Two strong and insistent obligations are offered to us when we pause to name those who have completed their earthly course. We cannot refrain from giving voice to a sense of loss when we perceive anew the empty places they have left. It would be unnatural if we did not grieve over their departure. We need, and the world needs, the wise counsel, the Christian devotion, the generous ministries, and the courageous affirmation of obedience to God that are called to mind in the very mention of their names. As the world was richer for all these gifts that they offered to the cause of Christ, so it is poorer by the removal of their figures from among us and by the silencing of their voices.

Yet our emphasis as Christians must be on other aspects of this awareness. This is an occasion for us to give thanks to God for the life of each of them and for the witness they bore to divine grace. It is an opportunity also to reaffirm our faith in God, who did not and does not allow death to have the final word, but raised up His Son Jesus Christ from the dead. In Him, and because of His resurrection, we too are already given the assurance of the final defeat of death. In Him, and because of His resurrection, we are partakers in a blessed hope and the confidence that we and our departed sisters and brothers shall at the last be re-united in the eternal presence of our Lord. We confess, therefore, that our memorializing of these who have died is an opportunity for us to give thanks to God and to declare anew our faith in Him who is the resurrection and the life.

Cronje Earp

A great teacher has profound influence on the minds and spirits of gifted students, who, influenced so, and by the grace of God, may become prime creators of the beautiful and continuators of whatsoever things are good. Thus the life-enriching echoes of such a teacher “roll from soul to soul, and” as a great poet has said, “grow, forever, and forever.” Over the more than half a century that he devoted to his “two direct objects” in teaching students of three universities — teaching them Latin and Greek and helping them to develop as fine young men and women — Professor Cronje Earp, as the best of them say with one voice, was compellingly great as a teacher and unselfishly great as a man.

Dr. Earp spent over 53 years in the classroom. He joined the Campbell faculty in 1971 after 31 years of teaching classical Greek and Latin at Wake Forest University. At the time of his retirement from Wake Forest he was chairman of the Department of Classical Languages. He continued to teach at Campbell until 1980. He was born in Selma in 1900. He received his undergraduate training at Wake Forest College and went on to complete his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia University. He taught at Long Island University in 1927-28.

Now Latin and Greek and Greco-Roman civilization — from which Dr. Earp drew his teaching ammunition — may not readily be recognized these days (as once not long ago they were) as the fundamentally important subjects that they continue to be to Western civilization. But Dr. Earp, until his retirement, continued to draw students in bountiful numbers; and however much they came to value their Greek or Latin, if they had in them the kind of sensitivity that they needed for higher education at all, they also soon gained from him much that they needed to know about the true nature of a happy life.

Usually they came to one sound conclusion. Sharing is one key to happiness. Teaching is a form of sharing. And though happiness itself may be iridescent-evanescent, like a bubble, transient as the spring, relative as distance and motion among the stars, and incapable of fixed definition; nevertheless, in many senses of this mercurial word, good teaching is a happiness; and a good teacher is a happy man or woman. Cronje Earp was such a man.

Jessica Fuller Feezor

Jessica Fuller Feezor was born in Pike, Texas April 18, 1898. She was the daughter of Dr. William and Mary Reedman Fuller. She received her education at Baylor University and the Women's Missionary Union Training School in Louisville, Kentucky. After graduation from the training school she became the Youth Director at First Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas where Dr. George Truett was pastor. She was one of the first women youth ministers in the Southern Baptist Convention. While there she conceived the idea of having a deacon sponsor each B.Y.P.U. group, a plan which gave great impetus to the organization. She resigned this position when she married Forrest C. Feezor on September 15, 1927. He was pastor of First Baptist Church, Liberty, Missouri and she became the B.Y.P.U. Director of the church.

On January 1, 1932 they came to Raleigh and Tabernacle Baptist Church. During this time they adopted two infant daughters Anne Joy and Forrestine. In 1943 they were called to Texas and remained in Texas the next thirty years. While Dr. Feezor pastored congregations and became Executive Secretary of the Texas Baptist Convention, Mrs. Feezor, in addition to being a homemaker, was active in all church activities, especially W.M.U. and Young Single Adults Sunday School.

Following retirement, she continued to be actively involved in various church organizations throughout twenty years of interim pastorates in Texas, North Carolina, Wisconsin, Georgia and Taiwan. Her last eight years were spent in Shelby, N.C. where Dr. Feezor continues to reside.

On the evening of November 4, 1982, Dr. Feezor reported to friends and loved ones on his beloved wife of fifty-five years, "Jessica has gone up higher tonight." In addition to Dr. Feezor, she is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Royce Ballew of Waco, North Carolina and Mrs. Jervis White of Austin, Texas, and five grandchildren.

"Mama Fee," as she was affectionately known by old and young alike, was a marvelous example of the finest qualities of Christian womanhood in relation to her church as well as to her family. Her graciousness of spirit, her winsomeness of personality, and her dedication to the task at hand made her truly useful in the work of her Lord, in addition to being a delight with whom to fellowship.

Charles Gordon Maddrey

Charles Gordon Maddrey was a layman endowed with the gift of leadership which naturally resulted in the admiration and respect of all who were acquainted with him. A student as well as an effective teacher of the Bible, he lived a gentle life of commitment to his Christian faith. He was persistent in holding to and communicating truth. He was patient with those around who were growing, or who needed to grow, in their own commitment to values beneficial to all mankind.

His later years of professional service, prior to retirement in December 1972, combined business and teaching talents as he directed the promotional and business affairs of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. as its first elected full-time Executive Secretary. Gordon served Baptists and Baptist institutions well as he traveled the state, visiting the churches of North Carolina, creating a desire for Christians to use their estates as a means of continuing a tangible support for missions and institutions of our denomination through wills and trusts.

The stories he shared and the examples he used communicated well what others had accomplished through dedicated use of the resources which God had entrusted to them.

Gordon Maddrey was born on November 9, 1904 in Seaboard, North Carolina to Joseph Thomas and Rowena Stephenson Maddrey. Just days prior to his death on December 30, 1981, Gordon and his wife, the former Mabel Claire Hoggard of Ahoskie, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The Maddreys have two sons, Charles of Williamsburg, Virginia and Joseph of Eden, North Carolina.

A graduate of Wake Forest College, Gordon attended the University of North Carolina for graduate studies. He was a Christian businessman and an able leader in both civic and government responsibilities. A farmer, merchant, and an educator, he represented his county in the North Carolina General Assembly, served as District Governor of Rotary International, and President of the North Carolina Farm Bureau. In his church he was teacher and deacon. He served as moderator of the Baptist Association and as Trustee of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and of Meredith College. In all his endeavors, he consistently projected his commitment through enthusiasm and wisdom. The lives of all who came in contact with him were enriched by his example of Christian ethics.

In every respect Gordon Maddrey was a distinguished citizen, a most capable communicator of the Christian spirit, and a kind and caring friend. One friend relates that on a visit to Gordon's hospital room he found him reading a book, Nothing to Fear. He was always "sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust" which will remain as an inspiration to all who knew and loved him.

Margaret Goodnight Miller

Margaret Goodnight Miller was born in Dallas, Texas on January 21, 1895 to Clara and John B. Goodnight. She died at 5:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 7, 1981 at Pardee Memorial Hospital in Hendersonville, North Carolina.

She was the wife of the Reverend Dr. A.C. Miller, initial director of the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, who survives her. She was the mother of Al C., Marden, Clara (wife of General Clay Buckingham of Washington, DC), and Elsa (wife of L. Billman of Dallas, Texas). She had three sisters and four brothers.

The name Margaret is Greek for "pearl." Truly she was to her family and friends a "pearl of great price" for a span of eighty-six years, nine months and sixteen days.

At ten years of age, the family having moved to Abilene, Texas, she accepted Christ and was baptized by the renowned Reverend Dr. L.R. Scarborough, her pastor. She graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1917 Magna Cum Lauda. She did graduate work at Texas State University and North Carolina State University. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Dallas when the Reverend Dr. George W. Truett was pastor. She taught English in the public school system for ten years.

On June 6, 1922, she married Acker C. Miller with whom she served in pastorates and denominational staff positions for fifty-nine years, five months and one day. She and Dr. Miller came to Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in 1965 after he had retired from his position with the Christian Life Commission. She established the reading laboratory, now recognized as a major improvement to the total program. They moved to Dallas for eight years. In the spring of 1976 they returned to Fruitland where she was teaching at the time of her death.

Some people attain such stature that others stand in awe and feel unworthy in their presence. Others have stature beyond that which earns the deepest respect of and give loving acceptance to all who know them. Those who knew Margaret Goodnight Miller well remember her as one with loving concern and constant encouragement toward wholesome greatness, which, Jesus says, come from serving all. So she taught and so she lived.

Hubert Mumford

Hubert Mumford was born in Cooperstown, New York, where he attended high school. He was awarded an A.B. degree by Hartwick College, Oneonta, New York; and a B.D. degree by Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

From 1941 to 1949 he served as pastor of Matthews and Arlington Baptist Churches in the Mecklenburg Association. From 1949 until 1954 he was pastor at Marshville Baptist Church.

In 1954 he became the second Director of Mission in the Yates Baptist Association, following Oren Bradley, their first Director. He served well in this position until he retired in 1979.

Hubert was an efficient, hard-working administrator, so much so that he came to be known by other Directors of Missions, denominational leaders and lay people as "Mimeograph Mumford." This term was a real compliment to this dedicated man of God, who served his churches and pastors so well that as a token of appreciation that they presented him with a new automobile in his twentieth year as Director of Missions.

For a long time he had planned ahead for an exciting late afternoon of life in retirement. On January 3, 1982, he died following a brief illness.

His widow, Helen Klauder, whom he married on October 4, 1941, at Blockley Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and their four children survive him.

Hubert described his own ministry in terms of loving lay Christians; helping pastors to be "equippers of lay men and women" for Christian service; promoting missions at home and around the world; and trying to be a useful citizen by participating in the work of civic organizations. He was particularly proud of his role in the development of the Association's camp east of Durham.

Following his death, Mrs. Mumford received numerous letters from Baptist leaders who praised Hubert for "being ahead of his time."

Katie Murray

Miss Katie Murray, who died at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem on October 22, 1982, after a brief illness, will be remembered for a number of ministries. Eighty-five years old at the time of her death, she had spent forty years as a missionary in China and Taiwan, under appointment by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Born in Kenansville in 1897, she grew up in Rose Hill, where she made her home at the time of her death. She attended Meredith College, where she received the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1919. A teacher at Delway, North Carolina, in 1919-1920, she then went to Louisville, Kentucky, to enter the W.M.U. Training School, and received the Bachelor of Missionary Training degree there in 1922. In the same year she was appointed by the Foreign Mission Board.

After a year in language school in Peking, she began her work as an evangelistic worker and Bible teacher. When she was forced to leave mainland China after the Communist victory, she continued her work as an evangelist in Taiwan, where she served until her retirement in 1962.

Her service in the cause of Christ was not ended with the arrival of retirement age. Indeed, a new opportunity for ministry now opened up before her, and she entered it with zest and deep commitment. She began, or rather enlarged, a ministry of prayer, praying especially for missionaries all over the world who wrote to her about their special concerns, hopes, and undertakings. This generous and vigorous involvement in the missionary task from the home base earned her the gratitude of uncounted number of friends, both those who had known her personally and those who knew her only through correspondence and a shared commitment to Christian service. For her investment of time, energy, and concern in the ongoing missionary task in this special and vital way, she was called "the praying woman."

Any single one of the ministries to which she gave her life would have merited the praise and gratitude of those whose lives she touched. The multiplication of contributions — as public school teacher, as evangelistic worker, as Bible teacher, and as prayer partner in the missionary work around the world — bears witness to her devotion to the cause of Christ. It is fitting that she should be recognized by the Baptists of North Carolina, from whom she went forth and to whom she returned, whose gifts and prayers sustained her, and to whom she returned that devotion in full measure and more.

Rosa Hocutt Powell

Humility is the single word that most accurately describes the life, character, and personality of Mrs. Rosa Hocutt Powell.

Born in Ashton, North Carolina (Pender County), the daughter of a Baptist minister, and one of fifteen children, she received her A.B. degree from Meredith College and furthered her studies at the University of North Carolina and the North Carolina College for Women. It is significant that almost all of the fifteen children in her family were graduates of Baptist colleges.

After teaching school for several years, Rosa Hocutt became the bride of the Reverend J.C. Powell. In the year 1919 the Powells received their appointment to the mission field and embarked for the African continent to begin what would become a thirty-seven year missionary ministry to the children of God in Nigeria. Her missionary service specialized in the field of education. In the cities of Oyo and Shaki, she taught in day schools and girls' schools, served as the principal of a Baptist Boys' High School, and then taught in a language and orientation school. During her thirty-seven years of service she touched the lives of many children as well as adults, and her quiet, confident faith revealed the spirit of Christ ever present in her life.

A eulogy spoken at her funeral service declared that "words of praise or commendation would be genuinely embarrassing to Mrs. Rosa, because she lived a life of humility that had no room for pride or boasting." The Christian life of this very dear and gracious lady reflects, in a mirror-like portrayal, the true meaning and intent of Matthew 18:4: "Whosoever shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

The marriage of the Rev. and Mrs. J.C. Powell was blessed with one daughter, Mary Hester Powell. Following in the footsteps of her parents, she completed her education and training as a registered nurse and returned to Nigeria to serve alongside her parents as a missionary nurse.

In a memorial to Rosa Hocutt Powell, her pastor said: "She was loved and respected by the people of Nigeria as well as the people of Warsaw." The providence of God continued to work even through adverse circumstances, as she remained a great witness to Christ merely by being present in church each Sunday, even though in a wheelchair.

All those who were privileged to know this quietly dynamic Christian spirit will rejoice that she has claimed the promise in B.B. McKinney's words: "What joy 'twill be at set of sun, in mansions beyond the blue, to find some souls that you have won; let others see Jesus in you."

"To God be the glory" was not an idle phrase for Mrs. Powell. She gave all glory to God, without reservation, and our heavenly Father has reserved for her a mansion.

Ronda Edward Robbins

Ronda Edward Robbins was born in Caldwell County, North Carolina, near the city of Lenoir, July 25, 1918. He received his high school education at Happy Valley High School in Caldwell county and from there went on to get his A.A. degree from Mars Hill College, his B.A. degree from Furman University and his B.D. degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. While at Furman, Robbins won the Murray Award for excellence in Greek and at Southwestern he was student assistant in systematic theology. This same excellence was demonstrated in his preaching and pastoral ministry. His preaching style was expository for the most part with each sermon giving evidence of painstaking preparation.

Reverend Robbins married Evelyn Watkins on April 29, 1944, and she was the ideal pastor's wife until her untimely death on February 8, 1980. They have three children, Mrs. Bruce (Linda) Benton, Thomas C. Robbins and Patricia A. Robbins. Each of the children graduated from Mars Hill College.

Robbins served pastorates at Harlem Baptist Church, Harlem, Georgia; Enon Baptist Church, Valdese, North Carolina; Postoak Baptist Church, Postoak, Texas; Goodman Baptist Church, Goodman, Mississippi; Bethlehem Baptist Church, Kings Mountain, North Carolina; and from 1956 until his death, April 24, 1982, he was pastor of the Apex Baptist Church, Apex, North Carolina. His personal warmth and his long tenure had made him the dean of the pastors in the Apex area and in some sense pastor to the community at large. Robbins was always a friend and advisor to fellow pastors and held numerous positions of leadership in local associations and the Baptist State Convention including serving on the General Board. In 1981, the Raleigh Baptist Association dedicated its Annual to Robbins for his service through the years as Moderator, President of the Ministers' Conference, Chairman of the Finance Committee, Christian Life Commission, Missions Committee and Director of Vacation Bible School work. He was always well informed about Baptist work.

Those who knew Ronda Robbins well knew that he was also a fine furniture craftsman. The exceptional quality of the pieces he made demonstrates his patience, ability and desire for perfection. He made a number of dulcimers for friends which are prized possessions.

His personal warmth, his desire for excellence in the ministry of the Word, his attention to organizational detail, and the sacrificial giving of himself for his people, mark his life as a model which other ministers can emulate.

II. Duties of the Committees

Membership on Convention committees shall not bar one from serving as a member of the General Board, or as a director of any agency of the Convention, or as a trustee of any institution of the Convention.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into three categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT consisting of nine members, three of whom shall have served the previous year, and whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, consisting of 15 members, whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it.

It is desirable that at least 25 percent of members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from churches with a resident membership under 400. No one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on committees. Any addition beyond (6) must be individually justified by the Committee on Committees to the Convention.

The Committee on Committees shall include in its report as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the committee on which he or she is nominated to serve, together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees.

B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall consist of fifteen (15) members, ten (10) of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention. The (10) members shall serve two-year terms with five rotating off each year. The five other members should be from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee. These five should be named by the Executive Committee after the organizational meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years. No person employed by the General Board or an agency or institution of the Convention shall serve as chairman of this committee.

It is desirable that the Convention shall nominate at least 25 percent of the members to the various boards, agencies and institutions from churches with resident membership under 400. No one shall be nominated to serve on more than one board at the same time. They shall also nominate members for vacancies for the twelve (12) members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on Convention boards. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Nominating Committee to the Convention.

a. The Committee shall begin to function upon election. It shall meet as often as needed to prepare recommendations for vacancies and shall begin not later than July 1 to prepare recommendations for the annual meeting of the Convention.

b. This Committee shall invite through letter the institutional and agency heads and associational leadership to submit recommendations for vacancies for their respective institutions, agencies or General Board occurring annually or between annual sessions of the Convention. The Committee shall invite individuals through the Biblical Recorder to submit recommendations. All recommendations shall be accompanied by biographical material, including general assessments by personal and church references. Recommendations and supporting material shall be submitted early enough for the Nominating Committee to acknowledge and carefully evaluate each recommendation and make an informed decision based upon character, churchmanship and special skills required by the particular institution. All such materials shall be kept by the Chairman of the Nominating Committee during the period of his active work up to and until the time of the convention, and all such materials received from churches and individuals shall be shared upon receipt with the particular institution involved.

After the Convention has taken action on nominations, the Chairman will forward all biographical materials to the new Chairman of the Committee on Nominations.

c. When the Committee meets to do its work, it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above and to the fact that the trustees of each agency or institution are close to that agency or institution, have expert knowledge of its needs and possibilities, possess a deep interest and concern for the institution, and know the men and women who can best serve the institution. The Nominating Committee shall:

- (1) Consult with the representatives of the Board of Trustees of Convention agencies and institutions for the purpose of determining the specific trustee skills needed.

- (2) Consult as needed with persons making recommendations with respect to their recommendations for membership on the General Board and the Boards of Trustees of institutions and agencies.

- (3) Share with the institutions and agencies its proposed nominations prior to notification of these nominees. This is for the purpose of further consultation if further consultation is deemed necessary by either the Committee or the Boards of Trustees.

- (4) Then it will be free to follow its own best judgement in making recommendations to the Convention or the General Board. The Committee should strive to select and nominate the best representatives of our Convention from the vast resources available to the Baptists of North Carolina.

Special emphasis should be given to:

(1) Stability of effective leadership, thus assuring the continuous work of Baptists.

(2) Demonstrated active churchmanship, thus assuring effective Baptist State Convention representation.

(3) A cross-section of membership, thus assuring representation of churches of various sizes and types, a variety of professional and educational backgrounds, geographical areas, different age groups, and both lay persons and ministers. It is desirable to avoid the concentration of leadership in too few places.

d. Consent of the nominee to serve shall be secured by the Committee prior to the recommendations to the Convention or the General Board.

e. The full report of the committee shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least four weeks prior to the annual meeting of the Convention. The report shall include as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the institution or agency on whose board he or she is nominated to serve, together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees. The name of any person to be nominated from the floor of the Convention and the name of the nominee intended to be displaced shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the Convention's annual session. In addition, biographical material relating to proposed floor nominees shall be given to the agency or institution involved and to the Nominating Committee at least one week prior to such session.

The Committee may make recommendations to the Executive Committee of those persons to be memorialized who died after the close of the Convention and prior to publication of the Annual.

6. THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE, consisting of twelve members, four of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full three-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. These shall form a Joint Committee with a comparable group from the General Baptist Convention. This Joint Committee shall study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord. The Joint Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Cooperation with General Baptists.

C. Special Convention Committees

When a special committee is called for, the Resolutions Committee shall study the situation to see if there is a committee or group already in existence which could appropriately attend to the matter proposed, and, if there is such a group, it shall, upon recommendation of the Resolutions Committee and vote of the Convention, be referred to them. Otherwise, the Resolutions Committee may recommend that a special committee be set up by the Convention.

28. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas the proper place of religion in public schools continues to be the subject of confusion among U.S. citizens, including our own Baptist people;

And whereas Congress continues to be pressured to act favorably on a proposed constitutional amendment calling for prayer in public schools;

And whereas Congress is likewise under severe pressure to pass bills seeking to remove challenges to state laws or local regulations returning prayer to public schools from the jurisdiction of federal courts;

And whereas the Baptist State Convention has consistently supported the U.S. Supreme Court's historic 1962 and 1963 decisions striking down state-mandated prayer and Bible reading in public schools;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention reaffirm its support of the Supreme Court's decisions;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention reassert its opposition to any and all proposed constitutional amendments which, under the guise of fostering "voluntary" prayer in public schools, would in fact undermine those decisions;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention oppose unalterably any and all legislative efforts to remove from federal court jurisdiction laws dealing with prayer in public schools;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we strongly urge the Baptist Joint Committee to exercise a leadership role in the effort to defeat constitutional amendments and jurisdictional bills dealing with prayer in public schools in Congress while at the same time asking Baptist leaders across the country to join us in seeking the defeat of such measures by communicating their opposition to members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon our denominational leaders in the associations, state convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention to undertake a renewed effort to provide information to our Baptist people about the constitutionally appropriate place of religion in public schools and to educate our people about the dangers of any form of coerced religious exercises in said schools; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, in session November 15-17, 1982, in Fayetteville, N.C. pass this resolution. (See Item No. 125)

29. Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas legislation calling for tuition tax credits for aid to parochial schools

- Violates the constitutional principle of church-state separation;
- Threatens the public schools with two separate but unequal tax-supported systems of education;
- Contradicts current budget cuts by favoring yet another government give-away, expensive and inflationary;
- Continues a national policy against the poor by providing one more form of welfare for the well-off;
- Ignites interreligious strife; and
- Endangers religious liberty;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we express strong opposition to any and all proposed legislation providing for tuition tax credits for parents who send their children to parochial schools; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention convey this resolution of opposition to our two United States Senators and to our Congressmen, and to the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs. (See Item No. 112)

30. J. Donald Keen, Charlotte, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, Both the Soviet Union and the United States possess a growing nuclear capability for swift and mutual destruction, and

Whereas, A continuation of this nuclear arms race threatens to annihilate civilization and possibly life on earth, and

Whereas, The issue of its continuation is therefore a matter of vital concern to all citizens including all Christian men and women who seek peace in the world.

Whereas, Medical disaster planning for nuclear war is meaningless, since most hospitals would be destroyed, most medical personnel dead or injured, most supplies unavailable, and those who survive initially would eventually die; and

Whereas, The rational fear of those certain consequences of nuclear war is now breaking into the consciousness of this nation and state, and

Whereas, The mass support calling for an end to the nuclear arms race comes from mainstream Americans who consider this to be a non-partisan issue, now therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, that we urge the President of the United States to propose to the Soviet Union an immediate, permanent, verifiable, bilateral freeze on the further testing, production, and deployment of nuclear warheads, missiles, and other delivery systems; and be it further

RESOLVED that we urge our Senators and Representatives in Congress to support such a resolution in the Congress of the United States, and be it further

RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to Governor Jim Hunt, President Ronald Reagan, Senators Jesse Helms and John East, North Carolina Representatives, appropriate state and local leaders and the media. (See Item No. 90)

31. B.J. Morris, Lincolnton, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, North Carolina has gained the dubious distinction of being the nation's "smut" capital due to having more X-rated theaters and sex shops and "adult bookstores" per capita than any other state;

Whereas, FBI reports indicate that pornography is a six billion dollar industry and is the third largest source of income for organized crime being exceeded only by narcotics and gambling;

Whereas, research now indicates that there is a relationship between pornography and anti-social behavior because in virtually every sex crime, pornography will be found upon the offender or in his car, van, or apartment;

Whereas, communities such as Atlanta, Georgia; Jacksonville, Florida; Cincinnati, Ohio; have been successful in removing this blight from their areas;

Whereas, loopholes in the criminal obscenity statutes of North Carolina have made prosecution of the disseminators of pornography practically impossible;

Whereas, a North Carolina firm, R.J. Reynolds, Inc., Winston-Salem, North Carolina, purchases more advertising space in pornographic magazines than any other company in the nation;

Whereas, it is the revenue derived from advertisers that make it possible for pornographic publications to promote a life-style that is debasing, degrading, and cancerous to the human spirit;

Whereas, Wake Forest University is a recipient of a generous annual endowment from the Reynolds Foundation and maintains a covenant relationship with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in its 152nd Annual Session meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina, February 15-17, 1982, does hereby:

(1) Urge the 1983 session of the General Assembly of North Carolina to enact appropriate legislation that will:

- (a) Remove the loopholes from the State's criminal obscenity statute (ex. prior adversary hearing) that prevents the prosecution of the disseminators of pornography;
- (b) Remove from the news racks sexually oriented materials;
- (c) Constitute as a felony the use of children in pornography; and
- (d) Prohibit explicit sex acts through cable franchises.

(2) Urge Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. to include a strong anti-obscenity measure in his legislative recommendations to the 1983 General Assembly;

(3) Urge the Messengers of this Convention and the churches cooperating with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to use their influence to remove this blight from our State.

(4) Urge the Trustees of Wake Forest University to make a formal request to R.J. Reynolds, Inc. that they cancel all advertising with pornographic publications. (See Item No. 113)

32. Mrs. Ann Frazier, Roanoke Rapids, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas half of all North Carolina traffic deaths are caused annually by drinking drivers, and

Whereas more than 18,500 persons suffer bodily injuries each year in accidents involving drinking drivers, and

Whereas 9,000 property damage accidents are caused by drinking drivers in a 12-month period, and

Whereas more than 96,000 persons have been arrested in North Carolina in one year for driving under the influence (DUI), and

Whereas the Governor's Task Force on Drunken Drivers has held public hearings across the State and developed a report on the DUI problem in North Carolina, and

Whereas Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. has said that drunk driving legislation is a top priority for the North Carolina General Assembly;

Whereas the Wake Forest University School of Law has conducted two Drunk Driving Institutes stressing techniques and legal strategies in defending drunk drivers;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in its 152nd annual session meeting in Fayetteville, NC, 15-17 November, 1982, does hereby urge:

(1) the members of the 1983 session of the Assembly of North Carolina to enact legislation that will remove the impaired drivers from our highways, thereby, saving countless lives of citizens;

(2) the trustees of Wake Forest University to encourage its Law School to conduct institutes that will assist district attorneys and their staffs in successfully prosecuting the irresponsible element of our society that insists upon drinking and driving and jeopardizing the lives of our people. (See Item No. 114)

33. Karl E. Story, Wadesboro, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof (Psalm 24:1), and we are but God's stewards, called to till and to preserve God's creation (Genesis 2:15), and

Whereas, burial in landfills is being suggested as a means of hazardous waste disposal in our country, specific proposals are now being drawn for Anson county, and general plans exist for other parts of our state, and

Whereas, hazardous chemicals include known and suspected cancer-causing agents, and some of the chemicals remain toxic for thousands of years, and

Whereas, respected civil engineers and soil scientists think landfills can never be made safe and impermeable for hazardous wastes, and Environmental Protection Agency studies indicate that many existing toxic waste landfills are already leaking, threatening drinking water supplies in many parts of our country, and

Whereas, North Carolina's Task Force on Waste Management has recommended disposal by burial only as a last resort, to be considered only after implementing reduced production of hazardous wastes; recycling; destruction or detoxification by incineration or chemical, biological, or physical treatment; and above-ground storage, and

Whereas, alternatives to burying are already possible and feasible, as demonstrated by the facts that Japan, France, and West Germany already recycle nearly 90% of their hazardous waste; Dow Chemical Company has implemented a policy of no longer burying such waste; and the state of California, beginning in 1983, will be disposing of all of its hazardous wastes by means other than landfills, and

Whereas, projections in California indicate that if total costs of using safer means of hazardous waste disposal are borne by consumers, each person would pay only about 75¢ per year in higher product costs, and

Whereas, the proposed site in Anson County is a poor one, based on criteria established by the Office of Technology Assessment, threatening drinking wells, groundwater supplies, and run-off into the Pee Dee River Basin,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, considers the despoiling of God's earth to be sinful and opposes, as a matter of Christian conscience, the use of hazardous waste landfills, preferring other less-destructive options rather than burial of these wastes, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we express alarm at the creation of a hazardous waste dump in Anson County and commend the efforts of Baptists there to promote clear discussion of alternative solutions, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we declare our willingness as consumers to share with manufacturers the necessary additional costs of disposing of such wastes by methods such as recycling, incineration, or chemical, physical, or biological methods, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we ask the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs to convey this position to the Governor, members of the General Assembly, and the Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development, and ask them to prohibit the use of hazardous waste landfills and encourage the use of alternative methods of disposal, so that North Carolina might become a model of responsible disposal of hazardous wastes. (See Item No. 115)

34. Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, scientific and governmental studies show that beverage alcohol is the No. 1 addicting drug in American society; and

Whereas, the Surgeon General reports that life expectancy has improved for all persons in the United States except the 15-24 year olds, whose death rate is higher than it was 20 years ago; and

Whereas, the Research Triangle Institute states that accessibility of alcoholic beverages to teenagers is contributing to a teenage drinking epidemic; and

Whereas, the National Transportation Safety Board says that drunk driving is the leading cause of death among young adults and calls for a nationwide legal drinking age of 21 years; and

Whereas, states that have raised the drinking age have experienced a decline in deaths of young persons in alcohol-related incidents; and

Whereas, current laws in North Carolina allow high school students and younger college students to purchase excessive amounts of beer and wine,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the 152nd annual session of the Baptist State Convention meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., November 15-17, 1982, does hereby urge:

(1) That Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. be encouraged to recommend to the General Assembly that the legal drinking age for all alcoholic beverages be raised to 21 years;

(2) That the members of the General Assembly of N.C. be urged to enact legislation that will raise the drinking age to 21 years for all alcoholic beverages sold in North Carolina;

(3) That the messengers to this convention ask the churches to which they belong to take a stand for raising the drinking age to 21 years and ask their representatives in the 1983 General Assembly to enact legislation providing the age limit. (See Item No. 116)

35. De Hillyer, Richfield, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, all people are created in the image of God, and to abuse someone, especially a family member, is to sin against God; and

Whereas, for many the home is a place of violence rather than a place of love, acceptance, nurture, and security; and

W. G. C. 118

Whereas, violence in families is a problem passed from generation to generation, and this violence cuts across all cultural, political, economic, ethnic, and religious lines; and

Whereas, our present society often responds to family violence with silence and denial, thereby justifying continued abuse; and

Whereas, the tragedy of domestic violence affects many couples and children in North Carolina, and these families need the help of community programs; and

Whereas, North Carolina is fortunate to have 48 programs across the state to assist the victims of domestic violence; and

Whereas, repeated physical and emotional abuse destroys self-esteem in both the abused and the abuser; and

Whereas, physical, psychological, and sexual abuse are learned reactions to stress; and

Whereas, the Church throughout history has always defended the rights of those who suffer and who are oppressed; and

Whereas, the Bold Mission Thrust emphasis for 1982-1985 included strengthening families.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers at this convention, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina, November 15-17, 1982, go on record in support of efforts to communicate the fact that people made in God's image are not created to be abused.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in conjunction with the Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood Department, be instructed to study the issue of family violence, and report to the Convention in its annual session in 1983.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that churches and individuals study this issue and correspond with their political representatives, encouraging support of any legislation favoring the reduction of violence within the home, or helping to care for those being abused.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that churches and individuals actively support existing programs or establish new programs against domestic violence, thereby seeking to alleviate abuse within the family. (See Item No. 118)

36. Steve N. Jolly, Rocky Mount, offered the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, history has taught us that men seldom create armaments that are not eventually put to use, and

Whereas, there are tens of thousands of nuclear weapons in the arsenals of the United States and the Soviet Union, and

Whereas, even a limited nuclear war would bring about the death of tens of millions of Americans, untold millions of other nations, and many in generations to come, and

Whereas, nuclear war would wreak great ecological damage to the world, lasting for centuries, and

Whereas, the production of additional nuclear weapons depletes vital economic resources while failing to increase the security of any nation's populace, and

Whereas, Christians face a Biblical mandate to work for peace, the reduction of national tensions and the eventual destruction of all weapons, and

Whereas, Christians are called to be good stewards of this planet, God's creation.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina call upon the Presidents of the United States and the Soviet Union to establish an immediate and mutually verifiable freeze on the production and deployment of new nuclear weapon systems, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon these leaders to further work on the reduction of existing nuclear weapon systems

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon Christians everywhere and Baptists in particular, to pray and work for peace with justice in our world, especially the elimination of weapons of mass destruction, the suspicions that produce them, and the hatreds that would intend to use them, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that we call upon the General Secretary of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to send copies of this resolution to the Presidents of the United States and the Soviet Union, and the entire Congressional delegation from North Carolina. (See Item No. 90)

37. Thad Brendle, Drexel, offered the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, the conviction rate on Driving Under the Influence (DUI) arrests has declined from over 60% to under 53% between 1977-1980.

Whereas, arrests for DUI have increased by 15% in the same period 1977-1980,

Whereas, many DUI charges are being reduced to a lesser charge of Careless and Reckless Driving after Drinking which results in a considerably less severe penalty giving the public the perception that justice is not served.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina on November 15-17, 1982, show its support of "Recommendation 10" of the "Governor's Task Force on Drunken Driving" which recommends the elimination of the Law of Careless and Reckless Driving after drinking.

Copies to be sent to the North Carolina General Assembly and Governor Jim Hunt. (See Item No. 114)

38. Paul Stam, Jr., Apex, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, both the science of biology and the Bible recognize that human life begins at conception, and

Whereas, Southern Baptists have traditionally upheld the sanctity and worth of all human life, both born and pre-born as being created in the image of God; and

Whereas, current judicial opinion gives no guarantee of protection of pre-born persons, thus permitting the widespread practice of abortion on demand, which has led to the killing of an estimated eighty-three live pre-born human beings daily in 98/Baptist State Convention the state of North Carolina; and

Whereas, North Carolina is the only Southern state with an active policy of support and payment for elective abortion; and

Whereas, social acceptance of abortion has begun to dull society's respect for all human life, leading to growing occurrences of infanticide, child abuse, and active euthanasia.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the messengers to the 1982 North Carolina Baptist Convention affirm that all human life, both born and pre-born, is sacred, bearing the image of God, and is not subject to personal judgments as to "quality of life" based on such subjective criteria as stage of development, abnormality, intelligence level, degree of dependency, cost of medical treatment, or inconvenience to parents,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we abhor the use of federal, state, or local tax money, public, tax-supported medical facilities, or Southern Baptist supported medical facilities for the practice of medically unnecessary abortions and/or the practice of withholding treatment from unwanted or defective newly born infants.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that we support and will work for appropriate legislation which will prohibit abortions except to save the physical life of the Mother and that we also support and will work for legislation which will effectively prohibit the practice of infanticide. (See Item No. 119)

39. Carroll Spivey, Yanceyville, offered the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, 3.3 million teen-agers between the ages of 15 and 17 have been identified as problem drinkers;

Whereas, in North Carolina, we had a 33.2% increase in drunk driving arrests last year involving teen-agers under 18 years of age;

Whereas, recent reports indicate that 50% of all highway fatalities directly involve a drinking driver;

Whereas, North Carolina Alcohol Beverage Laws prohibit the sale of beer and wine on the campus or property of a public school or college;

Whereas, state law already prohibits the public display of alcoholic beverages at any athletic contest;

Whereas, school property of all places should not be used for social functions when alcohol beverages are served;

Whereas, loop-holes in current ABC laws do allow permits to be issued to organizations that rent school property for social functions, thereby, resulting in the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages on school property;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the messengers of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in its 152nd annual session in Fayetteville, NC, November 15-17, 1982, do hereby:

(1) Urge Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. to exercise his influence in securing legislation that will prohibit the sale or use of alcoholic beverages on school property;

(2) Urge Lt. Governor James C. Green to exercise his influence with the 1983 legislative session to secure passage of necessary legislation that would prohibit such a practice;

(3) Urge the messengers of this convention to contact the members of the 1983 session of the General Assembly and secure support legislation that would prohibit such a practice. (See Item No. 120)

40. M. David Gordon, Earl, presented the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Recommend that the N.C. Legislature pass a law that

(1) makes it mandatory the state impound the vehicle of anyone arrested for driving under the influence.

(2) if convicted of the 2nd count of driving under the influence the state will sell the vehicle.

(3) the money will be used for rehabilitation.

(4) for the first 3 years after passage of this law, financial institutions will have first claim of financial liability. (See Item No. 114)

41. Bill Norris, Greensboro, offered the following resolution which was referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, Baptists' loyalty belongs to the Living Word of God and Lord of the Scriptures.

Whereas, laymen and laywomen as well as ministers attending the last few Southern Baptist Conventions are concerned over the factionalism of the SBC's organizations by some of our Baptist leaders, which obscure and are contrary to the purpose for which the SBC was organized - as stated in Article II of its Constitution:

“ . . . to provide a general organization for Baptists in the United States . . . for the promotion of Christian missions at home and abroad and any other objects . . . it may deem proper and advisable for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God.”

and these actions also obscure and are contrary to the purpose of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

Whereas, a few leaders have recently offered to the SBC Presidential suggestions for certain procedural changes which should have a healing effect, and the President has announced limited healing actions and has called a meeting for November 12, 1982 of a few more Baptist leaders; but

Whereas, the SBC officers and Executive Committee need to know of this State Convention action, and

Whereas, the longer the problem exists without heroic action by a significant number of persons in positions of authority, the more damage will be done to the Denomination's Christian witness in the SBC itself, and in the several State Conventions, and on the Mission Fields - both Foreign and Home;

Whereas, the SBC ByLaws do not otherwise provide for a problem which may potentially be self-destructive to the entire SBC; and the Executive Committee has not addressed itself to this problem so far, even though a group of 6 laypersons from as many states did petition this Committee so to do during its pre-convention meeting in New Orleans;

RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Baptist State Convention hereby commends the SBC President and others for acknowledging the problems and for their efforts to date at finding a solution, and commends the SBC President for calling the meeting of November 12, 1982:

RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Baptist State Convention call upon the SBC Executive Committee to act ad interim between the 1982 New Orleans Annual Meeting and the 1983 Pittsburgh Meeting of the SBC to:

(1) Lead Southern Baptists in Prayer to Almighty God for guidance in finding and implementing solutions to this most urgent and serious problem facing the Baptist Denomination;

(2) Convene a Special Called Session of the SBC Executive Committee to act as a "Committee of the Whole";

(a) To invite to participate fully in this special Session, as a minimum, two of the principal officers of the several autonomous SBC General Boards, Institutions, Commissions, and Associated Organizations listed in the 1982 SBC Annual, Table of Contents, Part 3; and two of the principal officers of the several autonomous State Baptist Conventions;

(b) To prayerfully devise recommendations to be submitted to the 1983 SBC Meeting in Pittsburgh for actions that:

- will provide the basis for restoring harmony in the SBC;
- will enable the Convention to carry out the purposes for which it was established, and to be effective in its BOLD

MISSION THRUST:

RESOLVED, That notice of this Call for Action be transmitted at once by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention:

(1) To the Officers of the SBC Executive Committee, to the members from North Carolina serving on that Committee, and to the Officers of the SBC; and

(2) To the Officers of the several Baptist State Conventions, requesting them to adopt a similar Call for Action, or that their State Convention's Executive Committee shall take such action ad interim prior to the 1983 SBC Meeting in Pittsburgh. (See Item No. 121)

42. A report on the 1977 Bold Missions goals was presented by General Secretary Ray; J.W. Hutchens, director of the Division of Evangelism; George Shore, director of Associational Development; Robert Stewart, director of Sunday School Department; and O.D. Martin, Jr., director of the Stewardship Division. They reported that in 1976, there were 22,274 baptisms and 25,404 in 1983; that 1,223 churches participated in the Here's Hope revivals in 1982 reporting 7,840 baptisms and 35,743 rededications; that the five year goal to double gifts to associational missions has more than tripled, from $1,948,863 in 1977 to $6,033,736 in 1982; that the Sunday School goal has not been met but the rate of decline has been reduced; that there is a 65 percent increase in total gifts in churches from $137,000,000 in 1976 to $225,000,000 in 1982; that giving has been encouraged through use of the book, "N.C. Baptists Working Together" and the 150th anniversary rallies held in 78 associations; that the goal of 35 percent increase in Cooperative Program gifts through the Southern Baptist Convention has been reached and that approximately 75 percent will be reached in 1982 toward doubling the 1972 Cooperative Program total.

General Secretary Ray said that the report does not give North Carolina a high grade and that the state is becoming a state of unchurched people, rapidly reverting to a pioneer area in the Christian cause.

Past presidents who served with him since 1977 were recognized: Allen A. Bailey, Coy C. Privette, Mark Corts, Cecil E. Sherman and Frank Campbell. As a team, they presented the following joint recommendation to be entered in the afternoon business session. With the presidents standing together, Secretary Ray closed this part of the program with prayer.

That the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina designate April, 1983 as a month for the Celebration of the Bible and encourage churches to plan events that will lead Baptists to:

Celebrate the Good-News story

Affirm the Bible as God's word

Commit to new zeal in witnessing of Christ

The Convention President, recent past presidents, and the General Secretary-Treasurer bring this joint recommendation because of the Baptists' need — to affirm love for God's word in this time when questions have been raised about our commitment

— and to find new unity in achieving Bold Mission objectives

April has already been designated by the Southern Baptist Convention as doctrinal study month and announced studies in the Doctrine of Biblical Authority. We urge that April be claimed as a special time to study, pray, and call for new commitments to our Bold Mission Thrust. (See Item No. 69)

43. The President recognized Dewey Hobbs, Marion, president of the General Board, for the first part of the General Board report.

Richard Smith, director of the Division of Business Management, reported on income for 1982 through November 6. He said that Cooperative Program gifts are $16,318,434.80, a 6.98 percent increase over the same period last year; Foreign Missions, including the Lottie Moon Offering, is $4,239,340, a 4 percent increase over last year; Home Missions, including the Annie Armstrong Offering is $2,314,337.28 or 9.35 percent increase. The North Carolina Missions Offering, designated and undesignated, is $1,307,042.64. The World Hunger Fund received $340,675.14, a 57.5 percent increase over last year. The total of all receipts is $24,980,224.73. In response to a question from the floor, he said that the N.C. Missions Offering is slightly less than 1/2 percent below last year, or $6,017.65 less than the same period last year. (See the final audit beginning on page 452.)

44. General Secretary Ray referred to Executive Committee Recommendation that funds be borrowed for Fruitland Bible Institute and new Baptist Building and reported that the move to the new Baptist Building would be completed by December 15. The new address will be 205 Convention Drive, Cary; the mailing address (P.O. Box 26508, Raleigh, N.C. 27611) will remain the same; the new telephone number will be 919-467-5100. Despite delays due to rain, the building has been finished on time; the cost is $20,000 less than the amount published. Last year, the convention authorized the building under certain conditions: a gift of property, a buyer for the property at 301 Hillsborough Street, and a contract that, together, would not require more than $750,000 additional cost to the Convention. The extra building cost will be about $650,000 plus expenditures for furniture which will be well under the guidelines.

The Convention owes $109,241 on Caraway Conference Center, he reported.

Last year the Convention authorized borrowing $333,000 for two new buildings at Fruitland Bible Institute. That money has not yet been borrowed. The Executive Committee recommends that $489,000 be borrowed for Fruitland with the understanding that outstanding pledges of $148,200 would be paid against the loan when they are received.

The second part of the Executive Committee recommendation would authorize the Convention to borrow $380,000, the approximate difference in the $750,000 cost limit set by the 1981 convention and the $384,315 allocated in the 1982-83 budgets for the building. When the $489,000 is needed for Fruitland Bible Institute, it could then be borrowed. It was the first incurred and will be the first borrowed. If it becomes necessary, some part or conceivably all of the $380,000 against the Baptist Building will be borrowed. There is a high probability that it will not be necessary to borrow the money against the building.

Dewey Hobbs moved that the Convention authorize the borrowing of $498,000 on the Fruitland debt and $380,000 on the Baptist Building indebtedness. The motion carried.

45. General Board members completing their terms were recognized by General Board President Hobbs and presented plaques by General Secretary Ray. They were Lonnie R. Armstrong, West Chowan; Fred Barnes, Caldwell; Dean Baughn, Region 7; Paul Brock, Sandy Run; James Caldwell, Mecklenburg; Billy Cline, Region 9; Ronald Dunevant, Beulah; George Elliott, Dan Valley; Earl Farthing, Bladen; Donald Hadley, Atlantic; Ed Hall, Cabarrus; Mrs. Leon Hawks, Little River; Charles Hinson, Sandhills; Dewey Hobbs, Region 9; Wade McKnight, Gaston; Alfred Miller, Surry; Douglas Moore, South Roanoke; Kenneth Morris, Ashe; Julian Motley, Yates; Max Reece, Region 5; Paul Shaver, Central; Mrs. Sanford Smith, Piedmont; Wayne Tuttle, Pee Dee. Mrs. Peggy Chestnut, Pilot Mountain, was presented her plaque in her local church since she is moving to Bern, Switzerland for two years. Mrs. Joe Savage, Tar River Association, would have completed her tenure this year but she died during the year.

46. Sara Ann Hobbs, director of the Division of Missions, paid tribute to Ernest Upchurch who is retiring December 31 after 25 years, and to his wife, Lib. He came as director of church development in 1957; worked in city and metropolitan missions; the church extension department; and more recently as assistant to the director of the missions division in research and analysis. After December 31 he will continue as a part-time consultant continuing research and study that he began this year. Ernest Upchurch expressed appreciation for the privilege of serving on the staff of the Convention.

47. Roy Smith, Raleigh, associate general secretary, introduced Charles Hinson, Aberdeen, chairman of the Council on Social Service, who paid tribute to W.R. and Elizabeth Wagoner for their work at the Baptist Children's Homes for the past 25 years. They will retire in July, 1983. Messengers stood in appreciation and honor of the Wagoners, who responded briefly.

48. Ernest Glass, Charlotte, Vice President of the General Board, recognized members of the Budget Committee: Fred Barnes, Lenoir; Morris Hollifield, Lexington; A.L. McGee, Wilmington; James Murphy, Durham; James Valsame, Garner. He expressed appreciation to Frank Campbell, convention president; Dewey Hobbs, General Board president; Cecil Ray, General Secretary; and Roy Smith, Associate General Secretary, for their assistance to the committee.

49. The budget proposals were mailed to churches prior to the convention and extra copies were available for messengers. Ernest Glass explained that salaries of all General Board staff members are listed and are in line with salaries being paid elsewhere. Salary increases are effective July 1 or October 1, depending on the staff member's anniversary date with the convention. $81,977 is the amount proposed for salary increases which will average six percent. Not every staff member will get a six percent increase; their work is evaluated by the supervisors and division directors who recommend increases to the salary administration committee. For about five years, the Executive Committee has had a freeze on the General Board staff and only replacements have been employed.

In order to comply with the 1977 convention vote for a gradual increase to reach 38 percent by the year 2000 in Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program giving, the decision was made to take the Convention Program percentage first and divide the balance percentagewise among the institutions and agencies. The total budget proposed is $22,250,000 with a goal of $2,750,000 for the North Carolina Missions Offering. Ernest Glass moved adoption of the budget.

50. Virgil Holloway, Waynesville, proposed an amendment that all salaries of state convention workers be frozen for the coming year, remaining the same as in the 1982 budget, and that this money be used for missions around the world. The amendment was defeated.

In response to a question, Ernest Glass said that money listed for travel expense does not go to individuals but is provided to purchase, operate, maintain and cover depreciation on the car fleet owned by the Convention. Expenses for motels and meals are paid directly to the facilities, not to individual staff members. The original motion carried.

51. General Secretary Cecil Ray presented the following resolution and Dewey Hobbs moved that it be adopted. The motion carried.

Whereas, this Convention has adopted the Southern Baptist Protection Program Church Annuity Plan on behalf of the local Southern Baptist churches within this convention;

Whereas, new laws require changes be made to the Plan to assure continued favorable tax treatment for Members of the Plan;

Whereas, the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has recommended that the Plan be amended to comply with applicable laws and the requests of churches;

Whereas, the Maximum Contribution Amendment conforms this plan to the new limits on contributions required by the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 which amends the Internal Revenue Code.

Whereas, the Beneficiary Amendment clarifies the meaning of the term "Beneficiary" when used in the plan to have the same meaning as it does in the Convention Annuity Plan.

Whereas, the Normal Retirement Age Transfer Amendment allows employees who are of retirement age to transfer their accumulations within the Plan among retirement funds.

Whereas, the In-Service Withdrawal Amendment allows the pre-retirement withdrawals of certain contributions prior to retirement. The contributions that may be withdrawn are those that were made voluntarily by a minister or an employee of the church and were not the subject of matching state convention contributions.

Therefore, this Convention Resolves that the Southern Baptist Protection Program Church Annuity Plan be amended by the following amendments.

- (1) The Maximum Contribution Amendment
- (2) The Beneficiary Amendment
- (3) The Normal Retirement Age Transfer Amendment
- (4) The In-Service Withdrawal Amendment

The motion carried.

61. Charles Hinson, Aberdeen, chairman of the Council on Christian Social Services, referred to its report (see pages 200-205) and introduced W.R. Poole, executive director of the Baptist Homes, Inc. who recognized the trustees and staff of the Homes and introduced Jim Ward, Thomasville, chairman of the Board of Trustees. Following was a panel discussion of the ministry and needs of the Homes by Jim Ward; M.M. Goss, Winston-Salem; Fred Murkett, Winston-Salem; Michael R. Corbett, East Bend; and Eddie Brackett, Troy.

Chairman Ward reported that the Board of Trustees has voted to limit new admissions to persons able to pay for their care and that admission of persons unable to pay has been halted until funding is increased. Care at the present is provided with funds that should go for renovation, upkeep, expansion of facilities and endowment, he reported, and there are long waiting lists and a need for a strong financial base for operation.

62. With First Vice President Belk presiding, T.L. Cashwell, Raleigh, nominated Frank Campbell to be president for 1982-1983. Motion was made by an unidentified messenger that the nominations be closed and that Frank Campbell be elected. The motion carried.

Dewey Hobbs moved adoption of recommendations Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, and recommendations Nos. 5 and 6 which, if adopted, would be considered on the second full day of the convention.

Wayne Vuncannon, Cordova, moved that the motion be amended to table it for one year. The amendment was defeated and the original motion carried.

69. Mark Corts, Winston-Salem, moved that the resolution read earlier by General Secretary Ray and signed by presidents serving during his time in office, be adopted. The motion carried. (See Item No. 42)

70. The following resolution was presented by Ronald Hester, Lumberton, and referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, many of our Baptist colleges and universities are now having their graduation exercises on Sunday mornings, and

Whereas, Sunday morning is the time of worship and Bible study in our churches, and

Whereas, these colleges and universities are extensions of the churches and convention, and

Whereas, Sunday morning graduation takes families away from their churches and causes a sense of divided allegiance, and

Whereas, this practice keeps pastors and staff from participating in these exercises with those of their congregations of which they have encouraged to attend Baptist schools,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting at Fayetteville, Nov. 15-17, 1982 express our strong concern and ask the various schools involved to consider other times for these graduation exercises and Bacca-laureate programs. (See Item No. 122)

71. The following resolution was offered by De Hillyer, Richfield, and referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas many North Carolinians, believing to be instruments of peace in a world of violence, faithfully served their nation in an extremely controversial and unpopular war in the Republic of Vietnam;

Whereas these people have been often misunderstood, labeled "baby-killers," cursed and even spit upon;

Whereas they exhibited the same courage and dedication as did their forefathers who served in World War I, World War II, and the Korean conflict;

Whereas some of our service men and women paid the supreme sacrifice by giving their lives, and the families still live with the scars and pain of their loss;

Whereas our nation has recently recognized our Vietnam veterans in a public way;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., November 15-17, 1982, express gratitude to these men and women for their willingness to serve America during time of war;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the churches of North Carolina be encouraged to pay tribute to the members of their churches and local communities who served in Vietnam;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that our Convention communicate the contents of this resolution to the various branches of our military organizations. (See Item No. 124)

72. The following resolution was offered by Judy Dilday, Statesville, and referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Whereas, The first amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America clearly states that the Congress shall pass no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion, and

Whereas, The same first amendment protects us against the establishment of religion, and

Whereas, A constitutional amendment is pending wherein there is no violation of either of those ideals inherent in the separation of church and state, and

Whereas, This proposed amendment neither requires nor restricts the vocal expression of individual or group prayer in public schools, and

Whereas, Considerable confusion as to the rights and privileges guaranteed by the Constitution with regard to prayer in schools has been engendered by the Supreme Court decisions of 1962 and 1963, and

Whereas, Public school officials and lower courts have frequently misinterpreted these Supreme Court decisions as a ban on voluntary prayer, and

Whereas, For 170 years following the writing of the First Amendment, the right of prayer in public schools was a time-honored exercise and a cherished privilege, and

Whereas, North Carolina Baptists historically have affirmed the right of voluntary prayer in public places, and

Whereas, The proposed constitutional amendment reads simply, "Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit individual or group prayer in public schools or other public institutions. No person shall be required by the United States or by any state to participate in prayer," and

Whereas, This proposed amendment does not constitute a call for government-written or government-mandated prayer.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we the messengers of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in session, November 1982, Fayetteville, N.C., declare our support of the aforementioned proposed constitutional amendment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we shall work continually to hold fast to our faith and to the freedoms in which we believe and by which we live. (See Item No. 125)

73. The following resolution was offered by Robert E. McCleron, Durham, and referred to the Resolutions Committee:

Recognizing that our Lord Jesus calls us to peacemaking as a holy task, and that prayer for peace is a Gospel imperative,

We, the messengers to the 1982 meeting of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, commend our churches for all their efforts toward mediating the peace of God in homes, in local communities, in our state and nation, and between the nations of the world, and recommend to them the annual observance of a special time of prayer for peace on the Sunday before Memorial Day, beginning in 1983. (See Item No. 123)

74. Andrew Cloer, Franklin, moved that steps be taken to find a central location for the convention to meet each year, one that would be easy and accessible to messengers. President Campbell requested that since a vote today could not be decisive, the Executive Committee and sub-committee be permitted to work on this matter. The motion was withdrawn.

75. Cline Borders, Shelby, moved that the budget committee for the next budget year and subsequent years present in the annual budget an itemized statement for each individual of all monies paid in salary and benefits. Since a standing vote was not clear, vote was by ballot. The motion carried. (See item No. 80)

78. Dean Baughn, Banner Elk, chairman of the Christian Life and Public Affairs Council, recognized members of the Council and staff and referred to the Council report (see pages 197-201). Douglas Cole, executive secretary of the Council, spoke to the report, calling attention to two major issues for 1983: drunk driving legislation and the need for Baptists to become instruments of peace in a world with the capability of destroying itself.

79. Sam O'Neal, director of the Retirement and Planning Department and representative of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, referred to his report (see pages 141-143). Hope, Jr., chairman of the WFU Board of Trustees.

Whereas the City of Fayetteville has generously and effectively accommodated the messengers and visitors to this convention, and

Whereas the officers, program personalities and committees have conducted the sessions in an excellent manner, and

Whereas the Biblical Recorder, General Board staff, and institutions and agencies have closely cooperated in providing pertinent reporting concerning our involvement in all aspects of Bold Mission Thrust, and

Whereas the worship, attitude, and spirit of the sessions have truly reflected the theme of "Instruments Of Peace . . . In An Anxious World,"

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 152nd North Carolina Baptist State Convention meeting held in Fayetteville on November 15-17, 1982, convey its gratitude to the City of Fayetteville and encourage Mayor Bill Hurley and other local officials in their efforts to eradicate pornography and prostitution from the area, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we congratulate the creative and informative working relationship between the Biblical Recorder and Convention personnel in conveying pre-convention reports, and to Dr. Cecil Ray and Dr. Gene Puckett,

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that all messengers and visitors return to their churches exemplifying the posture of peace and Christian love in our anxious world.

90. Fred Barnes, Lenoir, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as substitute for resolutions on nuclear arms submitted by Donald Keen, Charlotte (See Item No. 30) and Steve Jolly, Rocky Mount. (See Item No. 36)

Whereas, Both the Soviet Union and the United States possess a growing nuclear capability for swift and mutual destruction, and

Whereas, Several other nations have or are in the process of developing nuclear arms, and

Whereas, A continuation of this nuclear arms race threatens to annihilate civilization and possibly life on earth, and

Whereas, The issue of its continuation is therefore a matter of vital concern to all citizens including all Christian men and women who seek peace in the world, and

Whereas, The rational fear of those certain consequences of nuclear war is now breaking into the consciousness of this state and nation, and world, and

Whereas, The mass support calling for an end to the nuclear arms race comes from mainstream Americans who consider this to be a non-partisan issue, now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, urge the President of the United States to propose to the Soviet Union and the world immediate, permanent, verifiable, bilateral freeze on the further testing, production, and deployment of nuclear warheads, missiles, and other delivery systems; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we urge our Senators and Representatives in Congress to support such a resolution in the Congress of the United States, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be sent to Governor Jim Hunt, President Ronald Reagan, the entire congressional delegation from North Carolina, the entire state legislature, local leaders and the media.

91. On advice of the parliamentarian, First Vice President Belk ruled that in order to be fair, two speakers for the resolution and two against would be permitted.

Corbin Cooper, director of Cooperative Ministries, called attention to the report (see pages 164-167) and shared plans for continued work with the General Baptist Convention.

94. General Secretary Ray presented a desk set and expressed appreciation to President Campbell for his service during the past year. 95. Continuing the General Board's report, Dewey Hobbs recognized General Secretary Ray who brought a recommendation from the Executive Committee that the dates of the North Carolina Missions Offering be changed from the second Sunday in October to the third Sunday in September, making it a September offering. Dewey Hobbs moved its adoption. The motion carried.

96. General Secretary Ray presented the following recommendations and Dewey Hobbs moved their adoption. Voted on separately, the recommendations were adopted:

Togo - that the Convention approve the idea of a Togo partnership and ask the General Board to proceed with dialogue about partnership plans and bring back to this Convention in 1983 the possibility of partnership proposals. 106. Mark Corts, Winston-Salem, moved that in light of the serious nature of the issues dealt with in the resolutions, and the limited time available for discussion, that this convention poll the messengers on resolutions after giving two minutes each to the "pro and con" side of all resolutions, including those presented to the convention but not recommended by the Resolutions Committee and report the results of the poll at the earliest opportunity.

The parliamentarian said the motion would require suspension of the rules and a two-thirds majority. In a standing vote, the chair ruled that the motion carried by a two-thirds majority.

107. Bill Munn, Yates Association, moved that only those resolutions submitted by the Resolutions Committee be considered by this convention, that original proposals be ignored at this time. 111. With President Campbell presiding, the Resolutions Committee report was resumed. James Johnson, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented committee members who read the committee's substitute resolutions.

112. Beth Upchurch, Durham, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution on tuition tax credits submitted by Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point. The motion carried. (See Item No. 29)

Whereas legislation calling for tuition tax credits which aid elementary and secondary parochial schools

- Violates the constitutional principle of church-state separation;
- Threatens the public schools with two separate but unequal tax-supported systems of education;
- Contradicts current budget cuts by favoring yet another government give-away, expensive and inflationary;
- Continues a national policy against the poor by providing one more form of welfare for the well-off;
- Ignites interreligious strife; and
- Endangers religious liberty;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., November 15-17, 1982, express strong opposition to any and all proposed legislation providing for tuition tax credits for parents who send their children to parochial schools; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Clerk of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention convey this resolution of opposition to our two United States Senators and to our Congressmen, and to the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs.

113. Alan Sasser, Hickory, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for the resolution on pornography submitted by B.J. Morris, Lincolnton. The motion carried. (See Item No. 31)

Whereas, North Carolina has gained the dubious distinction of being the nation's "smut" capital due to having more X-rated theaters and sex shops and "adult bookstores" per capita than any other state, and

Whereas, FBI reports indicate that pornography is a six billion dollar industry and is the third largest source of income for organized crime being exceeded only by narcotics and gambling, and

Whereas, research now indicates that there is a relationship between pornography and anti-social behavior because in numerous sex crimes pornography will be found upon the offender or on his premises, and

Whereas, communities such as Atlanta, Georgia; Jacksonville, Florida; Cincinnati, Ohio; have been successful in removing this blight from their areas, and

Whereas, loopholes in the criminal obscenity statutes of North Carolina have made prosecution of the disseminators of pornography practically impossible, and

Whereas, it is the revenue derived from advertisers that makes it possible for pornographic publications to promote a life-style that is debasing, degrading, and cancerous to the human spirit.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in its 152nd Annual Session meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina, November 15-17, 1982, urges the 1983 session of the General Assembly of North Carolina to enact appropriate legislation that will:

(a) Remove the loopholes from the State's criminal obscenity statute (ex. prior adversary hearing) that prevents the prosecution of the disseminators of pornography;

(b) Remove from the news racks sexually oriented materials;

(c) Constitute as a felony the use of children in pornography; and

(d) Prohibit the depiction of explicit sex acts through cable television franchises, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. to include a strong anti-obscenity measure in his legislative recommendations to the 1983 General Assembly, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge all North Carolina companies and corporations not to advertise with pornographic publications, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we urge the Messengers of this Convention and the churches cooperating with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to use their influence to remove this blight from our State.

114. John Elder, Southport, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolutions on problems related to consumption of alcohol submitted by Mrs. Ann Frazier, Roanoke Rapids (See Item No. 32), Thad Brendle, Drexel (See Item No. 37), and David Gordon, Earl. (See Item No. 40) The motion carried.

Whereas, half of all North Carolina traffic deaths are caused annually by drinking drivers, and

Whereas, the conviction rate on DUI arrests has declined from over 60% to under 53% between 1977-80, while arrests for DUI have increased by 15% in the same period 1977-80, and

Whereas, more than 18,500 persons suffer bodily injuries each year in accidents involving drinking drivers, and

Whereas, 9,000 property damage accidents are caused by drinking drivers in a 12-month period, and

Whereas, many DUI charges are being reduced to a lesser charge of Careless and Reckless Driving after Drinking which results in a considerably less severe penalty giving the public the perception that justice is not served, and

Whereas, the Governor's Task Force on Drunken Drivers has held public hearings across the State and developed a report on the DUI problem in North Carolina, and

Whereas, Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. has said that drunk driving legislation is a top priority for the North Carolina Assembly, and

Whereas, the Wake Forest University School of Law has conducted two institutes apprising attorneys of techniques and legal strategies in defending persons charged with driving under the influence.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in its 152nd annual session meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., 15-17 November, 1982, recommends the repeal of the lesser offense of Careless and Reckless Driving after Drinking and encourages North Carolina Baptists to give careful consideration to the other pertinent recommendations of the Governors Task Force on Drunken Driving and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the trustees of North Carolina institutions of higher learning with law schools encourage their law schools to offer their expertise to the District Attorneys, their staffs, and other law enforcement officers to prosecute effectively the irresponsible element of our society that insists upon drinking and driving and jeopardizing the lives of our people, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to Governor James Hunt, members of the North Carolina General Assembly and to the chairpersons of the Boards of Trustees of the above mentioned educational institutions.

115. Joe Larrimore, New Bern, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution on hazardous waste submitted by Karl E. Story, Wadesboro. The motion carried. (See Item No. 33)

Whereas, burial in landfills is being practiced as a means of hazardous waste disposal in our country, and

Whereas, hazardous chemicals include known and suspected cancer-causing agents, and it is estimated that some of the chemicals would remain toxic for thousands of years, and

Whereas, we believe there are safer alternatives available for the disposal of hazardous wastes such as reduced production of hazardous wastes; recycling; destruction or detoxification by incineration or chemical, biological, or physical treatment; and above-ground storage:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, considers the despoiling of God's earth to be sinful and opposes, as a matter of Christian conscience, the use of hazardous waste landfills, preferring other less-destructive options rather than burial of these wastes, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we instruct the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs to convey this position to the Governor, members of the General Assembly, and the Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development, and ask them to prohibit the use of hazardous waste landfills and encourage the use of alternative methods of disposal, so that North Carolina might become a model of responsible disposal of hazardous wastes.

116. Jeff Norris, Wilmington, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as substitute for resolution on raising the drinking age for beverage alcohol submitted by Tom Freeman, Dunn. The motion carried. (See Item No. 34)

Whereas, scientific and governmental studies show that beverage alcohol is the No. 1 addicting drug in American society; and

Whereas, the Research Triangle Institute states that accessibility of alcoholic beverages to teenagers is contributing to a teenage drinking epidemic; and

Whereas, the National Transportation Safety Board says that drunk driving is the leading cause of death among young adults and calls for a nationwide legal drinking age of 21 years; and

Whereas, the Surgeon General reports that life expectancy has improved for all persons in the United States except the 15-24 year olds, whose death rate is higher than it was 20 years ago; and

Whereas, states that have raised the drinking age have experienced a decline in deaths of young persons in alcohol-related incidents; and

Whereas, current laws in North Carolina allow high school students and younger college students to purchase excessive amounts of beer and wine,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the 152nd annual session of the Baptist State Convention meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., November 15-17, 1982, urges that Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., be encouraged to recommend to the General Assembly that the legal drinking age for all alcoholic beverages be raised to 21 years, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the General Assembly of N.C. be urged to enact legislation that will raise the drinking age to 21 years for all alcoholic beverages sold in North Carolina, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the messengers to this convention ask the churches to which they belong to take a stand for raising the drinking age to 21 years and ask their representatives in the 1983 General Assembly to enact legislation providing that age limit, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., and to members of the General Assembly.

117. Bill Munn, Durham, moved to amend the motion by inserting before the last two paragraphs: "Be it therefore resolved that Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr. be encouraged to recommend to the General Assembly that the legal voting age in all elections pertaining to alcoholic beverages be raised to 21 years;" insert before the last paragraph: "Be it further resolved that the members of the General Assembly of North Carolina be urged to enact legislation that would raise the voting age to 21 years for all participating in elections pertaining to alcoholic beverages."; and insert after the last paragraph: "Be it further resolved that the messengers to this convention ask the churches to which they belong to take a stand to raise the voting age to 21 years in elections pertaining to alcoholic beverages and ask their representatives in the 1983 General Assembly to enact legislation providing that age limit."

The amended motion failed and the original motion carried.

118. Wanda Ritchie, Concord, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution on violence in the family submitted by De Hillyer, Richfield. The motion carried. (See Item No. 35)

Whereas, for many the home is a place of violence rather than a place of love, acceptance, nurture, and security; and

Whereas, violence in families is a problem passed from generation to generation, and this violence cuts across all cultural, political, economic, ethnic, and religious lines; and

Whereas, our present society often responds to family violence with silence and denial, thereby justifying continued abuse; and

Whereas, repeated physical and emotional abuse destroys self-esteem in both the abused and the abuser; and

Whereas, the Church throughout history has always defended the rights of those who suffer and who are oppressed; and

Whereas, the Bold Mission Thrust emphasis for 1982-1985 includes strengthening families.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers at this convention, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina, November 15-17, 1982, study this issue and correspond with their political representatives, encouraging support of any legislation favoring the reduction of violence within the home, or helping to care for those being abused.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in conjunction with the Woman's Missionary Union and the Brotherhood Department, be instructed to study the issue of family violence, and share their findings with the churches before the annual session in 1983

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that churches and individuals actively support existing programs or establish new programs against domestic violence, thereby seeking to alleviate abuse within the family.

119. Dean Baughn, Banner Elk, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution submitted by Paul Stam Jr., Apex, on the sanctity of human life. (See Item No. 38)

Whereas, Southern Baptists have traditionally upheld the sanctity and worth of all human life, and

Whereas, current judicial opinion gives no absolute guarantee of protection of the pre-born, and

Whereas, social acceptance of abortion has begun to dull society's respect for human life, and

Whereas, the problem of abortion is so multi-faceted, including strong arguments for and against, and

Whereas, we abhor the abuses and indiscriminate use of this procedure

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to the 1982 North Carolina Baptist Convention affirm that all human life is sacred and go on record as opposing the indiscriminate use of abortion and covenanting to pray for wisdom in this issue, as well as asking the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs to study this issue.

Paul Stam Jr., Apex, moved that the motion be amended by striking the text of the committee version of the resolution and substituting in lieu thereof the resolution as initially introduced.

The amended motion required vote by ballot since the raising of hands did not clearly indicate the vote. Steve Jolly, Rocky Mount, moved that the motion be tabled if counting the ballots would take too long a time. President Campbell ruled that the ballots could be counted and the voting would be by ballot. (See Item No. 131)

120. Russell Johnson, Conway, reported that the Resolutions Committee recommends that the resolution submitted by Carroll Spivey on use of alcoholic beverages on school property (See Item No. 39) be referred to the Christian Life Council for further study. He moved that this recommendation be accepted.

Carroll Spivey, Yanceyville, offered a substitute motion that the original resolution be adopted with addition of the words "or consumption" in the fourth paragraph and "for school activities" at the end of that paragraph to read as follows. The substitute motion carried.

Whereas, 3.3 million teenagers between the ages of 15 and 17 have been identified as problem drinkers;

Whereas, in North Carolina, we had a 33.2% increase in drunk driving arrests last year involving teenagers under 18 years of age;

Whereas, recent reports indicate that 50% of all highway fatalities directly involve a drinking driver;

Whereas, North Carolina Alcohol Beverage Laws prohibit the sale or consumption of beer and wine on the campus or property of a public school or college for school activities;

Whereas, state law already prohibits the public display of alcoholic beverages at any athletic contest;

Whereas, school property of all places should not be used for social functions when alcoholic beverages are served;

Whereas, loopholes in current ABC laws do allow permits to be issued to organizations that rent school property for social functions, thereby, resulting in the sale and consumption of alcohol beverages on school property;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the messengers of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in its 152nd annual session in Fayetteville, NC, November 15-17, 1982, do hereby:

(1) Urge Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. to exercise his influence in securing legislation that will prohibit the sale or use of alcoholic beverages on school property;

(2) Urge Lt. Governor James C. Green to exercise his influence with the 1983 legislative session to secure passage of necessary legislation that would prohibit such a practice;

(3) Urge the messengers of this convention to contact the members of the 1983 session of the General Assembly and secure support legislation that would prohibit such a practice.

121. John Elder, Southport, presented the following resolution in behalf of the Resolutions Committee and moved its adoption as substitute for resolution on Baptist loyalty submitted by Bill Norris, Greensboro. (See Item No. 41)

Whereas, Baptists' loyalty belongs to the Living Word of God and Lord of the Scriptures, and

Whereas, laymen and laywomen as well as ministers attending the last few Southern Baptist Conventions are concerned over the factionalism of the SBC's organizations by some of our Baptist leaders, which obscure and are contrary to the purpose for which the SBC was organized -- as stated in Article II of its Constitution:

"... to provide a general organization for Baptists in the United States . . . for the promotion of Christian missions at home and abroad and any other objects . . . it may deem proper and advisable for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God."*

and these actions also obscure and are contrary to the purpose of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, and

Whereas, a few leaders have recently offered to the SBC President suggestions for certain procedural changes which should have a healing effect, and the President has announced limited healing actions and called a meeting for November 12, 1982 of a few more Baptist leaders; but

Whereas, the SBC officers and Executive Committee need to know of this State Convention action, and

Whereas, the longer the problem exists without heroic action by a significant number of persons in positions of authority, the more damage will be done to the Denomination's Christian witness in the SBC itself, and in the several State Conventions, and on the Mission Fields -- both Foreign and Home; and

Whereas, the SBC Bylaws do not otherwise provide for a problem which may potentially be self-destructive to the entire SBC; and the Executive Committee has not addressed itself to this problem so far, even though a group of 6 laypersons from as many states did petition this Committee so to do during its pre-convention meeting in New Orleans;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Baptist State Convention hereby commends the SBC President and others for acknowledging the problems and for their efforts to date at finding a solution, and commends the SBC President for calling the meeting of November 12, 1982.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Baptist State Convention meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, call upon the SBC Executive Committee to act ad interim between the 1982 New Orleans Annual Meeting and the 1983 Pittsburgh Meeting of the SBC to:

(1) Lead Southern Baptists in Prayer to Almighty God for guidance in finding and implementing solutions to this most urgent and serious problem facing the Baptist Denomination;

(2) Convene a Special Called Session of the SBC Executive Committee to act as a "Committee of the Whole;"

(a) To invite to participate fully in this special Session, as a minimum, two of the principal officers of the several autonomous SBC General Boards, Institutions, Commissions, and Associated Organizations listed in the 1982 SBC Annual, Table of Contents, Part 3; and two of the principal officers of the several autonomous State Baptist Conventions;

(b) To prayerfully devise recommendations to be submitted to the 1983 SBC Meeting in Pittsburgh for actions that:

- will provide the basis for restoring harmony in the SBC;
- will enable the Convention to carry out the purposes for which it was established, and to be effective in its BOLD MISSION THRUST; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That notice of this Call for Action be transmitted at once by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention:

(1) To the Officers of the SBC Executive Committee, to the members from North Carolina serving on that Committee, and to the Officers of the SBC; and

(2) To the Officers of the several Baptist State Conventions.

Steve Sells, Greensboro, moved that this resolution be tabled.

Elliott Hill, Neuse Association, cited Roberts Rules of Order that calls for a two-thirds majority vote since this is a motion to kill, he said. The parliamentarian advised that the motion to table requires only majority vote. The President called for a consensus vote on whether a simple majority would determine the vote, or a two-thirds majority. The show of hands was too close to determine the will of the body so the President ruled that the vote to table must have a two-thirds majority. In a standing vote, the motion to table received a two-thirds majority.

122. Jeff Norris, Wilmington, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as substitute for resolution on graduation exercises submitted by Ronald Hester, Lumberton. The motion carried. (See Item No. 70)

Whereas, several of our Baptist Colleges and Universities are now having their graduation exercises on Sunday mornings, and

Whereas, Sunday morning is the time of worship and Bible study in our churches, and

Whereas, these colleges and universities are part of the Baptist family, and

Whereas, Sunday morning graduation may take families away from their churches and may cause a sense of divided allegiance, and

Whereas, this practice may keep pastors and staff from participating in these exercises with those of their congregations whom they have encouraged to attend Baptist schools,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting at Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, express our strong concern and ask the Council on Christian Higher Education to share this concern with our Baptist Colleges and Universities.

123. Beth Upchurch, Durham, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution on peacemaking submitted by Robert E. McClernon, Durham. The motion carried. (See Item No. 73)

Whereas, our Lord Jesus calls us to peacemaking as a holy task, and

Whereas, prayer for peace is a Gospel imperative, and

Whereas, the theme of this 152nd annual session of the Baptist State Convention has been "Instruments of Peace in an Anxious World,"

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, commends our churches for all their efforts toward mediating the peace of God in homes, in local communities, in our state and nation, and between the nations of the world, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we recommend to North Carolina Baptist churches the annual observance of a special time of prayer for peace on the Sunday before Memorial Day, beginning in 1983.

124. Mrs. Bettie Godwin, Oxford, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as a substitute for resolution on Vietnam veterans submitted by De Hillyer, Richfield. The motion carried. (See Item No. 71)

Whereas, our nation has recently recognized our Vietnam veterans in a public way, and

Whereas, some of our service men and women paid the supreme sacrifice by giving their lives and their families still live with the scars and pain of their loss.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, express gratitude to these men and women or to their families for their service to America in Vietnam, and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the churches of North Carolina be encouraged to pay tribute to the members of their churches and local communities who served in Vietnam.

124/Baptist State Convention

125. Dean Baughn, Banner Elk, in behalf of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution and moved its adoption as substitute for resolutions on prayer in the public schools submitted by Woodrow W. Robbins, High Point (See Item No. 28) and Judy Dilday, Statesville. (See Item No. 72)

Whereas the proper place of religion in public schools continues to be the subject of confusion among U.S. citizens, including our own Baptist people;

And whereas Congress continues to be pressured to act favorably on a proposed constitutional amendment calling for prayer in public schools;

And whereas Congress is likewise under severe pressure to pass bills seeking to remove challenges to state laws or local regulations returning prayer to public schools from the jurisdiction of federal courts;

And whereas the Baptist State Convention has consistently supported the U.S. Supreme court's historic 1962 and 1963 decisions striking down state-mandated prayer and Bible reading in public schools;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, meeting in Fayetteville, November 15-17, 1982, reaffirm its support of the Supreme Court's decisions;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention reassert its opposition to any and all proposed constitutional amendments which, under the premise of fostering "voluntary" prayer in public schools, would in fact undermine those decisions;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention oppose unalterably any and all legislative efforts to remove from federal court jurisdiction laws dealing with prayer in public schools;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we strongly urge the Baptist Joint Committee to exercise a leadership role in the effort to defeat constitutional amendments and jurisdictional bills dealing with prayer in public schools in Congress while at the same time asking Baptist leaders across the country to join us in seeking the defeat of such measures by communicating their opposition to members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we call upon our denominational leaders in the associations, state conventions, and the Southern Baptist Convention to undertake a renewed effort to provide information to our Baptist people about the constitutionally appropriate place of religion in public schools and to educate our people about the dangers of any form of coerced religious exercises in said schools.

126. Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, moved that consideration of this resolution be postponed out of consideration of fairness to messengers who cannot be here and vote on it at this time. The motion was defeated.

127. Mrs. Ann Frazier, Roanoke Rapids, made a substitute motion that this resolution be replaced with the original resolution submitted by Judy Dilday, Statesville. (See Item No. 72)

128. A motion was made by an unidentified messenger to table the substitute motion. The President ruled that a two-thirds majority was needed to pass the motion. The motion was defeated.

129. In a standing vote, counted separately by sections, the substitute motion by Mrs. Ann Frazier, Roanoke Rapids, carried, 506 to 308. (See item No. 127)

130. Woodrow W. Robbins, on a point of personal privilege, expressed appreciation to the officers of the convention and especially to the Resolutions Committee.

131. President Campbell announced that the substitute motion on the resolution on the sanctity of human life, carried. The vote was 492 to 402. (See Items Nos. 38 and 119)

132. Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, moved that the Baptist State Convention petition the Southern Baptist Convention to change the World Hunger Day promotion from the month of October to one of the summer months, and that we ask other state conventions that promote state missions offerings in September and October to join us in this petition and if approved, this motion would be referred to the General Board for implementation. The motion carried.

133. The benediction was pronounced by Phillip S. Carter, N.C. Center for Women, Raleigh, and the convention was adjourned with registration of 3,016 messengers and 213 visitors.

REPORT

to the 152nd
Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina
Cumberland County Memorial Arena
Fayetteville, North Carolina
November 15-17, 1982

1982 General Board Report to Convention

The General Board is composed of 108 members and serves the Convention as the Convention — ad-interim. The Board met three times in 1982 — January 26-27, May 25-26, and September 28-29. This report to the Convention features the work of this Board and Executive Committee which met 10 times.

The General Board serves the Convention as a “general supervisor” of the institutions and agencies, and directs the work of the General Board staff and programs. The Board as organized does much of its work through the Executive Committee and the 10 program sub-committees: Church Programs, Missions, Evangelism, Stewardship, Business, Christian Life and Public Affairs, Christian Social Services, Christian Higher Education, Youth and Campus Ministries, and Communications. The Executive Committee is the Convention’s personnel, budget, and plans and policies committee.

During the year the General Board functioned for the Convention on the following program features and decisions:

1. The Here’s Hope Crusade

The Here’s Hope Crusade was the program highlight of the year. The joint-evangelism campaign was sponsored by the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention and involved some 2,500 churches. A statewide mass medial campaign on T.V., radio, and newspapers featured the “Here’s Hope” message and magnified the role of the churches. Preparation stages included an emphasis on prayer, people search, and witness training. The budget for the campaign was set at $700,000 and expenditures were kept within the budget. Mark Corts, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, served as the Convention’s chairman for this crusade.

2. The New Baptist Building

The new Baptist Building — the new four story 53,000 sq. ft. office building was approved by the 1981 messengers and is now under construction and scheduled for occupancy before January 1, 1983. The new address will be 205 Convention Drive, Cary. However, the mailing address will remain the same — Box 26508, Raleigh, N.C. 27611. Property given by Mr. George (Buck) Jordan and Seby Jones of Raleigh provides an attractive and valuable 5.2 acres. The old building was sold to Instrument Society of America.

3. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute now has a dormitory and dining hall. Both units have been completed, dedicated, and opened for use. The Sullinger building is now being removed. The Institute's property value has increased by more than one and a half million dollars. Gifts by a number of individuals made the building possible. Mr. Billy Satterfield of Winston-Salem gave the dining hall and paid a major portion of the cost of the dormitory. The 1981 Convention authorized the borrowing of $333,576 to cover the Convention's cost in the building. A final reporting on costs and recommendations for repayment will be presented to the 1982 Convention.

4. North Carolina Baptist Assembly

North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Caswell has experienced its best year. Attendance during the summer has been at maximum capacity with attendance at the summer weeks exceeding 6,317. Church groups participating have reported on their experience with enthusiasm. Plans are now being made to begin the second stage of a property improvement plan. North Carolina Baptist Men have agreed to work with the Assemblies Committee in building remodeling and new building constructions.

5. Caraway Conference Center

The Executive Committee authorized the development of plans for an addition to the Conference Center. The plan is to authorize construction of the new addition as funds are available. It is anticipated that the primary source of funds will be Conference Center income and the North Carolina Missions Offering. The present indebtedness on the Conference Center is $149,565. This will be reduced to about $112,000 by the end of 1982 and the balance paid in 1983.

6. The Cooperative Program

Gifts of the churches have been encouraging in spite of the economic recession. At the end of the first three quarters of the year gifts were ahead of the previous year by 7%. Gifts for the year are expected to reach $19,500,000 to $20,000,000. Total mission gifts handled by the Convention's business office will likely exceed $32,000,000.

7. Ministers' Care Team

The 1982 Convention approved the recommendation of a Commission on the Ministry. As a follow-through a Minister Care Team has been created and is now in early stages of its work led by Burrell Lucas of the Church Programs Division. 1982 has been the third year of the Minister Care program that provides assistance in counseling costs for ministers and their families. This program is administered by the School of Pastoral Care for the Convention.

8. Sunday School Enlargement

“Reach People” is the Convention’s major Bold Mission emphasis for 1982-1983. The planned follow-up to the Joint Evangelism Crusade is a 1982-1983 Sunday School Enlargement Campaign in each association. Each church is encouraged to participate and enlist the guidance of one of the trained directors. Over 400 volunteer directors are being trained by the Sunday School Department staff for this enlargement plan.

9. Video Tape Service

North Carolina Baptists participate in the Southern Baptist Video Tape Service and as a result have added 52 video program tapes to the Convention’s library. The number of video tapes available for use by churches is 204.

10. Biblical Recorder

Board and staff members have worked with the Biblical Recorder directors and the new editor, R. Gene Puckett, in meeting the paper’s financial crisis resulting from greatly increased postage rates. The Biblical Recorder staff will be housed in the new Baptist Building.

11. 1983 Seminar on the Ministry

Preparations have been made for the 1983 Seminar on the Ministry, an indepth Bible study is set for March 21-25 at the Caraway Conference Center. Doug Cole, director of the Christian Life Division is chairman of the committee charged with planning the seminar.

12. Mountain State 200

This has been the second year of the five-year partnership. The partnership goal is to help the West Virginia Baptist State Convention start 100 new churches. In the two years of the partnership 45 new chapels or churches have been established.

Approximately 1000 North Carolina Baptists from 110 churches participated this summer in West Virginia projects.

13. Elected by Executive Committee

The Executive Committee elected the following staff members: None of these reflect the addition of new positions but are replacements for vacancies.

Eddie Pettit—Pioneer Royal Ambassadors—RA Camp, North Carolina Baptist Men's projects; Tommy Puckett—World Mission Conferences, Crusader Royal Ambassadors and some North Carolina Baptist Men's projects; J.W. General Board Recommendations

1. 1983 Budget

The General Board recommends:

- a. A total budget requiring $22,250,000 Cooperative Program receipts, and
- b. A $2,725,000 North Carolina Missions Offering, both of which are to fund programs as printed in the 1983 Program and Budget Proposals.

2. Debt Retirement

The General Board recommends that the Convention authorize the Executive Committee to borrow $489,000 for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute with the understanding that the $148,200 in outstanding pledges will be applied when received and that the balance will be repaid by budget allocations during the years 1983-1987.

That the Executive Committee be authorized to complete the Baptist Building and, as needed, borrow up to $280,000. This is the approximate difference between the $750,000 cost limit to the Convention set by the 1981 Convention and the $384,315 allocated in 1981-1982 budgets for the building.

3. Recommendations from the Convention Format Committee

The General Board makes the following recommendations:

A. Convention Schedule

We recommend that we go back to a six session Convention to begin on Monday evening, meet again on Tuesday morning, with Tuesday afternoon free and then continue with Tuesday evening, Wednesday morning, Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday evening sessions.

B. Five-Year Cycle of Verbal Reports

The General Board recommends that a five-year cycle of verbal reporting by our divisions, agencies, and insitutions be undertaken on a trial basis. (With twenty areas of ministry to report, each of the years would hear four specialized verbal reports, in addition to any written reports.)

We further recommend that this five-year cycle begin in 1983 and that the General Board sketch out the projected allotment of time for the cycle.

C. Guidelines for Reporting by Agencies and Institutions

The General Board recommends that the following guideline be used by the divisions, agencies and institutions for reporting to the Convention.

Annual Reporting to the Baptist State Convention by agencies, institutions and the General Board is required by the Convention's Constitution. The purpose of such reports, written or verbal, may be described as follows:

(1) To satisfy the Constitution's requirements that reporting be done.

(2) To allow trustees, directors and the General Board the opportunity of giving to their electing body an account of their stewardship in matters pertinent to the Convention's areas of interest and authority.

(3) To deepen the appreciation of the Convention for every area in which work is sponsored and supported.

(4) To strengthen the sense of partnership in ministry within the North Carolina Baptist family, reflecting the New Testament recognition of the variety and value of the Spirit's gifts which, "when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love." (Eph. 4:16b, RSV).

So that the above purposes may be consistently fulfilled by any reporting groups, it is recommended that the content of all written reports to the Convention reflect the following guidelines:

(1) Major decisions by the trustees which significantly effect the operation and-ministry of the reporting group.

(2) Primary achievements realized since the last reporting.

(3) Critical needs of the agency or institution, including suggestions for churches and the Convention in helping to meet those needs.

(4) Financial highlights, including indebtedness, reflecting the financial condition with respect to income and expenditures.

(5) Plans for the future, intended to enhance the offering of Christian service.

D. Book of Advance Reports

The General Board recommends that the full Book of Advance Reports be released prior to the Convention and that the format be that which was used for the 1981 Pre-Convention Update and Pre-Convention Biblical Recorder. Also, that the same material be included in the messenger packets.

E. Constitution Change - Election of Officers

The General Board recommends that Article VI, Officers, paragraph two, sentence three be amended to read:

"That the election of all officers subject to annual election begin at the first morning session of the annual Convention and, if necessary, be completed at other times designated by the Program Committee.”

F. Bylaw Change Regarding Resolutions Committee

The General Board recommends that the Bylaws be changed to provide for a two-year rotating of the ten Convention-elected members of the Resolutions Committee.

4. Recommendations Regarding Constitution and Bylaws

The General Board recommends the following Constitution and Bylaw Changes:

1. Bylaw IV, B, 4, c, (1), (a) - Fruitland Bible Institute Committee

(1) Change the title from “Fruitland Bible Institute Committee” to “Fruitland Bible Institute Advisory Committee.”

(2) Delete the entire section (a) “Fruitland Bible Institute Committee.” Replace with the following new wording:

The General Board Missions Committee chairman shall serve as chairman of this committee. At least one person on the Committee should be an alumnus of Fruitland and is desirable that others come from the faculty or from the Fruitland family. The Committee will meet as necessary, but must meet at least twice each year, one of which meetings shall be on the campus and with school authorities. The Director of the Missions Division and the Director of Fruitland are ex-officio members of this committee. The line of authority runs from the Baptist State Convention to the General Board, to the Executive Committee, to the General Secretary-Treasurer, to the Director of the Division of Missions, to the Director of Fruitland, to the faculty and staff, to the students.

It shall be the assignment of the Advisory Committee to maintain the unique purpose of the Institute in serving the special educational needs of individuals called into the ministry. The Fruitland Bible Institute shall be operated consistent with the “Fruitland Bible Institute Study” as adopted by the General Board in May of 1982.

2. Resolutions Committee Change

(1) Bylaw II, C, 1,

a. Delete the following sentence: “The committee on Resolutions consisting of fifteen members, ten of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention, to serve during the succeeding year and to report at the next regular session of the Convention."

b. Add: "The Committee on Resolutions shall consist of fifteen (15) members, ten (10) of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention. The ten (10) members shall serve two-year terms with five rotating off each year."

3. Publicity Committee

The Constitution and Bylaws Committee recommends that Bylaw II, B, 9, relating to the Publicity Committee, be deleted from the present Bylaws and that II, B, 10 become II, B, 9.

4. Guidelines for Nomination Procedures

(1) The Committee on Nominations - II, B, 2

Delete: "It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on Convention Boards. Any additional beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Nominating Committee to the Convention."

Add: "No church shall have more than ten (10) members serving at one time on Convention boards."

(2) Committee on Committees - II, A, 2

Delete: "It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on committees. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Committee on Committees to the Convention."

Add: "No church shall have more than ten (10) members serving at one time on Convention committees."

(3) Constitution Change Relative to Election of Officers

Article VI Officers

Add: "The election of all officers subject to annual election shall begin at the first morning session of the annual convention, and, if necessary, be completed at other times designated by the Program Committee."

Pastor/Church Relations

Since 1964 North Carolina Baptists have been providing informational and guidance service for Pastor Search Committees and Personnel Committees. Christian support and career guidance for pastors, staff and graduating ministerial students in the exchange of pastorates or the beginning of a new ministry is also provided.

Associational Correlation

Vital to all North Carolina Baptist work with churches is the work of the Director of Missions in each association. In 1982, the office of Pastor/Church Relations has had twenty-five consultation conferences. Working with representatives of Directors of Missions our office provides materials, accurate data and availability of Southern Baptist pastors and staff. Appropriate literature, training sessions and consultations are available.

Crisis Ministry

We assist and assess those emergencies and experiences of broken relationships. "Thirty Days Is Not Enough" is our most recent printing addressing the problem of firing with no place to go.

Support Ministry

Everyone needs help and support, especially the recently retired, suddenly fired, soon to begin servants of Christ. Our most recent literature published in the area of concern are "Growth — For Me and My Ministry: a Guide to Personal and Career Evaluation" and "The Minister's Scarlet Letters: Events That Jeopardize the Minister's Career."

Ministerial Students

Southern Baptist are annually equipping and preparing no less than 10,000 ministerial students in our seminaries. Recent graduates are anxious to get started on the pilgrimage of service for the Lord. The office of Pastor/Church Relations assists, counsels, and shares many graduating seminary students in their first place of ministry.

Career Guidance

In 1982, some 105 ministers and staff personnel, late in career men and women seeking to retool, restructure and reorganize their skills and ministry have sought and received counsel of this office.

Robert H. Bruhn, director

Convention Trustees

The present trustees of the Convention were selected at the 1981 meeting of the Convention. They are: David M. Britt and W. Gale Parker of Raleigh; and Gerald Arnold of Lillington. David M. Britt was duly selected to serve as president, Gerald Arnold as vice president, and W. Gale Parker was duly selected to serve as secretary.

Functions of the corporation consisting of the trustees include the execution of deeds of conveyance, contracts and other instruments. Between 1 September 1981 and 1 August 1982 the president or vice president and the secretary, pursuant to directions from the General Board of the Executive Committee, executed the following documents:

(1) On 12 October 1981, quit claim deed for 50 foot by 90 foot lot in Lincoln County to Mazel C. Beattie.

(2) On 22 October 1981, deed for .30 acre lot of land in Hyde County to Trustees of Fairfield Baptist Church.

(3) On 5 March 1982, deed for conveyance of Baptist Building property on Hillsborough and Morgan Streets in Raleigh to purchasers of that property.

(4) On 22 March 1982, deed to Triple B Electric Company, Inc. for three lots at Fruitland.

David M. Britt, president

Business Management

The Convention's IBM Systems #38 Computer has proven to be of great help in speeding up operations and making our work more efficient. Personnel in the Data Processing Department are real assets, not only in the financial area, but in statistical and departmental work.

The Remittance Forms for next year are being mailed to each church early in November. Each year, the Convention receives approximately 45,000 remittances in the Business Office. The Business Office strives for accuracy in carrying out the instructions from each church and appreciates the correctness of the treasurers in the information they share.

We are looking forward to having new and more efficient facilities for the business functions in the new Baptist Building.

Most of the employees in the Business Division have been with the Convention for several years. This combined experience gives strength to the business functions performed. Each of us appreciates the opportunity of serving Baptists of North Carolina in this vital office.

Camp Caraway and Conference Center

Camp Caraway and Conference Center serves by making facilities and services available for camps, conferences and retreats. The Youth Camp is used exclusively for Royal Ambassador Camps during the summer. More than 600 different groups were served during the year. The Camp and Conference Center generated all its operational income, with all convention allocated monies going into debt retirement, which should be retired at the end of next year.

Due to limited space many requests have not been filled, and motel rooms have been used for a number of convention planned meetings. In order to help provide better services, the Camp Caraway subcommittee has asked for authority to begin a study of some plans to enlarge the Conference Center.

North Carolina Baptist Assembly

The North Carolina Baptist Assembly hosted approximately 6,317 persons during the summer of 1982. The conferences focused on various aspects of Christian life including youth evangelism, music training, and world missions.

As in the last five years, the Assembly has continued to increase its year-round services. Spring-fall visitors to the Assembly enjoy recreational and spiritual retreats for pastors, deacons, choirs, associations, and youth groups.

During 1982 the Assembly adopted a revised staffing plan which combined the General Services Coordinator position with the Public Relations Coordinator to create the new position of Public Services Coordinator. This arrangement has proven effective in easing communication between the conference guest and the Assembly staff. During the Spring of 1982 the Executive Committee authorized the North Carolina Baptist Assembly to conduct a capital fund raising program. Implementation of the program will begin in October 1982 and includes volunteer involvement as a major thrust in completing the long-range plan. In February 1982, the Assembly adopted a new statement of philosophy around which we have built a new, better sense of service. The statement of philosophy is as follows:

The North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Fort Caswell is a statewide retreat and conference center provided as a ministry of The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The Assembly's purpose is to provide the facilities for the lodging, dining, classroom, and recreational needs of the guests with the challenge to blend the historical and environmental appeal of Fort Caswell with cheerful Christian service to create an environment that fastens spiritual enrichment. Through fulfilling this purpose, we express our ministry "Labor in service of men for the glory of GOD."

This philosophy has provided a common understanding on the part of the Caswell staff that "Labor Is Prayer."

We want to express appreciation to the churches that have provided voluntary labor for renovation at Caswell. We will deeply appreciate any others that may assist with future needs.

Thomas W. McKay, director

Retirement Planning

As of June 30, 1982, in North Carolina there were 3,110 staff members in 2,305 churches and associations participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program.

As of July 31, 1982, we had processed the following:

- 125 - Southern Baptist Retirement Program applications
- 37 - Applications for age retirement benefits
- 598 - retirement program upgrades

The church's response to upgrading the staff member's retirement program continues to be encouraging. Ten (10%) percent of his/her annual compensation (salary, housing allowance, auto allowance, etc.) should be the minimum. In 1981 North Carolina reported 1,032 upgrades! This was the best year we have ever had.

The following Baptist agencies participate in the retirement program:

- Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc.
- Biblical Recorder, Inc.
- North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.
- Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.
- North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc.
- North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc.
- Campbell University
- Chowan College
- Gardner-Webb College
- Meredith College
- Wake Forest University
- Wingate College
- Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

During 1982 the department staff has ministered in approximately one-fourth of the associations in North Carolina in "extended individual conference settings." This is a time when we go into an association (at their invitation) and conduct individual conferences with the pastors, church staff members, their spouse, and key lay leadership from each church. This gives opportunity to minister to the individual by "walking through" his/her member benefit statement explaining the Annuity Board's program and providing assistance in providing an adequate retirement income. This approach has proven to be one of our most effective programs.

Six (6) VIDEO TAPES are now available for churches and associations to assist in understanding the protection programs of the Annuity Board. Order from the AV Library, Baptist State Convention.

2. A total of $24,298,521 was paid in retirement benefits.
3. Total assets administered by the board as of Dec. 31, 1981 were $896,535,999 compared with $806,518,757 in Dec. 31, 1980.

Church Programs

The Division of Church Programs centers around eight programs of work: Church Building Planning, Church Music, Church Training, Sunday School, Woman's Missionary Union, Church Administration, Weekday Early Education and Church Library (Media). These eight areas of work are located within five departments. (Church Administration is a part of the Division Director's job description.)

The goal for Bold Mission Thrust continues to challenge the departments within the Division of Church Programs. These three year goals constitute the very heart beat of interest and activity. Bold Mission projects were highlighted by the study and launch of the Reaching People emphases ('83-'84 - Developing Believers, '84-'85 - Strengthening Families). The Minister Care Team continues to function with a great deal of enthusiasm and expectation.

During the second week of May each year, associational key leaders are invited to Ridgecrest Conference Center for updating and training. Each area of work within the Division is responsible for directing the training of their particular counterparts from each association. This has proven to be a very helpful time for both state convention and associational leadership. This meeting was held May 10-12, 1982. The attendance was excellent. The spirit of joint ownership and cooperation was the best yet.

The personnel of the Division of Church Programs numbers 32. There are five department directors, eleven associates, nine secretaries, one administrative assistant, one bookkeeper, two camp directors, two permanent part-time associates and the division director.

There were several personnel changes during the year. On November 15, 1981, Bob Goode of the staff of First Church, Richmond, Virginia, came to fill the Sunday School consultant position in the areas of preschool, church media and weekday early education programs. Also in the Sunday School Department, Bill Byrd resigned the position of Youth Consultant as of October, 1981 to return to a church staff position in Arkansas. In the W.M.U. Department, there were also several changes. Nona Bickerstaff, Baptist Young Women director, resigned the last of April, 1982 to begin work with the New York Baptist Convention. Pam Harris, literature secretary, resigned the first of May, 1982 to transfer to the Business Office Division of the Convention. Kay Abbott was employed July 1, 1982 to fill this vacancy. Bonnie Eanes, secretary, Church Music Department, resigned her position after the birth of her son in December, 1981. On June 1, 1982 Becki Canterbury was employed to fill this vacancy.

Program directors have been ably assisted by a great host of special and approved workers throughout the state.

Burrel F. Lucas, director

Church Building Planning

Interest in church building continues at an amazingly high level in the face of a depressed economy and high interest rates. The director of this department has had more requests for assistance this year than at any time in his five years of service with the Convention. Over 200 churches received on-site consultations this year. One-day Church Building Conferences were conducted in Tarboro, Graham and Lincolnton. Interest and participation in these conferences continues to be good. Every year scores of staff members and lay leaders are introduced to wise principles of building planning, sound financial planning, and good energy conservation measures.

One of the helpful services we provide enables churches to maintain a balance in their support of local ministries, missions and a new building. It is important that churches not over-obligate themselves in building indebtedness and thus stifle other programs and mission giving. With sound financial planning and a good capital fund raising program — such as Together We Build — this can be avoided. This year our in-state consultants have conducted seven Together We Build Programs and helped churches raise about $1.5 million for buildings. That amount will save these churches about four million dollars in interest and payback at today's high interest rates over a 15 year period.

Churches are feeling the pinch of high financing costs for new construction. But in many instances this is leading to better space utilization in existing buildings and wiser planning for new construction. This represents good stewardship of total resources and is very commendable. Baptists should realize that church buildings are instruments through which we carry out our mission. Buildings must never become the ends toward which our churches work.

Gwenn E. McCormick, director

Church Music

The Church Music Department exists for the purpose of serving every church affiliated with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Bold Mission Thrust and the SBC music theme of "Reaching Preschoolers and Children Through Music" have been the motivating forces for music work during the past year. The continuing goals of the department are fourfold:

1. To help all music leaders attain their full potential;
2. To strengthen members in their use of God-given talent;
3. To increase the number of music groups and the enrollment of existing groups; and
4. To further develop music as an effective means of education, outreach, and ministry and as a meaningful part of the worship experience.

Department personnel includes Charles Gatwood, director; Charles Storey, associate, and Becki Canterbury, office secretary. Bonnie Eanes, office secretary at the beginning of the year, resigned in January at the end of her maternity leave; Sara Roland came to the department in February as temporary secretary. Becki Canterbury began work in March and was officially elected by the Executive Committee in May. The Department has been blessed through the years with efficient and competent secretaries, and we are privileged to have the assistance of Mrs. Canterbury as a co-worker.

The Department is ably assisted by ten regional directors who serve faithfully as liaison between Music Department and associations and who meet twice each year with department personnel to assist in planning and evaluating.

Much of the work is carried on in associations by the Associational Music Directors, their Councils, and Zone Directors. The 20 Approved Workers are used with increasing frequency in the training of leaders.

During the past year, 158,435 persons were enrolled in local church music programs - a 4.17 percent increase over the preceding year. These persons were from the 3,013 churches which reported a music program.

During the year, the department provided the following programs and services:

Charles Gatwood, director

Church Training

The Church Training Department assists associational and local church leaders in equipping God's people for bold growth in discipleship through its emphasis upon Continuing Training, Short-Term Training, and Individual Training.

During the past year, assistance was given to leaders through the following projects and activities:

Fifty-seven youth Bible Drill participants and 14 youth speakers were involved in the area tournaments. The state tournaments for youth were held in High Point with winners of Bible Drill and Speakers’ Tournament representing North Carolina during Church Training Week at Ridgecrest.

K. Maurice Cooper, director

Sunday School

"The winning of the lost to Christ is the most important work Southern Baptists do, and the Sunday School is one of the most effective means the church has for this business." These words of J.N. Barnette, spoken years ago, are true today. The mandate of the Sunday School Department is to help every church build a strong reaching-teaching Sunday School and to help each association develop competent ASSIST (Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team) personnel.

A major part of the REACHING PEOPLE emphasis of the Southern Baptist Convention is a major effort to have eight and a half million people enrolled in Sunday School by September 30, 1985. 8.5 by '85!

In North Carolina the state Sunday School enrollment goal is 855,000 by September 30, 1985. With enrollment of 655,596 at the end of 1981, an average increase of 10 percent per year per church will be required to reach the goal. However, with over four million unreached and unchurched in the state, the goal is realistic and obtainable!

Increased concern for building or rebuilding strong Sunday Schools is reflected in attendance at training offered and in the volume of phone calls and letters for help. For example:

*In Vacation Bible School clinics for associational teams 635 people from 78 associations were trained.

*The pilot Sunday School Enlargement Campaign in Wilmington Association had 20 churches participating. People Search and other prospect discovery projects located 3,551 prospects! A Sunday School Growth Spiral was developed for each church.

*Development of a competent ASSIST team in every association is a priority! Training was provided for 330 ASSIST workers in six clinics during January and February. The new "How to Guide . . ." books were featured.

*Trained workers are more effective workers in teaching and in evangelism. October-June 5,084 Sunday School Leadership Awards were reported. 131 Sunday School Leadership diplomas were earned.

*Adult Leadership Conferences in Gastonia and Asheville were attended by 491 workers from 11 associations representing 98 churches.

*Two conferences for workers in Weekday Early Education trained 183 people.

*Weekly half-hour television and 15 minute radio Sunday School lesson programs continue to be produced. Teachers are Frances Cooke, Ray Hodge and James Hagwood. Programs are released to cablevision outlets and hospitals and nursing homes.

*Anticipating an unprecedented number of enlargement campaign directors needed during the 8.5 by '85 emphasis, training is underway for potential campaign directors. In March 56 from North Carolina went to the Sunday School Board in Nashville for special training. In several training sessions in the state over 200 additional will have been trained by the year's end.

*A state library/media conference provided training for 183 workers.

*Church workers are responding in record numbers to the fall training conventions at Ridgecrest, Caraway and in the east. (The convention in the east is moved to different cities each year.) Last fall 912 attended; registrations for this year are already ahead of last year!

Enlargement Campaigns Priority Project

Every association is urged to conduct a Sunday School Enlargement Campaign during the 8.5 by '85 growth emphasis. Wilmington, Gaston and Anson will complete campaigns in 1982. During 1983 associations planning enlargement campaigns include: Ashe, March 19-27; Atlantic, March 12-20; Caldwell, September 10-18; Catawba River, March 19-27; Johnston, March 19-27; Kings Mountain, April 23-May 1; Mecklenburg, March 12-17; Neuse, September 17-25; Pee Dee, February 19-26; Raleigh/Durham Metro, April 16-24; Randolph, September 17-25; Sandhills, March 19-27; Stone Mountain, August 20-28; Theron Rankin, April 16-24; Transylvania, April 23-May 1; Truett, September 10-18; Tuckaseegee, October 15-23; Yadkin, February 26-March 1; Yancey, August 13-21.

After five years of faithful service Bill Byrd, youth associate, resigned to accept a minister of education ministry in Arkansas. We express appreciation to Bill, not only for youth work, but for the outstanding job he did in developing the ASSIST work across the state.

The Sunday School Department team is composed of Robert Stewart, director; Johnny Ross, adult associate; Janice Haywood, children's associate; Bob Goode, preschool associate; Linda Hicks, department secretary; and Eva Teague, assistant secretary.

Woman's Missionary Union

Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, seeks to teach Baptists about missions, lead them into an active ministry of prayer and financial support of missions, and help them become more involved in missions in their own community. The programs and activities of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union are planned and conducted with these tasks in mind.

The work of Woman's Missionary Union can generally be put in one of the following categories:

Leader Training

If the goals of Bold Mission Thrust are to be reached, and if WMU is to effectively accomplish her tasks within these goals, women must be trained to take places of leadership. Thus, leader training is one of the main efforts of state WMU.

Leader training for associational WMU teams was done in two parts in 1981-82. The first part was called "Early Associational Training" and consisted of two-hour training sessions for associational councils. This was done in eighteen different locations across the state. The second half of the training was done in day-long sessions in four different locations. Over 600 associational leaders were trained.

In addition to associational leader training, the state WMU selected a group of women for special training. This group, called the SALT Team, (Specialized Area Leader Trainers) was trained in Raleigh in a three day conference. These women will be used to aid associations with training, to help new churches, and to aid the state WMU program as needed.

Three regional training sessions in mission action were held in the spring of 1982. This was an effort to help churches to do a better job of mission involvement. Those participating had the opportunity of attending conferences of their choice on subjects ranging from family violence to institutional ministries. Over 654 people attended these Saturday conferences.

Associational Acteens council members were also provided with special training. Additional training was also available to associational WMU directors who attended the Key Leadership conference in May.

WMU Growth

In these days when more women work outside the home and when there are increasing demands on their time, it is significant that WMU experienced 2.7 percent growth in 1981-82. This is, in part, a result of the 1980 enlargement/enlistment program, and the current emphasis on getting WMU in all the churches in North Carolina, and a new awareness of the importance of missions education.

As a part of a national three-year enlargement effort, WMU has developed and trained a team called Starteam. These seven women who make up the team are making good progress toward the goal of contacting every church in the state that does not have WMU work. This program concludes in September, 1983.

Each association and every church is being urged to continue to recognize the significant contributions made by WMU to women, girls, and preschoolers. This knowledge will aid in WMU growth.

Summer Camps, Retreats, Conventions

Camp Mundo Vista, owned and operated by Woman's Missionary Union, was again filled to capacity in the summer of 1982 with the 1,556 Girls in Action and 409 Acteens, 50 staff, and five missionaries each week. Debra McGuire was responsible for this camping program. In addition to Mundo Vista, WMU conducted associational and regional camps in five areas in the state. These camps were done by a traveling staff of five young women, and directed by Pat Ritchie.

Each year WMU sponsors various inspirational and informational meetings for women and girls. In 1981-82 these included the WMU Annual Session; Queens Court for Acteens; a BYW retreat at Camp Mundo Vista; a couples retreat at the Caraway Conference Center; and a Career and Professional Women's Convention at Ridgecrest Conference Center.

Ministries to Missionaries

There are approximately 225 North Carolinians currently serving as either associate or career missionaries with the Foreign Mission Board. These, and the missionaries from North Carolina appointed by the Home Mission Board, are aided in their work by WMU. A monetary gift is given to each at the time of appointment, and gifts of books and magazines are given to them each year.

In addition a Marriage Enrichment Retreat for missionaries was held in 1982. A retreat is also planned each year for MKs (Missionary Kids) attending school in North Carolina.

Weeks of Prayer and Special Offerings

Woman's Missionary Union has the responsibility for the promotion of the special offerings and seasons of prayer for foreign and home missions. WMU also assists in the promotion of the North Carolina Missions Offering. WMU seeks to make these weeks opportunities of learning and prayer as well as a time to support the work financially.

In 1981-82, North Carolinians gave the following through these offerings:

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering	$5,307,899.42
Annie Armstrong Easter Offering	$2,205,350.96 (as of July 31, 1982)
North Carolina Missions Offering	$325,491.79 (as of July 31, 1982)

There were two staff changes in WMU in 1981-82. Nona Kay Bickerstaff, the BYW director, resigned to become the WMU and Christian Social Ministries director for the Baptist Convention of New York. Pat Ritchie became the Mission Friends and Baptist Young Women director, leaving the GA position to be filled. Kay Abbott joined the office staff as literature secretary. Other staff members are Nancy Curtis, Suthell Walker, Carolyn Hopkins, Pina Maynard, Diane Hurlbut, Linda Love, Leland Bingham.

Woman's Missionary Union, through these people, programs and activities, is seeking to help the convention reach the goals of Bold Mission Thrust, and the goals of reaching people, developing believers, strengthening the family, and affirming the ministry.

Nancy Curtis, executive director

Communications

The Communications Division provides publications, audio visuals and media relations for the several General Board departments, divisions and committees. These materials range from detailed publications (like this book) to less complicated programs for conferences and meetings. Audio visuals include sophisticated videotapes, basic promotional filmstrips and black and white photography for other media.

In the main, the Communications Division serves as an "in-house promotion agency" for the General Board. Each participating department and division plans their overall promotion and publicity with the assistance of the Communications Division. The Division attempts to make departments and divisions aware of a "total public relations program" when planning any outreach activity. There is an attempt to relate various media (pamphlets, posters, booklets, etc.) for each program.

An illustration of coordinated planning by the Communications Division in 1982 was the HERE'S HOPE Joint Evangelistic Campaign. The Division planned, produced and distributed both mass and church media materials. Radio and television announcements and newspaper advertisements were placed statewide in connection with revival dates. Churches were then furnished posters, yard signs, lapel buttons, bulletin inserts and covers, and an interpretative pamphlet. All of the materials — both to secular media and churches — were coordinated as to art design and editorial content.

The Audio-Visuals section is divided into two major areas, production and distribution. Materials produced in 1982 include two filmstrips with cassette tape narration, one promoting the 1982 North Carolina Mission Offering entitled "Hope is Something You Give," the other dealing with opportunities for service through North Carolina Baptist Men. Custom slide shows were developed for the 1982 Report to the Associations, as well as for the Sunday School Department. Consultation and programming assistance was given in the areas of campus ministry and world mission promotion.

About 3,000 audio cassette tapes were reproduced on order from recordings of several major conferences, including messages presented at the Evangelism Conference, Youth Convention, Pastor's Conference, WMU Convention, Mars Hill Week of Study, and the Convention's Annual Session. Audio services for the blind, provided in conjunction with the Department of Special Ministries and Woman's Missionary Union, include the distribution of tapes of the Biblical Recorder to 235 blind persons each week, and the distribution of Royal Service to about 62 blind persons monthly.

Distribution of most audio visual materials occurs through the Audio Visual Loan Library, which provides free check-out of these materials to any Convention church, agency or institution. The library includes over 2700 filmstrip titles, 226 motion pictures, and approximately 150 video cassette titles. In 1982, over 12,000 orders for these materials were processed.

The Communications Division also includes two other areas of work, with their reports as follows.

William H. Boatwright, director

Publications/Art

The Publications and Art Department is a "support group" for the General Board departments and divisions in the promotion and development of programs and projects. Hundreds of jobs such as posters, brochures, flyers, bulletin inserts and specialty items are produced each year in support of the ministries provided by the General Board departments and divisions.

The year 1982 saw new emphasis in the area of video production. The Publications and Art Department was called upon to provide video art cards, props, slides and consultation on set design.

The Publications series "Light and Leaven" was continued with a new series added called "Growing Christian Families."

Annual Convention-Wide Projects

The annual Baptist State Convention requires numerous materials each year. In addition to the normal publications which fill the messengers packets, a new publication called "Pre-convention Update" was introduced in a tabloid format. The "Update" addressed items which would be coming up at the convention and served as a means to better inform messengers prior to their arrival in Greensboro.

The 1981 Joint Convention created the largest number of convention exhibits we have ever had. The Publications and Art Department coordinated and organized 45 exhibits including the Baptist Book Store and the exhibits of the General Baptist Convention.

Special Key Leadership materials were produced for the annual meeting at Ridgecrest. Publications to help associations and churches in their program planning are made available.

A successful promotion was conducted for the 1982 North Carolina Missions Offering. The theme, "Hope is Something You Give," used by local churches. Many of the materials had to be reprinted to meet the demand for filling orders.

One Time Special Emphases

The Publications and Art Department witnessed the mass distribution of all of the Here's Hope materials produced in this department from the pastors' packets to the yard signs to the lapel buttons. Many of the Here's Hope materials had to go to a second printing because of the demand.

The People Search materials, which accompanied Here's Hope, were also produced along with follow-up publications to be used after the simultaneous revivals.

Daniel B. Euliss, director

Video Productions

In 1982, the Video Productions Department produced 22 new programs for various General Board ministries, including the Sunday School, Church Training, Special Ministries, Retirement Planning, and Associational Development departments, the divisions of Youth and Campus Ministries, Evangelism, and Missions, and the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. Included were Hope Is Something You Give, an overview of the North Carolina Missions Offering including special emphases on language missions, chaplaincy, cooperative ministries, and other Baptist ministries; a series of programs on Christian retirement planning; a series on the 1983 January Bible Study; and the 1982 Report to the Associations, Sharing Christ's Hope. These programs are available to any North Carolina Baptist church in 3/4" or 1/2" VHS formats through the audio visual loan library.

Also, the department produced weekly studies on the International Bible Lesson distributed to eight hospitals in North Carolina for use on their closed-circuit TV systems.

A survey late in the year indicated that about 130 churches and associations have purchased video equipment, with another 25 planning such purchases in the near future. In 1982, a total of approximately 1200 video titles were requested through the library, compared with 569 in 1981.

Broadcast Ministries

The Division produces a series of weekly programs on the International Bible Lesson, which is currently distributed on eight radio stations in the state. Light Unto My Path, one of the pioneers in television programming for deaf viewers, is produced in conjunction with the Department of Special Ministries and WRAL-TV in Raleigh, and is distributed weekly to four stations in North Carolina and to seven stations outside the state on a cost-recovery basis.

Frances J. Riley, interim director

Evangelism

HERE'S HOPE was more than a success. It was blessed by God in so many ways. Not only did people come to know Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord, but God's people were drawn closer to His church. Reports of exciting revivals have come in from all over the state.

The State Evangelism Conference was held February 8-9, 1982 in the War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro. The theme "Here's Hope North Carolina" was used to emphasize the simultaneous revivals about to begin. Over 2,500 pastors, staff, and lay persons attended. The 1983 State Evangelism Conference will be February 7-8 in Ovens Auditorium, Charlotte.

The Key Leadership Conference evangelism participants were taught Growing an Evangelistic Church in North Carolina, which will be the major emphasis for 1983. Twenty associational Growing an Evangelistic Church in North Carolina seminars are planned for 1983. Pastors, staff, and lay leadership will be invited to attend the five-hour seminar.

During October of 1983, 15 regional evangelism conferences are being planned. These will be two-hour seminars across the state to help pastors and staff understand the materials available to them to develop evangelistic organizations in their churches.

J.W. Hutchens, Jr., director

Evangelism Development

Much attention was focused on Prayer for Spiritual Awakening Seminars and use of the motion picture by J. Edwin Orr. Churches are encouraged to implement a congregational prayer ministry as the foundation of their total ministry, including evangelism.

An enrichment retreat for North Carolina Vocational Baptist Evangelists was inaugurated as a new program of work. More than 20 evangelists and their families met at Caraway Conference Center, February 15-17, 1982. Dates for 1983 are January 17-19.

Victor G. Cole, director

Personal Evangelism

The Personal Evangelism Department provides training in witnessing for Christians of all age groups. A major area of work of this department is also Youth Evangelism, which involves all aspects of this work. Leadership training is also a vital area of this department's responsibility.

Lay Evangelism Schools

1982 probably witnessed as many people being involved in Lay Evangelism Schools as any single time since its beginning nearly ten years ago. This was primarily because of the schools being used as the major witness training tool in preparing for the 1982 Joint Evangelistic Crusade. Hundreds of pastors were trained and led their churches in being equipped to share the gospel with people in their community as they identified the lost and unchurched in our state in this crusade. This program of witness training continues to be one of the best on-going means whereby Christians can be equipped to share their faith.

Student Evangelism Teams

Once again during 1982 the ministry of the Student Evangelism Teams has left a great impact on churches in North Carolina, as 156/Baptist State Convention well as in West Virginia. There were three teams that served this year with one of the three working in West Virginia. Excellent reports have come from the churches and the teams alike, as they have led churches in revival services, witness training for youth, and visitation. The summer schedule includes one week of orientation and ten weeks of revival services, including the Youth Evangelism Week at Caswell.

Youth Evangelism Week

During the week of July 5-10 over one thousand youth and adults gathered at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly for Youth Evangelism Week. During the week intensive studies in personal discipleship were led by Barry Wood of Lubbock, Texas, and the youth and adults were challenged in worship services to commit their lives to Christ. This was the largest attendance for this particular week that we have recorded, and the spirit was great among all those who attended. During the commitment services over 240 youth made commitments of their lives to Christ with 56 of them making first time professions of faith in Christ.

Youth Evangelism Conferences

Another major step was taken this year in the Youth Evangelism Conference by expanding from three to four locations. This year's conferences were held in Asheville, Greensboro, Fayetteville, and Murfreesboro. The meeting at Chowan College in Murfreesboro was the newest addition to the conferences. Thousands of youth and adults again joined together in this great evangelistic rally which has been an instrument for twelve years in reaching hundreds of youth and adults for faith in Jesus Christ. The conference is now regionalized enough to make it available to all churches in our state without terrific travel expense.

Continuing Witness Training

The newest addition to the team of witness training events is Continuing Witness Training or better known as CWT. This is an intensive training that utilizes the concept of multiplication and begins with two persons from any church who go through a week-long seminar, and then involve additional persons back in their home church in a thirteen-week period. Enlistment and promotion are underway for two seminars next spring in Raleigh and Hendersonville. Two or three regional training seminars will be held each year throughout the state.

Richard W. Everett, director

Missions

The Division of Missions is organized to:

- *Inform churches about mission needs particularly in North Carolina;
- *Develop programs to minister to persons of special need such as migrants, deaf and foreign born;
- *Lead churches to be involved in mission ministries; and
- *Work cooperatively with associations in planning to do missions.

This work is done through seven departments of work:

Associational Development, Brotherhood, Chaplaincy and Language, Church Extension, Cooperative Ministries and Seminary Extension, Special Ministries and Deaf, Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, and three Area Missionaries. The reports of these areas of work are reported separately.

Mary Lou Maynard retired at the end of 1981 after 40 years with the Baptist State Convention. Her excellent service has enhanced the work of the division. Anne Warren was employed as secretary in the division office to replace her.

Two specific emphases coordinated in the Division Office are the North Carolina Missions Week of Prayer and Offering and the West Virginia Partnership.

The North Carolina Missions Offering (NCMO) totaled $2,079,211 (combination of designated and undesignated) in 1981. The goal for 1982 is $2,750,000.

Approximately 125 different groups of North Carolinians worked in West Virginia in 1982 in 94 different locations as part of the Mountain State 200 project. It is estimated that 1,000 persons will be involved in West Virginia before the end of the year.

Sara Ann Hobbs, director

Area Missionaries

Three area missionaries work in the corners of North Carolina: northeastern, Larry McClure; northwestern, Jim Lambert; and southwestern, Tom Lolley. Several of the associations in these three areas have strong missions programs with good directors of missions. These, the area missionary serves as a resource person to provide assistance with long range planning, teach a Seminary Extension class, or work to bring about some program that might be regional or multi-associational. In other associations where there is no director of missions, the area missionaries work with leaders to develop missions outreach and church development through the association.

The area missionary, in a real sense, is the Convention "drawn near" - on location. His work is varied, but centers around these basic areas: rural church development, Seminary Extension, resort missions, and helping develop missions programs in the associations and churches. As he becomes known and has opportunity, he can bring the resources of the Baptist State Convention to aid in the work, and at the same time, help provide an understanding of the needs to the Convention and its leaders.

Leadership training is a great need. The Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College, "24 Hours at Ridgecrest," and leadership conferences at various locations help meet this need. Also, there are efforts to provide camping experiences for children who cannot attend statewide camps as well as the development of an on-going youth program to provide training for the leaders.

The area missionaries are grateful for the opportunity to serve in these ways, and ask for the prayer support of our people.

Jim Lambert, northwestern area

Tom Lolley, southwestern area

Larry McClure, northeastern area

Associational Development

The Department of Associational Development provides encouragement and assistance in the 80 associations to help them to develop a strong program and ministry to meet local needs and opportunities. During 1982, 43 associations have received financial assistance for their basic program and for mission ministries. This assistance is being provided through the means of a cooperative agreement. This cooperative agreement involves a joint planning process between the association and the Convention through which the association is assisted with its basic program and/or mission ministries and special mission projects.

A significant number of associations have completed (or are in the process of completing) long-range planning. The Department provides assistance in helping an association to determine its purpose, objectives, resources, goals, and action plans. Long-range planning is the process of providing the association with the best possible direction and approach in accomplishing its purpose and mission. It is the necessary process by which the association defines its purpose and mission and then develops a program to attain them. Good associational planning in both long-range planning and annual planning is necessary for the association to effectively achieve its purpose and to be on mission for Jesus Christ in its setting.

Christian Social Ministries

There are eleven full-time and five part-time Christian Social Ministries programs now in progress. The full-time directors are: Gayle Brown, Buncombe Association; Marvin Southard, Dan Valley Association; Yates Campbell, Gaston Association; Robert Davis, Kings Mountain Association; James H. Royston, Mecklenburg Association; Ronald Loftis, New South River Association; Gerry Hutchinson, New River Association; and Marsha E. Cook, Wilmington Association. There are vacancies in the Central, Pilot Mountain and the Raleigh Baptist associations.

George E. Shore, director

Brotherhood

Brotherhood

Brotherhood work across North Carolina is involving more and more men and boys by encouraging participation at a level that allows one to use his God-given gifts. While there is much room for enlargement, it is felt that Brotherhood is on its way to the task for which it is designed.

Leadership Training

The key to successful church Brotherhood programs is good training of leadership. Scheduled workshops on the regional and associational levels were held this year to better equip leadership. The future demands that a great emphasis be placed on this very important aspect of Brotherhood work.

Conferences and Retreats

During the year the staff continued to promote a variety of weekend and week long programs. These programs are designed to help us fulfill our purpose "to help the churches involve men and boys in missions." Some title weekends and weeks were: World Missions Week at Caswell, Christian High Adventure, Region-wide Men and Boys Rally, Royal Ambassador Congresses, See Baptist College Days, Lay Renewal Weekends, Couples on Missions Retreat, Correctional Ministries Conference and Lay Witness Trainings.

RA Camps

Camp Caraway had a successful summer of Royal Ambassador camps under the leadership of Ben Sutton, summer director.

Many decisions were made by those boys in attendance under the dedicated leadership of some 20 college-age young men who served on the staff. In addition to the nine weeks of camp at Caraway, the Brotherhood sponsored a roving staff which directed weeks for boys at Camp Joy, Camp Truett, and Camp Cale.

North Carolina Baptist Men

The NC Baptist Men will again receive 3 percent from NCMO this year. The NC Baptist Men organization works hand-in-hand with the Brotherhood Department of the Baptist State Convention. David Langford, Brotherhood director, also serves as executive director for NC Baptist Men. The goal of NC Baptist Men is to allow numerous opportunities for men across our state. The newest ministry begun this year is agricultural missions. The belief is that many NC Baptist Men will find a means of involvement here. Men continued to find places of involvement in West Virginia at approximately 20 locations building church facilities. Over 150 men went overseas to help in various construction projects, as well as preaching assignments.

Staff Changes

An entirely new staff was employed in the Brotherhood Department in 1982. David Langford replaced Ed Bullock as director, with Eddie Pettit and Tommy Puckett replacing Bob Watson who moved to the Church Extension Department and Archie Jones who returned to the foreign mission field in Chile. Langford returned to the Brotherhood Department, where he had served on the staff as an associate for eight years, from Hayes Barton Church, Raleigh. Also joining the staff as a consultant was Richard Brunson, who previously served as a mission service volunteer in Colorado.

1982 will go down as a significant year for the department. The future is now! Men and boys must be challenged to great involvement in the cause of our Lord.

David Langford, director

Chaplaincy and Language Ministries

Chaplaincy

North Carolina has the only training program for seminary students feeling called to a ministry with prison inmates. The program is a joint venture of the Baptist State Convention Chaplaincy Department, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and the North Carolina Department of Corrections. Six chaplain interns have received training through the program of which five have become full-time correction chaplains. In addition, three new positions of part-time chaplaincy through associations have been opened. Ministry to those in prison must become a priority to God's people.

Law Enforcement chaplaincy through ministers volunteering their talents to police and sheriff departments has grown in North Carolina. This "high-stress" vocation needs the touch of loving care by those with counseling skills.

North Carolina continues to be one of the three state conventions to provide a department to identify chaplaincy as a whole. Military Chaplains have appreciated this care while serving military bases in North Carolina.

Language

The work of the Language Department has been expanded to include programs that relate to persons whose primary language is other than English. Programs such as Refugee Resettlement, Literacy, Migrant Missions and Interfaith Witness are now a part of Language Missions. Since 65 percent of all migrants who enter the state to harvest crops are of Spanish-speaking background, and five percent are Creole-speaking Haitians, the migrant program is rightly placed within the Language Department. This year the first pilot project to strengthen migrant ministries was held in the Eastern Association. The results were outstanding. Increasing numbers of workshops for teaching English as a second language are being requested. This awareness has given churches a new awareness of reaching ethnics in their communities.

Today there are 19 different missions and Bible Study groups meeting weekly with ethnics of Spanish, Arabic, Vietnamese, Japanese, Laotian, Korean and Chinese origin. Surveys indicate many more are needed and will be started as funds allow.

Burke E. Holland, director

Church Extension

- Through visitation and fellowship and an honest concern for people, John Stanley (New Work Corps, Church Extension Department) has worked hard at establishing week-night Bible studies and a Sunday morning Bible class for the residents of Cape Colony. A good number of those in attendance have had no prior relationship with any church or Christian group. (John Allen, Edenton Church).

- McClain's Auction Barn, its porch and yard have been the church building for the people of Emmanuel Mission (now Emmanuel Church) sponsored by Indian Trail Church. Used until mid-night on Saturday night, our people have been faithful to come and clean and set up the place for us to have Sunday morning worship services at 11 a.m. (Lawrence Funderburke, Monroe).

- "I will preach the same sermon all three times," Billy Cline said, "so my sermon preparation will be about the same." Thus, the pastor of Merrimon Avenue Church explained how he was to preach at Merrimon Avenue Church - Central, and the satellite church - Merrimon Avenue Church - North on the same Sunday morning. "We want to reach the unsaved and unchurched in the satellite area," said Elmer Dryden, chairman of the church's steering committee. Our House Churches and the Satellite Church have "created an excitement in our church that has our parking lots full and our worship and educational space overflowing." (Merrimon Avenue Church, Asheville).

These accounts verify that all across North Carolina people are awakening to the challenge of Bold Mission Thrust - Reaching People. This is the purpose of the Church Extension Department - assisting churches and associations in reaching people for Christ. Starting new work has been a major thrust for 1982.

Gene and Vickie Angus have helped start new work in the Yates Association. Seminary students from Southwestern and Southeastern have worked in 15 associations in the New Work Corps, with several mission "starts" resulting from these endeavors. Church Planter Apprentice, Glenn Akins, has served as pastor of a new Reedy Creek Mission, Mecklenburg Association. Other missions will come into fruition in the near future.

A youth group from First Church, Concord and a New Work Corps member journeyed to West Virginia this summer to conduct Backyard Bible study, mission Vacation Bible Schools and Home Bible study in preparation for revival services. The New Work Corps member will continue journeying to West Virginia on the weekend for several weeks seeking to start a new work there.

As of this date 20 missions/churches have been started. The Department has assisted toward pastors' salaries for 70 churches. Seventeen missions or churches have purchased land for church sites with grants from Cooperative Program funding. Six missions or churches have received church rental assistance. A total of eight church loans have been granted this year to date.

Associational surveys, started last year with the Buncombe and Carolina associations serving as "pilot projects," continue to have priority. Ernest Upchurch, of the state convention staff, has done a monumental task in continuing these surveys.

A primary goal for 1983 is the enlisting of 100 lay couples who will serve as Volunteer Church Planters in North Carolina and 100 lay couples as Volunteer Church Planters outside of North Carolina.

There are at least 100 million unchurched Americans who do not relate actively to any church. May 22, 1983 has been designated Pentecost Sunday: A Convention-wide New Work Commitment Day. Each church will be challenged to make a commitment to start a new church, and the goal is that a minimum of 3,000 Southern Baptist churches will commit themselves to start a new church-type mission during 1983-84.

New work needs desperately the funding that would have a $500,000 corpus for Site Assistance, $1,000,000 corpus for Church Loans, $200,000 annually for Church Planters, $200,000 annually for Church Pastoral Assistance and $50,000 annually for Church Rental Assistance.

The goals in the job description of the Director of Church Extension are obtainable:

- *to assist associations and churches in discovery of pockets of unchurched people and the establishment of new churches/missions . . .
- *to establish 2,000 new units of work by 2000-1,000 in North Carolina and 1,000 out of North Carolina . . .
- *to help in construction of as many first unit buildings as needed . . .
- *to assist churches and associations in staffing and funding new work . . .

The Department covets your prayers that this challenging task may be completed. You may be assured of our prayers for you as you tackle your tasks.

Robert E. Watson, director

Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists and Seminary Extension

The twenty-fifth anniversary of this department was celebrated on April 1, 1982. Records of sharing ministries and other projects date back at least 100 years with the General Baptist State Convention and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. For example, in 1895 four area workers were jointly employed to work with General Baptist churches and associations.

Some of the milestones shared by this department during these 25 years are as follows:

- 1959: The School of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College was interracial for the first time.
- 1960: Organized the first Southern Baptist Seminary Extension center for blacks in the Mount Zion Church, Murphy, under the direction of J. Alton Morris. Enrolled 25.

- 1962: Integrated summer program activities at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Southport.
- 1964: Held the first joint session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina on November 11 (Wednesday afternoon). Featured speaker was J.H. Jackson, president, National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
- 1965: W.R. Grigg resigned in August as department director to accept a position with the Home Mission Board. Served 8 years, five months.
- 1966: Corbin L. Cooper was employed as department director on January 1.
- 1966: The first joint state-wide Conference on Evangelism. Largest registered attendance (1,922) in the 20 year history of the annual conference.
- 1968: (a) Established an annuity program for General Baptist pastors in cooperation with the Annuity board and both state conventions.
 (b) The Baptist State Convention endorsed the strongly worded Statement of the Southern Baptist Convention concerning the "Crisis in the Nation," relative to the crisis in race relations.
- 1969: (a) Second joint statewide Conference on Evangelism.
 (b) First joint statewide Men and Boys Convention by the Brotherhood Department and the Layman's League. A record attendance of more than 7,000 was recorded.
 (c) Dr. & Mrs. C.R. Edwards, Fayetteville, served as the first black conference leaders at N.C. Baptist Assembly, Southport.
- 1971: (a) The Baptist State Convention expressed regret over the decision of the Sunday School Board to withhold distribution of Becoming, a Church Training quarterly. The quarterly was withheld because it pictured two white female college students and a black male college student in conversation.
 (b) Organized a Joint Committee on Cooperative Ministries consisting of six members from each convention. The executive secretaries, convention presidents, a college student, and the director of Cooperative Ministries to serve as ex-officio.
- 1973: The department title was changed from "Interracial Cooperation" to "Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists."
- 1974: (a) Three joint sessions were held in Raleigh, November 6-8, in conjunction with the annual meetings of the two state conventions. Heard from a joint resolutions committee.
 (b) Shaw University granted honorary doctor of divinity degree to the department director.

- 1975: The General Baptist State Convention presented the 1975 Christian Brotherhood Award to the department director.
- 1977: O.L. Sherrill retired August 31 after 30 years as executive secretary of the General Baptist State Convention, C.C. Craig, Jr., was elected as his successor.
- 1978: The department director was asked to (1) serve as director of all non-degree seminary extension programs with the Shaw Divinity School, Raleigh, and (2) supervise the entire program of Seminary Extension work for both the Baptist State Convention and Shaw Divinity School.
- 1979: Initiated plans for more joint sessions of the two state conventions in 1981 and a joint statewide evangelistic crusade in 1982.
- 1981: (a) Interracial teams conducted 65 interpretation meetings to explain plans for the 1982 joint evangelistic crusade.
 (b) Held joint sessions of the two state conventions in Greensboro, in November.
 (c) The department was assigned the responsibility of developing a program related to bivocational ministers.
- 1982: Conducted an extensive joint statewide evangelistic crusade under the theme, "Here's Hope."

Deaf Ministry

1982 might be called the Year of Family Crisis in the deaf ministry, for the homes of deaf people are being assailed by Satan just as are hearing families. This department produced three video-cassettes on marriage and the family in sign language as a part of a counterattack to stem the tide of divorces and family problems. Marriage counseling has been a part of this ministry since its inception but our objective is to strengthen the homes of deaf people before devastating problems arise. Family enrichment conferences are to be a priority in the coming years.

A significant milestone was reached in the Degree Program for the Deaf at Gardner-Webb College when the first three students were graduated from the program this past Spring. The Baptist State Convention played a significant role in the program from the very beginning. The director of the Department of Deaf Ministries was permitted to spend two years on the campus getting the program established, and Cooperative Program funds have been used in assisting in the cost for interpreters, tutors, notetakers and other supportive services required by such a program each year since it was begun. One graduate is now a summer missionary worker in Louisiana and plans to work under the US-2 program with the Home Mission Board. Another graduate has been accepted in New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and is presently working under an internship with the Baptist State Convention under the sponsorship of the Department of Deaf Ministries until he leaves for seminary. The Department has also furnished guidance and assistance to an African deaf student from Kenya, assisting him in finding places to speak and to stay during school breaks.

Initial contacts were made toward starting a program at Southeastern Seminary for deaf and hearing students who wish to enter a ministry to deaf people.

In addition to a normal itinerary of worship services and Bible classes, special conferences and revivals for the deaf have been conducted. We continue to produce a weekly television program which is shown on commercial television outlets in at least six states. The work of the Department of Deaf Ministries is consistently presented in RA and GA camps, Brotherhood and WMU meetings, individual churches and in World Mission Conferences throughout North Carolina. Baptists dedicated to the truth that there is only one Way and one Book are working together through the Department of Deaf Ministries to see that "the deaf shall hear the words of the Book." Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

Fund Raising for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute is being given high priority for this year, since eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) of the operations budget is dependent upon development income. C. Earl Haynes, who worked with North Carolina Baptist Children's Homes for more than eight years, has been employed as Development Consultant from June 1 through December 31, 1982.

The Carl E. Bates Dormitory was dedicated in April with Cecil A. Ray as speaker and Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. as special guest. The building was made possible by Billy Satterfield, who provided about 80 percent of the cost. The rooms were furnished through a special project led by the students who contacted interested persons about furnishing one of the 41 rooms in honor or in memory of someone. The main lobby was furnished in honor of Mrs. A.C. Miller, who died in November, 1981. The eight student apartments in the building were furnished by Sam McMahon, who also gave the school much furniture now used in several buildings.

The Fruitland Study Committee completed its work with the presentation of a report to the General Board in May. The report was accepted and implementation has already begun. The planned program with present facilities will make it possible for Fruitland to minister to more than 200 students at a time.

The Fruitland curriculum is being moved into a departmental structure with four department counselors. John Bunn is counselor of the department of ministries. Kenneth Ridings is counselor of the proclamation department. Gregory Mathis is counselor of the missions department. John Ryner is counselor of the department of Bible. By January, 1983, all courses in a given department will meet on one day. The department counselor will teach during the morning and be in the counselor's office in the afternoon on the day that department meets. When the director is away from campus in fund-raising efforts, the department counselor will serve as director protem.

When the development income makes it viable, courses for the advanced diploma will be added. Present projections call for the addition of eight faculty positions and 16 two-hour courses for an advanced diploma program. This will bring the total number of faculty members to 32 and the total number of two-hour courses to 64.

With improved facilities and expanded curriculum, the operations budget must grow to unprecedented proportions. Such growth will necessitate more financial support than can be provided through the Cooperative Program and North Carolina Missions Offerings. To meet these financial needs, the development program must be effective and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute must establish a substantial endowment fund.

Special Ministries

Mentally Retarded Ministries

Susan Reed has completed her first year as part-time field consultant for ministry to mentally retarded persons. She has done a very good job. Several new services have been developed, and old programs have been strengthened.

There is a videocassette program entitled, "No Longer an Attic Child." The video program is available through the AV Library. Its purpose is to make churches aware of the need for ministry with mentally retarded persons.

An awareness brochure, "People First," was developed and printed this year. It presents the needs of mentally retarded persons to be involved in the church, and ways to involve them.

Susan Reed edits a quarterly newsletter, "Open Doors." The purpose of the newsletter is to share news about the activities of various classes, promote events for the mentally retarded, inform about new teaching materials available, and provide a challenge in ministry for mentally retarded persons.

Wingate College has worked closely with Ms. Reed this year in planning, promoting, and hosting two "day camps" for mentally retarded persons. Both camps were very successful. The first one in the spring had 55 campers in attendance, plus 29 sponsors and parents. The recreation classes under the leadership of John Mark Carter planned and developed the program.

The annual "Happiness Retreat" at Camp Caraway had a capacity crowd again this year with twenty plus on the waiting list! Training was also provided for teachers, parents, and sponsors in special classes.

We promoted mental retardation Sunday in March by sending over 29,000 free bulletin inserts to 79 churches and supporting organizations.

We worked cooperatively with the Sunday School Department in providing leadership for four Vacation Bible School Clinics and four ASSIST Conferences. We also worked with the WMU in providing leaders for Acteens Queens Court, and WMU Mission Action Labs.

Blind Ministries

The cassette tape materials continue to be in high demand across our state. Each issue of the Biblical Recorder is sent to about 235 "readers." Several other state conventions have contacted us for information to help them to provide the same service for the blind people of their states. Thirty-five to forty blind and/or visually impaired persons also take advantage of the cassette recordings of the January Bible Study book, the Home Mission Study book, and the Foreign Mission Study book.

J.H. Waugh, blind evangelist of Burlington, North Carolina, began serving this year as a part-time field consultant in the area of blind ministries. He spoke to the WMU, Brotherhood, and CSM leaders at the annual Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May. He also spoke to a number of churches and associations about the needs of church ministry with blind persons.

A malignant tumor on his lower spine curtailed most of his activities during the middle of the year. Keep Jay in your Prayers.

A national meeting on blind ministry was sponsored by the Home Mission Board and the Sunday School Board and held in Atlanta, Georgia. Neal Peyton, Rev. and Mrs. Jay Waugh, and Dr. and Mrs. Logan Carson attended.

Stewardship

The Division of Stewardship seeks to plan, develop, and promote a plan of biblical stewardship to aid the churches in enlisting members in the practice of and growth in Christian stewardship.

A plan of biblical stewardship includes the individual Christian's response in terms of giving, life style, and money management. It also includes the local church and its stewardship responsibilities.

The Division staff seeks to achieve its goals through the following programs:

Missionary-in-Residence

The missionary-in-residence program continues to utilize a flourishing missionary couple to interpret mission support needs to the churches. Edward and Audrey Gordon, missionaries to the Philippines, are serving in 1982 and 1983.

170/Baptist State Convention

Bold Missions Stewardship Conferences

The primary thrust of reaching Bold Missions giving goals has been in meetings with pastors and church leaders in each association. The purpose of the meetings is a presentation and discussion of the stewardship program materials in the "Give Boldly" packet developed by the Division. Conferences were held for 70 associations with more than 1,000 pastors and representatives from approximately 1,100 churches.

Key Associational Leadership Conference

The Division participated in the training of key associational leadership by preparing materials for and training the 42 associational stewardship chairpersons who attended the conference at Ridgecrest.

Cooperative Program Promotion

Materials have been prepared and distributed to aid the churches in emphasizing missions support through the Cooperative Program. Special emphasis was given to Cooperative Program Day in April and Cooperative Program Month in October. Reports were made to the churches on missions support through the Cooperative Program four times during the year.

The Great Challenge

The Division sponsored and provided a consultant to lead The Great Challenge Stewardship Program in approximately 100 churches. The Great Challenge is a stewardship program designed especially for smaller churches. Major emphasis has been given to this program in 1982 and will continue in 1983.

Special Seminars

Twenty-two participants attended a three day Stewardship Seminar in August. The program included a biblical-theological study of stewardship and an overview of stewardship programs. Morris Ashcraft of Southeastern Seminary presented a paper on "The Theology of Missions Support." Participants are asked to be available to assist churches with stewardship programs.

A Family Financial Planning Workshop involved 12 couples in a process of clarifying Christian commitments, financial goal setting, assessment of resources and the development of a family spending/saving/giving plan. Each couple is asked to plan and lead a church or associational Family Financial Planning Workshop within the next year.

Through a Stewardship update page in the Church Leader and reports carried by the Biblical Recorder, the Division has sought to communicate to church leadership information that will help in Bold Giving.

O.D. Martin, Jr., director

Youth and Campus Ministries

New staff, new job descriptions, and work in a new center are some of the exciting challenges in the Convention's ministry with campuses and among young people and their leaders. Details of the programs will appear in the next few pages.

Four persons were employed in 1982 as campus ministers in the cooperative effort between Baptist colleges and the Convention. They are: Campbell University: Milton "Bud" Fisher; Mars Hill College: Marie Bean; Meredith College: Sam Carothers; and Wake Forest University: David Fouche. Elizabeth Doles, Faye Comer and Betty Currin have joined the division's secretarial staff.

Winston Hardman continues ministry at Pembroke State, but with a new facility. N.C. Baptist Men completed (in 1981) a Baptist Student Center just off the campus. Work has been enriched this year by its use. Materials are provided through the North Carolina Missions offering. Hank Greer, who has served so capably at Boone and most recently in the establishment of an alumni and program endowment emphasis, joined Ted Purcell in the Raleigh area to broaden and expand this ministry there. Joe Clontz and his family returned in August from a year's ministry with students in Togo, West Africa, where North Carolina BSU is involved in an ongoing relationship with the Baptist Mission and the National Convention. Ministry with blacks is thriving on several campuses across the state under the guidance of Mike Darby, Getha Hill at North Carolina Central University, Joe David Fore at Western Carolina University, and the able and committed leadership of volunteers such as Robert James at Fayetteville State University. The privilege of working with these exceptional persons is, in itself, one of the finest aspects of this everchanging ministry.

As we have explored how the work assigned us by the Convention might be done more efficiently, the Raleigh office has evolved new job descriptions. It is our prayer that we may serve God and N.C. Baptists with creativity and renewed enthusiasm as we carry these varied responsibilities.

James Y. Greene, director

Professional Development and Youth Ministry Coordination

Youth Ministry Co-ordination

There are 117 full-time youth ministers, 171 full-time combination youth ministers, 48 part-time youth ministers, and 97 volunteer youth ministers in North Carolina. These 433 ministers often find that leading a church to develop a healthy concept of youth ministry is a major challenge of their ministry. Youth ministry in a local church is more than Sunday night fellowships, recreation, and an occasional out-of-town trip. It is, rather, the coordination of church programming, designed to help staff, volunteers, and parents guide youth into maturing Christian growth. The church's youth ministry must grow out of the needs of youth and should include them in planning and program implementation.

To assist the local church in the development of a strong youth ministry, a network of instruction and support is being developed through the associations and convention staff.

Youth Conferences I, II, III, IV

For each of four weeks at the N.C. Baptist Assembly, approximately 1,000 youth were helped to explore their lives and how Christians relate to one another and God through the theme "Catch the Wind." Small group sessions, Bible study, worship and church group devotions helped each day to focus on areas of the youth's relationship to God, relationship to his significant others and relationship to the world. More than 3,800 youth and youth leaders participated in the four weeks. During the weeks, 204 decisions were made, with 40 professions of faith, 139 rededications, 7 vocational commitments, and 18 other.

Christian Drama Conference

Youth Convention

More than 9,000 youth from North Carolina Baptist churches gathered in Charlotte for the State Youth Convention, April 23-24. Grady Nutt, Louisville, KY; Bill and Linda Cates, Nashville, TN; and Mark McMasters, Asheboro, NC developed the Convention theme: "Here's Hope . . . for self, for others, through God."

Youth Ministry Workshop/ Fellowship

More than 50 professional and lay youth ministers gathered at Caraway, March 18-20 for a Youth Ministry Workshop/Fellowship. The conference provided these ministers the opportunity to share resources and work experiences. In addition, Jack Glasgow, Zebulon, led the ministers in a discussion of helping youth make ethical decisions.

Richard E. Traylor, director

Missions and Organizational Development

Spring Conference

Two hundred and fifty students were part of the BSU Spring Conference held at Caraway, April 2-4, 1982. There were three emphases for the weekend: Leadership Development, coordinated by Don Rogers and Jim McCoy; Faith Development, led by Caralie Brown of Raleigh and Lanny Peters of Wake Forest; and a special emphasis for graduating seniors.

Summer Missions

Students from the various BSUs contributed more than $25,000 for missions during the school year. This enabled 18 students to serve in a variety of ministries. The Apostoloi Team worked in more than 15 churches in the New South River Association; two students worked in general missions in West Virginia and two students in migrant ministry in Maryland; in North Carolina two students served in juvenile detention centers, one worked with senior citizens and one with the children's home in Thomasville. In addition, student raised money provided support for four students to work in local churches.

The 1981-82 school year marked a significant development in the Student Mission Project in Togo, West Africa. Jeff Coppage, a Wake Forest University graduate, completed his service as a Journeyman. The Joe Clontz family served with the Togo Mission for 12 months at the Student Center in Lome. Students and campus ministers in North Carolina helped fund the building of an apartment in the Student Center — this apartment was named in memory of Betty Pruitt who served as a secretary for Campus Ministry for ten years. Two students served in Togo with their entire expenses underwritten by North Carolina BSU's: Rich Lowder, a Duke University graduate from Lexington, and Kelton Hinton, a UNC-Chapel Hill student from Princeton, were the first North Carolina students in Togo.

State Officers Workshop

Fifty students from twenty campuses met at Caraway, August 28-29, to plan State BSU activities for the 1982-83 school year. Under the leadership of the Executive Committee, seven committees planned areas of work for the year. Steve Roper, an Appalachian State University, is state BSU president.

Baptist Student Convention

More than 600 students representing BSUs and church college groups met at Ridgecrest for the Baptist Student Convention, September 24-26. Program personnel included: Charles Boddie, Nashville, TN; James Dunn, Washington, DC; and Gerald Borchert, Louisville, KY. The Convention theme was "In the World, but Not of the World."

High School Orientation

A High School Seniors Retreat was held at Caraway, February 25-27. Approximately 100 12-graders attended the conference designed to help them prepare for college.

Volunteer BSU Directors

In addition to the full-time campus ministers who serve on campuses in North Carolina, there are 13 persons who serve as volunteer BSU directors at schools where there is no full-time minister. These campuses and persons include: Atlantic Christian College, Bill Edwards; Brevard College, Lenny Farmer and Barbara Smart; Elon College, Bruce Martin; Lees-McRae College, Dean Baughn; Lenoir-Rhyne College, Marsha Fanning; High Point College, Robert Williams; NC Wesleyan College, Steve Jolly; Pfeiffer College, De Hillyer; Mt. Olive College, Lorelle Martin; UNC-Asheville, Kathy Worley, David Barton and Terry Sheer.

Kay M. Huggins, director

Church and Campus Program Development

Student Evangelism

Students continue to seek for significant and appropriate ways to bear witness to their Christian faith on campuses in North Carolina. To that end, one very exciting portion of our work involved a Special Campus Ministry Team, composed of three students: Robin Davidson, Alice King and Bob Talley. This team was located in Charlotte and provided new ministry opportunities in faith-sharing, standing alongside the BSU's at UNC-Charlotte and at Central Piedmont Community College, as these groups attempted to proclaim Christ's Good News.

Baptist Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry

During the spring of 1982 Rick Traylor was on educational leave. The responsibilities for Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry were carried by Joe Bounds, a seminary intern from Southeastern. 53 students from seven Baptist colleges participated in the Baptist Youth Corps and 16 students from other colleges and universities were involved in Local Church Ministry. These 69 students served churches and associations across North Carolina for ten weeks, assisting in youth, children's, and music ministry. The purposes of the program are: The development of young people for a church related vocation or lay leadership role in our churches, the assisting of the local church in strengthening its ministries, and the promotion of the seven Baptist colleges and the Baptist Student Unions on non-Baptist campuses.

Commuter Student Ministries

New ministries continue to develop and established work continues to grow among North Carolina community colleges and technical schools. Presently, student ministries exist at Sandhills, Surry, Central Piedmont, Wilkes, Caldwell and Davidson County community colleges. In addition, there is new work at Durham, Mayland, Piedmont, and Guilford technical schools and Mitchell Community College. A major emphasis for a second year has been the employment of Joel Elder, a seminary intern. He helped explore possibilities and establish community college ministry in the Western and central parts of the state.

Alumni and Endowment

Under the direction of Hank Greer, this has been an extremely active organizational year in the area of alumni and endowment affairs. Last year the emphasis was on planning and projecting a coordinated endowment and planned giving program both on a local and statewide level. This year the emphasis has been on putting these plans into action and organizing local groups to head up endowment efforts.

The title chosen for the endowment effort is "Partners in Ministry"; the theme is "You can help students care, reach, minister . . . in a chain reaction of love"; and the scripture text is "For we are partners working together for God, and you are God's field." (I Cor. 3:9 TEV)

Local "Partners in Ministry" Councils have been organized at Appalachian State University, East Carolina University, NC State University, Pembroke State University, UNC-Chapel Hill and Western Carolina University and are in the process of being organized at Duke University, UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Greensboro. A state council for "Partners in Ministry" also assists in coordinating the work of the local councils. These local councils are composed of 4-15 laypersons who work alongside the local campus ministers. They are responsible for leading in alumni and friends as well as corporations and foundations.

David G. Moore, director

Christian Higher Education

Council Membership

Since its founding in 1944, the Council on Christian Higher Education has been an integral part of the Baptist State Convention's approved program of Christian Higher Education. It has been the Council's role to interpret the colleges and their mission to the churches; to promote fellowship and cooperation among the colleges and between the colleges and the churches; to seek spiritual and financial support for the colleges; and to encourage among the college communities an understanding and appreciation of policies and programs of the Convention.

The Council membership is made up of the following: presidents, academic deans and chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges/universities; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are Cecil A. Ray, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; J. Dewey Hobbs, president, General Board Baptist State Convention; Frank R. Campbell, president, Baptist State Convention; Mrs. Horace McRae, president, North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union; and T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education.

New members elected last year to Council membership from the General Board are Alfred Andrews, Jr., Robert C. Blanton, Ray Hamilton, Albert S. Lineberry, Clyde Peedin and Bob Thompson.

Enrollment

The total enrollment (head count) of the colleges and universities is 16,159. A better and more consistent way to state the comparative enrollments is by the use of “full time equivalent” figures, based upon a 12-semester hour class load. The college registrars reported the following full time equivalent enrollments as of September 10, 1982:

Campbell University	3,349
Chowan College	1,069
Gardner-Webb College	1,659
Mars Hill College	1,365
Meredith College	1,436
Wake Forest University	4,681
Wingate College	1,434
Total	14,993

Baptist Students

Each of the seven colleges desires to enroll a larger number of qualified students from Baptist churches. The college presidents eagerly seek the assistance of church leaders and parents with encouraging young people from the churches to seek out a Baptist college.

Every year there are many Baptist youth who would prefer attending a Baptist college, but who fail to apply out of the belief that the cost is greater than they can pay. This is unfortunate. It is often the case that a person attends a Baptist college at no greater cost than that of a state institution. Depending upon family income and available aid, some attend Baptist colleges even more inexpensively than they could a tax-supported college.

Baptist colleges desire to serve Baptist families from Baptist churches. Along with the desire to offer a superior educational experience, the colleges have no higher priority. Student aid funds are awarded generously each year, based upon financial need, to the limit of the colleges' ability. For the serious, industrious student who applies on time, ways will be found to meet college expenses.

The Whitaker School

A highly significant honor was given to Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, president of Chowan College. On June 30, 1982, Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. officially named a school for the care of seriously disturbed and multi-handicapped children “The Bruce E. Whitaker School.” Located at Butner, N.C., on the grounds of John Umstead Hospital, the school provides long-term intensive care for 24 mentally and emotionally disturbed youths. A member of the North Carolina Board of Mental Health since 1966 and chairman in 1978-1981, Dr. Whitaker has maintained an active involvement in the field of mental health. Dr. Whitaker has been president of Chowan College for 25 years.

Council Study Committee

For more than a year, a special subcommittee of the Council has engaged in a "Projection Study," looking at and reporting on the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats related to the colleges. The focus of the committee's work was the remaining years of the twentieth century, especially the decade of the 1980's. The committee members were: Bruce E. Whitaker, chairman; C. Allen Burris; Thomas E. Corts; Ernest Glass; J. Dewey Hobbs, Richard L. Hoffman; Thomas E. Mullen and J. Leon Rumley. Ex officio members of the committee were Mrs. James L. Chestnutt, president of the Council on Christian Higher Education; and T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary.

The Projection Committee's report was given to the Council and the General Board, and is on file in the Council office. Among the major emphases, there are several which are especially appropriate to this report:

The diligent search for competent Christian faculty who regard the calling to teach as part of the Christian mission to the world.

Developing an even stronger relationship with the churches and with the denomination, resulting in mutual support, student recruitment and the selection of capable trustees.

Recognition that the world is changing rapidly in a variety of ways which affect colleges and churches, making necessary a new assessment of how the "global village" affects all aspects of Christian discipleship.

The need for a Baptist theology broad enough to embrace institutions, a living theology that values the past while it questions the present and shapes the future.

A Theological Foundation

The mission of the church must necessarily have an undergirding Biblical and theological foundation. The union of college and church is no exception. Flowing out of the cardinal doctrines of creation and redemption, there is a sound theological foundation for Christian higher education. The following is a summary of that point of view:

The Christian God is both creator and redeemer. The fundamental belief that the God who is present in creation is also active in redemption often does not receive a balanced emphasis. Heresy is the usual result when either view is held to the exclusion or to the neglect of the other. Thus, there develops the struggle and chasm between what is often called liberalism and pietism (though other names are used).

From the view of one individual, what does this mean? It must mean, at the least, that his ability to reason and his gift of salvation come from the same source. The God who creates is also the God who redeems. The prologue to John's Gospel is foundational to this point of view.

Since creation and redemption have the same source, it follows that they have an ultimate compatibility, although not necessarily an apparent compatibility. What goes on in the individual Christian's life, therefore, is a quest for what this compatibility is. He is on a pilgrimage toward understanding.

From the view of an educational institution, what does this mean? What is true of the individual Christian is also true of the church-related college or university which is committed both to reason and a vital relationship with the church. For such an institution, since reason and piety have their roots in God, there must be an ultimate compatibility. This is never fully apparent and is difficult to comprehend. It is akin to walking by faith. Life for the institutions, then, becomes a quest for exactly what that compatibility is. It cannot be defined ahead of time. It is only necessary to be committed to the quest of finding out what it is.

What the church-related institution offers students is an opportunity to participate in the institution's quest of finding ultimate compatibility between reason on the one hand, and piety, faith and religious experiences on the other. The student is invited to be on pilgrimage within and as part of an institution that assumes an ultimate compatibility between faith and reason and is committed to discovering it.

Conclusion

Your Baptist colleges are interesting, valuable operations of which every Baptist can be proud. The business of Baptist colleges is the education of young people in a manner consistent with God's revealed and discovered truth about people and the world. A worthy goal for Baptist colleges and Baptist churches would be the solemn recognition of all that we hold in common: creation; humanity; sin; redemption; the call to serve Christ by serving human beings. Out of these common convictions can flow an enthusiastic partnership between college and church, to the glory of God.

On the plains of the central Carolina Piedmont a dream took root almost one hundred years ago. Entering its 97th continuous year of operation, Campbell University pursues the dream it its founder, the Reverend James Archibald Campbell, who established the school with the intent of providing an education for any young person desiring one, without regard to background or financial need.

The academic year 1982-83 officially opened with faculty orientation and workshop held on August 19-20. This year's theme was "The Christian University — A Place to Stand in a Changing World." The faculty workshop leaders were Dr. Robert Sandlin, provost, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia; Dr. Allen Norris, president, Louisburg College, Louisburg; and Dr. Paul Craven, pastor, First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem. More than 175 faculty and staff members took part in the two-day session.

Registration of students began on Monday morning, August 23, and the first day of fall classes was held on August 25.

Opening Convocation, the traditional formal opening of the school year, was held on Tuesday, August 30. The speaker was Dr. William G. Tanner, president of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. His address was entitled "The Sound of the Trumpet."

The year 1981-82 was pivotal for Campbell University. Its operations included educational programs in Buies Creek; Fort Bragg; Sanford; Rocky Mount; Cardiff, Wales; and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

More importantly, Campbell maintained a balanced budget and operated in the black for the year. A significant highlight was that the non-duplicated head count enrollment for 12 months reached 5430 students during the year 1981-82, the largest enrollment ever.

Campbell University is an integral part of North Carolina higher education. All one hundred counties of the state are represented in addition to forty-two states and twenty foreign countries.

Campbell University School of Law continues to grow and has proven to be a major force among North Carolina law schools. This year 84 percent of Campbell law school graduates taking the bar examination for the first time passed. A temporary change has occurred in the leadership of the law school. F. Leary Davis, the dean of the law school since its opening, has taken a one-year research leave to study at Columbia University School of Law. Acting Dean for the 1982-83 school year is Professor Robert A. Jenkins.

The year 1981-1982 will be remembered at Campbell as the year that H.E.L.P. was sought for students. In an ever-tightening economy, Campbell was faced with a growing number of worthy students needing financial assistance and a decreasing amount of funds with which to help them. More than $5,881,862 was distributed in student financial aid last year to approximately 85 percent of the student body.

To meet this ever-growing need, Campbell launched an ambitious project called H.E.L.P. — Helping Educate Leaders Program. This new foundation was designed to provide a revolving fund by which students in need could borrow funds under the stipulation that they would repay the loan at a later date. In excess of one hundred thousand dollars has thus far been pledged. Many Campbell students enrolled this semester have already received assistance from this fund.

Campbell University held three commencement exercises during 1981-82. Winter commencement was held on December 18, 1981, with Carolyn Weatherford, executive director of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, giving the commencement address to the 126 graduates. Miss Weatherford was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. The Reverend G.D. Danner of Statesville, Mr. James P. Stovall of Stonewall, and Mrs. Judy Southern of Buies Creek were awarded the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion.

Spring commencement, held on May 10, 1982, with three hundred students receiving degrees, heard an address by Governor James B. Hunt during an outdoor ceremony. Dr. Harold C. Bennett, executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, gave the commencement sermon on May 9, 1982. Campbell awarded three honorary degrees during this commencement: Governor James B. Hunt, the Doctor of Laws degree; Dr. Harold C. Bennett, the Doctor of Divinity degree; and Dr. Lim Khiak Leang, principal of Tunku Abdul Rahman College in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, the Doctor of Laws degree. Dr. Lim heads the Campbell degree program in applied sciences at the Malaysian school. ROTC Cadet H. Cary Payne received the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion.

Summer commencement, held on July 23, 1982, saw 125 students receive degrees. The former United States Senator from North Carolina, Robert Morgan, gave the address.

A major step in alumni activities was made last year with the completion of Campbell University's first annual alumni phonathon. During the four-week campaign, approximately 6000 alumni were called, resulting in gifts and pledges totaling $114,046. In addition, 1981-82 was Campbell's best year in alumni giving — $921,934.89 was contributed or pledged by 2584 alumni.

The past year was outstanding in the area of fund raising. Cash and pledges totaled $5,978,339.83. Campbell University has entered the fourth year of its seven-year Campbell Century Fund; the goal is to raise $25 million by 1987. In the first three years of the campaign, $15,272,878.23 has been raised in cash and pledges.

The first goal of the Century Fund was the funding of a fine arts building. That goal accomplished, a groundbreaking ceremony was held on December 17, 1981. Upon its completion, it will be known as the Taylor Bott Rogers Fine Arts Building in honor of Mrs. Taylor B. Rogers, a major benefactress of the university from Norfolk, Virginia.

On the academic scene at Campbell University, a significant change was made in the spring when the university substituted divisions for departments. Campbell now has six divisions within its academic organization: humanities, fine arts, social sciences, first professional, business, math and science.

The Campbell University family was saddened over the loss by death of several friends and co-workers during the last year: Mr. Jack Riley, member of the presidential board of advisers and adjunct professor of journalism, on October 4, 1981; Miss Ora Cansler, who taught high school English at Campbell for 14 years, October 10, 1981 at her home in Wilson; Dr. Cronje B. Earp, former chairman of the department of foreign languages (1970-81), on March 18, 1982; Mr. Brantley Booe, former trustee and distinguished alumnus, on June 2, 1982; Dr. W. Conard Gass, former chairman of the department of social services (1954-82), on June 20, 1982.

Campbell University has a net plant indebtedness of $4,674,725.79; the major portion of this indebtedness is in the form of residence hall bonds or notes and carries an interest rate of 2¾ percent to 3½ percent. The minor portion of the indebtedness carries an interest rate of 12 percent. The present indebtedness, both self-liquidating and otherwise, constitutes no threat to the sound fiscal operation of the university.

Chowan College

The members of the faculty and administrative staff of Chowan College assembled on Thursday evening, August 19, 1982, for the annual President's Banquet — the prelude to the Fall Semester Workshop, in preparation for the opening of the college's 135th academic year. Featured speaker for the Banquet and for the Workshop which followed was Dr. D. Parker Young, Professor of Higher Education, Institute of Higher Education, of the University of Georgia. A specialist in the field of Litigation as it relates to institutions of higher education, Dr. Young addressed himself to the broad topic of the changing role of the American judicial system with regard to legal claims against institutions of higher education and/or their employees.

Registration for classes was conducted on Tuesday, August 24. By the close of the extended registration period (September 2), enrollment for the Fall Semester stood at 1,078. Represented in this total were: sophomores and other returning students, 419; freshmen and transfer students, 645; and special students (those enrolled for less than 12 semester hours), 14. This translated to a full-time equivalency enrollment of 1,069.

The academic year 1981-82 was brought to a successful conclusion on May 16 with the awarding of associate degrees and/or one-year diplomas to 214 candidates for graduation, at least 80 percent of whom will continue the pursuit of the baccalaureate degree at some senior college or university. In addition to the academic attainments of these graduates and other students, the year was also characterized by other institutional attainments and by occasions for celebration. Moreover, the closing of the books at the end of the fiscal year (May 31) witnessed the college's fiscal operation in the black for the twenty-fourth consecutive year.

In keeping with her desire that curricular offerings remain up-to-date, appealing to the potential student clientele, and appropriate for a two-year institution of higher education, the college approved two new curricula for implementation in 1982-83. These curricula are Pre-Medical Illustration and English. The former curriculum will be offered as a joint effort of the art faculty and the science faculty, in response to a need for specialists in this particular field. The English curriculum is offered in response to the needs of students who have indicated intention to major in this particular discipline. Neither curriculum will necessitate the addition of either new faculty personnel or of new course offerings not presently being taught. In this same regard, approval was granted for the phasing out of the curriculum in Newswriting and Advertising, effective at the conclusion of the academic year, 1982-83.

Contract for the construction of a much-needed graphic communications center was awarded to Revelle Builders, Inc., Murfreesboro, in the early Spring of 1982. Actual construction began on this 18,000 square-foot facility on May 1. It is anticipated that the building will be completed and ready for occupancy by June 1, 1983. A campaign effort to raise the $550,000 which will be needed to pay for the cost of this facility has been directed, primarily, at the members of the Chowan Graphic Arts Foundation, the North Carolina Press Association, and other individuals/ corporations/foundations related to the printing and publishing industries.

A major celebrative event occurred on February 22, when a special convocation was held in Helms Center to honor President Bruce E. Whitaker upon his completion of 25 years at the administrative helm of Chowan College. Conceived by the Board of Trustees and planned by a Steering Committee which was broadly representative of the campus community, the convocation brought together a large number of friends and supporters of Chowan College and her role within the broader context of Christian higher education.

The college extended her impressive record of fiscal operation in the black during 1981-82 to twenty-four consecutive years, while working within the framework of an operating budget of $7,800,000. The status of institutional indebtedness for capital needs purposes as of May 31, 1982, stood as follows:

Date	Original Loan	Interest Rate		Balance
1. 12/1/62	$ 500,000	3 1/2%	West Hall, Men's Dorm-216 beds	$357,000
2. 12/1/63	760,000	3 5/8%	Belk Hall, Women's Dorm-323 beds; Thomas Cafeteria/Student Union	545,000
3. 4/8/66	600,000	3%	Whitaker Library/Daniel Hall of Fine Arts	400,000
4. 1/3/69	175,000	6%	Land Acquisition	32,000
5. 5/28/69	975,000	3%	Parker Hall, Men's Dorm-280 beds	865,000
6. 11/6/73	1,105,000	3%	Camp Hall, Science Building	615,400
Total Indebtedness				$2,814,400
Less Sinking Fund Reserves				1,287,837
NET Indebtedness				$1,526,563

In the first two instances above, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, covering a forty-year period and carrying interest charges as indicated; each is self-liquidating. In the third instance, the loan was made from the U.S. Office of Education. In the fifth instance, the loan was made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of twelve years. Approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the campus are involved. In the sixth instance, Chowan was granted permission by the Convention to borrow $1,105,000 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which cost $1,300,000, equipped and landscaped. The loan is from The Planters National Bank and Trust Company in Ahoskie.

Cooperative ministries/programs were conducted with various divisions and departments of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina throughout 1981-82. Among these divisions/departments were the Council on Christian Higher Education; Youth and Campus Ministries, (BSU and related work); Communications (production of videotape for "Report to Associations"); Church Programs (January Bible Study Institute); Missions (Baptist Resource Center); and Evangelism (Youth Evangelism Conference). Preliminary plans for 1982-83 include the expansion of such ministries and programs in cooperation with additional agencies/ personnel of the Baptist State Convention. Moreover, that measure of financial and spiritual support which is evidenced, annually, by the Convention and her cooperating churches continues to elicit profound gratitude on the part of the institution, together with a renewed commitment to strengthen and maintain a program of higher education which is consistent with Christian ideals, values, and concerns.

Finally, note should be taken of the death on April 15, 1982, of Mr. John M. McSweeney, who served as chairman of the college's Department of Graphic Arts, from its inception in 1952 until his retirement in 1968. It was under his early leadership that this particular department attained regional and national prominence among the few schools of printing technology related to institutions of higher education.

Gardner-Webb College

Born as the result of a dream by the Kings Mountain Baptist Association in 1905 and supported through infancy with the help of the Sandy Run Association, Gardner-Webb College continues to mature in its mission as a college of the churches of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

The year 1982 has been a significant one for Gardner-Webb. For the fifth consecutive year enrollment has increased. Total degree-seeking students in the fall exceeded 1770, marking a new high for the college. The entering freshman class brought with them SAT scores which averaged 25 points higher than the previous year.

The opening of school has seen also the opening of the $4.2 million Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center. This is the largest arena between Charlotte and Asheville and between Greenville, South Carolina and Winston-Salem. Many new service possibilities are available to Gardner-Webb because of this facility. This is significant, because as a liberal arts college it has been one of our missions to promote a community service concept. We are a private college wishing to use resources to serve all of the area in reasonable and feasible ways to the end that the educational, physical, cultural, economic, recreational and religious levels may be enhanced. This magnificent building of 68,000 square feet is the only facility in the nation constructed to accommodate the needs of the hearing impaired who can benefit from a hearing aid. An inductive loop system, designed by Dr. Jerry Potter with technical assistance from the Pioneers of Western Electric, Inc. makes it possible for those using hearing aids to pick up all public address announcements directly into their individual hearing aids.

This year is special also because in May the first deaf students were graduated. These students came to Gardner-Webb four years ago, and because of the distinct program for the deaf were able to receive a liberal arts education at the only Baptist College in the nation with a program especially responsive to their needs.

Plans are now underway to begin a degree program for the blind. These two programs, along with active recruitment of wheelchair students, place Gardner-Webb in a leadership role in education for the handicapped.

In the Bachelor of Arts program, majors are offered in Biblical literature and languages, English, French, history, music, religion, social science, and Spanish. A major in biology, accounting, management information systems, office administration, business administration, computer science, chemistry, early childhood education, intermediate education, mathematics, physical education, or psychology leads to a Bachelor of Science degree. A B.S. degree in Medical Technology is awarded in conjunction with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine or the Charlotte Memorial Hospital. In cooperation with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, a B.S. program will lead to certification as a Physician's Assistant.

The 1982-83 academic year also witnessed the beginning of the only "Two-Plus-Two" Nursing Program in the state of North Carolina. Gardner-Webb College has designed the BSN program specifically to accommodate the needs of practicing Registered Nurses wishing to earn the BSN degree.

The BSN program will be added to the Associate Degree Nurse program, now in its seventeenth year. With funds from three North Carolina foundations, the BSN program will operate on the Boiling Springs campus and in Statesville, North Carolina. The ADN program will continue operating only on the main campus. Both nursing programs will be part of the new Davis School of Nursing of Gardner-Webb College.

The Broyhill Academy for the Study of Independent Concepts continues to be an exciting extension of Gardner-Webb. Through this Academy, the College is able to put into action its belief in the free enterprise system. This year several seminars were held on the Economic Recovery Tax Act; public school teachers met with local business leaders and Gardner-Webb faculty to discuss economic concepts; and a seminar was held for farmers that dealt with the marketing of soybeans and small grains, calculating cost of production, and a review of various sales techniques.

This past year also saw the first endowed school at Gardner-Webb become a reality. The Broyhill School of Management was endowed by the Broyhill Foundation of Lenoir, North Carolina. More than 500 students will be involved in this school during the current academic year.

Once again Gardner-Webb has concluded another year of financial operation comfortably in the black. There are no operating deficits at the College. The current indebtedness on the Physical Plant is $1,192,891 which is being amortized monthly. During the fiscal year, July, 1981 to June, 1982, Gardner-Webb received a record number of gifts totalling in excess of $2.3 million.

The budget for the current academic year is $8.6 million, an increase of 14 percent over the 1981-82 budget.

Continuing in the richness of Gardner-Webb's tradition is the adornment of new campus signs that display in crest and cameo form the portraits of the late Governor O. Max Gardner and his wife, Fay Webb Gardner, for whom Gardner-Webb College was named. These graphically demonstrate the college's heritage as the only college in North Carolina to be named for a Governor and his wife.

The most important part of Gardner-Webb's heritage, however, continues to be people who call themselves Baptist. The college is dedicated to the mission for which it was established and that is to "develop quality Christian students who think for themselves, and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their choice."

We want to thank the Baptists of North Carolina for what they enable to happen in the foothills of the Piedmont at their college called Gardner-Webb.

Mars Hill College

The 1981-82 academic year was filled with opportunities, challenges and achievements. Over all, the quality of the year was high and the prospects for the future appear to be excellent. This is true in spite of a decline in the total number in the student body. An enrollment decrease prompted a follow up inquiry of parents, which revealed the major difficulty to be the uncertainty of financial assistance through federal, state and private sources. Because most funding sources were not approved until the latter part of July, it was too late for many families to make the necessary plans for the fall semester. Some of these students worked during the first semester, returning to Mars Hill College for the second semester. Numerous cost-saving measures were put into effect. These, along with the generous support received through the Cooperative Program, allowed the college to end the year with a balanced budget.

One of the most exciting activities to transpire during the year was the completion and dedication of the Marleine Reeder Harris Media Center, held in December, 1981. This building, built partially underground with a southern exposure, is a point of pride for the institution. It is also a bold statement to the need for good stewardship of the non-renewable energy sources entrusted to us. The college has gained regional and national recognition for the design and function of this building. By moving the audio-visual materials into the new Media Center, the college anticipates an experience of approximately ten years' growth potential in the main library, thus allowing for additional acquisitions and study areas.

Mars Hill College continues to cultivate and to enjoy excellent relationships with the Baptists of North Carolina. The substantive, enriching activities of the Director of Christian Education Ministries and the Campus Minister, in addition to the many members of the faculty who reach out to Baptist associations, individual churches and to community leaders, are some of the many ways the college attempts to serve its Baptist constituency.

Major changes in the academic program at Mars Hill College were passed by the faculty during the past year. The changes, implemented on June 1, 1982, include the discontinuance of the January term, changing from the four to three-hour course schedule, the introduction of minors along with majors as options for students, the offering of a major in Computer Information Science, and an alteration in faculty workload and contracts. It is felt that these changes will directly benefit students by broadening their intellectual experience and making them more employable.

The college was saddened by the death of Mr. C.O. Ellis, long-term lay trustee from Burnsville, N.C. Mr. Ellis had been active on various trustee committees and has had deep family ties to Mars Hill College.

The college income for the year 1981-82 was $10,905,720, and the expenditures totaled $10,903,916, leaving an excess of income of $1,804. Mars Hill College's total indebtedness, which is mostly in long-term, three percent interest notes, is $2,595,734.

Again, we express sincere appreciation to the Baptists of North Carolina for their continued confidence and generous support of Mars Hill College.

Meredith College

Meredith College is less than a decade away from its centennial anniversary. Now, as much as at any time in its ninety years, the college can look to the future with optimism and confidence. It has resisted the trend toward coeducation; it has enjoyed a stable enrollment; it has been able to continue to integrate its Christian principles with its academic program; it has maintained its academic standing; and, under its current administration, it has increased endowment and reserves almost ten-fold in ten years. President John E. Weems refers to this time as a period of challenge and excitement.

In May, 1982, 316 young women were awarded 318 degrees: 168 Bachelor of Arts; 136 Bachelor of Science; and 14 Bachelor of Music. In 1982, 622 students attended three summer sessions on campus, and 26 were part of the Meredith Study Abroad Program which took them to London for six weeks of study. The third annual legal assistants program had an enrollment of 35, and efforts are in process to seek accreditation of the program by the American Bar Association.

The full time enrollment for fall 1982 was 1,436; the total enrollment was 1981. Freshmen applications numbered approximately 800 for the 320 spaces available.

Four additional programs have been added; a new concentration in home economics, one in church music, one in social work, and a cooperative program between the Department of Biology with Duke Medical Center to permit biology majors to elect a degree in medical technology. The pre-college music and equitation programs, as well as the non-credit enrichment courses continue to attract many young people and adults from the Wake County area.

"Educating Today's Woman for Tomorrow's World" is a phrase used to identify the Meredith philosophy. While the liberal arts concept remains the foundation for all our learning, it is important that we recognize the changes and challenges facing our students in the working world and provide for them an education which will assist them in their chosen careers. The cooperative education program permits students to experience the working world while they are still students. This program, together with career planning and placement opportunities, serves as an important effort to assist Meredith students in sensible planning for their careers.

In addition to regular students, more than 65,000 people participated in conferences, clinics, workshops and other functions at Meredith during the year. These activities included the Journeyman Training Program of the Foreign Mission Board; educator and counselor workshops; music, cheerleader and athletic camps; and leadership conferences.

Now in its third year, the Visions Program for faculty enrichment, capital outlay, and general endowment has realized more than one-half of its $20 million goal. By financing capital outlay through funds received from benefactors, the college eliminates the need for debt service as a function of current operations and allows current monies to be spent on academic programs.

Results of the financial program are already evident. Spearheaded by the Class of 1928 and supported by many alumnae and friends of Meredith, the Christina and Seby Jones Chapel was completed during the year. Dedication of the Shearon Harris Building for Business Administration was held on August 30, 1982. Funding for both these major construction projects has been secured by gifts and grants from many constituencies.

The fiscal year, ending June 30, 1982, reported assets of $29,040,830 and indebtedness of $1,583,080. Gifts, grants and pledges for the year totaled $2,551,461, which figure included $633,459 from the Cooperative Program. This support from North Carolina Baptists makes it possible for Meredith to minister to the educational needs of the young women of North Carolina and beyond at a reasonable financial level.

Wake Forest University

Wake Forest University, the oldest and largest of the state's seven Baptist colleges, experienced a busy and productive 148th year.

In May, the school awarded degrees to 1,010 students — the largest graduating class in the school's history, and fall marked the 40th anniversary of the unanimous decision of the Convention to admit women as full-time students.

An indication of the University's desire to strengthen its Baptist ties was the appointment of a trustee committee to enhance the relationship between the Convention and the University. One of the committee's objectives is to seek ways to attract more Baptist Students and more ministerial students to the University.

The Executive Committee of the Convention's General Board voted to permit a new, simpler method of supporting the University. A church now needs to write a letter to the Convention's business office indicating it wishes to give Wake Forest 6.04 percent of its Cooperative Program giving, and once the letter of intent is written it will not need to be renewed annually. Wake Forest is grateful to the churches which have been supporting the University and expects the new method of giving to be easier.

Several important programs complement the University and its Baptist heritage:

The William Louis Poteat Scholarship Program, designed solely for North Carolina Baptist students, will award scholarships valued at $1,500 each to one student from each of North Carolina's eleven Congressional districts. The scholarship is named for Dr. William Louis Poteat, who was president of Wake Forest College from 1905-27, and will be for undergraduate students. Poteat was one of the top Baptist laymen in the state during his presidency. The new program was prompted by the desire of trustees and administration to have a larger number of qualified North Carolina Baptist students enrolled. Funds for the scholarships will come from money contributed to the University through the Convention's Cooperative Program, from undesignated gifts made directly by Baptist churches and from the University's portion of the North Carolina Missions Offering.

Wake Forest held its fifth annual Pastors' School this summer. The school, which was begun by the Office of Denominational Relations, offers an interesting study of religious issues and is led by a faculty of distinguished theologians.

A Spring preaching conference is held each year and is aimed at helping pastors with their parish ministry. This year's topic was "To Serve the Present Age."

In cooperation with the Convention, the University operates the official depository for Baptist historical materials and this year has received a special appropriation from the Convention which enables the Biblical Recorder to be computer indexed.

A quarterly publication, "From WFU to You," is edited by the Office of Denominational Relations and mailed to every Baptist pastor in the state to help them and their congregations remain informed about matters of special interest at Wake Forest.

Wake Forest awards a $600 concession per year to ministerial students, the children and spouses of pastors of North Carolina Baptist churches, the children of missionaries, officials of the Baptist State Convention, professors of other North Carolina Baptist colleges or universities, as well as to pastors themselves.

The second of a three-year project on "Religion and the Social Crisis," was a popular program on campus, with standing room only for each lecture. The topic was "Faith and Politics in Tension: The Question of Civil Religion in America." A $47,000 grant, requested by the University's department of religion, was awarded by the Henry Luce Foundation of New York to make the project possible.

Over 200 guests attended the second annual Pastors' Day — an event when pastors, their wives and children, are invited to the campus to have lunch and attend a football game.

Royal Ambassadors also have their day at Wake Forest. Nearly 7,000 RA's and their counselors were presented a program by Wake Forest students, ate lunch on campus and then attended a football game.

Between 18 and 20 percent of Wake Forest students work in local churches by preaching, teaching Sunday School classes and leading youth groups. Recent graduates and students currently enrolled in graduate programs are directing a Christian Coffee House. The purpose is to offer a counseling ministry which looks at personal problems from a Christian perspective. There are numerous other student religious organizations and a growing number of informal groups which meet regularly for prayer, Bible study and discussions. Students raised $3,700 for North Carolina Baptist summer missions.

The new $5.3 million music wing of the Scales Fine Arts Center was dedicated soon after school began in the fall. A ribbon-cutting ceremony and the unveiling of a large portrait of University President James Ralph Scales, for whom the center was named, followed the formal opening convocation in Wait Chapel. The new wing completes the Fine Arts Center which also has art and theatre wings and is considered one of the finest collegiate facilities of this type in the nation. The center is funded by pledges to the Sesquicentennial Campaign. The $17.5 million campaign is the third and final phase of a 12-year comprehensive capital improvements program scheduled to end in 1984, Wake Forest's 150th anniversary. Over $16 million in gifts and pledges have been received in the campaign's third phase.

The University's budget, which is balanced again this year, is a record $102 million and includes $66.7 million for the Bowman Gray School of Medicine and $35.9 million for the Reynolda campus.

Wingate College

"Not how much but how well."

That simple phrase became the motto of the Wingate School in the difficult days of 1918, and it expresses the commitment to excellence characteristic of Wingate College in 1981-82. Present times, financially stressful as they are, encourage us to limit what we do, to permeate our educational mission with a sense of Christian quality which is characteristic of our Lord.

Commencement '82 saw 300 degrees awarded to Wingate College students from 17 states and eight foreign countries. Numbered among the graduates were the first two recipients of the Bachelor of General Studies, a degree specifically tailored to meet the needs of non-traditional students whose college careers have been interrupted. Some 200 bachelor's degrees were awarded along with 100 associate degrees, reflecting the continuing transition of Wingate from junoir college to bachelor's degree-granting status.

Keeping faith with its special commitment to international studies and global awareness, 211 students participated in the annual Winternational experience during the '81-82 Christmas recess. Students chose to go to London, Vienna, Geneva, Amsterdam, or the Yucatan. In addition, Wingate completed its first Wingate-in-London program, a full semester in the British capital, utilizing mostly local instructors and cooperating with Baptist friends at Spurgeon's College. During the summer, the College sponsored its first Wingate-in-Oxford opportunity. In conjunction with Regent's Park College, our Baptist constituent of Oxford University, 13 persons participated. To emphasize its dedication to internationalism, and to changing lives in hopes of changing the world, the institution has developed a new slogan: "Wingate College — making a world of difference."

During the year the College received many wonderful gifts and had the largest number of individual contributors in its history. More than 2,000 persons contributed directly to Wingate College during '81-'82, in addition to the hosts of North Carolina Baptists who sustain Wingate and other Baptist institutions by their gifts through the Cooperative Program. The College received a substantial gift of original art works from the collection of Mary and Harry L. Dalton of Charlotte. As beneficiary of a bequest from the estate of Mary Lee Bivens Tyner, wife of an early president of Wingate, the College was able to establish the John Wilson and Anna Williams Bivens Teacher Materials Center. It will serve as a special collection of equipment, audio-visual aids, and books to support the teacher education program. Central to that Center is another gift, the J.B. and Effie Hobby Helms Curriculum Resources Collection, a special repository of textbooks and materials for the use of students who plan careers in teaching.

A number of prominent Americans visited Wingate to share with students in formal addresses and in informal situations: former missionary William Dyal, now president of AFS Intercultural-International Services; Jody Powell, former press secretary to President Carter; Birch Bayh, former U.S. Senator from Indiana; Robert S. Denny, former executive secretary of the Baptist World Alliance; the honorable Chief A.Y. Eke, Ambassador of Nigeria to the U.S.; Jeremy Rifkin, columnist and economist; Jean Michel Cousteau, noted naturalist and explorer and son of Jacques Cousteau; and Grady Nutt, Christian humorist. The College appreciated the visits of a number of North Carolina Baptist ministers and enjoyed a Religious Emphasis Week with Dr. Jack Noffsinger of the Knollwood Baptist Church in Winston-Salem.

Significant honors have come to Wingate College students in the course of the year. In athletics, Darryl Barrino is the first Wingate student to be named to an All-American team since Wingate's attainment of bachelor's degree-granting status. He was a first team NAIA All-American selection in baseball. Also, Wingate's first female athlete to be named to an NAIA All-American squad was Diana Monroe, who was the top scorer in the nation in NAIA women's competition. Another student, Charles Yarbrough, was among the top three in a national essay competition involving students from colleges and universities of all sizes sponsored by the Center for the Study of the Presidency. The debate team closed the season again ranked among the top 20 in the nation.

A large number of physical plant improvements have taken place. Ruth Coltrane Cannon Dormitory, built in 1956 with funds given by the late Charles A. Cannon, and home address for 160 women, has been totally renovated. Holbert Hall for men, built in 1964, was also renovated. A new greenhouse and animal laboratory were added to the Budd E. Smith Science Center. The new structure supports a new major in the biological sciences. The College was fortunate to obtain an electron microscope, a sophisticated instrument owned by only a small number of liberal arts colleges in America. The instrument allows the photographing of cross sections of cells and is extremely useful as a research tool.

Two faculty members, who made long term contributions to Wingate, retired this year. Mrs. Frances Vick, Associate Professor of English, has given 21 years of service. John Scott, Assistant Professor of Physics and Engineering Science, taught at Wingate 19 years. The College community honored both for their Christian dedication.

The College mourns the passing of Miss Thelma Rivers of Marshville who died November 20, 1981. Miss Rivers, a Wingate graduate, provided funds for The Rivers Organ, a fine Holtkamp instrument in Austin Memorial Auditorium. Her generous example and warm friendship have made an indelible mark on Wingate College and its people.

Again in 1981-82, Wingate was able to operate on a balanced budget. The College continues to have no indebtedness and, as a matter of policy, does not borrow funds. A great debt of gratitude is owed Baptists of North Carolina and other friends who have made it possible for the College to operate in this fashion.

Christian Life and Public Affairs

During 1982 the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs provided a variety of field service events and educational resources for North Carolina Baptists. Associational Christian Life committee members were trained and guidance on a wide range of social and ethical issues was furnished to churches and associations. Of special interest was the promotion of June as World Hunger month. In addition to free offering envelopes, the Council made available bulletin inserts, posters, and hunger bank labels to churches. Three regional hunger conferences, using the theme "What One Church Can Do," received wide attention.

Aging

In addition to four major conferences/retreats held at Caraway Conference Center, the department participated in several leadership training events across the state. Coordination between senior adult leaders and opportunities for training was provided through Contact, a newsletter/training resource furnished by the department to all senior adult clubs in the state convention. As the number of older persons in North Carolina continues to rise, churches and associations are steadily increasing their various ministries through and with senior adults.

Christian Citizenship Education

The Legislative Information Network has continued to provide reports on the work of the state's General Assembly to more than seven hundred contact persons in churches across the state. While this was the year for the General Assembly's "short session," it turned out to be a year of several short sessions. Two sessions early in the year dealt with the ongoing question of reapportionment, while the regular June session modified the state's budget and considered a few other pressing issues. A highlight of 1982 was the Statewide Christian Life Conference, which focused this year on the separation of church and state. Conferees examined such current issues as tuition tax credits, prayer in the public schools, "scientific" creationism, and political involvement by Christians. Conference leaders included some of this country's leading figures in church-state issues, such as Gene Puckett, James Dunn, Stan Hastey, and John Swomley.

Religious Freedoms

The U.S. Congress gave serious consideration this year to two issues which pose challenges to religious freedoms which have long been dear to the hearts of most Baptists.

1) Tuition tax credits. This scheme would use federal money to support church-operated schools. With a tuition tax credit program, parents who send their children to private or parochial schools would get federal income tax credits (that is, direct reductions in income tax owed) equal to half of the tuition paid (up to $100 in 1983, $300 in 1984, and $500 thereafter). While the plan does not involve a direct payment by the government to parochial schools (that it could not do), its effect is the same, both for the schools and for the government. Private schools become more financially attractive to many parents, so schools get more students and more money. (Some have suggested that tuition tax credits will prompt many schools to raise their tuitions, since parents won't be having to pay as much of it). And, from the government's perspective, whether money (for example, $500) is paid directly to schools or credited to taxpayers, the government is still $500 poorer (and must raise other taxes to make up that $500).

2) Prayer in public schools. This summer an amendment to the U.S. Constitution was proposed which, its supporters say, would return voluntary prayer to the schools. John Baker, attorney with the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs, labels as a "false premise" the idea that the Supreme Court has banned voluntary prayer from the public schools. Noting that the Supreme Court has said only that government cannot write prayers or require students to repeat prayers, Baker concludes that "voluntary prayer - an individual's sacred communication with his or her deity - was not at issue in the prayer cases, was not forbidden in the public schools, and is beyond the power of Congress, the President, or the courts either to permit or to forbid" (Report from the Capital, July-August 1982).

Opposition to the proposed prayer amendment has come not only from Baptists who are concerned about the separation of church and state, but from many other sources, including conservative columnists James J. Kilpatrick and George F. Will. Kilpatrick noted that no court has ever prohibited individual prayer, that "saying that classroom prayer is voluntary cannot make it so," and that President Reagan is quite in error in his view of the state of the law." He concludes that "we ought not to adopt constitutional amendments merely because they will do no harm" (syndicated column, printed in the Raleigh News & Observer on May 27, 1982). Will, writing in Newsweek, June 7, 1982, expressed concern about "the trivialization of religion and the coercion of children who take their own religious traditions seriously." Quoting Sen. John Danforth, of Missouri, Will notes that "a lowest-common-denominator prayer would offend all devout persons."

While the prayer amendment is unnecessary and potentially harmful, it is at least the appropriate way to go about changing the Constitution (i.e. through the amendment process). A much more dangerous suggestion for “putting prayer back in schools” is that of the so-called court-stripping legislation. It would forbid federal courts from hearing cases involving prayer, thus leaving it to state courts to interpret the federal Constitution. It is dangerous for at least two reasons. First, it seeks to make an end-run around the constitutionally-mandated method of altering the Constitution. What is supposed to take a two-thirds vote in both houses of Congress and a three-fourths vote of all the states would instead be effected by a simple majority vote in each house of Congress.

More importantly, the court-stripping legislation would strike at the very heart of our federal Bill of Rights. If Congress can prohibit the federal courts from interpreting parts of the federal Constitution (and there is serious doubt among legal scholars that it can), rights which are supposed to belong to all Americans will vary from state to state. Free speech could mean one thing in California and another in Vermont. Freedom from racial discrimination might mean one thing in Wisconsin and quite another in Mississippi. And religious freedom would almost certainly mean different things in Utah and North Carolina. The best example of what would happen if state courts interpreted federal rights comes from the very issue of prayer in public schools. The 1962 U.S. Supreme Court case which declared that the state should not be in the business of writing or requiring prayers (Engel v. Vitale) came from New York. That state’s Board of Regents wrote a prayer and a local school board required that the state-composed prayer be recited daily by each class. Before the case went to the U.S. Supreme Court, New York’s highest court had upheld the law, saying that it didn’t violate religious freedom! That court said it was appropriate for the state to write prayers and for the state to require all school classes to recite those prayers.

There has been a great deal of misunderstanding about the issue of prayer in schools. Some who support the prayer amendment and/or the court-stripping legislation try to portray opponents, even opponents who are Christian, as being opposed to prayer. Nothing could be farther from the truth. In fact, many who oppose these efforts do so because of their strong belief in prayer and their desire not to see it trivialized or turned into “lowest-common-denominator prayer.”

Years ago, Thomas Jefferson told a Baptist association that the First Amendment built “a wall of separation between Church and State.” Baptists were responsible for the inclusion of religious freedoms in the First Amendment. Baptists have long been in the forefront of defending those freedoms. Baptists can lead the way in protecting religious liberty from current attack. As Baptists, we must, if we are to be true to our heritage.

Christian Family Life

A wide variety of family life events was sponsored this year. Included were nine marriage enrichment retreats including one leadership training event and two clergy couples retreats; six family enrichment conferences; one singles seminar; a parenting workshop and a Strengthening Christian Families Leadership Workshop. Co-sponsored by the department were "Missionaries on Furlough" and "Senior Adult" marriage enrichment retreats, furnishing program leadership in three Better Homes Clubs, two seminars for ministers in the area of family ministry and clergy divorce, a Family Financial Planning Workshop and a retreat for pastor's wives also offered forums for assisting churches, associations and pastor's conferences in their crucial tasks of strengthening family life. Two conferences for pastor's wives were also underwritten.

A new pamphlet, "Parenting Teenagers Ages 16-19," was added to the Growing Christian Families series.

North Carolina Baptist Homes, Incorporated

The past year in our North Carolina Baptist Homes has been a good one. We have had 45 persons admitted to the ministry of our Homes and apartments. This represents 98,065 days of special care for an average daily population of 269 persons. The Lord's blessings continue to be poured out upon us.

Great things are in store for our Homes as we look to the Lord, to North Carolina Baptists, and to the future! The Trustees made a decision of far-reaching significance at their May meeting in approving a Capital Funds Campaign. The existing needs at the Hayes Home and the Nursing Unit in Winston-Salem present a primary challenge of this campaign. With success, we will be well on our way to adding much needed nursing care beds, and resident rooms. We will also be able to provide much needed upgraded services in relation to our present Nursing Unit, and also construct a desperately needed Administration Building. We covet your prayers for the success of this effort.

Our major concern presently in our Homes' ministry is in regard to our benevolent care, assisting those who need supplementing financially. Gifts through the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering go a long way in undergirding those who cannot pay the full cost of care. These gifts, totalling $516,804.00 provided 62 percent of benevolent care. This short fall and the many residents who will be looking to the Baptist Homes' ministry for their care, will place increasing demands on the already overtaxed benevolent funds. Also, many persons on the Homes' waiting list who cannot pay the full cost of care will have a longer period to wait because benevolent funds will not be available.

We believe, therefore, that if you know the need, you will respond to it by the increasing support that you will give through the Cooperative Program and through the North Carolina Missions Offering. We will be looking to the Lord and to you to help us continue to be the benevolent ministry that we have always been.

We love you, and we thank you for your love, your gifts, and your prayers. As Abraham was about to deliver the fatal blow to his son, Issaac, he asked, "Father, where is the sacrifice?" Whereupon Abraham replied, "God will provide!" And so He did! And so, we believe that you will provide!

William A. Poole, executive director

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated

"Responding to Family Needs" has been the thrust of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated during the 1981-1982 fiscal year. Recommendations made by members of our Board of Trustees in their recent evaluation study provided the administrative structure and the mandate more completely to cover the State with facilities, programs, services and staff to respond quickly and effectively to requests for assistance.

The Baptist Children's Homes receives and responds to numerous and diverse requests for services and has developed a carefully planned program to meet a variety of needs. The programs cover education, health, spiritual development and social services as well as specially designed programs of care; group care, foster homes, maternity care, emergency care, preschool education, family services, small group homes, therapeutic camping, retreats and counseling services.

The lives of more than 4,200 people were affected in a significant way by the services of the Children's Homes during the past year. The Homes provided care and related services for 1,564 children. Of this number, 1,199 received continuing services while 365 received social work, counseling and referral services. Applications for 65 children were in process at the end of the year. Through members of the staff, a close working relationship was maintained with approximately 2,000 adults who were important in the lives of the children. These were parents, relatives, custodians and guardians of the children. Counseling services were provided 350 other adults through family counseling, through the Child Development Center and through the Family Services Centers. More than 3,000 adults were enrolled in workshops in family education and parenting in various areas of the State.

Services of the Baptist Children's Homes are delivered throughout the State from Family Services Centers in seven geographic areas, with offices at: Waynesville-Clyde; Charlotte; Thomasville; Kinston, Jacksonville; Pembroke; and Raleigh. Placement of children in any facility of the Homes, individual and family counseling, programs in parenting and family life education, and referrals — all are within the scope of each Family Services Center. Through this administrative structure, it is the intent of the staff to be available in the local community and to work with all persons who are concerned with family needs and with the quality of family life.

Economic conditions during the past year required fiscal restraints. Some sources of income exceeded expectation while others were short of anticipation. The Institution operated well within budget planning and without compromise in quality of service. Special appreciation is expressed to the people of our churches who provided thirty-seven percent of operating income. This came through special gifts, the Cooperative program and the North Carolina Missions Offering. The latter was short of Convention planning, thus affecting various phases of denominational work.

With combined thought from trustees and members of the administrative staff, careful plans are being made for the Centennial Observance of the Institution in 1985. Important to the total observance is the Centennial Fulfillment Program of Giving which was launched in September. This will afford an opportunity for many friends of the Homes to join forces with us further to strengthen our total endeavor to serve the needs of children and their families.

The future of child care will present us with increasing needs, more difficult problems to solve, mounting financial costs and heavier demands. At the same time, the future will afford unlimited opportunities for North Carolina Baptists and other friends of the dependent child to care and share. This is the challenge that has been kept before our people for more than ninety-six years. We must honor our noble heritage as we remain faithful to our mission.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Incorporated

Baptist Hospital admitted 23,350 patients during the past year and provided a total of 210,000 days of patient care. There were 65,381 additional visits to the hospital's outpatient clinics and the emergency room. These patients come from across North Carolina, from other states, and even from other countries to receive the specialized hospital care which our institution offers.

Many of these patients received traditional types of hospital and medical care, but others benefited from new procedures: (1) A new method of delivering anti-cancer drugs by means of an "infusion pump," which is implanted in the patient somewhat like a pacemaker for heart patients. For many patients this has proven to be a more effective and more convenient form of chemotherapy. (2) A new type of x-ray called "digital radiography," used principally for examination of blood vessels, which virtually eliminates expensive and cumbersome x-ray film. This method used less radiation and requires less dye than standard angiography. It also requires less time and can sometimes be done on an outpatient basis. It is expected that this method can eventually be used in many areas of the body where x-rays are required. (3) A new type of dialysis for patients with kidney disease called "continuous ambulatory peritoneal dialysis," which involves leaving a special fluid within the peritoneal cavity for several hours while impurities (normally removed by the kidney) are taken from the blood. This type of dialysis not only frees the patient from dependence on a machine but it is also less expensive than the more conventional forms of dialysis.

The Pastoral Care Department continues to provide a pastoral ministry to both inpatients and outpatients and to their families. During the past year, chaplains made a total of 48,209 visits with patients. They provided 923 "on-call ministries" and led 262 worship services in Davis Chapel. The Pastoral Counseling Division provided 8,684 hours of counseling for 855 persons. A total of 63 students were enrolled in various levels of clinical-pastoral education. The Winston-Salem center and also the satellites in Fayetteville, Raleigh, Morganton, and Charlotte all continued to experience growth both in the types of services provided as well as in the number of people served.

During the year, our hospital again received a two-year approval by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. This is the maximum accreditation period granted.

Despite many economic pressures, our hospital continues to operate in the black. It has recently adopted a budget for the new fiscal year which for the first time exceeds $100,000,000.

Gifts from churches during the past year through the Cooperative Program amounted to $479,997 and through the North Carolina Missions Offering and designated gifts totalled $345,765. We are indeed grateful to the churches and their members for this continuing fine financial support.

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Incorporated

A unique role of the Baptist Foundation among Baptist agencies and institutions is that of unifier of the tenses of time. The past tense is brought to the present as the Foundation manages assets which were assigned, by Will or gift, to Baptist causes by persons who are no longer living. The present tense is further dealt with through the program of the Foundation which affords avenues for informing persons now living regarding the on-going stewardship of their material wealth. Projecting into the future tense, the past and present are unified in providing continuing financial support for all Baptist agencies, institutions and causes according to the wishes and instruction of the individual donors.

During 1981 recognition of estate stewardship as a spiritual commission became a reality for many North Carolina Baptists. Their gifts were of various sizes and complexion, from cash to large apartment complexes. The donors, too, were varied, with families, single persons, recently widowed individuals, and even church families making gifts. Some gifts were received through Wills which were written years ago. Still other gifts were made through trusts and memorial gifts. Donors from the ranks of Convention employees and former employees are numerous, with gifts of property, cash, and through Wills.

The financial report for 1981 reveals exciting statistics which actually represent the heart-concerns and love of individual donors. Through the trusts created prior to 1981, investments earned $418,529.70 during 1981 for distribution to beneficiaries named by the trust donors. These beneficiaries included every cause supported by Baptists, for many trusts name Cooperative

Program as recipient of the trust income. During 1981 new trusts were created and old trusts had additions which together totaled $855,991.00, bringing the value of assets in all trusts to almost five million dollars. (Real estate is stated in the assets at the value when given, which is on the books at approximately 2.4 million dollars less than the current market value.)

During 1981, $181,989 was distributed to Baptist institutions and causes. An additional $199,121 was distributed to other beneficiaries, principally annuitants whose income will also go to Baptist causes upon their death.

Changes in Federal inheritance and gift tax laws made by Congress in 1981 and becoming effective January, 1982 have resulted in greater interest in the necessity for careful estate planning. The Foundation has increased its efforts to respond to this need through estate planning seminars across the state. The emphasis has rightly been placed on estate stewardship.

The objective and future plans of the Foundation are summarized in a brief phrase-promoting mission support through estate stewardship. Believing it is in the proper understanding of the relationship of material things to kingdom purposes that one finds meaning in life and existence, the Foundation continues to support North Carolina Baptists in their efforts to become better managers and stewards of their material possessions. Through its role as trustee agency, the Foundation will serve North Carolina Baptists by enabling them to enjoy Christian stewardship in its fullest sense - even after death.

Biblical Recorder

The year 1982 goes into the record as one of historic significance with the retirement of J. Marse Grant as editor after 22 years in the post and more than 30 years of service to North Carolina Baptists.

It will also be remembered as the year in which unprecedented increases in the cost of second-class postage forced the paper to take drastic steps to survive economically.

Editor Grant announced his plans for retirement to the Board of Directors of the Biblical Recorder in 1981, with the actual date of retirement to be no later than his 62nd birthday, September 13, 1982, or upon the election of his successor. A dinner honoring Dr. and Mrs. Grant was held in February in the Raleigh area with more than 400 in attendance. Various Baptist leaders from across the state and the Southern Baptist Convention came to pay tribute to the distinguished service of The Grants and hear the principal speaker, Governor James B. Hunt, Jr.

R.G. Puckett, former editor of the Maryland Baptist, the Ohio Baptist Messenger and associate editor of the (Ky.) Western Recorder, was elected editor on May 24, 1982. He assumed his duties on July 19 with a two-week overlap for orientation with Editor Grant. Puckett became editor officially on August 1, 1982.

Second-class postage rates increased sharply on January 10, 1982, raising the cost of mailing an issue of the Biblical Recorder from approximately $2,500 to $6,500 each week. Grant recommended to the Board of Directors that 40 issues per year be produced, eliminating the first issue in each month, effective March 1. This was considered undesirable but the only way to immediately manage the overwhelming increase in postage costs.

A request was made to the state convention's Emergency Fund for a grant of $40,000 which was approved by the General Board upon the recommendation of the special committee for handling such requests.

Other steps taken to assist the paper in its financial problems included release from the cost of space in the Baptist Building for the last six months of 1982, amounting to approximately $7,800; a special allocation from interest earned on short-term investments to overcome the shortfall on the paper's allocation from Cooperative Program funds; and a sale of one-half interest in the typesetting equipment purchased by the paper in 1981.

Circulation of the Biblical Recorder has leveled off at approximately 108,000 and started back upward with the addition of some new church budget accounts and club plans. The General Board approved a plan in its September meeting whereby the Board will fund subscriptions for the leadership of churches unable to subscribe through the club plan. The General Board will pay one half of the church budget plan rate to encourage the churches to subscribe for their key leadership. Some associational leaders have indicated an interest in providing one half of the subscription price for key leaders in some of their churches unable to subscribe.

The Directors of the Recorder set subscription rates for 1982-83 at $5.00 for church budget plan, $6.00 for club plan, and $7.00 individual, per subscription.

In the meeting of the Directors on October 4, a resolution was passed unanimously expressing appreciation to the convention leadership, the General Board, its Executive Committee and the Emergency Fund for special assistance during the financial crisis. Appreciation was also expressed to the churches and associational directors of missions who have supported the paper with readership, subscriptions and news items.

Officers for 1982-83 are Alfred Ayscue, chairman, John Ryberg, vice chairman, and Wayne Adams, secretary.

The entire Biblical Recorder family expresses its gratitude for the support of North Carolina Baptists and the privilege of serving our people through the ministry of the printed page.

Historical Committee

The first collections of library materials at Wake Forest College were gathered by the Philomathesian and Euzelian Literary Societies before the Civil War. These materials subsequently became the nucleus of the College Library, which by the turn of the century included a special Baptist Collection. During the formative years the library emphasized collecting the minutes of North Carolina Baptist associations, the most important historical documents produced by Baptists at that time. In the 1890s the Baptist Historical Society of North Carolina was active, adding scholarly articles and rare source material to the Baptist Collection.

In 1959 the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and Wake Forest College adopted the present cooperative plan for collecting and making available to researchers a wide variety of materials relating to Baptist life. Each year the staff of the collection reports to the Historical Committee of the convention the principal additions to the collection, which is housed in one of the most desirable areas of the Z. Smith Reynolds Library on the main campus. For example, with 19 volumes published and two awaiting printing, the indexing of the Biblical Recorder continues. The number of churches whose records have been microfimed has reached 699. Director John R. Woodard is now also emphasizing collecting the family and professional papers of individuals identified with Baptist life in the state. The library has the facilities and knowledge to take care of manuscripts and typescripts as well as printed materials.

During the past year the Historical Committee participated directly in a striking example of the importance of proper care in the preservation of paper. The heirs of George W. Paschal, author of History of North Carolina Baptists, offered the convention the gift of approximately 1,000 unbound copies of volume I which had been in the possession of the family since about 1930. Knowing the rarity and value of bound copies, the committee voted to seek a publishing house to cut, stitch, and bind the pages into books for sale at a fair price. The unbound copies were delivered to the Edwards and Broughton Company where it was discovered to the sorrow of all concerned that the 500,000 printed pages had deteriorated to the point that they could not be bound. Over the years, insects, improper humidity, and extremes in temperature had taken their toll.

For the last two years the committee has discussed the possibility of holding a Baptist Heritage Festival at Sandy Creek Church, Randolph Association, in the summer of 1983. Recently it voted unanimously to plan a program and help make arrangements for a visit by all interested persons to the site of Shubal Stearns' historic achievements. Committee members believe that this gathering will help gauge the level of interest in the possible formation of a state-wide Baptist historical society, which some feel is needed in North Carolina.

David L. Smiley, professor of history, Wake Forest University, reported to the committee that he has completed writing two chapters of his forthcoming history of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina from 1930 to 1976. He is drawing the chapter headings from "North Carolina Baptist Centennial Hymn 1830-1930," composed by Edwin McNeill Poteat, Jr. The first chapters are appropriately entitled "Backward our Glance Surveys the Road We've Trod" and "Clearing our Thickets for the House of God." Approximately ten chapters are contemplated.

Trustee Orientation Committee

Trustee Orientation, scheduled to be held at Caraway Conference Center, on January 15-16, 1982, was canceled due to snow.

On May 26 the Trustee Orientation Committee met and discussed the options for changing the meeting of trustee orientation from January each year to November, hoping to escape bad weather. The 1983 orientation for trustees has been scheduled for November 29-30, 1982 to be held at Caraway

Conference Center. The orientation format is being changed from lecture style to seminar style. The title will be "Training Seminar for Trustees of Baptist Institutions and Agencies."

The Committee encourages all trustees from class of 1982 and class of 1983 to make plans for attendance.

Cooperative Ministries Committee

Cooperative Ministries means sharing the work with two conventions — the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention working together in winning the lost and in discipling the saved. Evangelism and Christian education are primary assignments for each convention and every church.

For 25 years we have worked together, sharing work we now call Cooperative Ministries. The HERE'S HOPE joint crusade benefited those who participated, and the results are still coming. We focus on ways and means of conserving these results. Plans call for dialogue among the leaders at the local level. Several are now under consideration through the state.

We have learned through the HERE'S HOPE experience that communication lines are important for both conventions; i.e., church to convention and convention to convention. It is one of the goals of the local dialogue sessions to strengthen and improve our communication lines.

Working together as two Baptist bodies seems to be the best approach in reaching people of both races for Christ. This working together is built on a spirit of trust and shares responsibility. We come together as co-workers, co-missionaries, co-laborers with God.

Your committee urges better understanding of what it means that together we are co-laborers with God. Baptists, black and white, are both engaged in God's redeeming ministry, and our difference lies only in style of work and methods employed. Continue to pray for this developing phase of effective ministry.

HAL ALDRIDGE, Director

The following information was supplied by the clerks of the eighty (80) Baptist Associations in North Carolina. We greatly appreciate the faithful service they have rendered in compiling the statistical data. These reports are based on the associational year.

The Cooperative Program figures are from records in the Convention's Business Office and are for the calendar year.

Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1982 and the related statements of changes in general fund balances, receipts and transfers by funds, activity of restricted reserve funds, general fund income and expenses and divisional summary of departmental income and expenses of General Board and Convention and education and social services institutions funds income, expenses and distributions and fund balances for the year then ended. Except as explained in the first two sentences of the following paragraph, our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. Our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited to recorded receipts. The statements presented in this report are in our opinion in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and with statements prepared on the accrual basis except for differences explained in Note 1, relating to income, expenses and depreciation. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost; dispositions of fixed assets are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known; and provision is not made for depreciation (Notes 1 and 2).

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1982, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The financial information presented in Schedules 1 and 2 has been subjected to the same auditing procedures that were applied for the aforementioned financial statements. In our opinion, it is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole, although it is not necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and the results of operations of the Convention.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1982

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The Convention is on a modified cash basis and adheres to the principle of fund accounting. The financial statements presented in this report are in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and agree materially with financial statements prepared on an accrual basis, with the following differences:

- (a) Income is recorded as received in cash because it is not generally susceptible to accrual.
- (b) Expenditures for inventory type items, prepaid expenses and new fixed asset outlays are recorded as expenses when paid, in the account in which originally budgeted.
- (c) There is no provision for depreciation of fixed assets.
- (d) Interest on long term debt is recorded when due and paid and charged to a budgeted account.

Financial transactions are controlled by a Convention passed budget and accounted for within budgetary accounts. Distributions of income to Southern Baptist Convention areas or accounts and other external recipients are charged to the same period as the income. Salaries are expensed as paid; however, payment dates always correspond to the period in which salaries are earned. Other policies are described below:

- (a) Notes and accounts receivable not involving income accruals are recorded.
- (b) In a few instances, inventories and prepaid expenses at year end are recorded at cost in asset accounts and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are not material and are recorded to conform to budget procedures.
- (c) Investments are recorded at cost. Earnings thereon are added to the investing fund.
- (d) Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expense as they are paid. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. Detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.
- (e) Current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an expense accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year most creditors will have been paid up-to-date and the unpaid amounts

- (e) are not material to the statements. Long term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet. Interest expense on debt is recognized in the period paid.
- (f) The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of the plans of ministers and employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid. The retirement plans are administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Required contributions by the Convention for 1982 as determined by the Annuity Board were $890,582.
- (g) The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts can be restricted to the designated purposes.
- (h) The Convention is a tax-exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

2. DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

3. FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND RECORDED RECEIPTS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. Our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. Our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp CaRAway and Conference Center was limited to amounts recorded in prenumbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

4. NOTES AND BONDS RECEIVABLE - CHURCHES:

Notes receivable resulting from loans to churches bear low interest at varying rates and are secured by deeds of trust. Loan provisions generally require repayment over a period ranging from three to ten years according to terms of the individual notes.

Bonds receivable consist of investments in church coupon bonds and bonds with interest compounded semi-annually until maturity. Interest rates range from six to eight percent. Maturity dates range through 1993. All are first mortgage bonds. They are as follows:

Bonds Issued By	Interest Rate	Date Issued	Maturity Date	Face Value at Year End
Fellowship Baptist Church, Lillington, North Carolina	6%	10-1-72	1983	$ 400

Total				$ 18,089

5. NOTE RECEIVABLE - SALE OF BAPTIST BUILDING (RALEIGH):

The 1981 Convention, in the November session, approved the sale of the Baptist Building at 301 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh. The building and related land was sold to the Instrument Society of America. The purchase price was provided for in part by a non-interest bearing purchase money note of $925,000. The note was secured by a purchase money deed of trust. The balance at December 31, 1982 was $325,000.

6. OTHER NOTES RECEIVABLE:

- (a) The note receivable from Caswell Water Systems, Inc., for $21,000 is a noninterest bearing demand note. In 1969, Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was set up as a nonprofit corporation to purchase and operate the water system supplying water for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. The

- (a) original loan of $25,000 from the Convention to Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was made for the purpose of providing funds for the purchase of the water system and related property and expenses connected therewith.
- (b) The note receivable of $1,180 was a bequest of the Julia G. Pearson Estate. The note receivable is a promissory note from Ben L. Myers with interest at 4% per annum on the unpaid balance. The note is being paid in monthly installments of $10 to principal and interest. Collections of principal and interest will be credited to Cooperative Program income.

7. NOTE PAYABLE:

The note payable to the Baptist Foundation consists of a note dated November 12, 1982, the balance of which at December 31, 1982 was $62,514. The note bears interest at 12 1/2% and is unsecured.

8. RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS:

Restricted reserve fund balances as reflected by Exhibit D amounted to $851,790 at December 31, 1982. These funds have been reserved for specific uses due to action of the General Board or Convention or, in some instances, due to a designation accompanying the funds upon receipt.

9. CONVENTION RESERVE:

The Convention (1976 Annual Session), recognizing the need for reserves to meet emergencies or decreased income, made provision for the establishment of a reserve fund as early as feasible. Therefore, during the year 1978, the Convention Emergency Fund reserve was set up as provided for by the 1976 Annual Session. The fund is being invested, in part, by the Baptist Foundation. The activity for 1982 was as follows:

Balance December 31, 1981		$ 247,085

10. OPERATING DEFICIT - NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST ASSEMBLY:

For the year 1980, the Assembly had a deficit of $179,410 which was the result of unbudgeted but authorized capital expenditures. By the end of 1982, the deficit had been reduced to $17,284. The 1980 minutes of the Executive Committee provided that the deficit should be carried forward into 1981 and 1982 in the name of the Assembly and that it be provided for as follows:

- "(a) That any excess operating income at the end of 1981-1982 be applied to the balance at that time.
- (b) That the State Missions portion of the 1981-1982 budgets designated for the Assembly be used to amortize the deficit balance over this two-year period."

11. UNPROVIDED FOR (NOT BUDGETED OR FUNDED) CAPITAL COSTS IN 1982:

The unprovided for costs are summarized as follows:

	Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute Building	Pembroke Baptist Student Center Building	Baptist State Convention Computer System	Baptist Building
Unprovided for Costs - December 31, 1981	$ 417,969	$ 45,092	$ 119,246	$

Each of the projects was authorized by the Executive Committee.

The unprovided for costs at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute were for the new cafeteria building and the new dormitory. The cafeteria was approved in May 1978 by the Executive Committee and the dormitory was approved on April 7, 1981 by the Executive Committee. The Convention in session in November 1981 authorized borrowings of $333,576 for Fruitland additions to be repaid within three years by payments on pledges and, if necessary, by budget allocations in 1983, 1984 and 1985. In November, 1982, the Convention authorized the Executive Committee to borrow $489,000 for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute with the understanding that the $148,200 in outstanding pledges will be applied when received and that the balance will be repaid by budget allocations during the years 1983 - 1987.

The Pembroke University Student Center Building was authorized on August 19, 1980 for an approximate cost of $185,000. The building was to be financed from an $85,000 allocation of the Duke Center sale monies and from loans up to $100,000 for two years. Repayment would come from gifts and possible allocations from the 1981 and 1982 North Carolina Missions Offering.

The purchase of an IBM Systems computer was authorized by the Executive Committee on October 14, 1980. Costs would be provided from funds on hand and to be located and from the North Carolina Missions Offering. The computer costs amounted to $225,839 and at December 31, 1981 and 1982 the unprovided for costs were $119,246.

The 1981 Convention, in the November session, approved the sale of the Baptist Building at 301 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh and the construction of a new one at a cost of not more than $750,000 above the proceeds from the sale of the Raleigh building and any gifts received. In early 1982, the Executive Committee approved a contract to sell the Baptist Building to the Instrument Society of America and to construct a new building on a Cary site. The new building was occupied in December 1982. At December 31, 1982 the cumulative costs of the new building, relocation expense and other expenses amounted to $2,106,062. The proceeds from the sale of the building (including the uncollected note) plus interest earned on the proceeds amounted to $1,408,132. The excess cost of $697,930 at December 31, 1982 did not exceed the $750,000 limitation approved by the Convention. The unprovided for costs at December 31, 1982 amounted to $445,689. The remaining note payment of $325,000 when paid will be applied to the unprovided costs. In addition, the Convention in November, 1982 authorized the Executive Committee to complete the Baptist Building and as needed to borrow up to $280,000. The site for the new building was a gift and has been recorded as having a value of $750,000.

12. COOPERATIVE PROGRAM INCOME:

The total Cooperative Program income for 1982 of $19,335,690 compares to $18,129,706 for 1981, a 6.65% increase. The Cooperative Program income for the two years was distributed as follows:
