THE JANUARY RETREAT - Fri.-Sun., Jan. 19-21

Plans are pretty well finalized for the retreat weekend at Valle Crucis. Only seventeen spaces remain, so students and faculty who are interested should get their reservations in quickly (a form for this is at the bottom of this page). There will be time for group discussion and meditation, for films, for private reflection, and for recreation, relaxation and fellowship. The setting will be the (snow-covered) mountains of Western North Carolina. To borrow a title (but not its sexist implications), the theme of the retreat is "Man's inhumanity to man." The cost is $30; scholarship help is available.

LAW & THEOLOGY SYMPOSIUM - Fri., Nov. 17 - 2:30-5:00 p.m. - Morehead

A symposium focused by Alexander Solzhenitsyn's indictment of the legalistic morality of the West (Harvard Commencement Address, "The Exhausted West," June 1978) will be held this Friday. Speakers are Prof. Harold Berman of the Harvard Law School, Vice-Chancellor Donald Bolton of UNC, Fr. Albert Broderick of N. C. Central Law School, Prof. Stewart Jay of UNC Law School, and the Rev'd Samuel Wiley, President of the N. C. Council of Churches.

THANKSGIVING

If you know of a friend (including yourself!) who is going to be left at Carolina over the holiday, please let Bob Duncan know. There are many Thanksgiving tables in the parish with some extra seats marked "student."

The Thanksgiving eucharist is at 8 a.m. There is no 10 p.m. campus eucharist on Thanksgiving eve (Wed., 11/22). The Chapel Hill Community Thanksgiving Service is at 10 a.m. at the Binkley Baptist Church.

CONFIRMATION - Wed., Dec. 6, 5:15 p.m.

Of the thirty-seven folks who have been participating in the Inquirers' Class and in preparation for confirmation more than half are undergraduate, graduate, or professional school students (and/or their spouses). Bishop Charles Hobgood, a native of North Carolina and now retired here, will therefore administer the sacramental gift through the laying-on-of-hands to many of our friends. As many as are able might make an effort to be at the service in a ministry of support and prayer.

OFFERINGS SENT FOR WORK AMONG THE DEAF

A check for $27.77, representing the loose offering at Wednesday night eucharists from mid-October to mid-November, has been sent to the missionary to the deaf here in North Carolina for the work of the Episcopal Conference for the Deaf. The direction of the gift was suggested by the splendid concert of renaissance music at the 10 p.m. service on St. Luke's Day as a reminder of the church's oft forgotten ministry of healing among those who do not hear.

The cost is $30. Send in $10 with this registration blank. Pay the remainder by mid-January. Registration deadline is December 15th.

Two of the most distinguished bishops of the Anglican world will be visiting the Chapel of the Cross between Jan. 28 and Feb. 2.

Bishop Stephen Neill will be here on Sunday, January 28, to preach in the morning, and to spend an evening among us beginning with the 5:15 eucharist. Bishop Neill was long our foremost missiologist, he has served and taught all over the world, and he will share with us a potluck dinner and an evening of conversation relating his experience in the mission field to an apologetic for Christianity in our place and time.

On Friday night, February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple (Candlemass), and five days after Bishop Neill's visit, the Rt. Rev'd Michael Marshall, the Bishop of Woolwich, one of England's youngest bishops and among her very most outstanding (and fiery) preachers, will be here to preach and preside at Evensong. A reception will follow the service and after that an opportunity to respond to the bishop will be given. The bishop's message will be: "The Truth of God Incarnate."

ADVENT SERVICES

The annual service of Advent Lessons and Carols will be offered on Sunday, December 10 (Advent II), at both 9:15 and 11:15 a.m.

For Sundays, December 17, 24 and 31, the Chapel of the Cross will observe its university break schedule, combining 9:15 and 11:15 services to one 10 a.m. service.

Details of Christmas services and further details of the special Advent celebrations will be found in the next issues of the parish newsletter, Cross Roads.

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

The Wednesday 10 p.m. eucharists are not held during university recesses. Consequently, there is no service on the night before Thanksgiving (11/22) and none after Wednesday, December 13th, which will be the last regular campus eucharist of the term. The 10 p.m. eucharists will begin again in the new term on Wednesday, January 10, the first day of classes.

On Wednesday night, December 13th, we will have a special guest with us, the Rev'd Wayland Melton, the new chaplain at the University of Ohio at Athens, a distinguished young black priest.

Come join our growing community of love and prayer and care.

FELLOWSHIP NIGHT WITH THE CHURCHWOMEN - Mon., Jan. 8 - 8 p.m.

An evening of fellowship, folk songs, hot cocoa, and sharing is being put together to build some bridges between the student community and the Episcopal Churchwomen (ECW). The evening in the parlor (in front of the fire) promises to be a joy for all. If you don't have to register until Tuesday, get back on Monday afternoon anyway so you can join us. If you are interested in working on the planning for the night, please let Bob Duncan know.

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL - Sunday, January 28

Bishop Stephen Neill will be with us at the Chapel of the Cross on Sunday, January 28th. A remarkable man and a remarkable ministry, Bishop Neill has taught and served all over the world. He has also authored several books, including the Pelican History of Christian Missions and Anglicanism. There will be a simple eucharist at 5:15, a pot-luck supper at 6:00, and an evening of conversation with the bishop where the subject will be a "Missionary Apologetic for the 20th Century: How can we believe it? What must we say?" Bishop Neill will also preach in the morning at the 11:15 service.

BISHOP MICHAEL MARSHALL - Friday, February 2

Where will you be at 8 p.m. on Friday, February 2, 1979? Watching Carolina B-ball on the tube? Wrong. (It's not going to be televised.) How about the Chapel of the Cross? (You've probably never tried that suggestion on a Friday night date!) Why not? If you come to hear Bishop Michael Marshall preach, you will not be disappointed. One of England's most articulate and persuasive pastors, Bishop Marshall's sermon will make the case for Jesus Christ, both God and man. Evensong will be at 8, and a reception and opportunity to respond to the bishop will follow. Gamble on it.

WILLIAM MC CAULEY

The parish sexton for the past 42 years, whom most of us knew as just plain "William", died on St. Thomas' Day, 12/21/78. It was William who opened the church everyday at dawn and William who befriended the generations of Carolina students who have studied or played or met in the parish house. We shall miss him, and we shall miss his witness. Lux aeterna luceat eum, domine.

OXFAM OFFERING

The offering for Wednesday night, 11/15/78, amounted to $16.04. A check in this amount was sent to the Campus Y for inclusion in their gift to OXFAM resulting from the campus fast for world hunger. A number of our people kept the fast.

SOME WEDNESDAY STATISTICS

When the record of services for the first term is examined, these things, among others, emerge: The average attendance at the Wednesday night campus eucharist has been 34. There has been 1 student baptism and 21 student confirmations. Wednesday night loose offerings have totaled $81.38 and distributions have been made to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, the Episcopal Conference of the Deaf, and Oxfam. Besides the statistics, a lot of neat things happened in a lot of individual lives.

THE JANUARY RETREAT - Friday-Sunday, January 19-21

Twenty-two persons have registered for the Campus Ministry Retreat to Valle Crucis. There remain only five bed spaces; after that it's sleeping bags. The cost is $30. The theme of the retreat is our inhumanity to one another, yet plenty of time will be left for silence and recreation and the snow outside. Films, each other, God, and the mountains will be our chief resources.

CHANGES. WILL YOU HELP?

Here below to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often.

— John Henry (Cardinal) Newman

Our Faith is the central thing, or it is not anything at all. It constantly calls us to change and re-assess and re-direct. Epiphany is about sharing our Faith with the world. Sometimes we package our Faith in forms and daily habits which (to paraphrase more than one professional exam critique) do anything but say what we mean and mean what we say. As a community of Christian people (a people with an orientation, literally, with a star in the East), this is the area in which changes must come if the world is to see in to that thing which we do have to share.

I need your help -- your ideas, your critiques, your Faith. I see some things which need changing; together we can see many more. Whether it have to do with our care for one another, our Liturgy, our utilization of parish facilities, or our mission in the university or beyond, your Faith and its implications (the way you see the star, and the light that star sheds) will, in fact, make all the difference in the world....

THE STUDENT LOUNGE

The Student Lounge has moved one door down the hall! Hopefully, this will give us a really comfortable, more inviting study and reading space. The old "student lounge" is now the conference room (and a ready-made dining room). If a couple of folks would like to investigate opening up the old student kitchen and the possibility of some regular meals, something very good might come of it.

THE CAMPUS MINISTRY MAILING LIST & NEWSLETTER

Some may wonder how they came to receive "Biddings & Bindings". We have made an effort to see that all University students, faculty and staff who are Episcopalians or who attend the Chapel of the Cross, and that friends of the campus ministry both here and in other places receive this newsletter. Many have made themselves known to us; many have suggested the names of others. Priests and parishes "back home" have also played an important role, as have freshmen and transfer "preference" cards from the Campus Y.

If there is someone known to you whom you think might enjoy receiving these mailings or whom we have overlooked, please let us know. Also, if you have something you would like to contribute to "Biddings & Bindings", say the word only...

AN INVITATION:

THINK TANK - THIS SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 24th, 8:30 a.m.

ALL AND ANY who receive this newsletter are asked to consider coming out this Saturday morning, from 8:30 to 10:30, for a session of thinking and dreaming and building for what our ministry to one another and in the parish and university are going to be in the months and years to come.

Issues from the formation of cell or study groups to the use of the parish house to social action to special programs for graduate students to the form of our worship to community building--and everything in between--can be looked at in this forum. The agenda belongs to those who attend. So think about what you believe we should be doing--and then come and say so.

The questions are straightforward enough: What is the job, as students see it, of Episcopal Campus Ministry at Carolina? How shall we get on with that work?

"Outsiders" and "insiders" are both needed if we are to do our task well on Saturday. A light breakfast--donuts, juice, and coffee/tea--will be available from 8:00 to 8:30.

LENT, 1979

Next Wednesday, February 28th, is Ash Wednesday. The schedule of services will be:

8:00 a.m.	Holy Eucharist
10:00 a.m.	Holy Eucharist
5:15 p.m.	Holy Eucharist
8:00 p.m.	Litany & Meditation
10:00 p.m.	Holy Eucharist & Meditation

Ashes will be imposed at all services.

The Holy Eucharist will be offered daily except Saturdays during Lent. In addition to the regular Sunday services and the evening office which is said Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 5:15, and the Litany which is read on Fridays at 5:15, the schedule of communions will be:

Monday	12:15 p.m.
Tuesday	7:30 a.m.
Wednesday	10:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.
Thursday	5:15 p.m.
Friday	12:15 p.m.

A series of noonday mini-concerts will also be offered on Thursdays at 12:30 p.m., beginning after Spring Break with Thursday, March 15th and continuing through Holy Week.

A holy Lent alone leads to a happy Easter; the Resurrection cannot be known apart from the Cross.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEDITATIONS: "The Vulnerable God"

A series of meditations will be given by the chaplain at the 10 p.m. campus eucharists on Wednesday nights during Lent. The whole series together is called "The Vulnerable God" and the parts will be delivered as follows:

Ash Wednesday, Feb. 28	- "The Servitude of God"
(Wednesday, March 7	- No Service, Spring Break)
Wednesday, March 14	- "The Poverty of God"
Wednesday, March 21	- "The Humility of God"
Wednesday, March 28	- "The Foolishness of God"
Wednesday, April 4	- "The Helplessness of God"
Wednesday, April 11	- "The Vulnerable God"

The idea that God, too, is vulnerable is at the heart of the New Testament message. In the various changes that can be rung on this (what should be very shocking) theme is much through which God makes himself plain.

ON BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION IN THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The following material first appeared in a parish bulletin in Dallas, Texas, and came to Chapel Hill by way of Bishop, California. The author was Fr. Homer F. Rogers of St. Francis Church, Dallas, and his words may be helpful to those in many places.

Those who know only the Bible do not know the Bible. The Old Testament is the literature of a people. God was at work in his chosen people before there was an Old Testament in which to read about it

The New Testament was produced in the context of the Church's on-going life, written by Churchmen to Churchmen and (consult the fly-leaf of your King James) "authorized to be read in Churches." The Bible was never intended to be a book you could pass out to the atheists and heathens and have them read it and come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. The witness of the Bible itself is to the effect that Christians find Christ in the Church. In the Sacraments. In the fellowship of the faithful.

. . . The Anglican Church has three criteria for biblical interpretation. They are: (1) Completeness. We don't pick and choose. We avoid the "proof text" method. If you are going to take the Bible, take it all. [It is not a matter of] a few favorite passages which [we can] quote to support some abbreviated system of doctrine. (2) Consistency. You don't interpret any passage of scripture so as to contradict the plain meaning of any other passage. When an apparent conflict exists you have to search for another legitimate meaning of one of the conflicting passages. (3) Continuity. That interpretation which has been given it by the Church [in the past]

There are innumerable passages of scripture which just don't make sense unless they are understood in the light of the on-going daily life of the Church. An example of this: the New Testament speaks of Christian ministers as Bishops, Elders, Deacons, Prophets, Teachers, Evangelists, and several others. You would never guess from the Bible itself that there were "three orders of ministers in Christ's Church" [see the letters of Ignatius of Antioch] I am a priest, a clergyman, a pastor, a rector, a preacher--there is, however, only one of me. If you only read the references to all my titles, you might suppose that St. Francis' Church had half a dozen ministers But once you know the Church, you understand the reference. To take the Bible in hand and leap across twenty centuries of blankness, and land with both feet in the twentieth century, is to brand the Holy Spirit (who, Jesus promised, would dwell in the Church and lead it into all truth) of gross incompetence. To pretend that there have been no saints and great preachers and scholars of the Bible in the centuries gone by, is to treat the Bible not as what it is, the fountain and source of Christian life, but as a kind of magical collection of oracles with a secret meaning for me. Yes, I read the Bible. But St. Augustine and St. Thomas Aquinas read it more than I do, and were far wiser and holier than I. So I will listen to them, too.

--Fr. Homer F. Rogers, St. Francis' Church, Dallas, Texas; reprinted from The Banner
of St. George, St. George's Church, Dallas

The late Bishop Stephen Payne once wrote and was often heard to say:

Jesus Christ is God's idea of what it is to be a man.

The thought is worth pondering, and pondering for both basic senses of the word man.

INQUIRERS' CLASS - Saturday morning, 17 March, 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

The Spring Inquirers' Class will begin this Saturday with the usual intensive 3½-hour first session. The inquirers will then meet in four shorter evening sessions over the course of the succeeding weeks. (The dates for these session will be set during the Saturday meeting.)

Anyone interested in learning more about the doctrine, history, and practice of the Episcopal Church is invited to attend any or all of these sessions. More information can be obtained from the parish office (929-2193) and those who want to attend can register by calling the office. Anyone wishing to be confirmed this spring (April 22) must attend the Saturday session and three of the four evening sessions.

BACH'S LUNCH - Thursdays, 12:30-12:55 p.m.

A series of noonday mini-concerts will begin on Thursday, March 15th, and continue until Thursday, April 12th. A bag lunch is a springtime tradition in Chapel Hill. Now you can bring your Thursday lunch to the church or cloister and spend a half hour over an unhurried lunch with some spirit-lifting music to boot.

Thursday, March 15 - Music for Organ
 Thursday, March 22 - Music for Harpsichord and Voice
 Thursday, March 29 - Music for Organ
 Thursday, April 5 - Music for Organ and Trumpet
 Thursday, April 12 - Music for Organ and Cello

Come try it. Bring a friend. All "lunches" are at 12:30.

VOLUNTEERS IN THE PARISH OFFICE

If you would be interested in giving several hours a week (on either a regular or irregular basis) to staffing the parish office or assisting with parish office projects, please give Lynda Malone a call at the church, 929-2193. Lynda (Mrs. Malone) is at her desk between 9 a.m. and noon, Monday to Friday.

GRADUATE STUDENTS GATHERING - Friday, 23 March, 4:00-5:30 p.m.

-Graduate and professional school students and faculty are invited to a reception at the Parish House on Friday, March 23, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Refreshments will be served. Please bring a spouse or friend to this week's end wind-down.

THE VULNERABLE GOD - Wednesdays, Campus Eucharist, 10 p.m.

The series of Lenten meditations on the vulnerability of God continues on Wednesday nights at 10 p.m.

March 14 - "The Poverty of God"
 March 21 - "The Humility of God"
 March 28 - "The Foolishness of God"
 April 4 - "The Helplessness of God"

St. Paul says that the idea that God, too, is vulnerable is the very power of God (I Corinthians 1). Come see why.

A RUG FOR OUR LIBRARY

Thanks to Frank King and Jocelyn Pettibone (students) who posted a plea and Vivian and Barney Varner (parishioners) who responded, the Student Lounge in the parish house, which also houses the parish library, now has a rug. Thanks also to the efforts of Lois Best who has put the library back in shape and to various others through whose thoughtfulness arrangements of dried flowers have been contributed, the student lounge has been revitalized as a place both for study and for small meetings or conversation.

HOLY FAMILY UNIVERSITY FOLKS ADDED TO CAMPUS MINISTRY MAILING LIST

In an effort to continue to strengthen the ties between the two Episcopal parishes in Chapel Hill and to witness to the role of the campus ministry as servant to all the Episcopalians at Carolina, members of the Church of the Holy Family who serve or study at UNC who have not previously been receiving Biddings & Bindings should now be receiving it. We thank Charlie Miller and John Mott for making this possible.

KEN FEIT: An Itinerant Fool - Wednesday evening, April 4

Ken Feit, a professional clown, will be at Carolina during the week of April 1st. The Union is sponsoring his visit. One of his engagements --thanks to the efforts of Geoff Hoare--will be with us for a workshop on Wednesday evening of that week. Mark your calendar and watch for further details.

CAMPUS MINISTRY FOCAL GROUPS

As a result of the Saturday morning planning session held on February 24th (at which 28 planners consumed 8 dozen donuts!), seven areas have been identified as those in which the campus community would particularly like to focus its energies. The seven "focal groups" and the individuals who agreed to be the initial contact people are listed below:

Evangelism & Communication		Leave message
Stan Finch	614 Caswell St., C. H.	C of C 929-2493
The Arts
Ellison Jones	A-1 Brookside Apts., C. H.	967-1420
Worship & Sacraments
Liz Huskey	17 Colonial Arms Apts., C. H.	942-6615
Social Action
Elizabeth Cohey	206 Whitehead	933-6445
Teaching & Study

Graduate Concerns
Larry Pless	303-A Brookside Apts., C. H.	942-6062
Barbara Swain	703 N. Columbia St., C. H.	929-4553

If you are interested in seeing that something happens in one or more of these areas and in participation with planning or follow-through, please get in touch with the appropriate person or speak to Bob Duncan.

DILEMMAS OF MODERN BELIEF - Monday nights, 7:30-9:00 p.m.,
Carolina Union

The University Chaplains Association in conjunction with the Carolina Union is offering a series of classes on Monday nights. For more details speak to the chaplain or check at the main desk of the Union. (March 12-April 23)

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER AT THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

The focused drama of our redemption is at hand. In as much as anything can be the "whole story," that reality is played out now. Jesus' words from the garden echo down to every age: He asks us to "watch" while he prays. Every Christian is bound to keep that watch over these days.

Palm Sunday	7:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 5:15 p.m.
Monday in Holy Week	12:15 p.m.
Tuesday in Holy Week	7:30 a.m.
Wednesday in Holy Week	10:00 a.m., 10:00 p.m.
Maundy Thursday	5:15 p.m., 8:00 p.m. (Foot Washing)
Good Friday	noon until 3:00 p.m.
Easter Even (Saturday)	10:00 p.m. (The Great Vigil)
Easter Day (Sunday)	7:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 5:15 p.m.
Easter Tuesday	7:30 a.m.
Easter Wednesday	10:00 a.m., 10:00 p.m.
Easter Thursday	5:15 p.m.

In addition to the above eucharistic schedule, Evening Prayer is said at 5:15 p.m. every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday.

EASTER WEDNESDAY AT 10 P.M.

On Wednesday night, April 19th, the regular weekly campus eucharist will be celebrated in a very special way. As witness to and in thanksgiving for the glory and power shared by God with us in the rising of our Lord from the dead, there will be trumpet and special music and all the elements of festival we can corporately bring. Our liturgy will be offered in a special place as well: in the choir of the main church, beneath its high vaults and great Atonement Window. "Come, let us ring out our joy!"

Death is already dead, and hath nothing terrible behind its grinning mask. Like unto a slain serpent, it hath indeed its former terrifying appearance, but it is only the appearance; in truth it is a dead evil, and harmless enough.

--Martin Luther

FELLOWSHIP EVENTS IN APRIL

On Sunday, April 22 after the 11:15 eucharist, there will be a sack lunch and volleyball "encounter." Bring a change of clothes and something to eat when you come to church. Bishop John Hines, retired Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, will be the preacher at 11:15 and will administer the ancient rite of confirmation at the service.

On Wednesday, April 25 (St. Mark's Day) there will be a picnic in honor of our Seniors (and all others who will be leaving the Carolina community) at the Chaplain's house (518 North Street--3 blocks from the church). All members of the campus community are invited to attend, to celebrate, to say "farewell" and "Godspeed," to come together to look back on a good year. The picnic will run from 6 p.m. until whenever The campus eucharist will be celebrated as usual at 10 p.m. in the chapel that night.

THE YEAR CLOSES

The last Wednesday night in term is Wednesday night, May 2. This is during final examinations. The last campus eucharist of the year will be offered that night at 10 p.m.

The annual UNIVERSITY SERVICE at the Chapel of the Cross is at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, May 13, COMMENCEMENT DAY. This is an excellent and altogether appropriate time for graduates (and their families) to give thanks for the fullness of their lives during their years at Carolina. A SANDWICH LUNCH for graduates and their guests will follow the University Service immediately.

SUMMER MAILINGS AND CHANGES OF ADDRESS

Any students wishing to receive CROSS ROADS over the summer need to notify the parish office about summer addresses--even if they are the same as during the school year. A summer campus ministry newsletter will also be sent out in early August (to those whose addresses we have) with announcements about the 1979/80 academic year and particularly the various special "start-up" events where we will need your help or of which you may well want to be a part.

Call, write, or come by the parish office (phone: 929-2193).

And by thy next

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER AT THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

The focused drama of our redemption is at hand. In as much as anything can be the "whole story," that reality is played out now. Jesus' words from the garden echo down to every age: He asks us to "watch" while he prays. Every Christian is bound to keep that watch over these days.

Palm Sunday	7:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 5:15 p.m.
Monday in Holy Week	12:15 p.m.
Tuesday in Holy Week	7:30 a.m.
Wednesday in Holy Week	10:00 a.m., 10:00 p.m.
Maundy Thursday	5:15 p.m., 8:00 p.m. (Foot Washing)
Good Friday	noon until 3:00 p.m.
Easter Even (Saturday)	10:00 p.m. (The Great Vigil)
Easter Day (Sunday)	7:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 5:15 p.m.
Easter Tuesday	7:30 a.m.
Easter Wednesday	10:00 a.m., 10:00 p.m.
Easter Thursday	5:15 p.m.

In addition to the above eucharistic schedule, Evening Prayer is said at 5:15 p.m. every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday.

EASTER WEDNESDAY AT 10 P.M.

On Wednesday night, April 19th, the regular weekly campus eucharist will be celebrated in a very special way. As witness to and in thanksgiving for the glory and power shared by God with us in the rising of our Lord from the dead, there will be trumpet and special music and all the elements of festival we can corporately bring. Our liturgy will be offered in a special place as well: in the choir of the main church, beneath its high vaults and great Atonement Window. "Come, let us ring out our joy!"

Death is already dead, and hath nothing terrible behind its grinning mask. Like unto a slain serpent, it hath indeed its former terrifying appearance, but it is only the appearance; in truth it is a dead evil, and harmless enough.
--Martin Luther

FELLOWSHIP EVENTS IN APRIL

On Sunday, April 22 after the 11:15 eucharist, there will be a sack lunch and volleyball "encounter." Bring a change of clothes and something to eat when you come to church. Bishop John Hines, retired Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, will be the preacher at 11:15 and will administer the ancient rite of confirmation at the service.

On Wednesday, April 25 (St. Mark's Day) there will be a picnic in honor of our Seniors (and all others who will be leaving the Carolina community) at the Chaplain's house (518 North Street--3 blocks from the church). All members of the campus community are invited to attend, to celebrate, to say "farewell" and "Godspeed," to come together to look back on a good year. The picnic will run from 6 p.m. until whenever . . . The campus eucharist will be celebrated as usual at 10 p.m. in the chapel that night.

This is the first of the campus newsletters for the year to be sent out locally through the mails. Once each month, at mid-month, another will (God willing!) appear. The purpose is mostly forward-looking: to provide information about those upcoming events sponsored by the campus ministry or commended by its members where the feeding, healing, rejoicing, teaching and sending of God's people might be expected to take place. Now and again bits of wisdom are also shared, and that is as it should be.

If addresses are incorrect, please advise the parish office. If you know of others who might appreciate receiving this mailing, please tell us. If there is anything amiss, please help us to reform it.

Not everything will be of interest to everyone, not everything equally compelling, but hopefully each newsletter will bring each of its readers something--even if it be only a shadowy reminder that God's love continues its relentless pursuit of each one of us, even here and now.

Faithfully,

Associate Rector
Chaplain

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS - 10 P.M.

The mid-week late-night communion service which came to mean so much to so many last year is again in place for this academic year. All are welcome to come and share in the Word and Sacrament, in the hymns and fellowship. Much that is special about university life focuses in its nights and in the centers of its weeks. Offering some of those times to God and sharing them with one another can take us to places and toward joys we had never before imagined existed.

JOHN STOTT ACCEPTS INVITATION TO COME TO CAROLINA!

The Rev'd John R. W. Stott, world renowned evangelist and rector emeritus of All Souls Church, Langham Place (London), has accepted a joint invitation of the Chapel of the Cross, the Intervarsity Christian Fellowship, and the Carolina Study Center to come to Chapel Hill on November 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, 1980. Dr. Stott's visit will surely be a very significant event in the life of this whole university community.

THE UNIVERSITY CLASS - Sunday mornings, 10:20 - 11:00 a.m.

For the first time in many years there is a Sunday morning class for university people. During the first term the great themes of the Christian Faith, interpretation of Scripture, and Prayer are the concerns to be examined. Meeting in the Conference Room at the southeast corner of the main floor of the parish house, the sessions are open to any and all.

FAST RAISES SIXTY DOLLARS

Responding to a call by the Presiding Bishop, a number of graduate and undergraduate students participated in a fast on Friday, September 14th, Holy Cross Day. Nearly sixty dollars of money-not-spent-on-meals was gathered to be sent to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

"C. S. LEWIS ON STAGE" - Thursday night, October 25, 7:45 p.m. - Gerrard Hall

Tickets will go on sale next week ($1.50) for a performance of Tom Key's "C. S. Lewis on Stage." A Hal Holbrook-type production, "C. S. Lewis on Stage" has had enthusiastic responses all over the country. It is also worth noting that we will be one of the last university campuses to host Mr. Key before he begins an off-Broadway run this winter. Tickets will be available at Logos Bookstore, the Union desk, and from the parish office. A film biography of Lewis' life will be shown three days later, on Sunday, October 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the Chapel of the Cross in cooperation with Logos Bookstore.

GRADUATE-FACULTY RECEPTION - Friday, September 28, 4:30 - 6:00 p.m.

Graduate and professional school students and members of the faculty and staff are invited to a T.G.I.F. at the parish house, beginning at 4:30 on Friday, September 28. Having done this twice before and had very good responses, there is talk of making this a regular "last Friday of the month" event.

Words of the University Community at the Chapel on the Hill

ROBERT RUNCIE will, early in 1980, succeed to the chair of St. Augustine (d. 604), as the 102nd Archbishop of Canterbury. Baden Hickman, writing in the Manchester Guardian for September 16th, noted several facts about Bishop Runcie's early life and about the beginnings of his life in Christ. Runcie's father "was a keen racing man, a loveable character (a Scot) who had a profound distrust of both policemen and parsons." Sent as a youngster to a Methodist Sunday School "for sentimental (family) reasons," Runcie himself was quoted: "I escaped after two lessons!" But it was at the age of 14, suddenly moved in a direction of which the early years gave no hope, that Runcie was "enlisted to the ranks of the faithful." It seems a friend, an Episcopalian, asked Runcie to go along with him to confirmation lessons.

Bringing a friend along to worship (or Inquirer's Class) may have an effect beyond your imagining. You can almost count on it. Much of the joy of having good news is discovered in it's sharing.

Faithfully,

Associate Rector
Chaplain

INQUIRER'S CLASSES - First Session, Sunday, Nov. 11, 7:30 p.m.

Many university people have been asking of late about Inquirer's Class. Plans are now set. Sessions will be held Sunday evenings: Nov. 11, 18, Dec. 2, Jan. 13, 20. For those desiring to be confirmed, attendance at four of the five sessions will be required. Others are most welcome and will be encouraged to attend as regularly as they can. Confirmation will be at 5:15 p.m. on Epiphany III, January 27. Come build (or renew) your understanding of the Faith. (Friends, cf. Chaplain's letter above, are welcome, too.)

To register call the Parish Office (929-2193) and come at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 11.

GRADUATE STUDENT/FACULTY/SENIOR RECEPTION - 4:30-6 p.m., Friday, October 26

The monthly T.G.I.F. for graduate and professional school students and faculty and staff will be shared with the Seniors this time around. As the weekend of the 26th is the fall Senior Weekend and as we would normally be having our "last" Friday graduate affair, the graduate students steering committee thought this would be a great opportunity to include the members of the undergraduate Class of 1980 for a bit of special recognition. Dates, spouses and friends are always welcome. If some seniors are among your acquaintances, please invite them along.

UNIVERSITY USHERS

For any University students who would be interested in ushering at the 5:15 service on Sundays, there will be a meeting on Wednesday, October 24, at 3:00 p.m. in the old chapel. If you are interested but cannot attend this meeting or have questions, please call Don Youse at 933-7275.

UNIVERSITY CLASS: Part Two - "An Anglican Interpretation of Scripture"

Beginning with Sunday morning, November 4th, participants in the university class will turn attentions to Scripture, its content, formation and interpretation. The text is $3.75. The class begins at 10:20 a.m. Any who want to learn are welcome.

Christ - for Christ plays in ten thousand places,
Lovely in limbs, and lovely in eyes not his
To the Father through the features of men's faces.

--Gerard Manley Hopkins

ALL SAINTS - 1979

All Saints, "the Easter of God's people," will be observed liturgically on the following schedule:

Wed., Oct. 31 (All Hallows E'en)	10:00 p.m.	Holy Communion with Hymns
Thurs., Nov. 1 (All Saints Day)	12:15 p.m.	Holy Communion
	5:15 p.m.	Holy Communion
	8:00 p.m.	Holy Communion (Solemn) Vaughan Williams, Mass in G minor The Rev'd Robert Gregg, preacher
Sun. Nov. 4 (All Saints Sunday)	7:30 a.m.	Holy Communion
	9:15 a.m.	Holy Communion
	11:15 a.m.	Baptisms and Holy Communion
	5:15 p.m.	Festival Evensong

"REMEMBER, PROCLAIM, SERVE": The Chapel's Fund Drive

The Chapel of the Cross will be attempting to raise nearly half a million extra dollars in the next three years. The money will go to restorations, parish house modifications, and missions. What can students do? Lots. One of the things that they can do --and one of the most important things to be done--is to help to tell the story. Day in and day out the Chapel of the Cross changes lives, sometimes profoundly so. If you have a story to tell and are moved to witness a little, please set your reflections to paper and send them to "The Vestry, Chapel of the Cross, 304 E. Franklin St., Chapel Hill 27514." Giving is of many forms. A detailed discussion of our hopes for this campaign will take place on Sunday, October 28, during the education hour, beginning at 10:20 in the church, and again at 12:20.

"C. S. LEWIS ON STAGE" - Thursday, October 25, 7:45 p.m., Memorial Hall

All that needs to be said about this is: "Come!" Tom Key plays Lewis and the performance will not soon be forgotten.

Tickets are $1.50 at the parish office, Union, Logos, or at the door.

LEWIS FESTIVAL/CONTINUED - Film Documentary, Sunday night, October 28, 7:30 p.m., Chapel of the Cross

The film documentary of the life and work of C. S. Lewis, "Through Joy and Beyond," narrated by biographer Walter Hooper, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday night, October 28th, in the Chapel of the Cross. Sponsored jointly by Logos Bookstore and the Chapel, the film has won wide acclaim. Refreshments will be served at intermission.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the heav'nly strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;

The tidings which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!

CHAPEL COMMITTEE MEETS

Thirteen students, each representing an aspect or focus of the university ministry program and all of whom had been asked to serve together as a council of advice to the chaplain, met for the first time on Sunday, November 18th. At that time action was taken to request official recognition by the Office of Student Affairs for an Anglican Student Fellowship (Episcopal Campus Ministry) as an extracurricular student organization at the University. Also accomplished were the election of Phyllis McVickar Robinson (a.k.a. "Pickle") to be the group's first president.

Dean Frederick Vogler has agreed to serve as faculty advisor. The next Chapel Committee meeting will be held on Sunday, December 9, at 4:15 p.m.

DECEMBER GET-TOGETHERS

Graduate and Professional School Students are planning a pre-Christmas mixer on Sunday night, December 2nd, in the parish house, beginning at 8 p.m. All, including faculty, are welcome.

The Student Fellowship will be sponsoring caroling, a hayride, and bonfire on Friday evening, December 7th, leaving from the Chapel at 6:30 p.m. Come celebrate the end of classes for the term and the approach of the great holiday (holy-day) of Christmas.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING WORKSHOP - Saturday, January 12, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Charlie Miller, former RD for Olde Campus and a member of the Chapel's University Ministry Committee, will lead a day-long workshop aimed at developing student leadership skills. A great deal of interest has already been generated by the advance announcements of this event. In order to participate a registration form must be received. Total enrollment may have to be limited, so those who wish to participate are advised to fill out the form below and send it back promptly.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING WORKSHOP REGISTRATION BLANK

Name _____ Telephone _____

Dorm or Apt. Address _____

I intend to participate in the workshop on Saturday, January 12th, beginning at 9 a.m.
Return this form to the Chapel of the Cross, 304 East Franklin, Chapel Hill 27514.

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL - Sunday, January 27

Bishop Neill, who was our guest in Chapel Hill last January, will be returning this January to be with us again. Bishop Neill, who has retired to Oxford to teach, will preach at services in the morning and confirm at the 5:15 eucharist. A "conversation" with the bishop, of the sort held last year, will, if possible, also be worked into the special day.

INQUIRERS' CLASS CONTINUES - Sunday evenings, 7:30 p.m., Dec. 2, Jan. 13, 20

Any student interested in attending the remaining sessions of the inquirers' class is most welcome. Scripture will be dealt with on December 2nd and theology, the creeds, and Christian discipleship on January 13th and 20th. About twenty of the present thirty participants are students.

ADVENT LESSONS AND CAROLS

Sunday, December 9th, Advent II, is the date for the annual services of Lessons and Carols. The music and readings are identical at both 9:15 and 11:15.

RETREAT WEEKEND SET - February 8-10, Friday-Sunday

It will be back to Valle Crucis once again for our winter retreat. Registrations will be limited. Twenty-three students attended last year. Full details will be announced in the January newsletter, but mark your calendar now. The cost will be $37. The theme: "Life Together."

ODD JOBS AT THE CHAPEL

The Buildings Manager is considering hiring someone on a monthly basis to assist with various maintenance chores (e.g. replacing light bulbs, shoveling snow, etc.). Any student who is interested should call Mr. Lyman Ripperton at 929-4905 (home) or 966-5761 (office).

OFFERINGS

$94.95 was contributed to the OXFAM fast from the students of the Wednesday night eucharistic fellowship. In addition, $52.92 from Wednesday night offerings in August and September, was designated by the Chapel Committee to be sent to the Appalachian People's Service Organization, an episcopal agency jointly sponsored by dioceses from Albany (NY) to Atlanta (GA).

The last Wednesday night campus eucharist of the term will be held on Wednesday, December 12, at 10 p.m.

January 1980

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away." And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold I make all things new." . . . And he said to me, "It is done!" I am the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end."

Though purists will remind us that the decade--at least as Christians count decades--is not yet over (the 198th decade of the Christian era being the years 1971 through 1980, just as the 20th century of the Christian era are the years 1901 through 2000) we all have a profound urge to look both behind us and before us as the seventies turn to the eighties. Like the Roman god Janus (hence January), for a time we are equipped with two faces which look in opposite directions from the same head.

The passage quoted above from the 21st chapter of the Revelation to John is part of that marvelous word-picture concerning the consummation of God's plan (and victory) at the very end of that which we call our future. The passage is faith's assertion (and, one might add, divine revelation) about what the future holds. But read the passage with "Christians' eyes. The passage also describes--and describes precisely--what has already been done in the incarnation of Jesus of Nazareth. What might this mean to us were we to grasp it? What other assertion might follow? It turns out that God is the constant in the areas of which all pasts and futures are unfolded.

Epiphany--the season which begins with sages entering in before the Christ to offer him their self-revealing treasures and which ends with disciples apprehending a transfigured Lord in whom all time and all truth are met--is a "now" season. Christians are free to look forward and to look back and then, in confidence, to look around offering appropriate (dare we say "timely") gifts, perceiving things as they finally are--even in the midst of Herodian hatred and slaughter and of a world content with appearances of flat lives lived in but two dimensions.

Epiphany is a now season. We can take stock, repent, hope, rejoice and get on with it.

Faithfully your priest,

R. W. Duncan

THE UNIVERSITY CLASS: First Corinthians

Beginning Sunday, January 13, the University Class will turn to a study of Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. All interested should come to the Conference Room at 10:20 each Sunday morning.

WINTER RETREAT - Fri., Feb. 8 - Sun., Feb. 10, Valle Crucis

The second annual retreat to Valle Crucis will be held the weekend of February 8 to 10. The cost is $37. Scholarships are available. The theme is "Life Together." Spouses and faculty are welcome. We will leave for the mountains early Friday afternoon and return to Chapel Hill late Sunday afternoon. There are 22 bed spaces; the rest sleeping bags. (The first 22 reservations get the beds!) A registration blank is found at the bottom of this page.

LEADERSHIP SKILLS WORKSHOP - Sat., Jan. 19, 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

Charlie Miller, former residence director for Olde Campus housing, member of the Vestry's University Ministry Committee and communicant of the Church of the Holy Family, has agreed to offer a one-day leadership skills workshop for all interested students. It will be held at the Chapel of the Cross, pre-registration is mandatory (not later than Thursday, the 17th, at 5 p.m.), and the cost (to cover lunch and workshop materials) is $5.

This is a superb opportunity for everyone. Watch for information in your residence hall or call the Chapel office (933-2133) for further details and registration materials. Registrants need not be members of the Anglican Student Fellowship, but participation is limited to students. Bring a friend.

BISHOP NEILL'S VISITATION - Sun., Jan. 27

The Right Rev'd Stephen Neill of Oxford, distinguished scholar, teacher, author and preacher, will be our guest at the Chapel of the Cross on Sunday, January 27th.

Many will remember Bishop Neill from his time with us last January when he preached at 11:15 and 5:15 and then subsequently participated in a conversation with the title "A Missionary Apologetic for the 20th Century."

Bishop Neill will again preach at the late morning service (11:15) and, with the permission of our own diocesan bishop, will confirm, preach and preside at the 5:15 eucharist. Later in the evening the Bishop will speak to a group of Christian scholars on the topic: "The Christian Scholar in the Secular University." (This last event will be by invitation and anyone specifically interested should call the Chaplain or Ms. Miriam Marty of the English Department, 942-7616, messages: 933-5461.)

Stephen Neill's ministry is well known in India, Africa, Europe and North America. He is the author of the Pelican History of World Missions, Anglicanism, and, more recently, a contributor to The Truth of God Incarnate.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT EUCHARISTS DURING EPIPHANY: THE NICENE CREED

The Chaplain plans to do his series of Epiphany homilies on the Nicene Creed. The centrality of the doctrinal affirmations therein contained and their relationships to all manner of current heresies will be explored.

January 9, 10 p.m. - One God; Three Persons
January 16, 10 p.m. - God the Father
January 23, 10 p.m. - Jesus God

LOGO, NEW MASTHEAD, NEW FORMAT

The Jerusalem Cross (an ancient Christian symbol employing a Greek cross with a smaller Greek cross in each of the quadrants formed by the arms of the larger cross) has long been a symbol used by the Chapel of the Cross. By substituting a mitre in the lower left and a plain form of the seal of the University in the lower right we have attempted to express with simple graphics what we are: Episcopal Campus Ministry at Carolina. Among the representations are these: The central cross is the central cross, the cross of Jesus Christ and the dedication of the Chapel. The two smaller crosses might be seen as representations of the two Episcopal congregations which have been established at Chapel Hill, the first a pre-revolutionary chapel, the second the present congregation continuous since 1842. The mitre is a distinguishing insignia of the episcopate, of bishops, and by extension of the Episcopal (that is, the Bishops') Church. Likened to a tongue-of-fire over the head of the successors to the apostles, the mitre has, for a millennium, been worn as the liturgical head-covering for bishops.

Episcopal influence at the University pre-dates the founding of the present parish. It was this "influence" which was responsible for bringing an Episcopal priest to the University as its first chaplain and it was that chaplain who, some years later, organized the parish out of which this ministry to the University is still continued. The shield of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is a simple diagonal band with the word Lux, "light," above and Libertas, "freedom," beneath.

The masthead for Biddings & Bindings is just a printer's version of what was always there.

The switch to two column layout with reduced type-face and the appearance of a monthly calendar are changes made possible by new mimeographic equipment and access to certain other printing and copying facilities. We hope that the expanded capacity of the newsletter (without increasing paper costs) and the addition of the calendar prove good changes.

Suggestions and the contribution of materials for inclusion are always welcome.

Si comprehendis, non est dominus.

CONCERNING THE DISCIPLINE OF LENT

Lent, which is an old English word for spring, has some truly spring-like possibilities for all of us: renewal, re-birth, freshness, flowering. But none of it can happen unless we are willing to enter the bleakness and restrictedness of that winter without which spring will not come, that winter where spring begins. Souls are no different than seeds in the respect to which both need to be stripped down and passed through frozen ground before growth can come again. Both soul and seed contain all the imprint of what they were before, but they can never be new again and move unless they face the winter.

Lent is a chance for us to pass through the winter we so desperately need, in order that Lent's end can bring us spring.

Our Lenten discipline, whatever its specific individual form, must have a dual focus. The first focus is on us: self-examination--admitting to ourselves and to God just how incomplete, how near to death, how unhappy we are--and contrition--admitting how much of that state of affairs is our very own doing, our sorrow. The second focus is on the Lord of Life: private prayer and corporate worship--admitting where the answers and the good news really are, self-denying in making room for God and all those children, his images, with which he has surrounded us.

Look to the holes and ugly spots and barrenness in your life and admit it; prepare your confession and make it to a brother or sister or priest and to God; promise yourself some rule for entering God's presence--privately and corporately--every day of Lent; empty out yourself and be filled with God. Spring will come more suddenly than you know.

Faithfully your priest,

Fr. B.S.

I asked God for strength that I might achieve;
I was made weak that I might learn humbly to obey.
I asked for help that I might do greater things;
I was given infirmity that I might do better things.
I asked for riches that I might be happy;
I was given poverty that I might be wise.
I asked for power that I might have the praise of men;
I was given weakness that I might feel the need of God.
I asked for all things that I might enjoy life;
I was given life that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I hoped for.
Almost despite myself my unspoken prayers were answered.
I among all men am most richly blessed.

CLOSING OF THE OLD CHAPEL

Interior repairs to the Old Chapel will necessitate its closing for several weeks. During the restoration project the main church will be open, as the Chapel had been, from dawn until midnight. Daily services will also be relocated to the choir of the church.

SOUTH AMERICAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY CONFERENCE

March 14-16 are the dates set for the South American Missionary Society Conference for Seniors and Seminarians on opportunities for mission service in the Anglican Church in South America. If you are interested in exploring the possibility of attending or of overseas experience, see the chaplain before Feb. 22.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY ELECTS RECTOR

The Wardens and Vestry of the Church of the Holy Family have elected the Rev'd Gary Fulton to be the next Rector of the parish in the Glen Lennox section of Chapel Hill. Holy Family, like the Chapel of the Cross, ministers to many in the University's permanent community. Fr. Fulton will be coming from Grosse Point, Michigan, about March 1st, and we all look forward to the beginning of his work among us.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CAMPUS EUCHARISTS CONTINUE AT 10 P.M.

A READING WORKSHOP: "The Public Reading of Scripture"

Martha Nell Hardy of UNC's Speech Department will lead a two-hour workshop for those concerned to improve their skills in the public reading of Scripture. Saturday, February 16th, is the date: coffee and donuts at 9:30, workshop sessions from 10 till noon, at the Chapel. This opportunity has been arranged especially for university layreaders, but others are most welcome. To register call Linda Mackie in 205 Joyner at 933-4201 or (if no answer, at Malcolm Grigg's room) 933-7204.

SEMINAR ON CHRISTIAN ECONOMIC RESPONSIBILITY

Mr. Robert Lavelle of Pittsburgh will lead two seminar sessions from 9:30-11:30 a.m. and 7:30-9:30 p.m. on Saturday, February 9th, in Gerrard Hall. The topics are "Christ, the Lord of Business" and "Biblical Principles and Practical Economics." Sponsored by the Carolina Study Center, further details are available on the main bulletin board of the Chapel or from the Center (P.O. Box 2737, Durham 27705).

VALLE CRUCIS RETREAT

Many spaces still remain for our retreat to the mountains of Western North Carolina. The cost is $37. Scholarships are available. The theme is "Life Together." Departure will be at 2 p.m., Friday, February 8th, and return at 5 p.m. on Sunday, February 10th. Noon on Monday, February 4th, will be the last day registrations can be received.

ASH WEDNESDAY

All Episcopalians should make their communion, if possible, on Ash Wednesday. (See schedule above.) For those who want a closure to their Ash Wednesday discipline, participation in the WAY OF THE CROSS, at 10 pm, might well be considered as a focused summary.

Opportunity for CONFESSION and/or SPIRITUAL COUNSEL will be afforded throughout the day. A priest will be on duty in the choir of the church from 6:30 am until 5 pm (except during and for the 15 minutes preceding each of the scheduled communions) and again for one hour following the Way of the Cross at 10 pm.

ADDITIONAL LENTEN OFFERINGS

BACH'S LUNCH AND BOOKS LUNCH

Bach's Lunch (pronounced "box lunch"), now in its third semester, has given birth to another midday offering at the Chapel, Books Lunch, fathered by Dr. Jeff Loomis of the English Department (who is also the warden of the actors and poets group of St. Gregory's Guild). Jeff envisions the series as one of literary "presentations"--dramatic, musical, and expository. Books Lunch will be inaugurated on Tuesday, March 11th, at 12:30. Bach's Lunch returns the next day, Wednesday, March 12th, at 12:15. Bag lunches are welcome during all programs.

TRIP TO WILLIAMSBURG -- March 21-23

The Anglican Student Fellowship/Episcopal Campus Ministry is organizing a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia for March 21-23. We will be the guests of the Episcopal student group at William and Mary. They have planned several activities, including a tour of Williamsburg and an Episco Disco. Bring your sleeping bags for sleeping in the parish house. We plan to leave at 2 p.m. on Friday and return on Sunday after their 11 a.m. service. Sign-up deadline is the Wednesday before the trip, March 19, after the 10 p.m. service. For more information call Jeff Murph, 933-2872, or Mary Ann Hendrickson, 967-5242. Give the form below to Bob Duncan, Jeff, or Mary Ann.

SPRING INQUIRERS' CLASS

Inquirers' Classes will be held again beginning Sunday night, March 16, at 7:30, and continuing on March 23, April 13 and 20. Inquirers' Class is an opportunity for everyone to learn more about his or her faith, and it can be used as an introduction to the Episcopal Church or as a refresher. It is also--for any who want to be confirmed this Eastertide--the required preparation for confirmation. Call the parish office to register and come at 7:30 Sunday night.

COUNSELING PROJECT ON NATIONAL SERVICE

Confused about your values and your responsibilities concerning registration for selective service and the draft? A group of professors, students, and priests are willing to help with values clarification exercises and discussions for small groups in residence halls or campus associations. If interested, call the Chapel, 929-2193.

GROUP EXAMINES GRADUATE NEEDS

Meeting informally, the Graduate Student Concerns group seeks to identify the special needs which distinguish graduate and professional students from undergraduates, and to encourage involvement in the church. The group's chairman, Barbara Swain, invites suggestions for new ideas and directions; call her at 929-4553.

The following are excerpts of the House of Bishops' Pastoral Letter issued from the 66th General Convention of the Episcopal Church which met at Denver this past fall. The words seem particularly appropriate in the midst of this Lent.

This is our mission: to be in the world as communities and outposts of the light of Christ as he uses us. We are humble that he would make us useful. We too are in the world. Fear we know. Greed we acknowledge. Calousness we confess. But in the name of Christ we claim his mercy and repudiate in ourselves and in the social order all that hinders justice, peace, and a sensible possibility of life.

We repudiate in ourselves and in the social order the despair that locks us into a prolonged dependency on fossil fuels. Petroleum supplies are limited, but not human ingenuity nor the fidelity of God. . .

Most of all, we repudiate in ourselves and in the social order the secular seductions of a consumption-addicted economy. We see in the rising tide of social disenchantment a mounting hunger for a sense of the loving mystery that undergirds and beckons the human pilgrimage.

We rejoice to hear other voices joining our own in calling for faith and encouraging hope. Good science points beyond science to the mystical. Einstein told his friends:

"The most beautiful and profound emotion we can experience is the sensation of the mysterious. It is the sower of all true science. (Anyone) to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer wonder and stand wrapt in awe is as good as dead."

The highest aspirations of the human heart in every field of human endeavour find their satisfaction in the Gospel we serve. No matter that the night is dark. No matter that the road is long. The world in its secret heart hungers for the message we bear. We proclaim it because it is true. And we are heartened to know that humanity is deeply built to welcome the truth we speak. To dare the Christian mission is to contend with evil, but we wield the weapon of God's love, and all whom he conquers yield joyfully.

Be of good cheer. The Lord of life has overcome the world. Our travail borne in faith will take the shape of his triumph.

HOLY WEEK 1980

Lex orandi, lex credendi: the law of prayer [determines] the law of believing. So wrote St. Augustine (d. 430) in an attempt to describe the process by which the Christian family actually articulates its doctrine. The community prays; in the midst of that prayer has an experience of her Lord; then writes "creedally"--in words, as articles of faith--about the truth the fellowship of believers has discovered at prayer.

Holy Week is the annual opportunity to pray into the deepest truth about God and the central mysteries of our individual and corporate salvation. Holy Week presents to us a call to discover the truth by praying.

It is all to be acted out again:

- triumphal entry
- cleansing of the temple
- the betrayal
- last supper
- the washing of feet
- agony in the garden
- the arrest
- denials
- arraignment before the chief priests
- the confrontation with Pilate
- scourging and mocking
- the cross: seven words, agony, earthquake, defeat
- the entombment
- the Sabbath rest
- the resurrection from the dead
- appearances to the faithful

The opportunity comes once more for us all to pray through it together, and praying through it to see the truth, and seeing the truth to be (as St. John suggests) made free.

August/September 1980

WELCOME HOME!

To those first coming to university, home seems like the last word one would ever use to describe this new place. The feelings are those of loss and loneliness, of uncertainty and insignificance, of fear and of not-fitting.

But a transition begins, imperceptibly at first. Then there come the first vacations, and what used to be home does not seem quite the same anymore. Then the summers come and go, and college chaplains begin to get letters--from the sophomore working in his father's mill, from the just graduated senior interning in a foreign country, from the junior who cannot find a good summer job--letters written "home" to one who is still in that once-upon-a-time fearful place that has now become home.

May God bless us all as we again renew the process of growing together into this home, this place of learning and discovering, of accepting and loving, of transition and of hope.

Faithfully your priest,

Chaplain

ORGANIZATIONAL SIGN-UPS

Acolytes, musicians, actors, lay readers, and workers of all kinds will find, during August and September, frequent announcements of opportunities for information on and incorporation into various chapel groups. The effort will begin with leaders of many organizations available after each service on Sunday, August 24th. Thereafter, watch the Sunday bulletin weekly for details or stop in on the chaplain.

ANNUAL Anglican Student Fellowship OPENING EVENT

Sunday, August 24th -

- 5:15 Holy Eucharist with Hymns (St. Bartholomew's Day)
- 6:00 Cookout on the Lawn (food provided)
- 6:30 Organizational Sign-ups
- Volleyball
- Tours of the Campus Center/Parish House

A FACULTY-STUDENT KEG PARTY (Shocking!) IS PLANNED FOR FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26th, AT 8 P.M. WATCH FOR FURTHER DETAILS.

THE UNIVERSITY CLASS - Ephesians

This year's university class will begin with a consideration of Paul's Letter to the Ephesians. The class meets Sunday mornings at 10:20, beginning Sunday, September 7.

CAMPUS ADDRESSES - PLEASE HELP!

A major task each year is the correction of our master student mailing list. You can help us very much by filling out the addresses and program information listed below, detaching same, and mailing it or bringing it to the parish office.

SATURDAY BREAKFASTS

Beginning Saturday, August 23rd, under the culinary supervision of Charlie Miller (former Olde Campus R-D), the Chapel will sponsor an experimental series of Saturday breakfasts. If you are up and hungry and want to meet a mix of people from around campus, come by the Parish House between 10 a.m. and noon.

THE FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL & ALL ANGELS

The Chapel will celebrate Michaelmas this year with a festival eucharist at 8 p.m. on Sunday, September 28th. William Byrd's Mass for Four Voices will be performed.

WASHINGTON PILGRIMAGE - October 2nd, 3rd, 4th

An ecumenical student pilgrimage to Washington Cathedral, with the theme "Suffering and Hope," will draw 1,000 students from all over the eastern United States. Several of the chaplaincies at Carolina will be participating. The cost will be about $30, including everything. Registration information will be available at the Wednesday night campus eucharists (10 p.m.) and from the parish office.

OUR FELLOWSHIP OF LIFE

Two students, one a freshman from Halifax, England, and the other a sophomore from Ahoskie, North Carolina, died during the first weeks of term this year. Martin was buried in the churchyard. Lee was buried down home. Each death touched many here in this place where physical death so rarely comes.

Amidst the fear and the hurt and the loss, in communities of friends very different from one another, that one thing which stood out above all the rest and which quite literally overwhelmed every tragic element confronted was the awesome power of love given and received: of love in the liveliness and affection of the two young men themselves, of love poured out by the mourners in binding one another's wounds, of love by God whose resurrection-will made sure the defeat of darkness and death.

We live in a fellowship of life, one which has movingly shown itself to be so committed to life (and life's Lord!) that death can be faced and danced away from, raised by love and love's Lord.

We do well to give thanks for the marvelous gifts known in this place, particularly for each other, living and dead, our treasure in earthen vessels.

Faithfully your priest,

Chaplain

JOHN STOTT

On November 1st, John Stott will arrive in Chapel Hill to begin a three-day preaching and teaching mission among us. One of the most able apologists and evangelists ministering in our world today, Dr. Stott will lecture in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings and will preach at both 9:15 and 11:15 services in the Chapel of the Cross on Sunday, the 2nd, All Saints' Sunday.

Brochures and posters of the various events will be available on the tables of the church and from the parish office. The visit of this very special guest (and priest of the Church of England) should prove an opportunity for this campus of unequalled promise.

UNIVERSITY DAY, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12

The 11:15 service in Sunday, October 12th, will be offered with special prayers for this university and its new chancellor. Chancellor Fordham will be installed in academic ceremonies at 2 p.m. that afternoon.

THE UNIVERSITY CLASS

BE TEMPTED THIS FALL by the University class study of Genesis, a book rich with stories, promises, questions. Beginning on Sunday, October 26 (the Sunday after Fall Break), we will consider the problems Genesis poses, the questions it raises, the insights it offers. Come join us in the library from 10:20 to 11:00 a.m.

On Sunday, October 5 and 12 we will continue our discussion of Paul's Letter to the Ephesians. Newcomers are welcome to join our discussion of this brief but abundant epistle.

Miriam Marty and Alan Carpenter

THE MID-MONTH SUPPER

The mid-month supper of the Student Fellowship will be held following the 5:15 eucharist on Sunday, October 12th. It's spaghetti night. Come and bring a friend. For fifty cents, it can't be beat...and the company's not bad either...

PRE-SEMINARY GROUP FORMING

The Rev'd Manuel Wortman of the Wesley Foundation has called a meeting for Sunday night, October 12th at 7 p.m., for those thinking about divinity school who would enjoy meeting monthly to share issues, concerns, and hopes. The gathering will be at the Wesley Center on Pittsboro Street and any who are interested are welcome.

ELIZABETH COBEY, '80

Elizabeth Cobey, just back from her summer internship in a medical mission in Zaire, will be with us to talk about her experiences on Wednesday night, October 29. Elizabeth will be available from 9 to 10 p.m. to talk with individuals who are themselves considering a mission venture. At 10 p.m. we will share our campus eucharist and offer it for the mission of the Church. Following eucharist, Elizabeth will show slides and speak with us about her work and the work of the Church in East Africa.

INQUIRERS' CLASS

Classes for those interested in learning about the Episcopal Church as well as those considering the possibility of Confirmation, begin with a Saturday morning session on October 25th, from 9 to noon. (Those who come can leave their cars in the lot for the home football game which follows!)

Register by calling the parish office, 929-2193, or by coming on the 25th. Subsequent sessions will be on Thursday nights in November. Confirmation is Thursday, December 4th.

INCARNATION AND HOPE

Sometimes things get more than a little discouraging in the middle days of the autumn term. The warmth of the air is gone and the gardens and trees foreshadow their winter barrenness. The pressures of "What am I going to do with my life?" mount irrepressibly (perhaps it's the prospect of the trip "home" for Thanksgiving or Christmas where "justifications" seem inescapable) and the sadnesses of broken and lost relationships seem more overwhelming in this fragile time of year. There is a temptation to withdraw, to yield to despair, or, worse, cynicism, to harden just as the ground is hardening.

All Saints' breaks into this with a powerful, wonderful, redeeming message. We may not be good enough for ourselves, or for our friends or loves or parents, but we are good enough for God. The message of All Saints' is that God's chosen way of working in time and history is through individual, sinful, broken, hurt, lonely, uncertain men and women. Intrinsicly we may not be much, but we are what God values, and in that valuing there is no limit to the possibilities life holds or to its hopefulness. We already are--have--all that is required for sainthood; all we need do is accept it. Ask: "Who has changed the world?" "How has the kingdom come?" It has been the Peters, Francis-es, Mother Theresas--who knew they were nothing in themselves but every-thing in God's eyes--that have done it. Their humanity is ours.

A second thing All Saints' tells us is that, because God has chosen to do it through us (and in Himself when He became one of us) and because God's righteousness and love cannot, will not, be long thwarted, it would be disastrous indeed for us to follow nature into winter. All Saints' makes it clear that life's warmth, its work, its value, its hope is in one another--not in things--and that if we would find God's love and human wholeness, it is already at hand in one another, in all of us together who are the chosen loves of God. Following the ground into frozenness would be a terrible thing. The lasting monuments on the road to the kingdom--those of the Peters, Francis-es, Mother Theresas--have been the monuments built, not of stone, piled, but of lives shared.

Remember the hymn: "And I want to be one, too!"? The All Saints' good news is that it is happier, easier, lovelier, nearer, than we had thought or imagined.

Faithfully your priest,

R. W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

WILLIAM AND MARY TO VISIT

Not the King and Queen, of course, but the present membership of the Canterbury Association of "their" college! Please welcome them among us and watch for details of events our fellowship will be scheduling for them.

AN ELECTION NIGHT CONVENTICLE - Tuesday, November 4, 10 p.m.

A fire in the hearth, popcorn, multiple TV's for election results, and the best of company will be available in the parish house on election night from 10 p.m. until whenever. A conventicle is a secret religious meeting in contravention of the authority of the state: we shall likely be that, too. Everyone, Anglicans and others, are most welcome.

FESTIVAL EUCHARIST IN THE OCTAVE OF ALL SAINTS, Wednesday, November 5th, 10 p.m.

The Ars Cantores of the University will offer William Byrd's Mass for Three Voices as the service music at the campus eucharist on November 5th at 10 p.m. Come sing and celebrate the solemnity of all the saints!

GODSPELL AUDITIONS will be announced and held during NOVEMBER. Watch for details, or for further information please call Art Turbyfill, 933-1531.

ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP WINTER RETREAT

Friday-Sunday, January 16-18, Valle Crucis, N.C.

The Annual Retreat to Valle Crucis is set for January 16, 17, 18, 1981. Mark your calendars. Thirty spaces are available for the weekend in the mountains. Registration forms will be included in the December newsletter. Registration deadline will be December 15th. The cost will be $39 per person; scholarships available.

OXFAM FAST - November 19-20

Each fall the Anglican Student Fellowship cooperates with the Campus Y in raising funds through a FAST FOR WORLD HUNGER. The offering at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist on the Wednesday of the fast (Nov. 19) is given to the "Y" effort. Many fasters choose to make their gift through the Chapel by bringing their gift to the altar that night. November 19th is also the commemoration of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, a most worthy patroness for the occasion. Details at the Campus Y.

THE RIGHT REV'D JOHN WALKER, BISHOP OF WASHINGTON

Conversation, 4 p.m.; Evensong, 5:15 p.m.--16 November

Bishop John Walker of Washington will preach at Evensong on Sunday, November 16th. He will also hold an open conversation with students preceding the service, beginning at 4 p.m. in the parish house. Bishop Walker is the chairman of the Urban Bishops Coalition, a Black who grew up in Detroit, and one of the leading figures in our church today. The mid-month potluck supper for November will follow.

WORLDLY HOLINESS

There is, I think, a growing holiness here. It is a worldly holiness. It is precisely the kind of holiness God asks.

Daily, this pastor sees more and more incidences of individual and corporate response to the Gospel in patterns which seek not to escape the world (with its injury, alienation, uncertainty and sin) but to serve and heal those in it, and not with cheap words but with acts of humble care: roommates and friends themselves ministering to their troubled acquaintances and easing access to priest or physician; students "booking" in the Parish House bothering to listen to the wandered-in alcoholic or distraught penitent; a Wednesday night eucharistic congregation responding to a single appeal for hunger relief by placing over two hundred dollars in the offering plate; word of a springtime Third World mission greeted within ten days by over thirty applicants and inquirers...

A worldly holiness: that is how Jesus came into things, how God chose to give himself to us and reveal his full will. Advent, which looks to the end of things (the Second Coming) and, at the same time, to the center of things (Christmas), is upon us now. Its call is to this worldly holiness by way of preparation. Surely the saints and angels rejoice with us in the preparing already begun and growing.

A holy (and lovely) Advent to you all.

Faithfully your priest,

R.W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich,
yet for our sake he became poor,
so that by his poverty we might become rich.

LITURGY OF THANKSGIVING AND DEDICATION TO MARK THE PRESERVATION OF THE CHAPEL, THE RENOVATION OF THE CHURCH AND PARISH HOUSE, AND THE INSTALLATION OF THE ORGAN
Monday, January 19, 1981 - 8 p.m. - The Feast of the Confession of St. Peter

A festival thanksgiving service will be offered on Monday night, January 19, at 8 p.m. in the church. The Bishop of North Carolina will hallow and set apart the many alterations made in our buildings and will bless and dedicate the new organ. The Rev'd Will Spong, professor in the Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest (Austin) will preach, and the rector will be the chief celebrant at the eucharist. The Senior Choir will sing and many guests and visitors will be with us. This liturgy focuses a great moment of renewal for our parish, campus and community, and is a proper time of rededication and praise to the God who has given us so very much in this place.

MID-WINTER RETREAT - [THIS WEEKEND] - 16-18 January

Twenty or so students (including three of our friends from the College of William and Mary) have signed on to head out to Valle Crucis [this] Friday afternoon, January 16. If any others would like to join us, the cabin has space for several more. The theme is "Hunger: Mind, Body, Spirit." Call the parish office (929-2193) or chaplain up until 5 p.m. on Thursday.

SPRING BREAK AT WORK IN HAITI

Twenty graduate and undergraduate students and five staff will work at a village medical station in Haiti for ten days in March. Repairing hurricane damage, assisting with clinic work, involvement in the parish and parish school are among the things to be done. Applications and further information are available at the Chapel. The cost of the trip is borne by individual participants and sponsors. The deadline for application is February 15th.

OFFICERS OF THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP FOR 1981

In the annual December elections, the following were chosen to offices:

Inquirers' Class for Adults (which also serves as confirmation preparation) will be held on Sunday mornings during the education hour from February 1st 'til Palm Sunday. This is an excellent opportunity to learn about and question the Christian Faith and the Episcopal Church. For further information and to register, call the parish office (929-2193).

To that wonderful fellowship here who through adoption have become one family:

ADOPTION AND THE EYES OF OUR HEARTS:

A Sermon for the Feast of the Holy Family
(The Second Sunday After Christmas) 4th January 1981

Jeremiah 31:7-14, Psalm 84, Ephesians 1:3-6, 15-19a, Matthew 2:13-23

The Word was made flesh and He dwelt among us: Alleluia.
In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:
Amen.

Hark! a voice from yonder manger. Soft and sweet, doth entreat: "Flee from war and danger! Brethren, come from all doth grieve you, You are freed; All you need I will surely give you."

Come, then, let us hasten yonder! Here let all, Great and small, kneel in awe and wonder! Love him who with love is yearning! Hail the star that from far bright with hope is burning!

--Hymn 32, stanzas 2, 3

Believers see the world differently than non-believers. All of us, of course, experience the very same reality, but believers are free to perceive patterns and purposes in the events of their lives--even in the daily events--and believers are able to act out of a hope and, what is more, a trust which transforms the nature of the decisions they make: these are perceptions and transformations the non-believer cannot know.

St. Paul in the opening of his Ephesian letter celebrates God's adoption of believers to be His own sons and daughters, and Paul offers a prayer on behalf of all those who read his letter: "that the eyes of your hearts [may be] enlightened" (v. 18). Believers have eyes in their hearts as well as in their heads [minds]: that is the Image St. Pauls uses to describe the difference. All human beings see with their minds; believers see with their hearts as well. This is where the difference in the perception of reality comes; it is also where the transformation of reality comes. All humanity has access to the power of the mind; only the believer has access to the power of the heart as well. Paul, in his prayer, calls this latter power, this power of the heart, "the immeasurable greatness of God's power in us who believe" (v. 19). For believers, reality is interpreted through both mind and heart (in Paul's metaphor through two sets of eyes): non-believers are left to mind alone. It is the difference between the isolated human intellect and the intellect warmed by [directed by, sometimes even on fire with] love.

As many of you know, the Duncan family went North for Christmas week to spend some time with relatives and rest a bit. On the way back to Chapel Hill yesterday Louise Elizabeth announced that she wanted by person today to be on guardian angels. On Friday, you see, [just two days ago] we all--even the family dogs and a friend--had been in what might have been a ghastly automobile accident. The passengers were each stretched out asleep on seats in our van, so they were not belted in. Only I was awake, driving. Then there was a sudden patch of ice, and a skid, and our VW turned completely around and rolled over (first on the side, then on the roof), hit a tree, came to a stop. We had been traveling at 50 m.p.h. All four of us, and our two dogs (hardly insignificant creatures) picked ourselves up from the roof of the car and walked out the inverted doors of the vehicle. Louise Elizabeth had remained asleep until awakened by being told to put her shoes on. The best intellect can do with that situation is sense a word or two about good luck together with some theories from physics and from physiology as to how all escaped without injury.

Louise Elizabeth said: "Daddy, preach on the guardian angels." Louise knew the full truth. Believers perceive reality differently than do others, and that perception transforms all subsequent reality. The eyes of the enlightened heart can see free the eyes of the mind to know things as they really are. For the believer there are the possibilities not only of physical laws but also the deeper possibilities of the love of God (which is, after all, the ultimate law of the cosmos). Quite unlike what the non-believer would contend, Christian men and women--and Christian children--see not a simplistic and cheap explanation, but rather a far more complex and (at the same time) far more integrated reality. Believers alone are able to speak of a universe.

The gospel lesson (as with both the Ephesians and Jeremiah passages and the gradual pain) for this Second Sunday after Christmas, this Feast of the Holy Family, is all about this believer's way of understanding and of action: about the hope and trust which come from the heart's knowledge that God, in His love (in his heart), has adopted us for his own. We are told the story of the Flight into Egypt. The story (in the second chapter of Matthew) is, of course, chiefly St. Joseph's story, but, as truly, it is of our story, too. There is the evil and jealous ruler, the slaughter of innocent victims, a defenseless child, the demands of protecting and providing for the family, the difficult journey, the loss of everything, the repeated uprootedness, the waiting, the uncertainty, the plans that don't work out (even in the return home). Then, too, there are the wise ones who interpret events--even stars--and discern between people--even fleeing--despotic Herods--who follow love's purposes in the world and seek them out above all other treasures, just as do the Father and the mother and the faithful God of the story.

The believer's story is known in St. Joseph's. [And to refer to the modern story I told, only the believer could make the connections when told we purchased our van last St. Joseph's Day.] To paraphrase the psalm:

Though we go through the desolate valley, we find it a piece of springs. (Psalm 84:5/6) or with Coverdale, happy are they who going through the vale of misery use it for a well.

The believer's story is known in St. Joseph's story. The believer hears voices in the night. The believer is free to look at dreams as parts of the connectedness of reality. The believer has been liberated to the point where he can see the host of angels that surround him and can hear them sing their Glorias, as well as receive their greetings of quiet and safe deliverance. The believer, as the psalm says, can know happiness by "setting his heart in the pilgrim's way" (84:4). The believer knows that any loss can be endured for love's sake: that nesting in the altar of God will be enough (84:2). The believer is able to hope, and, what is more, to trust, for above all else he knows that God has adopted him. With Jeremiah, sitting in the besieged city Jerusalem whose collapse and destruction is imminent, long years before it ever comes to pass, can proclaim:

For thus says the Lord:
"Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
"The Lord has saved his people...." (Jer. 31:7)

God is toward us, as Joseph was toward his son. That is the affirmation of the believer. It is the "immeasurable greatness of the power" with which "the eyes of our hearts have been enlightened." It is the perception which distinguishes the believer from the non-believer and it is this perception which transforms all the rest. Even Herods can be got 'round and Egypt becomes, not dead-ends, but mere detours along the way to the ultimate and certain victory of God.

God is toward us, as Joseph was toward his son. That is the saving good news of the Feast of the Holy Family: the central perception and transforming power at work in the believer. For what we must observe, finally, about Joseph and his Holy Child is that Joseph's relationship toward Jesus was no more than adoptive. Joseph, after all, was not Jesus' father by blood, but only by will and by love. Jesus was not Joseph's child by the eyes of the mind (intellect knew better), but only by the eyes of the heart (and the heart knew best).

We are God's children by adoption, by the action of God's heart, his love. And as with Joseph's protection, care and nurture for the infant Jesus, being children by adoption is all we need. But being children by adoption is harder to see, impossible for the eyes of the mind alone to know. Yet accepting that this indeed is the reality--this adoption of us by God--is all that stands between believers and non-believers, between hearing the angels and never seeing them, between understanding that we are all brothers and sisters fed at one Lord's table or forever making war, between salvation and destruction.

Focused on the Holy Family and on the adoption by which we too become its members let us pray this day with Paul that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ,

the Father of glory,
may give (us all) a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of our hearts enlightened, that (we) may know what is the hope to which he has called (us), what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe.

Amen.

SHORT CUTS

C283.09
C46

In his "Vision of John Bunyan" C. S. Lewis writes:

Many do not believe that either trumpets "with melodious noise" or the infernal den await us where the road ends. But most, I fancy, have discovered that to be born is to be exposed to delights and miseries greater than imagination could have anticipated; that the choice of ways at any cross-road may be more important than we think; and that short cuts may lead to very nasty places.

Sometimes it is the lessons in support of which we have the most abundant data that we have the hardest time grasping. Our lives are full of tales of failed short cuts: short cuts with honesty or in relationships, short cuts toward happiness. Nations try short cuts, too, and it is instructive to note that in all the Iranian-American tragedies of these last months and years it was the peaceful, plodding, persevering course--not the way of short cuts--which alone gave a good end.

God took no short cuts in his loving of us. In Jesus that love was full, complete and free. We do not need to trouble ourselves so much with discerning whether our short cuts are right or wrong: we can simply observe (and observe in our own individual lives) that short cuts--of any sort--do not seem to work very well. Then, perhaps, we shall really be able to get on with the loveliness and joy of life--both for now and at the end.

Faithfully,

R. W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

EDUCATION - Sunday mornings - 10:15 a.m.

I. INQUIRERS' CLASS

Beginning Sunday, February 1st, our rector, Peter Lee, (from time to time assisted by other clergy of the parish) will lead the spring term Inquirers' Class. As an opportunity to examine the basics of the Christian Faith and the peculiarities of the Episcopal Church, this forum is hard to beat. Serious content together with discussion shaped by the questions of participants makes this course one of the most popular in the parish. The class is mandatory for those wishing to be confirmed and is open to all others, university age and above.

II. ADULT FORUM

The offerings in the adult forum for February are as follows:

- | | | |
|-------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------|
| Feb. 1 | · Evil and the God of Love | · Chap. Peter Keese |
| Feb. 8 | · A Christian Looks at the Nation | · Prof. J. D. Barber |
| Feb. 15, 22 | · Issues in Childhood | · Dr. Brian Stabler |

The sessions are open to all and run simultaneously with the Inquirers' Class.

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL - Sunday, February 8

Our good friend Bishop Stephen Neill, Oxford's senior scholar in residence and world renowned teacher and missiologist, will be at the Chapel from Saturday, February 7th, through Tuesday, February 10th. The bishop will preach at Morning Prayer (11:15) on Sunday and will speak at 7:30 p.m. Sunday night on the topic: "Church Unity and Mission in the 20th Century." Bishop Neill will be available at other times for consultation. If you are interested in talking individually or in a group with our distinguished guest, please contact the chaplain.

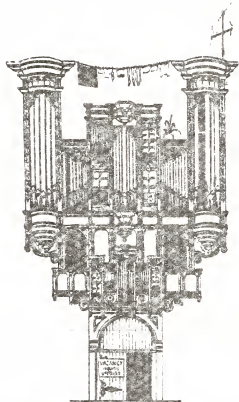

HOG WILD - Sunday, February 15 - 6-7:30 p.m.

A barbecue dinner will be served in the parish house on Sunday evening, February 15th, beginning at 6 o'clock. Members of the Anglican Student Fellowship will be sponsoring the meal in order to raise additional scholarship funds to aid the twenty students going to Haiti at spring break. Tickets ($3.75) will be on sale in advance from the parish office and between morning services on Sundays. The dinner will be eat-in or take-out and the mid-month campus fellowship meal will coincide in order to support the Haitian efforts. Anyone willing to help in preparing or serving the meal please contact Karen Kirchman, 929-5769. We are promised both a good meal and a worthy cause.

HAITI FUND-RAISING

The MGM's guess--there were 1682 of them--netted the scholarship fund over $130 (which, at 10¢ a guess, was a laudable achievement). Additionally, $96.18 was netted from the sale of cards at Christmas. Furthermore, many "home" parishes have voted hundreds of dollars in support and several local parishioners at the Chapel of the Cross have generously offered scholarship aid.

DR. WYLIE S. QUINN WILL OFFER AN ORGAN RECITAL ON SUNDAY, MARCH 1st, AT 4 P.M.

BACH'S LUNCH

BACH'S LUNCH - Thursdays, March 19-April 23

Bach is back, at lunch anyway, beginning the Thursday after spring break. Concert time will be 12:30. Come eat, hear the new Kleuker, relax, reflect.

GODSPELL - Thursday-Saturday, March 26-28

Godspell is now in rehearsal for production after spring break. There will be four performances, including a Saturday matinee. Tickets will be $2. Mark your calendars. The cast is outstanding. Dean Johnson is music director. Further, we are delighted to announce that Norman Ussery, of the Carolina Regional Theater, has accepted appointment as director.

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS CONTINUE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHTS AT 10 P.M. EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO SHARE IN THE PRAYER AND SONG AND REFRESHMENT OF THIS VITAL FELLOWSHIP.

RECONCILIATION

To be reconciled: it is the heart of the church's message and promise. To be brought back into harmony, to be at peace with, (literally) to be re-united--with one's self, with one another, with our God. Were we to think about it, we would admit that there is no gift (no state of affairs) for which we more long.

The Bible begins with a story about a community at peace with itself (where there is no fear, no recognition of nakedness), a community set in a garden [Gen. 2-3]. The Bible ends with the vision of another community--this time a whole city with more inhabitants than can be numbered--which is likewise at peace, reconciled. And the Bible's central moment is of a very present harmony established by an act of complete love transforming any who will accept it,

"Is not this what I require of you as a fast; to loose the fetters of injustice, to untie the knots of the yoke, to snap every yoke and set free those who have been crushed?"

Is it not sharing your food with the hungry, taking the homeless poor into your house, clothing the naked when you meet them and never evading a duty to your kindfolk?"

Then shall your light break forth like the dawn and soon you will grow healthy like a wound newly healed" Isaiah 58:6-8 making the garden and the city a present reality in the midst of a meal where that peace is perpetually recovered [the eucharist].

Lent offers us the opportunity to be reconciled: reconciled to our selves, at peace with one another, re-united with God (through our Lord by the power of the Spirit). It is the heart of the church's message and promise, and it is available now to any who will have it. Come, be reconciled: taste and see, that the Lord is good.

Faithfully your priest,

R.W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

THE HAITI MISSION - March 5-15

Twenty-two undergraduate and graduate students, two doctors and two priests will spend ten days on the island of Hispaniola in a small coastal village. They will staff a medical clinic and dental clinic and will provide labor for the reconstruction and extension of hurricane-damaged facilities in the village. They will live and work and worship with their Haitian brothers and sisters. The members of the mission team have raised more than ten thousand dollars to make this work possible, and gifts have been received from congregations and individuals as far away as California. In addition, thousands of dollars in medical supplies have been donated. Please pray for the team members and for their safe return.

BACH'S LUNCH - Thursdays, 12:30-1:00 p.m., Beginning March 19th.

Back again is Bach's Lunch. This series of free noonday concerts provides the university community with an opportunity to bring a sack lunch to the church (or picnic to the cloister), to eat, reflect, listen in peace, and to hear the offerings of some of the area's finest musicians. The newly built and dedicated Kleucker organ, a 71-rank mechanical action instrument built in West Germany, will be the centerpiece of this spring's series. The series will continue every Thursday, through Easter Thursday, April 23rd, 1981.

BROTHER JUSTUS RICHARD, S.S.F. - March 25th-28th

Wednesday, March 25th, is the Feast of the Annunciation. For hundreds of years it was observed as New Year's Day, since it could be seen as the beginning of the Incarnation: the conception of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit at the message of the angel Gabriel to Mary. Brother Justus, an Anglican Franciscan and former college chaplain on the West Coast, will be our preacher at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist that day. Brother Justus will then begin a three-day mission among us. He will be available for spiritual direction on Thursday and Friday and will be much in evidence on campus.

THERE WILL BE A POTLUCK SUPPER SPONSORED BY THE STUDENT FELLOWSHIP ON SUNDAY, MARCH 29, FOLLOWING THE 5:15 P.M. LITURGY. FIFTY CENTS (CHEAP!).

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE PHILIPPINES? - Sun, March 15, 6 p.m.

What is happening in the Philippines? Will the Pope's visit start another Poland? Come find out all about it from well-informed natives. The Martin Luther King, Jr. Chapter of the Episcopal Peace Fellowship will have a catered Philippine dinner with program by Linda Adriano and the Friends of the Philippine People. Linda made a recent return study tour with other members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and also entered several other trouble spots in Southeast Asia. The dinner is $3 or more if you are able. Please send in reservations by March 13th noon, to Lillian Brinton, 942-6750 or write 12 Davie Circle. See you in the church dining room at 6 p.m. on March 15th.

EDUCATION - Sunday Mornings - 10:15 a.m.

- I. INQUIRERS' CLASS: An opportunity to examine the basics of the Christian Faith and the peculiarities of the Episcopal Church; taught by the Rector, Peter Lee.
- II. REPENTANCE, GROWTH, COMMUNION: This series will provide an opportunity for meditation and reflection on these stages of growth. Centered on Biblical texts, the program each week will consist of an introductory talk, reading of the text, a period of meditation, and conversation to gather together our various experiences. Suggestions for continuing devotional practice will be provided. Nancy Reynolds Pagano is the leader.
- III. ST. PAUL'S EXPERIENCE OF THE LIFE OF CHRIST: A study of Romans, chapters 4-8; James Mansfield is the conductor.

WYLIE S. QUINN, ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER OF THE PARISH, WILL GIVE THE INAUGURAL RECITAL ON THE KLEUKER ORGAN AT 4 P.M., SUNDAY, MARCH 1st.

GODSPELL

GODSPELL - April 2,3,4, Thurs, Fri, Sat, 8 p.m. & Sat. 2 p.m.

Tickets for the St. Gregory's Guild spring production will go on sale March 16th. All tickets are $2, available at the Carolina Union Desk, the Chapel office, and Logos Book Store.

Godspell in song, and mime, and words is a vibrant presentation of St. Matthew's Gospel. The power and energy of the work are inescapable. The show is being presented as an opportunity for both seekers and believers to be challenged anew by the questions our Lord long ago set before the world.

FOOLISHNESS

April is the month of foolishness. Our month will begin with clowns acting, singing, and dancing out the Gospel according to Matthew in the form of the popular musical Godspell. The show begins with the fool Christ confronting the worldly wise from Socrates to Sartre and ends with his death, which turns out to be the cost of that confrontation. After Godspell, a week passes, then comes Holy Week and the greatest and most direct of all the statements of the foolishness of God: which foolishness turns out to be His utter love for us. And then we celebrate the finally foolish thing: Easter, love's victory.

Enter this month's foolishness: let go, be awestruck, discover that God's foolishness is true--truer than anything else there is, true wisdom--our hope, our love, and our salvation here and now.

Faithfully,

R.W. Duncan, Jr.

A REMARKABLE YEAR

The 1980/81 academic year has surely been one of great grace: From the fifteen hundred people who came out to hear John Stott at All Saints to the thousand who witnessed Godspell in Lent, from the Washington Pilgrimage to the Haiti Mission, from the five students baptized in second term to the twenty-five (students, staff and faculty) who were confirmed during our two episcopal visitations, from the renewal of all the parish buildings last summer to the thousands who have made use of them for worship, reflection, music, study, meetings, fellowship and recreation since that time, from the many whose lives have been reshaped through the gentle ministries of one or another of our people to the few whose deaths tested us and our commitments to each other and to hope . . . In our own ways and with our own words and out of our own experiences many depart this fellowship at year's end with a personal appreciation of that most ancient apostolic affirmation (It dates from the first Easter night): "We have seen the Lord!"

St. Laurence (martyred, A.D. 258), demanded by imperial persecutors to produce the wealth of the Church (he was the steward of the community), gathered together the people of Rome proclaiming: "Here is the church's treasure." Not only have we seen the Lord this year, but we have also seen the extent of our remarkable treasure, you and me and all our brothers and sisters in this place.

Go well and safely,

R. W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

YEAR-END GET-TOGETHER AND PICNIC - Monday, April 27, 6:30 p.m.

The annual year-end picnic will be held Monday night, April 27th, at the Chaplain's home. Hamburgers and hot dogs are provided, along with beverages. Seniors do not need to bring anything. Faculty and other students should bring a side-dish, salad, or dessert. Festivities begin at 6:30; the house is at 518 North Street, "behind" the Public Library on Boundary and to the left at North.

EXAM ALL-NIGHTERS AT THE CHAPEL

As has become our custom, the parish buildings will be open 'round the clock during exam period. We will attempt to keep coffee and hot water in sufficient supply for everyone. The kitchen in the student commons will also be available for any who want to take advantage of a stove. Further, for those whose preparation requires some dissipation volleyball on the lawn and foosball in the youthroom should prove sufficient distraction.

A CELEBRATION OF THE FEMININE IN GOD - Thursday, May 7, 5:15 p.m.

As part of the commemoration of Dame Julian of Norwich a special eucharist will be offered on the eve of her feast with readings from this remarkable 14th Century mystic. Come experience a part of the richness of our heritage with words from an inspired woman who witnessed to the reality of the Christ who is "our Mother."

SUMMER MAIL

Biddings & Bindings is not published during the summer months. If, however, you would like to receive the regular parish newsletter, Cross Roads, during the summer, we would be happy to add you to that mailing list. If you would enjoy Cross Roads, please drop your summer address by the parish office.

A PICNIC FOR ALL ACOLYTES (University and Parish) WILL BE HELD AFTER THE 11:15 LITURGY ON MAY 3RD. FOOD PROVIDED.

COMMENCEMENT DAY - May 17

Graduates and their families are cordially invited to share in the Sunday eucharists on Commencement Day. Appropriate prayers in thanksgiving will be offered at both 9:00 and 11:15 services. Graduates and their guests are also welcomed to share in coffee and pastries to be provided by the University Ministry Committee in the fellowship hour between the liturgies (from 10:00 to 11:15).

THE HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP

Applications are now being received for the HELEN BADHAM HOUSE AND HENRY CHARLES HOUSE, JR., Scholarship to be awarded for the academic year 1981-1982, administered by the Chapel of the Cross. The Scholarship was established in 1975 by the will of the late Helen Badham House and is named in memory of Mrs. House and her husband, the late Henry Charles House, Jr. Recipients must be able, needy students who attend or will attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and must be Episcopalians. The amount of the Scholarship for the 1981-82 academic year is $1000. Deadline for applications is Friday, May 8, 1981. Detailed instructions on how to apply will be sent upon request to the parish office, 929-2193.

BIDDINGS & BINDINGS

This newsletter begins its fourth year. More than twelve hundred faculty, staff, and students at Carolina now receive this communication each month. The purpose is primarily future- and present-directed; future, in that "B & B" announces what is ahead and "bids" people to the opportunities for fellowship, service, education, healing or worship thereby offered; present, in that it is a tangible and practical means of "binding" this huge community together in some common words and thoughts.

We are bid and bound to one another as Anglican Christians in this University. Friends, histories, experiences, questionings have tied us into this peculiar community--common because, among other things, we all receive this little piece of paper. May our sense of call and of mutuality, by our Lord's grace, grow more and more as our days increase.

Faithfully your priest,

The Rev'd R.W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

BEGINNING SEPTEMBER 25TH, A EUCHARIST WILL BE CELEBRATED FOR THE FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS OF THE FIVE SCHOOLS OF THE HEALTH AFFAIRS COMMUNITY EVERY FRIDAY AT 7:15 A.M. IN THE CHAPEL OF MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

SATURDAY BREAKFASTS

Between 9 and 11 a.m. each Saturday morning the University Ministry Committee of the Chapel of the Cross is sponsoring "free eats" for students of the university. No program, apart from the opportunity to meet new people (including some faculty), is involved and all who receive this newsletter, together with roommates, friends, pets (so far three dogs have attended!), etc. are most welcome. Special thanks go to Prof. Jean DeSaix of Zoology, Prof. Larry Rowan of Physics, and Dr. George and Mrs. Pokey Doak for engaging in the ministry of the griddle...

BISHOP HULSEY - Sept. 30, 10 p.m.

The Right Reverend Sam Hulsey, the Bishop of Northwest Texas (and father of Ashley Hulsey of the Junior Class), will be the celebrant and preacher at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist on the 30th of September. Our observance that night will be of the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels. After the liturgy the bishop has offered to stay for our fellowship time to engage in a question and answer session or general discussion. Mark the calendar!

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS ARE AT 10 P.M. WEDNESDAYS. THESE LITURGIES AND THE CONVERSATIONAL TIME AFTERWARDS ARE THE PRIMARY WEEKLY GATHERING OF THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP. NEWCOMERS AND FRIENDS FROM OTHER TRADITIONS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME.

FR. DANIEL BERRIGAN WILL SPEAK IN MEMORIAL HALL ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29TH, AT 8 P.M.

NEW YORK PILGRIMAGE - October 9-11

Charlie Miller, former RD for Olde Campus, will lead the Anglican wing of an ecumenical group from Chapel Hill in joining with students and young adults from all over the East in a weekend whose theme is "Suffering and Hope." Brothers and sisters of the French ecumenical community of Taizé will guide the New York Pilgrims in a very special experience. Call Charlie, home: 929-7267; and work: 942-6600, for details.

MR. TOL BROOME OF THE JUNIOR CLASS WILL BE THE PREACHER AT THE ANNUAL DIOCESAN ACOLYTES FESTIVAL TO BE HELD IN DUKE CHAPEL, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 10:30 A.M. Our congratulations and our prayers are with him in the discharge of this remarkable honor and responsibility.

CORPORATE WORSHIP IN THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

Eucharists: Sunday, 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m., 11:15 a.m. (2nd & 4th Sundays, Morning Prayer), 5:15 p.m.

Tuesday, 7:30 a.m.; Wednesday, 10:00 a.m. & 10:00 p.m. (campus);

Thursday, 5:15 p.m.; Friday, 7:15 a.m. (Memorial Hospital Chapel)

Evensong: Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

Evening Prayer: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 5:15 p.m.

ADULT EDUCATION

The following offerings are presented in the parish's Carolina Institute of Christian Studies. Call the parish office (929-2193) for more details and to register.

HEBREW WITNESSES TO GOD'S REVELATION, taught by Nancy Pagano, M.Div., Th.M., meets at 10:15 a.m. Sundays, Sept. 13-Nov. 1, in the parish house conference room.

PATTERNS OF BELIEF, led by the Rev. Dr. John Westerhoff and the Rev. Dr. Robert Gregg, both of Duke Divinity School, meets at 10:15 a.m. Sundays, Sept. 20-Oct. 25, in the old chapel.

INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN MEDITATION, led by Nancy Pagano, meets at 3:30 p.m. Sundays, Sept. 13-Oct. 18.

GEORGE HERBERT AND THE ROOTS OF ANGLICAN SPIRITUALITY, led by the Rev. Dr. John Wall, meets in the conference room on Sundays, Oct. 25, and Nov. 1, 8, and 15 at 4 p.m.

TAKING THE BIBLE SERIOUSLY, taught by Dr. John Schütz, meets at 10:15 a.m. Sundays, November 8, 15 and 22, and December 6, in the old chapel.

INQUIRERS' CLASS - Sundays mornings, 10:15-11 a.m., Oct. 4-Dec. 13

Classes for those interested in learning about the Episcopal Church as well as those considering the possibility of confirmation begin on October 4th after the 9 a.m. eucharist. The Chaplain together with the Associate Rector for Parish Ministry, Dan Riggall, will lead the course. Register with the parish office in advance (929-2193) or by coming to the session on the 4th.

Hell is the enjoyment of our own way forever.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE WORK OF THE CHAPEL

Among the various guilds, organizations, and projects directed out of the Chapel are the following:

THE GUILD OF ST. GREGORY THE GREAT has three chief divisions: actors, singers and instrumental musicians.

Art Turbyfill (118 Lewis, 933-1531) is the actors' warden; plans are in the works for a fall drama and spring musical. Bruce Graver (942-4270) is the choir warden and is attempting to develop the guild singers toward new music in addition to the Anglican and Gregorian chant prepared each week for Sunday evening.

The position of warden of instrumental musicians is open: anyone interested in serving as coordinator in this area should petition the chaplain, Bob Duncan (929-2193, 942-8943). All artists--whether actors, singers, instrumentalists or of other disciplines, from dance to poetry to studio arts--are invited to investigate guild membership.

THE ACOLYTES' GUILD integrates university students and young people of the parish church in a ministry of service at the altar. John Ager (19 Old East, 933-6032) is university master.

UNIVERSITY LAYREADERS, under the leadership of Sherry Eaton (P-9 Kingswood, 929-6361), prepare the lessons and intercessions for the mid-week campus eucharist and for certain special liturgies. Opportunity for Sunday reading is coordinated through the head parish layreader, Mr. Barney Varner (933-6863).

BIBLE STUDY AND PRAYER GROUPS are facilitated through the efforts of Chip Swearngan (34 Old West, 933-8645). THE SPRING MISSION--last year 21 undergraduates spent spring break in a rural village in Haiti--is already in the planning stages and Petey (Anne Louise) Bailey (105 Pickard Lane, 967-8499) is the mission officer of the Anglican Student Fellowship.

CAMPUS OUTREACH concerns are led by Ken Mitchell (N-8 Old Well Apts., 967-2323).

TEACHING MINISTRIES and educational programming are coordinated by Alan Carpenter (T-5 Kingswood, 929-5108).

SOCIAL MINISTRIES volunteer work and local service projects are coordinated with the Campus Y and the president of the Anglican Student Fellowship, Pickle (Phyllis McV.) Robinson, (942-1833) is currently seeking someone to serve as coordinator in this area.

THE FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE, which provides refreshments, meals, greeters, hayrides, volleyball and the rest always needs helpers; contact the steward, Chip Swearngan (34 Old West, 933-8645).

SHORTCUTS TO INTIMACY

There are no shortcuts to intimacy. It is a truth our human nature would do well to apprehend, but this seems the kind of learning which comes to us slowly, painfully, often much too late--for some, never at all. Still, there are no shortcuts to intimacy.

The forms of intimacy are easy enough. Whether it is our culture's insistence on a first-name basis in all relationships no matter how superficial, or the voyeuristic and one-sided way in which the communications industry lets us "know" the famous and the troubled, or our society's false hope that somehow a physical nakedness together will keep us from being lonely, it is readily apparent to any and all of us--when we do the least bit of introspection and of circumspection--that seizing the forms of intimacy is not at all the same thing as having the substance of it. We are an age seduced into believing that repeatedly claiming the forms of things will gradually yield for us the substance associated with those forms: has any of us found that it is so?

Intimacies may be come at only gradually. Hard work is required. Painful and appropriate acts of self-disclosure only slowly lead to the real substance of intimacy. A sense of mystery and awe regarding the other will always be present. Whether it is our relationship to God or to any (and all) of our brothers and sisters on this earth the message turns out to be the same: there are no quick fixes.

Faithfully your priest,

BISHOP JOHN HINES - Sunday, October 25th, 9 and 11:15 a.m.

The Right Reverend John Hines, former Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, now retired to North Carolina, will preach at 9 and 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, October 25th. His topic will be stewardship.

1982 CANVASS

The annual stewardship campaign of the Chapel of the Cross is now underway. The amount needed to be raised from pledges is $250,000. Each year many students make decisions to help support the ministry of the Chapel: that help is needed as much now as ever. Pledge cards are available on the tables at the back of the church buildings and from the office. Ask yourself whether there is any better way to spend your money than on the kinds of things you see our parish doing on this campus. And also remember that the giving of talent, energy and time is important, too: if you have these to offer, contact Mrs. Malone in the chapel office or the chaplain.

THE WISDOM OF C. S. LEWIS: An Introduction to His Philosophy

Under the auspices of the Carolina Study Center, H. Brent McKnight--one of our own household--will be offering a course which looks into the major premises upon which C. S. Lewis constructs his powerful arguments in support of the Christian faith. The course is taught on Tuesdays at the Chapel of the Cross beginning October 27th; registration is through the Study Center (1-286-5587).

ALL SAINTS DAY - Sunday, November 1st

All Saints Day falls on a Sunday this year. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:30, 9, and 11:15 a.m. and at 5:15 and 8:00 p.m. The 8 p.m. celebration will be solemn, the choir will sing Josquin des Pres's Missa Pange Lingua, and the chaplain will preach.

SATURDAY BREAKFASTS CONTINUE IN THE STUDENT COMMONS FROM 9 TO 11
EACH SATURDAY MORNING.

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL - November 1st

The Association of International Students on the UNC campus is sponsoring an International Festival on November 1. This is to be a campus/community event. If anyone would like to participate in either exhibits or the talent segment, please contact Dwight Duncan at 933-7745.

CHRISTIANS & HUNGER - A Bread for the World Seminar - November 13-15

A weekend seminar beginning at 7 p.m. on Friday, November 13, is being sponsored by North Carolina Bread for the World. Speakers will include Arthur Simon, founder of Bread for the World, Andy Loving, co-editor of Seeds, and Robert Bratcher, translator of the Good News version of the New Testament. Registrations are being handled through Binkley Baptist Church (942-4964) and co-sponsors of the seminar include the University Chaplains' Association and the Chapel of the Cross.

PROF. GERALD UNKS - Student Dinner, 6 p.m., Sunday, November 15th

Prof. Gerald Unks will speak his mind and heart as a Christian teacher to the first of our quarterly dinners for the year on Sunday, November 15, in the Commons of the parish house, beginning at 6 p.m.

OXFAM FAST - November 18-19

Each fall the Anglican Student Fellowship cooperates with the Campus Y in raising funds through a FAST FOR WORLD HUNGER. The offering at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist on the Wednesday of the fast (Nov. 18) is given to the "Y" effort. Many fasters choose to make their gift through the Chapel by bringing their gift to the altar that night. More information is available from Ms. Petey Bailey, the almoner of the ASF, or from the Campus Y.

THE ASF PRE-EXAM HAYRIDE is scheduled for Friday night, December 4th. Mark your calendars.

THE ANNUAL WINTER RETREAT TO VALLE CRUCIS is scheduled for Friday-Sunday, January 15-18. There will be thirty spaces; registration deadline will be December 15th (forms will appear in the next Biddings & Bindings; the cost will be $40 with some scholarship help available.

CORPORATE WORSHIP IN THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

Advent 1981

Ubi caritas et amor, deus ibi est.

"Wherever charity and love are, there is God."

How true it is! In the last fortnight I have seen it over and over again. Several times in recent days individuals or groups of students have come to find me; they have come distressed over the sufferings, troubles or sorrows of their fellow students; they have come wanting to reach out, wanting to find some way to help, wanting to find some way to say they cared. In every case there has been thought and prayer and, then, action, too.

What I have seen--what so many of us together now have seen--because of this caring and loving, has been the transformation of lives, the exchange of ashes for gladness, of hurt for joy. There has, of course, been conversion, too. Our Lord, as he promised, has been right in the midst of it.

The truth is that there is no stronger preaching or evangelism anywhere to be found to the God who is love, than the self-less (often wordless) love of those who reach out to their brothers and sisters in times of woe and crisis: no agenda, no cheap answers, only a willingness to go there where the pain and disorder are.

If we would convert the world, we do best to recall that it is our arms patterned after the bleeding, embracing, out-stretched arms of Jesus that hold all the words and wisdom we shall need. For it is true, wherever charity and love are, there God is surely found.

Faithfully and fondly,

R. W. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

SHADOW BOX · A drama by Michael Cristofer - December 3, 4, 5 - 8:15 p.m.

A provocative play examining the attitudes of those who are dying and of those who care about them will be presented by the Actors of St. Gregory's Guild on the evenings of December 3rd, 4th and 5th at 8:15 p.m., and as a matinee at 2 p.m. on Sunday, December 6th. A discussion with the actors will conclude each performance. Tickets are $2.50, available in advance or at the door. The opening performance will be a benefit for Triangle Area Hospice, an organization whose goal is to make it possible for the terminally ill to die at home.

ANNUAL WINTER RETREAT - Valle Crucis, N.C., Fri.-Sun., January 15-17

The annual retreat to the mountains will be held the first weekend of the new term. Departure from Chapel Hill will be at 2 p.m. Friday with return by 5 p.m. Sunday. The weekend is a time of reflection, growth, quiet, fellowship, and fun. The cost (which includes everything) is $40. Some scholarship help is available. The deadline for registration is Monday, December 14th.

NOMINATION & ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Every Episcopal student at Carolina as well as any other student who attends the Chapel of the Cross is eligible to nominate, be nominated, and vote in the annual election of a President, Steward (pastoral care officer) and Almoner (mission officer). Nomination forms are on the back tables of church and chapel, and nominations are open until Tuesday, December 1. Polls are open from Wednesday, December 2, to Wednesday, December 9. Please give some thought and prayer to this important matter of nominations, and please be sure to vote.

ORGAN RECITAL - Monday, November 23, 8:15 p.m.

Charles Krigbaum, University Organist and Professor of Music at Yale University, will play a major recital on the Chapel's Kleuker organ on Monday, November 23rd, at 8:15 p.m. Featured will be works of J. S. Bach, G. F. Handel, and Max Reger.

SPRING MISSION PROJECTS - March 4th-14th, 1982

A sixteen member team will travel to the village of Montrouis in the Republic of Haiti during spring break. At the same time another group will go to a coal-mining region of Tennessee. Both teams will be engaged in medical, building, social and teaching services. Both teams will live in community during their time away. All costs of travel and food are borne by participants or are supported by gifts of families, friends, and home churches. Those considering participation in either project should contact the chaplain before Christmas.

ASF CHRISTMAS & NOTE CARDS

Christmas cards featuring a detail of the Great West Window of the Chapel of the Cross (The Madonna and Child with Shepherds, Sages, and Prophets) are available at 20 for $4. Campus note cards, which might make inexpensive gifts, are available at 10 for $2.50. Proceeds of the sale of these cards go to the Spring Mission Projects.

BACH'S LUNCH - Thursdays in December at 12:30

- Dec. 3 - Marilyn Grubbs, soprano
Mozart, Exultate Jubilate
(with instruments)
- Dec. 10 - Thomas Bloom, organ
- Dec. 17 - Henry Woodward, organ

Bag lunches are welcome in the church during these free noonday concerts.

ANNUAL HAY RIDE - Sunday, December 6, 6:30-9 p.m.

The date for the annual hay ride has been shifted to the Sunday night before reading day. The ride begins with advent caroling in Glen Lennox and concludes after a cold drive through the country with a bonfire and hot refreshments. Dress warmly!

ADVENT LESSONS & CAROLS - Sunday, December 13, 9 & 11:15 a.m.

The annual service of Advent Lessons & Carols will be offered at 9 and 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, December 13th.

Put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we wake or sleep we might live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

NO LONGER AFRAID

Doubt is not the opposite of faith. Fear is.

Doubt is the opposite of certainty. Scripture and Christian Tradition do not ask certainty. They ask faith. Revealingly, the basic Old Testament word for faith is one which is most completely translated by the English word trust. "I believe in God" becomes, literally, "I trust God."

The gospel is an address to human fears. Its consistent message is "fear not." The Biblical anthropology understands human nature so well as to avoid any attempt at proving God, for human beings are finite, limited, passing--and certainties are not in their grasp.

Christmas bids us "come and see." Epiphany bids us "go and tell." Before we can "go and tell" we have first to understand the nature of the story and of our hearers. Doubt is not the central human problem, fear is. Certainty is not the purpose of the Incarnation, trust is.

Preaching the gospel does not mean addressing people's doubts. It means addressing their fears. It is not a matter of convincing others that God exists, but something radically different: that God can be trusted. That is why gospel means "good news." That is why the angel's greeting to the shepherds is "Be not afraid." That is why the risen Lord's own words are "Fear not." That is also why any preaching that plays on fears is demonic, that attempts to prove God is irrelevant, that frees people from their alienations is truly Biblical.

The gospel message is that we do not have to be afraid any more. This is the only good news and must always be the substance and the center of anything we might say about faith or about our Lord Jesus Christ, who loved us and gave himself for us that we might come to trust in God's good will towards us, good will long ago announced by Christmas angels.

Faithfully your priest,

R. W. Duncan, Jr.

THE CHRISTIAN STRUGGLE - Wednesday night homilies for Epiphany

Epiphany is about light in a dark world. We are called to live as becomes that light. Yet, living as a Christian in a terribly disordered era is no easy undertaking. (It is assuredly uncertain: see above!) The Wednesday night homilies at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist will attempt to focus on some of the harder aspects of the struggle for our day. The dates and meditation topics are:

- January 13 - "Sin"
- January 20 - "Chaste in an Age of Abuse"
- January 27 - "Pacific in a Violent World"
- February 3 - "Unfinished Amidst Calls to Perfection"
- February 10 - "Trusting in a Fearsome Place"
- February 17 - "Grace"

ANNUAL MID-WINTER RETREAT - January 15-17, Valle Crucis, N.C.

Several places still are open on the annual student retreat to the mountains. The cost is $40. The theme is deepening one's spiritual life. Growth, fellowship, quiet, learning, free time, and the out-of-doors are all promises to participants. If interested, call the chaplain or the parish office (929-2193) as soon as possible, but not later than noon on Thursday, January 14th.

THE MAILING LISTS OF THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

Biddings & Bindings is sent to more than nine hundred students at the University. Many faculty, staff, alumni and friends also receive this monthly campus ministry newsletter. Any who wish to receive the mailing, but do not presently, can be added by notification to the parish office. Additionally, Cross Roads, a biweekly parish newsletter, is received by many who receive the campus newsletter. Inclusion in the Cross Roads mailing list can also easily be arranged through the parish office for any so desiring.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

In the annual election of officers of the Anglican Student Fellowship of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill the following persons were duly chosen to serve for 1982:

Arthur Edward Turbyfill, Jr. - President
 Robert M. Royalty, Jr. - Steward
 Mary Louise Eller - Almoner

SUNDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES - January 17, 7 p.m.

A free showing of Franco Zefferelli's Brother Sun, Sister Moon, will take place on Sunday evening, January 17th, at 7 p.m., in the parish house. The EYC will provide refreshments. All are welcome.

SPRING MISSION PROJECTS - March 4/5-14, 1982

Information about the proposed work projects at Dunn, Tennessee, and Montrouis, Haiti, is available on the back table of the Old Chapel and from the parish office. There will be but 16 spaces in each group. Participation is not limited to Episcopalians, but life in both groups will be centered as an Anglican community. Last year 27 participated in a 10-day experience in the Republic of Haiti.

EPISCOPAL VISITATIONS - January 20th, February 7th

The Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser, the Bishop of North Carolina, will be present to preach and confirm on Wednesday, January 20th, at 5:15 p.m. The Right Reverend Stephen Neill, senior scholar in residence at Oxford University and frequent visitor to the Chapel of the Cross, will preach and teach among us on Sunday, February 7th.

HAVING DONE WITH GUILT

Of all the emotions I encounter in the lives of human beings none is more tragic than guilt. Guilt destroys whole lives. Indeed, perhaps the greatest of all the sorrows of priesthood are experienced in coming to know those who have literally torn themselves apart with guilt about some long ago and far away act, or with guilt about some present part of them that they have, in terror, borne alone.

Invariably, guilt has to do with secrets. Human beings don't do well with secrets--not good ones or bad ones. (Just ask a child to keep a secret . . .) Human beings are communal, social creatures. Secrets divide; secrets destroy. And it turns out that secrets divide and destroy not only communities, but individuals as well.

Jesus came to put people back together, to heal them, to restore them to wholeness, both as communities and as individuals. One of the truths the Church early learned was that the sharing of our secrets with each other was the practical means by which our own personal fragmentedness would disappear, the practical means to have done with guilt.

Lent approaches. It is pre-eminently the season of reconciliation. If some kind of guilt is tearing you apart at your very center, why continue in this self-inflicted suffering? Your priests will be in the church and chapel for confessions and counsel all day on Ash Wednesday, symbolic of their availability at all other times and of the shared role of all your Christian brothers and sisters in this "chiefest" act of human healing. There are, of course, no "quick fixes," but even the rudest of beginnings will attest the truth of the means to life herein offered.

Faithfully,

Robert Wm. Duncan, Jr.
Chaplain

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL - Sunday, February 7

Bishop Stephen Neill, Oxford's senior scholar in residence and world renowned teacher and missiologist, will be with us on February 7th to preach at the 11:15 Eucharist, to engage in a "conversation" at 4 p.m. in the Parlor, and (hopefully) to offer the homily at the 5:15 liturgy. Come hear this good friend of our parish!

INQUIRERS' CLASS - Spring Session, Sunday mornings, 10:15 a.m.

Inquirers' Class begins anew the first Sunday of February. All those interested in learning more about the Christian faith and the Episcopal Church are invited to participate. Any wishing to be confirmed must take the class. The possibility of offering an evening session of the class also exists. Those who cannot attend on Sunday mornings but would like to have the opportunity of joining an Inquirers' Class should contact the parish office or one of the clergy immediately.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING IS ON FEBRUARY 23RD, SHROVE TUESDAY, BEGINNING AT 7:30 P.M. A PANCAKE SUPPER PRECEDES THE MEETING AT 6 P.M.; TICKETS REQUIRED IN ADVANCE.

ASH WEDNESDAY 1982 - February 24th

Eucharists are at 7:30 and 10:00 a.m., and at 5:15 and 8 p.m. Spiritual direction and counsel, together with the church's rite of reconciliation, are also available throughout the day from the parish clergy, who will be fairly continuously on duty in the church and chapel. The day is ended at 10 p.m. with the ancient devotion known as the Way (Stations) of the Cross.

SPRING MISSION FUND-RAISER

QUICHE DINNER - Sunday, February 21, 6-7:30 p.m.

A quiche, salad, and French bread dinner, prepared by our own Caleb King (chef extraordinaire), will be served in the parish house on Sunday, February 21, beginning at 6 o'clock. Members of the Anglican Student Fellowship are sponsoring the meal to raise scholarship funds for the Haitian and Appalachian Missions over spring break. Tickets are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children. Tickets will be on sale in advance from the parish office and on Sunday mornings at coffee hours. The dinner will be eat-in or take-out. Anyone willing to help should contact Mary Louise Eller at 968-0240. We are promised both a good meal and a worthy cause.

OTHER SPRING MISSION FUND-RAISERS

Bake sale tables in front of the Campus Y on Monday, February 8, and in front of the Union on Monday, February 15, will be operated in support of our spring missions. Note cards featuring two Chapel-related scenes are also presently on sale at 20 for $4. Please support these efforts if you can.

PERMANENT STUDENT MISSION FUND

Because so many undergraduate and graduate students are now beginning to think seriously about participation in some foreign or domestic short-term mission/assistance activity, the Chapel of the Cross has begun soliciting gifts to a permanent STUDENT MISSION FUND. This fund will be available as a source of aid to those doing one of the Chapel's spring mission projects, a summer intern project such as Student Training in Mission (STIM), and other similar outreach works. We need all the support we can get: no gift is too small. Please make checks payable to "Chapel of the Cross; Student Mission Fund."

ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES ABOUND AT THE CHAPEL OF THE CROSS. CONSULT THE SUNDAY LEAFLETS, THE PARISH OFFICE, OR THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION BULLETIN BOARD IN THE MAIN HALLWAY.

LENT 1982

For all the days of Lent between Ash Wednesday (February 24th) and Maundy Thursday (April 8th), the Eucharist is celebrated daily except Saturday. In addition to the normal weekly schedule, liturgies are added at 12:15 p.m. on Mondays and Fridays. A complete listing of the Lenten schedule of services and other offerings will be available from the back tables of church and chapel nearer the beginning of Lent.

No one knows how much holiness has been lost to the Church because brothers fail to share with brothers the secrets of their hearts.

THE CENTRAL MYSTERIES

HOLY WEEK begins with PALM SUNDAY, April 4, and steadily builds toward the FEAST OF THE RESURRECTION, Easter Day, April 11. In these days, the central acts of the Christian gospel are recapitulated. Holy Week is an invitation to enter into the death and resurrection of Jesus here and now. Those who agree to participate in these central mysteries of the Faith come away very different for having done so: this is a promise our tradition speaks with assurance. The Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus leave no beholder untouched, unmoved, untransformed.

4th-11th April, 1982

CHAMPION OF EXPERIENCE
"Faith, intellectually regarded, begins as a hypothesis awaiting verification. The verification is found, if at all, only by experiment, the experiment of life. And for the most part, those who make the experiment with thoroughness find the hypothesis verified so that faith passes from the stage of dependence on authority to the stage of empirical assurance."

William Temple became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1942. In a tragically brief tenure, and despite ill health, he helped draft principles to settle World War II. He died in 1944.

TWO BY TWO (A Musical by Richard Rodgers & Martin Charnin) - 8 p.m. April 15, 16, 17

The Actors of the Guild of St. Gregory the Great, following on last year's outstanding production of the musical Godspell, will produce Two by Two on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of Easter Week, April 15, 16 and 17. Tickets are $3 ($5 "two by two") and are on sale at the Carolina Union, the Chapel office, and the door. Get your tickets early: two of last year's performances were sold out. Proceeds support the work of the Guild and the budget of the campus ministry.

THE HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP

Applications for the Helen Badham House and Henry Charles House, Jr., Scholarship are now being received. For 1982/3 the amount of the award will be approximately $800. Any Episcopalian, graduate or undergraduate, may apply. Application details are available upon request from the Chapel office. Deadline for application is Friday, April 30.

STUDENT MISSION FUND

Over $11,000 was raised to enable 9 students to work at White Oak, Tennessee, and 18 students and health care professionals to work at Montrouis, Haiti, during spring break. Two more students, Mr. Rodney Rice and Ms. Elizabeth Green, are planning to do similar works this summer with Student Training in Mission (STIM). Gifts in support of their work can be made to the Student Mission Fund of the Chapel of the Cross.

September, 1982

To the Episcopal Community at Carolina:

Campus ministry is the work of all of us--faculty, students, staff and church members interested in the University's life. It is a ministry that includes inevitable tension because it asks questions of purpose and meaning in the midst of intellectual and aesthetic exploration.

A student's years at Chapel Hill are exactly the proper times for searching and questioning, times for the movement from values and convictions inherited from parents and past to those values and convictions that you affirm for yourself and your future. The Christian faith challenges you during these years of movement, not to "hold on" to what has been given you, but to embrace anew the truth of the Gospel as your truth. But that cannot be done apart from your fellow believers and pilgrims. I invite you to seek out those faculty and student colleagues who will share their doubts as well as their faith; who will summon from you the maturity and power of the faith that is within you. I welcome the privilege of sharing that pilgrimage with you, too.

Since 1842, the Chapel of the Cross has been a center of pilgrimage, of questioning, of faith, for generations of Carolina students. Since you receive this newsletter, you are, in some way, part of this community, part of this ministry. I invite you to take your full part in its life, and in doing so, you will find your own life challenged and enriched.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CLASSES

THE REV. DR. DEREK SHOWS, a professor of psychology at Duke and a newly ordained deacon in the Episcopal Church, will speak to the adult class following the 9 a.m. eucharist on Sundays, Sept. 26, Oct. 3 and Oct. 10. Dr. Shows will deal with some of the differences and similarities between psychological and theological images of what it means to live in wholeness and health.

THE INQUIRERS' CLASS begins on Sunday, Oct. 17, and continues every Sunday except when the University is not in session. The class will also include several weeknight sessions. The Inquirers' Class is an opportunity for exploration for people who want to learn more about the Christian faith as it is experienced and practiced in the Episcopal Church. The class is also required for those who wish to become Episcopalians through confirmation by the Bishop. The next confirmation will be in mid-January, in a midweek service for adult candidates for confirmation.

BILLY GRAHAM TO LECTURE AT UNC

Dr. Billy Graham will present five evangelistic lectures in Carmichael Auditorium, Sept. 27-Oct. 1. All lectures will begin at 8 p.m. Parking in nearby lots will be directed by campus police. The lecture topics will be as follows: Monday, Sept. 27: "Personal Peace in a Nuclear Age"; Tuesday, Sept. 28: "Faith and the Intellect"; Wednesday, Sept. 29: "The University of Life"; Thursday, Sept. 30: "Relationships"; Friday, Oct. 1: "Reason to Live." Several brochures with further information about Dr. Graham's visit are available in the parish house.

SPRING MISSIONS NEWS

Spring mission projects are now being planned. For further information, call Anne Callan (967-2874).

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS ARE AT 10 P.M. WEDNESDAYS
These liturgies and the conversation time afterwards are the primary weekly gatherings of the Anglican Student Fellowship. Newcomers and friends from other traditions are always welcome.

SATURDAY BREAKFASTS, 9-11 A.M., WEEKLY

Saturday breakfasts are served between 9 and 11 a.m. each Saturday morning. The breakfasts are FREE and offer a great opportunity to eat good food and meet new people (including faculty). Bring yourselves, your roommates, your friends, even your dogs to delight in the culinary experiments of the UNC faculty. We would like to thank Jean DeSaix, Biology; Larry Rowan, Physics; Tom Bloom, Italian; Dave Dill, Education; Pete Andrews, Environmental Sciences; Kenneth Sams, Scott Carson, Frances Hickson and David Romani, Classics; Larry Cook, Music; Deanna Dickerson, Spanish Education; Sara Mack and Cecil Wooten, Classics; and Bruce Graver, English, for their help in making these breakfasts possible. If you too would like to help, call Jean DeSaix (929-1580) and volunteer! Get your name in Biddings and Bindings!

MICHAELMAS - SEPTEMBER 29 - 10 P.M.

The Feast of St. Michael and All Angels will be celebrated in Solemn Eucharist, Wednesday, Sept. 29 at 10 p.m. This is our regular campus eucharist, and to honor St. Michael and the angelic hosts we will meet in the chancel of the main church, not in the chapel. The Rev. Peter James Lee will preside and preach; the Rev. Dr. Richard W. Pfaff will celebrate. The Guild of St. Gregory the Great will lead us in special music.

HELP NEEDED AT 11:15 SERVICES

Volunteers are needed to serve as ushers for the 11:15 Sunday morning services; volunteers are also needed to help at the coffee hour following that service. If you are interested, leave a note in the parish office.

NEW PARISH ASSOCIATE ARRIVES THIS WEEK

The Rev. Stephen Elkins-Williams, his wife Betsy and their son Tyler will arrive in Chapel Hill at the end of September. They come to us from Seattle, Washington, and Father Steve will be serving our parish as Associate Rector for Parish Ministry. He is expected to be in his office beginning Monday, Oct. 4, and will preach and celebrate at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist on Oct. 13. Introduce yourself; welcome him to our parish family.

BIDDINGS AND BINDINGS DEADLINE

Deadline for the next issue of Biddings and Bindings is the Feast of St. Luke, Oct. 18. Turn in your announcements to the parish office before that date. Bruce Graver, doctoral candidate in English, is the editor.

THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP is led by Art Turbyfill, President; Bob Royalty, Steward; and Mary Louise Eller, Almoner. Chip Swearngan is student assistant for campus ministry.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR PARTICIPATION AT CHAPEL OF THE CROSS

Among the various guilds, organizations and projects directed out of the Chapel are the following: THE GUILD OF ST. GREGORY THE GREAT has three main divisions: actors, singers, and instrumental musicians. Jess Ferry (929-0079) is the actors' warden; he is planning a fall drama and a spring musical. Bruce Graver (942-4270) is the choir warden: the choir leads Evensong and the Holy Eucharist on Sunday nights and assists with special services throughout the church year. Lois Strother is warden of instrumental musicians; if you play an instrument and would like to share your gift in worship, call her at 929-5463. All artists--actors, singers, instrumentalists, poets, dancers, painters, and sculptors--are invited to investigate guild membership. THE ACOLYTES GUILD integrates university students and young people of the church in a ministry of service at the altar. John Ager (968-9602) and Richard McKeel (933-8271) are masters of the Acolytes. UNIVERSITY LAYREADERS, under the leadership of Carol Mulholland (967-0802), prepare the lessons and intercessions for the mid-week campus eucharists. CAMPUS OUTREACH concerns are led by Jane Parnell (933-5285); TEACHING MINISTRIES are coordinated by Alan Carpenter (929-5108); SOCIAL MINISTRIES are coordinated with the Campus Y by Rodney Rice (968-9062); and the FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE is headed by Stacey Hodges (933-1797). Paul Hausman is in charge of ECUMENICAL RELATIONS (933-0173); Karen Fisher (967-9303) coordinates pastoral care through the RESIDENCE LINK NETWORK; and Sean Alvarez is SENIOR SACRISTAN.

Vol. 5, No. 2

Dear Friends,

One of the many things that I learned through the loss of my grandmother was that I have many friends here in the Fellowship who are truly concerned for me and my family. This has given me insight into the true meaning of "fellowship" in the Christian context. Fellowship requires three things of each Christian. He must seek to know his fellow man, he must truly be concerned about the welfare of his neighbor, and he must be willing to share himself with his brothers.

Each of us must seek to learn what we can about those we meet, be it after services on Sunday or Wednesday night or at other times of the week. From this knowledge our concern must grow, not that we become pushy or rude, but that we are sensitive to the needs of other people. Just as important, we must realize that we are not islands in the sea of humanity. We are human and all have human weaknesses. Just as we must be willing to accept that in others, we must realize it in ourselves. We must not be afraid to share those weaknesses with our fellows, for it is in this that we are able to find our true strength.

All of these things were revealed in the love and concern that all of you have always given me, but even more so at this most unhappy time. My wish is that we all give this gift to all whom we meet in the coming years. This is the true evidence of our commitment to Christ; that we share His love, which He gives so freely, with our neighbors here in this life. May all our acts be to the greater glory of God.

In peace,

Arthur

ASF President

ALL SAINTS' DAY - November 1

The Festival of All Saints will be celebrated in solemn eucharist on Monday night, Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. The Senior Choir will sing the "Western Wind" Mass, a 16th century masterwork by John Taverner.

REFORMATION - COMMUNION UNION

A concelebration of the Holy Eucharist by Episcopal and Lutheran campus ministries will be held on the Wednesday after Reformation Sunday, Nov. 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the old chapel. This eucharist marks a first for the two local communities of faith following the approval of interim eucharistic fellowship by the 1982 General Convention. The concelebration has been approved by the Bishop of the Episcopal diocese and the Bishop of the Lutheran synod. There will be no 10 p.m. liturgy that evening. Everyone is invited to a Fellowship Dinner at 6 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 3, at the Lutheran Campus Center at Rosemary St. and Pickard Lane; the eucharist will follow at the Chapel of the Cross in the old chapel on E. Franklin St.

1983 CANVASS

The annual stewardship campaign of the Chapel of the Cross is now underway. Each year many students decide to help our common ministry in the parish. Pledge cards and stewardship brochures are available on the tables at the back of the chapel and church. Monetary gifts, as well as gifts of time, talent and energy, are vital to our parish life.

ASF COFFEEHOUSE

Dr. Sam Hill, visiting professor of religion and head of the Department of Religion at the University of Florida, will speak at the ASF Coffeehouse, 8:00 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 7, in the parish house. Dr. Hill will speak on "The Varieties of Authentic Anglicanism."

CHURCH BUILDINGS OPEN TO ALL

The Chapel of the Cross is open from 8:30 to 11 p.m. for prayer, meditation, study, and fellowship. Sunday School rooms are often available for study during the afternoon and evenings. We ask everyone's cooperation in maintaining the security of those using the buildings at any time. Two student residents are in the church during evening hours and may be contacted about security questions. A telephone is located on the ground floor, across the hall from the Student Commons. The Chapel of the Cross opens its doors to all in the Chapel Hill community.

ADULT INQUIRERS' CLASS

The Inquirers' Class, required for those who wish to become communicant members of the Episcopal Church, and open to all who are interested in learning more about the Church, meets Sundays following the 9:00 a.m. service.

SOUP KITCHEN NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

A Community Kitchen will open in the Masonic Hall on Rosemary Street in Carrboro for a three-month trial period beginning Nov. 1. Interfaith Council is asking for volunteers from Chapel Hill and Carrboro churches to prepare sandwiches and staff the kitchen from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. weekdays. To volunteer, call Laurie Alexander (942-7546) or Miriam Mullikin (929-1946).

CHAPEL OF THE CROSS NOTE CARDS

Note cards featuring a pen and ink sketch of the Chapel of the Cross are now on sale; their cost is $4 per dozen. Proceeds will go to the Student Mission Fund, to help support our annual spring missions.

COPIES OF THE ADDRESS PROF. DORIS BETTS gave during the Billy Graham lecture series are available in the rear of the chapel and church.

PHOTOGRAPHS - ECW FUND-RAISER

The Episcopal Churchwomen invite you to "Catch the Fall" with family photographs taken at the church on either Oct. 31 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30, or Nov. 7 from 10 a.m. until noon. Your family can be just you! For $6 you can get three single snapshots with negatives, and for $8 you can get four group snapshots with negatives. Register now, before or after the Sunday service of your choice. Sign the easel by the parish parlor doors, or call Betty Winfree at 942-4544. Proceeds will go to the ECW Missions Fund.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS CONTINUE FROM 9 TO 11 EACH WEEK.

THE DEADLINE FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS for the next issue of Biddings & Bindings is Nov. 15. If you have announcements you want to appear in the newsletter, submit them to the parish office or to Bruce Graver before that time.

THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP is led by Art Turbyfill, President, Bob Royalty, Steward, and Mary Louise Eller, Almoner. Chip Swearngan is the student assistant for campus ministry.

BIDDINGS & BINDINGS

Words of the University Community at the Chapel on the Hill

Vol. 5, No. 3

November 17, 1982

Dear Friends,

In many churches this Thanksgiving, folks will join together to give thanks for the blessings they have received and to tell of God's faithfulness amid hardship. It is a corporate thanksgiving, a banquet of praise offered to our God. Individually, we have suffered hardship, pain, and frustration, and perhaps don't have much to be thankful for. By ourselves, we may easily become depressed. But as a community, a nation, and especially as a Church, we join together, put aside our pain, and give thanks to God.

Why be thankful?

As Christians, we give thanks because we are not alone; regardless of what befalls us, we know that there exists a larger community of faithful people--the Church. This Thanksgiving, let us give thanks for this community, which testifies to God's presence in a crazy, confused, and competitive world. The Church, the Body of Christ, is not composed of solitary Christian warriors. Rather, we are a community of broken people, drawn together by God's grace, to be made whole. Our brokenness comes alive in the Eucharist--in the broken bread and poured out wine. And it comes alive in Scripture, where St. Paul declares that when we are weak, then God's strength is most clearly known. So this Thanksgiving, let us give thanks to God for calling us together as a community, to be made whole in His body and blood--over and over again.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

All students who attend the Chapel of the Cross are eligible to nominate, run, and vote for officers in the annual ASF elections. We will elect a new President, Steward (for pastoral care), and Almoner (mission officer). Nomination forms are on the back tables in the church and chapel, and will be accepted from Wednesday, November 17, to noon, Monday, November 29. Voting begins at 10 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 1, and closes at 11:30 p.m., Dec. 8. Please be sure to give some thought and prayer to this important matter of nominations, and please be sure to vote.

HAITI MISSION INFORMATION

A 15-member team will again travel to the village of Montrouis, Haiti, during Spring Break, March 5-12, 1983. Team members will help with medical, building, social, and teaching services, and will live in the community during their stay. All costs of travel and food--estimated at $650 per person--are borne by the participants, or are covered by gifts from families, friends, and their home churches. Those interested should submit the following information to the parish office by December 15.

Name _____

Class _____ Phone No. _____

CHAPLAINCY SEARCH CONTINUES

The Chapel of the Cross continues to search for an Associate Rector for Campus Ministry. Ten priests have been interviewed by the Search Committee since May, and more than 100 applications have been processed. One recommender wrote: "Jesus is in Heaven, and the Archbishop of Canterbury is not available."

CONFERENCE ON AUTHORITY TO BE HELD AT THE CHAPEL

On December 13 and 14, a conference on Authority and Truth in the Christian Story will be held at the Chapel of the Cross. Several prominent church theologians will participate in the conference. The cost is $15, but scholarships are available.

THE LAST CAMPUS EUCHARIST of the term will be Wednesday, Dec. 8, at 10 p.m.

AN ADVENT SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS will take place on Sunday, Dec. 12, at both the 9 and 11:15 morning services.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS

Breakfasts will continue through Dec. 4. Any faculty, staff or students who have not yet found time to join us are urged to do so before the semester ends. This is a Fall Semester activity, not continued in the Spring.

BACH'S LUNCH

Bach's Lunch, a series of free noonday concerts, will offer organ recitals by Francis Harrell and Thomas Bloom on Dec. 1 and Dec. 8, respectively. The recitals take place from 12:30 to 1:00 in the main church. Bag lunches are welcome during all concerts in this series.

COMMUNITY NIGHT

Community Night, a potluck supper for everyone, begins at 6 p.m. each Thursday in the parish house dining room. A lectionary Bible study follows at 7:30 in the Cobb Room.

THE THANKSGIVING DAY EUCHARIST will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day.

THE ANGLICAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP is led by Art Turbyfill, President, Bob Royalty, Steward, and Mary Louise Eller, Almoner. Chip Swearngan is the Student Assistant for Campus Ministry. Bruce Graver is editor of Biddings and Bindings.

January 1983

Dear Friends,

To begin the new year, I would like to suggest what may be a new idea for you: that you consider doing a year of volunteer service after you graduate.

There are a number of excellent volunteer organizations in this country that exist solely for the purpose of putting talented young people like yourself into responsible positions where they can meet real needs. Some are government sponsored, like VISTA or the Peace Corps; others are Christian oriented, like the Jesuit Volunteer Corps or the Mennonite Volunteer Corps. All of them offer you a chance to give of yourself and serve others in a significant way.

The reasons for doing a year of volunteer service are many: not only will you meet human needs in a way that others cannot, but you will grow tremendously through new experiences, new roles and new relationships with other committed people. The work experience you attain can even be helpful later on when looking for more permanent employment.

The time after graduation is a time unlike any other in your life. You are educated and trained and ready to give, but you have not yet started your career or your family. You may never have that kind of opportunity again.

So think about it. It's not for everybody, but it might be for you. I have not yet met anyone who was sorry he or she did it. I have a catalogue of all the volunteer organizations in the United States if you would like to see it. Or if you just want to talk further about it, give me a call.

Faithfully,

Steve Elkins-Williams
Associate Rector for Parish Ministry

OVER THE HUMP

The ASF will sponsor a dinner for freshmen at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, February 6, in the parish house. Following the meal, there will be time to "regroup" in front of the fireplace in the parlor and to discuss with Dean Donald Boulton, Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs, Dean Frederick Vogler, and Student Health Service Psychiatrist Dr. Fred Irons, members of the UNC faculty, and students where life is heading after the first semester of the freshman year. The dinner, which will consist of a choice of either chili or spaghetti, with salad and dessert, is free for freshmen and their guests. Please RSVP by calling the parish office (929-2193) before January 31.

TAIZÉ PILGRIMAGE TO CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA

The brothers of the Taizé ecumenical community in France will lead a pilgrimage to Charlottesville, Virginia, February 11-13. A group of students from all the churches in Chapel Hill will go. The cost is $15 and scholarships are available. Past pilgrimages to Washington, D.C. and New York City have greatly strengthened the faith of all who went. If interested, give the information blank to Chip Swearngan before February 4.

CONFIRMATION SERVICE

On January 19 at 5:15 p.m., Bishop Estill will confirm a group of adults, including several members of the ASF. This will be Bishop Estill's first confirmation service since assuming the Diocesan See on January 1. Welcome him to our parish, and welcome the confirmands to our church.

NEW OFFICERS FOR THE ASF

The newly-elected officers of the Anglican Student Fellowship are Karen Fisher, President; Scott Carson, Steward; and Stacey Hodges, Almoner. Both new and old officers and the Chapel Committee retreated to Badin Lake, North Carolina, Jan. 14 and 15. The new officers assume their duties on January 25, and we wish them our very best in the coming year.

BISHOP ESTILL'S INVESTITURE

The Right Reverend Robert W. Estill will be invested as Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina on January 27, 1983 at Duke Chapel. The Bishop's investiture service will precede the 1983 Diocesan Convention.

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS RESUMED ON WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, AND WILL CONTINUE AT 10 P.M. ON WEDNESDAY NIGHTS THROUGHOUT THE SEMESTER.

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL - Sunday, January 23

Bishop Stephen Neill from Oxford's Wycliffe Hall, world renowned teacher and theologian of the church's mission, will be with us on Jan. 23 to preach at 11:15 and to be available for conversations. Come hear this good friend of our parish!

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION

The Campus Eucharist on Wednesday, February 2, will be a special celebration of the Presentation of our Lord in the Temple. There will be special music, led by the Guild of St. Gregory the Great, and a traditional candlelight procession.

Interested in singing with an informal choir? Interested in traditional experiments in liturgy? Come sing chant with the Guild of St. Gregory the Great. No prior experience in singing chant is necessary--regular attendance is desirable but by no means required. Rehearsals are at 4 p.m. on Sunday after in the church choir room. Just show up, or call Bruce Graver at 942-4270 for more information.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES (FEBRUARY 16)

As is our custom, the 10 p.m. campus service on Feb. 16, Ash Wednesday, will be a Way of the Cross service, in which we retrace in liturgy Christ's steps to Golgotha. Eucharists, with imposition of ashes, will take place at 7:30 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 12:15 p.m., 5:15 p.m., and 8:00 p.m.

February 1983

Dear Friends,

Papers are starting to pile up. Assignments are going unread. More dorm rooms are lit at midnight. As midterms near, it's easy to worry too much, to get bogged down, the forget about God.

We are about to enter the season of Lent, a time of penitence. It is a solemn season--a time to remember, in the words of the prayer book, "the needs of all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith."

For students, those needs are often pushed out of the way by more "urgent" needs: a paper has to be typed, a chapter has to be read. The season of self-examination and self-denial can easily become a season of self-centeredness. It is not that we should not be concerned about school. We are students, here to study and learn. Yet we can't let studies--or anything else--control our whole lives. Control is reserved for God.

As we enter Lent, let us look to a season of prayer and fasting. Let us examine our lives to determine what really is urgent. Jesus said, "For where your treasure is, there will be your heart also." Where is our treasure? It is not in school's worries or anxieties. Our treasure during Lent is the hope and promise of Easter.

In Christ,

Karen Fisher
ASF President

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

An adult inquirers' class will begin on Tuesday, February 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the parish house. This class is an introduction to the Christian faith as held in the Episcopal church. It is open to all adults and is required of those who wish to be confirmed. Confirmation will be on April 17. For further information, call the parish office (929-2193).

"Spirituality for Active People," an adult class led by Mr. Elkins-Williams, will meet in the chapel at 10:15 a.m. on Sundays through March 6. Topics will include: prayer, movement in the spiritual life, silence and listening, discernment, and spiritual direction.

SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER AND PARISH MEETING

The annual parish meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. on Shrove Tuesday, February 15. Parish leaders will present reports and answer questions. Preceding the meeting will be a pancake supper beginning at 6:00 p.m. Tickets to the supper (adults, $2.50; children, $1.75) will be on sale between services on Sunday, February 13, and in the parish office.

PREGNANCY SUPPORT SERVICES

Pregnancy Support Services is opening a crisis pregnancy center on Estes Drive; women may receive free pregnancy testing and counseling at the center. This is an ecumenical Christian organization, offering pregnant girls and women life-giving alternatives to abortion.

SATURDAY BREAKFASTS

A group of students invite you to breakfast at 127 North Street. Breakfasts are from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. For more information, call 942-2206.

PRAYER RETREAT

The Movement of Prayer, a Lenten retreat sponsored by the Parishcare Prayer Network, will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 19, and continue until 1:00 p.m. that day. The retreat will be led by the Rev. Jacqueline Schmitt, Episcopal chaplain at North Carolina State University, and will focus on prayer as it is centered in the human body as a dwelling place for the Holy Spirit. For more information, call Deanna Dickerson (942-2206).

BACH'S LUNCH

Bach's Lunch, a series of free, noonday concerts begins March 16 and will continue through April 20. The Wednesday concerts are at 12:30 p.m. in the church. Bring a bag lunch.

The Anglican Student Fellowship is led by our new officers--Karen Fisher, President; Scott Carson, Steward; and Stacey Hodges, Almoner. Chip Swearngan is the rector's assistant for campus ministry. Bruce Graver edits Biddings and Bindings. Deadline for the next issue is March 14.

NEW CHAPLAIN TO ARRIVE APRIL 20

THE REVEREND DAVID STANFORD will join us as Associate Rector for Campus Ministry on April 20. David is assistant rector at Christ Church in Roanoke, Virginia, and is a 1971 graduate of Johns Hopkins University. From 1971 to 1975, he was a staff member for Young Life, a non-denominational ministry among teenagers, and from 1975 to 1977, he was director of the Agapè Foundation, a residential community for street people in Washington, D.C. He entered Virginia Theological Seminary in 1977 and graduated in 1980. Since 1980, he has been at the Roanoke parish. David and his wife, Ann, have a seven-year-old son, Ben; Ben and Ann will join us in June. Let us welcome David and his family heartily, and work with him to help our campus ministry grow even stronger.

Dear Friends,

Lent is traditionally a time of healing, of reconciliation, of spiritual renewal and preparation. Many of us prepare ourselves for the Feast of the Resurrection by denying ourselves some worldly pleasure for forty days. But while self-denial is a powerful and symbolic act and an essential part of any Lenten preparation for Easter, the Body of Christ is a spiritual community, and it is equally essential that each of us participate in the corporate preparation of the Church for Easter. Our weekly celebration of the eucharist on Wednesday night is one form of this corporate preparation. But just as our personal fasts penetrate every level of our lives throughout Lent, so, too, should our corporate preparation. May I suggest that you participate in one of the lay ministries of the Anglican Student Fellowship? These avenues for ministry include an escort and transportation service for those who wish to help bring others to our Wednesday night services; a ministry to the homebound; and the Residence Link Network. Those who joined the Haiti mission found that, too, a meaningful lay ministry. If you are interested in taking part in any of these lay ministries, you may contact me, David Fortney, or Chip Swearngan. May God give us the grace to make this a holy Lent.

CENTRAL AMERICA WEEK: MARCH 16-23

In response to a resolution passed by the Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal Church, the Episcopal Campus Ministry will observe Central America Week from March 16 to 23. On March 16, the Haiti Mission team will give its report at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist; a special offering will be received at the service, to be sent to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for relief in Central America.

On Sunday, March 20, at 8 p.m., there will be an ASF Coffeehouse/Forum in the parlor. Speakers will include Knut Walter, UNC doctoral candidate in history, and a resident of Central America; Dr. Enrique Baloyra, UNC professor of political science; Sister Evelyn Mattern of the North Carolina Council of Churches; and the Reverend Henry Atkins, Episcopal Chaplain to UNC-G. Dr. Baloyra and Mr. Walter will discuss the historical and geopolitical implications of what is happening in the region; Sister Evelyn and Reverend Atkins will discuss the Church's role there. A discussion time will follow the talks. Dessert and coffee will be served.

PRESIDENT FRIDAY - MARCH 21

UNC President William Friday will speak on "North Carolina 2000," the report of the Governor's commission he chaired, whose purpose was to examine North Carolina's future. President Friday will speak at 7:30 p.m. Monday, March 21, in the church. His speech is sponsored by the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Chapel of the Cross.

BACH'S LUNCH

Bach's Lunch, a series of free noonday concerts in the church, will resume on Wednesdays at 12:30 p.m. On March 16, Dr. Wylie S. Quinn, III will give an organ recital. On March 23, Sharon Simons, organist, and Iutz Keller, recorder, will perform. On March 30, Evelyn Culton will give an organ recital. And on April 6, the Carolina Choir, under the direction of Dr. Larry Cook, will perform. Bring a bag lunch and enjoy the offerings of these gifted musicians.

Dear Friends,

It's hard to know where to begin as I envision the college community at Chapel Hill. My vision of the college community is not significantly different from what I understand the Church in general to be. So I approach this new job as an opportunity to learn, to grow, and to discover the special ministry that is ours in Chapel Hill, N.C.

That statement says something about my approach and understanding of college ministry. I intend to do a lot of listening and asking questions in my first few months. Undoubtedly, I will be lost, confused and overwhelmed. Be patient as I try to learn names and the flow of things within the Anglican Student Fellowship. Karen Fisher and Chip Swearngan have already extended a warm reception and have begun to fill me in. But I'll need much more assistance from you after I arrive.

I look forward with excitement and anticipation as my life's journey flows together with the life of a very exciting parish and fellowship. The early apostles were characterized by action in both word and deed. What sustained and nourished them was characterized this way in Acts (2:42): "And they devoted themselves to the Apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers." I hope that I might encourage this in our fellowship as we discover together the ministry and mission that God has for us.

I look forward to meeting you all. Peace be with you.

Sincerely,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

END OF THE YEAR PARTY

Say good-bye to graduating students, welcome the new associate rector for campus ministry, and see the Rector's new home on Monday, April 25, at 6 p.m. The Lees' home is at 524 E. Franklin Street, directly across from the public library. The ASF will provide hamburgers, hot dogs, chips, and beverage; please bring a salad or a dessert.

COMMENCEMENT SUNDAY

The Chapel of the Cross will honor the University community, especially those graduating, at the Holy Eucharist, Sunday, May 15, at 7:30 a.m. The service will be followed by a breakfast for graduating students and their families, given by the University Ministry Committee in the student commons and conference room. Commencement exercises for the University begin at 10:30 a.m. in Kenan Stadium.

CELEBRATION OF A NEW MINISTRY

The Right Rev. Robert W. Estill, Jr., Bishop of North Carolina, will preside at the 10 p.m. campus eucharist on Wednesday, April 27, to celebrate the new ministry of the Rev. David Stanford. Come help the Bishop welcome our new associate rector for campus ministry. We're counting down to David's arrival on April 20!

HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP

The House Scholarship, established in 1975 to assist Episcopal students at UNC, is an annual award administered by the Chapel of the Cross. Applications for 1983-84 must be received by May 2. Information is available in the parish office.

SPRING CONFIRMATION

On Sunday, April 17, Bishop Estill will confirm a group of adults and junior high students at the 9 a.m. eucharist. Please greet the confirmands during the coffee hour following the service.

BACH'S LUNCHEES will take place on April 13, with an organ recital by Jeanette Hassell, and on April 20, with an organ recital by Kent Otto. The recitals will be at 12:30 p.m. in the church. Bring a bag lunch and enjoy the concerts, which are free.

THE EPISCOPAL PEACE FELLOWSHIP invites students to a covered-dish supper at 6 p.m. on April 17 in the conference room. After dinner, Curtis Jones, a State Department diplomat in the Middle East for 29 years, will give a program on the current situation in Lebanon.

AN ALL-CAMPUS WORSHIP SERVICE involving all Christian campus ministries will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, April 18, in Memorial Hall on campus. The service will be in thanksgiving for Christian ministry at UNC during this academic year. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

NANCY REYNOLDS PAGANO, lay pastoral assistant at the Chapel of the Cross, and GEOFFREY HOARE, lay assistant at Christ Church, Raleigh, both communicants of the Chapel of the Cross, will be ordained to the diaconate at 8 p.m. Friday, April 29, by Bishop Estill. Geoffrey, who graduated from UNC in 1979, was a Morehead Scholar and president of the Carolina Union.

THE LAST WEDNESDAY 10 P.M. CAMPUS EUCHARIST WILL BE HELD ON MAY 4 IN THE CHAPEL.

The Officers of the Anglican Student Fellowship are Karen Fisher, president, Scott Carson, steward, and Stacey Hodges, almoner. Chip Swearngan is the Rector's assistant for campus ministry, and Bruce Graver edits Biddings & Bindings. This is the last issue of Biddings & Bindings for 1982-83.

Dear Friends,

A warm welcome to all of you! By this time, you have probably settled into your new surroundings--either as a new student or returning student. We're glad you're here.

I am both impressed with, and at time overwhelmed by, the number of opportunities that are available within this community. Making choices and settings priorities seem to be important tasks for us all.

The Chapel of the Cross and the Anglican Student Fellowship offer you numerous opportunities for fellowship, worship, and service. We hope that you will plan some "holy time" in your busy schedules, that God might make clear the essential from the unimportant in life. In the classical sense, this is called "centering," re-discovering in the new, changing, and often times confusing circumstances, a "ground of Being" around which our lives make sense.

We hope you will join with us in discovering this great adventure called Life, and the One who stands with us in it.

Peace be with you.

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

December 1983

Dear Friends,

This is a good time of the year for "remembering" and giving thanks. We have just celebrated All Saints and Thanksgiving, and we're moving quickly towards final exams and then Christmas break (thank goodness!). Soon you will be finishing up this semester and making preparations for the holidays.

I am writing this from a vacation trip to Arkansas, visiting relatives and friends. How important it has been for me to have these roots in family and friends that sustain even through the tough times that we all face as we change and grow.

The church community is another place where we "remember" and have roots. It is where we give thanks, through saints' days, daily prayers, and most importantly, in the Eucharist. In the Greek root meaning of "remembering," we are invited to recall the saving events of our faith in such a way that it empowers our lives to face the day to day challenges in the here and now. Such rootedness can keep us anchored through the storms of life.

We invite you to join in that fellowship that "remembers," and we pray for your studies and the stressful times at the end of term. May you be empowered to grow, find meaningful roots, and at last, to give thanks for all that God is doing in our lives.

Peace be with you.

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

REGULAR EVENTS

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS continue at 10 p.m. in the chapel. The last campus eucharist of the fall semester will be December 14.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS are held each week in the conference room of the parish house between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. These informal gatherings of students and faculty are open to everyone. The last breakfast of the semester will be an annual pre-exam meal on December 10. Crepes, sausage biscuits, and other specialities will be provided by Professors Larry Rowan (physics), Jean DeSaix (biology), and Sara Mack (classics). Come, and bring a friend!

SUNDAY SERVICES: 7:30 a.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite One; 9:00 a.m. The Holy Eucharist; 11:15 a.m. The Holy Eucharist or Morning Prayer, on alternate Sundays; 5:15 p.m. Evensong and the Holy Eucharist (on the last Sunday of the month, the 5:15 service is the Holy Eucharist with folk hymns and guitar accompaniment).

WEEKDAY SERVICES: Tuesday, 7:30 a.m., The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two; Wednesday, 10 a.m. The Holy Eucharist (1928 Book of Common Prayer) and 10 p.m., The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two; and Thursday, 5:15 p.m., The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two. Evening Prayer is said at 5:15 p.m. weekdays except Thursdays.

OTHER EVENTS AND NOTICES

ASF ELECTIONS: Elections for the offices of President, Steward, and Almoner will be held November 30 through December 7. Any member of the ASF may run for office. Ballots are available in the chapel or the parish office. Nominees are Stacey Hodges (President), Elizabeth Thrasher (Almoner), and David Fortney (Steward).

RESIDENCE LINK: Volunteers are needed for the ASF Residence Link Network. For more information, or to volunteer, contact David Fortney at 933-8643.

NOVEMBER OFFERING: The Wednesday night offering for November will be given to OXFAM, a hunger relief organization. Next month the ASF will donate its offerings to COVENANT HOUSE, a shelter for runaways in New York City. The Oxfam Fast for World Hunger (Nov. 15) raised over $78 for world hunger.

BIDDINGS & BINDINGS: Volunteers are needed to address Biddings & Bindings the third week of each month (December excluded). If you would like to help out, call Michelle Long (929-3454).

HAYRIDE: The ASF Christmas hayride and carol sing will be on Sunday, December 11. Everyone is welcome. Call the parish office (929-2193) for more information.

NATIONAL STUDENT GATHERING: December 29, 1983 - January 3, 1984 there will be a conference of students, faculty and chaplains from across the country held at Estes Park, Colorado. The event is sponsored by the Episcopal Church and will include workshops, prayer and Bible study, daily eucharist, and talks on the theme "A Turning of Time." There will also be opportunities for swimming, skating and skiing, and a special New Year's Eve eucharist and celebration. The cost of the trip is $150. Some financial assistance may be available. For more information, contact the chaplain.

RIDES TO WEDNESDAY NIGHT SERVICES: Rides to the 10 p.m. eucharist are available from South Campus and Granville Towers. Pickup points are in front of Chase Cafeteria and Morrison (Cheryl Graham, large white car), in front of Teague (Richard McKeel, small blue car), and in front of Central Carolina Bank on the Franklin St. side (Scott Carson, small gray car). Departures are at 9:30 p.m.

A LITANY OF HEALING AND THE LAYING ON OF HANDS, the church's ancient ministry to the sick and of intercession on behalf of those who care for them, will be included in the 5:15 p.m. eucharist on the first Thursday of each month, beginning December 1.

ADVENT

ADVENT MEDITATIONS, a joint ministry of the Newman Center and the Chapel of the Cross, will be offered in the chapel from 12:15 to 12:45 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning November 29. Clergy from both the Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches will lead the meditations.

A QUIET DAY sponsored by the ECW will be led by Mrs. Pagano on Monday, Dec. 5, from 10 a.m. to noon in the chapel. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 11:30. All are invited to participate in the morning of guided reflection and silence.

AN ADVENT QUIET DAY FOR THE CENTRAL CONVOCATION of the Diocese of North Carolina will be held at the Chapel of the Cross on Friday, Dec. 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. The Rev. Stephen Sykes of England's Durham University, Canon of Durham Cathedral, and theological consultant to the Archbishop of Canterbury, will lead the meditations. The Quiet Day is open to all interested persons.

THE ADVENT PROCESSION OF LESSONS AND CAROLS will take place at identical 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. services on Sunday, December 18.

To Choose Life

Dear Friends,

Welcome back to a new semester and a new year. This time is often seen as a time to make new resolutions for our lives. The Biblical writers describe formative moments when the people of God were invited to make new resolutions and renew their covenant. Deuteronomy 30:19 is just such a moment, as Moses is leaving God's people his last will and testament; "Choose life," he bids the people. The choice is theirs, and now ours today.

The choice between life and death meets us every day of our lives. This morning, several members of the ASF met at 3:45 a.m. planning to go to Raleigh for a vigil before the execution of James Hutchins, reviving the death penalty in North Carolina after 22 years. A thoughtful ob/gyn professor wrote a letter in response to the church's opposition to the reimposition of the death penalty. He asked that we be just as concerned in our deliberations about abortion as we are in our resolutions against capital punishment.

"Choose life!" The Bible is clear that there are many false gods vying for our commitment--success, security, power, materialism--to name only a few. But there is only one. Yahweh, the Lord God, in whom we find true life.

The Church is the community of faith which is unafraid to ask the basic questions of life, and to wrestle with the answers for our day. We invite you to join with us. The choices you make are important--for you and for our world. "Wbaharta bhayim." Choose life. And come struggle with us as we seek to make God's love tangible in our world.

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

February 1984

Dear Friends,

On February 11, the Rev. Peter James Lee, rector of the Chapel of the Cross, was elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia. After 13 years as rector of the parish, we are both delighted and proud, but also saddened. Mr. Lee will depart some time in May, and we will surely feel the consequent loss of his leadership, energy, and vision. Luckily, the vision that he and the parish had for campus ministry will be something that solidly endures. Such a vision is shared by all of the clergy, the Vestry, the Anglican Student Fellowship, and the University Ministry Committee. Such structures provide strength and stability in times of transition.

Stepping back for a moment from such a momentous occasion, let us consider the notion of "election." It is something in which all Christians share. We have all been "elected" to share in the grace of God in Jesus Christ. As the Prayer Book says, "God . . . by the death and resurrection of your son Jesus Christ you have overcome sin and brought us to yourself and that by the sealing of the Holy Spirit you have bound us to your service." (BCP, p. 309 & 418) From the Old Testament imagery, Moses says to Pharaoh, "let my people go that they may serve me." (Exod. 7:15 ff.) Liberation, freedom, election--all have a concomitant call to responsibility.

Peter James Lee has been given a call. But we, too, have been given a call--to be God's people in our own community.

May God also give you the grace to fulfill your election, as he has promised through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Our prayers are with Peter Lee as he becomes bishop and servant to the people of God.

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

REGULAR EVENTS

ASF BIBLE STUDY meets each Wednesday night at 8:00 in the Student Commons/Parish Library. Everyone is welcome. For more information, see the Chaplain.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS are held each week in the conference room between 9:30 and 11:00. Come share an informal meal with both students and faculty. If you would like to help with cooking or clean-up, see the Chaplain. Volunteers will also work on winterizing homes of the needy following each Saturday breakfast.

WEEKDAY EUCHARISTS are are 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. Wednesday, and 5:15 p.m. Thursday. EVENING PRAYER is said at 5:15 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

SUNDAY SERVICES: 7:30 a.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite One; 9:00 a.m. The Holy Eucharist; 11:15 a.m. The Holy Eucharist and Morning Prayer on alternate Sundays; 5:15 p.m. Evensong and the Holy Eucharist (on the last Sunday of the month, the 5:15 p.m. service is the Holy Eucharist with folk hymns and guitar accompaniment).

SPECIAL EVENTS

WINTERIZING HOMES - Members of the ASF are working with the Inter-Faith Council on Saturdays, 11-2, to help poor families insulate their homes. If you would like to help with this project, call Bob Spencer at 942-2955.

CHRISTIAN MISSION will be the topic of a discussion on Sunday, February 19, when members of the ASF and other campus groups will meet in the parlor with THE RIGHT REV. STEPHEN NEILL of Oxford's Wycliffe Hall. Bishop Neill, a well-known missionary bishop and theologian, will also preach at the 5:15 p.m. service. At 6:15, the HAITI MISSION TEAM will sponsor a SPAGHETTI DINNER to benefit the Spring Mission Project. Tickets are $3.00 for adults, $1.50 for children.

DO YOU LIKE TO SING? The singers of the Guild of St. Gregory the Great sing at the 5:15 p.m. Evensong on Sundays, and at special services throughout the year. New members are always welcome. Rehearsals are at 4:00 p.m. in the choir room every Sunday except the last Sunday of the month. For more information, call Sharon Sheridan at 933-5735.

INQUIRERS' CLASSES are open to anyone interested in learning more about the Christian faith as held in the Episcopal Church. The classes are required for confirmation. The next class begins on Sunday, February 19, from 4:00 to 5:15 p.m., and will run for eight weeks.

SPRING PARISH DINNER FELLOWSHIPS have formed. Each group of 10-12 parishioners meet in one another's homes once a month, February-May, for a shared meal and conversation. For more information, contact Lisa Fischbeck (home: 489-1080; work: 684-3912) or the parish office.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CAMPUS EUCHARIST OFFERINGS have been distributed as follows: December - Covenant House, a shelter for runaway and homeless teenagers in New York City; January - The Maryknoll Sisters, a service order providing food, housing, education, and medical help for communities in Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Pacific Islands, and the U.S.; February - Deanna Dickerson, missionary from the Chapel of the Cross now working in Haiti.

Lent: Preparation for a New Beginning

Dear People of God,

The first Christian observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting

"I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word"

So reads the beginning of the Ash Wednesday liturgy on pages 264 and 265 of The Book of Common Prayer. We have entered the season of Lent. The liturgical color changes to purple; the "Alleluias" are dropped from the service. We are invited to be especially disciplined in our spiritual life.

In a world of instant gratification and excessive consumerism, it is well for us to consider what is central to life itself. At the center is our relationship to our Creator and Redeemer. This relationship, like any relationship, requires nurture and sacrifice. Lent provides a time when we can 'lighten our load,' and reflect on what is essential to our health and well-being.

The ancient tradition of fasting (i.e., abstaining from food, or eating but one meal a day) commends itself as but one important way to discipline ourselves that has ramifications for many other areas of our lives. Morton Kelsey, theologian and Episcopal priest, concludes: "But for Americans, there is one excellent reason for fasting We are the best fed and most poorly nourished nation on earth Overeating is probably responsible for ten times the deaths caused by drinking or narcotics, and the man who has eaten himself to death is no longer in a position to undertake the religious encounter in this life; even more, I doubt if he is in the most favorable condition to continue it in the next." ("Friday's Fast to Feed")

I wish you a blessed Lent. May it be a time of rich discovery and anticipation. May you hear the One who stands at the center of life, and who invites us, "Come, follow me."

Peace be with you,

David Stanford
Associate Rector for Campus Ministry

REGULAR EVENTS

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS continue each Wednesday night of the semester at 10:00 in the chapel. Everyone is welcome.

ASF BIBLE STUDY meets each Wednesday night at 8:00 in the Student Commons/Parish Library. Everyone is welcome. For more information, see the Chaplain.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS are held each week in the conference room between 9:30 and 11:00. Come share an informal meal with both students and faculty. If you would like to help with cooking or clean-up, see the Chaplain. Volunteers will also work on winterizing homes of the needy following each Saturday breakfast.

SPECIAL EVENTS

LENTEN SERVICES: Daily eucharist will be offered during Lent on the following schedule: Monday 12:15 p.m.; Tuesday 7:30 a.m.; Wednesday 10:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.; Thursday 5:15 p.m.; Friday 12:15 p.m.; Sunday 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m., 5:15 p.m. (the Sunday 11:15 a.m. service will alternate between the Holy Eucharist and Morning Prayer).

CAMPUS EUCHARISTS:

March 28 - The Great Litany (Book of Common Prayer, p. 148) will be included in the service.

April 18 - The Way of the Cross, a devotion for Holy Week.

HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP: Applications are being accepted through April 6 for the House Scholarship. Applicants must be members of the Episcopal Church and have financial need as shown through the financial aid office.

ABC SALE: Babysitters are needed at the church for children of ABC Sale workers Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, May 2, 3, and 4 (10-12 and 1-5) and on Saturday, May 5 (8:30-3:30). If you can help, call Katherine Kopp (967-0771) or Jane Cook (929-6039). Proceeds from the sale go to Habitat, a local housing effort, and other worthwhile projects.

RESIDENCE LINKS:

Residence Links are a small group of students who keep residents in their dorms in touch with the ASF. Every Saturday different dorms are invited to the student breakfast. On March 17, Old West, Craige and Ruffin will be especially invited, but everyone is welcome. Come eat, socialize and meet some new people. What a great way to start a Saturday!

Also, in March Residence Links will be asking for new volunteers for the remainder of this year as well as next year. The time commitment involves one meeting a month; the task is a personal link between the student and the ASF. If you're interested, contact Lynne Potter at 933-8044 or David Fortney at 933-8643. It's a quiet way to make a difference.

CHARISMA! Share your charm, wit and stunning personality by being a GREETER at the 5:15 or other Sunday services. For more information, call Lynne Potter at 933-8044 or David Fortney at 933-8643.

April 1984

Dear Friends,

I am leaving Chapel Hill in May, along with the other graduating seniors. But I feel as if I have been a member of many classes over the more than thirteen years I have served among you.

Students and faculty are Chapel Hill. The rest of us are here because of you, because of the vitality you make of this community. It has been a privilege to know so many of you through the years, to participate with you in the community of faith, to experience your freshness and your questioning, to walk in the valleys of the shadow as well as to share with you in the bright and sunny days of your youth.

I will be serving as a bishop in the Diocese of Virginia. The University in Charlottesville is within the diocese. I hope I can take some of what I have learned from you and use it to the glory of God in a new setting.

Chapel Hill's communities are always short-lived. There is an intensity to the life of a single student generation that is valuable while it is experienced, but it passes quickly. What remains is the important memory of lives shared, hopes nourished and faith kindled. Thank you for many such memories. May God bless and keep you.

Faithfully,

Peter James Lee
Rector

Volume 7, No. 1

August 1984

Dear Friends,

A new year has begun! Franklin Street proclaims loudly and clearly that students have once again made their way to Chapel Hill. But amidst all the noise and excitement--from the cheering of the sororities during rush, to the quiet moments of apprehension, "It sure is lonely here..." --we all seem to sense that tremendous change is in the making. New ideas, new faces, new opportunities to learn and grow--all will be a part of the college experience.

The Sunday Gospel lesson invites us to consider another life-changing dimension of this experience. Jesus asks his disciples, "But who do you say that I am?" The same questions confronts us. Like Peter, in his straightforward, blundering manner, will we say "Thou art the Christ, the Son of God."?

Wholeness. Salvation. Discipleship. The Church and the Anglican Student Fellowship invite you to join us in discovering the life-changing power offered to us in Jesus Christ. We guarantee no easy answers. We point out no easy way. But we challenge you to join us as we discover new life in the Way of the Cross. Welcome, and Peace be with you as you begin a new year.

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

REGULAR EVENTS

WEDNESDAY NIGHT EUCHARISTS - 10 p.m. each Wednesday in the chapel. Refreshments and fellowship will follow.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS - Beginning September 8, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m., meet with friends in the Student Commons area each week to enjoy breakfast and fellowship.

SUNDAY SERVICES - 7:30 a.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite One; 9:00 a.m. The Holy Eucharist; 11:15 a.m. The Holy Eucharist or Morning Prayer on alternate Sundays; 5:15 p.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two (except the last Sunday of the month when the 5:15 service is the Holy Eucharist with folk hymns and guitar accompaniment).

WEEKDAY EUCHARISTS - Tuesdays at 7:30 a.m. (Rite Two), Wednesdays at 10 a.m. (Rite One) and 10 p.m. (Campus Eucharist), and Thursdays at 5:15 p.m. (on the first Thursday of the month, includes Anointing and Laying on of Hands).

EVENING PRAYER is said at 5:15 p.m. on weekdays (except Thursdays) in the chapel.

OTHER EVENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE ON CAMPUS

WE NEED A FEW GOOD PEOPLE with cars to provide rides to the Wednesday night service, especially from South Campus. If you can share a ride or need a ride, please contact Wendy Coin at 933-4010.

WE'RE THE QUIET COMPANY. Interested in quiet yet significant service? If so, the Residence Links need you to help strengthen the church and student community through a ministry of friendship. Want more information? Contact Wendy Coin (933-4010) or David Stanford.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

HABITAT WORK PROJECT - Thursday, August 30, 6:00 p.m. - Come to the Chapel of the Cross in work clothes and plan to work until dark. We will be salvaging plywood and framing timbers for the new Habitat House.

SOUP KITCHEN - We need volunteers to work any weekdays from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Inter-Faith Council Soup Kitchen. Contact Merri Crawford at 942-8202 (evenings).

LABOR DAY OUTING

We are going inner-tubing at Sugar Lake from 1-5 p.m. on Labor Day, September 3. Meet in the church parking lot at 1:00 and bring $1.50 for tube rental.

SUPPER WITH THE LUTHERANS

On Wednesday, September 12, the people of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church on Rosemary Street have invited us to their 5:15 service and dinner afterwards. David Stanford will be speaking at the service.

BIBLE STUDY

The ASF Bible Study Group will be meeting on Monday nights at 7:00 in the Student Commons. Everyone is invited to be a part of this challenging and sharing fellowship. For more information, contact Jonathan Inman at 967-2521.

ADOPT-A-STUDENT

ADOPT-A-STUDENT is a new campus ministry program this fall. It offers an avenue for families to share in the mission to the campus by acting as hosts for University Students. The host family provides familiar faces for students within the growing parish. For further information about service as a host family or participating as a student, call Linda Chris (929-7834) or Stacey Hodges (929-9286). Look for a sign-up table at Parish Fare, September 9.

HAITI MISSION PROJECT

Plan now for Spring Break 1985. The ASF will be sponsoring another mission, March 1-11. Application involves a written, one-page form including name, address, phone number(s), year in school, background and experience, and reason for applying. Send to "Haiti Mission, Chapel of the Cross." APPLICATION DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 1.

Creole classes will begin in early October. Details will be in the next Biddings & Bindings. Classes will be open to non-team members on an availability basis.

CHAPEL OF THE CROSS CHURCH SCHOOL

The Chapel of the Cross Church School welcomes students' participation in the program in any of a number of ways: as substitute teachers to fill in when teachers need to be absent, to help with special projects such as dramatic productions or pageants, and to contribute special talents and abilities such as playing an instrument to accompany songs, story telling, or artistic abilities. If you would like to become involved in the Church School, please contact Diana Scholl, Christian Education Coordinator, at her office at the Chapel of the Cross (929-2193).

WE NEED YOUR VOICE! The first meeting of St. Gregory's Guild will be at 4 p.m. in the choir room on Sunday, September 9. For more information, contact David Stanford at the Chapel of the Cross, or Sharon Sheridan at 933-5735.

COPY DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE OF BIDDINGS & BINDINGS IS SEPTEMBER 12. Items for inclusion should be placed in the manila envelope on the Student Commons bulletin board.

September 1984

Dear Friends,

Amidst the hurry and bustle of life in Chapel Hill, I sometimes feel like Elijah.

You may recall the story. Elijah flees from the enemies of the Lord into the wilderness. There he waits for further directions from the Lord. And waits. And waits. Suddenly, there comes an earthquake. Was it God? No. Then comes a ferocious wind. That wasn't God either. After that, a great fire burns. Still no God. "Will he ever speak?" Elijah wonders in frustration. Then, at last, in the quietness, he hears a still, small voice. That was God.

Life here in Chapel is often a whirlwind. Amidst the "earthquakes" and "whirlwinds" and "fires" of appointments, classes, papers, deadlines, relationships, we try to perceive the direction God gives our lives. Yet we must learn, as did Elijah, that God often speaks very quietly. We must be still, for a moment, and listen.

Below you will see many opportunities for involvement in ASF. They are offered in the spirit of helping you discover that "still, quiet voice" of God in the midst of the whirlwinds of your life. Come be a part of our community.

Peace be with you,

David Stanford

October 1984

Dear Friends,

Welcome back from fall break. I hope your time away has been refreshing and renewing as we look toward the second half of fall semester.

Stewardship is a word that may be familiar to those of you actively involved in the life of your home church. Since annual budgets are made up in the fall, this term is often synonymous with "Every Member Canvass" and "Annual Fund Drive." This is certainly true in this parish's life.

For most students and young adults, however, the idea of our responsibility for the world in which we live and giving back to God from the abundance that he has given us may be new and untried. Part of the challenge of Christian life is our own growing sense of how we respond to the gift of God's love. As with academic or athletic endeavors, giving (both of oneself in service and of our money) involves discipline and commitment. We learn by doing! We grow stronger through practice!

I invite you to look at your time and money. Are they all centered around yourself? Or, do they reflect an effort to give to others, and to take seriously God's call to service.

Many groups offer opportunities for you to invest yourself. The parish upholds a tradition of regular and systematic service to others. We invite you to join in this tradition and to grow in "a habit of giving." Your life and your spirit will be richer for it.

Peace,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

November 1984

Dear Friends,

That belated first frost finally arrived last week! The long days of summer are over and the time change has cast a darkening shadow on the early evening. Seasons change, and our lives change.

Yet, we often fear the future and the changes within ourselves. We do not understand or accept God's process of growth in our lives.

Consider the trees and plants. Winter comes, they die. Yet the death of winter is the necessary preparation for their new birth in the spring. Jesus tells us that a seed must fall to the ground and die before it can live. A vine must be pruned and cut back before it can bear good fruit.

Jesus often spoke in parables of nature. He knew that a sensitivity to the changes around us can help us understand the changes within ourselves.

The semester is rapidly moving to an end. We will pause, celebrate Christmas, and return for a new term. In the midst of the changes, internal and external, it is comforting to know that behind us stands the Vinedresser, who through all, and in all, is leading us home.

Peace be with you,

David

ADVENT

Advent, which begins December 2, is a time of waiting and anticipation. Different in tone and meaning from the commerial bustle and cellophane gaiety of secular holiday festivities, the Church's observance of Advent has a quieter, more introspective mood. The Advent season coincides for us with the panic and frustration of the final days of the semester, and offers an chance to move away from these pressures to experience the reality of God's promises to us.

Our Wednesday evening services during Advent will draw upon traditional forms of worship to help us begin this self-reflection and preparation:

December 5: The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, with A Penitential Order and sung responses

December 12: The Holy Eucharist: Rite One, with The Great Litany

December 19: The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, with A Penitential Order

Plan to join us in a spirit of joyful anticipation as we prepare ourselves to hear again the Good News of the coming of Christ into our lives.

THE PARISH EDUCATION COMMITTEE is sponsoring a session to make Advent wreaths on December 1, from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. Following a directed meditation, wreaths will be made and blessed. Light refreshments will be served. Participants may contribute what they can to defray the cost (under $5) of their wreaths. Pre-registration is not required but is encouraged, and will be available between the 9:00 and 11:15 services on Sunday, November 11, or by calling Anne Fields at 967-5573.

REGULAR EVENTS

WEDNESDAY NIGHT EUCHARISTS - 10 p.m. each Wednesday in the chapel. Refreshments and fellowship follow in the Student Commons.

An Advent Note from the Chairman of the Social Ministry Committee

Dear Friends,

During Advent, as we await the entry of our Lord into the world, let us pray for the coming of Christ into our lives. Let us remember our calling into the community of Christ as we scatter for exams and Christmas holidays. In our absence from each other, I invite you to reflect upon the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew in which the Lord instructs us in the preparation for his coming. In the parable of the ten maidens and in the parable of the talents, Christ commends us to rise from our sleep and our fears in order to invest the gifts which he has given us.

Then the King will say to those at his right hand, "Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world, for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me . . . Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these, my brethren, you did it to me. (Matthew 25:31-46)

In the mystery of Advent, we focus upon the preparation for the coming of our ever-present Lord into this world and into our own lives. While we expectantly await the arrival, let us prepare ourselves by quiet reflection upon our individual and communal calling to serve Christ in the world.

As we listen for our calling into the body of Christ, I would like you to ask your intercessory prayers for those preparing for the Haiti Mission and for the Domestic Mission to the Habitat for Humanity Centers in Americus, Georgia. I invite those interested in joining the Domestic Mission to contact Anne Hodges-Copple or myself (information follows).

Faithfully,

Merr

D. Merrimon Crawford

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS - Professors Larry Rowan and Jean DeSaix will cook a most delightful extravaganza breakfast to kick-off the studying for exams. Come and join in the last hurrah of the season on Saturday, December 8, from 9:30 to 11 a.m. in the Student Commons. The breakfasts will continue in January.

CAROLING AND PIZZA - Anyone interested in caroling at area nursing homes is invited to meet at the church following the 5:15 service on Sunday, December 9. Pizza and refreshments will follow around 8 p.m. at the Stanfords' (106 Walden Drive, Carrboro; phone: 933-9222).

STUDY AND STONE SOUP - A pot of soup will be going in the student kitchen during exams. Bring something to add to it as it simmers. Coffee and tea are always available.

LATE NIGHT STUDY COVENANTS are available in the office or from the student residents. Make use of the building during exams.

SERVICES

WEDNESDAY NIGHT EUCHARISTS at 10 p.m. will focus on Advent themes and will incorporate liturgical variations for the season.

AN ADVENT PROCESSION OF LESSONS AND CAROLS will take place at identical 9 and 11:15 a.m. services on Sunday, December 9. THE HOLY EUCHARIST will be at 7:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m., and 5:15 p.m. EVENSONG will be sung at 4:45 p.m.

A SERIES OF ADVENT MEDITATIONS with time for silence and reflection are being held on Mondays and Thursdays from 12:15 to 12:45 p.m. in the chapel through December 20.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES include the Pageant at 5 p.m., the Holy Eucharist: Rite One at 7 p.m., and The Christ Mass at 11 p.m.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST will be celebrated on Christmas Day at 10 a.m. only.

NOMINEES FOR 1985 ASF OFFICERS include David Fortney (President), Wendy Coin (Steward), and Amy Buck (Almoner). Results will be announced in the next issue of Biddings & Bindings.

A Retreat: February 1 and 2: Anglican Spirituality and Personal Faith

Dear Friends,

What is the Anglican Student Fellowship? I can quickly answer that the ASF is a loosely affiliated group of students--some Episcopal, some not--who participate in worship, fellowship, and service in the Episcopal church in Chapel Hill. The next question is then, what is the Episcopal, or Anglican, tradition, and what does this community offer to students today?

The Anglican church offers an approach to faith rather than a tightly knit theological system. In many ways, the Episcopal church is a synthesis of the best elements of our Protestant and Catholic heritage. It offers people the opportunity to test their beliefs and grow in faith through reason and tradition. It presents a theology, a liturgy, and a servanthood that invite each of us to question, respond, and affirm the Christian faith in our lives.

The Anglican Student Fellowship invites you to be a part of a journey in the Christian faith--to join other students in serious thinking about the complex questions of life and faith in the supportive fellowship of a worshipping community.

Peace be with you,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

Where can you get to know some neat people, reflect on your life in Christ, go to summer camp in February, learn about spirituality from the Anglican point of view, and just have a good time? At the ASF Retreat to Camp New Hope. Each of us has much to contribute in the gift of ourselves--we hope you bring yourself!

February 1985

Dear Friends,

In spite of the weather, the ASF is having a wonderfully active and exciting winter. In early February, student groups from Duke, UNC-Greensboro, NCSU, and UNC gathered together at Camp New Hope for a superb retreat. Fr. Tom Cure led the retreat in exploring our Anglican faith. All 38 students enjoyed the fellowship with Episcopalians from other universities.

Mission groups are ready to begin their projects in early March. Twenty-three students and professionals will be heading to Montrouis, Haiti, to work in a clinic and school for a week. Eleven students are headed to Americus, Georgia, for a work camp in a Habitat for Humanity project. The ASF and Post-College Fellowship are catering the annual Shrove Tuesday Parish Dinner (February 19) for the benefit of the Haiti Mission. You are welcome to join in the fun and work that afternoon. Dinner begins at 6 p.m.

Turning to the more contemplative side of our Christian life, I invite you to participate in the Holy Eucharist on Ash Wednesday and the Way of the Cross at 10 p.m. at the Chapel of the Cross. Consider as a part of your Lenten observances prayer, fasting, and self-denial for religious growth and discipline. As you can see, the rhythm of worship here draws on the inward sources of personal spiritual development and the outward journey of mission and service to the world.

I hope you find places of worship, service, and fellowship that strengthen your religious growth. Please join the Anglican Student Fellowship whenever you can. May your Lent be blessed.

Peace be with you,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

LENTEN SERVICE SCHEDULE

Ash Wednesday, February 20: 7:30 a.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two; 10:00 a.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite One; 12:15 p.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two; 5:15 p.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two; 8:00 p.m. The Holy Eucharist: Rite One; 10:00 p.m. The Way of the Cross. A priest will be available throughout Ash Wednesday for those who wish to talk privately or to use the Church's Rite for the Reconciliation of a Penitent. Between 8:30 a.m. and the 5:15 eucharist, a priest will be in either the church or the chapel.

Weekly celebrations of the Holy Eucharist: 12:15 p.m. Mondays, 7:30 a.m. Tuesdays, 10 a.m. Wednesdays, 10 p.m. Wednesdays (except March 6), 5:15 p.m. Thursdays, and 5:15 p.m. Thursdays.

Sundays during Lent: 7:30 a.m. The Holy Eucharist; 9:00 a.m. The Holy Eucharist; 11:15 a.m. The Holy Eucharist (Morning Prayer on March 10 and 24), 4:45 p.m. Evensong (except March 3 and 10), and 5:15 p.m. The Holy Eucharist.

ASF BIBLE STUDY meets each Wednesday morning at 7 a.m. in the Student Commons. Everyone is welcome. For more information, see the Chaplain.

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS are held each week from 9:30 to 11 in the Commons. Students, friends, and roommates are invited for this time of fellowship and good food. (No breakfasts on March 2 & 9)

TUESDAY LUNCH GROUP AT LENOIR - The ASF gathers informally on Tuesdays from 12:30 to 1:30 in Lenoir Hall. Everyone is invited to stop by and chat.

DUKE VS. UNC? If you missed the basketball game, don't miss the exciting second round!! The ASF is hosting Duke for a rematch in Trivial Pursuit on Wednesday, February 27. The get-together starts at 8 p.m. and the Match follows. Come and be a part of the fellowship. For more information, call John Sykes at 933-1574.

"PREPARATION FOR THE PASCHAL MYSTERY," a Lenten retreat led by Fr. Paul Wessinger, SSJE, of St. John's House, Durham, will be held Friday, Feb. 22, 7:30 to 10 p.m., and Saturday, Feb. 23, 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the chapel and parish house. Time for individual prayer, silence, and reflection will be interwoven with Evening Prayer, Compline, Morning Prayer, and the Holy Eucharist. Opportunities for spiritual direction or group conversation with Fr. Paul, Mrs. Pagano, or Mr. Elkins-Williams will be included. The retreat will conclude with a simple communal lunch. The cost is $3. Register by calling the parish office or signing up in the dining room between the 9 and 11:15 services on Sunday, February 17. (Preregistration is not mandatory.)

"SHARING OUR FAITH--AN ANGLICAN PERSPECTIVE OF EVANGELISM" is a one-day workshop featuring the Rev. Gray Temple. The workshop, sponsored by the Post-College Fellowship, will start at 9 a.m. on March 2 and will conclude with a eucharist at 3:30 p.m. Gray Temple is Rector of St. Patrick's Episcopal Church in Atlanta and has been involved with the spiritual renewal movement in the Episcopal Church. He was the featured speaker at the Diocesan Renewal Day in Greensboro this fall. Registration: $5.00. Deadline is February 23. Contact Brad Collins (967-7479) for more information.

A HEARTY DINNER FOR SHROVE TUESDAY will be catered by the Anglican Student Fellowship and the Post-College Fellowship on February 19 at 6:00 p.m. Tickets will be $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children (8 and under) and will be on sale in the parish house on Sunday morning and at the door on Tuesday.

MARCH 20 - The Rev. Ronnie Bruno will be here from Cape Haitien, Haiti, to preach at the 10 p.m. eucharist.

THE PARISH BOOK TABLE will be available in the parlor between the 9 and 11:15 a.m. services on Sunday, February 17.

Signs of New Life

Dear Friends,

The pictures have just arrived, recalling vividly the excitement and adventure of our spring mission trips to Haiti and to Americus, Georgia. Everywhere there is excitement as people test out life and discover the abundance of God's loving care for each of us.

Lent is a paradigm or model of the Christian life. We venture forth, not always sure of our destination and less sure of our route. Yet through testing and tribulation, we arrive at a new place with a deeper respect and understanding of God's loving providence and confidence that the risk is worth it.

Little of the academic year remains. There will be demands--papers to write, projects to complete, tests to take. But in all of them, hear the invitation to grow, develop, and change. Lent reminds us of that call to risk and moving out . . . oftentimes into a wilderness. But it also bids us open ourselves to the mystery of new life and new birth. The good news of Easter and the resurrection is that God controls our wanderings and gives us new power and strength to meet the challenges of life.

May your Lent and Easter be rich and deep.

Peace be with you,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

Dear Friends,

It's time once again to say good-bye. We look toward summer plans and those of us graduating look toward a new phase of life. "Good-byes" are an everyday part of our lives here in this transient university community. Yet many of us are inclined to skip over the pain of these very real losses. We must mask our fears of loss and separation with a cheerful "See you soon!"--hopeful words, but not always realistic.

Though difficult, good-byes needn't be so painful. Make time for those special people who are leaving and tell them how they have been important to you. Although it will hurt to lose them, you can deepen the bond of friendship that will last--even over miles and years.

Our Lord himself spent much time saying "good-byes." Read, for example, the farewell discourses in John's Gospel. By saying good-bye, our Lord prepared his disciples for the deepening, enriching, and empowering of the coming Holy Spirit.

Take time to say good-bye--it will help open you up for the new "hellos" which we look for, in faith, to sustain us again.

Peace be with you this summer,

Faithfully yours,

David Stanford
Associate for Campus Ministry

END-OF-THE-YEAR PICNIC - Thursday, April 25, after the 5:15 service. Come and celebrate with us.

"The church isn't someplace you go--it's something you are."
Sharing the Victory, May/June 1984

Dear Friends,

Another year begins: new faces, new classes, new opportunities. There is always such a flurry of activity, excitement, and anxiety as it all starts up again.

To those of you who are new to all of this, welcome. To those who are returning, I'm glad to see you back from your summer.

For each of us, a new year and new demands create a certain amount of apprehension. First-day class assignments make it all seem insurmountable. How will I ever get it all done? How will I find my way? Can I make it? Will everything work out OK? Will I get settled and find the significant friends and support that will sustain me in all this stress and pressure?

These and the many other questions of our lives invite an ever deepening trust in the One who created and rules over this world in which we live. Our lives and this "southern part of heaven" may at times seem far removed from the power and presence of our Creator and Sustainer.

But the Christian Church, in sacraments and service, is there to remind us that our God is incarnational. That is, God is One who is with us. The stresses and strains, the excitement, the joy, and the disappointments and hurts are all parts of this life. He knows them; he understands them.

We invite you to join us in this journey of life and faith. "I am with you always" are the secure and comforting words of our Lord. Our fellowship, worship, and service together are ways in which we are reminded of God's abiding presence with us. Come, our Lord has prepared a table for us as we move through this challenging adventure called Life.

Peace be with you.

Faithfully,

David Stanford, Associate for Campus Ministry

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SERVICES Come join us! For a few hours each week, on Wednesdays, at 10 p.m., we leave our hectic schedules to celebrate the Eucharist. Afterwards, we get together for food and fellowship in the Student Commons. Everyone is welcome!

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS offer opportunities for the ASF "chefs" to practice their skills as well as for good conversation and a relaxed breakfast. The first breakfast is September 7 from 9:30-11:00 a.m. Students usually come and go as they please. There is no charge; all are invited to eat and to help. See John Sykes (933-1548) or Susan Spencer (933-8018) for more information.

ST. GREGORY'S GUILD sings Evensong each Sunday at 4:45 p.m. No tryouts are necessary; all voices are welcome. See Sharon Sheridan (933-5735) or Christine de Catanzaro (929-4837).

BEACH RETREAT Here's a great opportunity for one last fling at the beach, along with times for reflection and meeting new students. Space is limited, so sign up no later than Wednesday, August 28. Time: leave at 5:00 from Chapel of the Cross on Friday, August 30; return Monday, early afternoon. Location: Harris #2, 4107 Ocean Drive, near Georgia St., Emerald Isle, N.C. (Emergency Phone #: 354-3315). Cost: $35.00 Includes Sat. breakfast through Monday breakfast. Bring your own linens. Transportation will be arranged among the students going. Please return the form below to the parish office by August 28.

THE ADOPT-A-STUDENT/ADOPT-A-FAMILY program matches students with families in the parish. Then, the student and the "adopted family" make plans such as periodically sharing a meal. It's a great way to find a niche in this large and diverse community. For more information, see Kim Gilly or Linda Chris (929-7834).

THE ASF SPONSORS BIBLE STUDIES for interested students. It's a stimulating way to discuss how the Scriptures relate to our own lives. If interested, see Robert Elsner.

THE SOCIAL MINISTRIES COMMITTEE provides a channel for helping those in need. In the past, this committee has worked with the Habitat housing project. If you have ideas or want more information, see George Loveland (929-4112).

THE ARE PLENTY OF CHANCES TO LAY READ at Wednesday night services See Tim Newman.

IS THE PIANO OR ORGAN YOUR FORTE? Contact George Morgan (929-5326) if you are interested in playing the organ for services.

ANY GREAT IDEAS FOR BIDDINGS & BINDINGS? Let's have them! Please leave them, along with announcements you want printed in the newsletter in the ASF box in the parish office.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO SERVE AS ACOLYTES, both for special ASF services, and in the parish acolyte program. A training session for parish acolytes will be held September 7 from 4 to 7 p.m. For more information, contact Richard McKeel (942-2955), Randy Woodland (929-0077), or Robert Wright (968-8083).

HAITI MISSION TRIP: SPRING BREAK (MARCH 7-16, 1986) Each year a group of students and professionals work for a week on mission in Haiti. Applications are now being accepted for this year's trip. Include name, address, phone no(s), year in school, major, and experience. Give a brief statement about why you want to go on the mission trip. Deadline is October 1. Fund-raising begins Saturday, September 14, collecting contributions for parking spaces during home football games. For information, see Ann Workman (933-7705), or the Chaplain. The Rev. Gary Fulton (942-3108) will be leading the trip.

THE MEMBERS OF FOCUS, the graduate student chapter of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, invite you to join in interdenominational Christian fellowship through small group Bible study and prayer groups, large group get-togethers, and its 1985-86 lecture series. Please contact the chapter by calling Jimmy Long (office: 929-8593), Susan and Larry Martin (942-5207), Carole Cane or Kate Madigan (942-1846), or Chris Palmer or Whit Jones (967-1696).

"Attempt something so impossible that unless God is in it, it is doomed to failure." ---John Haggai

Dear Friends,

The Chapel of the Cross is very interested in having students assume an active role in parish life. We want you to feel at home here during this very important time in your life.

I invite you to participate not only in the broad spectrum of opportunities for worship, from Sunday to mid-week services, but also in the variety of parish programs offered, including fellowship, outreach, and educational opportunities.

I especially want to invite you to two important events in our parish life in the next month. The first is my institution as Rector on October 2 at 7 p.m. Bishop Estill will be the celebrant, and Bishop Lee, the former Rector here, will be the preacher. A reception will follow in the Morehead Banquet Hall. I hope you can participate in this celebration of the ministry of the Chapel of the Cross.

The second is a series of picnics that are being held in parishioners' homes over the next month. Please pick one from the list of twelve, bring a friend, and come! I guarantee you wonderful food, friendly parishioners, and a deeper sense of belonging. Y'all come.

Faithfully,

Stephen Elkins-Williams
Rector

You are

Do you need a mid-week break? The Anglican Student Fellowship's Wednesday night services begin at 10 p.m. We're working on a transportation network to provide rides back to South Campus, so don't hesitate to come!

THE CHAPEL COMMITTEE next meets on October 13 at 1:30 p.m.

We've already organized one BIBLE STUDY for Wednesdays at 9 a.m. in the Student Commons. If you're interested in starting one at another time, contact John Sykes (933-1548) or Robert Elsner (933-4573). Everyone is welcome.

If you're free TUESDAYS, FROM NOON TO 1 P.M., why not stop in Lenoir Hall for ASF's informal lunch gathering? Meet in the dining room closest to Hamilton Hall.

Are you interested in singing? St. Gregory's Guild meets on Sunday afternoons to rehearse for Evensong. Contact Sharon Sheridan (933-5735) or Christine de Catanzaro (929-4837) for more information.

The ADOPT-A-STUDENT program is underway, but it isn't too late to get involved. While its emphasis is on new students meeting with a parish family, everyone is welcome. Contact Kim Gilley (933-5081).

CONFIRMATION CLASSES are held each Sunday in the Student Commons from 10:15 to 11 a.m. See the ASF bulletin board in the chapel for more details.

Please join us for SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFAST! It's an informal meal between 9:30 and 11:00. Volunteers are always needed and welcome to help with cooking. It's a great way to start the day with good food and good fellowship. Call John Sykes (933-1548) or Susan Spencer (933-8018) for more information.

SPECIAL SERVICE: The Eve of St. Michael and All Angels will be celebrated with a festal eucharist at the 5:15 service on Sunday, September 29. St. Gregory's Guild is preparing special music.

ECUMENICAL: Newman Center invites us to an instructed service on September 27 at 11 a.m. Hillel Foundation will be sponsoring a "booth" in the Pit for the Feast of Succoth on September 30. Stop by for information and to help promote their fundraising for Oxfam's African relief.

SOCIAL MINISTRY: Volunteers are needed to work in the local night shelter. Habitat for Humanity needs help with surveying land in the next two weeks. Call George Loveland (929-4112) for more information.

FALL PARISH WEEKEND - OCTOBER 18-20: Students are cordially invited to attend the parish weekend retreat. Brochures and information are available in the parish office or on the back table of the chapel. Financial assistance is available; see one of the clergy for scholarship information. The Conference Center at Browns Summit offers a beautiful "get-away."

NATIONAL STUDENT GATHERING: Estes Park, Colorado, December 28 - January 2. The second national gathering of students will convene at the beautiful YMCA of the Rockies at Christmas time. Information is posted on the bulletin board in the Student Commons, or see the Chaplain.

THE RECTOR WILL HAVE AN OPEN TEA FOR OPEN CONVERSATION every third Wednesday of the month from 4 to 5:15 p.m. in his study. Please enter by the outside door near the playground.

BACH'S LUNCH, a series of free noonday concerts on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 1 p.m., begins October 9 with an organ recital by Dr. Wylie S. Quinn, III, Organist and Choir master of the Chapel of the Cross. On October 16, a program of Baroque chamber music will be featured. Bag lunches are welcome.

"When wrath runs rampage in your heart, hold still your rambunctious tongue." ---Sappho

Dear Friends,

God has blessed us abundantly! Every morning at this time of year the beautiful earth cries out with eloquent beauty of the graciousness of God. Halloween, Thanksgiving, pumpkin pie, and corn stalks all remind us of the essential goodness of creation. The earth provides richly for her children.

Or at least for most of them. Others have been afflicted by drought, earthquake, or day-to-day unnewsworthy but nevertheless degrading poverty. Take a walk or drive several blocks or several miles from campus. Not everyone lives with as much as we have. Therefore, God has called us to a special responsibility as stewards of creation.

"God loves a cheerful giver" is a phrase that we may have heard. But the inverse is also true: a cheerful giver is one who delights in God. Our secular and material society would like us to be miserable about what we don't have, "the adoration of the unpossessed." Christian stewardship invites us to an internal and spiritual freedom to enjoy what God has already given. We can delight in what we are given because we delight in the One who gives.

Stewardship is an invitation to freedom. As students, it's easy to say, "But I don't have much." Stewardship is about being free with what we have, not the quantity of what we have. Our ASF has voted to endorse scholarships of $15 per month to a school in Haiti. You can get involved in providing total education for someone in Haiti through this small amount. I hope you will consider it.

Whatever God leads you to, may you enjoy the beauty and wealth of fall and our good earth.

Peace,

David Stanford

Interested in going to the movies? Members of ASF will see "Agnes of God" on Wednesday, October 23. Meet in the Student Commons at 6:45 p.m.

Don't forget about the WEEKLY WEDNESDAY NIGHT SERVICES at 10 p.m. Fellowship follows. See you there!

Starting on All Saints' Sunday, November 3, EVENSONG will be held at 5 p.m. St. Gregory's will rehearse at 3:45 p.m. on Sundays.

Join us on Saturday morning! The SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS will continue after fall break. Come any time between 9:30 and 11:00. There is always an opportunity to cook as well as eat. Feel free to come!

Interested in lay reading at the ASF services? If so, contact Tim Newman, 929-3712.

The CHAPEL COMMITTEE will hold a mini-retreat on Sunday, November 10. It will last from 1 to 5 p.m. and includes lunch. Committee members and other interested people should R.S.V.P. to David Stanford.

Anyone interested in participating in a PROJECT TO WEATHERIZE THE HOMES of low-income families in Chapel Hill-Carrboro should contact George Loveland, 929-4112.

A SPRING DOMESTIC MISSION to a Habitat for Humanity site in another town is being tentatively planned. This mission would take place during the University's 1986 spring break. Anyone who would be interested in participating should contact George Loveland at 929-4112.

ASF MEETS FOR LUNCH in the north dining room of Lenoir Hall on Tuesdays from 12 to 1 p.m. Join us!

The ASF sponsors BIBLE STUDIES on Tuesdays at 3:30 p.m. and Wednesdays at 9 a.m. Both meet in the Student Commons. See you there!

SPRING BREAK 1986: Are you going to Haiti? Contact Gary Fulton at 929-9945 (home) or 942-3109 (office) for Creole class information.

As a part of our STEWARDSHIP for the upcoming year, the ASF will be accepting pledges for the Ecole Professionnelle Saint Esprit, the vocational school at Cape Haitian, Haiti. The scholarships will provide books, tuition, and food for one student at the cost of $15 a month. Envelopes will be provided for your pledges at the Wednesday night services. The loose collection will be going to OXFAM until late November, and then to the Inter-Faith Council until Christmas. We would like to encourage you to think about the pledge as a way of using your relatively large resources to give the opportunity of education to others in need.

Interested in going to Colorado over Christmas break? There will be a National Gathering of students sponsored by the Episcopal Church in Estes Park, Colorado, (December 29-January 3). The theme of the conference is "A naming of darkness; a calling to light." This is a great chance to meet and share with other college students from all over the country. See David Stanford for more information.

"We are all awed by the priest who goes and works among lepers, or Mother Teresa on her hands and knees with the dying...But what about the people on our own doorstep whose real need is to be loved and accepted until they can get a handle on their personal problems and become people with health to give?" ---Morgan McKenzie

Dear Friends,

Crisis! That's a word that strikes fear in our hearts. Images of potential danger and disaster float through our unconscious.

In the Greek, krisis means decision. It's a moment of truth, a time of separating and making choices. The Chinese word for crisis combines the symbols for "danger" and "opportunity." That seems an appropriate focusing for our thoughts about decision-making.

Within our community, several individuals are asking questions and seeking direction for their future. Correspondingly, the Anglican Student Fellowship is asking the recurring questions about the nature and shape of our community. What binds us together? Where are we headed? How do we support one another on the way? As a part of that search, we vote this month on officers to lead us in this next year.

The answers to these questions vary with the individuals involved. Yet, we affirm in the midst of our searchings our unity in faith. Our trust grows in a God who leads His people through their own wilderness journey to a promised land. That journey is our journey. It bids us come and follow in faith.

At our core is the One who shares His life with us in the bread and wine. We join each week, celebrate His life in our midst, and support one another as we unfold the questions of our lives. We invite you to join us in this rich process.

Peace be with you,

David Stanford

ELECTIONS: NOVEMBER 13-20. Nominated to date for officers beginning in January are John Sykes, President, Nancy Maass, Almoner, and Susan Spencer, Steward. Ballots will be in the chapel throughout the week.

EVENSONG has changed from 4:45 to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday evenings. St. Gregory's Guild will be providing music for that service as well as the 5:15 eucharist. Any students who would like to join the group are welcome to come to rehearsals at 3:45 p.m. on Sundays in the choir room.

A SPRING DOMESTIC MISSION of Habitat for Humanity is being tentatively planned. This mission would take place during the University's 1986 spring break. Anyone who would be interested in participating should contact George Loveland at 929-4112.

The UNC Chaplain's Association is holding an ecumenical service in relation to HUMAN RIGHTS WEEK on Tuesday, November 19, in the Great Hall in the Union at 7 p.m. It will be a celebration of the Judeo-Christian tradition's commitment to human rights.

OXFAM FAST, NOVEMBER 20-21: As a part of Human Rights Week, our group will participate in the 24-hour fast. It will begin at next Wednesday's service and go through 5 p.m. Thursday when the fast will end with a meal in the Union. Money donated will go to Oxfam projects for world hunger.

They're coming soon! The Hymnal 1982 will arrive this fall. If you are interested in giving one or more to the church in memorial or thanksgiving, please fill out a form in the back of the chapel. The cost is $8.50 each. For more information, contact David Stanford or Vivian Varner (933-6863).

SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS will continue through December 7. Everyone is welcome! Come any time between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. There will not be a breakfast on November 30, because of Thanksgiving break. The Faculty Extravaganza is coming Saturday, December 7.

ASF sponsors BIBLE STUDIES on Tuesdays at 3:30 p.m. and Wednesdays at 9 a.m. Both meet in the Student Commons. Contact John Sykes (933-1548).

Do you need a mid-week break? ASF's Wednesday night services are held weekly at 10 p.m. They offer a great way to escape from work and books and to meet with other students. Fellowship follows the eucharist. See you there!

MEET ME FOR LUNCH... ASF gathers for lunch on Tuesday in the North Dining Room of Lenoir Hall. Stop by between 12 and 1 p.m. Join us!

Anyone interested in participating in A PROJECT TO WEATHERIZE THE HOMES of low-income families in Chapel Hill-Carrboro should contact George Loveland (929-4112) or David Stanford.

PROFS ARE PEOPLE TOO! The University Ministry Committee is sponsoring a potluck for faculty and students on Thursday, January 9. Come share your ideas and get to know some faculty members in your own church. More information later.

The next CHAPEL COMMITTEE MEETING is Sunday, January 12. Anyone interested in working within the fellowship is invited to attend at 1:30 p.m.

Envelopes for PLEDGES TO SPONSOR STUDENTS at the Ecole Professionnelle Saint Esprit in Haiti are in the back of the chapel. It costs $15 each month to pay for each student's books, tuition, and food. While this sum may be a little steep for a student's budget, we encourage you to consider this gift or perhaps a group of students could sponsor one Haitian student.

Dear Friends,

As we enter 1986, the Anglican Student Fellowship finds itself with new leadership. The upcoming semester is filled with many activities and as President, I eagerly look forward to my job. The ASF has been very fortunate to have had David Fortney, our out-going President, as our leader and friend. Appreciation and many thanks are due him.

All of the new officers are pleased to serve ASF and always invite suggestions or questions at any time. Please feel free to call us:

John Sykes, President; 216 Lewis, 933-1548
Susan Spencer, Steward; 251 Cobb, 933-8018
Nancy Maass, Almoner; 251 Cobb, 933-8018

In this time of resolutions, maybe we can all set aside some time for our own spiritual growth. If you have felt the need in the past to extend your involvement, start 1986 in a positive direction. The ASF is filled with many rewarding activities: Wednesday night campus eucharists, Saturday morning breakfasts, and many more. The upcoming retreat on February 7 and 8 with other Episcopal youth groups promises to be as rewarding as last year. Take the time to scan the following announcements and mark them on your calendars! Best wishes for a great semester.

Peace be with you,

John

John Sykes, ASF President

RETREAT 86! Escape the winter blahs! The annual Episcopal College Student Retreat will be February 7 and 8 at Camp New Hope. Students from UNC, UNC-G, Duke, St. Mary's, and NC State will be participating. The cost is $20 per person; assistance is available. Check the Student Commons or see David Stanford (929-2193) for pamphlets.

Did someone say spaghetti? The spaghetti dinner for new students will be on Sunday, January 26, following the 5:15 service. Come to meet people and learn more about ASF.

GET INVOLVED! The Social Ministries Committee will meet on Sunday, January 26, at 2 p.m. in the Student Commons. Everyone is invited to come and share their ideas.

SHROVE TUESDAY: There will be a parishwide potluck on Tuesday, February 11, before the Annual Parish Meeting.

FELLOWSHIP NIGHTS PROGRAM: Ice skating. The first outing this semester is planned for January 29, and will be a fun-filled trip to the Daniel Boone Village for ice skating. We'll meet at the church at 5:45 p.m. and return at 9:30 p.m. A small fee will be charged and we'll eat dinner at a fast food restaurant before skating. For more information, call John Sykes, 933-1548.

ASF caroling party - sing a joyful noise.

SPECIAL EVENT. In remembrance of the birthday of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., representatives from the Black Student Movement will come and discuss some of the many achievements of Dr. King at the 10 p.m. eucharist on January 22. Don't miss this important commemoration.

IF THE SUNNY SIDE OF FLORIDA WON'T SEE YOU FOR SPRING BREAK, how about staying in Chapel Hill and lending a helping hand? Habitat for Humanity is organizing a volunteer group who will spend the break winterizing homes, working at the Community Soup Kitchen, and delving into other area outreaches. Fellowship and fund will accompany the hard work as we camp out at an area church or on the Habitat property. This is a unique chance to learn more about Chapel Hill outside of UNC as well as to discover more about ourselves. If interested, call Pat Graham, 968-0393 or Ann Workman, 933-7705.

The next CHAPEL COMMITTEE MEETING will be on Sunday, February 9, at 1:30 p.m.

TIRED OF USING YOUR MEAL CARD? Then join us for breakfast in the Student Commons on Saturdays. Come any time between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. Contact Ann Stuart Pearce, 933-1676, for more information.

FREE ON TUESDAY? Join ASF for lunch in the North Dining Hall of Lenoir between noon and 1 p.m. on Tuesdays.

NEED TIME FOR PRAYER AND INFORMAL DISCUSSION? Join the prayer support group Wednesday nights at 9 p.m. in the Student Commons. Everyone is invited and encouraged to join this special prayer network for ASF.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT EUCHARISTS: A mid-week, campus service of the Holy Eucharist: Rite II is celebrated each week at 10 p.m. in the chapel. Join us for a small, informal service of students and take a great, constructive study break. Refreshments follow and rides home are also available.

INTERESTED IN LAY READING? If so, contact Bonnie Morris, 933-4102.

AND THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER IS. . . Desmond Tutu, anti-apartheid leader, will speak on January 19, at 7:30 p.m. in Duke Chapel. ASF will be journeying to Duke for this service. We'll meet in the Student Commons at 4 p.m., pick up a quick meal, and attempt to get an excellent seat. Call John Sykes, 933-1548, for more information.

January is a busy month for ASF:

Wed. 15th	10:00 p.m.	INSTALLATION OF NEW OFFICERS
Sun. 19th	7:30 p.m.	at Duke Chapel, the Rt. Rev. DESMOND TUTU, Nobel Peace Prize winner, will speak.

"Those who feel powerless and do nothing about an issue, create a vacuum which the 'other side' is only too happy to fill."

Dear Friends,

Since last October, the Haiti Mission Team has been meeting every Thursday night to study for our ministry in the western hemisphere's poorest country. Two weeks ago, we were making travel plans and discussing our hopes, fears, and expectations for the trip. We felt positive and excited.

At last Thursday's meeting, however, we held a lot more fears than hopes. We had all heard about the outbreak of civil unrest, the riots and killings in the streets, the filling of the morgues in Port-Au-Prince, and the hundreds of Americans crowding in the airports to leave Haiti. We had to make the sad decision to cancel this medical mission. Yet, Haiti is in its greatest need for medical care and outside support.

After realizing and accepting that our team's purpose would never be fulfilled, we recognized that we still could do something. We cannot go to Haiti, but we can offer something of ourselves. More than ever, the Haitians need medical supplies and money. Fr. Carl Spitz and Fr. Bruno are still in Haiti, able to make use of whatever we can send. So, we ask you to help us accomplish our revised goal. Please donate generously to this Haiti Mission Project and try to attend a prayer service, led by a noted Haitian speaker, the date of which will be announced in the bulletin and at the Wednesday night services.

Pray with us for the people of Haiti.

Yours in Christ,

Richard Adams

LENTEN SERVICES: The date of this mailing is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. On Sunday, March 23, there will be a special procession and Palm Sunday liturgy at 5:00 p.m. Wednesday Night, March 26, there will be a celebration of the ancient service of Tenebrae.

WEEKDAY CELEBRATIONS OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST during Lent are at 12:15 p.m. Mondays, 7:30 a.m. Tuesdays, 10 a.m. Wednesdays, 10 p.m. Wednesdays (except March 12), 5:15 p.m. Thursdays, and 12:15 p.m. Fridays.

"A LENTEN RETREAT: THE BEATITUDES," Friday, February 28, 7:50-10 p.m., and Saturday, March 1, 8 a.m.-12:30 p.m.; Sr. Christina of All Saints Convent, Catonsville, MD, will lead this time of quiet, guided meditations, worship, and a simple concluding lunch on Saturday. A $5 fee is requested; call the parish office to register.

A JOYFUL NOISE on Wednesday, March 5, is a celebration of eucharist, potluck dinner, and Lenten activity for all ages. The Way of the Cross for all ages will take place Saturday, March 22, 4:00 p.m.

THE SUNDAY EVENING SERIES, a new opportunity for fellowship and education with a simple dinner, classes, and Communion, begins February 10, and continues February 23, March 7, 16, and 27. Check the Bulletin, Cross Roads, and the bulletin board near the church entrance to the church for more information. Classes to be offered are a Bible study, "Beyond the Parish Walls: An Exploration of Our Christian Life and Ministry," a class on Belize, groups on stepfamilies and single parenting, and a videotape series on Anglican preachers.

How about adding something for Lent? ASF will host a BIBLE STUDY/REFLECTION group during the Lenten season. We'll meet on Wednesday nights from 8:45-9:45 p.m. in the Student Commons.

Don't despair! If you missed the FELLOWSHIP NIGHT of ice skating, you lost out on a great time. But we're going again by popular demand. Wednesday, February 19, we'll meet at the church at 5:45 and return by 8:45. Skate rental is a small fee and we'll be eating at a fast food restaurant. Call Cheryl Johnson (933-0350) for more information. Also, on March 26, we'll be joining with the Episcopal Fellowship from NCSU for bowling. Details in the next Biddings & Bindings.

The next CHAPEL COMMITTEE MEETING is March 23, at 1:30 p.m. in the Student Commons. Bring your ideas!

HABITAT SPRING BREAK PROJECT: Have you decided on your plans for Spring Break? Do something that will make a difference, and accomplish something of lasting value. Places are still open for applicants to work in this community during Spring Break. The deadline is February 19, when the group meets in the library at Chapel of the Cross at 7:30 p.m. Call Ann Workman (933-7705) or George Loveland (929-4112) for details.

Scrumptious! Join us for BREAKFAST ON SATURDAY MORNINGS in the Student Commons between 10 and 11 a.m. Interested in cooking? Call Ann Stuart Pearce (933-1676) or Dana Harka (933-6138) to volunteer! (No breakfasts March 9, or March 15, due to Spring break.)

Free on Tuesdays? ASF meets for LUNCH ON TUESDAYS between 12:30 and 1:45 in the North Cafeteria of Lenoir. Join us!

*I asked Christ, "How much do you love me?"
He answered, "I love you this much..."
And He stretched out his arms...and died.*

Dear Friends,

Death and new life are cycles that confront us throughout our lives. Old ways of being and living give way to new healthy and growing communities and individuals. The cycle is predictable and renewing.

Our fellowship is going through one of those cycles. We are looking at the ways that we want to be in community with each other, and we're beginning to plan for some new approaches. Wednesday night eucharists will soon be giving way to an earlier worship/meal/program on Tuesday evenings. You, the students, will plan it, focusing toward airing concerns and questions of faith in an open, supportive community.

John Sykes and the Chapel Committee are actively seeking new ideas. Their excitement and enthusiasm gives evidence that new life continues to happen when we live openly and faithfully to God's love.

If you have missed the fellowship or are looking for something different, we invite you to get involved. I hope you will join us in this exciting new venture.

Faithfully,

David Stanford

Are you interested in the future of ASF? The next Fellowship Night will be a planning session for next year. Meet in the Student Commons at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, April 8, for a short service, dinner, and fellowship.

LENDING A HELPING HAND: ASF needs three or four people to work at the Community Soup Kitchen on Saturday, April 6, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. If interested, call Kim McCombs at 933-4115.

Are you interested in serving on the CHAPEL COMMITTEE? Talk to John Sykes at 933-1548 about available positions.

The next CHAPEL COMMITTEE MEETING is Sunday, April 13, at 6:30 p.m. Meet in the Student Commons.

Only two SATURDAY MORNING BREAKFASTS to go... The last two breakfasts will be on Saturday, April 5, and Saturday, April 19, from 10 to 11 a.m. in the Student Commons. Faculty members will be cooking for the very last breakfast. Everyone is invited.

THE A.B.C. SALE will be held Saturday, April 12, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Hundreds of items, trinkets to treasures, will be available. Donation days are Tuesday, April 8, and Wednesday, April 9. If you can help with the sale and have not been contacted, please call Mudge Marsh (929-8612) or Stephanie Willis (942-5050).

THE ADOPT-A-STUDENT/FAMILY PROGRAM will have its last get-together of the school year on Saturday, April 19, from 10 to 11 a.m. in the Student Commons. Please contact Linda Chris (929-7834) or Kim Gilley (933-5081) if you plan to attend.

THE SENIOR CHOIR will present a concert on April 13 of music by Maurice Duruflé: Requiem, Op. 9; Four Motets on Gregorian Themes; and Prelude, Adagio, and Chorale Variations on "Veni Creator."

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR? is the Chapel of the Cross Spring Mission Day, to be held Saturday, April 26, at Camp New Hope. The Rt. Rev. John Hines, former Presiding Bishop, will be the featured speaker. All ages are invited. Watch for more details and registration information.

HOUSE SCHOLARSHIP: Eight hundred dollars will be awarded to needy Episcopalian students. Applicants should address a letter to House Scholarship, University Ministry Committee, Chapel of the Cross, 304 East Franklin Street. Deadline for applications is April 25. Talk for David Stanford for more details.

Are you innovative? The French Scholarship will be given to student(s) who propose and will undertake a work/study program during the term of the reward. Such a program should focus on contributing to ASF, the Chapel of the Cross, or ministry to the wider community. If interested, talk to David Stanford, or pick up an application at the parish office.

LOOKING AHEAD: April 24 at 6 p.m. is the end of the year picnic, celebrating the last day of classes. Mark your calendars for cookout and fun. May 11 is our annual Commencement Breakfast. Invitations will be sent to all seniors. If you do not get one by May 1, please call the parish office, 929-2193.

Last Days: New Beginnings

Dear Friends,

It is hard to imagine another year is drawing to a close. Yet, in the midst of all the new life of spring (which makes staying indoors almost impossible), we know that exams and "last events" are at hand. For seniors or graduate students completing their work, this is an especially poignant time. And there is in all of us a tinge of sadness along with excitement as we anticipate yet another transition in our lives.

Jesus' disciples faced a major transition in that first Easter season. Their Lord was no longer with them as he had once been. Something powerful and new had transformed time. Yet the disciples could not understand or make sense of this new dimension. They returned to Emmaus, or to their fishing, or to their routine daily activities. It is here that the risen Lord appeared to them. It is here that their lives became transformed.

Our daily commitments and activities beckon us forward. There are papers to finish, research to conclude, exams to be taken. Yet in the midst of those comes the quiet, unobtrusive voice of faith which invites us to see, hear, and touch in new and deeper ways this risen Lord. Our confidence is strengthened when we find Him there in our midst, assuring and reassuring us, that yes, he is with us, even to the ends of the earth.

May you have a blessed and restful summer. There is great excitement here for new beginnings next year.

Peace be with you.

Faithfully,

David Stanford

CELEBRATE! PICNIC! ASF will be having an end-of-the-year picnic on Thursday, April 24, after the 5:15 p.m. service. Join us for hamburgers, hot dogs, and volleyball. Friends are cordially invited.

"Who is My Neighbor?": Saturday, April 26, the parish is having a mission day at Camp New Hope from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. The topic is outreach and social ministries. Cost is $3 per person.

COMMENCEMENT BREAKFAST: Sunday, May 11, Chapel of the Cross is having a breakfast to honor the seniors and their families. The meal will follow the 7:30 a.m. service. Seniors should be getting invitations this week. If you did not, or if you are a graduate student completing your work, we'd love to have you. Please call the office.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS! Once again ASF will be going to the beach (August 29 - September 1) over Labor Day. It will be a time for planning, fun, and sun. See David Stanford or John Sykes for more information. Since space will be limited, make your reservation now ($5). Total cost will be about $30.

ASF FELLOWSHIP CHANGES TO TUESDAY EVENING FOR FALL '86. No more Wednesday night services next school year! The Chapel Committee has decided to start a Tuesday night fellowship. The new activity will start at 5:45 p.m. and will consist of a short service, dinner, and a program. If you're interested in helping plan the services, dinners, or activities, contact John Sykes.

SUMMER PICNICS: During the two summer terms, we sponsor cook-outs and activities on Thursday evenings, after the 5:15 eucharist. If you are in town, please join us for relaxing and enjoyable summer evenings.

LOOKING AHEAD:

August 16	Dorms open. Freshmen arrive.
August 19	Chaplain's Day in the Pit. First planning meeting and meal (5:45 p.m.) at Chapel of the Cross.
August 24	Opening picnic after 5:15 eucharist.
August 26	First Fellowship Night -- ASF.
August 29 - September 1	Beach retreat.
