SHERMAN FAMILY

Louis Sherman(1889-1971) came from a family of five boys and two girls, Louis being the youngest. Louis' mother Rossa Slott Sherman died soon after childbirth. His widower father, Kasper Sherman, took the family from Lithuania to Columbus, Ohio in 1889. Louis ended up being raised by his sister and also spent some time in an orphan home. As a young man he worked in his brother's butcher shop in Baltimore, MD. Later he came to Asheville, NC to work in his brother-in-law's pawn shop. He married Rosena Gold (1897-1987) in 1915. In 1920, they had a son, Kalman. The family moved to Hendersonville in 1922 and Louis opened Sherman's Sporting Goods Store. A daughter, Frances, was born in 1924. Louis was an original founder of Agudas Israel Congregation. Kalman and Frances both graduated from Hendersonville High School. Kalman studied at the University of North Carolina for two years and then returned home to work at the sporting goods store. Kalman served in WWII as a marine in the South Pacific and in California. He met Frances "Francee" Oliner in California. She was from Salt Lake City, Utah. Kalman married Francee in 1946. In 1948 they had their first child, Rebecca and in 1952 they had a second daughter, Barbara. Francee taught Sunday School at Agudas Israel and was very involved in both Hadassah and The Jewish Ladies Auxiliary. She is still involved with the current Agudas Israel Jewish Ladies Auxiliary/Sisterhood and is in charge of the Golden Book. Kalman is still an active member at Agudas Israel. Kalman retired from his sporting goods store and passed it on to his daughter Rebecca Banadyga who, along with her husband Rex, are now the owners of Sherman's Sporting Goods Store. Becky and Rex have one daughter, Barbara. The Shermans are related to Ed Lewis the first Jewish person in Hendersonville.

THE HARRY AND MINNIE PATTERSON FAMILY

My name is Larry Patterson and I'm the grandson of one of the founding families of Agudas Israel: the Harry and Minnie Patterson family.

When the families of Harry Patterson and Minnie Fred came to this country from Russia in the late 1890s, they first settled in the town of Somerset in rural south-central Kentucky. In early 1904, Harry and Minnie decided to get married. However, because there was no rabbi in the area, they had to go to Cincinnati, Ohio to find one to marry them.

After the wedding, they went back to Kentucky and Harry opened up a small mercantile business. Then, in December of 1904 their first son, and our father, Edward (Ed) was born. Because of post-delivery complications, Minnie developed tuberculosis. Since the recommended treatment at that time for lung conditions like tuberculosis was to send the patient to a place where the air was fresh and clean, Minnie's Kentucky doctor referred her to Dr. William Kirk in Hendersonville.

So, in June of 1906, Harry, Minnie, and their year-and-a-half old son Ed arrived in Hendersonville. Once here, she experienced a significant improvement in her lung problems—so much so that they decided to put down roots permanently. They were the second Jewish family to settle here—approximately six years after the first family, the Edward Lewis family, had put down its roots in the town.

Harry soon opened his first mercantile business. And, according to an account of their early life here (as told to The Times-News editor, J.T. Fain, in 1956), our grandmother Minnie said that “we got along pretty good but then came the panic of 1907 and we were dead broke and had to close up.” So, Harry went to Cincinnati to learn the cleaning and pressing business and then came back to Hendersonville and opened up a cleaning and pressing operation. Later, when business started picking up again, Harry decided to get back into the mercantile business and opened up his second mercantile store.

In May of 1914, their second son, Joseph (Joe), was born. After our grandparents were well established here, they started bringing other family members (their parents, brothers and sisters, etc.) to Hendersonville.

By then, the Jewish population in Hendersonville was on the increase and a move was under way to establish a formal congregation. As Morris Kaplan noted in his history of the congregation, “A special meeting was held on September 24, 1922 at the residence of Mrs. Abe Kantrowitz for the purpose of organizing a congregation. Twenty-seven men and women attended [and] they voted to name the organization Agudas Israel.”

Among those in attendance at this meeting was our grandfather Harry. His role in helping to establish the congregation was a pivotal one because it was he who purchased the land and building which served as the original site for Agudas Israel [the location on King Street]. According to an interview Jill Savitt conducted with our father, Ed, a few months before his death in 1997, he said that “My father negotiated the deal where the synagogue is now [that is, the old King Street location]. He negotiated it [but] they, Mom and Pop [Harry and Minnie], must have had to buy it in their own name and then turn it over to the synagogue.”

During this same period, Harry's business was flourishing quite well until—as my grandmother put it—“the boom (1925-1926) busted ... then the store burned down in 1929, and in 1930 the banks in town closed [so] we were broke again.” However, thanks to the generosity of a wholesale supplier in Charlotte, NC (by the name of Mr. Williams) who extended credit to our grandfather and let him pick out whatever he needed to get reestablished in business, things were soon up and running again.

In 1926, a year after graduating from the University of North Carolina, our father Ed joined the business and eventually took over its operation. While he was in college he had met, and was dating, Doris Harris of High Point, NC. Then in 1930, Ed and Doris got married and they also started expanding the business—eventually adding a men's store and a jewelry store in Hendersonville and a women's store in Greenville, SC. They continued to work together and run the Patterson's stores until their retirement in the early 1980's. It is worth noting that when our parents retired and finally sold the business, the Patterson's stores had been in operation almost 75 years!

Our parents also started to raise a family here. In 1931, my sister Elizabeth Ann (Betty) was born and in 1935, my brother Robert (Bob) was born. I came along in 1944 and my brother Alan came along in 1947. Uncle Joe became a doctor and served in the U.S. Army during WWII. After the war, he settled in Atlanta, GA, married Ruby Shefsky of Memphis, TN and went into practice as a pediatrician—eventually becoming Chief Physician at Emory University's Eggleston Children's Hospital. Joe and Ruby have three children: Jeffrey (Jeff), Paul and Ellen.

The older generations are gone now. And the torch, as well as the legacy left by Agudas Israel founding members Harry and Minnie Patterson, has been passed to the six of us who represent their surviving grandchildren: my brothers—Bob and Alan—and me; and our cousins Jeff, Paul and Ellen.

Harry ("Mr. H," as the store employees and many of the store's customers called him) died in 1953. According to what my father said in the interview with Jill Savitt, out of respect for him—as a person who was actively involved, and highly respected, in the local community—the merchants in town closed their stores the day of his funeral.

Minnie ("Mrs. H." as she was often called) continued to work in the ladies' store until her health declined. She died in 1973.

Dad (Ed) died in 1997; Mom (Doris) died in 2000; and our sister Betty passed away in 2003.

Uncle Joe Patterson died in 2006 and his wife Ruby died in 2002.

Soon, our generation will start passing the torch, and Harry and Minnie's legacy, to our children (their great-grandchildren), our grandchildren (their great-great-grandchildren, and eventually our grandchildren's children (their great-great-great-grandchildren). And the legacy of which I speak is something I believe my sister, my brothers, and I learned and inherited by being a part of the Agudas Israel family while we were growing up here in Hendersonville: a commitment to give of yourself to the community (both religious and secular) in which you live—and not just take from it whatever you can get.

— Larry Patterson

LOUIS AND MINNIE WILLIAMS FAMILY

Hendersonville was the Promised Land for Louis Williams (1889 – 1971) and Minnie Goldstein Williams (1894 – 1987). Louis had emigrated from Poland as a young teenager, disembarking at the Port of Galveston, Texas, which was still part of the "Wild, Wild West." He traveled to the Lower East Side to find his bride, Minnie, also from Poland. She unflinchingly followed Louis back to the blazing heat of Abilene, Texas, then to the harsh winters of Detroit, and finally to the four seasons of Western North Carolina and to a Hendersonville that was truly their home in their adopted land. We, their progeny, are certainly thankful!

Louis and Minnie moved to Asheville in 1922 and then to Hendersonville in 1926 with their young children, Jacob – "Jakie" (1917-1981), Samuel – "Sammy" (b. 1919) and Anne (1921 – 2007), who grew up and remained in Hendersonville. Louis was active in real estate and founded the company now known as Louis Williams and Sons. Louis and Minnie played important leadership roles in the development of the nascent Agudas Israel congregation.

In 1927, Louis sent for his brother Chaim Williamowsky, who was a Rabbi in Poland. He became Hendersonville's first Rabbi. Chaim came with his wife Nahama, sons Joseph and Benjamin and daughter Sarah. Later, three more children were born in this country, Polly, Miriam and Francis. Rabbi Williamowsky stayed in Hendersonville for two years, then moved to Durham, NC, and finally to Washington, DC, where he had a long, fulfilling career as Rabbi. He was the revered patriarch of a very large extended family who remain devoted to Jewish life and practice.

Jakie Williams was a stellar student, received a BS degree in chemistry from the University of North Carolina, and, when drafted into the military during WWII, was selected to work on the Manhattan (Atomic Bomb) project with J. Robert Oppenheim. After the war, Jakie returned to Hendersonville and worked at Louis Williams and Sons. Jackie was first violinist with the Hendersonville Symphony. He was the beloved “Uncle Jackie” to the Williams and Kaplan “Baby Boomer” kids who followed.

Sammy Williams married Florence – “Flossie” Kaplan (no relation to his brother-in-law Morris Kaplan!) in 1951 and partnered with Morris in the family business. In addition, he has served in key roles within Agudas Israel Congregation and many of Hendersonville’s civic organizations. Flossie had been active in the Sisterhood and volunteered for many years as a Pink Lady at Pardee hospital. Sammy and Flossie raised three children, Sidney – “Sid,” Sharon, and Dan – “Danny,” who grew up and currently live in Hendersonville.

Sharon Williams Wooten has three children. Her daughter, Melissa, graduated from University of North Carolina and will soon leave for Israel; her step-daughter Jennifer and grandson Wesley who live in Sylva; and son, Brad, who is a student at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte. Sharon works in the Henderson County Assessor’s Office.

Sid Williams married Susan David in 1980. Sid has two daughters from a previous marriage: Jennifer Williams lives in Columbia, SC with her son Jeremy. Rebecca lives in Gastonia, NC with her husband Gary Herne and their three teenage children Steven, James, and Haley. Sid has had a multi-faceted career in the broadcasting industry and Susan is the librarian for Blue Ridge Community College.

Danny Williams married Debbie Moxley. They have two children, a daughter, Lauren, who attends Columbia College Chicago majoring in the performing arts and a son, Daniel, who is in high school. Danny has carried on the family tradition as owner of Louis Williams and Sons and is active in community affairs. Debbie has taught elementary school and now works with Danny in the family business.

Anne Williams married her military sweetheart, Morris Kaplan (1911 – 2008) in 1945, immediately after WWII. Morris joined Louis Williams and Sons along with Sammy and Jackie Williams. For many years, Anne worked in the family business and was active in Agudas Israel Sisterhood. Morris, supported by Anne’s generous spirit, warm hospitality and menchlikeite, provided strong community and congregational leadership for over sixty years. In addition to his numerous civic roles, Morris served as lay leader of Agudas Israel for over fifty years and as congregational president for much of that time.

Morris was born in Greenport, New York and grew up on a farm in Scranton, Pennsylvania. His father, Hyman Kaplan, came to America as a boy, during the vast wave of emigration in the 1880s. His mother, Hannah Minsey Kaplan, emigrated from Poland as a teenager, shortly after the turn of the twentieth century. She worked in a New York “sweat shop” until marrying Hyman and moving to his home in Greenport, where he worked as a carpenter and builder. The emigrant experience in which Morris, along with his three brothers, grew up had a positive, lasting impact on his religious, civic, and patriotic values. Anne and Morris had two children, David and Eileen, who grew up in Hendersonville.

David Kaplan married Elissa Landey in 1970. They now live in Stamford, CT, their 15th home after careers in the military, corporate and not-for profit organizations, and Jewish Education. David and Elissa have two children, Jeffrey and Lara.

Jeffrey Kaplan married Laurie Sanda in 2000. They live in Denton, Texas, where they teach dance at North Texas University and Tarrant County Community College, and teach yoga in the Dallas – Forth Worth area. They have one daughter, Arianna.

Lara Kaplan lives in Baltimore, Maryland, where she has a private practice as an art conservator for private collections and public institutions, such as the Smithsonian, the Barnes Foundation and U.S National Park Service. She also teaches as adjunct faculty for graduate studies in the Art Conservation Department of the University of Delaware at Winterthur.

Eileen Kaplan married Michael Stang in 1973. They live in Pikesville, MD, where “Dr. Mike” is a practicing emergency room physician in the Baltimore metropolitan area, a playwright, and an inventor. Eileen is retired from a career in early childhood education and has contributed her time as a volunteer to synagogue and public television activities in Baltimore.

Mae Weisberg (1903 -1979), Minnie Williams’ sister, married Morris Weisberg (1893 – 1978). They lived their married lives in Hendersonville where they raised two children, Herman and Ruth – “Ruthie.” Morris founded Reliable Furniture store which operated on Main Street from the 1930s until the mid-1980s.

Herman Weisberg later ran Reliable Furniture and devoted many years of volunteer service to the Valley Hill Fire Department. He is married to Ginger Brown and lives in the Hendersonville area.

Ruthie Weisberg Solomon is retired after many years, working in the non-profit sector. She now lives in Fort Mill, SC, with her daughter and son-in-law, Sheryl and Stan Smith. Sheryl is the compensation director for the international Compass Group. Ruthie also has a son Larry, who lives in Germantown, MD, with his wife, Lisa. Larry is the scientific program coordinator for the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, MD.

The Williams – Kaplan tradition of service and giving to others, living a life steeped in the Jewish values of hachnasat orchim (hospitality) and tikkun olam (repair of the world) provides us with the clearest guidepost for our own paths. The contributions and accomplishments of our grandparents and parents are their legacy and their gift to all of us, generation to generation. Let us always remember and honor our founding mothers and fathers, among whom we are proud to number our own.

— David Kaplan & Eileen Kaplan Stang

THE MORRIS AND LEAH KALIN FAMILY

Morris Kalin (1909 to 2000) was one of eleven children born in Baltimore, MD to Russian Jewish parents. He followed his eldest brother, Sam Kalin, to Hendersonville in the late 1930s and worked in the family's clothing store, Kalin's Department Store, on Main Street. Morris quickly became active in Jewish life by joining a group called the “HeNoCa Club.”

Morris met his future wife Leah Alpern (1914-1985) on a blind date. Leah, born in Charleston, SC to Russian Jewish parents, was one of eight children. When Leah met Morris she said, "That's the man I'm going to marry."

Morris and Leah wed and soon Morris went into the furniture business with Dan Michalove.

Morris and Leah had a daughter, Claire Jean. During the early war years, Morris, Leah and Claire moved to Charleston so that Morris could work in the Navy Yard.

Upon their return, Leah and Morris opened their own business, Kalin's Furniture Store, first on Third Avenue, and then eventually on Main Street, where it remained until 1999. They worked together every day until Leah's death in 1985. Morris continued to work well into his eighties. He died in November 2000.

Both Leah and Morris were active in Agudas Israel Congregation. The shul played a central role in their lives. Leah was named Sweetheart of B'nai Brith for many years due to the monies she raised for the organization. While there was no rabbi in the shul for many years, Morris and Morris Kaplan conducted Friday night and holiday services. Morris Kalin sang Kol Nidre for many of those years.

Their daughter Claire grew up in Hendersonville, attended high school there and went to college where she met and married Dick Savitt in 1963. They moved to New York and then to Miami in the 1970s. They have three adult children, Jordan, Jill, and Scott, and six grandchildren.

— Claire Kalin Savitt

DAN AND SOPHIA MICHALOVE FAMILY

Dan and Sophia Michalove, both born in 1889, moved to Hendersonville in 1927. As was the case with many of the early congregants, Dan and Sophia's move was the result of family connections. Dan's sister, Ray, was married to Sam Kalin and was living in Hendersonville. His other sister, Hattie Pearlman, lived in Asheville.

Dan opened a grocery store called the "Star" at the corner of Main Street and 5th Avenue. One day, Dan's sister, Hattie, visited from Asheville and said "Dan, you're not going to make any money selling groceries. I'm sending you a truck of furniture and you'll make a better living."

The original furniture store was called the "Railroad Salvage" and later the name was changed to "Daniel's Fine Furniture." The store was a landmark on Main Street until its closing in 1975

I joined the family in 1935, and we lived on 3rd Ave. next to the shul. During the High Holidays, when we took a break, all the ladies would come to our house to use the bathroom.

Ellie and I have three girls and five grandchildren. We have pleasant memories of family lifecycle events in the old schul on King Street. Our eldest daughter, Lorri, celebrated her Bat Mitzvah in the shul, our middle daughter, Melissa, was married there, and our youngest daughter, Rachel, attended Sunday School in the old building.

Ellie was a school teacher for many years and now works for the Asheville Employment Security Commission. I took over Daniel's Fine Furniture when Dan passed away, and then served on the Hendersonville City Council for sixteen years from 1977 - 1993, the last twelve years as Mayor.

— Don Michalove

THE HARRY AND PEARL MOTTSMAN FAMILY

Our grandfather, Harry Mottzman came from Poland in 1906 to live with his uncle, Harry Patterson in Kentucky. Soon thereafter, he moved with the Pattersons to Hendersonville. Several years later, as the story goes, he was a bit too enamored with local girls, so he was sent to Cincinnati to learn to become a tailor. From there, he found his way to Pittsburgh where he met and married Pearl Lipshitz, a recent Russian immigrant.

Harry and Pearl lived in Pittsburgh for a number of years during which time they had seven children. After the death of one of these children, Bertha, they moved to North Carolina in the early 1920's. They were in Brevard for a year or two, and then moved to Hendersonville.

It was during this time that the local Jewish population had grown large enough to establish a synagogue. Here, they opened a cleaning and tailoring store on Main Street next to the present location of Tempo Music. They operated this store for several years, and then opened a grocery store on Caswell Street near Church Street. This was located at the present site of Hot Dog World. Eventually, they opened a clothing store on Main Street next to what is now McFarlan Bakery. Harry died here in 1948. Pearl continued to operate the clothing store for several more years before selling it to one of her daughters, Ann. Pearl then opened a tailor shop on 4th Ave. East. She ran this store until her death in 1955.

Ann was the eldest of the children. She married Jack Michalove from Asheville, and moved there for a time. In the early 1950's they moved back to Hendersonville to operate the above mentioned store. They had two children, Paul and Lois, both of whom were Agudas Israel Sunday School kids. Paul became an optometrist, and eventually landed in Asheville where he currently resides with his wife Barbara (originally from Memphis) and his daughter, Jennifer. His other daughter, Amy lives in Atlanta. Lois moved to Atlanta after high school, and has remained there. She presently works as the director of a court supervised drug and alcohol rehabilitation program.

The next of our grandparents' children was Ed Mottzman. Uncle Eddie served in the Pacific Theater during WWII, and then returned to Hendersonville. He operated several stores, and eventually went to work for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He and his wife, Lottie had two children, Susette and Harriet. Both were Sunday School kids. In the 1950's Ed received a promotion and moved to Charlotte where he spent the rest of his life. Susette became a librarian. She is married to Raphe Panitz. They live in the metropolitan Washington, DC area with their son Billie. Susette is happy to report that she retired last year. Harriet is married to Mike Glasman. They live in Knoxville where their son Jonathan attends the University of Tennessee.

The next of the Mottsmans was Jeannette, my mother. She married Marty Beckerman, a Yankee carpetbagger who came into her life in 1941. After being stationed in Arkansas during WWII, they moved back to Hendersonville just in time for my birth in 1945. My father was a travelling salesman, and my mother a housewife. My father died here in 1967, and my mother in 1992. I am their only child. I grew up here with Agudas Israel Congregation occupying a central place in my life. Influenced by my big cousin, Paul, I also became an optometrist and married a girl from Memphis also named Barbara. I spent a career working for the US Public Health Service on the Navajo Reservation in Arizona, in Oklahoma, in Texas, and finally 21 years in Alaska. Barbara and I retired back in Hendersonville in 2002. It's nice to be back. Our only son, Marty presently lives in the Lower East Side in New York where he is a writer.

Joe Mottzman, the next of the Mottzman children, took part in the D-Day invasion as commander of one of the landing craft. After the war, he became a dentist and moved to Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Phyllis had four children, Debbie, Barbara, Harry, and Dina. None of them lived in Hendersonville. Joe died recently in Pittsburgh.

Yetta Mottzman married Albert Hornstein and has lived in Savannah, Ga. since 1957. They have one son, Herb. Hopefully, they will be at our big anniversary celebration.

Dick Mottzman, the youngest sibling was too young for WWII. He received a journalism degree from the University of North Carolina. He spent a career working for Revlon and Helena Rubenstein, and eventually owned and operated his own business which imports and sells western wear. Dick and his wife, Evelyn, have three children, Diane, Paula, and Dan. They all live in Pittsburgh. Dick also plans to be here for our big celebration.

— Mike (Mickey) Beckerman

Jake and Jennie married and moved to Greenwood, S.C. where their daughter Janet Louise Rosenberg was born on May 10, 1922.

First Bat-Mitzvah at Agudas Israel Congregation

A Bat Mitzvah ceremony was held in honor of Miss Susette Blair Mottzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mottzman last Friday evening at the Agudas Israel Synagogue.

Susette conducted the traditional Sabbath Eve service in Hebrew and English assisted by Mr. Fred Lewin. This event was the first of its kind in this city for a girl of the Hebrew faith.

It is a significant occasion for a girl entering adulthood and symbolizes the acceptance of her faith. In commemoration Susette was presented with a certificate by Mr. Samuel Williams, president of the congregation, and received a religious token from Hadassah, the women's organization presented by Mrs. Samuel Williams.

Gladiolus and greenery were used in the synagogue. For a reception which followed in the center downstairs flowers were also used artistically. A beautiful pink and white cake in the shape of a scroll formed the centerpiece on the table. The same scheme was carried throughout. Mrs. Jack Michalove and Mrs. Martin Beckerman, aunts of the honoree were at the punch bowl.

A cousin, Miss Lois Michalove, and little Miss Harriet Mottzman served at the children's punch bowl. Approximately ninety persons attended.

Opening Song: Sabbath Prayer

May the Lord protect and defend you.
 May He always shield you from shame.
 May you come to be
 In Israel a shining name.

May you be like Ruth and like Esther.
 May you be deserving of praise.
 Strengthen them, Oh Lord,
 And keep them from the strangers' ways.

May God bless you and grant you long lives.

(May the Lord fulfill our Sabbath prayer for you.)

May God make you good mothers and wives. (May He send you husbands who will care for you.)

May the Lord protect and defend you.
 May the Lord preserve you from pain.
 Favor them, Oh Lord, with happiness and peace.

Oh, hear our Sabbath prayer. Amen.

For the candles

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוֵּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל שַׁבָּת.

Barukh atah Adonai, Eloheinu Melekh haolam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik ner shel Shabbat.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of the Universe, who sanctifies us by Your commandments and commands us to kindle the lights of Shabbat.

OUR SYNAGOGUE

Reader:

Let us affirm this synagogue to be a house of prayer.

Congregation:

A place of Meeting where we openly encounter ourselves, each other and that which is beyond and between.

Reader:

Let us affirm this synagogue to be a house of learning.

Congregation:

A place for discovering who we are,
 where we have come from,
 where we are going.
 In this place we shall learn Torah not as a fixed monologue from the past, but as a living dialogue,

 a conversation with eternity now and here.

Reader:

Let us affirm this synagogue to be a house of assembly.

Congregation:

A place for sharing joy and sorrow,
 anguish and confusion.
 A refuge from isolation where we might covenant together in mutual respect and at peace.

Reader:

Let this synagogue be all we dream.
 And let us say: Amen

A single commandment: "Keep!" and "Remember!" A single God commanded us so. Adonai is One, the Name is One known for wonder and glory.

Come, let us go welcome Shabbat for Adonai is the source of blessing created from the very beginning, the last act, the first thought.

Awake! Awake! Your light comes, rise and shine!

Arise, arise, offer a song! Adonai's glory is revealed to you.

My love, go and meet your bride. Let us welcome Shabbat!

You are Creator of day and night, rolling light away from darkness, and darkness from light; You cause day to pass and bring on the night, separating day from night; You command the hosts of heaven! May the living and eternal God rule us always, to the end of time! We praise You, O God, whose word makes evening fall.

You shall love your Eternal God with all your heart, with all your mind, with all your being. Set these words, which I command you this day, upon your heart. Teach them faithfully to your children; speak of them in your home and on your way; when you lie down and when you rise up. Bind them as a sign upon your hand; let them be symbols before your eyes; inscribe them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.

Be mindful of all My Mitzvot, and do them: so shall you consecrate yourselves to your God. I am your Eternal God who led you out of Egypt to be your God; I am your Eternal God.

REDEMPTION

IN A WORLD torn by violence and pain, a world far from wholeness and peace,
give us the courage to say, Adonai:
There is one God in heaven and earth.
The high heavens declare Your glory;
may earth reveal Your justice and love.

*From bondage in Egypt, we were delivered;
at Sinai, we bound ourselves to Your way.
Inspired by prophets and instructed by sages, time and again, we overcame oppressive forces.*

Though our failings are many and our faults are great,
it has been our glory to bear witness to our God,
keeping alive in dark ages
Your vision of a world redeemed.
Let us continue to work for the day when the nations will be one and at peace.
Then shall we rejoice as Israel did, singing on the shores of the Sea:

מִי כַמְכָה בְּאֵלִים יְיָ, מִי כַמְכָה נִאֲדָר בְּקֹדֶשׁ, נוֹרָא תְהִלַּת, עֲשֵׂה פִלְא.
מְלֻכּוֹתָד רְאוּ בְנֵיךְ, בּוֹקֵעַ יָם לִפְנֵי מֹשֶׁה, זֶה אֱלֹהֵי עַנּוּ וְנִאֲמְרוּ:
יְיָ יִמְלֹךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד. וְנִאֲמְרוּ: כִּי פָדָה יְיָ אֶת יַעֲקֹב, וַיִּגְאֻלוּ מִיַּד חֲזַק מִמֶּנּוּ. בְּרִיךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, נֶאֱלֵ יִשְׂרָאֵל.

Mi khamokhah ba-eilim Adonai, mi kamokhah ne'edar bakodesh, nora t'hilot, oseh fele. Malkhut'kha ra'u vanekha, bokei-a yam lifnei mosheh, zeh eili anu v'am'ru: Adonai yimlokht l'olam va-ed. V'ne-emar: ki fadah Adonai et ya-akov, ug'alo miyad hazak mimenu. Barukh atah Adonai, ga-al yisra-eil.

Who is like You, Eternal One, among the gods that are worshipped? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders?

In their escape from the sea, Your children saw Your sovereign might displayed. "This is my God!" they cried. "The Eternal will reign forever and ever!"

And it has been said: The Eternal One delivered Jacob, and redeemed us from the hand of one stronger than ourselves. We praise You, O God, Redeemer of Israel.

DIVINE PROVIDENCE

Grant that we may lie down in peace, Eternal God, and raise us up, O Sovereign, to life renewed. Spread over us the shelter of Your peace; guide us with Your good counsel; and for Your name's sake, be our Help.

Shield us from hatred and plague; keep us from war and famine and anguish; subdue our inclination to evil. O God, our Guardian and Helper, our gracious and merciful Sovereign, give us refuge in the shadow of Your wings. O guard our coming and our going, that now and always we have life and peace.

We praise You, O God, whose shelter of peace is spread over us, over all Your people of Israel, and over Jerusalem.

THE COVENANT OF SHABBAT

וְשָׁמְרוּ בְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶת הַשַּׁבָּת, לַעֲשׂוֹת אֶת הַשַּׁבָּת לְדֹרוֹתֵם בְּרִית עוֹלָם. בֵּינִי וּבֵין בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל אוֹת הִיא לְעוֹלָם, כִּי נִשְׁשֶׁת יָמִים עָשָׂה יְיָ אֶת הַשָּׁמַיִם וְאֶת הָאָרֶץ, וַיְבַיֵּם הַשְּׁבִיעִי שַׁבַּת וַיִּנְפָשׁ.

The people of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath in every generation as a covenant for all time. It is a sign forever between Me and the people of Israel. For in six days the Eternal One made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day God rested and was refreshed.

THE HOLINESS OF SHABBAT

אַתָּה קְדַשְׁתָּ אֶת יוֹם הַשְּׁבִיעִי לְשִׁמְךָ, תַּכְלִית מַעֲשֵׂה שְׁמִים וְאַרְצָךְ, וּבִרְכָתוֹ מִכָּל הַיָּמִים, וְקִדְשָׁתוֹ מִכָּל הַיָּמִים, וְכֹן כְּתוּב בְּתוֹרַתְךָ:

Atah kidashta et yom hashvii lishmekha, takhlit ma-aseih shamayim va-aretz, uveirakhto mikol hayamim, v'kidashto mikol haz'manim, v'khein katuv b'toratekha: You set the seventh day apart for Your service; it is the goal of creation, more blessed than other days, more sacred than other times, and so we read in the story of creation:

וַיְכַלּוּ הַשָּׁמַיִם וְהָאָרֶץ וְכָל צְבָאָם. וַיְכַל אֱלֹהִים בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁבִיעִי מְלַאכְתּוֹ אֲשֶׁר עָשָׂה, וַיִּשְׁבֹּת בַּיּוֹם הַשְּׁבִיעִי, מִכָּל מְלַאכְתּוֹ אֲשֶׁר עָשָׂה. וַיְבָרֶךְ אֱלֹהִים אֶת יוֹם הַשְּׁבִיעִי וַיְקַדְּשׁ אֹתוֹ, כִּי בּו שָׁבַת מִכָּל מְלַאכְתּוֹ, אֲשֶׁר בָּרָא אֱלֹהִים לַעֲשׂוֹת.

Vay'khal hashamayim v'ha-aretz v'khol tz'va-am. vay'khal elohim bayom hashvii m'lakhto asher asah, vayishbot bayom hashvii, mikol m'lakhto asher asah.

Vay'varekh elohim et yom hashvii vay'kadeish oto, ki vo shavat mikol m'lakhto, asher bara elohim la-asot.

Now the whole universe--sky, earth, and all their array-- was completed. With the seventh day God ended the work of creation, resting on the seventh day, with all the work completed. Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, this day having completed the work of creation.

Satisfy us with Your goodness, gladden us with Your salvation, and purify our hearts to serve You in truth. O God, keep my tongue from evil and my lips from deceit. Help me to be silent in the face of derision, humble in the presence of all. Open my heart to Your Torah, that I may hasten to do Your Mitzvot. Save me with Your power; in time of trouble be my answer, that those who love You may rejoice.

May the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable to You, O God, my Rock and my Redeemer.

FOR OUR PEOPLE AND OUR NATION

ETERNAL GOD, we pray to you for the whole House of Israel, scattered over the earth, yet bound together by a common heritage of faith and hope.

Be with our brothers and sisters whose lives are made hard because they are Jews. Give them strength to endure, and lead them soon from bondage to freedom, from darkness to light. Grant the same blessing to those of every people who suffer persecution and oppression.

Bless this holy congregation and all who serve it, together with all other sacred communities, in lands near and far. Uphold us, shield us, and grant us abundant life and health, peace and happiness. Amen

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, Who creates the fruit of the vine. (Amen)
 Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, has desired us, and has given us, in love and good will, His holy Shabbat as a heritage, in remembrance of the work of Creation; the first of the holy festivals, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt. For You have chosen us and sanctified us from among all the nations, and with love and good will given us Your holy Shabbat as a heritage. Blessed are You, Lord, who sanctifies the Shabbat. (Amen)
