PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all peoples everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of

Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

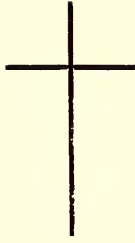

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighty-sixth Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY COMFORTER
BURLINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 7, 8, 1968

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1968

Since becoming your President I have been your official representative on a number of occasions. I have attended meetings of the Diocesan Council and addressed the Diocesan Convention. I was a member of the delegation to the Provincial Synod in Atlanta last spring and of the delegation to the Triennial Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen in Seattle in the Fall. I attended the opening of the academic year at St. Augustine's College in Raleigh and the dedication, in January, of the Chapel of the Nameless Woman at the North Carolina Correctional Center for Women, to which you had generously contributed. These were all moving and rewarding experiences. I should like to thank those branches who have invited me to their meetings, and express again my regrets at having sometimes been forced to decline. It is by my visiting the branches and convocations, not especially to give the program, that we can best get to know and learn from one another.

To those of you who attended Spring Planning Days I feel some apology is necessary as my general thoughts today are basically as I expressed them then, and may seem repetitious.

The Church, as many of us have known her and taken her for granted since childhood, is under fierce scrutiny and challenge from both outside and inside. This also applies to the "Churchwomen" as an organized part of the Church, but I do not think that we should be perturbed that we are under a particular threat as "Churchwomen." To love the Lord thy God with all thy mind (as well as heart and strength) and thy neighbor as thyself is exercising all of us on every front of life.

From ancient times the Church has embodied worship, teaching (and its counterpart, learning) and almsgiving. A familiar but less poetic description is "Worship, study and action." Each of these aspects is under direct and unavoidable challenge.

We are being challenged in our worship. The new Trial Liturgy is one example of this and it forces us to evaluate our concept of corporate worship. Can we look our neighbor in the eye and take her hand without being embarrassed to express the hope "The Peace of the Lord be always with you"? If not, why not? Does the fault lie in us, or in its phraseology, or in the place in the service, or in the resentment towards a command to express vocally at a certain moment what we are already expressing by worshipping together, or where?

Another example entails music. For years we have read, chanted or sung about praise with trumpets, cymbals, lutes, lyres, etc. But we have done this sedately to the strains of an organ. One version of "Ein' Feste Burg" says "Praise Him in dances and in sports, our God the everliving." Yet some are jolted when confronted by a Communion Service accompanied by guitar and banjo. In this exciting and swinging age, how do we worship God fully and naturally? In many and varied ways—sometimes in silence; sometimes in soaring tones of familiar melodies and sometimes with the effervescent fervour of a beat. I doubt whether Palestrina or Handel's oratorios or Beethoven's Ninth Symphony will ever cease to inspire our worship, but many can be awakened and spiritually thrilled by trumpets, cymbals and guitars. I can by bagpipes! These are a few thoughts on worship.

Has there ever been a more exciting challenge to our minds than now? The Bible is basic. Now we can read many translations when a thought seems obscure to us. We support generously the Episcopal Radio and TV Foundation through which we can hear and watch some of the greatest religious thinkers of the world. We can still study the early learned fathers of the Church, but we also have newer searches for the Truth. Christ referred to himself as "The Truth" and we cannot condemn any honest search for Him, wherever this search may lead. This is equally as valid in our attitude towards the various expressions of "New Theology" as in that towards other denominations which are more emotional. It is up to us to recognize the Truth where it lies in their uninhibited forms of worship and initially strange doctrines of holiness. Also we are beginning to understand the Roman and Orthodox traditions more fully. The branch Christian Education reports indicate that in most cases we are enjoying this challenge and are involved in deep and varied studies. Through our Secretary for College Work and Christian Ministries we are trying to become more aware of the work of our College Chaplains. This helps us understand the thinking of our own college age children and friends—we hope!

Thirdly we come to almsgiving, both financial and of our time and talents. Here we are harshly tested. We have the Presiding Bishop's call to help in the Urban Crisis and our own summons for action in this Diocese. Much is already being done by Churchwomen in their own communities and through our Diocesan Budget, the United Thank Offering, Christian Social Relations and the Church Periodical Club; helping in community houses; tutoring underprivileged children; taking part in Government sponsored programs to alleviate poverty; giving scholarships to camps and kindergartens; taking time and caring enough to bring companionship to the lonely, aged and sick; working with libraries, schools and in politics are all valid expressions of almsgiving when motivated by love of our neighbor.

In our concern about Urban Crisis we must not forget those in dire need in other countries. We are part of the Anglican Communion. The devaluation of the Pound Sterling is having a distressing effect on Famine Relief and Missionary work. Money designated by the Church of England Missionary Societies will now do only a fraction of what it would previously have achieved. What about the Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence in the Body of Christ to which we pledged ourselves at the Anglican Congress in Toronto? If we cut down on World Mission, we have much soul searching before us. The uttermost parts of the earth are the American slums, the rural poor, the poor in Tanzania, India and Colombia and those in need everywhere. Poverty can be of substance, of education, of opportunity; but it can also be of vision and compassion, and against this we must be on guard all the time.

As Churchwomen we are surrounded by programs and projects—some thrilling and challenging; many cases of quiet desperation and need which we must be sensitive to recognize. Opportunities come to us in unfamiliar forms. We shall find ourselves involved in situations and with people we have not known before. We must not be so traditionally oriented that we fail to hear God's call.

As Tennyson put on the lips of the dying King Arthur:

"The old order changeth, yielding place to new
And God fulfills himself in many ways,
Lest one good custom should currupt the world."

MRS. M. E. MOTSINGER, JR.

Diocese of North Carolina

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of The Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1967, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1967, and the related Statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1967, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

The general purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen is no different from the purpose of the Church — namely, to be the Body of Christ in the world, to worship Him and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry — ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 64.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 67.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group. The officers should correspond as nearly as possible to the Diocesan officers.

The Executive Board consists of the elected officers, committee chairmen, chapter chairmen, and any member of the Executive Council, General Division of Women's Work, Provincial Representatives, or Diocesan Executive Board who is a communicant of the parish, and the rector. The Board, under the guidance of the president, should plan, promote, direct, and evaluate the work of the Branch. Plans of the Executive Board should always be approved by the entire group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

Her minutes of the Board and Group meetings are concise records of the business transacted, including motions made, the name of the person making the motion, that it was seconded and whether carried or defeated. She should also read summaries of reports and announcements. Her responsibilities are:

1. To carry on all necessary correspondence pertaining to the group as directed by the President. (Some parish groups find it best to have both a recording and a corresponding secretary. In that case, correspondence and notices are taken care of by the Corresponding Secretary.)
2. To keep an accurate record of names and addresses of members.
3. To keep a record of the number of members present at meetings.
4. To supply Diocesan Year-Book Chairman with accurate lists of names and addresses of parish officers and chairmen, and to forward notices of changes and replacements during the year.
5. To keep copies of the Constitution and By-Laws so that she may inform the President of time to appoint special committees.
6. To keep a permanent file of minutes and documents of importance.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. GORDON WILLIAMS
103 Liberty Lane, Greensboro 27410

Christian Vocation begins with and cannot continue apart from a life of prayer.

One's theology must be equivalent to his intellectual level.

On these two ideas the Branch Secretary of Devotional Life can develop a broad program for the women in her parish. She is not called on to be—nor should she hope to be—an authority on theology or the life of prayer, but as she becomes increasingly aware of her own need to respond more willingly and more fully to her own Christian Vocation, the opportunities and possibilities of her office will become more compelling.

In cooperation with and under the direction of her rector she can work to provide stimuli for spiritual growth in her parish: relevant devotions at meetings, study groups, a school or prayer, Quiet Days, a shelf of devotional materials and books stimulating to Christians of differing intellectual levels. She should cooperate with the Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life, sharing her communications with the women in the branch and encouraging attendance at Convocation Quiet Days and Diocesan Retreats at the Terraces.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. ROBERT E. MERRITT, Secretary

832 Country Club Road, Mt. Airy 27030

In this report there are suggestions for the branch secretary of Christian Education or anyone in the parish concerned with programs and study courses for adults.

Planning the programs of study for general meetings and chapter meetings or interest groups should start with an understanding of how the study sponsored by the Churchwomen fits into the whole parish program of education. Many parishes now have a Christian Education Committee that is responsible for the parish program of education. The Secretary of Christian Education for the Episcopal Churchwomen is often a member of the committee. Consult your rector both for help in understanding the thrust of your overall parish program and for suggestions of specific study programs.

Some branches are finding interest groups a solution to some education problems. Significant learning takes place in small groups where all share a real concern for the subject they are studying. Also interest groups allow a branch to offer controversial topics which might be offensive to some members if all felt compelled to attend the same study course.

Some training in Christian Education will help you plan programs that appeal to adults and fit their educational needs. One book that can give you much help is ADULT EDUCATION PROCEDURES ($6.00 or $2.45 paperback from the Seabury Bookstore, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017).

A monthly magazine that has excellent helps for adult education and exciting articles about what parishes are doing is Christian Education FINDINGS ($2.00 a year, order from the Seabury Press, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017).

The resources listed below are brief in order to fit into the Yearbook. A more complete bibliography will go out to all branches in August or September when the list of new officers is available. If anyone would like suggestions on a particular topic, I would be happy to share the materials that I have found.

A DIRECTORY OF RESOURCES FOR ADULTS ($1.00 from the Seabury Bookstore, address above) contains some 500 resources listed under the topics: The Bible, The Church's History, Our Faith, The Church's Worship, The Church's Work, Living As Christians.

There are three pressing issues confronting us as Christians in today's world: theological freedom, ecumenical relations, and the present crisis in our American Communities which can be termed the American crisis, the urban crisis, the problem of the dispossessed or the racial crisis.

THEOLOGICAL FREEDOM

The one resource that I have found concerning theological freedom is THEOLOGICAL FREEDOM AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY, REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ($2.95 from the Seabury Bookstore). Part I of the book seeks to answer the critical questions raised by theological discussion and social criticism. Part II consists of papers written by ten of the advisors in response to these questions.

ECUMENICAL RELATIONS

ECUMENICAL ENCOUNTERS ($0.95 from the Seabury Bookstore) contains background information on action taken toward Church reunion prior to the Consultation on Church Union.

CONSULTATION ON CHURCH UNION 1967, PRINCIPLES OF CHURCH UNION, GUIDELINES FOR STRUCTURE, AND A STUDY GUIDE ($0.25 from Forward Movement Publication, 422 Sycamore Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202)—contains general information about COCU and study suggestions.

ALL IN EACH PLACE ($0.25 from Forward Movement Publications) is a general study guide on ecumenism that has been used effectively in inter-parish groups.

CHURCH UNION IN FOCUS (The United Church Book Store, 1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.) is useful in considering the issues raised by COCU and provides considerable help for leaders as they plan study sessions.

LIVING ROOM DIALOGUES and SECOND LIVING ROOM DIALOGUES ($1.00 each from the Department of Publication Services, National Council of Churches, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. 10027) are guides for inter-denominational study groups. The first was used successfully in many communities and the second one promises to be a very useful sequel.

A FOUNDATION FOR DIALOGUE is a set of two color filmstrips with guide, script and record. We hope to have this available for $1.00 rental from the Diocesan Library of Filmstrips, National School and Industrial Corporation, 14-20 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27602. This should be an extremely useful filmstrip providing sound background in ecumenical relations.

CRISIS IN AMERICAN LIFE

WEALTH AND WANT IN ONE WORLD ($1.95 from the Seabury Bookstore), NEED IS OUR NEIGHBOR ($1.75 from the Seabury Bookstore) and STUDY ACTION MANUAL ON AFFLUENCE AND POVERTY ($1.25 from the Seabury Bookstore) were published by Friendship Press as part of the mission study theme recently. They provide material and a guide for studying the problem of the co-existence of affluence and poverty in one world.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMISSION ON CIVIL DISORDERS (Bantam Books paperback: $1.25 from bookstores and news stands) is "must" reading for any serious consideration of the crisis. The summary of the report as printed in the New York Times plus the report of the Governor's Commission on Civil Disorders as summarized by the Newark Sunday News are contained in a booklet entitled CIVIL DISORDERS, U. S. A., REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS, distributed by Church in Metropolis, Joint Strategy and Action Committee, Room 552, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. 10027 at the rate of 8 for $1.00 and 50 for $6.00.

RIOTS U. S. A., 1765-1965 ($3.95 from the Seabury Bookstore) is a readable comprehensive historical treatment of mob violence in this country, giving a new perspective for understanding today's climate of violence.

THE CRISIS OF CULTURAL CHANGE ($1.65 paperback from the Seabury Bookstore) invites the reader to an appreciative participation in the world evolving in our midst. The opening statement in the Preface reads: "Although Christians in every age must struggle to recognize and respond imaginatively to the power of God in the world, we are called today to exercise this ministry amidst the fastest, deepest, and most extensive cultural change the world has known."

CITIZEN POWER AND SOCIAL CHANGE, THE CHALLENGE TO THE CHURCHES ($2.00 paperback from the Seabury Bookstore) is a readable and timely book that discusses the role and activity of local churches and their members in working with citizen organizations for social change.

THE EDGE OF THE GHETTO, A STUDY OF CHURCH INVOLVEMENT IN COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION ($2.25 paperback from the Seabury Bookstore) is a careful study in depth based on a detailed investigation of the interaction of six Roman Catholic and Protestant local churches and a mass community organization in an area of racial change in southwest Chicago during the six-year period 1959-1965.

P IS FOR POVERTY is a filmstrip and record which we hope to have available for $1.00 rental from National School and Industrial Corporation, 14-20 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27602.

CITIES, U. S. A. (available at $1.00 rental from National School and Industrial Corporation, address above) is a filmstrip with guide, script and record which gives a clear picture of how crucial urban problems are and of their implications for all of us.

THE CHANGING CITY (16 mm., color, 16 minute motion picture, available from the North Carolina Adult Film Project through your Public Library) emphasizes the need for planning in areas where city and suburbs meet other cities in forming a megalopolis.

CHALLENGE OF URBAN RENEWAL (16 mm., color, 28 minute motion picture, available through your Public Library) is designed to encourage support for urban renewal programs.

WALK IN MY SHOES (16 mm., black & white, 54 minute motion picture, available through your Public Library) presents a wide variety of Negro attitudes and feelings towards current racial problems and their solutions.

CRISIS IN NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITIES

SOUTHERN POLITICS ($2.95 Vintage Books paperback, available at bookstores and newsstands) and THE MIND OF THE SOUTH ($1.65 Vintage Books paperback) are two background books helpful in considering the crisis of communities in this part of the nation.

THE ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY ACT OF 1964 (16 mm., black & white, 26 minute motion picture, available through your Public Library or North Carolina Fund Film Library, P. O. Box 687, Durham, N. C. 27702) uses animation and still photographs to describe in lay language the provisions and promise of the Economic Opportunity Act, especially the concept of community action.

THE FIRST 100 (16 mm., black & white, 28 minute motion picture, available from N. C. Fund Film Library and through your Public Library) shows the variety and extent of volunteer services provided in seven N. C. communities by the first 100 college students who were in the N. C. Volunteers summer program.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FUND: A NEW SOURCE OF HOPE FOR THE PEOPLE OF POVERTY (16 mm., black & white, 20 minute motion picture, available from the N. C. Fund Film Library and through your Public Library) uses still pictures to tell how and why the N. C. Fund was established, what the Fund's goals are, and how local communities have become involved in N. C.'s anti-poverty effort.

QUESTIONS (16 mm., black & white, 18 minute motion picture available from the N. C. Fund Film Library and through your Public Library) shows the activities of N. C. Fund-sponsored community action program in Craven County and refutes popular misconceptions about anti-poverty efforts by showing the benefits of on-going programs.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. DON P. BLANTON

Country Club Dr., Lexington 27292

Christian Social Relations is that part of a Christian's life that shows where his heart really lies. It is also the area that shows where the heart of the parish lies.

We have been marked with the sign of the Cross. Whatever we do in life is a reflection on that sign and a witness of our belief. It may be a good witness or a poor one. It all depends on where our hearts really are. Do we try to love the Lord with all our hearts, minds and souls, and our neighbors as ourselves? Do we want to follow the unselfish ways of our Master, believing that the last shall be first, and that in losing our lives, we shall find them? Most of us want this very much; unfortunately, this is not a condition at which we can arrive once and maintain permanently. We must be constantly renewing our commitment to these beliefs. No one can do this for us. The burden of responsibility is on each one of us. We can choose or refuse to work at being a Christian. God gives us the freedom to make that choice. He gives us the freedom to look for His image in each individual we encounter no matter how despicable he may be. For surely Christ will not be recognized in us until we can see Him in others.

At this time in the history of the world we seem to be admonished to either live together as brothers and children of God or to die by ourselves. Some of us will be unable to make the necessary commitment and will fall by the wayside as seeds in shallow soil. Some, however, will be able to quicken the spirit within them and grow in strength. The signs of the times seem to be saying to Christians, either get in or get out!

The times seem also to be saying, let the love of God show forth in our actions—for He has no other hands than ours. This is the hour of rededication. The time, hopefully, when most of us will be able to say "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

I. Some suggestions on how to become involved in meeting the needs of the community:

1. Form an ecumenical council of ministers and lay people. Include churches from the poverty areas. Discussion within this group can bring out the unmet needs of the community. Together you can find solutions. Remember that the poor are more aware of their problems than we are. They also want to have a share in solving them.
2. Towns that have Church Women United could use this organization for study and action.
3. Call on the director of your community action agency (this vehicle of the Office of Economic Opportunity sometimes is known by other names. Find out what projects are already in effect and how your parish can help with these or new ones.
4. Make an appointment with the superintendent of your school system and find out how you and your parish can help with the problems in education.
5. Check with the directors of Public Health & Welfare. They can suggest unmet needs to you.
6. Talk with your mayor and city and county commissioners.
7. The director of your Recreation Department will have suggestions.

8. The United Fund Agencies might have helpful information.
9. Acquaint yourself with the activities of the North Carolina Fund. The latter can suggest resource people who can tell you about all kinds of problems.

MISSIONS

MRS. STERLING A. STOUDEMIRE, Secretary
712 Gimghoul Road, Chapel Hill 27514

The purpose of this department is to encourage active participation by our Churchwomen in the mission of the Church, by:

1. Praying daily, mentioning each one of our missionaries by name. Use the prayer manual "Far and Near".

2. Try to have at least one mission program a year for your Branch meeting. Give news of where the missionaries are and what they are doing. Have a map of the world, and show where they are located.

3. Write to the missionaries, especially at Christmas, Easter, and on their birthdays, giving news of the Diocese.

4. You will receive information regarding top priority projects endorsed by the Diocesan Department of World Missions. Please add to this information by learning all you can about the chosen areas and their peoples. Keep your Clergy and Vestry as well as the women of your Branch up-to-date on World Mission.

5. Try to see that your Branch budget is divided 50% inside the parish, and 50% outside. Try to give to Missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the money can be sent out "in force" through recommended projects that have been given first priority.

6. The missionary Christmas gift is an extra and is to be sent by November 15th to and made payable to Mrs. Sterling A. Stoudemire, Secretary, 712 Gimghoul Road, Chapel Hill, N. C. 27514, who sends the total amount from all the Branches to the Diocesan Treasurer. The total of all the money collected is divided equally among all the active and retired missionaries listed on the assignment sheet. Please be sure the Branch Treasurer knows she is to send the check to the Secretary of Missions and not to the Diocesan Treasurer.

7. Send all other monetary gifts for missionaries or missions, domestic or overseas, directly from the Branch to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Treasurer made payable to her with instructions as to allocation of said checks. If it is going overseas, please enclose the amount of postage needed.

8. By action of the Annual Meeting, our Epiphany Offering is for Jocelyn Gordon. Please publicize the Epiphany Offering and see that it is sent to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Treasurer.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. WALTER W. BURBANK, Treasurer

545 Winfield Blvd., S.E., Concord, N. C. 28025

The United Thank Offering has grown from $82.71 in 1886 to $4,917,772.93 in 1967. With this increase in money the usefulness of this offering to the Church has grown with it. Over half of the missionary work of the whole Episcopal Church is made possible by this offering, and it will continue to play a vital part in our Church's future.

The women of this diocese have offered their praise and thanks to God in a very tangible way. $27,404.51 has been given by them this year. Then, at the United Thank Offering Service at the Triennial in Seattle, I had the great privilege of placing in the golden Alm Basin a certificate for $92,155.63 which was given by you through your Ingatherings for the Triennium 1964-67—an increase of $7,000.00 over the past Triennium.

Let's remember that a coin dropped with a prayer into a United Thank Offering Box becomes a "miraculous thing" and it can go places and do things that we by ourselves are unable to do.

(Report prepared by Mrs. Oliver Roddey, outgoing U. T. O. Treasurer.)

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer

BRANCH:

1. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U.T.O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. Order your Blue Boxes and envelopes from the Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.
2. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day, and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.
3. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.
4. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCATION TREASURER:

Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U.T.O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation Chairmen with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y., for the total amount.
2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.
3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.
4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed. Send report to Diocesan Treasurer.
5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.
6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the Offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

Diocesan Alms Basin

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Philip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U.T.O. Custodians collected cherished mementos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, Secretary
3444 Rugby Road, Durham, N. C. 27707

COLLEGE WORK is the attempt to help students, faculty, and others on campus continue to BE the church where they are. It depends upon the efforts of many . . . the chaplains (our diocese has 7 full-time) who provide the Word and the Sacraments, teach, counsel, the parish churches which express interest and support in a number of ways (many parish priests are part-time chaplains) and of course, every Christian whose prayerful concern provides for the extension of this serving ministry.

How to Start as Branch Chairman—

1. Get the file of your predecessor and talk with her.
2. Get the names of young people from your parish who will be going away to school in the fall (use bulletin or newsletter to request this information if not available from church office.)
3. Send one Card of Commendation per student (going away) to the chaplain or parish priest in the academic community. Often this is the only way they know the student is on campus. Complete cards carefully, including comments. You may order cards (free) from The Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Ave., N. Y. C. 10017.

It's important that you evaluate the needs of your area since so many factors enter the picture . . . size of parish, number of students away, location (in, near or far from an academic community). Talk with your rector, parents, chaplain and faculty members (if near a campus) . . . any interested person to discover needs and set goals. When you come up with good ideas, see how they work out, then share so we can list them in next year's yearbook to help someone else. Patterns of college work are changing (as are most patterns) to meet new challenges. This calls for imaginative and flexible planning. There are many ways, specific and general, that we can be a part of college work, no doubt many that your branch or parish uses. Consider all the possibilities and decide which are best in your situation.

Remember students, teachers, chaplains, college workers in prayers, corporate and individual.

Keep in touch with students . . . by personal letters, cards at special times, church bulletins, newsletters, devotional materials, subscription to The Church Review.

Plan a corporate communion breakfast for students before they leave in the fall and when they return for the Christmas holidays.

Plan "So You're Going to College" sessions for High School students after graduation, asking rector to write letter of congratulations to graduates enclosing pamphlet "So You're Going To College".

Include a college work item in parish budget (funds continue to be needed for Program—see April letter for items included in Program—and for scholarships for local students to attend camps, conferences, summer work projects).

Support the Church Society for College Work in its pioneering program (membership $10 yr. to receive all publications, student memberships begin at $1) 2 Brewer St., Cambridge, Mass.

Welcome students back into full parish life when they return.

Parishes in Academic Communities have additional opportunities to—Welcome all students and faculty to the parish fellowship—greeting them at services, inviting them to share in worship, choir, church school, social functions, etc. (some parishes make up a sheet listing all functions to give students).

Invite students into homes, remembering to include foreign students . . . perhaps “adopt” a student.

Talk with chaplain or priest serving the schools, offer assistance, learn of needs (ask for names of married students so that couples may visit them).

Assist the student group, or if none exists, help to organize.

Have an “Open House” at the parish house, student center, rectory, or at a faculty home near campus.

Assist in providing funds for vocational and other conferences, books, special programs and chaplain’s discretionary fund.

As Branch Chairman you’ll want to keep the church’s mission to the campus before the churchwomen and the parish, particularly the opportunities within the diocese. Planning a special college work program for the branch (or better, for the parish) is one way. Another year-round way is to display college work materials . . . posters, pamphlets etc. and to use the tract track.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES is the name given to the total ministry of all Christians . . . lay, ordained, and special. Traditionally the special concern of ECW has been the recruiting of women for full-time work. This continues to be an important responsibility but now we stress opportunities for men, women and young people in unified parishes. The purpose of Christian Ministries is to make these opportunities for full or part-time church work known.

As Branch Chairman you should be informed on types of professional and volunteer opportunities (qualifications, training, etc.) offered by the church. Some ways of alerting others to the needs are:

Plan a branch or parish program on church vocations and volunteer programs.

Work with the rector to find ways of reaching the young people, perhaps a specific program once a year for the church school and youth group. Ask him to include vocational opportunities for women when he preaches on the ministry.

Inform young people (High School and College) about Summer Service Projects.

Start a “Talent File” listing interests and talents of communicants which may be used for volunteer work in the church or community.

Plan a Vocational Guidance Conference or workshop (with other parishes or branches) for Jr. and Sr. H. S. students in your area.

Place recruiting materials in tract rack, using posters and brochures on bulletin board. Use parish bulletin for announcements. Supply High School Advisors with literature.

Pray that the right persons will offer themselves for the work of the church; ask that prayers for recruits be included in church, church school, programs for youth, men, and women.

In summary, we must all work to provide a climate in which young people can see challenges in church vocations—remembering that attitudes expressed in the home are more important than any other motivation.

PROMOTION

MRS. THOMAS H. COLLINS, Secretary
15 Lake Shore Drive, Chapel Hill 27514

The Branch Secretary of Promotion has three basic duties:

1. To keep members of her own Branch informed. This may be done through a monthly ECW Newsletter, stories in the local newspapers, announcements on the local radio station, and items in the weekly church bulletin.

2. To interpret and report Branch news of any interest to the general public through the press, radio, and TV, and maintain a positive image of the Episcopal Churchwomen.

3. To serve as a liaison between Branch and Diocesan news services, send stories to the Diocesan Secretary of Promotion for use in the North Carolina Churchman, or for distribution throughout public media in the Diocese. (The Churchman deadline is a month in advance of publication—this is, in order to have a story printed in the September Churchman, please send it to me by August 1).

Suggestions:

Keep a record. A good Press Book should include clippings of ECW stories which are printed, plus a list of deadlines and requirements for the guidance of your successor. Keep sample scripts of radio and television announcements or programs featuring Churchwomen and their activities.

Capitalize on local stories. Send your local paper a short story on women in your church who will be attending annual meeting or convocations. Promote special events in your parish.

Please call on me, your diocesan secretary, as often as you'd like.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. E. H. DUDLEY, Director
3638 Park Road, Charlotte 28209

The PURPOSE of the Church Periodical Club is to provide reading material for those who could not otherwise obtain it all over the world, in missions, hospitals, seminaries, schools, and colleges, to the clergy, teachers, lay workers, and missionaries. It is the only organization of the Episcopal Church devoted solely to the ministry of the printed word.

Wherever the church is at work, in your community, in this country and overseas, the CPC sends reading material, ALL WITHOUT CHARGE. The money to carry on this ministry comes from gifts to the CPC National Books Fund. Requests for books come to the CPC from every continent in the world, and are filled AS FAR AS YOUR GIFTS WILL PERMIT.

In our diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedure for CPC Secretaries

(1) To Promote CPC in Your Branch:

Obtain all records and literature from your predecessor in office.
Study the CPC Handbook in order to familiarize yourself with CPC work and purpose. If you do not have a copy write the Director immediately.
Study directions in the 1968-69 Handbook for the Episcopal Churchwomen.
Inform and enlist the cooperation of your clergy.
Promote The Episcopalian and The Living Church in your parish.
Keep a supply of CPC literature on hand. Distribute it at every opportunity.
Help to keep your parish library and tract rack adequately supplied.
Observe CPC Sunday, (Usually the first Sunday in October) in your Parish if agreeable with your rector. CPC Folders and CPC Offering Envelopes are available through the Director or National Office.

Present a CPC program in your Branch each year. Make it simple, but inclusive of all phases of work. Emphasize the purpose: "To provide reading material for those who could not otherwise obtain it."

Use the CPC Prayer at chapter and parish meetings.

Make brief announcements about CPC in your chapter meetings. Report current CPC news at every opportunity. Stimulate interest by sending paper-backs to our men in Vietnam.

Find people and places in your community to minister to. Suggestions:

Pass on Church School and adult study material to mission Churches near you.

Distribute regularly any reading material to mental or other institutions (Hospitals, jails, rest homes, etc.) which is acceptable to them.

Distribute recent magazines to school libraries where there is usually a need.

Take magazines to shut-ins or to families who do not subscribe.

Solicit help from the Episcopal Young Churchmen in distributing the above material. The whole parish should be aware of the work of the CPC.

Keep an accurate record of the CPC work done in your parish, and the contributions made to the National Books Fund. This will help tremendously in filling out your Annual CPC Report blank in January.

IMPORTANT: Send all CPC contributions to Diocesan Director. DO NOT remit to diocesan treasurer. An individual file card is kept for each branch. You will aid in being accurate if you will remember to (a) send contributions directly to the Director, (b) send contribution by check only, and (c) transmit with letter noting source of contribution.

(2) To Promote Gifts to the National Books Fund:

Make every effort to see that the Books Fund is included in branch budget each year. People are interested in where their money goes.

CPC SUNDAY. (1st Sunday in October) Some parishes contribute their offering to CPC National Books Fund. Others use the CPC Offering Envelopes. Don't forget to use your CPC Prayer.

Coin Card. This little "gimmick" produces amazing results for the Books Fund. Take a Coin Card to meetings, and point out how dimes can BUY A BOOK.

Memorial Gifts. Present to Churchwomen the idea of sending a personal check to the Books Fund in memory of their friends and loved ones. By sending the check to the Director, your Branch will get credit for it. She in turn will write an acknowledgment to the family.

Silver Offering. One parish has chosen this very simple and effective manner of increasing their Books Fund contribution. A silver offering can be made at the chapter meetings or a CPC tea can be given.

Half-Price Sale. Members may be asked to bring one-month-old magazines to Chapter meetings for half-price selling to each other. Older ones can be taken to the local institutions. Save the money for the Books Fund!

Paper Drive. Many organizations find these projects profitable to raise funds for a good cause. A successful paper drive could bring in money for the Books Fund.

Bazaar. In disposing of your Bazaar monies, remember the Books Fund!

Book Fair. Episcopal Churchwomen could clean their attics, basements and book shelves in order to donate their books for a Book Fair. Make it festive by serving a cup of coffee. Another way to contribute to the Books Fund!

Share Your Ideas. New ways are forever being found by individuals and groups with imagination. Write the Director of your new projects to earn money for the Books Fund. Other branches will be glad to hear about them.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all peoples everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of

Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighty-seventh Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS
HENDERSON, NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 6, 7, 1969

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1969

Instead of listing my "official acts" as your President during the past year, I should like to think back with you over several occasions on which I have represented you and try to take you with me in imagination. It is impossible to say that a particular event has meant more to me than any other. Each has its individual significance. Every moment I am aware that I stand purely as a symbol of this diverse yet deeply unified group known as the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. You are there with me wherever I may be.

In the spring I went to the Provincial Synod at Sewanee. I met with the Presidents of the other dioceses of the Fourth Province and listened to their experiences and experiments in structure changes, social involvement, study and worship and to the relationships between the various Dioceses and their Churchwomen. Always with me was the sense of the special character of North Carolina, with its diversity and flexibility. Few dioceses have our diversity and, although differences sometimes seem like difficulties, they are a source of great strength. We have Churches of varying sizes in fairly large cities where the mainstream of communicants is involved in industry, commerce and the professions. Other churches are academically oriented and others serve those of us who still feel that there is a life of fulfillment on the land. Some branches are wealthy. Others are caught up in the poverty of overcrowded urban areas or in the equally perplexing problems of rural depopulation. Some branches are black, some are white, some are mixed. As I listened to the other Diocesan Presidents, I would find myself identifying first with one group in my own diocese, then another; sometimes with the activists and at other times with those whose religious experience and expression is more contemplative and less obvious. I felt grateful for our diversity and for the spirit of independence and of interdependence which prevails among us.

I was assigned to a group considering the unemployed and underemployed. This was led by Dr. William Pollard, priest, nuclear physicist and author from Oak Ridge, Tennessee. I learned of the co-operation between industry, the university and the government in experimental on the job training, supplemented by theoretical training in the Oak Ridge area, and came home to find that many Churchwomen are involved here in trying to help overcome this great problem of adequate employment. We are less spectacular, but are involved as individuals and as groups all over the diocese in furthering education and training for all ages.

A completely different and awe-inspiring experience was to carry the wine in the offertory procession at the Diocesan service of Ordination. Walking with the President of the Laymen of the Diocese, I knew that, quite apart from my own offering and rededication, this was a symbol for all the Churchwomen and a pledge of our support of the new clergy and our continued support and appreciation of those by whom we had already been led.

In the Fall I went to Atlanta to represent you at an area meeting on the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Here we were reminded among other things, of the terrible problems of refugees in so many parts of the world—displaced Arabs from Israel; Pakistanis and Indians caught up in border unrest; refugees to both east and west from the Communist countries, not to mention the homeless and displaced in Viet Nam. We were reminded of second generation refugees who have never had a home except a refugee camp. This country, in more simple days, could say with open arms "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free" but in the complexity of today's world, the "homeless, tempest-tossed" need passports, sponsors and visas. Churchwomen have been much involved in this, especially in helping with the resettlement of refugees from Cuba. Although in North Carolina few of us have had any opportunity to offer personal relocation, we have helped with our money, our prayers and our understanding. I have sometimes been asked by branches whether they should give special gifts to those organizations or people who are included in our Diocesan Churchwomen's budget. This has been asked specifically several times about the Presiding Bishop's Fund. The answer is that the need is growing in almost geometric progression. It can never be fully met and we can never give too much. Two study books, "Twice in a Lifetime" about the Middle East and the "Resource Guide on World Hunger" are easily available to branches wanting to study this tragedy more deeply. Our Diocesan Director of Material Aid, Mrs. Norman Sippell, can help you obtain them.

To continue in this detail would be impossible. To sit at the gracious invitation of the President and faculty of Saint Augustine's College as a platform guest is a joy of a special kind which makes me acutely grateful that you have entrusted me with your Presidency. Here I am aware of your concern and support of our college students who are questioning life so penetratingly today. Here we pray for wisdom together. To learn what "Child Care Services" really entail at a meeting of the Board of Managers of Thompson Orphanage enables me to pass on to you a glimpse of the lives of these children for whom we do care. To represent you at the ground breaking for the new wing of the Penick Memorial Home, brought another opportunity to show your affection for our friends who live there and who extend to all of us such warm hospitality.

Through the meetings of the Diocesan Council and the Finance Committee, of which I am a member, and also through our Diocesan Churchwomen's Board and Committee meetings, I learn of the fullness of our life together—the joy when a new Church is completed or when a branch becomes deeply involved in a Community House, or in a tutoring program, or in feeding hungry children or in truly identifying with a foreign mission field in a spiritual and a practical way. Perhaps more than anything else has come the realization that we can at times become polarized in our opinions to a degree which would destroy most secular organizations, but through the grace of God and because we are united solely on the basis of our common faith and commitment to Christ and His Church, we grow as individuals, maybe divided in our specific ideas, but united in His love, living under the Commandment to "Love one another". This is to me the essence of the Churchwomen.

There are one or two details of our work during the past year which I feel I must mention. Acting on a mandate from the reaction sheets to previous Spring Planning Days, this year, instead of specific workshops, our Christian Education Secretary, Mrs. Merritt, supported by the Diocesan Director of Program, the Rev. William Hethcock and the Board of the Churchwomen, led a series of convocational meetings in which we were urged to look at the whole picture of our local structure, consider our basic aims as committed Christians and then try to crystalize our findings so as to be able to implement our commitment in whatever way was most feasible in our immediate situations. This type of approach can, of course, have no quick overall answer to the question "What should the Churchwomen be doing?". It is a catalytic approach to free our spirits and thoughts so that we can analyze our own branches without departmental restriction. This, however, did leave a gap for some people who are incoming branch officers and feel a need for more specific data. To meet this need we are setting aside time at the Vade Mecum Conference for program discussion and informal departmental workshops.

Your packets contain reports from the various Diocesan officers. Please take time to read these and pass them on to the appropriate women in your branch. You may, or may not still have a corresponding officer, but from the reports your branch can get a condensed idea of what the Diocesan Churchwomen find important and have been doing.

I purposely did not send out "report blanks" to branches this year, but asked for and received several very helpful informal reports on projects, studies and changes in chapter emphasis and internal structure. Sometimes we feel disenchanted, but the very last letter I received said "New life seems to have come into our branch as our attendance has just about doubled and those attending seem truly interested in what is going on". This is from a large Church in a busy area where there are many claims on a woman's time.

In closing I would say that the greatest thrill to me as your President is when you invite me to your branches. I have much regretted the occasions on which I have had to decline. I like to come just to be with you, not necessarily to give a program and I definitely want no "V.I.P." treatment. Coming from a branch with a total of 13 members, active and semi-active, no group is too small, and there is much that I can learn from a large group.

REPORT OF COURTESY COMMITTEE

We have much to be thankful for today. We have been blessed by beautiful weather. The Rev. Bob Davis and the Episcopal Churchwomen of Holy Innocents have given us an especially warm and cordial welcome. We have enjoyed the beauty of this lovely old church.

Mary Lou Parham and her committee have meticulously planned every detail for a smoothly run meeting, and for our comfort. We are grateful, too, to the Churchwomen from St. Stephen's, and to Mrs. Zollicoffer, the president of Holy Innocents Branch.

We extend our thanks to our gracious and charming president for a well planned and well dispatched meeting, to our hard working executive board, to Mrs. Ewell for sharing her experiences with us and giving us a glimpse at what could happen, to our Bishops for taking time out from their busy schedules for this brief interlude with us, and to our clergy guests who have made our meeting so meaningful by their presence.

"Thank You" sounds pretty inadequate; but, until some better phrase is found, to everyone who helped make this meeting one to remember, from the bottom of our hearts, we thank you.

MRS. P. B. SMITH, Chairman
MRS. C. I. MARTIN
MRS. W. A. KITCHIN

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of The Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1968, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1968, and the related statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1968, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry — ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 62.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 65.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE
MRS. GORDON WILLIAMS
103 Liberty Lane, Greensboro 27410

At the 1969 Spring Planning Days the Churchwomen all expressed an urgent desire for more Peace, Serenity and enthusiasm. They wanted more quiet reflection and a positive "listening" to God. What better way can we find these than by active participation in our own church activities and worship services, and by attending the Quiet Days and Retreats offered to us by the Diocese. This year the Quiet Days will be on Oct. 8 and The Fall Retreat will be held at The Terraces Oct. 21-23, 1969.

Following is a list of suggestions for Devotional Life Secretaries and a list of Readings:

SUGGESTIONS FOR DEVOTIONAL LIFE
SECRETARIES

 2. Plan devotions for general and executive board meetings
 3. Work with chapter devotional life leaders on chapter devotions
 4. Cooperate with Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life
 - a. Pass on information
 - b. Offer suggestions to her
 5. Learn enough about Convocation Quiet Days and Diocesan Retreats to interpret them to your group—urge attendance
 - B. Further opportunities—Be alert to spiritual needs
 1. Suggest and help plan for Corporate Communion for special days and groups.
 2. Suggest and help plan for Quiet Days and Schools of Prayer on Parish level.
 3. Be prepared to help form Prayer Groups and Bible Study Groups if they are desired.
 4. If one is needed, help to assemble a bookshelf and tract rack of devotional material. Keep up to date on materials. Reading is essential to spiritual growth.
 5. Encourage the habit of private devotions and family prayer.
 6. Try to reach women not reached through regular meetings of Churchwomen.
 7. Plan with other denominations for World Day of Prayer and other activities.
- II. Techniques in preparing and leading devotions
 - A. Allow plenty of time to prepare a service: One prayer thoughtfully prepared can be more vital than a fifteen minute book review.
 - B. Start with silent prayer. Remember that in all our prayers we seek first of all to be still in God's presence. This silence could be preceded by a line from a Psalm or by one of the Opening Sentences from Morning or Evening Prayer.

- C. In general, remember the classic aspects of prayer: Adoration and Praise; Confession and Absolution, Thanksgiving, Intercession and Petition, Listening and Dedication.
- D. Do not become stereotyped. Remember that the material and methods to be used are limited only by your imagination. Use records and poetry.
- E. Do not be afraid to use informality or contemporary language. Find a prayer and paraphrase to suit your needs.
- F. When leading, pray thoughtfully and slowly—pause between prayers.
- G. Keep services and prayers pertinent; consider subject of program; be flexible and don't plan too rigidly in advance.
- H. Devotions can be anywhere during the meeting.
- I. Enlist attention and group participation by means of litanies, prayers in unison, and by having others to take the service or to assist.
- J. When a clergyman is present, ask him to pronounce the benediction. Otherwise, change the wording from direct to indirect: "May the Lord bless us" rather than "bless you".

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. ROBERT E. MERRITT, Secretary
832 Country Club Road, Mt. Airy 27030

In this report there are suggestions for the branch secretary of Christian Education or anyone in the parish concerned with programs and study courses for adults.

Planning the programs of study for general meetings and chapter meetings or interest groups should start with an understanding of how the study sponsored by the Churchwomen fits into the whole parish program of education. Many parishes now have a Christian Education Committee that is responsible for the parish program of education. The Secretary of Christian Education of the Churchwomen is often a member of the committee. Consult your rector both for help in understanding the thrust of your overall parish program and for suggestions of specific study programs.

Some branches are finding interest groups a solution to some education problems. Significant learning takes place in small groups where all share a real concern for the subject they are studying. Also interest groups allow a branch to offer controversial topics which might be offensive to some members if all felt compelled to attend the same study course.

As you work on the programs and study courses in your parish, you will find that taking a little extra time at the beginning before you actually consider program material will pay off both for you and your group. Train yourself a little by skimming ADULT EDUCATION PROCEDURES ($2.45 paperback from the Seabury Bookstore, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017). Inspire yourself with new enthusiasm and lots of ideas by leafing through FINDINGS magazine. Your rector may have a file of back issues to share with you. Subscribe for yourself at $2.00 a year, Seabury Press, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017.

If you do not gain some general learning about adult education from FINDINGS, ADULT EDUCATION PROCEDURES, or some other source, you will find that specific suggestions for programs are not so helpful because the difficulty does not lie in finding program material but in selecting it and putting it to use in your particular situation. A successful adult education program does not depend so much on knowing lots of possible programs as it depends on understanding what you are trying to do. The most enthusiastic reports I hear are coming from parishes where they are not just looking for good program material but are thinking over the purpose of their study and trying out new ways to work together toward better Christian education.

Each parish has its own needs and its own special strengths and interests. Each group within a parish is also different. Rather than to try listing countless program possibilities as I have done before, I will instead name several sources of material that you can order for yourself. They are probably in your church office already. If not, you might put them there for others to use.

First, FINDINGS magazine: each issue of FINDINGS has several pages of resources for adult education in addition to articles describing especially successful programs in different parishes. A file of back issues of FINDINGS magazine will provide some training for you in what Christian education is all about and will give you numerous ideas.

If you want to spark a lively discussion or get your group involved in thinking together, you might try filmstrips, films or tapes. Our Diocese owns many filmstrips. They are available from National Film Service, 14-20 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27602 at a $2.00 rental fee. If your church office does not have a list of these films, you may write to the National Film Service and request a list. There are three recently acquired filmstrips of special current interest, as follows:

CHRISTIAN WOMEN IN TODAY'S WORLD is a kit of two filmstrips with records designed "to help Christian women better understand themselves and thier role in today's world and discover ways they can find fulfillment through the fellowship of the church."

CITIES, U.S.A. is a filmstrip with guide, script and record which gives a clear picture of how crucial urban problems are and of their implications for all of us.

THE RACE BEFORE US is a filmstrip and record which attempts to make the following points:

1. We live in a world of change, confusion, and conflict and we must learn to understand that world if we are to fulfill our mission effectively within it.
2. Even as planning is important in all aspects of life, so planning responsibly and continually is especially important for us as the church if we are to be faithful partners with God.

A catalogue which lists films and other audio-visuals, describes and evaluates them for you, is available from Mass Media Ministries, 2116 North Charles Street, Baltimore, Md. 21218.

Your public library has hundreds of films available for the minimal cost of mailing from Chapel Hill. It will give you an idea of the quality and range of films in this collection to know that, in addition to such well-known films as PARABLE and THE ADVENTURES OF AN ASTERISK, the following are among those available:

AND THERE WAS LIGHT, 1966, 33 minutes, color; a visual history of the Bible utilizing 265 of the world's great religious works of art.

BEYOND THESE HILLS, 1967, 13 minutes, black and white; community action is demonstrated by the people of Avery County, N. C., in the opening of a new waterworks system. The occasion brings a discussion between the evangelist Dr. Billy Graham and the Office of Economic Opportunity's Sargent Shriver as to bases for community action.

THE DETACHED AMERICANS, 1964, 33 minutes, black and white; an examination of the problem of apathy in the contemporary American's relationship with his fellowman. Film based on a dramatization of the events surrounding a murder in Philadelphia where 38 neighbors watched—no one interfering or calling the police. Some social factors that are analyzed in an attempt to explain this detachment are job specialization, breakdown of family communications, urbanization, false standards in education, preoccupation with the acquisition of property, etc. A discussion film.

There is a large listing of program materials from Seabury Press entitled A DIRECTORY OF RESOURCES FOR ADULTS ($1.00 from The Seabury Bookstore, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017). When you order it, ask also for current catalogues or listings that will help you plan adult study courses.

For some other listings and suggestions, check my reports in the Year Book 1967-1968 and 1968-1969. You will also find many suggestions for program material in the reports of the other officers in the Year Book.

Feel free to write or call me, 919-786-5339.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. JAMES E. DAVIS, Secretary
7 Beverly Drive, Durham 27707

Christian Social Relations is that part of a Christian's life that shows where his heart really lies. It is also the area that shows where the heart of the parish lies.

We have been marked with the sign of the Cross. Whatever we do in life is a reflection on that sign and a witness of our belief. It may be a good witness or a poor one. It all depends on where our hearts really are. Do we try to love the Lord with all our hearts, minds and souls, and our neighbors as ourselves? Do we want to follow the unselfish ways of our Master, believing that the last shall be first, and that in losing our lives, we shall find them? Most of us want this very much; unfortunately, this is not a condition at which we can arrive once and maintain permanently. We must be constantly renewing our commitment to these beliefs. No one can do this for us. The burden of responsibility is on each one of us. We can choose or refuse to work at being a Christian. God gives us the freedom to make that choice. He gives us the freedom to look for His image in each individual we encounter no matter how despicable he may be. For surely Christ will not be recognized in us until we can see Him in others.

At this time in the history of the world we seem to be admonished to either live together as brothers and children of God or to die by ourselves. Some of us will be unable to make the necessary commitment and will fall by the wayside as seeds in shallow soil. Some, however, will be able to quicken the spirit within them and grow in strength. The signs of the times seem to be saying to Christians, either get in or get out!

The times seem also to be saying, let the love of God show forth in our actions—for He has no other hands than ours. This is the hour of rededication. The time, hopefully, when most of us will be able to say "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

I. Some suggestions on how to become involved in meeting the needs of the community:

1. Form an ecumenical council of ministers and lay people. Include churches from the poverty areas. Discussion within this group can bring out the unmet needs of the community. Together you can find solutions. Remember that the poor are more aware of their problems than we are. They also want to have a share in solving them.
2. Towns that have Church Women United could use this organization for study and action.
3. Call on the director of your community action agency (this vehicle of the Office of Economic Opportunity sometimes is known by other names. Find out what projects are already in effect and how your parish can help with these or new ones.
4. Make an appointment with the superintendent of your school system and find out how you and your parish can help with the problems in education.
5. Check with the directors of Public Health & Welfare. They can suggest unmet needs to you.
6. Talk with your mayor and city and county commissioners.
7. The director of your Recreation Department will have suggestions.

8. The United Fund Agencies might have helpful information.

MISSIONS

MRS. W. H. R. JACKSON, Secretary
P. O. Box 637, Roxboro 27573

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BRANCH SECRETARY OF MISSIONS

1. Pray daily for the mission of the Church at home and abroad. Use the prayer manual FAR AND NEAR. Order from Forward Movement publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

2. Suggest to the Program Committee the use of one or both of the 1969-70 interdenominational study themes "Reconciliation in a Broken World" and "Toward Understanding China and the Chinese People".

3. Cooperate with the Diocesan Task Force Committee on World Mission by promoting priority projects which they may recommend.

4. See that your branch budget is divided 50% inside the parish and 50% outside if possible. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the money can be sent out "in force" through recommended projects that have been given first priority.

5. Remember the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina, especially those assigned to your convocation. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically, giving news of the diocese.

6. Remind your branch of the opportunity of participating in the Christmas gift for the missionaries affiliated with the Diocese of North Carolina, both active and retired. The total of all the money collected is divided equally among them and sent as a Christmas gift from the churchwomen of the diocese. All contributions must be sent by November 15th and made payable to Mrs. W. H. R. Jackson (address above), who sends the total amount to the Diocesan treasurer for distribution.

7. By action of the Annual Meeting, the Epiphany Offering is for Jocelyn Gordon. Jocelyn works in India under the auspices of the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society which is one of the mission organizations of the Church of England. However, she is largely dependent on the women of this diocese for her support. Please publicize the Epiphany Corporate Communion. The offering should be sent to Mrs. Garland McPherson, Treasurer, P.O. Box 176, Southern Pines, N. C. 28387.

8. Send all other monetary gifts for missionaries or missions to Mrs. Garland McPherson, Treasurer, P.O. Box 176, Southern Pines, N. C. 28387. Make checks payable to her with instructions as to allocation of said checks.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. WALTER W. BURBANK, Treasurer
545 Winfield Blvd., S.E., Concord 28025

The United Thank Offering has grown from $82.71 in 1886 to an offering of $1,352,714.06 in 1968. With this increase in money through the years, the usefulness of this offering to the church has grown. In order to meet the most urgent demands and needs in our world, the offering is no longer accumulated over a three year period but allocated on a yearly basis. This new procedure was voted by the 1967 Triennial Meeting to better answer the demands of change and crisis in today's world. Over half of the missionary work of the whole episcopal church is made possible by the United Thank Offering. It is a way of sharing God's blessings wherever there is need—from a leprosy mission in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, or a school building in Panama, to a neighborhood center in New Orleans, Louisiana. This offering will continue to play a vital part in our church's future.

The women of this diocese have offered their praise and thanks to God in a very tangible way. This year $27,409.03 has been given by them. However, in order to keep pace with the needs of the times, we shall have to have more women participating in this great privilege of thanksgiving, service and praise. We cannot all go to the mission field, but our offerings and our prayers can go for us. They become instruments of a part that we can play in Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence. A box, a coin, a prayer—such little effort, in participation, to accomplish so much!

Fifteen copies of a new filmstrip entitled THIS CHANNEL OF LOVE have been distributed throughout the diocese, and are available for programs. This filmstrip gives an excellent picture of what the United Thank Offering grants are doing. A new filmstrip entitled THIS, THY CHILD is available. In September, 1968 when the thirty-six United Thank Offering grants were made, twenty-one were given directly to work with children and youth, and, in four additional grants, youth was involved. Because of this emphasis the new filmstrip shows three projects involving children: one in South America, one in Louisiana, and one in South Dakota.

In these days of concern and turmoil it behooves us all to contemplate on Bishop Hines' words: "For it may be that we are in a 'moment of passing grace' given to us by God, that may never again reoccur, and in which we are given the opportunity to act together"!

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer BRANCH:

1. Be thoroughly informed about the UTO and how the money is allocated.
2. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U.T.O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. Order your Blue Boxes and envelopes from the Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.
3. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day, and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.

4. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.
5. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation Secretary-Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCATION SECRETARY-TREASURER:

Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U.T.O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation Chairmen with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017, for the total amount.
2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.
3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.
4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed. Send report to Diocesan Treasurer.
5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.
6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the Offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation Secretary-Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

Diocesan Alms Basin

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Philip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U.T.O. Custodians collected cherished mementos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, Secretary
3444 Rugby Road, Durham 27707

It has been said that to define the work of the church on the college campuses of our nation is not only difficult but is many-faceted. The Rev. Ralph O. Marsh, Chaplain at the University of Georgia, says that college work is: 1) the extension of the church on the campuses of our colleges and universities and 2) the last chance that the church has to touch the lives of many individuals while they are still receptive to the message of the Gospel. If we regard these as our major responsibilities, we as parents, churchpeople and churchwomen must "go where the action is" and lend a hand.

The emphasis of our college work, as your secretary sees it, should be on an examination of the relevancy of our programs on the college campuses and new study to find out why the crisis of our times is taking place in our universities and how the church should meet it. In September, 1969 a Symposium on the Church in the Campus Crisis will be held at Quail Roost Conference Center. Speakers and discussants will be distinguished chaplains, clergy, legislators, faculty, as well as parents and students who can address themselves to these concerns. Material coming out of this conference, which has been graciously approved and supported by Bishop Fraser, will be funneled to all the chapters for thoughtful and provocative discussions next year. We hope the results of such a conference will help us in our college work in this diocese. Appended to this report is a list of suggested readings on which the college work chairmen can base campus-focused programs during this year. You will be receiving papers from our Symposium on the Church in the Campus Crisis by the middle of the year; your chairmen will be invited to attend this symposium also, and I hope will take back to the branches new ideas and new understanding.

There are many ways your branch can participate in college work and each one must assess its own interests. Remember to use the beautiful prayer for "those who teach and those who learn" from time to time in your branch meetings. Keep in touch with your own students already in college and recognize those who are about to begin their college careers. If you are in a college area, work closely with the chaplain and college closests to you and offer him your talents and your time. He will know the directions in which the most effective help must move today. Why not plan a special college work display on your parish bulletin board during the coming year? You may write your diocesan officer for material at any time.

The work of the Christian Ministries Secretary can be an exciting and rewarding one. As Branch Chairman you will want to know all the possibilities for a lay, ordained and special ministry. A special field is the recruitment of women for full-time work and this no longer is confined to the recruitment for the Order of Deaconesses—there are many fields for social work in the church and this can be a special emphasis for a program by your Christian Ministries Secretary. See whether your rector can help you build up a file on the interests of your young people in careers; then you can send appropriate material to them about careers which might possibly interest them.

Finally: let us keep in touch. Let us keep in touch with our young people, with their changing ideas, with the rectors and chaplains, and with the sources of good material to serve them.

PROMOTION

MRS. THOMAS M. COLLINS, Secretary
15 Lake Shore Drive, Chapel Hill 27514

During the past year your Diocesan Secretary of Promotion has written stories every month about the Episcopal Churchwomen, for publication in the North Carolina Churchman; has covered Annual Meeting and Diocesan Board meetings at the Terraces in Southern Pines, and reported important activities for the Churchman; has sent stories to local newspapers throughout the Diocese on Churchwomen's activities; provided special coverage for Spring Planning Days by sending stories to local newspapers on convocation chairmen, board members, and host churches and their ECW leaders who took part in the Planning Days; and maintained liaison with promotion chairmen throughout the Diocese in order to help them with their work. She has also served as a member of the Department of Stewardship and Communication for the Diocese.

The following suggestions are offered as guidance for Secretaries of Promotion in the Branches:

1. Keep members of your own Branch informed. This may be done through a monthly ECW Newsletter, stories in the local newspapers, announcements on local radio stations, and items in the weekly church bulletin.

2. Interpret and report Branch news of any interest to the general public through the press, radio, and television, and maintain a positive image of the Episcopal Churchwomen.

3. Serve as a liaison between Branch and Diocesan news services, send stories to the Diocesan Secretary of Promotion for use in the North Carolina Churchman, or for distribution throughout the secular media in the Diocese. (The Churchman deadline is a month in advance of publication.)

4. Keep a record. A good Press Book for your Branch should include clippings of ECW stories which are printed, plus a list of deadlines and requirements for the guidance of your successor. Keep sample scripts of radio and television shows concerning Churchwomen.

Please call on your Diocesan Secretary of Promotion for any help or ideas, as often as you'd like to do so.

ALTAR WORK & SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. JOHN L. WOOTEN, JR., Chairman
2920 Century Square, Winston-Salem 27106

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all its phases. Anything we do in God's service should be done with love to the very best of our ability.

In the individual branches throughout the Diocese, the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not even be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this handbook assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman, be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office.

These services are twofold during this particular term of office:

First: SERVICES TO GUILDS

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Speakers to encourage more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.

Secondly: SERVICES TO PARISHES, PRIESTS, GUILDS AND ECWS

This office will provide help in:

1. Providing each newly established Mission with a set of linens. We maintain a supply of cloth and have ladies who help with the sewing to provide these items to fit the individual needs.
2. Circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need. These items are available for a period of one year, after which they are returned to the home Parish if they wish, or recirculated. There is need for constant re-evaluation of our needs and the needs of others to keep this function at its best. I have a list of items available at all times, and would appreciate Parishes making use of this service in both regards.
3. Speakers to any interested groups on various subjects such as: Utilizing the old items; to make new items at reduced costs; designing vestments and paraments to compliment your Parish; economy and simplicity; multi-purpose vestments and paraments; banner design and use, etc.
4. Conducting workshops to provide general sewing skills suitable to Altar needlework, or specific help on a specific needlework undertaking. There is always a need for a skillful needlewoman or two in every Parish.
5. Designing original personal vestments for Priests, banners or vestments and paraments for Parishes.
6. Providing any Mission, institution, college, chaplaincy, etc., with any item necessary for Worship or Service.
7. Printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs, as well as needlework instruction books, and samples of materials and trims on loan.
8. Quantities of materials and trim for use in making paraments or vestments for Missions or institutions.
9. Workmanship and design for stoles given by the ECW to each Senior Seminarian at his Ordination.
10. Providing each year from a discretionary fund items needed by an institution for which there may be no funds (such as new hangings at Vade Mecum). This is on the basis of need, and by specific request.
11. There is a set of six banners complete with hanging and carrying poles available on request from Diocesan House through the Rev. William H. Hethcock, Director of Program. These are 3' x 5', brightly colored, and bear the messages of Joy, Peace, Glory, Celebrate, Love and Faith. These are wonderful at Youth Services and gatherings, and add much life and color to any occasion.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord. AMEN.

DIOCESAN MATERIAL AID

MRS. NORMAN A. SIPPELL, Chairman

500 Brinn Drive, Sanford 27330

The Presiding Bishop's Fund gives aid anywhere in the World where needed.

Effort in each branch should be made to provide:

Clothing for the NEEDY—especially blankets

Medicine for the SICK

Food for the HUNGRY

Special branch projects should be encouraged and promoted to raise money for this urgent and worthwhile Fund.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. E. H. DUDLEY, Director

3638 Park Road, Charlotte 28209

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF CPC

(From the RESOLUTION—addressed to the Presiding Bishop by the Executive Board of the Church Periodical Club, because of the drastic cut in CPC Administrative appropriations.)

“The Church Periodical Club since 1888 has been steadily increasing its vital service of providing free books, periodical and other printed and allied materials not otherwise obtainable to libraries, hospitals, institutions of learning, seminarians, chaplains, missionary appointees and other church workers.

The Church Periodical Club is the only organization in the Episcopal Church dedicated solely to providing material of this nature and is, presently, the only organization equipped to do this work.”

In our Diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedure for CPC Secretaries

1. Know and understand the work of CPC. Study the following basic plans and expand them to effectively promote CPC in your own branch. Please share your new ideas with other branches, through your CPC Director.
2. Be sure your ECW include CPC in their annual budget.
3. Review records and material with previous CPC Secretary.
4. Discuss with your Clergyman all the possibilities for your yearly program, including your initial activity, “CPC Sunday” (generally the first Sunday in October), and ask for his approval and support.

NOTE: It is customary to place CPC Folders and Offering Envelopes in the pews on CPC Sunday, and have the Clergy use the CPC Prayer.

5. Ask your ECW President for the opportunity to present, during the year, a special CPC program to your branch. Develop through your ECW Executive Board.

6. It will prove helpful if the CPC Secretary will ask someone in each Chapter to keep her group informed monthly on the activities of CPC.

7. Keep constantly abreast of all CPC communications and news. Post significant items on your bulletin boards and keep CPC material available in your tract racks. If you don't have the "CPC Angel" cartoon series, request them of your CPC Director.

8. Encourage all lay members of your branch to subscribe to The Episcopalian and The Living Church.

9. Promote gifts to The National Books Fund. Send for the following supporting materials and use them enthusiastically to publicize the important work of CPC.*

- a) Coin Cards.
- b) Revised text on CPC Sunday folders and offering envelopes.
- c) Instruction sheet.

10. When your branch or Churchwomen send a check to The National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a seminarian, etc., the CPC Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

NOTE: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of CPC. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be remitted to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the source, so proper credit can be given.

We do not intend to curtail our CPC services and we are hopeful we can fulfill all requests from Bishops and Clergy as most of them are keenly aware of the importance of the printed word to the Church's mission.

"Although it takes many centuries to create a great culture and civilization, it can be lost in three generations if its literature is neglected or abused."

*These and other support materials are available at a very nominal cost from Church Periodical Club, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017. (Remember that the New York office is closed during the month of August.)

2. The order of business for the Annual Meeting shall be arranged by the President and the Executive Board.

3. Each Branch having fifty members or less shall be represented by the President and one other delegate (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch). The President, or her representative, and the delegate each has a vote. Each additional fifty members shall entitle the Branch to an additional delegate with power to vote; however, a Branch to have voting privileges must have paid a pledge to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget for the preceding year and must have reported to the Treasurer the number of active members in the Branch.

c. Editor of the Annual Report of the Episcopal Churchwomen and the Handbook of Information, who shall work with the Secretary of Promotion.

11. Members or representatives from the Episcopal Churchwomen on Boards, Committees, Institutions or Commissions, the nomination, election or appointment of which is not otherwise provided for, shall be made by the Diocesan President, for such term and under such conditions as may be appropriate. Reports from such representatives shall be made as required by the President.

12. The rules contained and set forth in Roberts Rules of Order (Revised 75th Anniversary Edition) shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution, By-Laws, and Special Rules of this organization.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

O Lord, Our Heavenly Father, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest, and to grant them Thy special grace for every need. Guard and guide the workers in the field, and draw us into closer fellowship with them. Dispose the hearts of all peoples everywhere to give gladly as Thou hast given to them. Accept from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering of prayer, and gifts, and joyful service; and bless it to the coming of Thy Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of

Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace stablish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighty-seventh Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH
GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 5, 6, 1970

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1970

*"God of grace and God of glory
On Thy people pour thy power . . .
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage
For the facing of this hour.*

*Set our feet in lofty places
Gird our lives that they may be
Armored with all Christ-like graces
In the fight to set men free.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage
That we fail not man nor thee."*

We have just sung this prayer together. It has been with me almost constantly through the past three years and especially during the past year, which has been tumultuous internationally, politically, educationally, racially, morally and for the very fabric of our civilization. In times of tumult and confusion, none of our lives are left personally untouched. We would not have it otherwise because it would indicate that we were insensitive to and outside the perplexities of life's stream. An ivory tower must be a lonely place! Yet, as in times of declared war, this tumult galvanizes people's spirits, and all attitudes of life are accentuated. There is more violence and vituperation, but there is more effort towards reconciliation and soul searching for the deepest meanings of dignity and love. There is physical and mental suffering beyond our comprehension—hunger, homelessness, wounds and sickness, but there is also boundless compassion and a restless yearning to heal and give refuge, both physically and spiritually. How have we, as Churchwomen in North Carolina, responded to the world around us during this past year?

In your delegates' envelopes are the printed reports from which you can obtain a picture of the Diocesan program; that is to say the program financed by the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget and implemented through the diocesan officers. A great deal of time and thought has been put into these summaries. Please read them and make sure that your Branch President, if she is not here, is given them and that your branch officers are given copies of the report which concerns them. In Churches where you have a united parish program, it might be of interest to have these posted or circulated among relevant interest groups, in order that a true picture of our joint efforts may be known.

This year I sent to each branch a request for information on projects which would not be reflected in the Diocesan Churchwoman's Budget, for especially interesting study experiences and for some evaluation of Spring Planning Days. I asked for these because this report is the only means by which one group can hear what others are doing. We may in this way share inspiration. Whether a group calls itself officially Episcopal Churchwomen or not, is sometimes of little importance, but I would make a strong appeal to those branches who disassociate from the Diocesan structure to think positively and openly before they change. In some cases changes have been made to a strong program, but in a few instances there has been total disbanding without that all important "Something of Value" to take its place. This can lead to frustration, perplexity and lack of direction. Very few Churches in the Diocese—maybe four—have changed radically, and several have returned to the Episcopal Churchwomen's structure. One Church which has no official Churchwomen, contributed substantially to our budget, was represented well at our Vade Mecum Conference, is here today and was hostess

Church for the convocation Spring Planning Day. My strongest plea to those considering change is to be charitable. Although a Churchwomen's branch may not fit into your scheme, it most assuredly does into other situations. There is no "Right" or "Wrong" about this, but there is wrong when a superior aggressive attitude tramples on the deep convictions of a no less dedicated minority.

The reports which came back to me exceeded all my expectations and reading them is thrilling. They came from branches with as few as 8 or 9 to as many as 450. There is no sense in saying "But at St. Polycarp's we are different". Every single Church or Chapel is different and subsequently their mission is different. To give a comprehensive list would be impossible, so I have chosen a few examples of ways in which Churchwomen are trying to help meet the needs around them.

Responding to the difficulties of the National Church in financing overseas missions, there has been an increase in local branch giving to specific missionaries or causes in addition to our budget. These include Rachel Wolff in Nepal, the Rev. Mark Boesser in Alaska, Chaplain James Harvey Cook for use at a leprosarium and orphanage in Viet Nam, contributions to the Mary Wood McKenzie Kroll Scholarship Fund for use in Liberia, help for Sister Anne Marie's work in Haiti, help for the U.S.O. in Viet Nam, contributions towards a school bus in India and continued support of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. Help was also sent for victims of Hurricane Camille on the Gulf Coast.

Help in money, but perhaps more importantly in concern and time, to alleviate local problems run the gamut from kindergartens, wholly financed and mainly staffed by Churchwomen: day care centers operated along similar lines; breakfast clubs where local children are fed before going to school: places for children to play between finishing school and the time their parents return home; places and supervision for students to do their homework in quiet clean surroundings: tutorial volunteers, both in schools and at churches or in homes for slower learners; schools for the mentally retarded: co-operation with government and other agencies on fair housing and employment opportunities and better schools: taking one hot meal per day to elderly people who would otherwise no longer be able to maintain their own homes: providing transportation for the elderly and poor to keep necessary appointments: many instances of continuing visiting of "forgotten" residents in rest homes — and I could go on and on. This does not touch support of the local parish budget, altar furnishing, landscaping, beautifying the sanctuary with stained glass windows, kneelers and wedding cushions, and the many other traditional channels through which Churchwomen express their devotion.

Behind this is serious study, sometimes of comparatively new books, but often of the Bible. Many branches this year have been studying the Parables, several have studied the women of the Bible and a number the synoptic gospels and the Gospel of St. John. "Man's Need and God's Action" by Ruelul Howe, "Fear, Love and Worship" by Fitzsimmons Allison, "The Cup of Trembling" by Elizabeth Berryhill and "The Magnificent Defeat" by Frederick Bauchner were amongst the most frequently recommended books for group study.

Generally summarized, the underlying theme is "Being a Christian in Today's Changing World."

My gratitude for the experience of the past three years is inexpressible. I said to Vertie Jackson about four years ago "But you must feel so alone". She reassured me that this was not so. Wherever I have turned I have found encouragement and friendship. The Bishops have never seemed too busy. The Director of Program, the Rev. Bill Hethcock, has been analytically and constructively helpful. The Board, my clergy friends and all of you have been responsive and enthusiastic. My husband and family have been infinitely patient when my mind was miles away and my hands inefficiently cooking dinner—or when I was in a panic because the right phrase was eluding me. Through all this I have come to know the reality of:

*“Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger”.*

PRESIDENT'S ACCEPTANCE

There is much work to be done. People today need love, understanding, and help just as they always have through the ages. There are now more people, problems seem more complicated, help can be given in more different ways. We are now more aware of our mission in the church as service to mankind next door, across town, in large cities as well as in far off countries as never before. We now know that as we serve our Lord today, not only our money serves but our very lives must become changed and involved as we give our help to people in need. We do these things because we believe in God and in the teachings of Jesus Christ.

In order to get work done there has to be organization. Organization has to have structure. There has to be a clear cut purpose. The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina is an organization with a structure that works well to help us be strong channels of God's grace, and instruments of His will in the mission of this church, in this Diocese and in the world.

I look forward to working with you, sharing with people, both far and near, this light and life which is ours in Christ Jesus.

JUNE B. LONG

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Bishop Moore, members of the clergy, Mrs. Motsinger, and women of the church.

This has been such an interesting meeting that it is a special pleasure for me to have the opportunity to thank the women of the church of Holy Trinity for making this convention possible.

When you come to a churchwomen's convention you expect the meeting to run smoothly, and to have interesting speakers; but it is a real thrill to come to a meeting where the excellence of detail is displayed so beautifully from start to finish; from the beautiful altar flowers to the pansies on the pink cloths; the meals as delicious as you would expect to find at a small private dinner party; to the warmth of hospitality expressed everywhere.

Our thanks to Mrs. John S. Lucas, her co-chairmen, Mrs. Colcock Brown and Mrs. Thomas I. Storrs and their committees. Also to the women of the other Episcopal churches in Greensboro who helped with the refreshments.

In closing, I want to say from the women of the church of Galloway Memorial Chapel in Elkin to the women of the church of Holy Trinity, you will always have a special place in our hearts for your graciousness to us and to our Margaret Motsinger. Thank you.

I have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of The Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1969, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1969, and the related statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1969, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry — ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 62.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 65.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. GORDON WILLIAMS

103 Liberty Lane, Greensboro 27410

In October, 1969, 175 women attended five Convocation Quiet Days. This was a drop in attendance over the year before. Next year we plan to have more than five Quiet Days and have them more centrally located in the hope that more of our churchwomen will attend. The date for the Diocesan Quiet Days will be moved up to the first Wednesday in Advent, December 2, 1970. We hope more will want to come celebrate together the Coming of the Christ Child once again into our much too busy lives. Surely we can give one morning of quiet and meditation to pray together at the beginning of the Christmas season. Details about leaders and hostess parishes will be sent to you in late August.

We will have a Lenten Retreat next spring beginning with supper at 6:00 P.M. on Tuesday, March 30, 1971. Sixteen women attended the Spring Retreat in 1970, under the leadership of Bishop Fraser. It was a stimulating and meaningful two days of quiet and fellowship. We hope more of you will take part in the wonderful experience of a Retreat next spring. The leader will be announced in my August letter.

Following is a list of reading material. Please read the suggestions carefully and choose the one best suited to your group. If I can be of any help to you, please write to me. I would also appreciate suggestions from you.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, Secretary

3444 Rugby Rd., Durham 27707

In a final message to the Secretaries of Christian Education last year June Long, Acting Diocesan Secretary, proposed that the programs of the branches should be directed toward studies of areas in which Christian efforts are needed to deal with modern conditions. She quoted the Committee on the State of the Church of the Diocese of North Carolina as saying, "Since we live in a day of rapid change, our church must have a theologically-sound purpose to deal with modern conditions."

A theologically-sound purpose should affirm, in these critical times, that our church exists in order that we may more fully love our neighbor, be he rich or poor, white or black, young or old. Thus the church needs to deal more adequately with the following issues: 1) Race relations; 2) training for leadership in the local church and on the diocesan level; 3) supporting youth participation in the church and enabling them to become part of our decision-making bodies; and 4) facing the trust crises which have arisen among the parishes, clergy, bishops and in the national church. Our Bishop has warned us urgently that "every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth—Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it."

The study programs in our branches should be the sound bases for Christian thought and action. The E.C.W. exists to help with the mission of the church and we therefore must study to understand that mission. Let us be innovative in our study programs. Perhaps the best way to begin is to ask yourself: what kind of women are in my branch and what are they interested in today? Try to offer something to each woman; do not feel bound to some rigid theme if you see that it lacks interest for some of your women, but interpret the theme in a fresh way for the disinterested. Some branches find it brings them together to study one selected book or problem; others may wish to critically examine many books or issues. Try to use the talents and wisdom of your own members. For example, if you are studying the man Jesus, try to include in your program someone who teaches little children: ask her to do a program on how she teaches the life of Jesus, what the responses of the children are, etc. One might also ask an historian to talk about the historical Jesus; or a writer to talk about the literary Jesus, or a politician to talk about the impact or lack of impact of Jesus' life in practical politics. A central theme need not be binding upon your educational program, but it may help as a departure point.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. JAMES E. DAVIS, Secretary
7 Beverly Drive, Durham 27707

Christian Social Relations is our daily Christian commitment of love to our brother and his need—and how we meet this need in our personal Christian lives, in our parish, in our community and in the whole world.

Today we find ourselves in the midst of war, of racial strife, of the rising use of drugs, of the unmet needs of the poor, the sick, the elderly.

Through our faith in Christ we can overcome this darkness in the world with Christian stewardship and joy by dedicating our lives to Christian service, Christian love, and Christian witness to our brother's need.

Bless our church, O Lord, in all its activities. Renew its vitality, strengthen its faith in Christ. Write deep in our hearts that we are Thy witnesses in the world to love our neighbors as ourselves. Fill our lives with the single motive of service, and use us, Lord, for Thine own purposes, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

I. Listed below are some suggestions for service to learn about becoming involved in some of the crucial needs in your community.

1. Contact the Public Health officer of unmet Health needs in your community.
2. Meet with the Director of Social Services (formerly the Welfare Department) and discuss ways volunteers can assist in the local programs.
3. Contact your United Fund Executive and your Community Planning Council for suggestions about unmet community needs.
4. Discuss with Superintendent of Schools ways your church can assist in tutoring or other needed volunteer programs in your educational system.
5. Discuss community needs with your mayor, city councilmen, county commissioner, recreation director and citizens advisory committee.
6. Find out from the Office of Economic Opportunity, United Organization for Community Improvement, what projects need assistance.
7. Contact your Mental Health Association for ways to help with their programs on Drug Prevention, Rehabilitation Centers, and other current programs requiring volunteers.
8. Look into unmet low income housing needs and into the need for licensed day care and kindergarten programs for children from low income families.

MISSIONS

MRS. W. H. R. JACKSON, Secretary
P. O. Box 637, Roxboro 27573

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church, remembering especially the missionaries who have gone out from the Diocese of North Carolina.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. The prayer manual "Response" is designed for use as a devotional guide in praying for mission, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. The 1970-71 interdenominational mission study themes are "How the Word Gets Around" and "Latin America: How Many Worlds," Resources are available from Friendship Press, 475 Riverside Drive, New York 10027.

3. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the churchwomen can accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area.

4. Remember the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina, especially those assigned to your convocation. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically, giving news of the diocese.

5. Participate in the Christmas gift for the missionaries affiliated with the diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. W. H. R. Jackson, Secretary (address above) and sent to her by November 20th.

6. Epiphany Corporate Communion offerings are for the support of Jocelyn Gordon in India. Branches not having a Corporate Communion are urged to make a contribution. Send the checks to Mrs. Garland McPherson, Treasurer.

7. Suggestions for special projects will be sent upon request.

8. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Diocesan Material Aid, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers many opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. WALTER W. BURBANK, Treasurer
545 Winfield Blvd., S.E., Concord 28025

The report of the United Thank Offering is one of dollars and cents, but another very real meaning of the offering lies in the grateful spirit which motivates the thousands of individuals to contribute. Because of this spirit, prayers, offerings and grateful service have been given. So, there are two sides to the United Thank Offering; one is the very personal response of each person when she offers up a prayer of thanksgiving and places a coin in her blue box; and the other is the aggregate result of a very large sum of money which goes forth into the world to do the Lord's work and spread his kingdom. Over half of the missionary work of the whole episcopal church is made possible by the United Thank Offering. It is a way of sharing God's blessings wherever there is a need—from a child day care center in Panama, a clinic in Korea, or a small church and community center in the Cuban section of Miami, Florida. This is the result of our "united" thanks, but it starts with each individual's response to the presence of God in her own daily life.

In order to meet the most urgent demands and needs in our world, the offering is no longer accumulated over a three-year period but allocated on a yearly basis. This new procedure was voted by the 1967 Triennial Meeting to better answer the demands of change and crisis in today's world.

The United Thank Offering from September 1, 1968, to September 1, 1969, totaled $1,344,323.96. Four grants made in 1967 were returned because the projects were unable to start. These grants amounted to $74,600.00. This added to the offering made a total of $1,418,923.96, which was allocated by the Committee for Women in September of 1969. Forty-nine grants were funded, and are listed in the pamphlet "Grants 1969". I hope you will read and study it. The United Thank Offering continues to finance extra-budgetary projects that have no other source of funds. Over the years it has affected the lives of thousands of people and hundreds of communities.

Our Diocese of North Carolina contributed in a very generous way in 1969. The Spring Ingathering was $13,792.84; the Fall Ingathering $13,047.86; the collection at Annual Meeting $155.13—giving a total of $26,995.83.

The third, and last of the series of filmstrips, titled This Thy Brother has been mailed into each convocation for use in programs. The first two filmstrips—This Channel of Love and This, Thy Child—are still available, and all three are excellent aids in interpreting the offering.

A new pamphlet Giving Thanks Through Giving was sent to each U.T.O. branch treasurer. It gives a thumbnail sketch of each grant made in 1967 and '68, and is most helpful and interesting. Additional ones are available from Seabury Book Store free of charge.

In these days of uncertainty and concern in the world, it is our hope that our sense of gratefulness for the presence of God in our lives will be a certainty, and our response of prayers and offerings will go out into the world and accomplish things that we can never do ourselves. If we continue to do this, the United Thank Offering will continue to work miracles and touch lives all over the world.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, Secretary
3444 Rugby Road, Durham 27707

In the new landscape which is defined as the American campus today, we must re-define college work and designate it to be the understanding and devotion we give wherever we encounter the academic community. Dr. Daisuk Kitagawa once said that the Church on the campus takes a form of the Church Scattered and that "such communities will not be exclusively Christian, and in them Christians will be walking with strange fellow-travelers, and by so doing Christians will be able to let the light of the Gospel shine among people of different or no faith." The secretaries of Christian Ministries and College Work may now find their jobs in the branches more challenging than ever, as they seek to interpret what is happening on the campus to the Churchwomen, and to reach out in various forms of help to the young people involved.

The postponed Conference on Parent and Child in the College Crisis will take place September 14 and 15, 1970, at Quail Roost Conference Center, and papers coming out of this conference will be sent to the secretaries so that they may be incorporated into a program during the year. Added to this report is a list of suggested readings on which the college work chairman can base a program or give to the members of her branch for special reading.

Make your office as secretary of college work a vital one in your church. Consult with the chairman of devotions and ask her to include the beautiful prayer for "those who teach and those who learn" at some of your meetings. Pass out a list of foreign college students in your area and ask your members to invite them into their homes. Keep in touch with your own children already in college and arrange a meeting for those seniors about to begin college careers. One branch had a Senior Night on which they invited college chaplains in the neighboring colleges to meet their future students. If you are in a college area, please get in touch with your chaplain and offer your help. The chaplains are gracious and eager to tell about their work to your branch meetings. They can tell us "where the action is" and what that action should be. You might encourage interest in college work in your church by a special bulletin board display. You may write your diocesan officer for material for such an exhibit.

Christian Ministries is now a field as wide as the array of human needs. As Branch Chairman, you will want to read some of the material describing the possibilities for a lay, ordained and special ministry and these are available to you by writing the diocesan officer. A special attempt should be made to interest women who now find time for careers to take special courses to prepare them for a social and lay ministry. The efforts at continuing education in our diocese are manifold and include special interests of our own clergy. You can ask your rector to help you build up a file on the questions of your parish concerning careers related to Christian services; then appropriate material can be sent to them about training possibilities.

There are three things to remember in fulfilling your office competently: write for material and suggestions if you need them; read available resources; touch the lives of real people.

PROMOTION

MRS. PORTER CRISP, Secretary
Picadilly Circle, Greensboro 27410

During the past year your Diocesan Secretary of Promotion has written stories every month about the Episcopal Churchwomen, for publication in the North Carolina Churchman; has covered Annual Meeting and Diocesan Board meetings at the Terraces in Southern Pines, and reported important activities for the Churchman; has sent stories to local newspapers throughout the Diocese on Churchwomen's activities; provided special coverage for Spring Planning Days by sending stories to local newspapers on convocation chairmen, board members, and host churches and their ECW leaders who took part in the Planning Days; and maintained liaison with promotion chairmen throughout the Diocese in order to help them with their work. She has also served as a member of the Department of Stewardship and Communication for the Diocese.

The following suggestions are offered as guidance for Secretaries of Promotion in the Branches:

1. Keep members of your own Branch informed. This may be done through a monthly ECW Newsletter, stories in the local newspapers, announcements on local radio stations, and items in the weekly church bulletin.

2. Interpret and report Branch news of any interest to the general public through the press, radio, and television, and maintain a positive image of the Episcopal Churchwomen.

3. Serve as a liaison between Branch and Diocesan news services, send stories to the Diocesan Secretary of Promotion for use in the North Carolina Churchman, or for distribution throughout the secular media in the Diocese. (The Churchman deadline is a month in advance of publication.)

4. Keep a record. A good Press Book for your Branch should include clippings of ECW stories which are printed, plus a list of deadlines and requirements for the guidance of your successor. Keep sample scripts of radio and television shows concerning Churchwomen.

Please call on your Diocesan Secretary of Promotion for any help or ideas, as often as you'd like to do so.

ALTAR WORK & SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. JOHN L. WOOTEN, JR., Chairman
2920 Century Square, Winston-Salem 27106

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all its phases. Anything we do in God's service should be done with love to the very best of our ability.

In the individual branches throughout the Diocese, the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not even be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this handbook assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman, be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. Since every member of an altar guild is interested in information pertaining to her work, perhaps posting correspondence on a bulletin board in the Sacristy would be helpful.

These services are twofold during this particular term of office:

First: SERVICES TO GUILDS

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Speakers to encourage more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.

Secondly: SERVICES TO PARISHES, PRIESTS, GUILDS AND ECWS

This office will provide help in:

1. Providing each newly established Mission with a set of linens. We maintain a supply of cloth and have ladies who help with the sewing to provide these items to fit the individual needs.
2. Circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need. These items are available for a period of one year, after which they are returned to the home Parish if they wish, or recirculated. There is need for constant re-evaluation of our needs and the needs of others to keep this function at its best. I have a list of items available at all times, and would appreciate Parishes making use of this service in both regards.
3. Speakers to any interested groups on various subjects such as: Utilizing the old items; to make new items at reduced costs; designing vestments and paraments to compliment your Parish; economy and simplicity; multi-purpose vestments and paraments; banner design and use, etc.
4. Conducting workshops to provide general sewing skills suitable to Altar needlework, or specific help on a specific needlework undertaking. There is always a need for a skillful needlewoman or two in every Parish.
5. Designing original personal vestments for Priests, banners or vestments and paraments for Parishes.

6. Providing any Mission, institution, college, chaplaincy, etc., with any item necessary for Worship or Service. Information on Workshops are also available on new services of the church, creative worship opportunities, etc.
7. Printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs, as well as needlework instruction books, and samples of materials and trims on loan.
8. Quantities of materials and trim for use in making paraments or vestments for Missions or institutions.
9. Workmanship and design for stoles given by the ECW to each Senior Seminarian at his Ordination.
10. Providing each year from a discretionary fund items needed by an institution for which there may be no funds. This is on the basis of need, and by specific request.
11. There is a set of six banners complete with hanging and carrying poles available on request through Nancy Wooten. These are 3' x 5', brightly colored, and bear the messages of Joy, Peace, Glory, Celebrate, Love and Faith. These are wonderful at Youth Services and gatherings, and add much life and color to any occasion.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord. AMEN.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. CARL F. HERMAN, Director
219 Mistletoe Dr., Greensboro 27403

The Church Periodical Club is the only agency in the Episcopal Church which devotes itself exclusively to supplying free printed material— theological, devotional, educational, recreational, and secular—to those who need it and cannot otherwise obtain it. Wherever the Church is at work—among our missionaries at home or abroad, in hospitals, mission schools, seminaries, universities, libraries in the Armed Forces, in institutions served by our chaplains, in the Church Army, in student hostels, Clergy-Lay Conference Centers and community centers—there you will find Church Periodical Club material.

National Books Fund help has gone into almost all parts of the world. From Alaska to Texas, from California to New York, most of our states received direct aid for mission work in their dioceses. Overseas dioceses were recipients of grants ranging from a few books for teachers, preachers and scholars (too far removed from libraries or too poor to buy their own) to establishing new libraries or keeping others up-to-date.

As budgets have been cut, more of those working in the Church's program turn to the C.P.C. for books. If we do not do this work, it will not be done.

One bishop wrote: "We cannot afford to give the children of God anything but the best education." Costs continue to increase, and we must be prepared to meet them!

In our Diocese CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of CPC, and carried out by CPC Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedures for CPC Secretaries—

1. Know and understand the work of CPC. Expand basic plans to effectively promote this work in your branch and parish.

2. Include CPC in your ECW or Parish Budget.
3. Review records and material with previous CPC Secretary.
4. Discuss with your Clergyman the importance of CPC work and ask for his approval and support in your efforts to promote it.
5. Ask your ECW President for the opportunity to present, during the year, a special CPC program.
6. Keep constantly abreast of all CPC communications and news. These are sent to CPC Secretaries several times during the year.
7. Promote gifts to The National Books Fund and the Seminarian Book Scholarships project. Suggested ways for making money for these are as follows:
 - a—CPC Sunday
 - b—Coin cards
 - c—Budget (Churchwomen's or Parish)
 - d—Sale of magazines
 - e—Containers at Circle meetings
 - f—Sale of candy
 - g—Memorials
 - h—Book Fair
 - i—Bazaar

Suggestions for other CPC activities (non-financial):

1. Take magazines and books to the following places:
 - a. Nursing Homes
 - b. Launderettes
 - c. Doctors' waiting rooms
 - d. College Dorms (Students use to cut up for projects)
 - e. Retarded childrens classes
 - f. Day Nurseries
 - g. Jail
 - h. County Home
 - i. Shut-ins
 - j. Aging

NOTE: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of CPC. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be made to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the sources, so that proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check for The National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a seminarian, the CPC Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Your Diocesan Director wants to help in any way she can to further this important work in the Church. Please call on her.

SECTION 1. Election.

Prior to the Annual Meeting, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee of five (of whom three shall be members of the Executive Board, no two of whom shall come from the same convocation) which shall consider proposed nominees to fill the elective offices. From the names suggested or considered, the Committee shall recommend to the Annual Meeting the nominees for such offices. The consent of the nominees shall be obtained by the Committee before making the recommendations. Nominations may be made from the floor of the Meeting by any delegate provided the consent of the nominee has been obtained. A majority vote shall be required for all elections. In case there are more than two nominees for the same office and no candidate receives a majority vote, the name receiving the smallest number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot.

SECTION 2. Eligibility.

No one may succeed herself in office nor may anyone serve more than six years consecutively on the Executive Board in any capacity, except in the case of an unexpired term. This ruling shall not apply to the President-elect.

SECTION 3. Tenure.

All Diocesan officers shall be elected for a term of three years: the Treasurer, the United Thank Offering Treasurer, the Secretary of Christian Ministries and College Work, and the Secretary of Devotional Life to be elected at the first Annual Meeting after the Triennial; the President-elect, the Secretary of Missions, and the Secretary of Christian Social Relations to be elected at the second Annual Meeting after the Triennial, the President-elect to take office as President at the third Annual Meeting after the Triennial; the Vice-President, the Secretary of Promotion, and the secretary of Christian Education to be elected at the third Annual Meeting after the Triennial.

SECTION 4. Representatives (3) on the Diocesan Council shall be nominated one each year at the Annual Meeting, and the name of the nominee certified to the next Diocesan Convention for election by that body. The name of the President-elect shall be certified as the nominee following her election, her term to begin June 1st after her installation as President. (Canon XVI).

SECTION 5. Vacancies.

When any office is declared vacant by the Executive Board, the acting Nominating Committee (being governed by Section 1 of this Article) shall present to the Executive Board a name or names to be elected by the said Board to fill the declared vacancy. Should a vacancy occur in the office of President, the Vice-President shall serve until the next Annual Meeting, at which time an election shall be held for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE IX

Finance

SECTION 1. There shall be a Finance Committee composed of the Treasurer as Chairman, the immediate past-Treasurer (if not available, an ex-Treasurer), the Secretary of Missions, and one other member to be appointed by the President.

SECTION 2. The Finance Committee in consultation with the Bishop shall propose a budget for the year to be approved by the Executive Board before being presented to the Branches at the Annual Meeting for approval and support.

SECTION 3. From the total amount pledged toward the budget, after the expenses of administration have been provided, one-half shall apply to work outside the Diocese and one-half to work inside the Diocese.

SECTION 4. The United Thank Offering, the Church Periodical Club Fund, and the Missionary Christmas Gift shall be in addition to the payments on the budget.

ARTICLE X

Convocations

SECTION 1. For effective service, the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen shall be organized in the Convocations.

SECTION 2. The organization in each Convocation shall be under the direct supervision of a Chairman duly elected by her Convocation for a term of three years. In case of a vacancy, the Vice-Chairman shall serve as Chairman.

SECTION 3. Wherever feasible the Episcopal Churchwomen officers in the Convocation shall correspond to the officers in the Diocese.

SECTION 4. Each Convocation of Episcopal Churchwomen shall hold at least one meeting a year.

ARTICLE XI

Amendments

The Constitution may be amended at the Annual Meeting by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present, provided a written copy of the proposed amendments has been filed with the Diocesan Secretary and a notice of same mailed to each branch by the Secretary at least one month prior to the Annual Meeting; or the Constitution may be amended without previous notice by the unanimous vote of the Annual Meeting.

Reports from such representatives shall be made as required by the President.

12. The rules contained and set forth in Roberts Rules of Order (Revised 75th Anniversary Edition) shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution, By-Laws, and Special Rules of this organization.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we seek to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who hast sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of

Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant.....). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say:

Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness — patience — courage — gentleness — thankfulness — humor — faithfulness — enthusiasm — wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of..... Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIED: February 3, 1971, Sanford, N. C.

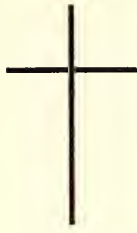

Faithful communicant of St. Thomas' Church, Sanford

She served her Lord well through her devotion to work in her church in the parish and in the Diocese. Her witness to her faith was an inspiration to all who knew her.

She was a past president of the Pierian Literary Club and the Woman's Club in her community, and a regular visitor to nursing homes and shut-ins. She was beloved in her community as a friend and a gracious lady.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Norman, in 1964.

Thanks be to God for His servant Irene, who gave of herself generously, lovingly, and willingly. May she go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His Heavenly Kingdom.

Eighty-ninth Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

CALVARY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
TARBORO, NORTH CAROLINA
APRIL 27, 28, 1971

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1971

What an unbelievable and joyful occasion this is for me to return to Calvary Church for this the eighty-ninth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. There are many reasons why this is a special day for me and may it be a special day for all of us together. I thank the members of Calvary Church for making it possible.

In making my Annual Report to you, the Episcopal Churchwomen of this Diocese, and thinking of the worship, the study, the actions and the gifts given by all of us, I think that the second verse from Second Timothy, chapter four, described the past year—"Be urgent in season, out of season." The season does not refer to time, but to us. "Be urgent in season, out of season," whether we feel like it or not. The New English Bible translation is, "proclaim the message, press it home on all occasions convenient or inconvenient."

In the changes that have been taking place and with the discouragements of our time, the Churchwomen have stood strong and continued with determination their programs in their parishes and in this diocese to be informed and to be the continuing strength in the life of the whole church.

The Triennial Meeting of the Women of the Church which was held in Houston, Texas, in October, 1970, brought into sharp focus the changes that have taken place for us, the Episcopal Churchwomen. No longer do we have a National organization of Episcopal Churchwomen, with national leaders to give us in the Diocese leadership and direction. This lack of leadership was felt for three years. Now, after the Houston Triennial, it is a reality. In spite of the many changes on a national level the women of the Church voted to continue to meet together at the same time and place as the General Convention of the Church, enabling them to express their beliefs as a group through resolutions and gifts supporting the mission of the Church. The changes did not discourage women. They excited them. It was felt that this was a productive, cautious but progressive meeting of the women of the Church. Triennial Meeting is still a representative body, exerting influence through its knowledge of the Church, its ability to provide financial support, and its spiritual strength.

"Be urgent in season, out of season" whether we feel like it or not. If we do only what we are inclined to do, some of us would do nothing for ever and ever. As I have heard reports of Diocesan officers, received your reports, visited Branches, held workshops and talked with you, I have known that the Churchwomen of this diocese have been "urgent in season, and out of season."

In the worship program of the Churchwomen in the Branches much dedication, time and thought have been shown as meaningful meditations and prayers have brought women groups together. Quiet Day of Prayer held throughout the Diocese on December Second was well attended in some areas, poorly attended in others. The one Worship Retreat at the Terraces for the Churchwomen was led by Bishop Austin Pardue. Twenty-three women were present. The emphasis on worship and prayer needs strengthening in the Christian Community of the women of the church. We cannot work and be united to our fellow members except as we are united to Christ our Head.

Serious attention has been given this year in the study programs of the Episcopal Churchwomen to the theme of Reconciliation with reference to the divisions and misunderstanding, hatred and secular excesses which divide us in the modern world. Books which have been studied in many of the Branches touch the topics of campus unrest, psychiatric counseling, questions of Christian faith, changing sexual mores, drug appeal and social service. As an outgrowth of the Conference on the College Crises held in September, many Branches set up panel programs on the changing campus. Programs on the General and Diocesan Conventions have informed women of changes in the Church and prepared them to face these changes with understanding. The United Thank Offering film, "This Thy Brother," has been shown, helping women to understand that it is through this offering that our Churchwomen have had a vital part in dealing with the crises of our troubled world.

Christian social action is realized in the communities in the Diocese through Episcopal Churchwomen's Branch programs. Women are actively involved in improving race relations. Through study and gifts, the program in Chapel Hill to prevent and combat the use of drugs that the Rev. Lex Mathews and Dr. Robert Senior of that community have presented, the women have given strong support. Tutorial programs, kindergartens, schools for retarded children, hot meals for the sick and elderly, visiting the lonely and serving meals for Parish gatherings are only a few of the diverse ways the women witness to the love of our Lord. Prayers, gifts, letters and cards have gone from the women to the missionaries in the field.

Monetary gifts have decreased this past year — ending December thirty-first, 1970. Gifts to programs of special interest came to $28,648.97 this past year — over $4,000.00 short of last year's gifts. The gifts to Thompson Orphanage dropped by more than $2,000.00. The United Thank Offering has decreased each of the last three years. However, the percentage of participation has shown an increase and four Convocations in 1970 showed an increase in their Fall Ingathering over the 1970 Spring Ingathering. In listening to reports in the Branches, I believe that we will see an increase in this year's gifts. Women express deep concern in the needs of the institutions in this Diocese and in the needs of missionary efforts outside the Diocese.

The Diocesan budget of the churchwomen is always made up and adopted on anticipated income. Despite the fact that some large Branches have cut their giving, the budget has been met. It becomes increasingly hard for the finance committee to make up a budget to present to Annual Meeting for approval and adoption with so many needs that we all want to meet and such limited funds to work with. I suggest that every Branch increase its pledge to the Diocesan budget so that we can join together to make work possible inside and outside this Diocese that otherwise will not be possible. Together we can do great good. In this way we make it possible to be at home, in our place and in all the world at the same time. Let us "be urgent in season and out of season."

The structure of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Branches is flexible, enabling the different interests and talents of the women to meet the special needs in each community while relating to the Diocesan structure and, therefore, serving the needs in the Diocese, nation and world at the same time. It is an organization, "urgent in season, out of season."

The theme of this Annual Meeting is "Prayer First — Then Action." Let us through the coming year be urgent in our prayers centering our lives around God and Jesus Christ. With true prayer and meditations our actions will be urgent for His people in His world.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina favor the earliest possible termination of United States involvement in the hostilities in Indo-China.

2. Be it resolved that:

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina favorably endorse the proposed conservation amendment of the North Carolina Constitution as follows: "The policy of the state shall be to conserve and protect its natural resources, environment, scenic beauty and all lands, waters and other resources which are held in trust for the people of the state. The General Assembly in implementing this policy shall include adequate provision for the abatement of air and water pollution and of excessive and unnecessary noise, the protection of agricultural lands, wetlands, estuarine areas and shorelines, and the development and regulation of water resources. It shall be a public purpose for the state, any county or municipality to make provision for any of the matters enumerated in the preceding sentence, and to conserve and protect natural resources, the environment and scenic beauty."

Both resolutions were adopted by unanimous vote of the convention.

Mrs. Long called on the young people of our church, who were visitors to Annual Meeting, for their comments. Miss Carole Wilson, St. Luke's Church, Salisbury, spoke on the thoughts of young people today.

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Bishop Moore, Members of the Clergy, Mrs. Long, delegates and visitors to the 89th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting in Tarboro at Calvary Church:

We are reminded of our beginnings by meeting here in historical Calvary Church, we have been inspired by the use of the Trial Liturgy at the Communion Service, and we have felt the warm hospitality for which eastern Carolina is so famous.

We share the joy this Parish feels as one of its own, June Long, returns in a position of leadership, and in so doing follows in the footsteps of her mother.

We would like to express our very special thanks to Co-Chairmen Mrs. William G. Clark, III and Mrs. Russell C. Harris, Jr., and their committees, and to Mrs. R. C. Barnhart, President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Calvary Parish, for making the arrangements for a meeting that because of their efforts will surely be a highlight in the record of the year's activities.

To those who participated in the program, you have made us feel that "PRAYER: THEN WORK" will enable us to carry out the goals we have set for ourselves as we further the Mission of the Church.

Episcopal Churchwomen
Diocese of North Carolina:

We have examined the Statement of Fund Balances of The Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1970, and the related statement of Changes in Fund Balances for the year ended that date. The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and other procedures as were deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying Statement of Fund Balances of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, at December 31, 1970, and the related statements of Changes in Fund Balances for the year then ended present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended December 31, 1970, and the resulting fund balances at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,
HARRISON & JUDGE

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1831 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina". It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry — ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 61.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 64.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

8. Preside at general meetings. Call and preside at Executive Board or Committee Meetings.
9. Fill appointive offices and committees with care, knowing the duties and responsibilities of each.

1. To preside at any meeting in the absence of the President.
2. To assist the President when called upon, by representing her at group meetings if necessary; or serving as chairman or member of a committee.
3. To offer help to the President in parish, community and diocesan activities.
4. Must be ESPECIALLY prepared to preside over a meeting on short notice, or take the chair at any time.

SECRETARY

MRS. STERLING A. STOUDEMIRE

She should also read summaries of reports and announcements. Her responsibilities are:

1. To carry on all necessary correspondence pertaining to the group as directed by the President. (Some parish groups find it best to have both a recording and a corresponding secretary. In that case, correspondence and notices are taken care of by the Corresponding Secretary.)
2. To keep an accurate record of names and addresses of members.
3. To keep a record of the number of members present at meetings.
4. To supply Diocesan Year-Book Chairman with accurate lists of names and addresses of parish officers and chairmen, and to forward notices of changes and replacements during the year.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. HENRY M. BEST, JR., Secretary
1718 Meadowbrook Lane, Wilson 27893

Due to poor attendance at Convocation Quiet Days, a motion was presented and carried at the Executive Board meeting in Tarboro stating that the decision to have Quiet Days be left to individual branches (several in an area may want to join in observing a morning of quiet and meditation) or some Convocations may still desire one with the entire Convocation. Your ECW Diocesan President and Secretary of Devotional Life will be happy to assist in securing leaders.

Most of us open ourselves far too little to regular times of quiet, of prayer, of meditation, of holy reading; they are necessary elements in any balanced Christian life. We must give God a chance to speak to us directly as a result of having done our best to provide Him with an opportunity to do just that . . . because we want Him to do so, and because we recognize our need for it.

A Lenten Retreat is scheduled at the Terraces next year beginning with supper at 6:00 P.M. on February 22, 1972. The leader will be announced.

With our "Services For Trial Use" being used these next few years, let us make ourselves aware of what other denominations are doing in this area. Borrow and read "The Worshipbook" from the Presbyterian Church and the monthly worship booklets from the Roman Catholic Church. Circulate these among the women along with the explanatory books that accompany our trial services.

It has been suggested that some parishes may want to purchase for their libraries Webster's "New World Dictionary of the American Language". It gives a new slant to a lot of words that the older dictionary did not.

Emphasize family prayer and Bible study as well as personal and corporate worship. A great help here would be the use of The Jerusalem Bible with its many fine footnotes and beautiful language.

Following is a list of reading material. Please read the suggestions carefully and choose those best suited to your group. If I can be of any help to you, please write to me. I would also appreciate suggestions from you.

Make the book list available to the chapters for those interested in purchasing personal copies.

A good source of books and they will send them on approval is:

BIBLES

GOOD NEWS FOR MODERN MAN, American Bible Society

A popular, well done translation of the Bible, abridged and in contemporary English. Easily understood and dignified. Paper back.

THE BIBLE READER AND INTERFAITH INTERPRETATION, Bruce Publishing Company, 850 Third Ave., New York, N. Y. 10022 $3.95

This is a paperback abridged edition of Bible in contemporary English, translated by four scholars (two Protestants, one Jew, and one Roman Catholic)

. . . with Roman Catholic imprimatur . . . itself a miracle of no small proportion!) The translation reads as prose; every page or so, there appears a non-technical, prose explanation of the meaning of the passage. Easily understood and excellent for teachers, and home use.

THE NEW ENGLISH BIBLE, Oxford Press

A magnificent new translation in the best, most dignified contemporary English which will offend only the most inflexible fundamentalists and/or worshippers of the "Saint James" version. Much preferred to the Revised Standard Version.

THE JERUSALEM BIBLE, Doubleday & Company, N. Y.

This is an entirely new, genuinely contemporary version of the Bible, with excellent notes at the bottom of each page giving helpful explanation. The style and translation are comparable to the NEB (No. 3 above) and generally speaking there is little choice between the two. (The NEB does NOT have the explanatory notes in the J. B.)

The type in the J. B. is small and less easily read than that in the NEB. The JB is based on a superlative translation by French Roman Catholics. It is the most expensive of the four Bibles recommended on this sheet, but it is worth it to serious readers of the Bible.

The preferable strategy would be for everyone to have immediately available and for easy use a copy of No. 1 or No. 2 AND a copy of No. 3 or No. 4.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. JAMES E. DAVIS, Secretary
7 Beverly Drive, Durham 27707

Christian Social Relations is our daily Christian commitment of love to our brother and his need—and how we meet this need in our personal Christian lives, in our parish, in our community and in the whole world.

Today we find ourselves in the midst of war, of racial strife, of the rising use of drugs, of the unmet needs of the poor, the sick, the elderly.

Through our faith in Christ we can overcome this darkness in the world with Christian stewardship and joy by dedicating our lives to Christian service, Christian love, and Christian witness to our brother's need.

Bless our church, O Lord, in all its activities. Renew its vitality, strengthen its faith in Christ. Write deep in our hearts that we are Thy witnesses in the world to love our neighbors as ourselves. Fill our lives with the single motive of service, and use us, Lord, for Thine own purposes, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

- I. Listed below are some suggestions for service to learn about becoming involved in some of the crucial needs in your community.
1. Contact the Public Health officer of unmet Health needs in your community.
 2. Meet with the Director of Social Services (formerly the Welfare Department) and discuss ways volunteers can assist in the local programs.
 3. Contact your United Fund Executive and your Community Planning Council for suggestions about unmet community needs.
 4. Discuss with Superintendent of Schools ways your church can assist in tutoring or other needed volunteer programs in your educational system.
 5. Discuss community needs with your mayor, city councilmen, county commissioner, recreation director and citizens advisory committee.
 6. Find out from the Office of Economic Opportunity, United Organization for Community Improvement, what projects need assistance.
 7. Contact your Mental Health Association for ways to help with their programs on Drug Prevention, Rehabilitation Centers, and other current programs requiring volunteers.
 8. Look into unmet low income housing needs and into the need for licensed day care and kindergarten programs for children from low income families.
 9. See what needs to be done to assist with programs for the Elderly.
 10. Consider forming a council of Christian Social Relations Chairmen from all interested churches to study unmet community needs and to work cooperatively toward solving them.
 11. Contact local Youth Council for ways to keep channels of communication open and strong with youth.

MISSIONS

MRS. W. H. R. JACKSON, Secretary
P. O. Box 813, Roxboro 27573

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church, remembering especially the missionaries who have gone out from the Diocese of North Carolina.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. The prayer manual "Response" is designed for use as a devotional guide in praying for mission, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. The 1971-1972 interdenominational mission study themes are "The New Generation in Africa" and "New Machines and The New Humanity". The Bible study is "Matthew". Basic materials and other resources are available from Friendship Press, 475 Riverside Drive, New York 10027. Additional information will be sent upon request.

3. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the churchwomen can accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area.

4. Remember the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina, especially those assigned to your convocation. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically, giving news of the diocese.

5. Participate in the Christmas gift for the missionaries affiliated with the diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. W. H. R. Jackson, Secretary (address above) and sent to her by November 20th.

6. Epiphany Corporate Communion offerings are for the support of Jocelyn Gordon in India. Branches not having a Corporate Communion are urged to make a contribution. Send the checks to Mrs. Garland McPherson, Treasurer.

7. Suggestions for special projects will be sent upon request.

8. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Diocesan Material Aid, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers many opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, Secretary
3444 Rugby Rd., Durham 27707

In looking for directions for Christian Education programs in our branches, it is of help to sit down face to face with our other branch officers and ask ourselves: "Where are we going, what do we want to accomplish?" What better goal can we have than the words of the Churchwomen's Prayer for Christian Education which ask that "looking unto Him, we may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom, and the glory of Thy Son?"

News for Christian Education chairmen may be that materials may be obtained from the Program Resources Center, National Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017. Sound filmstrips and records produced by Seabury Press and the Executive Council are good program resources. Write for a listing of these, and visit the Resources Center to view materials if you happen to be in New York.

Churchwomen can initiate studies in their branches which will provide every woman with inspiration, information and a relativity to the problems of her world, if program planning begins with forethought and prayer. Analyze the interests of your women; take into consideration the resources of your community and what relationship your parish bears toward that community; bear in mind that the program of the church is a varied one and presents many opportunities. Plan programs on many facets of church life.

Enliven your programs graphically with films and tapes. In addition to the National Council's film resources, go to your public library and inquire about their film rentals. A fine film entitled THE RAVAGED ENVIRONMENT may be obtained from WMAQ-TV in Chicago. It was produced by the Chicago Academy of Sciences, and might be shown to your entire parish preceding several weeks of combined study on the environmental crisis.

Perhaps your branch has new Episcopalians among its members. Have you ever considered having a study program on the Diocese of North Carolina? Many women may be anxious to hear about Thompson Orphanage, the Penick Home, St. Mary's College, Kanuga, or the wonderful history of North Carolina and her historic churches.

Let us nurture our roots and pass on knowledge of our church. This is a part of our task as we proclaim the "good news" to all the world.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MISS SYLBERT PENDLETON, Treasurer
525 Wade Avenue, Raleigh 27605

(Report prepared by MRS. WALTER BURBANK, former U. T. O. Treasurer)

The total offering of the United Thank Offering at the Triennial Meeting in Houston, Texas in October, 1970, amounted to $4,080,281.26. The Diocese of North Carolina contributed $80,275.76. This was the total offering during the three year period from 1967-1970. Mrs. W. J. Long, Jr. placed a certificate for this amount in the Golden Alms Basin at the corporate communion service, which was part of the opening service of the General Convention.

Ever since the Triennial in '67 the offering has been allocated annually instead of once every three years. In this way the demands and needs of the world can be met more quickly. In the year of 1970 the churchwomen in the Diocese of North Carolina gave $23,644.52, from 94 branches. This was $3,191.18 below the 1969 total. The percentage of women actively taking part in the United Thank Offering in our diocese ranges from 50 to 75 percent in the majority of churches.

I hope that more active participation will be one of the goals of our churchwomen in the coming year. In this way each of us will find the true meaning of the Thank Offering — an offering of thanksgiving for special blessings at special times. The inspiration and vision that two women had in 1886 has turned into a very magnificent gift to the world, and is an important part of the whole mission of our church. Lives are being changed and dreams are coming true because an individual is thankful and gives a prayer and a gift to her "blue box", in gratefulness for God's blessings.

Still, only one out of every four requests can be granted, because of lack of funds!

Responsibilities of The United Thank Offering Treasurer

BRANCH:

1. Be thoroughly informed about the UTO and how the money is allocated.
2. Be sure every woman in your Parish has a Blue Box. Keep U. T. O. foremost in the minds of all members through leaflets, programs and announcements of interest. Order your Blue Boxes and envelopes from the Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.
3. Arrange with your Rector for the Ingatherings and publicize the time and date. It is the custom to have our Ingatherings twice a year, October 18th, St. Luke's Day, and March 25th, Feast of the Annunciation. A Corporate Service of Holy Communion is traditional for these. However, the service need not be held on the specific date. Many churches have their Ingathering at a regular Sunday Service in order that more people may become aware of it.
4. Arrange some alternate way in which people who cannot attend the Ingathering can get their offering to you, but stress attendance as an active and vital part of the offering. The aim and goal should be for an increased participation, as well as the amount received.
5. Please be sure that your Branch Offering reaches your Convocation Secretary-Treasurer as soon as possible; one check made out to her along with the number of envelopes distributed, the number returned, and the number at the Ingathering Service.

CONVOCAATION SECRETARY-TREASURER:

Keep accurate record of the Offerings from each Branch and send a copy to DIOCESAN U. T. O. TREASURER with one check covering the total offering from your Convocation.

Mail filmstrips upon request to branches in your convocation.

DIOCESAN:

1. Send a letter in late August to the Parish and Convocation Chairmen with instructions for Fall Ingathering. As soon as all reports are in, send a check to Mr. Lindley M. Franklin, Jr., Executive Council, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017, for the total amount.

2. In February, send a letter as above and a check as soon as all reports are in.

3. Keep accurate records of Offering from each Parish and Convocation.

4. Type report of amount of Offering from each Parish for Yearbook in March, after calendar year has been closed. Send report to Diocesan Treasurer.

5. Write report for Annual Meeting and for Yearbook.

6. Make arrangements before Annual Meeting for the offering to be taken at the Communion Service at Annual Meeting—this being the Ingathering for the Diocese. The Convocation Secretary-Treasurers or their representatives are asked to do this. Give them a slip of paper with the total amount from their Convocation for the year, which they present with the Offering.

DIOCESAN ALMS BASIN

The idea of the women of the Diocese of North Carolina donating their old pieces of gold and silver in order that we might have our own Diocesan United Thank Offering Alms Basin was presented to the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary by Mrs. B. W. Roberts of St. Philip's Church, Durham. A committee was appointed in 1953 to bring about the successful completion of this project. This committee consisted of Mrs. William L. Steele of Raleigh, as chairman, Mrs. U. T. Holmes of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Brown Patterson of Greensboro and The Right Reverend Edwin Anderson Penick, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Parish U. T. O. Custodians collected cherished mementos of silver and gold and these were sent through the District Custodians to Mrs. Steele. Finally 5 barrels and 2 boxes of metal (silver and gold) were collected from women all over the Diocese, and these were shipped to Mrs. Louis F. Glasier of New York who designed and made the Alms Basin. The Basin is centered with the seal of the Diocese executed in gold from the wedding rings, crosses, pins, etc. that were donated. Around the edge of the Basin are the words "Accept, O Lord, from grateful hearts our United Thank Offering".

The Alms Basin was completed and dedicated to the Glory of God by Bishop Penick at the Early Celebration of Holy Communion at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955, at the Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to the parishes of the Diocese for use at their Spring and Fall United Thank Offering Ingatherings, and may be obtained by contacting the Diocesan United Thank Offering Treasurer.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. JULIAN BRANTLEY, Secretary
1507 LaFayette Circle, Rocky Mount 27801

College work today must take cognizance of the fact that young people on our campuses have evolved an entirely new "life style" but that it can be based on the knowledge and love of God in Jesus Christ which was imparted to these, our children, by a loving church in their earlier years. Religion can mean different things to today's college student: perhaps it will be religion in the sense of standing in awe or wonder at the natural world; language, art, literature and music may be regarded as a means to capture religious experience. In back of these attempts to discover themselves, the loving care of God must still underwrite their lives. As Christian leaders we may be called upon to direct and sensitize people to those aspects of nature and the world which cannot be met by scientific reality.

Make your office as Secretary of College Work one which will bring together the talents of your young people and the love of your parish. Keep in touch with those who are away at college by sending them news of the church; include upon occasion some pamphlet or clipping illustrating the serious attempts of our Church to deal with problems vital to young people. Show them that the Church IS IN the world and working FOR the world. It has also been suggested that a Senior Night be held in your parish to which college chaplains may be invited. Show a film, have a book exhibit, ask some of your young musicians to perform for you, or play such a recording as the exciting new Jesus Christ Superstar. Write the chaplains at St. Augustine's and St. Mary's for help in planning a program on the colleges which belong to our Diocese. Please, above all, make use of the college chaplains in your area. They are willing to tell about their changing positions on the campus. Write your ECW officer for suggestions for programs and materials.

Christian Ministries is now a field which offers opportunities for women as well as men. Emphasize this "equal opportunity" in planning your work in this area. Write Virginia Seminary or St. Luke's Theological School, Sewanee, for slides and material for programs. A special attempt should be made to interest women to prepare themselves for a social and lay ministry. Write Marion B. Bingley, Section for Experimental and Specialized Services, National Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Avenue, New York, for pamphlets about innovative experimental training opportunities for church leaders.

PROMOTION

MRS. PORTER L. CRISP, Secretary
Piccadilly Circle, Greensboro 27410

Essential duties of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary are:

1. To keep churchwomen throughout the diocese informed about the programs and activities by articles published in the North Carolina Churchman.
2. To promote Episcopal Churchwomen and their activities by means of news media.
3. To assist branch officers in promoting their individual programs and activities.
4. To serve as a member of the Executive Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina.

During the past year, the Secretary of Promotion has attempted to keep the Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina informed about their activities through news and feature stories in the North Carolina Churchman and in the secular press across the diocese. This use of local news media has not only informed our members, but has informed the general public of the existence and activities of our organization.

The Secretary has tried to assist Convocation Chairman and Branch officers in promoting their respective programs and activities. Additionally she has helped the host churches in promoting the Annual Meeting for the last two years. She has tried to establish a rapport with the public press which could aid the convocations and branches in securing better news coverage for their work.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that some one is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your diocesan secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. DAVID ABEL, Chairman
3505 Winstead Road, Rocky Mount 27801

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Different parishes have different habits and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize a use. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

These services are twofold:

First: SERVICE TO GUILDS

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.

Second: SERVICES TO PARISHES, PRIESTS, GUILDS AND ECW

This office will provide assistance

1. To newly established missions, in obtaining a set of linens.
2. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need. These items are available for a period of one year, after which they are returned to the home Parish if they wish, or recirculated. I have a list of items available.
3. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.
4. In providing each year from a discretionary fund, items needed by an institution for which there may be no funds. This is on the basis of need, and by specific request.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. R. O. MARTINELLI
710 Wimberly Drive, Greensboro 27410

The Church Periodical Club, which works through individuals, parishes, dioceses, and is the only Episcopal agency devoted to supplying free the printed tools of learning, is one of the most effective ministries of the printed word. Since 1888 it has been dedicated to this service which is, presently, acting through a forward thrust aimed at today's new-old problems.

The National Books Fund of C. P. C. receives requests from the most remote reaches of the Anglican Communion, and from as near as the next block. Askings range from a single Spanish prayer book for a prisoner, to provisioning an entire library. Large requests must be endorsed by an authority—a bishop, dean, or the administrator of an institution. All requests are processed and acted upon by an experienced committee.

What does C. P. C. supply? All printed material—religious, educational, medical, technical, recreational—needed for the church's larger mission. Translations of the prayer book, hymnal, Braille for the blind, big print for the poorly sighted, devotional reading for prayer groups, church school material, text books, reference works—for use on reservations, in ghettos, in community and campus centers; inspirational, recreational reading for service men, shut-ins, missionaries; material needed to train nurses, doctors, technicians, indigenous clergy—all are provided. A donation may bolster the morale of many men of good will, may enable an agronomist to relieve the malnutrition in a large area, a translator to lighten the darkness of a whole people. In Africa one book may serve 200 readers! A gift to the National Books Fund may make enlightened citizens of children otherwise doomed to illiteracy.

The need for knowledge of accurate fact, of eternal truth is urgent. It is not being met. Pornography of unprecedented quantity and viciousness is being fed to inquiring minds abroad and at home. As Christians it is our duty to understand and to act before the results overwhelm the innocent. The printed word remains our most powerful weapon.

The Church Periodical Club offers a Christian method of direct action that both respects the dignity of recipients and encourages self help. Pray for C. P. C. Go with the Church Periodical Club into all the world—preaching, teaching, healing.

Suggested ongoing projects for parishes and dioceses:

St. Andrew's Theological Seminary in Manila. (For the library).

St. Agnes School, Kyoto. (For urgently needed books).

Clergy education in Tohoku Diocese, Japan.

Seminario Episcopal Del Caribe in Puerto Rico. (For its library).

Information about the above projects may be obtained from your C. P. C. Director.

Church Periodical Club Triennial color slides, with commentary—plus taped addresses of Bishop Bayard, Father Heffner and Bishop Koh are also available.

The pamphlet "Church Periodical Club" put out by the National Books Fund, is excellent and may be had for $3.00 a hundred plus postage.

Note: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of CPC. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be made to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the source, so that proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check for The National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a seminarian, the CPC Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Your Diocesan Director wants to help in any way she can to further this important work in the Church. Please call on her.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1972-73
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

At the 1972 Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen at St. Paul's Church in Winston-Salem one had a feeling of modern women facing the world of today with strength and conviction. Not only is the program of the Episcopal Churchwomen evolving into one that is highly relevant, but the women are also putting their time, their talents and their money in the same direction. It is possible that the renewal of the Church in this diocese could begin with the leadership of the Episcopal Churchwomen. If one looks carefully at the leadership that these women are taking outside of their own organization—on vestries, the Diocesan Council, the Diocesan Convention, and institutions of the diocese—one can find concrete evidence of this "new" direction. I am proud of this leadership. It deserves the support of every member of the diocese.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we seek to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the

Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ELIZABETH S. GORDON

BORN: January 24, 1884, Wilmington, N. C.

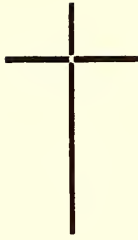

DIED: August 14, 1971, Deerfield, Asheville, N. C.

Missionary in and around Eden

In January, 1911, "Miss Bettie," as she was more affectionately known, went to work officially as parish visitor at St. Luke's Mission, Spray. For more than fifty years she was a faithful and devoted parish worker serving voluntarily in many capacities: visitor, organist, Sunday School teacher, and active churchwoman.

Her interests were community wide. Beloved and respected, she was frequently seen on the streets talking with people in all walks of life. Her implicit faith in God and her wholehearted love for Him were an inspiration to all who knew her.

Thanks be to God for his faithful servant. May she go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His Heavenly Kingdom.

Ninetieth Annual Meeting

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 2, 3, 1972

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1972

Bishop Fraser, delegates and guests, welcome to this the 90th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. This is the 6th Annual Meeting of the Churchwomen to be held at St. Paul's Church in Winston-Salem. It is indeed fitting that we turn such a milestone as our 90th Annual Meeting in this beautiful and historic city and church. The present is built on the past. Here with the evidence of work done for our Lord around us, we are reminded that we add something to those before us as we continue to witness to His love. We are grateful to the members of St. Paul's for hosting this meeting.

In trying to evaluate in a general way the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen since we last met in Calvary Church, Tarboro, the words determination, excitement and joy come to my mind. Churchwomen throughout the diocese have expressed a determination to work together to further the mission of the church. The women of Christ Church, Charlotte re-organized this past year. They felt that they had "lost touch with what is going on" and "would like to have contact and communion with other women." They "want to feel a real part of our church." St. Cyprian in Oxford, St. Ambrose in Raleigh, the Church of the Good Shepherd in Asheboro and the Church of the Holy Family in Chapel Hill report that they are becoming newly involved in their work. Many Branches have restructured their organizations. Churchwomen of the Church of the Messiah, Rockingham, report that with new ideas received at Spring Workshops "we were so enthused, we came right home, called a meeting and have completely re-organized our two chapters. We believe we are on the right track now." This is typical of many Branches. Certainly there are Branches struggling to survive but determined to find answers for new life in their efforts to serve. It is with sadness that I received a report from St. Matthew's in Hillsborough that they are becoming inactive. Churchwomen of St. Matthew's sent delegates with five other churches in the diocese to the first Annual Meeting held at Calvary Church, Tarboro in 1882. Many Branches find that the traditional structure of officers corresponding to Diocesan officers serves the interest and needs of their Churchwomen best. Many strong Branches, large and small, new and old, continue to work with vigor, excitement and joy. There are 97 organized Branches.

The four Spring Workshops held this year were more than well attended. Inspiration and ideas were given and received in a wonderful spirit of joy in His service. The workshops did not meet all needs of Churchwomen, especially Churchwomen of transient congregations. I welcome your ideas for improvement. Ten quiet Days of Prayer were held this year throughout the Diocese. The Diocesan Worship Retreat at the Terraces was a great success with twenty-eight Churchwomen present. The Churchwomen's Conference at Kanuga last June also was enthusiastically received with about forty persons taking part.

On the Branch level much activity is reported. St. Luke's, Salisbury and Christ Church, Raleigh have opened small gift shops and are excited over the profits made which they have given to special projects in the community. The Churchwomen of St. Stephen's, Durham, are sponsoring their choir director and his wife as faculty members of the Music Camp at Holy Trinity School in Haiti this summer. Volunteers at St. Timothy's, Wilson, work with Crisis Center, a telephone answering service. Good Shepherd, Raleigh reports special help for patients at Dorothea Dix Hospital. Special gifts and attention are given to mental patients and the needy at Christmas time by many Branches. Hot meals are taken to the elderly and shut-ins throughout the year. Money made from Bazaars, May Fairs, Food Fairs and Attic Sales is generously given to support such varied programs as Christian Childrens Fund, Boys Club of America, Mental Health Clinics, Day Care Centers, Switchboard, Genesis House for drug rehabilitation, Diocesan institutions, and Episcopal Radio-TV Foundation. Many gifts go to our missions overseas to help with seminaries, schools and food and clothing programs.

Women, through 40 Branches, gave $1,082.37 to the National Church Periodical Club. The 1971 U.T.O. Offering was $27,097.32—an increase of nearly $3,500.00 over 1970. Special gifts increased more than $3,000.00 this year. A total of more than $53,000.00 was given by the women through the Diocesan Treasurer in 1971. The Christmas gifts fund for the eight missionaries affiliated with the Diocese of North Carolina amounted to $1,534.00. Each missionary received a gift of nearly $200.00.

During the coming year I would like to see better communication between the Branches and the Churchwomen's Executive Board. All communication seems to be one way—from the Board to the Branch. Let us hear from you. I would like every Branch to invite a member of the Board as a visitor to at least one meeting a year. I would like the Churchwomen to have at least one page in every issue of The North Carolina Churchman for news and information. An important area in communication is through Convocation Executive Board Meetings. I would like to see improved attendance at these meetings. Convocation Chairmen are an important link between the Executive Board and the Branches.

Triennial Meeting will be held in Louisville, Kentucky, October 1973. Since the agenda of Triennial has changed, making the approval of United Thank Offering grants for one year, and setting the policy and procedure of the U.T.O. Committee its only official business, I commend to you the change in our Constitution providing for our United Thank Offering Treasurer to be a delegate to Triennial by virtue of her office. I feel that she will go to Triennial well qualified to vote on matters before this Meeting.

With increased participation in Diocesan and Convocation Activities, with increased giving, and with growing strength and new vigor apparent in many Branches, I feel that the Episcopal Churchwomen are about their Father's business. We rejoice and serve the Lord together.

Let us move into this next year with new determination and deeper faith. Asking our Lord:

To take our minds and think through them.
To take our lips and speak through them.
To take our hearts and set them on fire.
Rejoice and serve the Lord!

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Members of the Clergy, Mrs. Long, delegates and visitors to the 90th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting in Winston-Salem at St. Paul's Church:

It becomes increasingly evident that if the Church is to survive, it will be because of the work of the women as they manifest the love of Christ in the world.

St. Paul's with its tradition, has provided the foundation to achieve this goal tomorrow.

The tradition of this foundation for tomorrow can be shown not only in the physical plant but in the warmth and graciousness of St. Paul's leaders shared with us for this occasion.

We would like to thank sincerely the Chairman, Mrs. John Winder, Co-Chairmen Mrs. William Koenig and Mrs. Edward Mulvey and their committees, and Mrs. Henry A. Brown, Jr., President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Paul's for all their work in making the arrangements for this meeting.

We do indeed "Rejoice and Serve The Lord."

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1971 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1971 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women ofChurch", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry—ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 56.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 59.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. HENRY M. BEST, JR., SECRETARY
1718 Meadowbrook Lane, Wilson 27893

THE WORSHIP OF GOD is the first business of every parish and its organizations, indeed our lives. God cannot speak to us unless we give Him a chance to do so; we must listen in order to hear Him and we cannot listen unless we are still.

To live balanced Christian lives, we must make regular times of quiet and listening to God in order for God to be able to work in and through us. In doing this, I do not mean an introspective withdrawal from the world. It is not Christian to try to escape this world. I mean to find the real center of your world, thereby enabling you to live in this world more effectively. As Devotional Life Secretaries, I urge you, if you are not doing so already, to establish a personal relationship with God and you will find yourselves better able to perform your duties of office. Emphasize family prayer and Bible study as well as personal and corporate worship.

After one year in this office, I have gathered much helpful information from ECW Branches concerning parish retreats, quiet days, Bible study, discussion and prayer groups that I want to share with you, either personally or by letter, if you will contact me concerning your needs. I feel I can pass along suggestions that have been effective for other Branches or put you in touch with those who will be able to assist you in planning your particular Branch Devotional Life Programs and activities.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. WALTER ELSEE, SECRETARY
824 S. First Street, Smithfield 27577

Christian Social Relations is our daily Christian commitment of love to our brother and his need—and how we meet this need in our personal Christian lives, in our parish, in our community and in the whole world.

Today we find ourselves in the midst of war, of racial strife, of the rising use of drugs, of the unmet needs of the poor, the sick, the elderly.

Through our faith in Christ we can overcome this darkness in the world with Christian stewardship and joy by dedicating our lives to Christian service, Christian love, and Christian witness to our brother's need.

Bless our church, O Lord, in all its activities. Renew its vitality, strengthen its faith in Christ. Write deep in our hearts that we are Thy witnesses in the world to love our neighbors as ourselves. Fill our lives with the single motive of service, and use us, Lord, for Thine own purpose, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

MRS. EDWARD T. MULVEY, JR., SECRETARY
3228 Pennington Lane, Winston-Salem 27106

The purpose of this office is to encourage church women to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. Use the prayer manual RESPONSE, a devotional guide, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. The 1972-1973 ecumenical mission study themes are FAITH AND JUSTICE and INDIA-One Sixth of the World's People. Basic materials and other resources are available from Friendship Press, 475 Riverside Drive, New York 10027.

3. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the churchwomen can accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggestions for special projects will be sent upon request.

4. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. E. T. Mulvey, Jr., Secretary (address above) and mailed to her by November 20th.

5. By action of the 1972 Annual Meeting the 1973 Epiphany Offering will go to the Reverend Beverley Tucker, missionary to Japan, who is now teaching at the Bishop Williams Seminary, Kyoto. Branches not having a Corporate Communion are urged to contribute to the offering. Send checks to Mrs. James A. Hill, Jr., Treasurer, 3606 Corbin St., Raleigh 27609.

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. HERMAN SALINGER, SECRETARY
3444 Rugby Rd., Durham, N. C. 27707

A beautiful prayer of St. Augustine might well be the hallmark of the work of a Christian Education Secretary as she plans her year. It is a prayer of thankfulness for "the gifts of faith, knowledge, and of a whole mind; for the grace of membership and the joy of fellowship." All these gifts are needed as we plan an education program.

After you have looked at materials available in your community, gathered ideas from the Spring Workshops and the bookstore exhibit at Annual Meeting, you may then want to select your theme. We hope you will not confine this process to "selecting a book," but range widely to meet the needs of your women with varieties of programs. A theme may be developed in many ways, using graphics, multi-media and human resources. The programs throughout the year should be varied in format. We have work to do, problems to attack, issues to study, new ideas to explore. You may write the Program Resources Center, National Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017, for materials on various programs of moment to the church.

Your churchwomen may wish to subscribe to the Cooperative Film Library which has been started in Birmingham, Alabama, by the Rev. William A. Yon, formerly of this Diocese. THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

SYLBERT PENDLETON, TREASURER
525 Wade Ave. No. 49, Raleigh 27605

The world is full of God's love and thought of us. Those of us who have a Blue Box can respond; each day we can drop a coin in it as we offer a prayer of thanksgiving for the good things given so freely to us. Then, all of our small gifts are gathered together at diocesan level ($27,306.58 in 1971); next, the diocesan amounts are gathered nationally (this total is usually well over a million dollars) to be distributed by the United Thank Offering committee so that each of us can have a part in helping to spread the Gospel here and abroad.

Let us put out extra effort this year to help the many women who have not even heard of our joyful way of giving learn about the United Thank Offering and what it does for us as well as for the people who receive it. The participation of all Episcopalians is your goal.

PRIVILEGES OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TREASURERS:

PARISH

1. To be thoroughly informed about the "why" of giving the United Thank Offering way, and about the people who receive the money; to see that your program chairman saves at least one meeting a year for you to tell everyone about it (you may get filmstrips from your Convocation secretary-treasurer.) This Thy Child, This Thy Brother, This Channel of Love).
2. At least six weeks before an ingathering, to order from Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York, N.Y., 10017, sufficient Blue Boxes to be sure that each woman has one, and Blue Collection Envelopes, the most recent UTO Grant List and the new UTO prayer card to be given to every woman in your church.
3. To arrange with your Rector for the Spring and Fall Ingatherings (on or near the Feast of the Annunciation and St. Luke's Day), to publicize them well ahead of time, and perhaps to persuade your Rector to preach or talk on the subject the Sunday before (give him a copy of the U.T.O. Prayer to use).
4. To gather the offering and, three weeks after the Ingathering (this allows time for delayed participation), to send one check to cover the full amount to your Convocation secretary-treasurer along with a record of the number of envelopes sent out, the number returned, and an estimate of the number attending the Ingathering.

CONVOCATION SECRETARY-TREASURER

To keep accurate records of the offerings and participation records of each Branch; to send a copy to the Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer, along with one check covering total offering, within one month of the Ingathering; and to mail filmstrips upon request to the churches in your convocation.

DIOCESAN

1. To be available to visit any branch, when requested, to help them learn more about the United Thank Offering than her letter (sent before each Ingathering) can tell; to attend all board meetings, conduct workshops, keep in touch with provincial and national representatives to acquire the needed information.

2. To receive the Ingathering monies from the Convocations and to send one check to the national treasurer; to keep records of each parish; and to send an annual financial report to the E.C.W. Treasurer, a general report for the Annual Meeting and this more detailed one for the Year Book.

3. To arrange for representatives of each Convocation to take up the offering for the yearly Ingathering at the Holy Communion Service at the Annual Meeting.

4. To take care of the United Thank Offering Alms Bason and to lend it to any church requesting it. This beautiful Alms Bason was completely made in 1955 from donations of silver and gold from women all over the diocese.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. CHARLES WELCH, SECRETARY
400 Wiley Avenue, Salisbury 28177

College work today must take cognizance of the fact that young people on our campuses have evolved an entirely new "life style" but that it can be based on the knowledge and love of God in Jesus Christ which was imparted to these, our children, by a loving church in their earlier years. Religion can mean different things to today's college student: perhaps it will be religion in the sense of standing in awe or wonder at the natural world; language, art, literature and music may be regarded as a means to capture religious experience. In back of these attempts to discover themselves, the loving care of God must still underwrite their lives. As Christian leaders we may be called upon to direct and sensitize people to those aspects of nature and the world which cannot be met by scientific reality.

Make your office as Secretary of College Work one which will bring together the talents of your young people and the love of your parish. Keep in touch with those who are away at college by sending them news of the church; include upon occasion some pamphlet or clipping illustrating the serious attempts of our Church to deal with problems vital to young people. Show them that the Church IS IN the world and working FOR the world. It has also been suggested that a Senior Night be held in your parish to which college chaplains may be invited. Show a film, have a book exhibit, ask some of your young musicians to perform for you, or play such a recording as the exciting new Jesus Christ Superstar. Write the chaplains at St. Augustine's and St. Mary's for help in planning a program on the colleges which belong to our Diocese. Please, above all, make use of the college chaplains in your area. They are willing to tell about their changing positions on the campus. Write your ECW officer for suggestions for programs and materials.

Christian Ministries is now a field which offers opportunities for women as well as men. Emphasize this "equal opportunity" in planning your work in this area. Write Virginia Seminary or St. Luke's Theological School, Sewanee, for slides and material for programs. A special attempt should be made to interest women to prepare themselves for a social and lay ministry. Write Marion B. Bingley, Section for Experimental and Specialized Services, National Council of the Episcopal Church, 815 Second Avenue, New York, for pamphlets about innovative experimental training opportunities for church leaders.

PROMOTION

MRS. PORTER L. CRISP, SECRETARY
Piccadilly Circle, Greensboro 27410

Essential duties of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary are:

1. To keep churchwomen throughout the diocese informed about the programs and activities by articles published in the North Carolina Churchman.
2. To promote Episcopal Churchwomen and their activities by means of news media.
3. To assist branch officers in promoting their individual programs and activities.
4. To serve as a member of the Executive Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina.

During the past year, the Secretary of Promotion has attempted to keep the Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina informed about their activities through news and feature stories in the North Carolina Churchman and in the secular press across the diocese. This use of local news media has not only informed our members, but has informed the general public of the existence and activities of our organization.

The Secretary has tried to assist Convocation Chairman and Branch officers in promoting their respective programs and activities. Additionally she has helped the host churches in promoting the Annual Meeting for the last two years. She has tried to establish a rapport with the public press which could aid the convocations and branches in securing better news coverage for their work.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that some one is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your diocesan secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. DAVID ABEL, CHAIRMAN
3505 Winstead Road, Rocky Mount 27801

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this handbook assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

These services are twofold:

First: SERVICE TO GUILDS

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.

Second: SERVICES TO PARISHES, PRIESTS, GUILDS AND ECW

This office will provide assistance

1. To newly established missions, in obtaining a set of linens.
2. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need. These items are available for a period of one year, after which they are returned to the home Parish if they wish, or recirculated. I have a list of items available.
3. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. R. O. MARTINELLI, DIRECTOR
710 Wimberly Drive, Greensboro, N. C. 27410

The Church Periodical Club is the only organization in the Episcopal Church that is devoted solely to providing printed materials free to people all over the world who cannot obtain them otherwise. Wherever the Church is at work, abroad or in the United States, in the urban slums, migrant camps, hospitals, schools, universities, on reservations, in the Armed Forces, in the many types of institutions served by our chaplains, in ecumenical undertakings, the Church Periodical Club is at work. In a world that is still largely illiterate, education is as important as food and clothing. But education is virtually impossible without its most important tools—books.

Do you know what a book can do? The United Thank Offering Committee knows; therefore, they gave C.P.C. a grant which made available the folder, "Do You Know What a Book Can Do?" The folder tells the story of this unique ministry of the printed word and shows that C.P.C. should be the concern of the whole Church. C.P.C. is YOU—every man, woman and child in the Church family. To the Church Periodical Club, you are the vital link, because through you its mission can be spread to all people everywhere.

Since 1888 C.P.C. has been dedicated to supplying free the printed tools of learning to anyone anywhere who desires and needs them. These requests are handled through the National Books Fund which receives appeals from the most remote corners of the Anglican Communion and from as near as the next block. Last year the National Books Fund of C.P.C. gave a grant to the Bishop of Liberia for Altar Prayer Books, a grant for Bible Dictionaries printed in Japanese for training clergy in the Diocese of Teheku, Japan; book grants for many seminary students, and one to print a booklet to help African women with nutrition and child care. In Africa, one book might serve 200 readers. A gift to the National Books Fund may make enlightened citizens of children who would otherwise be doomed to illiteracy.

In our diocese, the Church Periodical Club work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of C.P.C., and carried out by C.P.C. Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedure for C.P.C. Secretaries

1. Know and understand the work of C.P.C. Expand plans to promote effectively this work in your branch. Share your new ideas with other branches, through your C.P.C. Director.
2. Review records and materials with the previous C.P.C. Secretary.
3. Discuss with your Clergyman the importance of C.P.C. and ask for his approval and support in your efforts to promote it.
4. Ask your E.C.W. president for the opportunity to present a special program on C.P.C. for your branch.
5. Be sure to include the Church Periodical Club in your E.C.W. budget.
6. Keep informed about C.P.C. communications, news and materials. The folder "Do You Know What a Book Can Do?" mentioned above can be obtained free from the National Office or from your Diocesan Director.
7. Promote gifts to the National Books Fund and the Seminarian Book Scholarship Project. Suggested ways for making money for these are as follows:
 - (a) C.P.C. Sunday (generally the first Sunday in October). Place Folders and Offering Envelopes in the pews and ask the Clergy to use the C.P.C. Prayer.

- (b) Coin Cards
- (c) Budget (Churchwomen's or Parish)
- (d) Sale of magazines
- (e) Memorials
- (f) Book Fairs
- (g) Bazaars

8. Suggestions for other C.P.C. activities (non-financial). Take magazines and books to the following places:

- (a) Nursing Homes
- (b) Launderettes
- (c) Doctor's Waiting Rooms
- (d) College dorms
- (e) Retarded Childrens Classes
- (f) Day Nurseries
- (g) Jails
- (h) County Home
- (i) Shut-ins
- (j) Retired friends

Note: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of C.P.C. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be made to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the source, so the proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the C.P.C. Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Your Diocesan Director wants to help in any way she can to further this important work in the Church. Please feel free to call on her.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1973-74
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

The complacency of the Church and its self-satisfaction in the 1950's gave rise to the dedication of church program in the 60's to social action. In spite of many mistakes this was a healthy reaction. No Christian can ever be complacent and self-satisfied. The Christian life is a continuous movement toward and search for the perfection of God's will.

In the late 60's and early 70's this reaction was tempered by a renewed interest in prayer groups, charismatic and pentecostal religious experiences. Now there are more religious movements of one sort or another beating at the Church's door at one time than most of us have known in a lifetime. This reaction has also been healthy insofar as it has reminded the Church of its duty to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Now we can hope that the Church will reach a balance between action and prayer, between work and worship, between faith and good deeds. There can be no real faith without works, no Christian works that are not grounded in Christian conviction, no love without justice, and no Christian justice without the love of God.

We look forward to programs in the Church where Christian education leads to Christian action, where we bring our talents and gifts to the altar, and go out from the Presence of Christ to love all people, to reconcile all differences, and to overcome the evils which are destroying society.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless, we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we seek to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of.....Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the

Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ninety-First Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

CHRIST CHURCH
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA
MAY 1, 2, 1973

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1973

Bishop Fraser, Bishop Moore, delegates and guests, welcome to this the 91st Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina. To the members of our host parish, Christ Church, who have done so much to make this meeting possible, our thanks for a job well done.

I have met with many Branch groups during my years as president of the Churchwomen of this diocese. Episcopal Churchwomen are interesting, fun and beautiful. All meetings have been different in one sense but alike in the underlying feeling that we all desire to serve our Lord and His Church. In Branches where a large majority of the women hold outside jobs, the structure of the organization is changing. Subjects of study are geared to new interests. Programs often include the whole parish family. In transient congregations the churchwomen are great in their sensitivity and determination to serve the changing needs of their members and also to serve people in other parts of the diocese and world through their participation in the Diocesan structure of the Churchwomen. The variety of interests and talents of women provide a challenge in Branches to offer meaningful worship and study programs as well as opportunities for service that are spiritually stimulating for every woman in the parish. Corporate worship and study interest and inspire some women. Prayer groups are increasing in the Branches, many with a renewed emphasis on spiritual healing. Bazaars, food fairs, gift shops and different kinds of money raising projects seem to excite and interest many women. These women are working with their special talents, giving their time and enjoying the challenge and fellowship of activity that will make money which in turn will be put to work serving God.

In 1972 there were 10 Quiet Days held throughout the diocese with approximately 354 women in attendance. Since last Annual Meeting there has been one well attended Worship Retreat at the Terraces. The Churchwomen's Summer Conference last June at Kanuga showed an increase in attendance over the past few years with 44 women present. Spring Workshops increased in attendance again this year with great enthusiasm shown by women sharing this worshipping and learning experience.

Through special gifts and the diocesan budget, Churchwomen have given approximately $56,000.00 to mission work of the Church outside of the local parish. This does not include the United Thank Offering. It is a good guess that nearly this same amount has been given for work in the local parish. Nearly $3,000.00 more was given in 1972 than in 1971. Diocesan institutions were supported with gifts of money. Churchwomen of Branches near these institutions also have given their service with love and concern. Mission work in Haiti, Hong Kong and Nepal was of special interest this year. Work of the Drug Action Committee of Chapel Hill and St. Christopher's Mission to the Navajo in Utah, received generous support. Missionary work of Jocelyn Gordon in India and The Rev. Beverly Tucker in Japan also have been given generous support. One of the most imaginative projects of the Churchwomen was done by St. Stephen's, Durham when they sponsored their choir director and his wife as teachers at the School of Music with Sister Anne Marie in Haiti. The 1972 United Thank Offering was the highest total North Carolina has ever had—$30,136.86. The Ingathering has increased over $6,000.00 in the past two years.

What works in the Diocese of North Carolina? The Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization that works in this diocese. With the background of studying the mission of the church, the Churchwomen understand and feel the need of people. They know what it is to go to the sick and lonely, to help teach the retarded and underprivileged, to feed and cheer the hungry. They understand the special mission of a Christian to serve on the school board, the hospital guild, the United Fund Committee, as den mothers and girl scout leaders. Churchwomen know and care about the missionary work of the Church. Churchwomen serve on vestries, committees and as delegates to Convention with unique insight and knowledge. Because the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen has, for years, provided additional opportunities for worship and prayer, Churchwomen experience today freedom and joy in God's service. The organization is good only because it enables women to be better Christians. The Churchwomen of today have been strengthened by the Churchwomen of the past. We have a great heritage of love, understanding and intelligence on which we build our present service.

It is popular today to speak of "the changing role of women." The roles of all people have been changing since the beginning of time. The basic need of people has always remained the same. The mission of the Church is the same as it was in Christ's day on earth. To more fully understand and serve our Lord today is every Christian's duty. Episcopal Churchwomen is a concerned core of people filled with determination and hope for the mission of the Church.

Many women, from parishes and missions inside and outside this diocese that have disbanded their women's groups, have said they felt that they knew from experience what the phrase "dissolving into a vacuum" meant. The great programs shared in a parish or mission which keep members informed, involved, and which create a strong feeling of fellowship could take place without a Churchwomen's organization—but unfortunately in most places it does not happen, and the loss of an organization that initiates and promotes a working program is seriously felt.

The Diocese of North Carolina is moving with a renewal of life and spirit. Our changing roles move us to greater participation in the life of the whole church. The structure and the programs of the Episcopal Churchwomen help keep us informed and our vision clear enabling us to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master. In response to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry the Episcopal Churchwomen are a great witness.

Mrs. W. J. Long, Jr.
President

PRESIDENT'S ACCEPTANCE

During these hours we have spent together here at Christ Church we have heard many words spoken about the work of the church and especially that work carried on by and through the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is an impressive story.

One of the important reasons for a meeting such as this is that we come together from all sections of the diocese as a living witness to our faith—OUR BELIEF IN JESUS CHRIST. From this meeting we receive inspiration and encouragement from one another enabling us to return home renewed.

All of us are involved in membership and participation in many organizations in our communities in addition to our churches. Many of these groups have similar or parallel goals to those of the church. However, I believe there is a difference and that is in motivation. Our secular groups are motivated from a basis of social, economic, and human need. We are motivated by faith in Christ, which is LOVE. To make Him known in all the world is the special task appointed to the church.

And so as we return to our planning let us remember that our job is not so much the QUANTITY OF WORKS—but first the QUALITY OF LIVES.

It is not that we want to be a cloistered group, for our faith must act or it is dead, but I am suggesting that we continue to place a high priority on the devotional and educational portions of our plans so that the quality of our lives will show forth not only in what we do as Episcopal Churchwomen, but in what we do in all our lives.

I look forward to serving as your president. By the Grace of God and with your help, we shall work together in such a way that the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Diocese of North Carolina will continue to be "a creative witness" to Our Lord.

Mrs. Eric G. Flannagan, Jr.

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Bishop Moore, Bishop Haynsworth, Members of the Clergy, Mrs. Long, delegates and visitors to the 91st Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting in Raleigh at Christ Church:

It is a great joy for the Episcopal Churchwomen to come together each year for inspiration and guidance. Bishop Haynsworth has shown us that we can be a creative witness by meeting the spiritual and the physical needs of all people. The Episcopal Churchwomen believe and work toward this end.

Our special thanks to Chairman Mrs. W. C. Harris, Jr., and her committees and Mrs. Frederick W. Lewis, Jr., President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church. The hospitality and graciousness coupled with the surroundings have made this a perfect meeting.

To June Long we give our love and heartfelt thanks. Her dedicated leadership has truly been a glowing example of a Creative Witness.

Mrs. Henry C. Bernhardt, Chairman
Mrs. Henry Moncure

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1972 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statement taken as a whole.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women ofChurch", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry—ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 56.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 59.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. HENRY M. BEST, JR., SECRETARY
4113 Pavilion Place, Durham 27707

THE WORSHIP OF GOD is the first business of every parish and its organizations, indeed of our lives. God cannot speak to us unless we give Him a chance to do so; we must listen in order to hear Him and we cannot listen unless we are still.

To live balanced Christian lives, we must make regular times of quiet and listening to God in order for God to be able to work in and through us. In doing this, I do not mean an introspective withdrawal from the world. It is not Christian to try to escape this world. I mean to find the real center of your world, thereby enabling you to live in this world more effectively. As Devotional Life Secretaries, I urge you, if you are not doing so already, to establish a personal relationship with God and you will find yourselves better able to perform your duties of office. Encourage family prayer and Bible study as well as personal and corporate worship.

During the past year I have corresponded with the Branch Secretaries of Devotional Life during the Fall and Spring, as well as at the times that retreat notices were sent to each Branch. A six-page bibliography was prepared and mailed, and I urge you to secure this from your predecessor. I will inform you of new books that are published or suggested by the Branches.

One Convocation and eleven Branches conducted Quiet Mornings, then there were Parish Retreats and E.C.W. Branch retreats held at convenient locations within the Diocese.

An E.C.W. worship retreat was held during a weekend in January, conducted by the Rev. John C. Mott of Chapel Hill. It was well attended and most helpful and inspiring. Bishop Moore will conduct a worship retreat during January, 1974, and we hope to offer another weekend retreat for those who find the weekends more convenient.

There has been a noticeable increase in Bible study and prayer groups throughout the Diocese, and many more E.C.W. Branches are beginning their meetings, either Branch or Chapter meetings, with Holy Communion.

I have visited and talked with two groups of women this year and am grateful for the privilege of serving you and especially sharing in your love for our Lord and His Church.

Please contact me at any time. I am anxious to pass along suggestions that have been effective for other Branches or put you in touch with those who will be able to assist you in planning your particular Branch Devotional Life programs and activities.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. WALTER ¹ELSEE, SECRETARY
824 South First Street, Smithfield 27577

"Make us ever mindful of the needs of others" is a prayer that we offer often and maybe without too much thought about what we are saying. The role of the Christian Social Relations Secretary should be to make the words in this prayer come alive to the members of her Branch. She should lead them in recognizing and seeking out the unmet needs of our brothers, far and near; and she should remind them that their response to their fellowman is their actual response to God and His Love.

Since there are needs all around us, at every level—parish, community, diocese, and world—it obviously becomes a matter of choice, which needs are most pressing and which can be best served. The leadership of a strong C.S.R. secretary is invaluable at this point, because it is important to evaluate not only the need, but also the talents Branch members have to give, when choosing a service project. Each person should be led to realize her own responsibility to use her talents to glorify God, individually and together with other churchwomen. Christian service is a blessing to both giver and receiver when we use our special talents to become God's agents in any given situation.

The opportunities for service are as numerous and varied as our imaginations will allow us to conceive. This year in the diocese, churchwomen have served in countless ways to make life happier and better for their fellowmen. They have offered transportation for people who had no other way to get to their jobs, or to hospitals, or mental health clinics, etc. They have befriended international students and other foreigners in their midst. They have visited in nursing homes, rest homes, mental hospitals, and institutions for the mentally retarded, helping the patients in innumerable ways; and they have served as aides in general hospitals. Halfway houses for alcoholics, tutoring programs, day care centers, prison release programs, playground and recreational programs, crisis intervention or teleministry programs, breakfast clubs for needy children are areas where churchwomen have acted to fill needs in their own communities. Social Service Departments, Community Action Agencies, The Salvation Army and many other agencies have counted on the volunteer help they have received from us at board level and otherwise.

Episcopal Child Care Service continues to need and get the support of every branch in the Diocese, especially since the problems facing youth today are so complex and the solutions to them, if they can be found, are costly. Also the Tree House, functioning under the auspices of the Chapel Hill Drug Action Committee (which also operates Switchboard and Genesis House) needs money to help care for children whose home adjustments are so bad that it seems advisable for someone else to help them learn a way of life more compatible to society. Many a hard-earned dollar from bazaars, antique shows, carnivals, bargain shops, etc., has found its way to these two institutions as well as to Christ the King Center, the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, and many other home and foreign mission endeavors in the name of Christian Social Relations.

In both large and small communities, churchwomen are finding it wise and rewarding to combine with other churches to attain goals that might prove impossible for one group alone. Churchwomen United provides an especially good organizational headquarters for community concerns such as Adult Basic Education, Migrant Ministry, Job Corps, Meals on Wheels, Church World Service Clothing Appeal, and the World Day of Prayer. The ecumenical note that is sounded when we join forces with members of other churches to accomplish something for God, becomes an added dividend for us.

As dedicated churchwomen we need to be informed on the social issues of the day, take a stand in the light of what we feel would be God's will, and inform our legislators and congressmen of this stand.

If I can help you select individual or group projects for your Branch, please ask me. I have addresses for lots of services such as: Laubach Literacy ("Each One Teach One"), American Leprosy Missions, Christian Children's Fund, Inc., etc.

Above all, we must be concerned and alert to keep Christian Social Relations alive in our churches.

MISSIONS

MRS. EDWARD T. MULVEY, JR., SECRETARY
3228 Pennington Lane, Winston-Salem 27106

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. Use the prayer manual RESPONSE, a devotional guide, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the churchwomen can accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggestions for special projects will be sent upon request.

3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. E. T. Mulvey, Jr., Secretary (address above) and mailed to her by November 20th.

4. By action of the 1973 Annual Meeting the 1974 Epiphany Offering will go to Sister Anne Marie, Holy Trinity School, Port-au-Prince, Haiti. As most of you know, Sister Anne Marie works with the children in the school. Fifty of this group will be in the U. S. this fall to give musical concerts. They will sing and play at the Triennial Convention in Louisville. Branches not having a Corporate Communion are urged to contribute to the offering. Send checks to Mrs. James A. Hill, Jr., Treasurer, 3606 Corbin St., Raleigh 27609.

5. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. CHARLES MCLENDON, SECRETARY
2318 Kirkpatrick Place
Greensboro, N. C. 27408

"A faithful heart is what you want; fill my mind with your wisdom," sings the Psalmist in THE PSALMS FOR MODERN MAN (Today's English Version) and this is the prayer which the Branch Secretaries of Christian Education may indeed invoke as we plan our programs for the year. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Let me again urge you to write to me, your Diocesan Secretary, for any further help you need. All Diocesan officers stand ready to provide you with material for programs which fall under their individual rubrics: Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc. Participation in the Annual Conference at Kanuga is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, graphics, multi-media and church institutions also are at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian education to our Churchwomen. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as the women are varied and presented in many different ways: by speakers, by panel discussions, by quizzes, by team-teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round-robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of THE EPISCOPALIAN, THE LIVING CHURCH, and THE CHURCHMAN. When you go to Kanuga, to Annual Meeting, to Richmond or Atlanta, remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. But don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again; some may want to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or the Church in North Carolina. Get to know them and their wishes—consult them before you chart your course.

There are many interesting new books available and the following bibliography may be helpful:

Wilfred Smith, The Faith of Other Men (Harper Torchbooks)

Richard Urdahl, Plays for Clowns in Christ (Fortress Press, Philadelphia)

John Robinson, The Difference in Being a Christian Today (Westminster Press, Philadelphia)

Beyond the Facts, Acts—a process guide about Justice, Liberation, and Development in your community: (Friendship Press, P. O. Box 37844, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45227)

John Coburn, A Life to Live—A Way to Pray (Seabury Press, New York)

Jean M. Haldane, Geyer, etc., Prescriptions for Parishes, advice on how to conduct an examination of your church the way a doctor treats a patient. (Seabury Press)

RADIO/TV CATALOGUE

Radio and TV are both excellent sources for programs and you are urged to write for a descriptive booklet on films and cassette recordings available from the Episcopal Radio/TV Foundation: 15 Sixteenth Street, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., 30309.

An excellent film on church work among the American Indians is also available from Roa's Films, 1696 North Astor Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202, entitled Others Will Follow. Rental of this 15 minute film is $10.00 and records the Consecration of the Rt. Rev. Harols S. Jones, Suffragan Bishop of South Dakota. It documents the historical presence of the Dakota people in the church and shows how it affects their lives.

A WORD ABOUT PRAYER

Let us remember especially this year to integrate worship and meditations with our programs. The following two brief suggestions may be worth your examination:

Response, the publications from the Forward Movement, 412 Sycamore Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

Compilation of Graces Before Meals, Commission on Christian Education and Communication of the Diocese of Nevada, c/o Mrs. Jo Butler, 6995 Kimlick Lane, Reno, Nevada 89502.

Remember during the coming year to make each program a thing of beauty and to call upon your branch officers, your rector, and your Diocesan officers, at any time.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

SYLBERT PENDLETON, TREASURER
525 Wade Ave. No. 49, Raleigh 27605

If you are reading this, you are interested in the deep satisfaction of giving thanks to God for his many blessings the United Thank Offering way, and in the furthering of His mission with the monies so collected.

How wonderful you all are, those who made possible this past year such a splendid offering. The 1972 offering of $30,136.84 was the best we have ever given. This means, I hope, that more and more of you are gaining joy in this way of offering thanks.

Those of you who are new to the pleasure of being a United Thank Offering Treasurer will find help with the mechanics of the job listed below. You have already found or will find, I am sure, that the printed word conveys very little about the United Thank Offering. Talk to each other; listen to your U.T.O. officer; let me come to visit with you and share in your knowledge, and you in mine.

May God bless you all, and allow me to meet many more of you in the coming year.

PARISH

1. To be thoroughly informed about the "why" of giving the United Thank Offering way, and about the people who receive the money; to see that your program chairman saves at least one meeting a year for you to tell everyone about it.

2. At least six weeks before an ingathering, to order from Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York City 10017 sufficient Blue Boxes to be sure that each woman has one, Blue Envelopes for ingatherings, the most recent UTO Grant List and UTO prayer card to be given to every woman in your church. (Remember, nothing is ever taken out of the United Thank Offering money; any expenses of the above must be paid by your E.C.W. or your church.)

3. To arrange with your Rector for the Spring and Fall Ingatherings (on or near the Feast of the Annunciation and St. Luke's Day), to publicize them well ahead of time, and perhaps to persuade your Rector to preach on the subject the SUNDAY BEFORE (giving him a copy of the U.T.O. prayer to use), or to secure any knowledgeable speaker.

4. To gather the offering and three weeks after the Ingathering (this allows time for delayed participation), to send one check to cover the full amount to your Convocation treasurer along with a record of the number of envelopes sent out, the number returned, and an estimate of the number attending the Ingathering.

CONVOCATION TREASURER

To keep accurate records of the offerings and participation records of each Branch; to send a copy to the Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer along with one check covering total offering within one month of the Ingathering; and to mail filmstrips upon request to the churches in your Convocation. (Hopefully, by fall, we shall have a new film strip.)

DIOCESAN

1. To be available to visit any branch, when requested, to help them learn more about the United Thank Offering than her letters (sent before each Ingathering) can tell; to attend all board meetings, conduct workshops, keep in touch with provincial and national representatives to acquire the needed information.

2. To receive the Ingathering monies from the Convocations and to send one check to the National Treasurer; to keep the records of each church; and to send an annual Financial Report to the E.C.W. Treasurer, a general report to the Annual Meeting, and this informational article for the Year Book.

3. To arrange for representatives of each Convocation to take up the offering at the Diocesan Ingathering at the Holy Communion Service at our Annual Meeting, and to see that the Celebrant has a copy of the U.T.O. prayer.

4. To take care of the United Thank Offering Alms Bason and to lend it to any church requesting it. This beautiful Alms Bason was completely made in 1955 from donations of silver and gold from women all over the diocese.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. CHARLES WELCH, SECRETARY
400 Wiley Avenue
Salisbury, N. C. 28144

College work on the changing campus of today must be redefined, and we, in turn, as Episcopal Churchwomen must respond to the new definition in a dynamic, relevant way. Father Patrick LaBelle, O.P., says in the publication Synthesis—The Church and the University.

Our search showed us that young people (on campus) today are not looking to the church to establish for them another home. It was no longer a refuge from the pressures and dreariness of the university that the church needed to provide. Rather it was the symbol of mobility, flexibility and creativity that was needed. Be a tent and not a home, we were told. Show us the way in a world torn by death, prejudice, hunger and fear. Show us the way to live and celebrate, don't provide us with a refuge.

At our ECW Annual Meeting in May, the Reverend Jacob Viverette, Episcopal Chaplain at Wake Forest University, spoke to us on the chaplain's role, or even dilemma, on the campus in the 70's. The following is my short summary of his address:

The late 50's were the Golden Age of college work. Expensive student centers were built on campuses across the nation. At Duke, an Episcopal center was erected; at Chapel Hill a new wing was added to the Chapel of the Cross for chaplain and students; in Winston-Salem, St. Paul's funded their first chaplaincy; Greensboro did the same. These were the days of successful Canterbury Clubs. The chaplain was to provide a home away from home. Students dropped by to talk about problems. The Church had a great model going for the times.

THEN—the machine broke down. The Church did not make adequate preparation for changes. It happened quickly. Riots occurred, anti-war demonstrations were held. In the spring of 1970, the horror of Kent State and Jackson State took place. How has the Church reacted to change?

Some chaplains related to political activists.

Some chaplains identified with hippie communities.

Some focussed on the drug scene—or wherever no one else was involved.

Some reversed the trend and continued the traditional ministry with success.

They found that there is not just one way to do college work.

Mr. Viverette concluded his remarks by challenging college work secretaries and all Episcopal Churchwomen with the following works:

Inform yourselves about the institutions in your midst. As the needs emerge, try to meet them. Invite someone from one of these institutions to speak at your meetings. Find out if these institutions are meeting the needs for which they were designed; for example, community colleges and technical institutes. Show your concern close to home! Find out the needs of the students and faculty members and try to respond.

Do they have an adequate counseling program? If not, could your rector aid them? What about the foreign students—have you remembered them? Do the institutions have insufficient funds for some of their worthwhile programs?

At our Spring Workshops, our college work secretaries shared with each other ways to keep in touch with the students in their own parishes who are away at school. Some of the ways were: send them the parish paper; send cards at birthday and other holidays; arrange a get-together for college students home from school; ask college students to usher one Sunday when home at Christmas or Easter; or have one Sunday when college students serve as acolytes. Be creative in your effort to keep college students informed about the life of the parish.

Christian Ministries, the second half of our department, is not a field to be neglected. Opportunities are present for both men and women. Write Virginia Seminary or St. Luke's Theological School, Sewanee, Tenn., for slides and material for programs.

PROMOTION

MRS. MELVIN LEWIS FINCH, JR.
2110 St. Mary's Street, Raleigh 27608

Essential duties of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary are:

1. To keep churchwomen throughout the diocese informed about the programs and activities by articles published in the North Carolina Churchman.
2. To promote Episcopal Churchwomen and their activities by means of news media.
3. To assist branch officers in promoting their individual programs and activities.
4. To serve as a member of the Executive Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina.

During the past year, the Secretary of Promotion has attempted to keep the Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina informed about their activities through news and feature stories in the North Carolina Churchman and in the secular press across the diocese. This use of local news media has not only informed our members, but has informed the general public of the existence and activities of our organization.

The Secretary has tried to assist Convocation Chairman and Branch officers in promoting their respective programs and activities. Additionally she has helped the host churches in promoting the Annual Meeting for the last two years. She has tried to establish a rapport with the public press which could aid the convocations and branches in securing better news coverage for their work.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that some one is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your diocesan secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. DAVID ABEL, CHAIRMAN
3505 Winstead Road, Rocky Mount 27801

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

These services are twofold:

First: SERVICE TO GUILDS

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.

Second: SERVICES TO PARISHES, PRIESTS, GUILDS AND ECW

This office will provide assistance

1. To newly established missions, in obtaining a set of linens.
2. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need. These items are available for a period of one year, after which they are returned to the home Parish if they wish, or recirculated. I have a list of items available.
3. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. R. O. MARTINELLI, DIRECTOR
710 Wimberly Drive, Greensboro, N. C. 27410

The Church Periodical Club, which works through individuals, parishes, dioceses, and is the only Episcopal agency devoted to supplying free the printed tools of learning, is one of the most effective ministries of the printed word. Since 1888 it has been dedicated to this service which is, presently, acting through a forward thrust aimed at today's new—old problems.

The National Books Fund of C.P.C. receives requests from the most remote reaches of the Anglican Communion, and from as near as the next block. Askings range from a single Spanish prayer book for a prisoner to provisioning an entire library. Large requests must be endorsed by an authority—a bishop, dean, or the administrator of an institution. All requests are processed and acted upon by an experienced committee.

What does C.P.C. supply? All printed materials—religious, educational, medical, technical, recreational—needed for the Church's larger mission. Translations of the prayer book and hymnal in Braille for the blind, big print for the poorly sighted, devotional reading for prayer groups, church school material, text books—for use on reservations, in ghettos, in community and campus centers; inspirational, recreational reading for servicemen, shut-ins, missionaries; material needed to train nurses, doctors, technicians, indigenous clergy—all are provided. A donation may bolster the morale of many men of good will, may enable an agronomist to relieve the malnutrition in a large area, a translator to lighten the darkness of a whole people. In Africa one book may serve 200 readers! A gift to the National Books Fund may make enlightened citizens of children otherwise doomed to illiteracy.

In our diocese, the Church Periodical Club work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of C.P.C., and carried out by C.P.C. Secretaries in the branches.

Suggested Procedure for C.P.C. Secretaries

1. Review records and materials with the previous C.P.C. Secretary.
2. Learn and understand the work of the Church Periodical Club. Make plans to promote this work effectively in your branch.
3. Discuss with your clergyman the importance of C.P.C.'s work and ask for his approval and support of your efforts to promote it.
4. Ask your E.C.W. President for the opportunity to present a special program on C.P.C. for your branch.
5. Be sure to include the Church Periodical Club in your E.C.W. budget.
6. Keep informed about C.P.C. communications, news, and materials. The folder "Do You Know What a Book Can Do?" can be obtained free from your Diocesan Director or the National Office.
7. Promote gifts to the National Books Fund and the Seminarian Book Scholarship Project. Some ways to make money are:
 - (a) C.P.C. Sunday place C.P.C. folders and offering envelopes in pews and ask the clergy to use C.P.C. prayer.
 - (b) Coin Cards—These cards hold only dimes, so most of the chapters pass an ash tray and then you can put any amount in.

- (c) Budget (E.C.W. or parish)
- (d) Sales—books, cakes, white elephants
- (e) Memorials
- (f) Bazaars

8. Suggestions for other C.P.C. activities (non-financial)—Take magazines and books to the following places:

- (a) Nursing Homes
- (b) Launderettes
- (c) Doctor's Waiting Rooms
- (d) College dorms
- (e) Special Education Classes
- (f) Day Nurseries
- (g) Jails
- (h) County Home
- (i) Shut-ins and retired people

Note: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of C.P.C. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be made to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the source, so the proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the C.P.C. Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Your Diocesan Director wants to help in any way she can to further this important work in the Church. Please feel free to call on her.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1974-75
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

The Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen at St. Mary's Church, High Point, had a good spirit about it. The attitude of the delegates seemed to match that of the officers more than I had noticed previously. There was a genuine interest in program—not just program for program's sake or a feeling that something needed to be done because it had always been done.

There was a concern about the needs of others and how the Episcopal Churchwomen should responsibly show their concern in a material and spiritual way. There was also a stronger emphasis on worship and participation in worship. Everyone seemed to be down to business, the Lord's business.

For some time now the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Diocese of North Carolina have been moving in these directions. They are not new directions, but there seems to be a new determination and a new spirit. The Church must be the Church. The Gospel must be lived. May God bless and strengthen every undertaking of the Episcopal Churchwomen as they move forward.

PRAYERS

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant). Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be dedicated to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son; and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women ofChurch, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the

Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee.
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them the vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In Memoriam

MARGARET GEMMELL HOLMES

BORN: November 4, 1900 in Edinburgh, Scotland

Emigrated to Canada, 1908

DIED: November 14, 1973, in South Bend, Indiana where she had lived for a short time with her daughter.

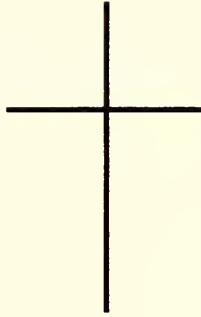

Resident of Chapel Hill since 1925, and faithful communicant of the Chapel of the Cross and then of the Church of the Holy Family, which she and her husband helped to organize and which she later served as the first woman member of the Vestry.

She is survived by her daughters, Mary Holmes Bernard and Anne Holmes Hubbard, and her son, the Very Reverend Urban Tigner Holmes, III, Dean of the School of Theology, University of the South.

In the Episcopal Churchwomen she was a loyal and willing worker, serving among other capacities as President of her branch and twice as President of the Diocese. In the community she was an amateur actress associated with the Carolina Playmakers, and French plays produced by the University's department of Romance Languages. She served as President of both the AAUW and the University Women's Club. During the Second World War, when she and her husband lived in Washington, she worked for the British Army Staff and later in North Carolina for a time as a newspaper reporter.

A person of great charm and poise, she was an elegant lady who was a firm believer in quality, good manners and thrift. Beloved by her children and grandchildren and an inspiration to all who knew her, she manifested in her life a warm and generous spirit which found its deepest satisfaction in service to her Church and to her Lord.

Thanks be to God for His servant Margaret who gave of herself generously, lovingly and willingly. May she go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His heavenly Kingdom.

Ninety-Second Annual Meeting
EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

ST. MARY'S CHURCH
HIGH POINT, NORTH CAROLINA
APRIL 30, AND MAY 1, 1974

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting 1974

It seems but a few brief weeks ago that I stood in a similar spot in Christ Church, Raleigh and was installed as your president. The year has passed with incredible speed. It has been a year filled with moments of joy and sorrow, anxiety and frustration, hope and enthusiasm.

The moments of joy have included those times when I represented you at the synod meeting held at Kanuga last June and as one of your delegates to the Triennial in Louisville in October. It was also with joy that I had a part, as your representative, in the Holy Communion Service at the Diocesan Ordination and again at the Diocesan Convention.

A moment of sorrow was experienced when I represented you at the Requiem Mass, in The Church of the Holy Family, Chapel Hill, for one of our former diocesan presidents, Mrs. Urban T. Holmes, Jr.

Moments of anxiety and frustration were felt in the summer when I became a grandmother, our Treasurer had a new baby, and our Secretary became a Mother-of-the-bride-to-be. These same feelings came to me in the early winter, when in the face of our fuel crisis, plans and decisions had to be made for such diocesan wide activities as our Retreat, Board Meetings, Spring Workshops, Annual Meeting, and The Churchwomen's Conference. ☩

Hope and enthusiasm have come as the result of your solid support and response to all of our plans. The Retreat for Churchwomen held at the Terraces in January was filled to capacity. The February Board Meeting, coming in the midst of this states greatest fuel shortage, and meeting on the campus of St. Augustine's College, was attended by all but two of the Board Members. They came from Charlotte, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, and Burlington, relay fashion, changing cars along the way for ones with a fresh fuel supply. Your response to the Spring Workshops was beyond our expectations. I estimate over five hundred women attended the four convocation workshops held in March. I hope your enthusiasm will continue to be strong and see us through a successful Episcopal Churchwomen's Conference.

As diocesan president I have had numerous occasions to visit among you through convocation meetings and visits to your individual branches. I have attended meetings with an attendance of over one hundred and I have been a part of a small branch with six persons present. Through all of these contacts I have seen and felt the Holy Spirit at work. Many branches are reporting new and creative plans. More and more their thrust is community oriented. I have no accurate statistics, but many more branches are reporting that they have held a Quiet Day, a Quiet Evening, or a Retreat for their own women and neighboring branches. This response to worship surely indicates that our women are seeing a different dimension in their work from that of the Jr. League, The Woman's Club, or the League of Women Voters. Wherever I have gone there has been enthusiasm and a real interest in the work of the churchwomen which has underscored my conviction of hope for the future.

The Episcopal Churchwomen along with the whole church has suffered through a decade of unsettling events. We have come through this period on the strength of some very positive leadership by our former presidents who refused to be defeated. They stood fast and immovable, for they had a vision for the future.

Now it is in our hands. I am not an ostrich with my head in the sand. I am well aware that for every branch giving me an enthusiastic report there is one with no comment or a comment such as "we are trying to hang in there". The record shows we are holding our own in the number of organized branches. We have met our 1973 budget of $21,000.00. We have given an all time high of $31,462.34 to the United Thank Offering. In addition to this we have reported over $42,000.00 given through special offerings such as the Church Periodical Club, the Epiphany and Lenten Offerings, and from the proceeds of our projects, fairs, and bazaars.

How are we, the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, to meet the challenge of the next decade?

I shy away from the expression "some changes must be made," for many of us are put on the defensive when the word change is mentioned. For some it implies being critical of the past. Of course this is not true for our progress through life should be a growth process demanding new ideas, new approaches and new vision.

Let me share with you some of the new vision already apparent in our diocesan churchwomen's program and some that is proposed.

Following Annual Meeting last spring a study committee was appointed to review the program of Retreats, Workshops, and Conferences. Recommendations were made and approved at the fall meeting of the Churchwomen's Executive Board. It was recommended that we continue to plan for one Retreat a year to be held in January or February. The committee recommended that we try a new format for our Spring Workshops. Rather than beginning with the usual service of Holy Communion, which is available to most of us weekly in our own parishes, we substituted a clergy led meditation as our corporate worship following the workshop sessions. I am certain this was successful for some, not so successful for others. We are in the process of evaluating these workshop days and our plans are open for another year.

The study committee further recommended a completely new approach to the Episcopal Churchwomen's Conference. This fall we will hold a seminar at Quail Roost, near Durham, in place of our summer Kanuga conference. The reasons for this recommendation were several. Spring Workshops have become the training and planning sessions for branch officers thus decreasing the demand or need for this at our conference. The need seems greater for a seminar as a teaching tool in some basic Christian and spiritual concepts. We hope that this will give us an opportunity to explore and deal with some of the issues that face Christians and especially women in our present world. The committee also felt a need to bring our conference nearer to the center of the diocese and to schedule it at a time when children are settled in their school routines, thus enabling participation of our young mothers. The Adult Conference at Kanuga, scheduled for June 29 - July 5, is available for anyone who wants that type of conference.

Some proposed "new vision" concerns our stewardship—our budget and other areas of special giving. During the past decade of unrest in the church one of the areas hardest hit has been that of our giving. Our leaders correctly took the attitude, "this is no time for any change"—"let's not rock the boat". A review of our budgets over the past few years will indicate only slight changes in the total amount and few alterations in the areas of our giving. In these days of inflation I do not need to remind you, that to stand still means to move backwards. I propose to have a careful study made of our budget and our areas of giving. Our constitution carefully spells out the membership of the finance committee, but I will appoint an ad hoc committee to work under the leadership of our treasurer. This committee will be appointed soon after adjournment of Annual Meeting and charged with undertaking this study along with the finance committee. They will be asked to make recommendations for a more challenging procedure for the 1976 budget. I would further hope that they will develop some areas for challenge giving to receive some of the extra funds earned by branches through their various projects, fairs, and bazaars.

Another area of our work that seems to need re-thinking is that division we call "Christian Ministries and College Work." This has been a nebulous area for some time and we need to make it clearer on diocesan level and then to the branches. A study on college ministry is now in progress by a committee of the Diocesan Council and hopefully they will come up with some help for us. If not I will instigate a study of this division by our own diocesan officer.

The understanding of missions and especially foreign missions is another area calling for new vision. Changes in attitude have taken place on the national church level and this needs to be clarified to us on diocesan and branch level. This, too, is under study and I look for some guide lines to emerge.

There is strong evidence of hope and enthusiasm from the grass roots of this diocese. It may be that I am just getting older, but I sensed an increased participation of younger women in our spring workshops. They seemed eager and concerned. We must meet their challenge head-on. Any review of the history of churchwomen, by whatever their name, will indicate they have always stood on the leading edge of the church's work. They have been ready to look with faith and confidence into what often seems to be a dim and misty future, where there are no maps or guide books. Can we do less than those who have preceded us?

Let us proceed by using this prayer as our guide:

"God be in our heads, and in our understanding;
God be in our eyes, and in our looking;
God be in our mouths, and in our speaking;
God be in our hands, and in our serving;
God be in our hearts, and set them on fire."

AMEN.

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Madame President, delegates and guests to the 92nd Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting at St. Mary's Church in High Point:

Our President stated she had set no theme for the meeting, but as the program unfolded, throughout ran the theme of the banner which greeted us as we entered the church. From the reports, messages, and actions, everything said to us: "Love isn't love 'til you give it away."

The women of St. Mary's showed us their love as they gave it away to us with their hospitality, kindness and concern during our meeting. To them a love-filled thank you.

Mrs. Kemp Battle Nye, Chairman

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1973 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1973 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

PURPOSE AND PROGRAM

Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.

Churchwomen have been pioneers in mission and ministry. To quote from the Committee on Mutual Responsibility: "The women of the Church, especially through the United Thank Offering, have long anticipated the concept of Mutual Responsibility."

Episcopal Churchwomen must continue a program of worship, study, fellowship, and action with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and joy. We must respond to the challenge to new and creative forms of ministry—ever seeking new and creative ways to deepen our commitment to Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, to serve Him obediently, and to witness to His reality, power, and glory.

ORGANIZATION IN THE DIOCESE

See the Constitution and By-Laws in this YEAR BOOK, page 54.

ORGANIZATION IN THE CONVOCATION

See the Constitution, Article X, page 57.

ORGANIZATION IN A PARISH OR MISSION

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OFFICERS

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. D. JAMES COLEMAN, JR., SECRETARY
800 Macon Place, Raleigh 27609

The goal of human life is to be aware of the Presence of God.

"I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever." John 6:51

There are four main channels through which this living bread comes to us. We hope to emphasize these this year.

1. Daily Bible Reading. Our source book of the spiritual life is the Bible on which all reliable guidebooks are based. In order to know and love and serve God, we must read his Word . . . and reflect under the direction of the Holy Spirit on what we read so that we may relate it to our everyday living.

2. Prayer . . . and family prayer. Prayer brings us into contact with God. What a wonderful thought that we can come to Him, talk with Him and experience His love, joy and power in our lives.

3. Holy Communion. It is called "Holy Communion" because feeding with spiritual food is stressed. Jesus instituted this Sacrament for the purpose of drawing us to him in the most intimate and perfect union.

4. Practice the Presence of God. Our lives will become a glad fulfilment of his promise, "Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world".

We plan a worship retreat in January. The date and conductor to be announced.

Please plan a Quiet Day in your church, or you may wish to join with another church.

The aim of quiet days and retreats is perhaps most perfectly expressed in the words of a second-century saint: "Ask of larger wisdom than thou hast". We enter a retreat to ask guidance from God, so that his rule in our hearts may be more complete.

I am mailing a list of reading material to each branch.

If I can help you in any way, please let me know.

Let's put LOVE into life this year!

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. WALTER ELSEE, SECRETARY
824 South First Street, Smithfield 27577

"Make us ever mindful of the needs of others" is a prayer that we offer often and maybe without too much thought about what we are saying. The role of the Christian Social Relations Secretary should be to make the words in this prayer come alive to the members of her Branch. She should lead them in recognizing and seeking out the unmet needs of our brothers, far and near; and she should remind them that their response to their fellowman is their actual response to God and His Love.

Since there are needs all around us, at every level—parish, community, diocese, and world—it obviously becomes a matter of choice, which needs are most pressing and which can be best served. The leadership of a strong C.S.R. secretary is invaluable at this point, because it is important to evaluate not only the need, but also the talents Branch members have to give, when choosing a service project. Each person should be led to realize her own responsibility to use her talents to glorify God, individually and together with other churchwomen. Christian service is a blessing to both giver and receiver when we use our special talents to become God's agents in any given situation.

The opportunities for service are as numerous and varied as our imaginations will allow us to conceive. This year in the diocese, churchwomen have served in countless ways to make life happier and better for their fellowmen. They have offered transportation for people who had no other way to get to their jobs, or to hospitals, or mental health clinics, etc. They have befriended international students and other foreigners in their midst. They have visited in nursing homes, rest homes, mental hospitals, and institutions for the mentally retarded, helping the patients in innumerable ways; and they have served as aides in general hospitals. Halfway houses for alcoholics, tutoring programs, day care centers, prison release programs, playground and recreational programs, crisis intervention or teleministry programs, breakfast clubs for needy children are areas where churchwomen have acted to fill needs in their own communities. Social Service Departments, Community Action Agencies, The Salvation Army and many other agencies have counted on the volunteer help they have received from us at board level and otherwise.

Episcopal Child Care Service continues to need and get the support of every branch in the Diocese, especially since the problems facing youth today are so complex and the solutions to them, if they can be found, are costly. Also the Tree House, functioning under the auspices of the Chapel Hill Drug Action Committee (which also operates Switchboard and Genesis House) needs money to help care for children whose home adjustments are so bad that it seems advisable for someone else to help them learn a way of life more compatible to society. Many a hard-earned dollar from bazaars, antique shows, carnivals, bargain shops, etc., has found its way to these two institutions as well as to Christ the King Center, the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, and many other home and foreign mission endeavors in the name of Christian Social Relations.

In both large and small communities, churchwomen are finding it wise and rewarding to combine with other churches to attain goals that might prove impossible for one group alone. Churchwomen United provides an especially good organizational headquarters for community concerns such as Adult Basic Education, Migrant

Ministry, Job Corps, Meals on Wheels, Church World Service Clothing Appeal, and the World Day of Prayer. The ecumenical note that is sounded when we join forces with members of other churches to accomplish something for God, becomes an added dividend for us.

As dedicated churchwomen we need to be informed on the social issues of the day, take a stand in the light of what we feel would be God's will, and inform our legislators and congressmen of this stand.

If I can help you select individual or group projects for your Branch, please ask me. I have addresses for lots of services such as: Laubach Literacy ("Each One Teach One"), American Leprosy Missions, Christian Children's Fund, Inc., etc.

Above all, we must be concerned and alert to keep Christian Social Relations alive in our churches.

MISSIONS

MRS. EDWARD T. MULVEY, JR., SECRETARY
3228 Pennington Lane, Winston-Salem 27106

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. Use the prayer manual RESPONSE, a devotional guide, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through the Diocesan pledge so that the churchwomen can accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggestions for special projects will be sent upon request.

3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. E. T. Mulvey, Jr., Secretary (address above) and mailed to her by November 15.

4. By action of the 1974 annual meeting the 1975 Epiphany offering will go to The Rt. Rev. Maxwell Wiggins of Tanzania. Bishop Wiggins and his wife are doing outstanding work in Mwanza and it's Diocese by helping to train Catechist, building churches, organizing self-help programs and too many other endeavors to mention here. It is said that Bishop Wiggins can get the absolute maximum from a dollar and our help would truly aid the success of some of his programs. We understand that all money he receives goes strictly for the extension of the Church and not for administrative costs. The Epiphany offering will surely be used to the best advantage of all concerned. Please encourage your chapter to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send this offering to the Diocesan treasurer, her address is listed earlier in this handbook.

5. Many chapters have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them. Below are the 1974-75 assignments. You will see all but the smallest convocation have two names. One is an active missionary and one retired.

NORTHEAST—Sister Adelaide, Miss Rachel Wolff

CENTRAL—Miss Jocelyn Gordon, Mrs. Harvey Simmonds

NORTHWEST—Rev. Richard Draper, Mrs. Henry Chapman

SOUTHWEST—Rev. Mark Boesser, Rt. Rev. W. J. Gordon

SANDHILLS—Rev. James Fortune

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. CHARLES AYCOCK MCLENDON
2318 Kirkpatrick Place
Greensboro, N. C. 27408

"And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and the fear of the Lord." This moving passage from Isaiah II:2 applies not only at Confirmation, but to us as concerned leaders in Christian Education as we venture into the basic interests and needs of our lives as well as of others in the world today. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Just the idea of congenial fellowship among Episcopal women at this time of meditation and communion can be inspiring for our future experience. If I or any of the Diocesan officers can provide you with any help with themes on Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc., please don't hesitate to call on us. Participation in the Annual Conference whether at Kanuga or the Seminar at Quail Roost in Durham, N. C. is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here. This opportunity for learning and relaxing in a beautiful setting can be invaluable.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, multi-media, church and learning institutions are also at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian Education. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as women are varied and presented in different ways by the individual speaker or by panel discussion, by them teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of THE EPISCOPALIAN, THE LIVING CHURCH, and THE CHURCHMAN. When you go to Kanuga, Quail Roost, Richmond or Atlanta remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. Just don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really need and want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again or an understanding of charismatic movements; some may want Episcopal Church history and the current trends of today. Circulate not only in bookstores and libraries but among your women, to know them and find direction for what we all need in furthering our concern for others—hopefully in renewing our commitment together in faith and love of God and his son Jesus Christ!

I would like to alert you to certain authors of religious prose and poetry; some contemporary, others familiar and classic for your inspiration and enjoyment!

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. ROBERT V. SISK, TREASURER
2225 Sharon Lane, Charlotte 28211

(Report by Sylbert Pendleton)

The United Thank Offering—the greatest pleasure in and the most painless way of giving that I know!

In spite of the gas shortage, attendance at our Spring Workshops was excellent, and the exchange of ideas there was helpful to all of us. Our 1973 offering of $32,462.34 continues our rise in giving, and means, I hope that more and more of us are gaining joy in this way of offering thanks. Be sure to order the 1973 Grant List for all of your women so that they may see the splendid work they have made possible through their thanks to God.

Report for 1973: In general, more and more people are showing interest in the U.T.O. All they need is you to tell them about it. My personal pleasure this past year was in visiting eleven churches for talks and discussions, conducting four workshops, attending all board meetings, arranging to get the Alms Bason to those requesting it, sending out two general letters and individual ones as needed to local U.T.O. officers, convocation and national officers, making general reports and writing articles as required, collecting and forwarding our offerings, and, of course, representing you at Triennial and learning there a great deal about the United Thank Offering world-wide at our special U.T.O. meetings.

Those of you who are new to the pleasure of being a United Thank Offering Treasurer will find help with the mechanics of the job listed below. You have already found, I am sure, that the printed word conveys very little about the United Thank Offering. Talk to each other; listen to your diocesan U.T.O. chairman; ask her to come to visit with you and share in your knowledge, and you in hers. And may God bless you.

PRIVILEGES OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TREASURERS

PARISH

1. To be thoroughly informed about the "why" of giving the United Thank Offering way, and about the people who receive the money; to see that your program chairman saves at least one meeting a year for you to tell everyone about it, and possibly to secure one of the new film strips from your convocation treasurer.

2. At least six weeks before an Ingathering to order from Seabury Book Store, 815 Second Ave., New York City 10017 sufficient Blue Boxes to be sure that each woman has one, Blue Envelopes for Ingatherings, the most recent UTO Grant List and UTO prayer card to be given to every woman in your church. (Remember, nothing is ever taken out of the United Thank Offering money; any expenses of the above must be paid by your E.C.W. or your church.)

3. To arrange with your Rector for the Spring and Fall Ingatherings (on or near the Feast of the Annunciation and St. Luke's Day); to publicize them well ahead of time; and perhaps to persuade your Rector to preach on the subject the Sunday Before (give him a copy of the U.T.O. prayer to use at the Ingathering), or to secure any knowledgeable speaker.

4. To gather the offering and, three weeks after the Ingathering (this allows time for delayed participation), to send one check to cover the full amount to your Convocation treasurer along with a record of the number of envelopes sent out, the number returned, and an estimate of the number attending the Ingathering.

CONVOCATION

To keep accurate records of the offerings and participation records of each Branch; to send a copy to the Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer along with one check covering total offering within one month of the Ingathering (you may have to send another check after prodding some treasurers who are late in sending you their checks); and to mail film strips upon request to the branches in your Convocation.

DIOCESAN

1. To be available to visit any church, when requested, to help them learn more about the United Thank Offering than her letters can tell; to attend all board meetings (local and diocesan), conduct workshops, keep in touch with provincial and national representatives to acquire the needed information.

2. To receive the Ingathering monies from the Convocations and to send one check to the National Treasurer; to keep the records of each church, and to send an annual Financial Report to the E.C.W. Treasurer and general reports for the Annual Meeting, Yearbook, NC Churchman, etc.

3. To arrange for representatives of different Convocations to take up the Diocesan Ingathering Offering during the Holy Communion service at our Annual Meeting, and to see that the Celebrant has a copy of the U.T.O. prayer.

4. To take care of the United Thank Offering Alms Bason and to lend it to any church requesting it. This beautiful Alms Bason was completely made in 1955 from donations of silver and gold from women all over the diocese.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. WILLIAM M. SIGMON, JR.
809 Lexington Avenue
Charlotte, N. C. 28203

"The current frenzy about Jesus (among our young people) may be a fad, though infinitely more than a fad. It discloses an anguished human need for a Redeeming Lord. This need the Christian Church is not now satisfying. People are looking for Christ, and perhaps finding him, without us. Christ exercises a charismatic power in spite of his church. He must now exercise it through his church!"*

It is my hope that as college work chairman we could be a means whereby Christ's charismatic power could be felt. The structured church is still meaningful to many college students, and others are finding varied ways to express their commitment to Jesus Christ. We college work chairmen, along with everyone else, are extremely grateful that the Vietnam holocaust is over. Students now seem to be directing their attention to theology and worship rather than the war issue.

Here are a few suggestions as to what college work secretaries can do. The job is twofold. First, keep in touch with students in our own parishes who are away at school. Send them the parish paper; send cards at birthday and holiday time; arrange a get-together for students when they are home; ask them to usher one Sunday at Christmas or Eastertide; have one Sunday when college students serve as acolytes.

Second, be a vital force in the institutions of higher learning in our midst. The Episcopal students at colleges near you very often will respond enthusiastically to overtures by you and your rector to become participants in your church activities.

Most of you have a community college or technical institute near you. More students across the nation are in community colleges than in all the other colleges combined; yet we have no chaplains there. They are, in most cases, a commuting student body. However, they have many problems relating to jobs, child care, marital relations, human relations. Could priests from your churches give counseling time? Could you arrange it? Could you offer your church facilities to them? Could you be a resource person?

Above all, we must show our young people who are away that we are still interested in them, their well-being, their careers. We want them to know the Church is here and is relevant—a one stable influence in their lives, that we think of them often, pray for them (a lovely prayer in the Prayer Book for those who teach and those who learn). We LOVE them—and when they need us, we are here.

For those in our midst, in colleges and technical institutes, let's be creative. As needs emerge, try to meet them—and let's be "tuned in" enough to detect the needs that will arise.

And don't forget to invite one of the college chaplains in our diocese to come to your parish and speak to both the men and women.

Christian Ministries, the second half of our department, is not a field to be neglected. Opportunities are present for both men and women. Write Virginia Seminary or St. Luke's Theological School, Sewanee, Tenn., for slides and material for programs.

PROMOTION

MRS. MELVIN LEWIS FINCH, JR.
2110 St. Mary's Street, Raleigh 27608

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your diocesan secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

Mrs. JULIUS CROWELL, CHAIRMAN
311 Juanita Avenue, Hamlet 28345

Altar Work is a rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. GEORGE B. S. HALE
2008 Rangecrest Drive
Raleigh 27612

The Church Periodical Club, which works through individuals, parishes, dioceses, and is the only Episcopal agency devoted to supplying free the printed tools of learning, is one of the most effective ministries of the printed word. Since 1888 it has been dedicated to this service which is, presently, acting through a forward thrust aimed at today's new-old problems.

The National Books Fund of C.P.C. receives requests from the most remote reaches of the Anglican Communion, and from as near as the next block. Asks range from a single Spanish prayer book for a prisoner, to provisioning an entire library. Large requests must be endorsed by an authority—a bishop, dean or the administrator of an institution. All requests are processed and acted upon by an experienced committee.

What does C.P.C. supply? All printed material—religious, educational, medical, technical, recreational—needed for the church's larger mission. Translations of the prayer book, hymnal, Braille for the blind, big print for the poorly sighted, devotional reading for prayer groups, church school material, text books, reference works—for use on reservations, in ghettos, in community and campus centers; inspirational, recreational reading for service men, shut-ins, missionaries; material needed to train nurses, doctors, technicians, indigenous clergy—all are provided. A donation may bolster the morale of many men of good will, may enable an agronomist to relieve the malnutrition in a large area, a translator to lighten the darkness of a whole people. In Africa one book may serve 200 readers. A gift to the National Books Fund may make enlightened citizens of children otherwise doomed to illiteracy.

The Church Periodical Club offers a Christian method of direct action that both respects the dignity of recipients and encourages self-help. Pray for C.P.C. Go with the Church Periodical Club into all the world—preaching, teaching, healing.

In our diocese, the Church Periodical Club work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of C.P.C., and carried out by C.P.C. Secretaries in the branches. Your Diocesan Director wants to help in any way she can to further this important work in the Church. Please feel free to call on her.

Note: SEND ALL CONTRIBUTIONS to the Diocesan Director of C.P.C. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. All contributions should be made to the Director by check, enclosing a memo showing the source, so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the C.P.C. Secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.
