10. We desire to thank the God of all Grace, who in His infinite Wisdom and kind Mercy, has brought us together in peace and love, and blessed us with a good Association. The preaching was of one accord, edifying to the church, a comfort to our hearts. The business session was peaceful and orderly, and we were blessed with sweet fellowship with the brethren, sisters, and friends.

We desire to thank Dr. Franklin for the use of Haw River School and his help on Saturday and Sunday. We would like to express our appreciation to the janitor and maid who helped keep the school grounds clean. We desire to thank all the brethren, sisters, and friends who helped make for a good Association.

We desire to acknowledge that there is none good but God. All goodness and kindness to usward are a manifestation of His love for the church. All praise, and honor, and glory be unto Him forevermore.

11. Benediction by Elder R. L. Fish.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.

3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.

4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.

5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.

6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.

7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.

8. No messenger shall address another in any other term or appellation other than the title of brother.

9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the other messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after any messenger, having a right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.

11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth: the Spirit, the water and the blood, and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and unde-filed and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man s impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.

6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.

7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.

8. No messenger shall address another in any other term or appellation other than the title of brother.

9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the other messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after any messenger, having a right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.

11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth: the Spirit, the water and the blood, and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any other term or appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after any messenger, having a right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth; the Spirit, the water and the blood and that these three agree in one.
2. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

OBITUARY of DEACON BURNIE C. CLINARD

Brother B. C. Clinard was born August 28, 1888 and was called from this walk of life August 28, 1977; making his stay on earth 89 years. Brother Clinard was married to Lucy Shields December 12, 1923, who preceeded him in death June 22, 1969.

Brother Clinard united with Broad Street Primitive Baptist Church in 1931. He was ordained a Deacon in 1969.

Brother Clinard loved the doctrine of salvation by grace and grace alone. His chief concern often seemed to be; would he be favored with patience and faith to wait until his change came. We feel surely he was blessed to this end. We feel his spirit has returned to God who gave it and his body to the dust to wait the second coming of his Lord and Master. Then he will hear that blessed voice call for that of the purchase of His blood. He will come forth in His likeness to sing the everlasting praise of his Father.

Elder Jimmy Gardner and Elder Cliff Farmer spoke over his body and he was laid to rest in Saints Delight Cemetery.

Written by Brother C. L. Allen and Elder O. J. Wray, Jr.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after which any messenger having the right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth; the Spirit, the water and the blood and that these three agree in one.
2. We believe that the Holy Scripture of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the men of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.
4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all of who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.
5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will an ability.
7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.
8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.
10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgement.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

OBITUARY OF C. L. ALLEN

We bow in humble submission to thy will O God, that it has pleased thee to call from our midst a dear and precious Brother, Clarence L. Allen. One who was blessed to walk humbly and faithfully before thee and thy children.

Brother Allen loved the doctrine of Salvation by the Grace of God. He was blessed to travel from the mountains to the sea coast to hear this doctrine proclaimed. He will be missed not only by his home church, but the Salem Association and those of her correspondents as well, for wherever he went he was found to be helping his brethren. Yet, he desired to be in the background and not be seen.

The fruits of the Spirit surely were manifested in this Brother. One who loved the Gospel Order of our people and desired to uphold it in every respect.

Brother Allen was born December 20, 1898 to Andrew Jackson and Rosa Ella Simpson Allen, in Summerfield, North Carolina.

On December 25, 1918, the Lord blessed Brother Allen with a wonderful and precious companion, Miss Minnie Sue Lester, who became his wife. Not only a wife, but she was also a Sister in Christ. It pleased the God of heaven and earth to open their eyes unto the truth as it is in Christ Jesus.

To this union was born two daughters and one son. Mrs. Earlene A. Rakestraw of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; Sister Louise A. Goans of Annapolis, Maryland; Mr. Clarence L. Allen, Jr. of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. There are five grandchildren and one great grandson. One brother, Richard J. Allen, of Reidsville, North Carolina.

Brother and Sister Allen united with the church at Oak Forest on May 1, 1963, and were baptized the following month.

His brethren feeling and seeing a gift in Brother Allen called for and ordained him a Deacon on June 28, 1964. He not only served his calling at Oak Forest faithfully, but the Church at Winston-Salem called for his gift to serve them also. His council was wise and his judgement was good.

Brother Allen was called from this life on September 14, 1979. His funeral was conducted by Elders Claude Brown and Hugh Wray. We would not wish Brother Allen back in this life of trials and troubles, but would say, "Sleep on Dear Brother in Christ until the Lord comes the second time to gather his jewels together to carry them on the wings of his love unto the Father."

To have known Brother Allen was to love him. He was a father in Israel.

May God reconcile his precious family and those who loved him with the words of old. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Done by order of Oak Forest Primitive Baptist Church in conference, October 28, 1979.

Humbly Submitted,
Brother Morris Apple

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after which any messenger having the right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth; the Spirit, the water and the blood and that these three agree in one.
2. We believe that the Holy Scripture of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the men of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.
4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all of who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.
5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will an ability.
7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only be the imputed righteousness of Christ.
8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgement.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

COMMITTEE REPORT

. Item 13, Monday Session, Seventy-First Annual Session, Salem Association.

Elder C. S. Brown made a motion that a portion of Article 1 and 2, Chapter 3 of the London Confession of Faith be added as an addendum to our Articles of Faith.

The Clerk asked permission to speak and stated that an issue as important as this, adding to or changing our Articles of Faith, should be put in the hands of the Committee on Arrangements for consideration, and a report be made in writing to our next session.

Brother W. A. Barham addressed the Association and stated that if Elder Brown would withdraw his motion, he would move that the issue be placed with the committee.

Elder Brown withdrew his motion.

Item 14, Monday Session, Seventy-First Annual Session, Salem Association.

Brother W. A. Barham made a motion that the Arrangements Committee together with the Moderator, Clerk, and Assistant Clerk, be appointed to consider the suggested addendum to our Articles of Faith and make a written report of their findings to our next session. The motion was seconded and agreed by the Association.

2. Having been appointed as stated above by the messengers of the Salem Association, this committee consisting of: Brother Henry Tate, Brother Harry Mabe, Brother Curry Barnwell, Elder Hugh D. Wray, Elder John T. Lee, and Elder Richard B. Baham, Sr., convened on the evening of November 9, 1930, in the home of Elder Hugh D. Wray, to consider the subject wherein we were charged.

3. The committee members have talked with most of the Deacons and Elders of the Salem Association and have found the majority do not want the suggested addendum added to our Articles of Faith.

4. The Articles of Faith of the Salem Association have remained unchanged since the Salem Association was established over 71 years ago. They have been and are yet today a wonderful profession of our faith and testimony of our belief.

5. No Minister of the Salem Association has ever or does now advocate that God is the author of sin. We believe that God is Love, Truth, Righteousness, Holiness, the Author of Peace in the Church.

The devil sinneth from the beginning, and is constantly striving to cause confusion and trouble in the church.

6. We feel that Articles 1, 2 and 5 of our Articles of Faith adequately set forth our belief on this subject.

7. It is therefore the unanimous recommendation of this committee that no change or addendum be made to our Articles of Faith.

8. We suggest that our Articles of Faith be read Annually during the seating of our Association.

9. We the undersigned committee members humbly submit this report for your consideration. Our desire and prayer is to be kept at your feet.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by Prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.

7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.

8. No messenger shall address another in any appellation other than the title of brother.

9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the messengers are through speaking, when he may give his views, after which any messenger having the right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.

11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth; the Spirit, the water and the blood and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scripture of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the men of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all of who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the messengers are through speaking, when he may give his views, after which any messenger having the right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth; the Spirit, the water and the blood and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scripture of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the men of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow, He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all of who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgement.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

Memorial

Elder Richard B. Barham, Sr.

Richard was our friend, husband and companion to Sue, father to Rick and Connie, Susan and Scott, grandfather to Dwight, son to Sudie, brother to Don, Bill, and Bobby, teacher at Eastern Alamance High School, member of Burlington Primitive Baptist Church, pastor of Helena Primitive Baptist Church, minister of the gospel, servant of the most high God, and brother in hope to the faithful in Christ. The heavenly Father has called him from this life. Richard is no longer present with us in body, but he lives in the hearts of those of us who were caused to love him. A day does not pass without the memory of Richard touching these writers' hearts.

He was a humble, kind, and gentle man, a man of good humor, a man blessed with patience, compassion, and understanding. Richard would not have accepted credit for these attributes, but would acknowledge it was by the grace of God that he was what he was.

Richard believed in Salvation by Grace. He believed in the doctrine of God our Father. He believed that God did elect a certain people before the foundation of the world, who were chosen in His Son, Jesus Christ, ordained of God in the covenant of Grace to be saved eternally by the sacrifice of Christ through his death, cleansed by the shedding of the blood of the Lamb of God, and justified in the resurrection of Christ from the dead. Richard was blessed with an everlasting hope of this wonderful salvation, and was most highly favored by God to testify and give evidence of his hope.

Richard is sleeping in the arms of his beloved Priest and King, Jesus Christ. All of us who knew him, loved him, and we will miss him, but our loss is his eternal gain. Richard awaits, together with all who rest in Him, His second coming, when Christ shall call forth His chosen bride in the glorious resurrection and carry them home on the wings of love.

This writer desires to express a few personal thoughts, God willing. In all my life, no one has been closer to me than Richard. We traveled many miles together. We have talked for hours about feelings and thoughts we shared. We have laughed together, and we also have wept together in sadness and in joy. I could discuss things with Richard that I could not talk to anyone else about. It is still difficult to realize he is gone, but God knows best. He departed this world at the appointed time of God.

As our family left the funeral home on the night Richard lay in state, my son, Todd, turned to me and said that while we were waiting in line to view Richard's body, he was searching in his mind as to why this had happened. A voice spoke to him and said, "Instead of searching for a reason, stop and listen for an answer." Then, he said, the voice spoke again and said, "Life is like a day. For every sunrise, there is a sunset. Each happens as quickly as the other; each is as beautiful as the other; but most important, each is a new promise of the other". My children lovingly called Richard Uncle, my wife and I called him friend.

Being appointed by the Salem Association, and trusting in God to guide our pen, we do humbly submit this memorial.

Yours in hope,

John T. Lee

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any other term or appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the other messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after any messenger, having a right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth: the Spirit, the water and the blood, and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.

In Memoriam

ELDER JAMES G. GARDNER

PASTOR OF SARDIS PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

We, the members and friends of Sardis Primitive Baptist Church, bow in humble submission to the will of our Lord and Saviour.

On December 26, 1983, Elder Gardner was called home to live forever with the Lord. He believed and preached salvation by grace, for 24 years at Sardis Primitive Baptist Church. During this time he touched many lives and hearts with his belief and mild manner of speaking. He was a friend to all who knew him.

Being in bad health for many ears, he was given the strength to minister to the sick and bereaved. His loyalty and love in these times of need will always be remembered.

The memory of Elder Gardner will live forever in the minds and hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Sardis Church, the Salem Association, the Lower Mayo Association, and all our correspondents and friends miss him. May the God of all Grace comfort us with HIS love.

Wade and Jane Barham, Committee

This Memorial was read and approved by Sardis Church in conference on the 4th Saturday in February, 1984. The Salem Association asked that the Memorial be printed in our minutes, while in session on Monday, June 18, 1984.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator in the beginning of his speech.
3. Every brother speaking shall adhere strictly to the subject under consideration, and shall in no way reflect on any brother.
4. No messenger shall absent himself from the Association while in conference without permission.
5. No messenger shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.
6. Messengers shall keep strict order while the business of the Association is being transacted.
7. No messenger shall be interrupted while speaking unless he violates the Rules of Decorum.
8. No messenger shall address another in any other term or appellation other than the title of brother.
9. The names of the members composing the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.
10. The Moderator shall not speak on any question before the Association until all the other messengers are through speaking, he may give his views, after any messenger, having a right to speak, may reply to any new matter introduced by the Moderator.
11. Any member who shall violate any of the rules of the Association shall be dealt with by the Association as it deems proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, who rules all things after His own will, and that He, who created all things, is infinite in power, wisdom, knowledge, and goodness, eternal, immortal, invisible, and unchangeable and that this God has revealed Himself in His word under the character of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that there are three that bear witness in earth: the Spirit, the water and the blood, and that these three agree in one.

2. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written word of God and are sufficient rule of faith and practice. They are given by inspiration of God and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

3. We believe that Christ died and made a complete atonement for all who ever did, do now, or ever will believe on His name and that all who are finally saved were given to Christ in covenant of the Father before the world was, that they should show forth His praise.

4. We believe that all whom God did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son; that God elected according to His foreknowledge through the sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, all who are finally saved to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all true saints, and that none come to Christ only those whom He loved with an everlasting love and in due time calls to everlasting glory.

5. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

6. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own will and ability.

7. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.

8. We believe that God's elect will be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

9. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

10. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

11. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

12. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be eternal and the joys of the righteous everlasting.

13. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the presbytery.
