will always be hard-up because he hasn't learned to save.

Often for want of a small amount in cash the chance of a lifetime to secure a home or business interest is lost.

Opportunity slips by the cashless, thriftless spender. Don't let it slip by you—be ready with ready money in your Savings Account.

A Sketch of the Church and Its Pastors

---

PREVIOUS to the year 1861 little influence was exercised in this community by the Methodists. The few members in this section worshiped about two miles east of Durham, in a church known as Union Grove, which was on the Orange circuit, and was visited regularly by the preacher in charge.

On Saturday before the first Sunday in June, 1861, Rev. Jesse Cunningham and others contracted for the building of a church on the site now occupied by Trinity.

Rev. J. B. Alford served the circuit during the years 1861, '62, and '63.

About the years 1864-'65 Rev. W. M. Jordan succeeded to the charge.

In 1866 the circuit was changed, placing Durham, Chapel Hill, Orange Church and Massey's Chapel in the charge with Rev. R. S. Webb as pastor.

In 1867 the Durham circuit was formed consisting of six churches including Durham.

In 1869, only two Methodists were living in the village at that time, viz: R. F. Morris and Mrs. J. R. Green.

Rev. John Tillett served the circuit during 1870-'71.

In 1872 Rev. J. J. Renn was sent to the charge and served four years.

In 1875 Durham was made a station with a membership of 201.

Under the ministry of Rev. J. J. Renn, some of the most prominent men in Trinity church of today, and, who have in great measure dictated its policy and watched with concern its progress from year to year, were brought to Christ during the revival seasons.

Rev. W. H. Moore was the first pastor of the station in 1876.

He was succeeded in 1877 by Rev. W. H. Call.

The ministry of Dr. F. H. Wood was embraced in the years 1879 and 1880, and it was during these years that the founding and building of Trinity Church was projected.

Dr. J. A. Cunningham was pastor for the years 1881-1882.

On the first Sunday in June 1881, Trinity Church was dedicated.

For the years 1883-1884 Rev. T. A. Boone was pastor, and gave faithful service.

In November, 1884, Rev. B. C. Phillips was sent to Trinity. No pastor up to this time had entered upon his duties with brighter prospects of success; within four months he died of pneumonia.

Rev. W. S. Davis was called to occupy the pulpit made vacant by his death.

Rev. W. S. Creasy took charge in November 1885 and served during 1886-1887.

Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates succeeded Dr. Creasy, and for the years 1888, 1889, and 1890 he filled the pulpit with great acceptability.

Rev. R. J. Moorman succeeded Dr. Yates and served the church during 1891.

Rev. R. C. Beaman served the church during the years 1892-1893. During this pastorate, the church was remodeled and made to present the appearance it now has.

Rev. B. R. Hall became pastor in 1894 just about the time that new Trinity College was completed at Durham.

Rev. John N. Cole faithfully served the church from 1896 to 1899.

Rev. W. C. Norman, a man full of consecration and good works, served the church for three years 1900-1902.

He died during the Conference session in 1902 at Wilmington, being the second pastor to die while pastor of Trinity.

Dr. R. C. Beaman was again appointed to Trinity, in 1902 and served with great acceptability a full quadrennium.

He was succeeded by Rev. G. T. Adams, ever alert and aggressive in the promotion of the Kingdom of God. Mr. Adams was succeeded in 1910 by Rev. R. C. Craven, the present pastor, who is now in his third year.

A short sketch like this is wholly inadequate to relate the work and influence of this grand old church. Eternity alone can reveal the faith and work of the men and women who have fought Trinity's battles.

Few of those who started with the establishment of the church in 1861 remain with us.

May their successors be armed with the whole panoply of God, and go forth as valiant soldiers in the army of the Lord.
