FOREWORD

The Historical Records Survey program is one of the many valuable and permanent undertakings of the Work Projects Administration. One division of this work is the Church Records Survey. The Federal Government has recognized that in the field of history churches and their organizations occupy an important place. Under the program as planned the work will extend to every religious body of every creed in all the states in the Union.

Of particular interest to Baptists is that part of the program which concerns the Baptist associations and churches of North Carolina. This work is already in progress and will be pressed toward completion. Under the direction of an able supervisory staff, located in Raleigh, one or more workers is assigned to each association. These workers make a careful and industrious search for all church records, printed or in manuscript, minutes of associations, and any other materials that may serve the purpose of the Survey. With this material in hand the editorial staff prepares a short sketch of the association and its constituent churches, which is published in a separate volume.

Those who are interested in church history will find these volumes most valuable. For both the association and each local church is given a complete list of all records that have been discovered and from which the sketches have been constructed, with a statement of where they may be found. For the association, the time and place of its organization are given with a list of its charter churches. Some account is also given of the officers, especially the first and those of the present time. For each church a like care is exercised in giving essential historical data, such as the time and place of constitution, the constituting officers, the location and character of the houses of worship, and the growth or decrease in number of members.

This work is comprehensive and will be invaluable. It preserves from loss essential facts about our churches. Every one who is interested in our religious history will greatly appreciate it. It will be most helpful also in creating an interest in preserving church records, as emphasis is placed on locating and inventorying the old and rapidly disappearing records of the churches. No reader of these sketches can fail to recognize the great significance of organized religious bodies in the life of the nation.

PREFACE

The Historical Records Survey was created in the winter of 1935-36 as a nation-wide Works Progress Administration project for the "discovery, preservation and listing of basic materials for research in the history of the United States."¹ Under the direction of Dr. Luther H. Evans, the Survey undertook an extensive program for the inventory of state and local archives, early American imprints, church archives, and collections of manuscripts. Pursuant to the provisions of the Emergency Relief Act passed June 30, 1939, the existence of the Survey as a single nation-wide project sponsored by WPA itself was terminated August 31, 1939; and the work of the Survey was continued within the individual states by locally sponsored projects operating within the national WPA Historical Records Survey which continued under the direction of Dr. Evans until his resignation and the subsequent appointment of Sargent B. Child as National Director on March 1, 1940.

The North Carolina Project of the Federal Historical Records Survey was established February 1, 1936, with Dr. C. C. Crittenden, Secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, as State Director. Until November 1936 the Survey operated as an autonomous unit of the Federal Writers' Project, directed in North Carolina by Edwin Bjorkman. Dr. Crittenden resigned as State Director June 30, 1937, and was succeeded by Dan Lacy, who had previously served as Assistant State Director. The work of the North Carolina unit of the Historical Records Survey was continued by the North Carolina Historical Records Survey Project established September 1, 1939, and sponsored by the North Carolina Historical Commission. Mr. Lacy resigned as State Supervisor April 2, 1940, to accept an appointment as Assistant to the Director of Historical Records Survey Projects in Washington, D. C., and was succeeded by Colbert F. Crutchfield. Mr. Crutchfield resigned as State Supervisor December 8, 1941, to accept an appointment as State Supervisor of Research and Records Programs in North Carolina, and was succeeded by the present Acting State Supervisor.

The Inventory of the Church Archives of North Carolina is one of a number of bibliographies of historical materials in preparation throughout the United States by workers on the Historical Records Survey Program. A separate section of the inventory will be devoted to each denomination, or to each subdivision of a denomination which affords a publishable unit within itself. The publication herewith presented, an inventory of the records of the Yancey Baptist Association, is such a unit of the Southern Baptist Convention, with which denominational body the Yancey Baptist Association is affiliated. Field work for the inventory was done by Miss Mary L. Butner, Mr. Joe W. Letterman, and Mr. Clyde Pritchard. The inventory was prepared under the supervision of Miss Emily Bridgers and was read for the sponsor by Dr. C. C. Crittenden, Secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission.

This volume was prepared in accordance with technical instructions from the Washington Office of Historical Records Survey Projects; it was reviewed before publication by Donald A. Thompson of the central office staff. The Survey is indebted to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention for supplies used in this publication; to Mr. Maloy A. Huggins, General Secretary and Treasurer of that body, for his interest in and support of the work; to Dr. George W. Paschal, of Wake Forest College, who read and criticized the inventory; and to officials and members of the Yancey Baptist Association, who generously co-operated in the work.

The Survey gratefully acknowledges the co-operation and support of Mrs. May E. Campbell, State Director of the Division of Community Service Programs, and of Mr. Colbert F. Crutchfield, State Supervisor of Research and Records Programs.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. The Wake Forest College Library, Wake Forest, N. C., has been designated as the official depository for non-current records of the associations and churches affiliated with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.
2. The full names of persons mentioned in this inventory have been listed when the given names were available.
3. Information in this publication was obtained by Survey workers through personal interviews with pastors and church clerks, supplemented by data from available printed and manuscript sources. Membership figures were taken from statistical tables in manuscript and printed minutes of the Yancey Baptist Association and other associations to which the respective church has belonged. Dates of constitution, also, were verified, if possible, from the same sources.
4. No particular effort was made to locate Sunday School records as they are usually of a temporary character. If easily available, they have been listed.
5. Unless otherwise indicated, associations to which reference is made are affiliated with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.
6. A dash (--) placed after a date indicates an active church or an open file at the time the survey was made.

YANCEY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Yancey Baptist Association is today composed of churches situated within the bounds of Yancey County. Located in the heart of the Black Mountain spur of the Blue Ridge Mountains on the border between North Carolina and Tennessee, this county, comparatively small as to area and population, supports a large Baptist membership. In the area of 298 square miles, in addition to churches affiliated with the Primitive and Free Will Baptists, there are 31 Missionary Baptist churches alone, or approximately one church to every $9\frac{1}{2}$ square miles. These churches are for the most part situated in rich valleys devoted to truck farming and the cultivation of corn, wheat, and oats, and along the many water courses, principal of which are the South Toe River to the east and the Cane River to the west, both of which are fed by numerous large creeks.

With the Methodists, the Baptists were among the earliest settlers of the region now embraced by the county, and as a consequence of unceasing missionary effort the number of Missionary Baptists has increased steadily. With the increase in population of the county from 9,490 persons in 1890 to 17,202 in 1940, growth in total membership of the constituent churches of the Yancey Baptist Association has steadily increased from approximately 1,781 persons in 1888¹ to a membership of 4,488 reported to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in 1940.² The latter figure would approximate 26 percent of the total population of the county.

Prior to the formation of their own associations, Baptist churches in the extreme western section of North Carolina, if affiliated, were members of Baptist associations in neighboring states, notably the Broad River Baptist Association in South Carolina and the Holston Baptist Association in Tennessee. Early in the nineteenth century, however, Baptist churches in western North Carolina undertook the formation of associations. Churches in what is now Yancey County joined for the most part the French Broad Baptist Association which at its formation in 1807 extended from Buncombe County to the Tennessee line, embracing roughly the area west and south of the Toe River.

(Minutes of the various associations are hereafter cited, after the name of the association, as Minutes, followed by the year.)

The history of the Yancey Baptist Association begins properly in 1849 when the majority of the Baptist churches in Yancey County, which at that time embraced part of what is now Mitchell County, united to form the Roan Mountain Baptist Association. It is probable that many of the churches which came to the Roan Mountain Baptist Association from the French Broad Baptist Association had been members of the Big Ivy Baptist Association,³ since most of the Big Ivy churches were apparently situated in Yancey County and 9 of the 12 ministers who came to the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1849⁴ had belonged to the Big Ivy Baptist Association.⁵ In 1861 Mitchell County was formed, and at the meeting of the association in 1863 two divisions were set up within the Roan Mountain body, the first embracing the churches in Yancey County, and the second, those which lay in Mitchell County and to the east of the Blue Ridge.⁶ Seven years later, in September 1870, the association voted to divide, the line of division to be the turnpike leading from Marion in McDowell County through Mitchell County to the top of Iron Mountain on the North Carolina-Tennessee line. Churches to the north of this line were to constitute the Roan Mountain Baptist Association. Churches to the south were to meet on the Friday before the third Sabbath in October at Zion Church in Yancey County to organize the Black Mountain Baptist Association.⁷ It was this Black Mountain Baptist Association which about 1887 changed its name to the Yancey County Baptist Association, which in turn, in 1915, changed the name to the Yancey Baptist Association.⁸

Although no actual record was found of the change of name from Black Mountain Baptist Association to Yancey County Baptist Association, older residents of Yancey County recall that the Yancey County Baptist Association was once called the Black Mountain Baptist Association. Evidence is afforded by the minutes of the Western North Carolina Baptist Convention,

3. The Big Ivy Baptist Association, under the leadership of Garret Dewese, separated from the French Broad Baptist Association in 1829 (William L. Saunders, ed., The Colonial Records of North Carolina, V, 1191, cited hereafter as Colonial Records), returning to it in 1849 just prior to the formation of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association. The separation was due to a disagreement over the question of election as opposed to the self-determining power of the individual will. (John Ammons, Outlines of History of the French Broad Association and Mars Hill College, From the Organization of the Association in 1807 to 1907, being a Period of 100 Years, p. 11.) Churches in the Big Ivy Baptist Association supported the latter idea and the association was consequently sometimes called "a Free Will Baptist institute." (Colonial Records, V, 1191.)

of which the Black Mountain Baptist Association was a member. In these minutes the Yancey County Baptist Association appeared for the first time in 1889 when the Black Mountain Baptist Association was omitted.⁹ In the minutes of the preceding year the list of ministers of the Black Mountain Baptist Association had been the same as that in the minutes of the Yancey County Baptist Association for the same year.

Published minutes of the Yancey Baptist Association are available from 1888 to date but no minutes of the Black Mountain Baptist Association were located by the Survey. It is not known, therefore, whether the scheduled meeting took place in 1870 but the Black Mountain Baptist Association was listed in the minutes of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention for 1871¹⁰ and appeared regularly in the minutes of the Western North Carolina Baptist Convention. The decision to change the name of the association to the Yancey County Baptist Association was evidently taken at the meeting in 1887 since the association met in 1888 for the first time as the Yancey County Baptist Association, and although the proceedings of that year were published as minutes of the "Tenth Annual Session of the Yancey County Baptist Association," those of 1889 showed the "Second Annual Session" and thereafter through 1935 were numbered consecutively.¹¹ In 1936, referring evidently to the "Tenth Annual Session" shown on the minutes of 1888, the clerk of the Yancey County Baptist Association numbered the session as the fifty-ninth.¹²

It is not known which churches were present at the constituent meeting of the Black Mountain Baptist Association. Originally, with the exception of a small section of Yancey County which was then within the sphere of the French Broad Baptist Association, the whole of Yancey County, the western half of Mitchell County, and a small section of McDowell County lay within the assigned scope of the Black Mountain Baptist Association. Of the 17 churches which were members of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1870 and which were not listed in the minutes of that association in 1872, two, Paddy's Creek and Rain Hill, were again listed in the minutes of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1874 and 1877, respectively. The remaining 15 churches may have united in forming the Black Mountain Baptist Association in accordance with the decision taken in 1870. Whether or not any newly organized churches or churches from adjoining associations united in the formation is not known. The possible 15 constituent churches were distributed as

9. The Black Mountain Baptist Association was not again listed.

10. p. 67.

11. No evidence was found to corroborate the indication that the Black Mountain Baptist Association held only nine sessions between 1871 and 1887.

12. In reality, if the session of 1888 was the tenth, that of 1936 would have been the fifty-eighth.

follows: nine, Zion, Double Island, Laurel Branch, Crabtree, Bald Creek,¹³ Jack's Creek, Pleasant Grove, South Toe River; and Bethel, were located in Yancey County; four, Beaver Creek, Mine Creek, Lily Branch, and Liberty Hill, were in Mitchell County; one, Turkey Cove, was in McDowell County; and one, Upper Egypt, could not be located.

The passage of churches into and out of the Black Mountain Baptist Association between the years 1871 and 1887 cannot of course be traced. It is known that after the session of 1883, when the Roan Mountain Baptist Association changed its name to the Mitchell County Baptist Association,¹⁴ churches in that section of Mitchell County which had been in the territory assigned in 1870 to the Black Mountain Baptist Association began to transfer membership to the Mitchell County Baptist Association. In 1884 Pine Creek was admitted to the Mitchell County Baptist Association from the Black Mountain Baptist Association.¹⁵ In 1875 Big Rock Creek Church left the Roan Mountain Baptist Association to join the Black Mountain Baptist Association,¹⁶ and in 1884 it was admitted to the Mitchell County Baptist Association from the Black Mountain Baptist Association.¹⁷ In 1888 Big Crabtree, Black Mountain, Lily Branch, Silver Chapel, and Chestnut Grove were received from the Yancey County Baptist Association into the Mitchell County Baptist Association.¹⁸ In the same year Turkey Cove in McDowell County was received "from Black Mountain Association" into the Green River Association.¹⁹ With the exception of Big Crabtree, which shows as not represented, none of these churches were listed in the 1888 minutes of the Yancey County Baptist Association. It would appear, therefore, that they had been members of the Black Mountain Baptist Association and had transferred membership directly to other associations when the former association identified itself with Yancey County.

By 1888, of the possible constituent churches of the Black Mountain Baptist Association, in addition to Upper Egypt, the South Toe River, Beaver Creek, and Liberty Hill Baptist churches had disappeared. South Toe River had probably disbanded since, after considerable missionary effort, apparently, on the part of the Yancey County Baptist Association; a church by the same name was newly constituted in 1889.²⁰ Beaver Creek, too, in all probability had disbanded,²¹ and Liberty Hill may have disbanded since a Liberty Hill Church was admitted to the Mitchell County Baptist Association in 1884 as a newly constituted church.²²

Twenty-two churches were represented at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association in 1888. Eight of them had, of course, come from the old Roan Mountain Baptist Association to the Black Mountain Baptist Association.²³ Eight, Price's Creek, Elk Shoal, Concord, Byrd's Chapel, Skelton Face, Ebenezer, Clear Creek, and Fairview, had evidently been members of the Black Mountain Baptist Association since they were listed without explanation of admission to the meeting. Two newly constituted churches, Green Mountain and Blue Rock, were admitted, and four churches, Cane River, Mount Pleasant, Ivy Gap, and Burnsville, were received by letter from the French Broad Baptist Association. These churches were in Yancey County, with the exception of Clear Creek, which was in McDowell County, and possibly Skelton Face, which was not again listed and about which no information was available to the Survey. In addition to Big Crabtree, two churches, Little Ball Creek and Armstrong, were listed as not represented. Armstrong did not again appear and no information was available to the Survey with reference to it. Little Ball Creek Church was not again listed, though it is possible that it was the Little Creek Church on which the committee on newly constituted churches reported to the association in 1925.²⁴

Since 1888 the number of member churches has remained in any one year nearly constant between 25 and the present 31. Due to the difficult mountainous terrain, a comparatively large number of newly constituted churches have proved inaccessible to a sufficient membership to keep them alive or have been located in the neighborhood of an already well established Missionary Baptist or other church to which the membership has transferred. In 1889 one church, Indian Creek, was received into the association by a certificate of dismissal from the French Broad Baptist Association.²⁵ Five churches have been lost to other associations, as follows: to the Green River Baptist Association, Clear Creek in 1888,²⁶ and in 1904 Jessie's Grove²⁷ which had been received into the association in 1902 as a newly constituted church;²⁸ and to the Holston Baptist Association in Tennessee, the Falls Gap Baptist Church in 1894,²⁹ the Coffee Ridge Baptist Church in 1920,³⁰ and probably Higgins Chapel around 1926. Falls Gap Baptist Church had come into the Yancey County Baptist Association from the French Broad Baptist Association in 1889.³¹ The Coffee Ridge Baptist Church was first represented in the Yancey County Baptist Association in 1892;³² was dismissed to unite with the Holston Baptist Association in 1893;³³ again left Yancey to join Holston in 1906;³⁴ returned to Yancey with its letter and was received in 1907;³⁵ and finally in 1920 secured a letter of dismission to join Holston.³⁶ Higgins Chapel at Flag Pond, Tennessee, was received into the Yancey County Baptist Association in 1901 as a newly constituted church.³⁷ Subsequent to 1920 it withdrew to join the Holston Baptist Association.

The organization of the Yancey Baptist Association corresponds to that of other associations affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention and the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, to which the Yancey County Baptist Association transferred its membership in 1893 from the Western North Carolina Baptist Convention.³⁸ No copy of a constitution as adopted by the Black Mountain Baptist Association is available but in 1892 a constitution as revised by the committee on revision was adopted by the Yancey County Baptist Association and published in the minutes of the association for that year.

In 1892 the working body consisted of all ministers and of two delegates for every 50 members of each constituent church and one for each additional 50 members or fractional part thereof, provided each church was entitled to two delegates.³⁹ In 1900 and subsequent years the constitution as printed in the minutes has provided for seats for all ministers, two delegates for every 50 members of a constituent church and "for each additional fifty or the fractional part thereof, provided each church is entitled to two delegates."⁴⁰ Delegates and ministers meet in annual session on the Friday before the first Sunday in September. Originally both time and place were appointed at the previous meeting;⁴¹ but today the place of meeting alone is set by the committee on time, place, and preacher.⁴² Visitors, including ministers of all faiths, members of other Baptist associations, and persons prominent in religious and educational work, are recognized but are not allowed to vote.

Prior to 1932 officers of the association were elected at the opening of a session, each to remain in office until his successor was chosen.⁴³ Since 1932, by order of the association, officers are elected at the close of a session to serve through the next session.⁴⁴ In 1892 the elected officers were a moderator, a clerk, and an historian. In 1901, provision was made for the election of a treasurer,⁴⁵ and in 1932, for the election of a vice-moderator.⁴⁶ One person may, and usually does, serve as both clerk and treasurer. It is the duty of the moderator to preside at all meetings, appoint committees and perform such other duties as are required of presiding officers. In the absence of the moderator, it is the duty of the vice-moderator to preside. The clerk, who receives remuneration for his services, records proceedings of the body, conducts the correspondence thereof, and superintends the printing and distribution of the minutes of the association. The historian is charged with keeping a complete file of the minutes of the association and a record, to be approved by the association annually, of all historical, biographical, and incidental facts and other data likely to be of use to future historians. The treasurer has custody of all funds of the association. These funds are to be used to further the objects of the association, which are "the sustentation of Home, Conventional, and Foreign Missions; the education of poor young men called of God to the gospel ministry; the fostering of institutions of learning in our bounds; Sabbath Schools and temperance."⁴⁷ Funds for these objects are to be kept distinct from each other and applied according to the desire of the contributor.⁴⁸

40. No amendment is found in the minutes to cover this change in wording. Since the basis of representation has not changed in practice, the change in wording would appear to have originated in a typographical error.

An executive committee, known since 1934 as the promotional executive committee, supervises the general affairs of the association, devoting itself especially to the provision of adequate ministerial and missionary service within the area of the association. This committee is composed of one person appointed from each church, the moderator and clerk acting in the capacity of ex officio members.⁴⁹ An annual report is made to the association. Originally the executive committee was composed of five members appointed at each annual meeting.⁵⁰ In 1898 on motion the five members were reduced to three.⁵¹

Prior to 1903, general committees were appointed on the opening day of the annual meeting of the association. In 1903, in accordance with a vote to amend the constitution, the moderator was directed to appoint at each annual meeting chairmen of committees who should report at the following annual meeting on foreign missions, home missions, state missions, education, temperance, orphanage, Sunday Schools, periodicals, and woman's work.⁵² With the exception of the committee on woman's work, which was first appointed in 1899,⁵³ these committees, or committees of a similar nature, have been active in the association since its organization. In addition to the educational and missionary activities of the association and its members, the association has encouraged the movement to establish a Sunday School in each church, has constantly recommended to its members the Biblical Recorder, the Foreign Mission Journal, and other Baptist publications, and has taken an active part in the promotion of temperance within the member churches and throughout the State. A pioneer in the movement to supply with produce the orphanage maintained by the Baptists at Thomasville, North Carolina, it has sent at times as many as 20 truckloads of apples, potatoes, and other produce contributed by members of the constituent churches. In more recent years committees are also appointed on old ministers' relief, to collect funds for hospitals supported by the Missionary Baptists, and to encourage the formation of local organizations of the Baptist Young Peoples Union and the Vocational Bible School.

52. Ibid., 1903, p. 14. Though the practice was adopted, the provision has not yet been incorporated into the constitution as printed in the minutes.

53. Ibid., 1899, p. 5. Due to difficulties in transportation and other obstacles to successful functioning, not a great many churches today have a Woman's Missionary Society but the association is active in their promotion and in the recognition of the work of women. A woman served for the first time as a delegate to the association in 1918. Today women serve frequently as delegates, as committee members, and in the capacity of clerk.

An individual accomplishment of the association was the establishment of the Yancey Collegiate Institute which was opened at Burnsville in 1901. The association has constantly been vitally interested in the subject of education, both that of the children in the county and of aspirants to the Baptist ministry, many of whom have lacked the means to attend a theological seminary. Such an interest has been in line with a policy of the old Roan Mountain Baptist Association which was evidently adopted by the Black Mountain Baptist Association. In several instances in the early years of the Yancey County Baptist Association funds were collected to send ministers of the association to Baptist colleges. Support of Baptist denominational institutions was constantly urged on the membership, the names of such colleges as Judson at Hendersonville, Mars Hill at Mars Hill, and Wake Forest at Wake Forest, appearing frequently in the minutes. Education for girls was also favored and support recommended for Chowan College at Murfreesboro and for the "Female Institute," now Meredith College, at Raleigh. In more recent years a loan fund, known as the Watson Loan Fund, to assist students in attendance at Mars Hill College has been administered by the executive committee of the association. The finest work of this nature, however, was the promotion and management of the first high school in Yancey County.

At the meeting of the association in 1888, the county being without a high school, the establishment and support of an academic school at Burnsville was recommended to the association.⁵⁴ After several years of persistent effort and one or two abortive attempts in the appointment of boards of trustees or building committees, a site was chosen, land was donated, funds were raised, and in 1900 building was commenced.⁵⁵ The high school building was completed at a cost of $4,252.72 and dedicated in August 1901, three teachers were engaged, and the board of school trustees was instructed to apply for a charter to the next session of the State Legislature.⁵⁶ By 1903 at least one dormitory had been erected, tuition had been set at 75¢ to $1.50 per month, and 218 students had been enrolled.⁵⁷ In 1900 provision was made for the appointment by the association of a board of trustees of 18 members who should have control of the Yancey County Association High School. Individual members of this board were to be entitled to seats in the association, and were to hold office for three years, the association to "have power to remove any trustee for sufficient cause."⁵⁸

The school for a period met a definite need in the county. Its support, however, in a county small and financially comparatively modest proved difficult. In 1907 a resolution was adopted by the association to instruct the trustees to deed the school property to the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention of Atlanta, Georgia.⁵⁹ The Home Mission Board thereafter assisted the association in meeting its obligations relative to the school.⁶⁰ Meantime, high schools were being established in the county and public interest in the Baptist school was waning. In 1925, at the suggestion of the trustees, the school plant, by now greatly increased in value, was sold by the Home Mission Board to the Yancey County Board of Education.⁶¹

The association is governed by Mell's Manual of Parliamentary Practice.⁶² Rules of decorum are included in printed copies of the minutes. An original provision,⁶³ omitted from the constitution since 1936, to the effect that the constitution was to be included in all printed minutes of the association, was never strictly obeyed though in recent years the constitution is generally included. Alterations in the constitution have always been subject to a two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual meeting.⁶⁴

As a general rule, the list of lay officials in each constituent church is composed of the superintendent of the Sunday School, the church clerk, and the treasurer. A director of the Baptist Training Union and a president of the Woman's Missionary Society complete the list of officials in churches in which the latter organizations are found. In some churches the clerk serves also as treasurer. In many churches a special treasurer handles donations to associational missions, state missions, orphanages, hospitals, and donations for other special purposes. As a general rule each church today has its own Sunday School, though occasionally for several years a church may maintain a union Sunday School with another Baptist church or even with a church of another denomination.

The records of the association are kept only in the form of printed minutes of the annual sessions which include lists of association officers and committees, lists of delegates, a record of proceedings, reports of committees, financial reports, and statistical reports covering membership, Sunday Schools, property, and finances of the constituent churches. A set of minutes, complete except for the year 1930, is deposited in the Wake Forest College Library at Wake Forest, North Carolina.

61. Ibid., 1925, p. 11. In 1927 the article with reference to the school was dropped from the printed constitution. In 1934, the article having again been included in the constitution as printed in the minutes of the association, a motion was introduced to strike it out. This was done. In 1932 the provision for representation of the trustees in the association was omitted.

Records of the constituent churches consist in general of the minutes of church meetings, membership records, including usually records of births, deaths, and marriages, and Sunday School and financial records. Records of the Sunday Schools and financial records are frequently destroyed subsequent to their annual incorporation into the minutes of church meetings or reports to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. Frequently, particularly in earlier years, financial and membership records and records of church meetings were kept in the same volume. Many of the older records of the individual churches have been lost. Others, due to the fire hazard to the frame homes and churches of mountain regions, have been burned. Occasionally, too, a former pastor or church official has taken records away, in the case of pastors, particularly, their own records concerning marriages and baptisms.

1. CANE RIVER BAPTIST CHURCH, 1800--. Cane River, Yancey County.

Constituted in 1800, Cane River Baptist Church was a constituent member of the Broad River Baptist Association in South Carolina.¹ Known as the "Caney River Baptist Church," it was located in that part of Buncombe County which was cut off in 1833 to become a part of Yancey County. In 1807, the church was one of three dismissed from the Broad River Baptist Association to unite with other churches in the formation of the French Broad Baptist Association.² It withdrew from the French Broad to join the Big Ivy Baptist Association, and when the union of the two associations was effected in 1849, it united with the Bethlehem Baptist Church of the French Broad Baptist Association, the united congregations retaining the name of "Cane River Baptist Church."³ In 1888 the church was received by letter from the French Broad Baptist Association into the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged.

It is locally reported that the church was constituted in a log house in which services were held until 1830 when a frame structure was occupied. In 1891-92, the congregation erected the present house of worship, a one-room frame structure with a seating capacity of 500. Dedicated in 1910, the building was painted and repaired in 1915. The first pastor is locally said to have been Rev. John Wheeler, 1807-10. A Sunday School was reported in 1893. Church membership in 1888 was 168; in 1898, 284; in 1909, 225; in 1919, 106; in 1928, 158; and in 1941, 186.

Records prior to 1917 have been destroyed.

Record Book, 1917--. 2 vols. Minutes of church conferences, and record of memberships, of baptisms, and of deaths. In custody of church clerk, Mr. R. A. Radford, Cane River, N. C.

Financial records, 1917--. 21 completed forms. Show receipts and disbursements, including record of pastor's salary. Filed annually in church record book. In custody of Mr. R. A. Radford.

Sunday School records, 1917--. 12 vols. Membership rolls, attendance and expense records, and record of officers and teachers. 3 vols. in poor condition. Kept on shelf in church building.

2. GREEN MOUNTAIN ZION BAPTIST CHURCH, 1800--. (Zion Baptist Church, 1800-1897.) Toledo, Yancey County.

Although nothing could be learned of the associational affiliations of this church prior to 1849, the record book would indicate that the Zion Baptist Church was constituted in 1800. In 1849 it was a constituent member of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association, with which it was affiliated until 1870 when it was probably one of the group of churches which withdrew to form the Black Mountain Baptist Association. In 1888 it appears as a member of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged. In 1897 Green Mountain Baptist Church (see entry no. 22) was disbanded and the members united with Zion, after which the church was locally known as Green Mountain Zion Church although it was not so listed in the North Carolina Baptist Annual until 1936. In 1932-33 members of a second Green Mountain Church (see entry no. 44) united with Green Mountain Zion.

The present building was constructed around an original log building, which had been dedicated in 1800 and which is now completely hidden from sight. Extensive repairs were made about 1890 when 16 feet of floor space, a belfry, and a tin roof were added, and the building, seating 250 persons, was weatherboarded and ceiled. The earliest clergyman recorded in the record book was W. C. Parsons. A Sunday School was reported in 1899. The church membership, which is drawn from a prosperous community, in 1849 was 65; in 1859, 97; in 1869, 114; in 1889, 114; in 1899, 126; in 1909, 123; in 1919, 107; in 1929, 68; and in 1941, 148.

Record Book, 1800-1877, 1930--. 2 vols. Record of church meetings, of memberships, including restorations, dismissions, and admission of slaves, and of baptisms, and report of receipts and disbursements. 3. LAUREL BRANCH BAPTIST CHURCH, 1807--. Pensacola, Yancey County.

It is locally understood that this church was constituted in 1807 in a log building, used also as a schoolhouse and located about one-half mile north of Pensacola post office at the mouth of Laurel Branch, from which the church took its name. It is known that the church came in 1849 from the French Broad Baptist Association to become a constituent member of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association. Probably one of the group which organized the Black Mountain Baptist Association, in 1888 it was present at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged.

The second building in which worship was held is said to have been a log structure near the site of the present building. It was occupied from 1880, probably, until 1894 when the present church was completed. This building, a simple frame structure nicely furnished, with belfry and bell and a seating capacity of 500, was dedicated in 1895. Stephen Collis is the first pastor whose name is locally recalled. His tenure is not known. A Sunday School was reported in 1899. The church membership in 1849 was 51; in 1859, 94; in 1869, 120; in 1889, 182; in 1899, 220; in 1919, 146; in 1929, 105; and in 1941, 86.

Register, 1915--. 2 vols. Church conference minutes, and record of memberships, of baptisms, and of deaths; also church covenant. In custody of church clerk, Mrs. Brooks Wilson, Pensacola, N. C.

Record Book, 1915--. 1 vol. Record of revivals, including consequent additions to church membership, names of ministers, and expense record. In custody of Mrs. Brooks Wilson.

4. DOUBLE ISLAND BAPTIST CHURCH, 1840--. In Yancey County, 1 mile from Lunday (Mitchell County).

Constituted around 1840 and very probably a member of the Big Ivy Baptist Association,⁴ this church was the scene in November 1849 of the constituent meeting of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association, of which it was a member until 1870 when it was probably one of the group of churches which left the Roan Mountain Baptist Association to form the Black Mountain Baptist Association. It was present in 1888 at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged. The name "Double Island" was suggested by twin islands in the Toe River near Kona, just south of Lunday.

Within the memory of church members in 1929, the first building, a small log structure with fireplace and outside chimney, was replaced about 1870 by a 40 x 60 foot log structure. When the latter building was burned in 1910, worship was conducted in a small frame building until a new building, 32 x 44 feet, was completed, occupied, and dedicated in 1917. A frame structure, with a high belfry and a bell, the building has a seating capacity of 400. Extensive repairs were made in 1939. The first pastor was Rev. Garret Deweese, 1840-44. A Sunday School was reported in 1901. Church membership in 1888 was 121; in 1898, 124; in 1909, 85; in 1918, 124; in 1938, 260; and in 1941, 245.

All records prior to 1903 were burned when fire destroyed the home of a former clerk.

Record Book, 1903--. 1 vol. Minutes of church meetings, membership rolls, record of baptisms, of marriages, and of dismissions, and financial reports. In custody of church clerk, Mr. Rass Thomas, Green Mountain, N. C.

5. BALD CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH, 1844--. Bee Log, Yancey County.

Constituted in 1844, this church was received by letter into the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1851. It was probably one of the group which formed the Black Mountain Baptist Association, and in 1888 it was present at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged. The church was apparently named for Bald Creek, near which it was situated.

The first building, 1844-47, is locally reported to have been a small one-room pole cabin with earthen floor, stone chimney, and no seats. In 1848, this was succeeded by a small windowless one-room hewed log cabin with benches of split logs, stone chimney, and fireplace. During the years 1883-1904 worship was conducted in still a third building, a one-room frame structure, weatherboarded and ceiled, with doors in front and rear, windows, adequate benches, small bell, and two stoves for heating. The present building, of somewhat better construction, was dedicated in 1904. It is a one-room frame structure with bell. The seating capacity is 300. Minor repairs have been made since its erection. Local tradition is to the effect that the first pastor was either Rev. Howell W. Briggs, 1844-50, or Rev. Samuel Wilson, 1844-56.⁵ It is locally agreed that the second pastor was Rev. W. C. Parsons. A Sunday School was reported in 1901. Church membership in 1851 was 26; in 1860, 82; in 1870, 43; in 1888, 153; in 1900, 169; in 1909, 289; in 1920, 221; in 1929, 477 (sic); and in 1941, 305.

Record Book, 1896--. 1 vol. Minutes of church conferences, meetings of boards of deacons and trustees, membership rolls, showing record of deaths and of transfers, and record of receipts and disbursements. In custody of church clerk, Mr. Andrew Edwards, Bee Log, N. C.

Register, 1914--. 1 vol. Membership rolls and record of baptisms, of deaths, of transfers, and of dismissions. In custody of Mr. Andrew Edwards.

Sunday School records, 1904-12, 1915-24, 1928-29, 1931--. 6 vols. Membership rolls, record of attendance and of finances, and various reports. Kept in church building.

5. Briggs and Wilson are listed as licentiates in the minutes of the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1857, and as ordained ministers in 1858. In 1844, Samuel Wilson would have been 15 years of age.

6. CRABTREE BAPTIST CHURCH, prior to 1849--. On U.S. Highway 19E, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles east of Micaville, Yancey County.

Constituted sometime prior to 1849, Crabtree came from the French Broad Baptist Association to unite in forming the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1849; was probably one of the group which formed the Black Mountain Baptist Association in 1871; and was present in 1888 at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged.

The congregation is locally reported to have held first services in a log building located near Crabtree Creek, for which the church was named. This building fell into disrepair and was abandoned. Services were held in a second log structure near the first between 1881 and 1892, when the present small frame structure, with a seating capacity of 300 persons, was completed and dedicated. This structure was repaired and painted for the meeting of the association in 1921. The first clergyman is locally reported to have been Rev. Johnathan Duncan, a circuit rider who is said to have covered much of the territory which is now included in the Yancey Baptist Association. A Sunday School was reported in 1899. The membership in 1849 was 18; in 1859, 28; in 1869, 61; in 1889, 107; in 1899, 206; in 1909, 168; in 1919, 208; in 1932, 300; and in 1941, 251.

7. JACK'S CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH, 1852--. Between Burnsville and Day Book, Yancey County.

Although this church was admitted to the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1856 as a newly constituted church, it is locally understood that it was organized in 1852 subsequent to the withdrawal from the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1851 of a former Jack's Creek Baptist Church.⁶ It is probable that members of the first church assisted in the organization of the second, since a certain Sampson Honeycutt was a delegate to the Yancey County Baptist Association from the first church in 1849 and, again, from the second church in 1856. The church was probably one of the group which withdrew to form the Black Mountain Baptist Association in 1870. It was present in 1888 at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, of which it has since been a member.

6. See forthcoming Inventory of the Church Archives of North Carolina, Southern Baptist Convention, North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Mitchell County Baptist Association.

This church was organized in a log dwelling. Until 1920 services were held in a building used jointly by school and church. The present simple meetinghouse of wood, completed in 1920 with a seating capacity of 500, was dedicated in 1923 and was seated in 1924-25. The first pastor is said to have been Rev. Stephen M. Collis, 1852-54. A Sunday School was reported in 1899. The membership in 1859 was 22; in 1869, 116; in 1889, 60; in 1899, 81; in 1909, 82; in 1919, 65; in 1929, 90; and in 1941, 82.

A register 1852-1920 is reported to have been misplaced.

8. PRICE'S CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH, 1853--. Price's Creek, Yancey County.

Constituted in 1853, in 1888 this church was the scene of the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association,⁷ to which it has since belonged.

A log structure was occupied 1853-97, when the congregation moved from the dilapidated building into a schoolhouse one-half mile south. Completed and dedicated in 1907, the present house of worship is a frame structure with high belfry and bell. It is nicely furnished, has a seating capacity of 300-400 persons, and was extensively repaired in 1920. The first clergyman mentioned in the first record book was Rev. Howell W. Briggs, 1874-75. A Sunday School was reported in 1912. Church membership

7. Since J. K. Blankenship, "former Clerk of Yancey County Association" (Yancey County Baptist Association, Minutes, 1888, p. 15), was a delegate from this church in 1888, it seems safe to assume that the church had belonged to the Black Mountain Baptist Association. Prior to such membership, it may have belonged to the French Broad or the Green River Baptist Association.

in 1888 was 174; in 1898, 148; in 1910, 100; in 1919, 80; in 1929, 35; and in 1941, 107.

9. PLEASANT GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH, 1856--. In Yancey County, 12 miles northeast of Burnsville, near Green Mountain (Mitchell County).

Pleasant Grove was received into the Roan Mountain Baptist Association in 1856 as a newly constituted church. Probably one of the group of churches which withdrew in 1870 to form the Black Mountain Baptist Association, in 1888 it was present at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, with which it has been continuously affiliated, with exception of the year 1918 when the association refused to seat delegates from the church owing to a disagreement as to church policy.

A description of the first house used for worship could not be obtained. The present building, erected 1904-5, is a one-room frame structure, with a seating capacity of 400. It was dedicated in 1906, and a new floor was laid in 1917. The first pastor was Rev. James Collis who served during the year 1856, but the length of whose tenure could not be determined. A Sunday School was reported in 1902. In 1856 the church had a membership of 35; in 1866, of 31; in 1896, of 72; in 1906, of 128; in 1916, of 162; in 1926, of 134; in 1936, of 157; and in 1941, of 180.

Sunday School records, 1910--. 2 vols. Membership rolls, list of officers and teachers, and attendance and expense records. Kept in church building.

10. ELK SHOAL BAPTIST CHURCH, 1868--. On Cane River, $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of Cane River Post Office, Yancey County.

Constituted in 1868, Elk Shoal was first a member of the French Broad Baptist Association. It then probably joined the Black Mountain Baptist Association, for it was present in 1888 at the meeting of the Yancey County Baptist Association, to which it has since belonged.

A log structure was used for worship 1868-87. A frame structure, erected in 1887 with the assistance of the Methodists, was destroyed by fire in 1913. Baptists and Methodists then erected and occupied jointly the present meetinghouse of wood, with belfry and bell, and a seating capacity of 300. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is equivalent to a certain type of boundary value problem for a second order elliptic partial differential equation. The second part of the paper is devoted to the construction of a certain type of approximate solution. It is shown that this approximate solution satisfies the boundary value problem to within a certain error. The third part of the paper is devoted to the estimation of this error. It is shown that the error is of order $O(h^2)$, where h is the maximum size of the mesh. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to the construction of a certain type of numerical algorithm. It is shown that this algorithm is stable and convergent. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to the numerical results. It is shown that the numerical results are in good agreement with the theoretical results.
