Honoring the

RIGHT REVEREND RICHARD H. BAKER

Chapel Hill

April 27, 1965

At this dinner the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina gather to do honor to our beloved Bishop—the Rt. Rev. Richard H. Baker. We wish in some measure to express our gratitude for his wise leadership, which has enabled the diocese to move forward in every area of its work. In difficult and troubled times he has exhibited patience, understanding and firm commitment to the faith. Through the Companion Diocese Program with the Missionary District of Panama, which he initiated, he has increased our understanding of mission and of our responsibilities overseas. We are especially grateful for the recognition he has given to women permitting us to make fuller use of our talents. His infectious good humor has brightened our days. He has demonstrated that the Christian life need not be solemn. Most of all we are grateful for his warm friendship, freely given. We shall miss him and his gracious wife, Lee, but we want them to know that they take with them the gratitude and the deep affection of all the Episcopal women of the diocese.

PRAYERS

OPENING PRAYER

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

O God, our heavenly Father, who hast created all men after Thy likeness, we beseech Thee to incline Thine ear to us as we ask Thy help in doing our duty as Christian citizens and as members of Thy Holy Church. We acknowledge our many transgressions of Thy righteous law and especially our failure to see Thine image of all Thy children for whose sake Thy Son was content to die. Grant that we may follow in the steps of Him with whom there was no respect of persons.

Make us ready to acknowledge the Truth as it stands written in Thy Holy Word. Give us courage in our thinking and honesty in our decision. Lift us above self-interest and prejudice and whatsoever else may hinder us from a just and righteous dealing with our neighbor. Guide with thy wisdom those to whom Thou hast committed the responsibility of government, that all things pertaining to the relationship of man with man may be settled upon the sure foundation of Thy Holy Will as made to us in Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

—THE RT. REV. EDWIN A. PENICK, D.D.

PRAYERS FOR THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for his sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYER FOR COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

PRAYER FOR USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN INSTITUTIONS

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE, RALEIGH, N. C., dates back to 1842. At the present time it provides two years of High School and two years of college. It is owned by the five Dioceses of North Carolina and South Carolina. The school is open to qualified students and its applications far outnumber the students who can be accommodated. Approximately 55% of the student body comes from the Episcopal Church.

SAINT AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE, RALEIGH, N. C., was chartered in 1867. One third of the negro clergy of our Church have had some part of their education here. The college is co-educational and offers music and art, business administration, teacher training, health and physical education, pre-medical, pre-legal, pre-theological training. It is in need of additional dormitory and classroom space.

PENICK MEMORIAL HOME, SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., will accommodate from 40 to 45 persons. It has a chapel, infirmary, lounges and handicraft rooms. There is room for 10 or 12 cottages or apartments for those who will be guests of the home but prefer to live in their separate quarters.

THE TERRACES, SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., consists of a beautiful home valued at about $140,000.00. It is used as a Conference and Retreat Center, and has been widely used during the few years that the diocese has owned it. About 35 people can be accommodated, and it may be used both by Diocesan groups and by individual parishes for meetings or retreats.

THE THOMPSON ORPHANAGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C., is located on 52 acres of land. Forty acres of this tract have been rented to the Charlotte Town Mall. The Orphanage has acquired 422 acres in the country and will move to its new location in a few years. In addition to caring for children at the Institution, studies and plans are being made to expand the work to foster home care and small boarding homes which will house about 8 children plus a couple of foster parents.

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH, SEWANEE, TENN., is owned by 21 southern Dioceses, one of which is the Diocese of North Carolina. It consists of the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Theology, The Military Academy. The charter was issued in 1858. The magnificent chapel was completed in 1960. It will soon embark upon an extensive building and improvement program.

VADE MECUM is located 26 miles north of Winston-Salem in the Sauras Mountains of Stokes County, North Carolina. It is the Camp and Conference center of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of North Carolina.

The program at Vade Mecum is under the direction of the Rev. Leland S. Jamieson, Assistant Director of Program for the Diocese and is a part of the Church's Summer program for boys and girls, young people, and adults. It offers the adventure, good times, and variety in experience which appeal to young people as well as adults.

KANUGA, HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., a conference center of the Episcopal Church, is owned by the five Carolina Dioceses and the bulk of the support comes from right here in the Carolinas, though there are a good number of individuals outside the Carolinas who contribute.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, to represent all of the work of all of the women of the Church. It acts as the executive body, on a national level, for EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN is an international, interracial fellowship of the women of the Church organized for service to the Church in every phase of its life and all fields of its activity.

TRIENNium

1964 - 1967

PURPOSE

To help the Women of the Church

RECOGNIZE how God is working in His changing world of today;

to UNDERSTAND the roles and opportunities of Women in the Church and society;

and to

LEARN TO RESPOND to the demands which God is placing upon us.

The program of the Triennium will reflect what is believed to be the chief concerns of the Church today. Under such varied titles as Lay Ministry, The Church's Mission to the World, The Total Ministry of the Church, We Are Christians in an Urban Society, and so forth, we are being called to face realistically the complexity of the world in which we live, its changing patterns, Christ's Lordship over the world, and our responsibility as Christians to serve and to witness in His Name.

Christians must do Christ's Work. Worship, study, and fellowship which are part of the life and program of the Church "gathered" should be planned to meet the needs of the people who are "called in" and who go out again as Christian witnesses.¹

PRAYER, including Corporate Worship, is essential because every Christian person must be in contact and communication with his or her Lord, and because without this vital contact we are cut off from our roots and our source of life.

OBEDIENCE is essential because this is our way of imitating our Lord and growing in His likeness.

SERVICE is essential because this includes all the practical ways in which we are of use to God. However, let us not make the mistake of thinking that means merely service to the Church or service within the Church. The world is what God loved and the world is what Christ died for, and the world is what Christians must serve.

WITNESS is essential because it is necessary for us to let the world know Whom we follow, obey, and pray to. Witness is a matter of letting people know who we are and why we do what we do. We must be known by our fruits, not to our own credit, but to the glory of God so that men might be drawn to Him by our example.²

ORGANIZATION OF A LOCAL BRANCH

Membership. Every woman who is a communicant of the Episcopal Church is obviously an "Episcopal Churchwoman." As such her first loyalty is to her parish, its worship and program whatever that may be. Remembering, however, that the aim of the organization known as "Episcopal Churchwomen" is to help every woman find her place in the life of the parish and the mission of the Church, we would hope that every woman communicant would like to be an active member of the organization. Even if it is not always possible for all women communicants to attend meetings, the needs, talents and varying responsibilities of all women of the parish should be kept in mind when planning the organizational structure, the time of meetings and the program and projects.

Structure. The local organization of a branch may be as simple or as complex as the particular situation seems to warrant. In general it is advisable to have only one over-all woman's organization in each parish or mission. If the group is large or has very different needs, the group may be divided into smaller units, called chapters, for more effective service and to permit more women to participate. There are no set rules as to how this should be done, but it is important to guard against fragmentation and preserve the spirit of unity and fellowship which should pervade the entire group.

¹SALTY CHRISTIANS by Hans Ruedi Weber, The Seabury Press, Inc.

Officers. It is recommended that medium and large branches elect officers corresponding to the Diocesan officers and in addition such others as may be needed locally. Very small branches may wish to have a simpler structure, and perhaps combine certain related officers. The important thing is to see that all types of activities — worship, study, service, gifts and fellowship are included and that the Church beyond the parish in diocese and world are not forgotten.

Executive Board. The Executive Board of a branch is usually composed of the elected officers, committee chairmen, chapter chairman and any member of the Executive Council, General Division of Women's Work, Provincial Board or Diocesan Executive Board who is a communicant of the parish. The rector may choose to be an ex officio member. Since this group may be large, it is often advisable to have a smaller planning committee composed of the rector, the President, Chairmen of Devotional Life, Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, Missions and Treasurer (with perhaps one or two others if it seems advisable locally) to meet together once or twice a year to plan the programs in the widest sense (all activities), to insure coordination between the different departments and some relationship between the worship, study, service and giving of the women of the parish.

Any branch of twenty-five members or less does not need an Executive Board, but again may profit from having a small committee such as that suggested above which meets once or twice a year to plan the program and activities, including either a budget or some plan of giving to the parish or the mission of the Church. Of course the tentative plans of either a small committee or an Executive Board are subject to the approval of the entire group in a general meeting of the branch.

Minimum responsibilities of each branch.

Prompt attention and reply to communications from diocese or convocation.

Complete and accurate listing of all officers with notification of changes as they occur.

Representation at Convocation and Annual Meetings, with reports to the branch.

Payment of a pledge to the Diocesan Budget of the Episcopal Churchwomen.

A program of activity centered in worship, strengthened by study and implemented by loving service and gifts of time, money and self.

From the diocese each branch may expect information channelled from the National Church and the General Division, help and assistance in specific departments, inspiration and instruction at such special opportunities as the Vade Mecum Conference, retreats and other special meetings and institutes. There should be a two-way line of communication.

Eighty-third Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

CHAPEL OF THE CROSS
CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA
APRIL 27, 28, 1965

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1965

"Create and Make New", the theme for the Eighty-third Annual Meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, is much more than a catchy title selected by chance. Perhaps there are some here who have not heard that the 1964-1967 Triennium purpose for Episcopal Churchwomen is to help the women of the Church.

1. RECOGNIZE how God is working in His changing world of today;
2. UNDERSTAND the roles and opportunities of women in Church and society; and
3. LEARN TO RESPOND to the demands which God is placing upon us.

Soon after my return from the Triennial Meeting in St. Louis, I began to think seriously about the Churchwomen's program in this Diocese and to wonder where and how to begin to plan our work for this Triennium, especially in relation to this purpose, seemingly impossible to attain. Time and time again these words came to me, "Create and Make New". Words of penitence to be sure, but also words connoting faith, hope, renewal, obedience, challenge, and adventure. As we spend these two days together, I bid you think on these words in relation to the threefold purpose for the Triennium.

The officers' reports, which you will hear, will bear out the statement which I made to the Diocesan Convention in February: namely, that the work of Churchwomen continues to move steadily onward. This I attribute to excellent leadership in the past, to the guidance and cooperation of the Bishops and clergy, to the loyal support and devotion of an excellent Executive Board, and above all to six thousand or more dedicated women, who work diligently in parishes and missions throughout this Diocese.

Even so the number of branches and the membership remain about the same: 104 branches, 6,116 active members. However it should be pointed out that 104 branches, a record number, made and paid a pledge in support of the 1964 budget. The same number sent in United Thank Offerings. We are happy to welcome one new branch, St. Mark's, Raleigh.

The past year has really been a busy year of orientation for me. I have traveled many miles to attend many Churchwomen's meetings and innumerable Diocesan meetings. Truly I have been impressed and encouraged by the number of concerned Christians, both men and women, who are trying sincerely to face realistically the complexity of the world in which we live, to understand the problems of our changing culture, to learn the meaning of true discipleship, indeed to become Christ's faithful followers in the world for which he died. Surely these meetings have not been in vain and will prove profitable as we try to make our work in the Church more meaningful.

I rejoice that the status of women is changing in this Diocese. More and more women are serving on committees and in conferences with men. By vote of the last Diocesan Convention women are now allowed to serve on Vestries and Mission Committees on the same basis as men. To my knowledge two have been elected already. Make no mistake, however, we must never give the impression that we are trying to take over, rather that we are longing to work together as part of the laity for the renewal and obedience which our Lord is demanding of His Church.

Last year the retiring president left with us a recommendation that the time between drawing up a budget and putting it into operation be shortened. This matter was referred to the Finance Committee; and upon its recommendation, the Executive Board deferred action because, this being the year to change treasurers, it seemed inadvisable to change policies at this time.

The Annual Meeting last year in accepting the Report of the Committee on Convocations endorsed the plan to initiate what we are now calling Spring Planning Days held in five geographic areas of the Diocese. Mrs. Eugene S. Knight, Chairman, will give a progress report on these later. I want to report that, after attending one Convocation meeting last spring and six last fall, I am convinced we need not only to retain, but also to strengthen the Convocations. Great possibilities and challenges lie ahead in these areas. The reports of the Convocation chairmen indicate that during the past year there were both Spring and Fall Meeting in most Convocations, also Quiet Days in the Fall. Two delegates to the Triennial Meeting in St. Louis reported at each Fall Meeting. Some of the Convocations have special projects. The Northeast has contributed approximately $900.00 to the Student Center in Panama to be used for the library; the Northwest furnished and stocked the library in the Penick Memorial Home; Charlotte is providing used clothing for sales to help finance a local project undertaken by St. Michael's and All Angels'; the Sandhills gave $500.00 to build a compound in India. Those not having special projects use the offerings taken at the meetings for special purposes. Following the February meeting of the Executive Board, I realized we had not given enough time to the Convocation chairmen and their concerns. Therefore I announced that the first item of new business on the September agenda would be Convocations, my intention being for Convocation chairmen to share some of their concerns with Diocesan officers and to work together on possible solutions.

Certainly one of the most successful changes since I have been president was the Churchwomen's Conference at Vade Mecum last summer when workshops were discontinued. The program was designed for every Churchwoman. The response was most enthusiastic. I trust that increased enthusiasm stemming from the change in program will result in increased attendance. An excellent program has been planned for the conference in June. You will hear more about Vade Mecum tomorrow.

Now to return to the theme, "Create and Make new". I firmly believe that exciting and creative tasks await the Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. Many challenging areas of response will be pointed out today and tomorrow. Whatever the area, the imperative is the same—"Create and Make New". May God give us grace to respond creatively to the demands He is making upon us.

MRS. W. H. R. JACKSON
President

MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY AND INTERDEPENDENCE IN THE BODY OF CHRIST

The Anglican Congress, 1963, presented to the Independent Churches of the Anglican Communion a document inviting all members of the Anglican Communion to a new birth in Christian mission, Christian obedience, and Christian response; and

WHEREAS, the 61st General Convention of the Episcopal Church in the United States, 1964, by Resolution, and the Triennial Meeting of Churchwomen, accepted this document, committed us to an evaluation and response, in our corporate life, our priorities, and our obedience; and

WHEREAS, the 149th Convention of the Diocese of North Carolina, in 1965, gladly accepted this commitment on behalf of our Diocese; therefore, be it resolved, that the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, assembled at its 83rd Annual Meeting in the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, April 27-28, 1965, do hereby pledge ourselves to the commitments thus made for us and affirm our support and response thereto, God being our guide and helper, on the basis of these convictions:

First, that we will seek renewal and new obedience in every area of the life of His Church;

Second, that we will seek these gifts in ourselves, in our families, in our communities, in our State and Nation, and in God's entire world;

Third, that we will begin both study and action, with full knowledge that this renewal and obedience must first be ours as individuals.

Fourth, that our responsibility is far greater than any financial response can discharge, more urgent and costly than self examination can meet;

Fifth, that Prayer, Bible-Study, new understanding, new priorities for our daily life, and renewed acceptance of our personal ministry, are essential needs, if we are to have any gifts to make, or any grace to receive;

Sixth, that we ask each individual and each branch of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina to continue seeking ways to develop, extend, and accept this worldwide call to a renewal of our life in Christ and a new obedience to do His will.

The Rev. Loren B. Mead, Rector of the Church of the Holy Family, Chapel Hill, led the meeting in a Litany and prayers at noon-day. The meeting was then recessed for lunch in the Parish House.

Episcopal Churchwomen
Diocese of North Carolina

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1964, and the related Statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records of the organization and other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1964 and the related Statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash transactions for the year ended December 31, 1964, and the resulting fund balances at that date. The books have been kept on a basis of cash receipts and disbursements, such basis being usual for this type of organization.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

Annual Meeting 1965

"It is not by what we say or by what we do, but by what we are that we draw others into the life in Christ."

This statement was brought home to me so vividly a few weekends ago when the Henderson Rotary Club hosted an International Weekend. Some thirty foreign students attending colleges in this state spent the weekend in private homes in our town. It was the privilege of my family to entertain a young girl from Seoul, Korea who is a graduate student at U. N. C. The weekend included some public gatherings, but the basic idea was to give the students the opportunity to share in the normal activities of American home life including the attendance at worship services on Sunday morning. When we invited Wonbok Lee to attend church with us on Sunday morning she very quickly declined the invitation saying: "I have no religious belief and do not care to attend your church as an observer—I'd rather use that time to observe some of your architecture." Needless to say we were a bit taken back by this reply, but wishing to be good hosts we felt we must oblige. The family decided to attend early service on Sunday morning and then we were free to show some of "our architecture." This was my first real person to person encounter with an atheist. Not just the college sophomore variety, but one who has been brought up by a generation or so of atheists.

Wonbok spent just twenty-four hours with us. It is very likely that we will never see her or hear from her again. What impressions will she carry with her from this experience of visiting in a Christian, American home?

More and more, as the world shrinks, we will cross the paths of persons from different parts of the world, different religions, different cultures. If we are to be effective witnesses for our faith it must show forth in our lives. We must be so prepared that we can speak effectively for Christianity at any unannounced moment.

We are at this moment poised on the edge of a secular and ecumenical age, our world has shrunk to almost a parochial place in history. We need leaders with faith and the intellectual depth to grasp this world and see far enough into it to grope their way, leading others. You, who are here, are leaders in your parish church and in your community. Are you prepared to be at every moment a witness for Christ?

What a big order—how can such lowly persons, as we, possibly make a dent in the facade of history? It is an accepted fact that Christianity has lost a lot of ground in this century. We are a minority group. But before we lose heart let us look back over history. What incredible optimism God has! Time and time again He has intrusted the course of history into the hands of some very unlikely characters or minority groups. Can He not use each of us?

If God is to use us as His agents in this world it is absolutely necessary that we keep in direct contact. We must make time each day to be still so that we can listen to God for direction in our lives. We must pray, we must study, and we must participate regularly in the corporate worship of the church, especially the Holy Communion.

A Christian life is a disciplined life and we do hate discipline, but I urge you to try it. We do need encouragement along this line and I commend to you the experience of attending a retreat. The purpose of a retreat is not to cloister ourselves apart from the world, but rather to withdraw momentarily, to be really still, to have the opportunity for undisturbed and undistracted prayer and worship; to be renewed so that we can return to the world with a more powerful witness. The experience of a retreat can train us to use those short moments of quiet in our daily lives more effectively. The retreats we have held in Southern Pines have been enthusiastically attended and I hope that more and more people in this diocese will have the opportunity and will take the opportunity to participate.

Again I should like to use in closing some words of T. S. Eliot taken from his poem "The Rock," which I recommend to you for reading, for it speaks so strongly of our church in this century.

"Why should men love the Church? Why should they love her laws?
She tells them of Life and Death, and of all that they would forget.
She is tender where they would be hard, and hard where they like to be soft.
She tells them of Evil and Sin, and other unpleasant facts.
They constantly try to escape
From darkness outside and within
By dreaming of systems so perfect that no one will need to be good.
But the man that is will shadow
The man that pretends to be.
And the Son of Man was not crucified once for all,
The blood of the martyrs not shed once for all,
The lives of the Saints not given once for all:
But the Son of Man is crucified always
And there shall be Martyrs and Saints."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Annual Meeting 1965

When we speak of Christian Education as it specifically applies to us as Episcopal Churchwomen, I believe we usually are referring to our program of study. Then let us think of this area of study as the opportunity which will enable us better to perform our two real functions—to worship and to serve.

I should like to report on what your executive board has done this year to try to help you plan your year's program of study, worship, and action. Our all-out effort has been our Spring Planning Days. We have held them in four areas of the diocese, and have one yet to go. We have invited four officers from each branch to take part in workshops led by their corresponding diocesan officer—president, devotional life, Christian social relations, and Christian education. These officers, together with the Rev. Charles Greene, diocesan program director, have endeavored to help you begin to plan a coordinated program, equally balanced in study, worship, and action.

The response to our effort has been wonderful and exciting. We only hope that when you get back home and really begin to plan next year's program, your initial response will still hold. And we trust that when you begin to put this into actual practice, you will let us know where our planning was weak so that next year we may plan more effectively.

Let me close my report by stealing Bishop Baker's favorite theme to point up what we were really trying to help you do—"to create a climate in which we may experience the love of God."

Secretary Christian Education

Annual Meeting 1965

Some of you may have seen the cartoon in the Episcopalian in which Peanuts says to his friend, "I'm a child of God, Who are you?" There we see ourselves in varying degrees, having heard only half the Word, spoken in Christ, maybe not even having heard the Word at all, for surely to know oneself as a child of God, "in Spirit and in Truth", is to know all others as His children and one's brothers. Further, "God so loved the world that He sent His son." Now we are the Body of Christ, the human expression of Him through whom "the Captives shall be freed, the blind receive their sight, and the crippled leap for joy, a sacrifice for the healing of the nations!" Are you saying, as I do—Who? Me? Yes, for better or for worse, Christians are commissioned to manifest the Love of God in this our Day.

For the coming year it is my hope:

First, that we might increase in holy imagination in how to love our neighbors. We feed and clothe and visit and "it is mete and right so to do." But do we love enough to find out how they shall feed and clothe themselves and care for their sickness in their tomorrows; and for what they really thirst and how their spirits are imprisoned? For the essence of love is not deed but creative relationship, that the one loved might become that for which he has the potential as a child of God. It's going to take a bit of de-imaging to turn us into members of the Body of Christ in which there are no "we and they," only we.

Secondly, that we might add to our very important work as "Band-Aid Girls", a concern which extends our love to seeking ways to make the conditions under which men live more "health-giving." We have to love a great deal to get into this kind of social action, for it means informed minds as well as prayerful hearts. Some may and ought to associate themselves with power groups; all can contribute to a climate of opinion in which creative change can take place.

The War on Poverty is the emphasis in the United Study of the Church Women and the National Council of Churches for the next two years. Commenting on this the National Board of the Council says, "Since modern technology has brought within man's possibilities the elimination of poverty, we are morally responsible to work toward this end", this through such things as our pre-school enrichment programs, tutoring, literacy classes, job training, and housing.

Money has been appropriated and programs have been started for the War on Poverty, and since the effectiveness of the program will be determined largely by how it is utilized in the local community, we should use the program as creatively as possible.

As to race relations, there is only one host at the Lord's Table and it is scarcely the prerogative of guests "unworthy even to pick up the crumbs" to determine who the other guests shall be. In a sense we are all guests of one Host in life, living by His grace; so dignity and freedom and true personhood are not gifts which some of us bestow on others, but a legacy from the "Father".

Secretary Christian Social Relation

MISSIONS

Annual Meeting 1965

The objectives of this department have been to encourage active participation of our branches and churchwomen in the mission of the church as a whole, and to inform and guide them in their support of this phase of our Church's life. Last year we stressed personalizing the missionaries and getting acquainted with them. Lately and in the year to come we want to see how information can and should lead to action. We have heard much about Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence. We find that it is a matter of Overseas relationships, but also that it should begin at home, right where we are. Our whole life must be affected by consideration for others, and we need to work together in mutual involvement, for the good of the whole Church everywhere.

Our Mission theme for the coming year is:—"Mission: The Christian Calling". It is intended to help all Christians to see themselves personally called to ministry and service, as individuals and as members of groups. The resources for study will be listed in the Christian Education section of reading materials.

For news of our missionaries, a new missionary, Miss Teresa Barling, from Christ Church, Raleigh, has gone to Fort Yukon, Alaska. She is learning a difficult Indian language that she may be able to use it for greater understanding between the people and the authorities of the Church. (Because the year book will not be out until after her birthday, I will add here that her birthday is May 31st, and I hope she will receive many cards and letters.)

Bishop Harris, formerly Bishop of Liberia, now retired and living in New York City, had major surgery last December, but has made a good recovery. He is helping at the Foundation for Episcopal Colleges, in New York, and is also taking limited preaching and speaking engagements.

Miss Almeria Gordon is at home at 101 Fraker Place, Spray, after having left Singapore on account of her health. She is much better and has started giving talks and showing slides of her work in Singapore.

We have at the Penick Home a dear and energetic lady, Mrs. Ethel Tyng, a former missionary to China. She and her husband were in China over 35 years. She has published a book of her many interesting experiences there.

We have been saddened this year to hear of the death of two of our retired missionaries, Mrs. Leopold Kroll, who had been in Liberia for many years, and Mrs. Annie Cheshire Tucker, who with her husband spent 40 years in China. Both had outstanding records of devoted service and of helping others.

From this Diocese our Churchwomen have done much to help throughout the world—St. Luke's, Salisbury, is sending $1200, half of their bazaar money, to Liberia as a memorial to Mary McKenzie Kroll; $600 has been sent from the Sandhills Convocation to complete the building of a church in India, 40 miles south of Madras; Northeast Convocation has sent money to Taiwan to help the fishermen buy their much-needed boats (called "Holy Light" boats); and part of our surplus from the diocesan budget for "outside the diocese" is to go to St. Paul's Clinic at Kaohsiung, Taiwan, a clinic started by the Rev. Patric Hutton. Boxes of food and hospital supplies have gone to Miss Rachel Wolff in Nepal, the Epiphany offering and boxes to Miss Jocelyn Gordon in India. The Churchwomen have helped greatly toward building the Student Center at the University of Panama in our Companion Diocese. The CPC is getting books for their Library. Nearer home, the libraries at the Penick Home and at Elon College Campus Center have been furnished and decorated by groups of our women. There was a heart-warming response to the needs of the Missionary District of Alaska in their program of rebuilding after the great earthquake of Good Friday, 1964.

In Haiti a small museum for the children has been started as a memorial tribute to Mr. Allan Surratt. While Mrs. Surratt was Mission Secretary for this diocese, she and her husband visited Haiti and were particularly interested in this school.

In all of these projects I am sure there has been a warm feeling of sharing with friends something that could be of use to them. The letters we receive from our wonderful missionaries bring us joy and an intimate understanding of the good that is being done by the Church in those areas, and we look forward to receiving more letters and learning what we can do for them and for the areas they serve.

I want to thank the Convocation and Branch Mission Secretaries for their interest and cooperation this past year, and especially for sending in such full reports early enough for me to study them before Annual Meeting.

In the coming year may we "have the vision that inspires" and "together serve Christ in His mission to the world and together witness to His love on every continent and island".

MRS. NORRIS L. HODGKINS
Secretary of Missions

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Annual Meeting 1965

One of the highlights of my term of office was the opportunity to place the certificate for $85,764.80 on the Golden Alms Basin during the service of Holy Communion at Triennial. This represented the total amount of the United Thank Offering from the Churchwomen of North Carolina during the Triennium 1961-1964. The total Ingathering of Episcopal Churchwomen all over the world amounted to $4,790,921.51, an increase of over $450,000 from the previous Triennium.

For the current Triennium, the Student Center in Panama will receive $15,000 from the United Thank Offering. A $20,000 grant was made in February to St. Augustine's, Raleigh, for equipment in the new addition to Penick Hall of Science. We in North Carolina are grateful to Churchwomen everywhere for their "offerings of thankfulness".

In 1964, the total offering of Churchwomen of this Diocese, from 104 Branches, amounted to $27,048.01. The Fall Ingathering was $14,007.88, an all-time high.

The General Division of Women's Work was notified that General Convention had recommended to Executive Council that free promotion materials for all general church offerings be financed from proceeds of the offerings. A resolution was then adopted "that up to 1% of the total 1961-1964 United Thank Offering be reserved for use during the Triennium 1964-1967 for publication of free United Thank Offering materials". There have been many requests for more promotional material, and this resolution will make this possible. The United Thank Offering Treasurers can depend on continued help to interpret the United Thank Offering to the women of the Church.

The set of slides, "From Grateful Hearts", which shows our Church at work in South and Central America, and the Alms Basin may be obtained from the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer for use in the Branches.

I hope that the Churchwomen will continue to have more individual participation in the United Thank Offering as one of their goals. In this way will each of us find its true meaning—an offering of thanksgiving to God for "special blessings at special times".

In closing, I should like to thank each Branch and Convocation United Thank Offering Treasurer for her help during the past three years. I am grateful for the opportunity and privilege of having served in this office.

MRS. W. A. GOODSON, JR.
United Thank Offering Treasurer

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

Annual Meeting 1965

The church is the body of Christ which is composed of people whether they be the church in the city, the country or the campus. The church is where ever people are. We who are the church must constantly live a life of Christian Witness. The most effective way to do College Work is to run a good parish. Dr. John Coburn, in his pamphlet, "Priests in a Pagan Community", states "It is the home parish where the boy has been identified religiously with his family. His religious roots are in his home and in his church, and his really crucial years, religiously speaking, are in the years before he ever comes to college."

Dr. Coburn continues to say when a child goes to college, there are two things, and only two, his family can now do; first, to continue to be a Christian Witness and second, to pray for the child in his new role of "breaking family ties."

Many students are mixed up before they arrive on campus. A chaplain wrote, "On campus it becomes very clear very soon that the churches have pretty well failed either in giving adequate Christian Education or in bringing the students any understanding of the relevancy of worship; this task then falls to us."

In the old days of College Work, the church followed its young people to the campus and provided them with a bit of the traditional religious environment they had known at home. The church sought to provide a spiritual and social "home away from home" trying to hold, and even protect, the young people it already had. This view of campus ministry is too narrow and too limited.

It is impossible to isolate or immunize young people against the world they meet on campus and we now understand this to be un-christian as well.

One of the products of the war is insecurity. When old values, customs, and traditions begin to give way, young people have nothing on which to base their actions and thus feel insecure. They rebel against the intangible and indefinable—unable to explain their actions to themselves or to others. Many are overwhelmed by the realization that at the push of a button, they and everything that has ever meant anything to them, can be destroyed.

COLLEGE WORK is MISSION—it must be done with Missionary fervor and understanding of Christian Education and love for young people. We must be concerned, sensitive to their needs, and try to understand and accept them where they are. The church must learn the language and the complexity of problems within the University in order to speak to it effectively.

Our chaplains have a keen sense of purpose and are fulfilling their role as Priests by providing the Word and the Sacraments; but they are greatly handicapped in other phases of their Program by a serious lack of funds, and in some cases, local cooperation.

Through the renewed interest of many of the women of our Diocese, funds have been given to several chaplains for their discretionary use. Altar linens, hangings, vestments and other items have been contributed. Some branches now have College Work in their budgets; one convocation reports starting a fund for Program.

More branches than ever are using Cards or Letters of Commendation. Several branches report programs presented to the E Y C groups on Church Vocations. Christian Ministries literature and displays are being used more and more in the parishes. Most churches participated in the Ember Day Corporate Service or contributed to the Scholarship Fund. After much consideration, your Diocesan Board decided to eliminate the annual Ember Day Corporate Service because of many conflicting dates, and they have placed this important item in the Budget. Please continue to contribute to this Scholarship Fund. More chaplains are desperately needed to minister to the ever increasing Campus Communities. Funds are urgently needed for PROGRAM. Every christian, lay or ordained, has a responsibility in the Mission of College Work.

In the past year, one branch assisted in locating and furnishing a building to be used as a student center. This center has a chapel, a chaplain's office, and a lounge for Episcopal students, their friends, and faculty. I would like to quote from a letter written by a professor at Elon College . . .

.. "This Campus Center is a wonderful testimonial of your concern. It has become a vital part of the campus community. For the Episcopal students it offers a place for communion and a counselor for personal guidance . . . A year ago the College had no place where students could meet comfortably with each other or with faculty members. I can attest, from my own experience, that the better part of my education came over a cup of coffee with faculty and student friends rather than in the classroom. The Campus Center filled perhaps the most pressing physical need that the college had . . . The Center is more than a mere physical faculty. It has a spirit about it which is not altogether easy to define but nevertheless is very real. The ladies of the Parish, who have been so kind to serve, are very much a part of that spirit. The students think of them as a very real part of the campus community, and rightfully so. But for all of us, it serves as a symbol that someone in the community, and in the church, is genuinely concerned . . ."

Our nation's future depends on our Youth today—our Youth who are seeking an education, an identity, and a real purpose to their lives. It's up to us as individuals and as the church to help them achieve these goals.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

Annual Meeting 1965

This has been a rather quiet year for Altar Work and Service of Exchange but much has been accomplished throughout the Diocese. Reports from the various Guilds show that they are living up to the purpose of Altar work which is to disseminate information and advice concerning:

- a. organization of Junior Guilds
- b. education and devotion
- c. instruction in making and caring for linens.

Your Chairman has served on a Special Committee on the Chapel for the Penick Memorial Home, with the Rev. O'Kelly Whitaker as Chairman. This Chapel has been in use for several months and I am happy to report that with your cooperation all the linens plus the Missal and Candlelighter were furnished by this department.

Each Diocese in the Province was asked to supply two workers to make the needlepoint for the Chapel at Sewanee, 21 Bishops chairs and three cushions for the Altar rail. Mrs. M. E. Motsinger, Roaring Gap, and Mrs. Claude Hart, Elkin, are doing the work for our Diocese.

The opportunities for Altar Work are ever increasing. May God guide us in the way we should go.

Faithfully yours,

MRS. ROY GRINNELL

Chairman of Altar Work & Service of Exchange

HUMAN RELATIONS

Annual Meeting 1965

According to By-Law 11B of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, the president appoints a chairman of a Human Relations Committee, who is to assist the Secretary of Christian Social Relations. Before last year this committee was called Interracial Committee. Before we had an Interracial Committee, we had just an Interracial Chairman.

During Mrs. Henry Bourne's term of office, Miss Constance Young was employed as a field worker for the promotion of the work among the Negro branches. She has been listed as a retired missionary since 1954. In 1905 Bishop Cheshire organized the Woman's Auxiliary Branches for Negroes in the Diocese, in a separate convocation, reporting to him.

During Mrs. Bickett's Term as president 1920-1924, the Diocese was divided into the present eight geographical districts. An Interracial Committee was appointed to strengthen interracial relationships and to encourage the work in the Negro branches. In 1935 the Negro branches of the Diocese were listed in the year book as a Ninth District.

The Negro District was eliminated in 1954 and all Negro branches became integrated into the geographical districts in which they were located. With the removal of the 6th delegate in 1963, the Negro Churchwoman became a full member of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. The information just stated about the Negro Churchwoman was taken from the history which was written by Mrs. Henry Bourne on the occasion of the 75th Annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Noting the relationship of the Negro churchwomen to the churchwomen as a whole, it is easy to believe that the Negro women felt like foreign mission subjects. They were people who had things done for, to and about them—never with them. They did not enjoy the christian fellowship and a chance to participate in and learn first hand about the main body of the church.

It has taken 60 years to eliminate the system of special committees for Negro problems. Having a Human Relations Committee now to handle the relations between the races seems to reactivate the old system.

I therefore wish to ask this board to consider abolishing the Human Relations Committee.

The program for Christian Social Relations as outlined in our handbook makes any program for a Human Relations Committee superfluous. For documentation of this statement, please read the report of C. S. R. and Interracial Committees given at the 1964 annual meeting in Greensboro.

The Negro has used every legal means open to him for three hundred (300) years to try to become a first-class citizen in this great Democracy of ours. We can fight for civil rights but we must wait for christian rights to be freely given to us. Only the white man himself can take such action as is necessary to know the Negro and to learn to live with him in Christian Fellowship. "God knows no partiality, but in every nation any one who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him". Acts 10:34, 35.

Furthermore, the existence of a Human Relations Committee gives the C. S. R. Committee a reason for not creating social action programs with regards to racial problems.

The Negro is no longer "The Invisible Man". You will see him in your hotels, eating places, public recreational facilities, and jobs. Will you see him in your hearts, and in your churches?

MRS. HUGH THOMPSON
Chairman, Human Relations

SUPPLY

Annual Meeting 1965

The program for Supply Work is changing. In some areas need for material goods is diminishing and the need for gifts of money to missions is increasing. Also rising shipping costs mean that money is increasingly being sent instead of goods. We get our assignment from the General Division of Women's Work and pay it from the Diocesan budget. The cash assignments this year consisted of:

Supply Secretary's Gift Fund (Cash).....	$ 35
Interchurch Medical Assistance.....	$ 25
All Saints Episcopal Mission, Virgin Islands.....	$200

The sewing assignment from the Nation office for this year was small and was sent to branches in the Convocations of Raleigh, Northwest, and Sandhills. Next year it will go to the other Convocations. The garments made were sent to the San Juan Mission, New Mexico.

Good used clothing was sent to the Tuttle Community Center; N. C. State Hospital, Raleigh; the Salvation Army and Rescue Mission; Thompson Orphanage; or distributed to fill local needs in hospitals and institutions or as other local needs arose. One branch made 60 pairs of new curtains and sent new rugs, bed-linens, etc. to the Thompson Orphanage. Over 100 knit bandages for lepers were sent from one branch to Liberia. One branch had as a speaker the Attendance Counselor for 25 schools of Guilford County. She stressed the great need for good clothing, as a number of children were staying at home from school because of inadequate clothing and shoes. The response to her talk was tremendous, and over 1,000 pieces of clothing were collected.

The movie "Hunger" (from Church World Service) was shown at some branch meetings, dramatizing human needs.

One of the great values of Supply work is the opportunity it provides for a channel of communication between the parish and the mission field and for a mutual sharing in the life of Christ. Through Supply work the women of the Episcopal Church can share their gifts, offer their prayers, show their friendship; and by so doing can not only ease some of the world's pain, but also contribute to the growth of our awareness of our brotherhood in Christ.

MRS. MAX SCHIEBEL
Secretary of Supply

LEGISLATION

Annual Meeting 1965

In this land of ours church and state are separate, but we are members of both; therefore the influence of each should be felt on the other. As God has blessed us with this great nation, we should study, pray, and act so as to "prove ourselves mindful of His favor, glad to do His will and so show forth His praise among the nations of the earth."

Christian Social Relations Branch Chairmen should have at least one program during the year for the Churchwomen on some phase of legislation. It may be about how the Churchwomen can make their Christian influence felt in legislation, or it may be on some specific legislation that interests the women. It may be about what the people should expect of their representatives in government so as to aid them in choosing such men.

The Chairman of Christian Social Relations is responsible for bringing to the attention of the Churchwomen the fact that the Church speaks through legislation by the way we elect our representatives, whom we elect, and how we support them once they are in office. If we are to have a Christian nation, the Christian must be active.

MRS. WILLIE J. LONG, JR.
Legislative Chairman

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Annual Meeting 1965

My term as Director of the Church Periodical Club ends with the 1965 Annual Meeting. It seems appropriate to give a factual report of the CPC work accomplished by the Churchwomen of the diocese during these three years.

The gifts to the CPC's National Books Fund amounted to $892 in 1962; $1016 in 1963; $927 in 1964—a total of $2,835, with an average of $945 per year. Perhaps these figures reveal a new interest in the CPC when compared to the $500 average of prior years.

Or are they indicative of an awakened sense of mission prevalent in our diocese?

Since 1962, with our companion relationship with Panama, the Church Periodical Club has been in the midst of this diocesan program of mission. All CPC gifts have been earmarked for Panama; first, to provide books for Christ Church Academy in Colon; now to stock the shelves of the library in the new student Center in Panama City. The Books Fund for this library is now $2200. We will continue to support the project through 1965.

There is evidence, also, of more local interest in the Church Periodical Club; viz, (1) more branches have a CPC Secretary, (2) more requests come for CPC information, and (3) more local projects are supported by individual branches.

Much has been accomplished by the Churchwomen, but the possibilities for growth of the CPC in our diocese are unlimited. For wherever the Church is at work the Church Periodical Club sends reading material, all without charge. It is the only organization of the Episcopal Church devoted solely to "The Ministry of the Printed Word". Requests for books come to the CPC from every continent in the world and are filled as far as your gifts permit.

There is an urgency today that we communicate with the younger churches and peoples now emerging into nationhood. There is an emergency of the need for Christian literature. People of every continent are asking questions about the Christian faith. Through books secular society can be portrayed and the Church can speak.

We can pursue our full potential as "The Ministry of the Printed Word" by continuing to work together through the Church Periodical Club. Today it is with Panama. Tomorrow we should seek new CPC commitments with other companions in the Anglican Communion.

Director, Church Periodical Club

DIOCESAN COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVE

Annual Meeting 1965

I have been one of your representatives on the Diocesan Council for the past three years and attending these meetings has been a revealing experience. The tasks of our bishops are tremendous and varied. In addition to the primary ecclesiastical duties to parishes and individuals, our Bishops possess the business ability to manage over a half-million dollar budget; the knowledge to serve as chairman of the boards of our schools, social service institutions, camps and conferences; the crafts of the best of our politicians; and the fortitude and time for constant travel. I am also impressed with the time and talent given to the Diocesan program by our rectors as well as by many of the busiest and most outstanding lay men and women of our state.

The Diocesan Council has evidently been aware of our theme for this meeting, "Create and Make New." As a result of the work of a Committee on Structure and Organization, a Long Range Planning Committee was formed to evaluate the objectives of the Diocese. After careful examinations of each department and an intensive study by the Department of Institutions using the professional talents of our lay people, the Council adopted the principle of supporting existing programs before it expands these or undertakes new programs. Using this principle, the Long Range Planning objectives for '66 are divided in two classes with the following priorities: For better support of existing program, (1) The World Wide Mission of the Church to be directed through the M R I Program; (2) Secretarial assistance and discretionary fund for the Hospital Chaplain in the Durham-Orange area; (3) Program fund for college workers at 33 colleges; (4) Support for the Vade Mecum program; (5) Increased support for St. Augustine College.

The first priority for the Class of New and Expanded Program is the expansion of the Mission Program, and the second priority is support for a full-time College Chaplain in Greensboro.

Recognizing the challenging opportunities offered and being embarrassed by the inadequacy of the budget to meet those opportunities, we are encouraged to report that in spite of the growth of the diocesan budget, both the Episcopal Maintenance Fund and the Church's Program Fund ended the year with credit balances.

Ground-breaking services were conducted in January for the new Diocesan Headquarters House located on the Raleigh beltline. With a Chapel as the center, the building will provide offices for the dioceses' bishops and staff, meeting rooms, a kitchen, and a greatly needed vault for archives. The project will be paid for over a period of years out of the maintenance budget. This fund is expected to be supplemented by gifts and memorials.

On April 20th the Diocesan Council approved another three-year relationship with Panama as our Companion Diocese. It is felt that we have begun to communicate and that under the direction of the Overseas Missions Department we will achieve a parish-to-parish relationship and glimpse the concept of Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ.

I cannot fail to call to your attention the progress made in our Diocesan Program by the additions to the staff of Mr. George Bason as Business Manager, the Rev. Charles Greene as Director of Program, and Mr. Ben Park as Executive Secretary of the Department of Promotion and Communication. Read your North Carolina Churchman to learn the organization of the Department within the Council, noting the inclusion of our Churchwomen.

Our fervent prayer is that God will in some way use this planning of the Diocesan Council to create and make in us new and contrite hearts dedicated to His Mission.

MRS. JOHN B. CRUDUP
Diocesan Council Representative

KANUGA

Annual Meeting 1965

This past year has been one in which the Kanuga Board has responded with positive action to the needs of its total life under the judgment of its ultimate purpose. To explain the above statement I should like to report the work of a Special Committee of the Kanuga Board. The Committee brought to the Board meeting in March 1964 a detailed analysis of purpose, program, administrative problems, physical needs, and suggestions for action. From this report came the conclusion that Kanuga has as yet only scratched the surface of its potential effectiveness. Its ultimate purpose was clearly defined as follows; "its total operation exists for the spread of the gospel."

One urgent need to implement the recommendations of the Special Committee as adopted by the Board was the securing of an Executive Director. The Executive Director's main concern is the development of program. The present Director, Mr. Edgar Hartley, Jr. is to remain as Assistant Director. His primary concern will be business management and property development. Mr. Hartley announced to us at the Annual Meeting that the Rev. John C. Grainger had accepted as Executive Director. Mr. Grainger and his family have many roots in the Carolinas. They are enthusiastic about the future of Kanuga, and we feel most grateful that a man of Mr. Grainger's qualifications is to be our Director.

During the July meeting of the Board at Kanuga we considered in greater depth the program potential. After considering program first the Board then made a tour of the property in order to see immediate needs and to relate a major building effort to the enlarged program plans.

As a result of the 1964 summer and fall meetings of the Board a building program has been initiated with a completed survey on Kanuga's money raising potential. As Mr. Hartley stated in his message to the Annual Meeting, steps are being taken now to find the money necessary to support the plan for "creating and making new" the life of Kanuga.

The Bishops of the five owning Dioceses have written a joint letter published in an excellent brochure about Kanuga which best expresses any recommendation I might make to the women of our Diocese. "The camps and conferences at Kanuga are an extension of the Christian Education program of our Dioceses. They play a vital role in the life of the Church, providing opportunities for an experience in Christian community, for understanding of the relevancy of the Gospel and the true mission of the Church. They provide for the laity excellent opportunities for leadership training under some of the outstanding leaders in our church.

Kanuga has made, and is making, a very significant contribution to the life of the Church throughout this Province and especially here in the Carolinas. We are firmly convinced that Kanuga can and will be an even greater influence as the program is expanded to meet the demands of our growing Church.

We are pleased with the substantial progress that has been made in recent years toward the improvement of the Kanuga property. We are fully aware, however, of the limitations imposed by the condition of certain buildings and we are most anxious that all necessary steps be taken to remove these obstacles to further development of the Kanuga program.

It is the sincere desire of each one of us that all of you will share with us a thoughtful concern for the future of Kanuga. The work of the Church at Kanuga is of vital importance and we earnestly solicit your generous support."

MRS. W. ROY BOWEN

Representative to the Kanuga Board

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OFFICERS

Note: these are the revised instructions for 1965-66. Continue to refer to the instructions found in the 1963-64 HANDBOOK of INFORMATION for additional information.

President

The task of the President is primarily an executive one. She should be concerned with the over-all program of the branch and with seeing that the duties of each officer are carried out, as well as her own. As coordinator, she stands at the center, trying to see that all activities are in the proper proportion and relationship to each other, so that a balanced program results. She is the leader, who has the responsibility of thinking and planning ahead and then by encouragement and example helping to see that talk is translated into action. She is the Church's ambassador in the community, representing the women both officially and unofficially in many ways. Hers is a large task which requires dedication, hard work and much prayer.

Responsibilities of a Branch President

In general:

1. Prepare for leadership by private prayer and meditation and by participation in corporate worship.
2. Consult your rector frequently and also cooperate with the Bishop, Diocesan and District officers.
3. Know your own constitution thoroughly and that of the diocese. Encourage all officers to do the same.
4. Appoint such committees as necessary locally and act as an ex officio member of the same. Check the Diocesan calendar frequently so that these committees, especially Finance Committee and Nominating Committee may function in time to meet diocesan deadlines.
5. Read all communications from district and diocese and attend to them promptly.
6. Be as well informed as possible on all phases of the Church's work. Especially read the Churchman and the Episcopalian and encourage others to do so.
7. Stress the importance of coordinated planning, so that worship has some relation to study and both to giving and service.
8. See the work of the branch is evaluated once a year, either by the Executive Board or the general meeting (in a small branch). The Evaluation Aids in this book will be helpful as well as the report forms sent to the Diocesan officers.
9. Know as many members personally as possible and especially see that new members are welcomed.
10. Attend all District meetings, Annual Meeting, Vade Mecum or Kanuga if possible and encourage others to attend.
11. Encourage cooperation in community and interdenomination activities.
12. Keep necessary records and files and help your successor by passing them on and orienting her in other ways so that she may build on what has been accomplished.

To individual officers and committee chairmen:

1. Know the duties and responsibilities of each officer.
2. Fill appointive offices with great care, trying to develop new leadership.
3. Delegate responsibilities and encourage each officer to feel that her duties are important, but also try to see tactfully that duties are carried out.
4. See that each officer passes on her notebook and other information to her successor. If possible arrange special orientation or training sessions for incoming officers. This may be done at an Executive Board meeting (if there is one) or in cooperation with other nearby parishes, if not done by the District.

As Presiding officer:

1. Call and preside at Executive Board Meetings (if you have one). Have a planned agenda but allow sufficient time for all reports and for unexpected business. If you rush through meetings, important material may never come before the group.
2. Preside at all general meetings, with enough parliamentary procedure to keep meetings orderly and efficient.
3. See that important announcements from the President's letter or other sources are read or otherwise communicated to the group as a whole. Check facts and dates carefully.
4. Try to see that decisions are group decisions. Teamwork is important.
5. Express your own conviction that the service of Our Lord is a joy and a privilege. Enthusiasm is contagious and your spirit will affect others.
6. Remember always that the spirit of Christian love in an organization is more important than any specific plan or program.

Responsibilities of a Convocation Chairman

1. Adapt the general responsibilities of branch presidents to conform to you.
2. Appoint such committees as are necessary (Nominating and hospitality).
3. Have at least one Board Meeting a year—preferably before the Fall Convocation Meeting.
4. Plan, with the help of your convocation officers, the fall and spring meetings. Secure speakers, decide details, etc.
5. Preside at the Board and Convocation Meetings.
6. Support your convocation chairmen in their work.
7. Be ready to help any small branch in your convocation in their program planning for the year.
8. Carry out the wishes of the diocesan president in channeling information to your convocation.

Vice-President

Diocesan — Convocation — Branch

The duties of the Vice-President are the same as in any organization. Her key word is ASSISTANCE; her motto BE PREPARED. Her responsibilities are:

1. To preside at any meeting in the absence of the President.
2. To assist the President when called upon, by representing her at group meetings if necessary; or serving as chairman or member of a committee.
3. To offer help to the President in parish, community and diocesan activities.
4. Must be ESPECIALLY prepared to preside over a meeting on short notice, or take the chair at any time.
5. To learn the fundamentals of Parliamentary Law if she does not know them.

Note: In some parishes the Vice-President is automatically the President-elect or has some other assigned duty.

Secretary

Diocesan — Convocation — Branch

The Recording Secretary is responsible for accurate records of the group. Her minutes of the Board and Group meetings are concise records of the business transacted, including motions made, the name of the person making the motion, that it was seconded and whether carried or defeated. She should also read summaries of reports and announcements. Her responsibilities are:

1. To carry on all necessary correspondence pertaining to the group as directed by the President. (Some parish groups find it best to have both a recording and a corresponding secretary. In that case, correspondence and notices are taken care of by the Corresponding Secretary.)
2. To keep an accurate record of names and addresses of members.
3. To keep a record of the number of members present at meetings.
4. To supply Diocesan Year-Book Chairman with accurate lists of names and addresses of parish officers and chairmen, and to forward notices of changes and replacements during the year.
5. To keep copies of the Constitution and By-Laws so that she may inform the President of time to appoint special committees.
6. To keep a permanent file of minutes and documents of importance.

Treasurer

Diocesan — Convocation — Branch

Checks should be made payable and sent to the Diocesan Treasurer.

PLEDGE

Pledge Memoranda should be sent in as soon as possible after receiving same.

All pledge payments should be sent to the Diocesan Treasurer by Dec. 1st of the year for which pledge is made.

EPIPHANY OFFERING

Epiphany offering is sent by Branch Treasurer directly to Diocesan Treasurer and is disbursed by her as directed by the Annual Meeting.

SPECIALS

No Branch can be given credit, in the Treasurer's report appearing in the year book, for money expended unless checks are made payable to the Diocesan Treasurer. She CANNOT record on her books any check not made payable to her as Treasurer. The Branch Treasurer should indicate to whom and for what purpose the money is given. The Diocesan Treasurer disburses this money according to direction.

When sending in money for several items at one time, make out one check for the total amount, and mark on the face of the check, or note in an enclosure, how much you are sending for each item, accompanied by a personal note if desired.

All checks, for whatever purpose, should be mailed to reach the Diocesan Treasurer not later than Dec. 25th.

EXCEPTIONS

Convocation Dues—Branch Treasurer sends directly to Convocation Treasurer.

Missionary Christmas Gifts—Branch sends to the Convocation Chairman of Missions by Nov. 15th. Convocation Chairman of Missions sends total amount received to Diocesan Treasurer by Dec. 1st. Total of all money received from all Convocations is divided equally among all active and retired missionaries listed in the year book.

United Thank Offering—Branch Custodian sends to Convocation Custodian of U.T.O. who in turn sends it to the Diocesan Custodian of U.T.O.

Church Periodical Club—Branch sends directly to Diocesan Director of C.P.C.

Convocation Quiet Day—The Convocation Chairman of Devotional Life sends the offering to the Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life.

Convocation Meeting Offering—The Treasurer of the Convocation sends the offering to the Diocesan Treasurer together with the Convocation's designation of the same.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

To worship God is the first business of every parish and its organizations. It is not enough that we do good works, give liberally, study well, or conduct our meetings in a good business-like manner. Opening and closing these meetings with prayer, if done routinely, will not do. Prayer and worship must be integral, vital parts of them, part of their reason for being. Worship must be the central act that gives meaning to all other activities of service and fellowship. We come together to find inspiration, power, and direction to do not our work, but God's work.

The Devotional Life Secretary is responsible for much of the success of the work done by the Episcopal Churchwomen in her parish. She sets the tempo for the spiritual awareness of the group. To do this she must constantly seek to deepen her own devotional life. She must make her own specific commitments for daily periods of prayer and devotional reading. Through this discipline and regular whole-hearted participation in corporate worship in church, especially the Holy Communion, she will find inspiration, power and guidance.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Job Description

BASIC TASK—To encourage and implement adult education in your parish, particularly among Episcopal Churchwomen.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING—To let the people in your parish know what help is available and encourage them to take advantage of these opportunities. With your rector's help, to assist with training your program leaders. To be alert for opportunities to increase your own competence.

PROGRAM PLANNING—To work with your President, Devotional Life chairman, and Christian Social Relations chairman as a team to plan a balanced, coordinated program.

- 1) Identify areas of interest and needs of your group. A questionnaire may be very helpful. Guess work is an unnecessary risk.
- 2) Decide on a purpose and state it. Purpose or theme should be specific, realistic, reasonable, and capable of accomplishment.
- 3) Develop a plan to fit your purpose. Are you attempting to inform, to clarify, or to stimulate concern and action? You need to consider—
 - a) Method—Method should fit your subject. Should it be movies, speakers, discussion groups?

- b) Procedure—Outline your proposed program. How much time is necessary for preparation, presentation?
- c) Leadership—What leadership is required? Chairman, discussion leader, panel members, narrator, speaker?
- d) Preparation—What has to be done in advance? Publicity, materials, resources, rehearsals, procuring leaders?
- e) Title—Each meeting should have a good title, one which helps point to the overall purpose.
- 4) Evaluate your plans before the year starts. Evaluate your plans during the year. Evaluate your plans at the end of the year.

I. What and Why—Christian Social Relations

God so loved the world that He sent His son that men might have life—abundant life. Now we are the body of Christ! Christian Action, the incarnation (birth into human life) of our love of God, has just one aim—to manifest God's love for his children. We worship a God who not only created all things, but is creative in history—now; therefore; we seek God's "action" for our time. Evolution of concept of loving, from person to person only, to institutions, to seeking to change conditions under which men live—all are important.

II. Christian Education-Worship-Action Interrelated

ACTION RESULTS FROM TRUE WORSHIP, depends on worship in conscious seeking of God's will and guidance. If we penetrate deeply enough into either the Christian life in the world or at the altar, either will drive us to the other.

ACTION RESULTS FROM TRUE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—depends on Christian education to prepare for true (armed with truth) Christian action. We cannot bear witness to the love of God to people for whom we do not care enough to find out for what they thirst, how they are imprisoned, wherewith they shall be clothed in their tomorrows, or from whence shall come the means to cure their sickness.

C.S.R. Chairman—seeks to stimulate, draw attention and inform the whole in areas of Christian Action. Some shall contribute particularly in worship, some in education, some in action—but all one body. If the CSR Chairman falls down in her appointed task—the wholeness of that branch's program is impaired.

III. How the C.S.R. Chairman Functions

The CSR Chairman serves with the Chairman of Christian Education and others in program planning.

Large parishes have a committee composed of Chapter CSR Chairmen with Branch CSR head, other concerned persons, and short-term "specialists" in the community.

In small parishes, Chairman joins with concerned women from the parish, from other churches, and "specialists" in the community.

This concerned group should meet regularly (monthly?) as a committee to study and think about Christian action. The parish priest should always be invited to all meetings and consulted concerning any plans.

Committee action:

1. Look at own community first; where possible move from particular to general as we all are deeply moved by persons, seldom by statistics.
2. Use materials to stimulate your imagination beyond your own community. Study national emphases from CSR Department of the Episcopal Church and from the United Church Women. (CSR Bulletin is an absolute must. See publication list for this and other materials.)
3. Discipline yourselves to study that you may be well-informed, once you have decided which concerns you are going to zero in on. Use resource people in the community, also.
4. Discipline yourselves to act; decide what is possible for your group, and then do it. Don't mistake knowing something or feeling something for doing something. Compromise on unimportant details. Relate to others who have similar concern, either leading or joining with them.

5. Infiltrate—lead the women of your branch to study, that you and they may be able to:
 - a. Speak and act from informed concern in informal groups and social gatherings. (The bridge table, the golf course, at home)
 - b. "Stand Up in the decision-making areas of life and be counted." (Bishop Fraser)
6. Record—Keep information file for the next chairman.
7. Evaluate—Base future plans on values observed in past experiences.

IV. Marks of Christian Social Action

1. Sit loosely, enthusiasm is for causes, devotion for God. Leave a little crack in your armor for new light to shine in.
2. Say neither "This is the only way" nor "Those who disagree are not Christians."
3. Stick to discussion of issues, not motives or personal traits of those who disagree.
4. Be concerned about means as well as ends.
5. Love the "enemy" (those on the other side of the issues) and be concerned for them, too.
6. Refer to education and worship—Section II
7. Whenever possible, do something with people rather than for them.

V. Suggested Areas of Concern to Consider

Providing a community for mobile people without qualifications of money, position, education, etc.

Care for ageing—health, welfare, and visiting.

Homemaker Service—for aging and homes where mother must be away because of illness, or new baby, etc.

Pre-school children—Day Care Centers—Cultural enrichment programs

Anti-poverty Program—Economic Opportunity Act

Relation to National Council of Churches and United Churchwomen (See N. C. Churchman, Report on N.C.C., February, 1965)

Legislation—"Maybe the law cannot change the heart, but it can restrain the heartless; perhaps it cannot legislate morals, but it can regulate behavior." (Martin Luther King)

Alcoholism and the use of alcohol

Literacy programs—Tutoring and study hall projects—dropouts

(The work of the United Church Women, the migrants, Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, United Clothing Appeal and foreign students are others which are still very much on our list of concerns.)

VI. Materials—Order CSR Bulletin ($2.00) and list of available materials of the Department of Christian Social Relations, from Seabury Press, 815 Second Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

Information (bi-monthly)—Studies of current social issues—$3.50 per year
N.C.C.C. in U.S.A. 465 Riverside Drive, New York, New York 10027.

Memo (bi-monthly)—Very current legislative information—gives actual bill summary—$2.00 per year. N.C.C.C. in U.S.A. 110 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002. (Additional study books and other materials listed in the general bibliography.)

MISSIONS

The purpose of this department is to encourage active participation by our Churchwomen in the mission of the Church, by:

1. Praying daily, mentioning each one of our missionaries by name. Use the prayer manual "Far and Near".
2. Try to have at least one mission program a year for your Branch meeting. Give news of where the missionaries are and what they are doing. Have a map of the world, and show where they are located.
3. Write to the missionaries, especially at Christmas, Easter, and on their birthdays, giving news of the Diocese.
4. Try to see that your Branch budget is divided 50% inside the parish, and 50% outside. Try to give to Missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the money can be sent out "in force" through recommended projects that have been given first priority.
5. The missionary Christmas gift is an extra and is to be sent by November 15th to the Convocation Mission Secretary, who sends the total amount from all the Branches of her Convocation to the Diocesan Treasurer by December first. The total of all the money collected is divided equally among all the active and retired missionaries listed on the assignment sheet. Please be sure the Branch Treasurer knows she is to send the check to the Convocation Secretary of Missions and not to the Diocesan one.
6. Send all other monetary gifts for missionaries or missions, domestic or overseas, directly from the Branch to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Treasurer made payable to her with instructions as to allocation of said checks. If it is going overseas, please enclose the amount of postage needed.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The United Thank Offering is an offering of grateful Churchwomen everywhere—a three-fold gift of prayer, gifts and joyful service. It is a gift, over and above your regular contribution to your Churchwomen's group, given in thanksgiving for all God's gifts so freely bestowed—life, health, safety; all God's beauty in the world about us, strength in sorrow and the means of grace to meet each day.

At home and overseas, the offering from our Blue Boxes goes to provide medical care, to feed and clothe the needy, to teach children in Christian Schools, to build new buildings and repair old ones, to provide equipment and supplies, and greatest of all, to bring the gift of Christ and His love to the spiritually starved.

There is an old prayer which says, "We thank Thee for the gift of Thy dear Son, our Lord. Grant that we, who have received Him in our hearts, may joyfully go forth with Him on many errands." Our Blue Box, used prayerfully and often, takes us on His errands to strange and far places, where the need is great and where we can never go ourselves. You, as a United Thank Offering Treasurer, have the opportunity to spread information about this great privilege of Episcopal Churchwomen.

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer

BRANCH:

1. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U.T.O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. You may get envelopes or Blue Boxes from your Convocation U.T.O. Treasurer.
2. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.
3. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.
4. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation U.T.O. Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCATION:

1. Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U.T.O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.
2. Notify Branches of dates of Ingathering and give deadline for sending check to you.

3. Make yourself known to all Branch U.T.O. Treasurers in your Convocation and let them know you are available to help them.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation U.T.O. Treasurers with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindsey M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York 17, N. Y., for the total amount.
2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.
3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.
4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed.
5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.
6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the Offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation U.T.O. Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Diocesan Alms Basin

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Phillip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U.T.O. Custodians collected cherished momentos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

The function of Personnel should be to educate and keep before the women of the church the need and opportunities for women workers in church vocations. (Recruiting—Training—Placement). To develop scholarship funds; to help young people take part in summer work projects.

The function of College Work is to help college students and faculty continue to be the church where they are. There are many and varied suggested ways of participating in this important mission of our church—we list some.

BRANCH COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES CHAIRMAN

SHOULD:

1. Be thoroughly informed on types of professions, work, needs, qualifications, training etc. offered by the church.
2. Be responsible to have one program on this subject each year. Work with the Rector seeing if the need for women workers (and men) can be presented once a year to young people in parish and church school. When your Rector preaches on the ministry, ask him to also present church work as a vocation for women.

3. Place recruiting materials and training school pamphlets in your tract rack. Get materials in Parish Bulletin. Supply High School Advisors with literature.
4. See that your young people (H.S. and College) are informed about Summer Service Projects.
5. Start a "Talent File" listing men and women with their gifts, talents and interest etc. which may be used for volunteer work in the church or community.
6. Join with women of other churches and try to see that a Vocational Guidance Conference or workshop is planned for Jr. and Sr. H.S. students in your area.
7. PRAY—that the right persons will offer themselves for the work of the church; ask that prayers for recruits be included in church school, church, young people and womens groups.

Remember what is said of the Priesthood and Church Vocations in the home is probably ten times as telling as what we teach in the church school and from the pulpit.

SUPPLY WORK

Supply work, the oldest organized project of the women of the Church, is in a period of change—on national, diocesan and parish levels—in response to the needs of a rapidly changing world. But always it has remained true to its original purpose—to supply the kind of material goods which are a woman's concern and responsibility for her own family.

The General Division of Women's Work has for the past two years been making a complete and detailed study of Supply Work. The conclusions are summarized as follows:

There are areas where the need for Supply Work (material goods) is diminishing and the need for Specials (cash gifts to missions) is increasing. Sending of free medical supplies, as closest to the original purpose of Supply Work, continues through Interchurch Medical Assistance and supply Departments may be asked for cash assignments to cover processing charges. The proposal to combine Supply Work and the Specials (cash contributions) of the Home and Overseas Departments was not considered feasible at this time, though many dioceses combine Supply and Missions Chairmen. However, it was recommended that Supply Departments cooperate with Missions Chairmen to personalize missions and to contribute to a greater understanding of the mission field. In addition Miss Anne Kremer, National Supply Secretary, stressed that we must learn to work with the victims of suffering—and not just for them. She says: "Though Supply Work is no more than a drop in the bucket in relation to the problems of poverty, alienation, and suffering that afflict our world it can be valuable . . . in so far as all those involved in it are aware of the importance of working in a relationship . . . what we are truly dealing with are not just clothes and money but human relationships".

The Diocesan Supply Chairman will continue to accept cash assignments to missions institutions and a sewing assignment which will be distributed to such branches as wish to sew. In addition it will continue to promote the United Clothing appeal and supply branches not receiving a national Supply assignment with ready cut garments for sewing from Church World Service (New Windsor, Maryland) if they wish them. She will work closely with the Secretary of Missions in promoting understanding of the mission field and the kind of personal human relationships which are so vitally necessary.

Convocation The Convocation Supply Secretary is the link between the Parish Church and the Diocesan Secretary. It is her duty to distribute the sewing allotments and to be sure they are completed and reported to her and to the Diocesan Supply Secretary. She promotes the Episcopal church's art in the United Clothing appeal. She contacts the United Churchwomen in her district and announces places and times for the ingatherings of clothes to be sent overseas through Church World Service. (In large towns one church frequently has storage space where these garments are kept until a truck from C.W.S. picks them up.) The Convocation Supply Chairman helps the Parish Supply representative with information, programs, etc.

Parish It is the duty of the Parish Supply Secretary to:

1. Make arrangements for the Spring and Fall ingathering of good used clothing.
2. Furnish Thompson Orphanage in Charlotte, Tuttle Community Center in Raleigh and Church World Service Center, New Windsor, Maryland with good used clothing.
3. Organize the sewing program (if her church participates). Any church can order, at its own expense, direct from C.W.S.—or accept the Diocesan Secretary's choice.
4. See that the articles sewed are pressed, packed and shipped.
5. Send reports concerning Supply work to both the Convocation and Diocesan Supply Secretaries as well as her Parish president.

6. To present a program on Supply work to her Episcopal Churchwomen's group if asked to do so.
7. Try to enter into a friendly relationship with the recipient of these gifts to learn something of the mission or institution receiving them.

This may lead to an investigation of The Church's work in some particular area. Supply work is not to be considered a thing apart from Missionary work but as one of the ways we help support it.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The PURPOSE of the Church Periodical Club is to provide reading material for those who could not otherwise obtain it. It is the only organization of the Episcopal Church devoted solely to the ministry of the printed word.

Wherever the church is at work, in your community, in this country and overseas, the CPC sends reading material, all without charge. The money to carry on this ministry comes from gifts to the CPC National Books Fund. Requests for books come to the CPC from every continent in the world, and are filled as far as your gifts will permit.

The printed word is one of the most powerful weapons the Christian may use. It has been said, "If we did not have a Church Periodical Club, we would surely have to create one".

In our diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of the CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches and the convocations.

Suggested Procedure for CPC Secretaries

(1) To Promote the CPC in the Branch:

Obtain the records from your predecessor in office.

Learn the purpose of the CPC. Study the CPC Handbook.

Keep a supply of CPC literature on hand. Distribute it at every chance.

Help to keep your parish library and tract rack adequately supplied.

Plan a CPC program each year. Make it simple but inclusive of all phases of the work.

Solicit your Rector's help for the CPC.

Find people and places in your community to distribute appropriate reading material to: viz.; mission churches nearby, school libraries, low income families, mental hospitals, nursing homes, jails, etc.

Keep a record of the work you do, and the money you send to the National Books Fund. This will help when you fill out your Annual Report blank.

VERY IMPORTANT: Send all checks to the Diocesan Director. (NOT to the diocesan treasurer). The Director is required to keep books on each Branch.

(2) To Promote Gifts to the National Book Fund:

Try to get the CPC in your Branch Budget each year.

Memorial Gifts. Present the idea of sending a personal check to the Books Fund as a memorial. Send check to Director, so your branch will get credit, and Director can write and acknowledgement to the family.

Coin Card. This little dime folder produces amazing results. Take some coin cards to meetings, and point out how dimes can BUY A BOOK.

Sell Magazine Subscriptions. Profit to go to the Books Fund.

Bazaars. Remember the Books Fund when the time comes to decide the disposition of your bazaar money.

Share your ideas. New ways are forever being found by individuals and groups with imagination. Write the Director about your projects to earn money for the Books Fund. Other branches will be glad to learn about them.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for his sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.
Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighty-fourth Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH
SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA
APRIL 19, 20, 1966

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1966

Bishop Fraser, Reverend Clergy, Delegates, and Guests:

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the Eighty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. This is indeed a memorable occasion in that we are meeting here at St. Luke's Church for the first time in twenty-six years. Also, because this is our first meeting since Bishop Fraser's installation as the eighth Bishop of the Diocese. So to our host parish and rector, I express grateful appreciation for inviting us here; and to Bishop Fraser, I reiterate the sentiment of the resolution adopted at our last Annual Meeting, pledging him our wholehearted support, loyalty, and cooperation.

As we begin this meeting, perhaps it is well to be reminded that basically the purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen is no different from the purpose of the Church. Ours is simply an enabling organization within the Church, providing further opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service.

As the scope of national, diocesan, and parish programs becomes broadened and more and more women are integrated into the total life of the Church, overlapping and duplication of work become increasingly evident. Hence we are reading and hearing about many interesting experiments going on within the organization. Some are combining the activities of the men and women, others have dissolved altogether.

Who knows but that our organization is destined to disappear? Certainly we must be mindful of the changes taking place and keep a critical eye on our organization lest its purpose and program become irrelevant to the true purpose for which it exists. To this end, your Executive Board has begun a critical examination and evaluation of our organizational structure and our participation in the life of the Church. We need your suggestions and criticisms.

Rather than give you a lot of figures which you will hear later, I am going to give you just three round-number summary figures. According to the 1965 records, 100 branches with a membership of 6200 members contributed through pledges, special project funds, specials, United Thank Offering, and Church Periodical Fund a grand total of $78,500. This figure is exclusive of the sums spent within the parishes for which we have no record. My reason for giving you this figure is to introduce the theme for this Annual Meeting — "Far and Near".

Some years ago when I was your Diocesan Treasurer, I received a thank-you note from one of our affiliated missionaries, thanking the Churchwomen for a Christmas gift check. She said, "You all through your gift will perhaps touch many whom you will never know personally."

Budgets and figures then became alive for me. Consequently, this gift of $78,500 comes alive. It represents you, the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, ministering to others through many channels. On one hand, there are 6200 dedicated churchwomen going that extra-mile to minister to people either directly or indirectly. On the other hand, there are innumerable people whose lives are being touched in one way or another through ministries supported in part by this gift.

Needless to say, this gift of $78,500 by no means denotes the total ministry of the churchwomen. You have been engaged in countless services and deeds of kindness which quite properly belong in this category. My only intent is to point out that our ministry, whatever it may be, is to people.

During this day and a half together let us think about people. "Far and Near" — People in the diocese, the province, the nation, and the world. Let us give thanks for the privilege of ministering even in small ways to many people. Lest we become proud, boastful, or complacent, let us examine our response to our opportunities in the light of God's gifts to us. Then let us pray more fervently, labor more diligently, and give more liberally of our time, our talents, and our tithes that our response to the demands God is placing upon us may become more acceptable to Him.

"Far and Near" — People — People — People.
Thanksgiving — Response — Challenge.

MRS. W. H. R. JACKSON
President

Mrs. Francis O. Clarkson, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, called on Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins who read the following tribute to the late Right Reverend Bravid Washington Harris:

IN MEMORIAM
BRAVID WASHINGTON HARRIS

We pause to pay a richly deserved tribute to the memory of one of our outstanding missionary bishops, The Right Reverend Bravid Washington Harris, who for nineteen years was Bishop of Liberia. He had a fatal heart attack while driving his car in Virginia, on October 21, 1965. Bishop Harris had a career of vigor and forcefulness, was a dynamic leader and speaker, and held the respect and admiration of all who knew him. I regret not having known him personally, but enjoyed our contacts through letters.

Bishop Harris was born in Warrenton, N. C., was educated at Saint Augustine's College and the Bishop Payne Divinity School. For twenty years he was rector of Grace Church, Norfolk, Virginia, and then for two years was in charge of Negro work in the Home Department of the National Council of the Episcopal Church. After being elected Bishop of Liberia, his primary task became the enlistment and training of an African leadership for the Church and State. He revived Cuttington College in Liberia. Today it is recognized as the best institution of higher learning in West Africa and has the only graduate divinity school in West Africa.

Bishop Harris' funeral service was held at the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter and Saint Paul in Washington, D. C. Present at the service and later at the interment at Arlington Cemetery was a delegation from Liberia.

In an unprecedented tribute to Bishop Harris, the President of Liberia ordered all schools, businesses and offices throughout the country of Liberia closed, and the Republic's flag flown at half-mast on the day of the funeral. He also ordered all Churches in the country to toll their bells for 24 hours.

Madame President, in its Annual Meeting of 1966 the Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina would pay tribute to this devoted and valued leader of the Church.

Mrs. Clarkson then presented the following resolution memorializing Miss Emma Joy Hall:

IN MEMORIAM
EMMA JOY HALL

Born: July 27, 1867, London, England

Died: May 28, 1965, Charlotte, North Carolina

Faithful communicant of Saint Peter's Episcopal Church, Charlotte

In the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen, a leader in her parish branch, a past president of the Diocese of North Carolina and for six years a member of the National Executive Board, representing the Daughters of the King.

In her community, Treasurer of the Good Samaritan Hospital for many years and on its Board of Managers, as well as on the Board of Memorial Hospital since its founding.

A friend to many, but especially to those serving the Church in distant places, whom she remembered in constant prayers and in frequent correspondence.

Thanks be to God for this choice vessel of His grace. May she go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His Heavenly Kingdom.

The Annual Meeting sanctioned these resolutions unanimously by rising and standing in silent tribute to these great souls. Copies will be sent to the respective families.

The President announced that the Provincial Synod will meet, June 7-9, Sewanee, Tennessee. The following officers are Deputies, ex officio, by virtue of office: The President, Mrs. Sterling A. Stoudemire, Mrs. Eugene S. Knight, Mrs. Gilbert Ross, Mrs. John Clayton Smith, and Mrs. Lewis B. Scruggs. Alternates will be appointed for any Deputy who may not be able to attend.

The President announced the following conference dates: Vade Mecum, June 13-17; Sewanee Summer Training School, June 9-12; and Kanuga Adult Conference, July 2-15. She introduced Mrs. Leland G. Swart of St. Andrew's Church, Greensboro, who presented plans for the Vade Mecum Conference, which will be led by The Right Reverend C. Gresham Marmion, Bishop of Kentucky.

The President stated that an article entitled the "Flying Blue Box Soon To Be No More," appearing in the March issue of The Alaskan Churchman, had aroused some question among the Churchwomen relative to the United Thank Offering grants. She asked Mrs. W. J. Gordon, mother of the Bishop of Alaska, to speak to the issue first. Mrs. Gordon responded by explaining that the Bishop wanted a token gift toward the purchase of a new plane in order that the association with the United Thank Offering and the name "Blue Box" might be continued. His request was denied. Mrs. Ernest E. Rucker, Associate Secretary, United Thank Offering, General Division of Women's Work, who was attending the Annual Meeting, explained that the United Thank Offering Committee had $400,000 to allocate with requests for over $5,000,000. Other requests took precedence over the "Blue Box." Furthermore, the Committee does not make token grants and there is a good possibility that funds for the plane might be available through the Overseas Department. Mrs. James L. Godfrey, Mrs. U. T. Holmes, Jr., Mrs. Francis O. Clarkson, Mrs. John D. Elliot, and Mrs. John Clayton Smith spoke to the issue; after which Mrs. Charles H. Kahn presented and moved for adoption the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That we express our love and thankfulness to Bishop Gordon for all that he has done and will continue to do and express our wish to remain a part of his work. At the same time we ask that the Overseas Department consider assuming the expense of his plane and that it continue to be called "The Blue Box."

The motion was seconded and carried.

After the singing of Hymn 538, The Reverend William E. Pilcher, III, led the Noon Day Prayers.

Mrs. Oliver Roddey, United Thank Offering Treasurer, prefaced her report with the announcement that the amount of the offering taken at the morning service was $169.09, the largest ever. She pointed out that over half of the missionary work of the Episcopal Church is made possible by the United Thank Offering. The total offering in the Diocese in 1965 amounted to $27,695.83, a gain of $650 over the preceding year.

Mrs. Roddey presented Mrs. Ernest E. Rucker, our guest speaker who was introduced earlier. Mrs. Rucker gave a very informative and stimulating address on "The United Thank Offering — Far and Near."

Mrs. W. B. Elsee, Chairman of the Courtesy Committee, made the following report which was accepted unanimously:

"Hats off to the folks at St. Luke's in Salisbury
They've done everything here to make our stay merry
From holes in the donuts to coffee delicious
To meals that were lovely and oh so nutritious
Exhibits — transportation, they had it down pat
The 84th. Session thanks them for that!

Hats off, too, to Vertie and her excellent Board
For planning a meeting we've really adored
The reports were all timely, interesting, and such
The business seemed vital (and there wasn't too much)
We'll leave here inspired, chock full of facts under hat
The 84th. Session thanks them for all that!

Hats off, once more, to the dignitaries who're here
Outstanding speakers who have come from far and near
To brief us on what can be done with our funds
For migrants, prisoners, missions, hospitals, all our institutions
For spelling out the needs and the parts we must play
The 84th. Session thanks those speakers today!"

Mrs. Ruffin Bailey of The Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, invited everyone to attend the 1967 Annual Meeting to be held there.

Mrs. Jackson expressed grateful appreciation for the contributions made by the out-going members of the Executive Board; namely, Mrs. William P. Price, Secretary of Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Secretary of Missions; Mrs. Julian Robertson and Mrs. John W. Drake, Convocation Chairmen; Mrs. M. E. Motsinger, Jr., Representative on the Diocesan Council and Mrs. Sterling A. Stoudemire, a Convocation Chairman, who will continue to serve in other capacities. She thanked all who helped make the Annual Meeting a memorable occasion.

After the Prayer of General Thanksgiving and the Bishop's Blessing, the Eighty-fourth Annual Meeting adjourned.

Diocese of North Carolina

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1965, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1965, and the related Statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1965, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

The general purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen is really no different from the purpose of the Church—namely, to be the Body of Christ in the world, to worship Him and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

Episcopal Churchwomen is simply an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry—ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

PURPOSE 1964-1967 TRIENNIUM

To help the Women of the Church:

RECOGNIZE how God is working in His changing world of today;

UNDERSTAND the roles and opportunities of Women in the Church and society; and

LEARN TO RESPOND to the demands which God is placing upon us.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 63.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 66.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group. The officers should correspond as nearly as possible to the Diocesan officers.

The Executive Board consists of the elected officers, committee chairmen, chapter chairmen, and any member of the Executive Council, General Division of Women's Work, Provincial Representatives, or Diocesan Executive Board who is a communicant of the parish, and the rector. The Board, under the guidance of the president, should plan, promote, direct, and evaluate the work of the Branch. Plans of the Executive Board should always be approved by the entire group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

The Diocesan Treasurer disburses this money according to direction.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. W. D. HOLLOMAN, JR., Secretary
1110 Church Street, Scotland Neck

The Secretary of Devotional Life will serve more effectively if she recognizes that one of her first responsibilities is to deepen and strengthen her own personal commitment to God through a discipline of private prayer and study and public worship. Of primary importance, too, is an early consultation with her rector that they may work out together any plans and programs for the spiritual enrichment of the Churchwomen. No special program should be initiated; no prayer or study groups started without his approval. Call on Diocesan and Convocation Secretaries as needed.

SUGGESTED AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

1. Ask to serve on the Executive Board for over-all planning. Correlate plans with President, Secretaries of Christian Education and Missions, and United Thank Offering Custodian.
2. Plan devotions for general and executive meetings.
3. Work with Chapter Devotional Life Leaders in planning for chapter meetings and to consider the needs of your churchwomen.
4. Plan for corporate communions for special days and groups.
5. Plan Quiet Days on the parish level.
6. Be alert for special needs and special prayers and take them to your rector.
7. Help form Prayer Groups and Bible Study Groups. If your rector approves there are women in the diocese experienced in this area who will be happy to work with you.
8. Assemble a bookshelf and track rack of devotional material. Keep up to date with new materials. Reading is essential to spiritual growth.
9. Practice and actively encourage the habit of private devotions and family prayer.
10. Try to reach women not reached through regular meetings of Churchwomen.

TECHNIQUES IN PREPARING AND LEADING DEVOTIONS

1. Allow plenty of time to prepare devotions for meetings. Thought and quality are much more important than duration of presentation.
2. Start with silent prayer. This silence could be preceded by a line from a Psalm or by one of the Opening Sentences from Morning or Evening Prayer.
3. Have devotions pertinent to program and/or special need.
4. Do not become stereotyped. Remember that the material and methods to be used are limited only by your imagination. Do not be afraid to use informality and contemporary language.
5. Enlist attention and group participation by means of litanies, prayers in unison, and by having others to take the service or to assist.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. EUGENE S. KNIGHT, Secretary
2761 Toxey Drive, Raleigh

JOB DESCRIPTION — To stimulate and enable the women of your parish to study more creatively and effectively, as a means of enabling them to grow in their capacity for worship and service.

TO STIMULATE — Communicating something of the joy and satisfaction of study — of exploring new ideas, of finding new insights into old ideas.

Communicating the idea that it is through study that we are enabled to grow and change.

Communicating the idea that study can be the means of enabling us to meet change with joy instead of fear.

TO ENABLE — Listening to find interests and recognized needs; and on the basis of this to recommend to your planning group possible courses of study which you think might be useful, effective and interesting.

Learning and applying the basic steps of program planning; becoming familiar with various skills and methods of presentation; being well acquainted with materials and resources for study.

Teaching the women something of these skills and methods and resources; helping to train them in effective leadership.

PLANNING STEPS —

1. Find interests or recognized needs.
2. Break down needs into groups of related topics.
Choose useful, essential topics, but interesting.
3. Set goals.
Stop and think what you want to happen, and what results you expect from it.
4. Survey available resources.
People, books, etc.; skills and experiences of your women; if use experts, ask appropriate ones.
5. Select appropriate techniques.
Enable them to do it; don't do it for them.
6. Outline the meeting and assign responsibilities.
7. Evaluate.
8. Did we do what we set out to do?

MRS. DON BLANTON, Secretary
Country Club Drive, Lexington

I. What and Why—Christian Social Relations

God so loved the world that He sent His son that men might have life—abundant life. Now we are the body of Christ! Christian Action, the incarnation (birth into human life) of our love of God, has just one aim—to manifest God's love for his children. We worship a God who not only created all things, but is creative in history—now; therefore; we seek God's "action" for our time. Evolution of concept of loving, from person to person only, to institutions, to seeking to change conditions under which men live—all are important.

II. Christian Education-Worship-Action Interrelated

ACTION RESULTS FROM TRUE WORSHIP, depends on worship in conscious seeking of God's will and guidance. If we penetrate deeply enough into either the Christian life in the world or at the altar, either will drive us to the other.

ACTION RESULTS FROM TRUE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—depends on Christian education to prepare for true (armed with truth) Christian action. We cannot bear witness to the love of God to people for whom we do not care enough to find out for what they thirst, how they are imprisoned, wherewith they shall be clothed in their tomorrows, or from whence shall come the means to cure their sickness.

C.S.R. Chairman—seeks to stimulate, draw attention and inform the whole in areas of Christian Action. Some shall contribute particularly in worship, some in education, some in action—but all one body. If the CSR Chairman falls down in her appointed task—the wholeness of that branch's program is impaired.

III. How the C.S.R. Chairman Functions

The CSR Chairman serves with the Chairman of Christian Education and others in program planning.

Large parishes have a committee composed of Chapter CSR Chairmen with Branch CSR head, other concerned persons, and short-term "specialists" in the community.

In small parishes, Chairman joins with concerned women from the parish, from other churches, and "specialists" in the community.

This concerned group should meet regularly (monthly?) as a committee to study and think about Christian action. The parish priest should always be invited to all meetings and consulted concerning any plans.

Committee action:

1. Look at own community first; where possible move from particular to general as we all are deeply moved by persons, seldom by statistics.
2. Use materials to stimulate your imagination beyond your own community. Study national emphases from CSR Department of the Episcopal Church and from the United Church Women. (CSR Bulletin is an absolute must. See publication list for this and other materials.)
3. Discipline yourselves to study that you may be well-informed, once you have decided which concerns you are going to zero in on. Use resource people in the community, also.
4. Discipline yourselves to act; decide what is possible for your group, and then do it. Don't mistake knowing something or feeling something for doing something. Compromise on unimportant details. Relate to others who have similar concern, either leading or joining with them.

5. Infiltrate—lead the women of your brand of study, that you and they may be able to:
 - a. Speak and act from informed concern in informal groups and social gatherings. (The bridge table, the golf course, at home)
 - b. "Stand Up in the decision-making areas of life and be counted." (Bishop Fraser)
6. Record—Keep information file for the next chairman.
7. Evaluate—Base future plans on values observed in past experiences.

IV. Marks of Christian Social Action

1. Sit loosely, enthusiasm is for causes, devotion for God. Leave a little crack in your armor for new light to shine in.
2. Say neither "This is the only way" nor "Those who disagree are not Christians."
3. Stick to discussion of issues, not motives or personal traits of those who disagree.
4. Be concerned about means as well as ends.
5. Love the "enemy" (those on the other side of the issues) and be concerned for them, too.
6. Refer to education and worship—Section II
7. Whenever possible, do something with people rather than for them.

MISSIONS

MRS. STERLING STOUDEMIRE, Secretary
712 Gimghoul Road, Chapel Hill

The purpose of this department is to encourage active participation by our Churchwomen in the mission of the Church, by:

1. Praying daily, mentioning each one of our missionaries by name. Use the prayer manual "Far and Near".

2. Try to have at least one mission program a year for your Branch meeting. Give news of where the missionaries are and what they are doing. Have a map of the world, and show where they are located.

3. Write to the missionaries, especially at Christmas, Easter, and on their birthdays, giving news of the Diocese.

4. Try to see that your Branch budget is divided 50% inside the parish, and 50% outside. Try to give to Missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the money can be sent out "in force" through recommended projects that have been given first priority.

5. The missionary Christmas gift is an extra and is to be sent by November 15th to the Convocation Mission Secretary, who sends the total amount from all the Branches of her Convocation to the Diocesan Treasurer by December first. The total of all the money collected is divided equally among all the active and retired missionaries listed on the assignment sheet. Please be sure the Branch Treasurer knows she is to send the check to the Convocation Secretary of Missions and not to the Diocesan one.

6. Send all other monetary gifts for missionaries or missions, domestic or overseas, directly from the Branch to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Treasurer made payable to her with instructions as to allocation of said checks. If it is going overseas, please enclose the amount of postage needed.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. OLIVER RODDEY
811 Queens Road, Charlotte

The United Thank Offering is the offering that goes the second mile. It is over and above our regular pledges. We give from a thankful heart, with a prayer to God that He will accept our gift of love and use it for all men everywhere.

The Blue Box is a vehicle of prayer and it is the woman's individual alms basin. It should be kept in a prominent place where we can add a prayer—if not a coin—to it each day. Isn't it amazing how God can take our nickels, dimes, and our prayers and make such wonderful things out of them such as hospitals, schools, missions, training centers for missionaries, provide help for the migrant workers, retarded children, juvenile delinquents and give aid to many other needy peoples and causes.

"We can not all go to the mission field but our offerings and our prayers can go for us. They become instruments of a part that we can play in Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence—a box, a coin, a prayer, such a little effort in participation to accomplish so much."

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer

BRANCH:

1. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U.T.O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. You may get envelopes or Blue Boxes from your Convocation U.T.O. Treasurer.
2. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.
3. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.
4. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation U.T.O. Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCATION:

1. Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U.T.O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.
2. Notify Branches of dates of Ingathering and give deadline for sending check to you.
3. Make yourself known to all Branch U.T.O. Treasurers in your Convocation and let them know you are available to help them.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation U.T.O. Treasurers with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York 17, N. Y., for the total amount.

2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.
3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.
4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed.
5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.
6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the Offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation U.T.O. Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

Diocesan Alms Basin

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Phillip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U.T.O. Custodians collected cherished momentos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

MRS. GILBERT ROSS, Secretary
1200 Ruayne Road, Greensboro

COLLEGE WORK is the attempt to help students, faculty, and others on campus continue to BE the church where they are. It depends upon the efforts of many . . . the chaplains (our diocese has 8 full-time) who provide the Word and the Sacraments, teach, counsel, parish churches which express interest and support in a number of ways (many parish priests are part-time chaplains) and of course, every Christian whose prayerful concern provides for the extension of this serving ministry.

How to Start as Branch Chairman —

1. Get the file of your predecessor and talk with her.
2. Get the names of young people from your parish who will be going away to school in the fall (use bulletin or newsletter to request this information if not available from church office.)
3. Send one Card of Commendation per student (going away) to the chaplain or parish priest in the academic community. Often this is the only way they know the student is on campus. Complete cards carefully, including comments. You may order cards (free) from The Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Ave., N. Y. C. 10017.

It's important that you evaluate the needs of your area since so many factors enter the picture . . . size of parish, number of students away, location (in, near or far from an academic community). Talk with your rector, parents, chaplain and faculty members (if near a campus) . . . any interested person to discover needs and set goals. When you come up with good ideas, see how they work out, then share so we can list them in next year's yearbook to help someone else. Patterns of college work are changing (as are most patterns) to meet new challenges. This calls for imaginative and flexible planning. There are many ways, specific and general, that we can be a part of college work, no doubt many that your branch or parish uses. Consider all the possibilities and decide which are best in your situation.

Remember students, teachers, chaplains, college workers in prayers, corporate and individual.

Keep in touch with students . . . by personal letters, cards at special times, church bulletins, newsletters, devotional materials.

Plan a corporate communion breakfast for students before they leave in the fall and when they return for the Christmas holidays.

Plan "So You're Going to College" sessions for High School students after graduation, asking rector to write letter of congratulations to graduates enclosing pamphlet "So You're Going To College". Mail booklet "College Is For Christians" to parents.

Include a college work item in parish budget (funds continue to be needed for Program—see April letter for items included in Program—and for scholarships for local students to attend camps, conferences, summer work projects).

Support the Church Society for College Work in its pioneering program ($10 for membership, $1 per year for the society's publication the Church Review).

Welcome students back into full parish life when they return.

Parishes in Academic Communities have additional opportunities to—Welcome

all students and faculty to the parish fellowship—greeting them at services, inviting them to share in worship, choir, church school, social functions, etc. (some parishes make up a sheet listing all functions to give students).

Invite students into homes, remembering to include foreign students . . . perhaps “adopt” a student.

Talk with chaplain or priest serving the schools, offer assistance, learn of needs (ask for names of married students so that couples may visit them).

Assist the student group, or if none exists, help to organize.

Have an “Open House” at the parish house, student center, rectory, or at a faculty home near campus.

Assist in providing funds for vocational and other conferences, books, special programs and chaplain’s discretionary fund.

As Branch Chairman you’ll want to keep the church’s mission to the campus before the churchwomen and the parish, particularly the opportunities within the diocese. Planning a special college work program for the branch (or better, for the parish) is one way. Another year-round way is to display college work materials . . . posters, pamphlets etc. and to use the tract rack.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES is the name given to the total ministry of all Christians . . . lay, ordained, and special. Traditionally the special concern of ECW has been the recruiting of women for full-time work. This continues to be an important responsibility but now we stress opportunities for men, women and young people in unified parishes. The purpose of Christian Ministries is to make these opportunities for full or part-time church work known.

As Branch Chairman you should be informed on types of professional and volunteer opportunities (qualifications, training, etc.) offered by the church. Some ways of alerting others to the needs are:

Plan a branch or parish program on church vocations and volunteer programs.

Work with the rector to find ways of reaching the young people, perhaps a specific program once a year for the church school and youth group. Ask him to include vocational opportunities for women when he preaches on the ministry.

Inform young people (High School and College) about Summer Service Projects.

Start a “Talent File” listing interests and talents of communicants which may be used for volunteer work in the church or community.

Plan a Vocational Guidance Conference or workshop (with other parishes or branches) for Jr. and Sr. H. S. students in your area.

Place recruiting materials in tract rack, using posters and brochures on bulletin board. Use parish bulletin for announcements. Supply High School Advisors with literature.

Pray that the right persons will offer themselves for the work of the church; ask that prayers for recruits be included in church, church school, programs for youth, men, and women.

In summary, we must all work to provide a climate in which young people can see challenges in church vocations—remembering that attitudes expressed in the home are more important than any other motivation.

As Convocation Chairman of College Work and Christian Ministries

You are the liaison between the branch chairmen in your convocation and the diocesan officer.

You’ll want to:

Be informed on college work in the diocese, particularly your convocation

. . . and on church vocational and volunteer opportunities (use available resource materials).

Keep a file of material and information available. Keep all communications from branch and diocesan officers (to turn over to successor).

Keep in touch with branch chairmen in the convocation, encouraging and helping when needed.

Advise the Diocesan Secretary of College Work and Christian Ministries of happenings and progress in the convocation. Send her copies of your letters to branch secretaries.

Attend convocation meetings, reporting when necessary. Whenever possible, talk with branch chairmen at convocation meetings.

Offer to speak at branch meetings and to help in any way.

Some of the suggestions for branch chairmen may be of value for convocation planning. Convocations, of course, differ (as do branches) so it is important that you discover the interests and needs of yours. Call or write the diocesan secretary at any time . . . for assistance or to make suggestions.

SUPPLY

MRS. NORMAN A. SIPPELL, Secretary
500 Brinn Street, Sanford

The Supply Work of the Diocese helps to meet the needs of Missions at home and Overseas. This consists of both money and material supplies. It offers an opportunity to assist in both the fields of Missionary work and Christian Social Relations.

Specific instructions are received from the General Division of Women's Work in New York City and it is the duty of the Diocesan Secretary of Supply to see that these requests are carried out.

Further, the Diocesan Secretary of Supply is in contact with Convocation Supply Secretaries and Branch Supply Secretaries in meeting their needs and furthering the means of communication.

CONVOCATION: The Convocation Supply Secretary relays all communications from the Diocesan Secretary of Supply to the Branch Supply Secretaries.

She distributes sewing allotments and also promotes other Supply activities.

It is her duty to help with requested program assistancy by Branches.

BRANCHES: The Branch Supply Secretary works with her branch in sewing projects, if desired by the Branch; Collecting of good used clothing to be distributed to all suggested outlets. This clothing to be clean, pressed and shipped.

She keeps her Chapter advised constantly of the needs and accomplishments in Supply work.

She communicates the needs or request of the Episcopal Churchwomen in her Chapter to her Convocation Secretary.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. S. MALONE PARHAM, Director
2915 Meadow Lane, Henderson

The PURPOSE of the Church Periodical Club is to provide reading material for those who could not otherwise obtain it. It is the only organization of the Episcopal Church devoted solely to the ministry of the printed word.

Wherever the church is at work, in your community, in this country and overseas, the CPC sends reading material, all without charge. The money to carry on this ministry comes from gifts to the CPC National Books Fund. Requests for books come to the CPC from every continent in the world, and are filled as far as your gifts will permit.

The printed word is one of the most powerful weapons the Christian may use. It has been said, "If we did not have a Church Periodical Club, we would surely have to create one".

In our diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of the CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches and the convocations.

Suggested Procedure for CPC Secretaries

(1) To Promote the CPC in the Branch:

Obtain the records from your predecessor in office.

Learn the purpose of the CPC. Study the CPC Handbook.

Keep a supply of CPC literature on hand. Distribute it at every chance. Help to keep your parish library and tract rack adequately supplied.

Plan a CPC program each year. Make it simple but inclusive of all phases of the work.

Solicit your Rector's help for the CPC.

Find people and places in your community to distribute appropriate reading material to: viz.; mission churches nearby, school libraries, low income families, mental hospitals, nursing homes, jails, etc.

Keep a record of the work you do, and the money you send to the National Books Fund. This will help when you fill out your Annual Report blank.

VERY IMPORTANT: Send all checks to the Diocesan Director. (NOT to the diocesan treasurer). The Director is required to keep books on each Branch.

(2) To Promote Gifts to the National Book Fund:

Try to get the CPC in your Branch Budget each year.

Memorial Gifts. Present the idea of sending a personal check to the Books Fund as a memorial. Send check to Director, so your branch will get credit, and Director can write an acknowledgement to the family.

Coin Card. This little dime folder produces amazing results. Take some coin cards to meetings, and point out how dimes can BUY A BOOK.

Sell Magazine Subscriptions. Profit to go to the Books Fund.

Bazaars. Remember the Books Fund when the time comes to decide the disposition of your bazaar money.

Share your ideas. New ways are forever being found by individuals and groups with imagination. Write the Director about your projects to earn money for the Books Fund. Other branches will be glad to learn about them.

ALTAR WORK & SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. P. B. SMITH, Chairman

2712 Mayview Road, Raleigh

Altar work is a service which we offer with love for His blessing and acceptance. It should be nothing less than our very best effort.

Purposes:

1. To teach the sacred beauty of Altar work.
2. To provide assistance to Diocesan Missions, Institutions, and colleges in obtaining necessary Altar linens and other equipment.
3. To act as an exchange for Altar hangings, vestments, and vessels.

Services:

1. When requested, this department will provide.
 - a. A speaker on Altar work
 - b. A workshop on Altar sewing
 - c. Assistance in planning and/or making Altar linens and vestments
 - d. Altar Guide handbooks, on loan
 - e. Linens from our linen bank. We need more volunteers for this.

Altar Guilds are under the supervision of the minister. Duties include preparation for all church services, cleaning and storing equipment afterward, arrangement and distribution of flowers, laundering the Altar linens, laundering and maintaining the clergy's vestments, and ordering the Altar supplies. When feasible, they may organize and train a Junior Altar Guild.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our lord. AMEN.

2. The order of business for the Annual Meeting shall be arranged by the President and the Executive Board.

3. Each Branch having fifty members or less shall be represented by the President and one other delegate (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch). The President, or her representative, and the delegate each has a vote. Each additional fifty members shall entitle the Branch to an additional delegate with power to vote; however, a Branch to have voting privileges must have paid a pledge to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget for the preceding year and must have reported to the Treasurer the number of active members in the Branch.

4. All members of the Executive Board, all ex-officio members of the Executive Board, and all past-Presidents of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, shall be delegates-at-large to Annual Meeting with voice and vote.

It is desirable that names be submitted prior to November 1st; however, additional names may be submitted any time prior to Annual Meeting.

7. The Nominating Committee shall present a ticket of one or more nominees for each office to be filled. The Chairman shall send this ticket to each Branch three weeks prior to the Annual Meeting. In addition to the ticket presented by the Committee, any nominations endorsed by three Branches and having the consent of the nominees may be made. Such nominations shall be sent to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee one week prior to the Annual Meeting and the Chairman shall inform the Annual Meeting of any such names. Nominations may be made from the floor of the Annual Meeting by any delegate, provided the consent of the nominee has been obtained.

8. Delegates and Alternates from the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese to the Triennial Meeting shall be elected at the Annual Meeting preceding the year in which the Triennial Meeting is to be held. The incoming President shall be Delegate number one by virtue of her office. The remaining four Delegates and five Alternates shall be elected as follows: The Nominating Committee shall submit the names of nine members, who, together with any additional nominees from the floor, shall be voted upon. The four receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected Delegates. The five receiving the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected Alternates, and shall be designated from one to five in accordance with the number of votes received by each, and shall serve in that order. In the event of a tie vote for an elected Alternate, the President shall designate the order in which they shall serve. Nominations for Delegates and Alternates to be elected by Annual Meeting may be made from the floor at any time prior to the call for voting.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all women everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for his sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighty-fifth Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

THE CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA
APRIL 4, 5, 1967

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1967

My greetings to you, as your diocesan president and also as a member of the host parish, are especially warm and cordial. I rejoice to see so many present and I hope this meeting will be rich in fellowship as well as informative, stimulating, and challenging.

At this time, I also express my very deep and sincere appreciation to my rector and parish for hosting this meeting. Thank you all very much.

In November 1962 two members of the Diocesan Nominating Committee came to see me, asking me to accept the nomination for the office of president-elect. Offhand, I replied that we might not have an organization eighteen months from then. You recall, no doubt, how at that time we were thinking and talking in terms of "Changing Patterns".

Here we are today about four and one-half years later. As your retiring president, I could very well give you one of two reports, either an encouraging account of all your accomplishments or a rather discouraging report depicting your problems. I am quite familiar with both. However, I bid you listen attentively to your officers as they report and you will hear many interesting and encouraging facts. Suffice it for me to say in all humility that I rejoice in your accomplishments in spite of your frustrations.

Truly, this triennium has been one of transition for all of us. A fellow churchwoman expressed my feelings, yours too no doubt, quite aptly just a few days ago when she wrote, "I know you have come to this time with mixed emotions. We have come through some difficult days of transition. This transition will continue and let us hope and pray that the end result will be very good."

Yes, this transition will continue for in many respects it has only begun. It becomes increasingly evident that the organization of Episcopal Churchwomen must examine and evaluate its purpose, program, and structure continually. Current reports indicate that such studies are being made at every level: national, diocesan, convocation, and parish. Your Executive Board has made some progress in its evaluation. Accordingly, resultant recommendations will be presented for your consideration during this meeting. Likewise, some branches are effecting interesting changes in organizational structure, programs, and projects. You will hear about these in the Spring Planning Day workshops.

As we have shared mutual problems, concerns, and disappointments let us also share new ideas, helpful suggestions, and practical solutions. Here I would leave with you a quotation which frequently goads me. It is from the Talmud: "Look ahead. You are not required to complete the task; neither are you permitted to lay it down."

Surely, the end result of our transitions will be very good if we look ahead and continue in the faith as St. Paul exhorted the disciples at Antioch to do.

To continue in the faith requires perseverance, patience, and prayer. Be assured, nevertheless, that as we follow Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour faithfully and obediently into his changing world, we too shall be changed and that change will be very good; not only for us, but also for this confused and distorted world that cries out to be redeemed and must be reconciled to God in Christ. This is our mission both singularly and collectively. He will use us in exact proportion to our faithfulness and our conformity to his image.

My tenure as your president ends tomorrow. Endings are but new beginnings. We have chosen an able and dedicated president for the next three years. Let us begin the next triennium under her leadership with renewed faith, hope, and joy.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as your president. I will relinquish the office deeply grateful to Almighty God and to you for the many blessings which have attended me. For the guidance and cooperation of the Bishops, the Director of Program, and the clergy; for the loyal support and devotion of excellent Executive Boards; and for all dedicated women, who have worked faithfully and diligently in the churches, I am most grateful. Thank you for your cooperation, loyalty, friendship, and love. May God bless you all abundantly and may we, the women of the Church, continue in the faith, grow in grace and daily increase in knowledge and love of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and serve him until at length we and the whole Church come to his everlasting kingdom.

MRS. W.H.R. JACKSON
President

IN MEMORIAM

Since the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen a year ago, two past-presidents have died: Marion Alston Bourne on September 4th, and Mabel Simpson Lucas on September 28th.

Marion Bourne, born in Warrenton, North Carolina, was for forty-six years of her life in Tarboro, an active leader in the life of her town and parish. One of her civic interests was the Edgecombe County Memorial Library of which she was an influential supporter and trustee. A valued member of the parish of Calvary Church, she was a guiding spirit in the local branch of the Episcopal Churchwomen, was chairman of the District, and was President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina from 1946 to 1949. During her term of office the Quiet Day of Prayer and Meditation was begun, a day of corporate worship which continues to enrich the lives of the Episcopal Churchwomen. Her good judgment was sought for the work of the women at every level, including her writing of the history of the Woman's Auxiliary on the occasion of its seventy-fifth anniversary. Recognizing the potential of all people in all walks of life, Marion Bourne kindled their desire to know and to love God, and she was a wellspring of strength and courage to the many who sought her guidance.

Mabel Lucas, born in Spartansburg, South Carolina, and educated at Converse in that city, was for many years a communicant of Holy Trinity Church, Greensboro. She served the local auxiliary in a number of offices and was president of the Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina. Later she served as the U. T. O. Custodian of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Province of Sewanee. She was instrumental in the organization of St. Frances Church in Greensboro, of which she was a charter member, serving there in various capacities. Several years ago she returned her membership to Holy Trinity, from which church she was buried. She traveled extensively; yet her life was always centered in her family, her church, her community, in all of these areas faithfully performing every type of duty and devotion and bringing to the attention of the Churchwomen additional spheres of influence.

And so at this time, we hold in loving remembrance Marion Bourne and Mabel Lucas, in appreciation of their unselfish service and in the sure faith of their having entered the gates of everlasting life.

Let us stand for a moment of silence . . . Let us pray.

We give them back to Thee, dear Lord, who gavest them to us.

Yet as Thou didst not lose them in giving, so we have not lost them by their return. Not as the World giveth, giveth Thou,

O Lover of souls! What Thou givest, Thou takest not away.

For what is Thine is ours always, if we are Thine.

And life is eternal, and love is immortal, and death is only a horizon, and a horizon is nothing but the limit of our sight.

Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see further.

Cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly; draw us closer to Thyself that we may know ourselves nearer to them who are with Thee. And while Thou dost prepare a place for us, prepare us for that happy place, that where they are, and Thou art, we too may be. Amen.

REPORT OF COURTESY COMMITTEE

Our remembrances will long hold the spiritual inspiration and practical value gotten from this noteworthy Annual Meeting.

We have been blessed with perfect weather.

We have received, through the Rev. Louis G. Melcher and his staff, a most gracious welcome to a beautiful church.

Mrs. Godfrey Cheshire, Jr. and her committee have been everywhere dispersing graciousness and hospitality, the results of endless hours of preparation.

The Clergy have given generously of their time to bring us the needed perspective of prayer.

Bishop Fraser's address was a tonic; taken regularly it should expand our thinking, stir our ideas, and help us all at the parish level.

Father Carral's "Miracle" is one in which we would all like to participate and someday more of us may be able to do just that. Thank you for being here, Father.

The Rev. L. Bartine Sherman's report and slides on Mission to Hong Kong stretched our minds and our imaginations, delightfully entertained us, and gave us a view of the living church.

The Executive Board has pointed the way for us to go with excellent reports, and added to our enjoyment with perfect timing in each section of the program.

Mrs. Godfrey's talk should give us inspiration and determination to find God's way to do his will and not ours.

Our verbal thanks cannot express our love for Vertie Jackson and our appreciation for her leadership—a great lady we all admire.

To all those leaving the Board we express our thanks for their endless hours of work done in our behalf.

The beauty of the needle point for the Bishop's Chapel, envisioned by Margaret Motsinger and carried out by her committee, was for all of us a dream come true.

We extend our thanks to each and everyone who has helped make these days so outstanding.

With such a song in our hearts we should at this time and in this place give thanks to God.

Let us pray together the prayer of thanksgiving found on page 591 of the Prayer Book.

Committee:

MRS. E. H. DUDLEY, Chairman

MRS. F. H. GREGORY, JR.

MRS. WM. SCOTT

MRS. STEVE MILLENDER

ACCEPTANCE OF THE PRESIDENCY AT ANNUAL MEETING, 1967.

MRS. M. E. MOTSINGER, JR.

I should like you all to stand with me in an attempt to express our affectionate appreciation to Vertie Jackson for her dedicated, patient and encouraging leadership during the past three years. It is with personal gratitude for her sympathetic guidance and encouragement to me that I present her, on your behalf, with the beautiful Past President's pendant which the Bishop blessed this morning.

On the fly leaf of Robert Ruark's book "Something of Value" is quoted an old African proverb which, paraphrased, is something like this: "Never take away from people their traditional customs unless you are sure that there is something of value with which to replace them".

During the past two days, we have been hearing of challenge, change, re-structure, reorganization, re-evaluation—eloquently from many people. Sometimes this is a little overwhelming!

We have also heard of people of other culture—of Panama and Hong Kong—of the diversity of Anglicans. Just as much of the strength of the Anglican Communion lies in its diversity and flexibility, so there is strength in diversity and flexibility among Churchwomen. In some places the Episcopal Churchwomen are truly functioning as is best for that locality at this moment. Some places are experimenting with new plans. We should not be afraid of trying new approaches, realizing that they will not always work, but always looking for that basic "Something of Value".

For myself, the idea of being your President was, for a long time, quite terrifying. Then I remembered words made famous by one of my personal heroes. On Christmas Day, 1939, I lived on the edge of the London area. No time could have seemed more transitional, no future more uncertain. Morning brought even a changed skyline following nights of bombing. Then came the calm voice of King George VI to steady and encourage us:

"And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year, 'Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown'. He replied, 'Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way.'"

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of The Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1966, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1966, and the related Statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1966, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

The general purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen is really no different from the purpose of the Church — namely, to be the Body of Christ in the world, to worship Him and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

Episcopal Churchwomen is simply an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry — ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 63.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 66.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group. The officers should correspond as nearly as possible to the Diocesan officers.

The Executive Board consists of the elected officers, committee chairmen, chapter chairmen, and any member of the Executive Council, General Division of Women's Work, Provincial Representatives, or Diocesan Executive Board who is a communicant of the parish, and the rector. The Board, under the guidance of the president, should plan, promote, direct, and evaluate the work of the Branch. Plans of the Executive Board should always be approved by the entire group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. W. D. HOLLOMAN, JR., Secretary
1110 Church Street, Scotland Neck

The Secretary of Devotional Life will serve more effectively if she recognizes that one of her first responsibilities is to deepen and strengthen her own personal commitment to God through a discipline of private prayer and study and public worship. Of primary importance, too, is an early consultation with her Rector that they may work out together any plans and programs for the spiritual enrichment of the Churchwomen. No special programs should be initiated; no prayer or study groups started without his approval. Feel free to call on Diocesan Secretary as needed.

SUGGESTED AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

1. Correlate over-all planning with President, Secretaries of Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, etc. Suggest that a full program be devoted to some aspect of Prayer. Use records or tape or ask Rector to instruct.
2. Plan devotions for general and executive meetings.
3. Work with Chapter Devotional Leaders in planning for chapter meetings and to consider the needs of your churchwomen.
4. Plan for corporate communions for special days and groups.
5. Plan Quiet Days on the parish level.
6. Be alert for special needs and special prayers and take them to your Rector.
7. If your Rector approves, help form Prayer Groups and Bible Study Groups.
8. Take an interest in your parish tract rack and library. Assemble devotional materials. Keep up to date on books and materials. Reading is essential to spiritual growth.
9. Practice and actively encourage the habit of private and family prayer.
10. Acquaint yourself and your group with the idea of Retreat. Advertise those held at the Terraces in Southern Pines.
11. Through the above mentioned "extras" or in any other way try to reach women not reached through regular meetings of Churchwomen.

TECHNIQUES IN PREPARING AND LEADING DEVOTIONS

1. Allow plenty of time to prepare devotions for meetings. Thought and quality are much more important than duration of presentation.
2. Start with silent prayers. This silence could be preceded by a line from a Psalm or by one of the Opening Sentences from Morning or Evening Prayer.
3. Have devotions pertinent to program and/or special need.
4. Do not become stereotyped. Remember that the material and methods to be used are limited only by your imagination. Do not be afraid to use informality and contemporary language.
5. Enlist attention and group participation by means of litanies, prayers in unison, and by having others to take the service or to assist.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. ROBERT E. MERRITT, Secretary
832 Country Club Road, Mt. Airy

Television . . . Supreme Court decisions . . . racial demonstrations . . . more leisure . . . transistors . . . riots . . . breakdown of the family. In this time of change we need more than ever to try to understand what is happening and what God is saying to us now. As we meet together in God's Name, we should use fully this opportunity to face the present and the future without fear. Let us examine the contemporary scene with loving concern, trying to see life whole, trying to make our studies honest and relevant.

With the Rector's help, let us deepen and clarify our understanding of Christian Education. The Christian Education we need today is not only intellectual: it leads to commitment to our Lord and to one another. We listen together to what God is saying to us now. This kind of learning involves us, it engages our attention, our minds, our feelings and our wills. We are changed.

In addition to our primary responsibility for education for the Churchwomen, let us be sure that our program relates to the whole of Christian Education in the parish. In the list below we have a wealth of study materials carefully prepared for the purpose of Christian Education. These are all suitable for parishwide programs of study. We ought to consult our rectors, our parish councils, our church school superintendents so that we are a part of the whole program of Christian Education in the parish.

These books will help us to prepare for the task of the secretary of Christian Education:

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. DON BLANTON, Secretary
Country Club Drive, Lexington

Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and mind and soul and thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hangs all the law and the Prophets. How many times have we heard this? How many times have we said this, and how many times have we thought—yes, I believe this; this is true. Yet, how hard it is to live as though we really believe this. Loving our neighbor as ourselves necessitates seeing things from his point of view, trying to walk in his shoes; losing ourselves in his problems.

How many of us are willing to do this? How many of us are willing to try to do this? However, is this really the problem? Is not the problem really to “love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and mind and soul?” Is this not the actual fly in the ointment? If we could do this—if we could really love the Lord our God with all our being, we would not be able to contain this love; for as surely as the night follows the day, the love for our Lord does perpetuate love for our fellowmen. If this were to happen, our eyes would be opened to the needs of those around us. We would not have to say, “I wish someone would tell me of a needed Christian Social Relations Project”. But alas, this millennium has not arrived; we are still somewhere between what we are and what we would be. Therefore, we need just about all the help we can get!

A few areas of need and concern are listed in the following outline. You will be able to add more. Some of these are sponsored by our Church and others are ecumenical endeavors. There are many areas for service inspired by our secular society. Social agencies both private and public, even civic clubs and politics offer projects for helping our fellow man. Another avenue for involvement in the needs of our brothers is through the many uses of federal funds. The Economic Opportunities Act adds many challenging ideas for helping. These structures for service exist—why not use them? The danger here is the sometimes fine line between “do goodism” and Christian Social Relations—Yes! Our motives make the difference! When we serve our fellowman with love in our hearts and in the name of our Lord, secular organizations are indeed useful tools for His work.

May we pray fervently, and labor diligently to bring ourselves to this coveted state of love and understanding and service, knowing that all things are possible for those who “wait upon the Lord”.

If the church is to be relevant to our times it must be in the world!

Since we, the people, are the church and since we are already in the world our work seems to be cut out for us. How are we relating as Christians to society?

MISSIONS

MRS. STERLING A. STOUDEMIRE, Secretary
712 Gimghoul Road, Chapel Hill

The purpose of this department is to encourage active participation by our Churchwomen in the mission of the Church, by:

1. Praying daily, mentioning each one of our missionaries by name. Use the prayer manual "Far and Near".

2. Try to have at least one mission program a year for your Branch meeting. Give news of where the missionaries are and what they are doing. Have a map of the world, and show where they are located.

3. Write to the missionaries, especially at Christmas, Easter, and on their birthdays, giving news of the Diocese.

4. Try to see that your Branch budget is divided 50% inside the parish, and 50% outside. Try to give to Missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the money can be sent out "in force" through recommended projects that have been given first priority.

5. The missionary Christmas gift is an extra and is to be sent by November 15th to the Convocation Treasurer, who sends the total amount from all the Branches of her Convocation to the Diocesan Treasurer by December first. The total of all the money collected is divided equally among all the active and retired missionaries listed on the assignment sheet. Please be sure the Branch Treasurer knows she is to send the check to the Convocation Treasurer and not to the Diocesan one.

6. Send all other monetary gifts for missionaries or missions, domestic or overseas, directly from the Branch to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Treasurer made payable to her with instructions as to allocation of said checks. If it is going overseas, please enclose the amount of postage needed.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. OLIVER RODDEY
811 Queen's Road, Charlotte

The United Thank Offering has grown with each Triennium from $82.71 in 1886 to $4,790,921.51 in 1964. With this increase in money the usefulness of this offering to the church has grown with it. Over half of the missionary work of the whole Episcopal Church is made possible by the United Thank Offering, and it will continue to play a vital part in our church's future.

The women of this diocese have offered their praise and thanks to God in a very tangible way — $27,374.70 has been given in 1966 through this offering; however in order to keep up with the needs of the times we shall have to have more women participating in this great privilege of thanksgiving, service and praise. It behooves all of us to heed the words of Bishop William T. Manning of New York, as we carry on this service to all mankind — "Never have any hesitation about pressing the claim of the United Thank Offering, but have very great hesitation about failing to give any woman, for whom you are responsible, her opportunity to share in it. Do not feel as though you were mere collectors of money, even for so great a cause as the church's missionary work; realize that your work means far more than that, that you are missionaries yourselves, doing a work of deep spiritual value; that you are helping to make every woman, who becomes interested, not merely a contributor to the fund, but a more earnest disciple of Him whom we worship and serve, a more interested member of her own parish, a truer churchwoman and a better Christian."

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer

BRANCH:

1. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U.T.O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. Order your Blue Boxes and envelopes from the Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.
2. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.
3. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.

4. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCATION TREASURER:

Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U.T.O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation Chairmen with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y., for the total amount.
2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.
3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.
4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed. Send report to Diocesan Treasurer.
5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.
6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the Offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

Diocesan Alms Basin

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Philip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U.T.O. Custodians collected cherished momentos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

MRS. GILBERT ROSS, Secretary
1200 Ruayne Road, Greensboro

COLLEGE WORK is the attempt to help students, faculty, and others on campus continue to BE the church where they are. It depends upon the efforts of many . . . the chaplains (our diocese has 7 full-time) who provide the Word and the Sacraments, teach, counsel, the parish churches which express interest and support in a number of ways (many parish priests are part-time chaplains) and of course, every Christian whose prayerful concern provides for the extension of this serving ministry.

How to Start as Branch Chairman —

1. Get the file of your predecessor and talk with her.
2. Get the names of young people from your parish who will be going away to school in the fall (use bulletin or newsletter to request this information if not available from church office.)
3. Send one Card of Commendation per student (going away) to the chaplain or parish priest in the academic community. Often this is the only way they know the student is on campus. Complete cards carefully, including comments. You may order cards (free) from The Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Ave., N. Y. C. 10017.

It's important that you evaluate the needs of your area since so many factors enter the picture . . . size of parish, number of students away, location (in, near or far from an academic community). Talk with your rector, parents, chaplain and faculty members (if near a campus) . . . any interested person to discover needs and set goals. When you come up with good ideas, see how they work out, then share so we can list them in next year's yearbook to help someone else. Patterns of college work are changing (as are most patterns) to meet new challenges. This calls for imaginative and flexible planning. There are many ways, specific and general, that we can be a part of college work, no doubt many that your branch or parish uses. Consider all the possibilities and decide which are best in your situation.

Remember students, teachers, chaplains, college workers in prayers, corporate and individual.

Keep in touch with students . . . by personal letters, cards at special times, church bulletins, newsletters, devotional materials.

Plan a corporate communion breakfast for students before they leave in the fall and when they return for the Christmas holidays.

Plan "So You're Going to College" sessions for High School students after graduation, asking rector to write letter of congratulations to graduates enclosing pamphlet "So You're Going To College". Mail booklet "College Is For Christians" to parents.

Include a college work item in parish budget (funds continue to be needed for Program—see April letter for items included in Program—and for scholarships for local students to attend camps, conferences, summer work projects).

Support the Church Society for College Work in its pioneering program ($10 for membership).

Welcome students back into full parish life when they return.

Parishes in Academic Communities have additional opportunities to—Welcome

all students and faculty to the parish fellowship—greeting them at services, inviting them to share in worship, choir, church school, social functions, etc. (some parishes make up a sheet listing all functions to give students).

Invite students into homes, remembering to include foreign students . . . perhaps “adopt” a student.

Talk with chaplain or priest serving the schools, offer assistance, learn of needs (ask for names of married students so that couples may visit them).

Assist the student group, or if none exists, help to organize.

Have an “Open House” at the parish house, student center, rectory, or at a faculty home near campus.

Assist in providing funds for vocational and other conferences, books, special programs and chaplain’s discretionary fund.

As Branch Chairman you’ll want to keep the church’s mission to the campus before the churchwomen and the parish, particularly the opportunities within the diocese. Planning a special college work program for the branch (or better, for the parish) is one way. Another year-round way is to display college work materials . . . posters, pamphlets etc. and to use the tract rack.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES is the name given to the total ministry of all Christians . . . lay, ordained, and special. Traditionally the special concern of ECW has been the recruiting of women for full-time work. This continues to be an important responsibility but now we stress opportunities for men, women and young people in unified parishes. The purpose of Christian Ministries is to make these opportunities for full or part-time church work known.

As Branch Chairman you should be informed on types of professional and volunteer opportunities (qualifications, training, etc.) offered by the church. Some ways of alerting others to the needs are:

Plan a branch or parish program on church vocations and volunteer programs.

Work with the rector to find ways of reaching the young people, perhaps a specific program once a year for the church school and youth group. Ask him to include vocational opportunities for women when he preaches on the ministry.

Inform young people (High School and College) about Summer Service Projects.

Start a “Talent File” listing interests and talents of communicants which may be used for volunteer work in the church or community.

Plan a Vocational Guidance Conference or workshop (with other parishes or branches) for Jr. and Sr. H. S. students in your area.

Place recruiting materials in tract rack, using posters and brochures on bulletin board. Use parish bulletin for announcements. Supply High School Advisors with literature.

Pray that the right persons will offer themselves for the work of the church; ask that prayers for recruits be included in church, church school, programs for youth, men, and women.

In summary, we must all work to provide a climate in which young people can see challenges in church vocations—remembering that attitudes expressed in the home are more important than any other motivation.

PROMOTION

MRS. THOMAS H. COLLINS, Secretary
15 Lake Shore Drive, Chapel Hill

The Secretary of Promotion has three basic responsibilities:

1. To maintain and improve communication among members of her own Branch.
2. To interpret and report Branch news of any interest to the general public, and maintain a proper image of the Episcopal Churchwomen.
3. To serve as a liaison between Branch and Diocesan news services.

The first purpose can be attained through several means: a monthly Newsletter to ECW members, stories in the local papers announcing meetings, and/or notes in the weekly church bulletin.

The second goal can be attained by stories in the local press, radio, and television, especially where special events are concerned. Publicity may be informal, rather than stiff and stuffy so long as it remains in good taste.

The third purpose can be achieved by sending news of Branch activities of special interest to the Diocesan Secretary of Promotion. Such news will be published in the Churchman if possible (there's a deadline of a month in advance of publication), or, it is hoped by this Chairman, in some sort of Newsletter to be sent to all ECW branches.

Remember, the major goal of what is called "publicity" is communication. In all promotion, stop to think with whom you're communicating — your own members, the public, or other ECW branches in the Diocese. Next, ask yourself "What's it for?" It's necessary to assess the purpose of promotion. Keep accurate files and a scrapbook to help your successor, and call on the Diocesan Secretary if needed.

SUPPLY

MRS. NORMAN A. SIPPELL, Secretary
500 Brinn Drive, Sanford

The Supply Work of the Diocese will continue through this calendar year. This department assists in missionary needs both within and outside of the Diocese.

Specific instructions are received from the General Division of Women's Work in New York City and it is the duty of the Diocesan Secretary of Supply to see that these requests are carried out.

The Diocesan Secretary of Supply is always available in assisting the Secretaries of Branches in their needs.

BRANCHES: The Branch Secretary of Supply promotes the work of this department within her own branch and keeps her members advised constantly of the needs and accomplishments in Supply Work.

Some of the activities of the Branches have included collecting good clothing to be distributed to all suggested outlets; this clothing to be usable, clean and pressed; contributing to Thompson Orphanage in their Christmas gifts, furnishing sporting goods needs for the children, and assisting sending children to camp at Vade Mecum. There are also many overseas projects worthy of support.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. S. MALONE PARHAM, Director
2915 Meadow Lane, Henderson

The PURPOSE of the Church Periodical Club is to provide reading material for those who could not otherwise obtain it. It is the only organization of the Episcopal Church devoted solely to the ministry of the printed word.

Wherever the church is at work, in your community, in this country and overseas, the CPC sends reading material, all without charge. The money to carry on this ministry comes from gifts to the CPC National Books Fund. Requests for books come to the CPC from every continent in the world, and are filled as far as your gifts will permit.

The printed word is one of the most powerful weapons the Christian may use. It has been said, "If we did not have a Church Periodical Club, we would surely have to create one".

In our diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of the CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedure for CPC Secretaries

(1) To Promote the CPC in the Branch:

Obtain the records from your predecessor in office.

Learn the purpose of the CPC. Study the CPC Handbook.

Keep a supply of CPC literature on hand. Distribute it at every chance. Help to keep your parish library and tract rack adequately supplied.

Plan a CPC program each year. Make it simple but inclusive of all phases of the work.

Solicit your Rector's help for the CPC.

Find people and places in your community to distribute appropriate reading material to: viz.; mission churches nearby, school libraries, low income families, mental hospitals, nursing homes, jails, etc.

Keep a record of the work you do, and the money you send to the National Books Fund. This will help when you fill out your Annual Report blank.

VERY IMPORTANT: Send all checks to the Diocesan Director. (NOT to the diocesan treasurer). The Director is required to keep books on each Branch.

(2) To Promote Gifts to the National Book Fund:

Try to get the CPC in your Branch Budget each year.

Memorial Gifts. Present the idea of sending a personal check to the Books Fund as a memorial. Send check to Director, so your branch will get credit, and Director can write an acknowledgement to the family.

Coin Card. This little dime folder produces amazing results. Take some coin cards to meetings, and point out how dimes can BUY A BOOK.

Sell Magazine Subscriptions. Profit to go to the Books Fund.

Bazaars. Remember the Books Fund when the time comes to decide the disposition of your bazaar money.

Share your ideas. New ways are forever being found by individuals and groups with imagination. Write the Director about your projects to earn money for the Books Fund. Other branches will be glad to learn about them.
