General Information

History

Duke University as it exists today developed from simple beginnings. Established in 1838, Union Institute became a normal college by 1851 and in 1859 was renamed Trinity College. In 1892 the college moved to Durham, North Carolina.

In 1924 James B. Duke established a trust fund for educational and charitable purposes. The chief beneficiary was Trinity College, which became Duke University. The purpose for establishing the trust was very clear: "I have selected Duke University as one of the principal objects of this trust because I recognize that education, when conducted along sane and practical, as opposed to dogmatic and theoretical lines, is, next to religion, the greatest civilizing influence . . . . And I advise that the courses at this institution be arranged, first, with special reference to the training of preachers, teachers, lawyers, and physicians, because these are most in the public eye, and by precept and example can do most to uplift mankind . . . ." The School of Religion began its work in the academic year 1926-27, and formal exercises for its opening were held on 9 November 1926. In 1940 the name was changed to the Divinity School.

During its history the Divinity School has had outstanding teachers, scholars, and administrative leaders,* and its graduates have distinguished themselves by making significant contributions to the church and the world. In 1964 a program of expansion was begun, culminating in February 1972, when the Divinity School doubled its physical facilities and moved into a handsome new building.

The Role of the Divinity School

The Divinity School represents theological inquiry and learning within the greater University. By history and indenture, it stands within the Christian tradition and recognizes its distinctive lineage in as well as its continuing obligation to the United Methodist Church. The Divinity School, although United Methodist in tradition and dependency, receives students from many Christian denominations and offers its educational resources to representatives of the several communions who seek an education for a church-related ministry. From its inception, it has been ecumenical in aspiration, teaching, and practice, as well as in its faculty. Educational policy has consistently aspired to foster a Christian understanding "truly catholic, truly evangelical, and truly reformed."

*Since the institution of the school in 1926, the following persons have served as Deans or Acting Deans: Edmund Davidson Soper, 1926–28; Elbert Russell, 1928–41; Paul Neff Garber, 1941–44; Harvie Branscomb, 1944–46; Gilbert T. Rowe, Acting Dean of the Faculty, 1946–47; Paul E. Root (elected in 1947 but died before assuming office); Harold A. Bosley; 1947–50; James Cannon III, Acting Dean 1950–51, Dean 1951–58; Robert Earl Cushman, 1958–71; Thomas A. Langford, 1971–81; Jameson Jones, 1981–82; Dennis M. Campbell, 1982–.

The principal purpose of the Divinity School is the professional education for the ministry, which in today's world is manifested in a variety of forms. Provision to implement these increasing variations of ministry is a part of the school's curricular resources.

Although the conventional and inherited styles of ministry are now undergoing change, the Divinity School curriculum continues to prepare students for informed and discriminating discharge of the historic offices of church and congregation through the ministry of word and sacrament, pastoral care, and teaching. The Divinity School believes these offices will remain, although the form and context of the local church may change.

With this in mind, the Divinity School tries to prepare students for the mature performance of their vocation. It hopes to develop in each student a disciplined intelligence, informed by sound learning and equipped for worthy professional service. The resources are offered to students with a diversity of ministerial aims, although the school seeks, by recruitment and financial support, to prepare persons for ordination or lay professional vocations in the churches. This is regarded as a service to the Church, to the world, and primarily to the Lord of the Church.

The Relation of the Divinity School to Duke University

The Divinity School is an integral part of the University and shares fully in its activities, privileges, and responsibilities. The Sunday services in the University Chapel give Divinity School students each year an opportunity to hear several of the country's leading ministers. The University libraries make a rich collection of books and other materials easily accessible. Without paying additional fees, selected courses in the graduate and professional schools are open to Divinity School students, as well as the general, cultural, and recreational resources of the University.

Library Resources

Divinity School Library. The Divinity School Library contains a collection of more than 210,000 volumes in the field of religion and related disciplines and affords an unusual wealth of material for the seminary student. Although an integral part of the University's eleven-unit library system, which possesses more than 3,000,000 volumes, the Divinity School Library has its own separate facilities in the Divinity School Building. Its book collection is operated on the open stack system, and its reading rooms provide study facilities for students, space for the special reference collection in religion, and for the more than 600 religious periodicals to which the library currently subscribes.

Staffed by a librarian and a reference librarian trained in theology as well as library administration, by a supporting staff of three persons, and by a number of student assistants, the Divinity School Library offers a variety of reference services to assist the student in selecting and locating materials. The staff, in cooperation with the faculty, maintains a book and periodical collection to support basic courses and advanced research in all major fields of religious studies.

The Divinity School Library is adjacent to the Perkins Library. The seminary student may use the resources and facilities of the Perkins Library, some of which include manuscripts, archives, public documents, newspapers, periodicals, microfilms, maps, rare materials (among which are eighty-one prized ancient Greek manuscripts), and reference assistance. There is a provision for borrowing books from the libraries of the University of North Carolina and other neighboring institutions.

Admissions

Requirements and Procedures

The Divinity School is a fully accredited member of the Association of Theological Schools and is one of thirteen accredited seminaries of the United Methodist Church. It considers candidates for admission who hold an A.B. degree, or its equivalent, from a college approved by a regional accrediting body.

Preseminary Curriculum. The Divinity School follows the guidelines of the Association of Theological Schools with respect to undergraduate preparation for theological study. In general, this means a strong background in liberal arts, especially the humanities. A well-rounded background in English language and literature, history, philosophy, psychology, religion, social science, and foreign languages is especially desirable.

Application Procedures. Application forms secured from the admissions office should be filed six to twelve months in advance of the intended date of enrollment. Ordinarily, no application for a degree program will be accepted after 15 May and 15 November for September and January enrollments, respectively. The student should provide the following supporting documents and information: (1) one copy of the official transcript from each college, university, or seminary attended sent directly to the Director of Admissions by the institution; (2) one supplementary transcript, sent as soon as possible, showing completion of work which was in progress when the earlier transcript was made; and (3) the names of five persons best qualified to judge the applicant as a prospective student in the Divinity School who will be contacted by the school for written letters of recommendation. Materials submitted in support of an application are not released for other purposes and cannot be returned to the applicant.

Applicants are strongly urged to come for on-campus visits and interviews prior to final admission. A minimum of thirty days is required to process any application for a degree program.

Graduates of unaccredited senior colleges and universities may apply for admission but will be admitted only on a limited program basis.

Additional Procedures for International Students. Fully qualified students from outside the United States are welcome to apply for admission to the Divinity School. In applying for admission the international student must, in addition to the information required of all students, submit with the application material: (1) if the student's native language is not English, certification of English proficiency demonstrated by scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), administered through the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, New Jersey, (the Divinity School requires a score of 550 or higher on the TOEFL); (2) a statement of endorsement from an official of the student's national ecclesiastical body, affirming that ecclesiastical body's support for the student's pursuit of theological studies in the United States and welcoming the student into active ministry under its jurisdiction following the student's study in this country; and (3) a statement demonstrating financial arrangements for the proposed term at the Divinity School (estimated costs per calendar year are $10,000*). An international student must submit scores from the TOEFL, a financial statement, an endorsement by an official of an ecclesiastical body, and have all transcripts and five letters of recommendation sent to the Admissions Office of the Divinity School before the Divinity School will make any offer of admission.

Admission Requirements. Those persons are encouraged to apply:

- 1. who have or will have been awarded a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university prior to their intended date of enrollment;
- 2. who have attained at least an overall B-(2.65 on 4.0 scale) academic average; and
- 3. who are committed to some form of ordained or lay ministry.

Applicants are evaluated on the basis of academic attainment, future promise for ministry, and vocational clarity and commitment.

Admission on Limited Program. Limited program is a special relation between the school and the student, designed to encourage and support academic achievement. Students may be admitted on limited program for a number of reasons including an undergraduate degree in a program other than liberal arts, an undergraduate degree from a nonaccredited college, or an undergraduate transcript that does not fully meet Divinity School standards.

*Figures are based on 1982-83 charges and are subject to change.

Limited program means reduced schedules of work, with the amount determined by the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs (ordinarily no more than three courses each of the first two semesters), and also includes a review of work at the end of each semester by the Committee on Academic Standing until limited program is lifted.

Admission as a Special Student. Special student status is a restricted category of admission for persons who do not have need of a degree program and who desire access to the rich offerings of the Divinity School curriculum for particular purposes. Special student status may be granted after a person has submitted an application and all transcripts of undergraduate academic work and when all three letters of recommendation have been received from listed references. Applications for special student status must be submitted at least thirty days prior to the intended date of enrollment. Special students are ineligible for any form of financial assistance through the Divinity School.

Admission Acceptance. Applicants are expected to indicate their acceptance of admission within three weeks and to confirm this with the payment of an admission fee of $50. Upon matriculation, this fee is applied to the first semester tuition charge.

To complete admission students must provide a certificate of immunization and general health to the student health service. The admission office must also receive a final transcript verifying the conferral of the undergraduate degree.

Persons who do not matriculate at the time for which they were originally admitted forfeit admission unless they present a written request for postponement to the Director of Admissions and Student Affairs.

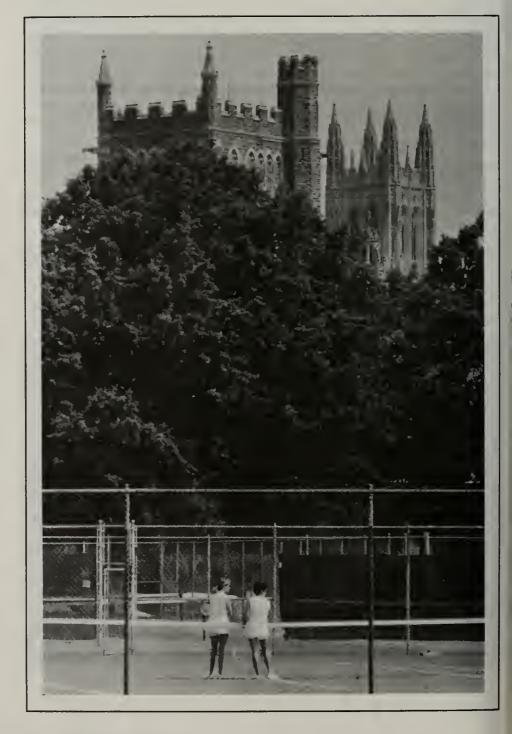

Transfer of Credit. Transfer of credit from theological schools accredited by the Association of Theological Schools is allowed by the Divinity School. Credit from another institution will normally be limited to one-third of the total number of credits required for graduation by the Divinity School. In each case a letter of honorable dismissal from the school from which transfer is made is required along with a transcript of academic credits. Applicants for transfer into a degree program are evaluated on the same basis as other applicants.

Conduct of Students

Duke University expects and will require of all its students continuing loyal cooperation in developing and maintaining high standards of scholarship and conduct. The University wishes to emphasize its policy that all student are subject to the rules and regulations of the University currently in effect, or which are put into effect from time to time by the appropriate authorities of the University. Any student, in accepting admission, indicates willingness to subscribe to and be governed by these rules and regulations and acknowledges the right of the University to take such disciplinary action, including suspension and/or expulsion, as may be deemed appropriate, for failure to abide by such rules and regulations or for conduct adjudged unsatisfactory or detrimental to the University.

The Divinity School expects its students to participate in a communally shared concern for growth in life appropriate to Christian faith and to the dignity of their calling.

Community Life

Corporate Worship

One of the most important aspects of a program of training for Christian life is a vigorous, inspiring, and varied program of participation in corporate worship. This corporate life of the Divinity School is centered in York Chapel where services are held weekly. These services are led by members of the faculty, members of the student body, and guests. Services are voluntary but have been and will continue to be sources of inspiration and strength to the members of the community.

Living Accommodations

Town House Apartments. Duke University operates Town House Apartments primarily for graduate and professional school students. Others may be housed if vacancies exist. The setting of these apartments provides single graduate students a comfortable, home-like atmosphere free of all aspects of living inherent to residence halls. Sixteen of the thirty-two air-conditioned apartments are equipped for two students, and the remaining sixteen units are equipped for three students.

Central Campus Apartments. Duke University operates a 500-unit housing facility known as Central Campus Apartments. The complex provides basic housing for married graduate students, and single and married students in nondegree allied health programs. Assignments are made on a first-apply, first-assigned basis.

For single students one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments are fully furnished. The apartments for married students include a few efficiencies and a number of one-, two-, and three-bedroom units in which the kitchen, living room, and first bedroom are basically furnished. These apartments are equipped in such a way as to provide economy and convenience to eligible married students while allowing for individuality.

Off-Campus Housing. The Department of Housing Management maintains lists of rental apartments, rooms, and houses provided by Durham property owners or real estate agents who will agree not to discriminate in the rental property because of race, sex, creed, or nationality of a prospective tenant. These lists are available in the Central Campus office. Off-campus rental properties are not inspected or approved, nor does the University or its agents negotiate with owners for students, faculty, or staff.

Application Procedures. When students are informed of their acceptance to the Divinity School, they will also receive a form on which to indicate their preference for University housing. This form should be returned to the Department of Housing Management. Detailed information on the types of accommodations, and application forms, will be forwarded to the accepted student. However, if additional information is desired prior to a student's acceptance, please write to the Department of Housing Management, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina 27706.

Food Services. Food service facilities located throughout the Duke campus include both board plan and cash operations. Graduate and professional students are welcome to eat in any of the board plan cafeterias at guest meal prices or they may participate voluntarily in any of the point plans. Details are available from the Food Services Business Office, 106 West Campus Union Building. Board plans in the Blue and White Room Cafeteria and the East Court Cafeteria provide participants and their guests with unlimited seconds-style meals throughout the week at set prices. Dining facilities on the West Campus include a cafeteria with multiple-choice menus, the Oak Room with table service, and the Cambridge Inn with fast foods and beverages. The Bryan Center has a snack bar and a Rathskeller, both open all week, morning through late evening. East Campus has cafeteria service and a snack bar. Trent Drive Hall has a public cafeteria and Gradeli's, a snack bar/delicatessan. The Sprout is a salad and soup bar open for lunch Monday through Friday. Duke University Food Services is the largest student employer on campus, and hires students in almost every food operation. A listing of open positions and areas is available from the Personnel Office, 106 West Campus Union Building.

Student Health

One of the prerequisites for gaining the most from the University experience is a sense of well-being. The aim of the University health service is to provide medical care and health advice necessary to help the student enjoy being a part of the University community. To serve this purpose, both the University health service clinic and the University infirmary are available for student health care needs. A separate fee for this service is assessed.

The main components of the health service include the University health service clinic, located in the Pickens Building on West Campus, and the University infirmary on the East Campus. Emergency transportation, if required, can be obtained from the Duke campus police. Residential staff personnel should be consulted whenever possible for assistance in obtaining emergency treatment.

The facilities of the University health service clinic are available during both regular and summer sessions to all currently enrolled full-time students. The facilities of the University infirmary are available during the regular sessions from the opening of the University in the fall until graduation day in the spring to all currently enrolled full-time students.

The University has made arrangements for a student accident and sickness insurance plan to cover all full-time students for a twelve-month period. For additional fees a student may obtain coverage for a spouse or spouse and child. Although participation in this program is voluntary, the University expects all graduate students to be financially responsible for medical expenses above those covered by the University student health program through the University accident and sickness policy, a private policy, or personal financial resources. Students who have equivalent medical insurance or wish to accept the financial responsibility for any medical expense may elect not to take the Duke plan by signing a statement to this effect. Each full-time student in residence must purchase this student health insurance or indicate the alternative arrangement. The student accident and sickness insurance policy provides protection twenty-four hours per day during the full twelve-month term of the policy for each student insured. Students are covered on and off campus, at home, or while traveling between home and school and during interim vacation periods. Term of the policy is from opening day in the fall. Coverage and services are subject to change each year as deemed necessary by the University in terms of costs and usage.

Since the student health program does not cover students while away from the Duke campus, it is imperative that student pastors and assistant pastors (winter and/ or summer) who are subjected to the hazards of highway travel with great frequency secure complementary health and accident insurance for the full twelve-month period. Students whose course load entitles them to full coverage under the student health program are eligible to secure a complementary insurance policy through the University which provides protection for the entire calendar year. Costs and details of the complementary policy are available from the Director of Admissions and Student Affairs. At the time of registration, a student must enroll in this complementary insurance program or sign a waiver of liability statement regarding health care and claims. Students in internship programs carrying less than two courses in any given semester are strongly encouraged to apply for this insurance. Foreign students are required to hold this or another acceptable policy.

All full-time and part-time degree candidate students are required to enroll in the Student Accident and Sickness Insurance Policy unless they show evidence by completing the appropriate waiver statement contained on the remittance form of the University invoice indicating that they are covered by other generally comparable insurance. This statement requires that the name of the insurance company and the policy number be indicated as well as the signature of the student or parent. Also, note this requirement may be waived by signing the appropriate space on the University invoice indicating willingness to assume the medical costs of any sickness or accident.

Married students are expected to be financially responsible for their dependents, providing for hospital, medical, and surgical care, since their dependents are not covered at any time by student health.

The resources of the Duke University Medical Center are available to all Duke students and their spouses and children. Charges for any and all services received from the Medical Center are the responsibility of the student as are the charges for services received from physicians and hospitals not associated with Duke University.

Counseling and Psychological Services. Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is a component of student services which provides a coordinated, comprehensive range of counseling and developmental services to assist and promote the personal growth of Duke students. The professional staff is composed of psychologists, clinical social workers, and psychiatrists experienced in working with young adults. They provide evaluation and brief counseling/psychotherapy regarding a wide range of concerns, including such issues as self-esteem and identity, family relationships, academic performance, dating, intimacy, and sexual concerns. While students' visits with counselors are usually by appointment, a walk-in consultation service is provided two hours each weekday for students with urgent personal concerns.

Each year CAPS offers a series of self-development seminars focusing on skills development and special interests. These explore such interests as stress management, assertiveness training, career planning, couples' communication, and study skills. Interested students may call or come by CAPS for further information.

As Duke's center for administration of national testing programs, CAPS also offers a wide variety of graduate/professional school admission tests and professional licensure and certification examinations. The staff is also available to the entire University community for consultation and educational activities in student development and mental health issues affecting not only individual students but the campus community as a whole. They work with campus personnel, including administrators, faculty, student health staff, religious life staff, resident advisers, and student groups, in meeting needs identified through such liaisons. Staff members are available to lead workshops and discussion groups on topics of interest to students. CAPS maintains a policy of strict confidentiality concerning information about each student's contact with the CAPS staff. If a student desires that information be released to anyone, written authorization must be given by the student for such release.

There are no charges for initial evaluation, brief counseling/psychotherapy, or self-development seminars. If appropriate, referral may be made to other staff members or a wide variety of local resources.

Appointments may be made by calling 684-5100 or coming by the office in 214 Old Chemistry Building, West Campus, between 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. Monday through Friday. If a student's concern needs immediate attention, that should be made known to the secretary, and every effort will be made to arrange for the student to talk with a staff member at the earliest possible time.

Motor Vehicles

Each student possessing or maintaining a motor vehicle at Duke University must register it at the beginning of the academic year in the security office at 2010 Campus Drive. If a motor vehicle is acquired and maintained at Duke University after academic registration, it must be registered within five calendar days after operation on the campuses begins. Resident students are required to pay an annual fee of $20 for each motor vehicle or $10 for each two-wheeled motor vehicle. Students first registering after 1 January are required to pay $14 for a motor vehicle or $7 for a two-wheeled motor vehicle.

At the time of registration of a motor vehicle, the following documents must be presented: the state vehicle registration certificate, a valid driver's license, and satisfactory evidence of automobile liability insurance coverage with limits of at least $10,000 per person and $20,000 per accident for personal injuries, and $5,000 for property damage, as required by the North Carolina motor vehicle law.

If a motor vehicle or a two-wheeled motor vehicle is removed from the campus permanently and the decal is returned to the traffic office prior to 1 January there will be a refund of $10 for a motor vehicle and $5 for a two-wheeled motor vehicle.

Student Activities and Organizations

In the absence of common living and dining accommodations, community life in the Divinity School centers around a number of organizations and activities. The richness of life prevents more than a very selective listing of activities and organizations.

A primary center for community is a morning chapel service held every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in York Chapel while school is in session. Faculty and students share joint responsibility for these services.

A number of students find both intimacy and fellowship in one of several informal groups whose major purpose is to provide students with opportunities to express and share personal, professional, and spiritual developments with each other in weekly meetings on the campus and at home.

The Community Life Committee of the Student Representative Assembly annually plans at least six community-wide events for students and faculty. Weekend retreats present students with an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other and with faculty, and to explore matters of personal, professional, or spiritual concern. Dialogues on ministry occurring through the year help introduce students to practicing ministers and their personal, professional, and spiritual struggles and growth.

The Student Association. The officers of the Student Association are elected and serve as an executive committee for conduct of the business of the Representative Assembly.

The purpose of the association is to channel the interests and concerns of Divinity School students to the following ends:

- 1. to provide student programs and activities;
- 2. to represent students to the faculty and administration;
- 3. to represent students with other Duke University organizations; and
- 4. to represent students in extra-University affairs.

Divinity School Choir. A student organization of long standing is the Divinity School Choir. Membership is open to all qualified students. The choir sings regularly for chapel and at special seasonal programs and services. New members are chosen by informal auditions which are arranged for all who are interested.

Divinity Spouses. Divinity Spouses is an organization which offers the spouses of regularly enrolled students opportunities for sharing interests and concerns. The spouses' program, which includes topical monthly meetings with a variety of speakers, small interest groups, and special projects, seeks to encourage and provide ways for spouses to become a more integral part of the Divinity School community. Monthly meetings are open to all persons. A favorite event each year is a progressive dinner for couples involving the visitation of a number of faculty homes.

The Black Seminarians' Union. This is an organization of black students whose major purpose is to insure the development of a theological perspective commensurate with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and relevant to the needs of black seminarians and the black church, to improve the quality of life academically, spiritually, politically, and socially in the Divinity School.

The Student Pastors' Association. This association provides students actively serving their denominations in an ordained or lay capacity opportunity to meet, to share, to plan, and to act on their common needs and concerns as those serving the church as senior and associate pastors while in school.

Women's Center. The Women's Center seeks to serve the entire Divinity School community through a focus on the special needs and contributions of women in ministry in and to the Church and society today. The office, coordinated by two divinity women students, is a resource center for the whole community in addition to a support and action center for women in particular.

Theological Students' Fellowship. This organization provides fellowship, scholarship resources, and weekly prayer groups for all students interested in the evangelical tradition. Evening meetings with dinner, singing and prayer, a weekly sharing group at the school, and a monthly lecture series provide integration of academic and spiritual aspects of seminary life.

Financial Information

Fees and Expenses

Estimated Living Expenses. The total cost for a student to attend the Duke Divinity School varies according to individual tastes and requirements; however, experience indicates that a single student may expect to spend a minimum of $8,225 for nine months and a married couple may expect to spend a minimum of $12,775 for twelve months.

Housing Fees. Estimated minimal on-campus housing cost for a single student will be approximately $1,904 during 1983–84. An efficiency apartment for a married couple on campus will cost approximately $354 per month for the academic term.

Housing fees are subject to change prior to the new academic year. A $100 deposit is required on all reservations.

Rates for Central Campus Apartments will be quoted to applying students upon request to the manager of apartments and property. Refunds on housing fees will be made in accordance with the established schedules of the University.

Master of Divinity and Master of Religious Education Candidates. The table below lists basic minimum expenditures. In addition to the fees cited here, there is an admission fee of $50 which is applied to the first term bill and a room deposit of $50. See relevant sections on admissions and housing for full details.

	Per Semester	Per Year
Tuition-M.Div. and M.R.E.	$1,910	$3,820
Student Health Fee	92	184
Approximate Cost of Meals	850	1,700

Tuition will be charged at the rate of $477.50 per course. The figures shown are for a program carrying eight courses per year. Students will be charged for additional course enrollments.

Master of Theology Candidates. A student who is a candidate for the Th.M. degree will be liable for tuition on the basis of eight courses at the rate of $477.50 per course. All other costs and regulations for the Th.M. degree are the same as those for the M.Div. and M.R.E. degrees. Th.M. students are not ordinarily eligible for student financial aid.

Special Student. A special student is one who is enrolled for academic credit, but who is not a candidate for a degree at that time. The tuition will be charged on a course basis. Other costs and regulations are the same as those for the M.Div. and M.R.E. candidates. No financial aid is available.

Audit Fee. Anyone seeking to audit a course in the Divinity School must, with the consent of the instructor concerned, secure permission from the Associate Dean's office. In accordance with the general University practice, a fee of $85 per course will be charged all auditors who are not enrolled as full-time students or University employees.

Athletic Fee. Divinity School students may secure admission to all regularly scheduled University athletic contests held on the University grounds during the entire academic year by payment of the athletic fee of $50 per year plus any federal tax that may be imposed. The fee is payable in the fall semester.

Payment and Penalty. Monthly invoices for tuition, fees, and other charges will be sent by the Bursar's office which are payable by the invoice due date; no deferred payment plans are available. As a part of the agreement of admission to Duke University a student is required to pay all invoices as presented. If full payment is not received, a late payment charge as described below will be assessed on the next invoice and also certain restrictions as stated below will be applied.

If payment in the amount of the total amount due on the student invoice is not received by the invoice due date, a penalty charge will be accrued from the billing date of the invoice. The penalty charge will be at a rate of 1<sup>/3</sup> percent per month (16 percent per annum) applied to the past due balance on the student invoice. The past due balance is defined as the previous balance less any payments and credits received during the current month and also any student loan memo credits, related to the previous balance, which appear on the invoice.

An individual will be in default of this agreement if the total amount due on the student invoice is not paid in full by the invoice due date. An individual who is in default will not be allowed to register for classes, receive a transcript of academic records, have academic credits certified, be granted a leave of absence, or receive a diploma at graduation. In addition, an individual in default may be subject to withdrawal from school.

Refunds of tuition and fees are governed by the following policy:

In the event of death a full tuition and fees refund will be granted.

In all other cases of withdrawal from school or withdrawal from one or more courses, tuition will be refunded according to the following schedule: withdrawal before the opening of classes—a full refund; withdrawal during the first or second week—80 percent; withdrawal during the third through fifth week—60 percent; withdrawal during the sixth week—20 percent; withdrawal after the sixth week—no refund.

A student may reduce the number of courses for which he or she has registered for an appropriate reason with the approval of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. If a student receives permission to drop one or more courses, tuition will be refunded according to the following schedule: during the first or second week of the semester—100 percent; during the third through fifth week—60 percent; during the sixth week—20 percent; after the sixth week—no refund.

Tuition or other charges paid from grants or loans will be restored to those funds on the same prorate basis and will be refunded to the student or carried forward.

These regulations apply to all Divinity School students—degree candidates, special students, and auditors.

Debts. No records are released, and no students are considered by the faculty as candidates for graduation, until they have settled with the Bursar for all indebtedness. Bills may be sent to parents or guardians provided the Bursar has been requested in writing to do so. Failure to pay all University charges on or before the times specified by the University for the semester will bar the student from class attendance until the account is settled in full.

Motor Vehicle Registration Fee. There is a $20 registration fee for all automobiles ($10 for two-wheeled motor vehicles) used on campus. For specifics see the chapter "Community Life."

Student Financial Aid

A student should select a school on the basis of educational opportunity. At the same time financial consideration will be a legitimate and often pressing concern. Each student should formulate at least a tentative plan for financing the entire seminary education. Although the exact method of financing the full theological degree may not be assured at the beginning, a student should have a clear understanding of the expenses and available sources of income for the first year and the assurance that there exist ways of financing subsequent years.

The Committee on Financial Aid will counsel the student concerning financial needs and possible resources. There is constant review of available resources in order to assist the greatest number of students. However, the basic financial responsibility belongs to the student who is expected to rely upon personal and family resources and earning and borrowing power. Other resources may include the student's church, civic groups, foundations, and resourses of the school which may include grants, loans, field education grants, and employment. It is the goal of the financial aid office to assist each student in planning a financial program so that as little indebtedness as possible will be incurred.

The total amount available through the Divinity School is limited. Further, the conditions set forth by the individual or institutional donors determine the circumstances under which the grants can be made. Almost without exception the donors require ecclesiastical endorsement and/or declaration of ministerial vocational aim.

The principles regarding the disbursement of financial aid are as follows:

- 1. Financial aid is recommended on the basis of demonstrated need. All students must file an application which substantiates needs and provides full information on potential resources. This is essential in order to make Divinity School funds available to the greatest number of students.
- 2. The total amount of financial aid available to any one student cannot exceed the average demonstrated need.
- 3. Grants will be made within the limits of the conditions set forth governing each source.
- 4. The conditions at the beginning of the academic year determining financial needs shall be the governing criteria for the year. Financial aid programs are set up on a yearly basis, except for those students who may enter the second semester and/or those few whose status may change.
- 5. Financial aid grants are made on a one-year basis. The assistance may consist of scholarships, loans, tuition grants, grants-in-aid, field education grants, and employment, which may be worked out in various combinations on a yearly basis. A new application must be filed each year.
- 6. Application for financial aid may be made by entering students at time of admission or currently enrolled students by 1 December. Notification will be given after committee approval. Student pastors serving United Methodist churches can be notified after the pastoral charge and Annual Conference determine salary schedules. Financial aid applications for students anticipating fall matriculation are reviewed beginning in mid-February. Applications for assistance will not be accepted after 1 June for September enrollment or after 15 December for January enrollment.
- Ordinarily financial aid is not available beyond six semesters (eight for pastors on reduced load).

- 8. Students who have questions about the Divinity School's response to their financial aid request should first speak with the financial aid secretary. Where desired, students may file an appeals form for full review by the financial aid appeals committee.
- 9. Special students and Th.M. students (with the exception of one international scholar annually) are not eligible for any form of financial assistance from the Divinity School. Th.M. students are eligible to apply for denominational and federal loans.

Financial Resources

Personal. In order that both the church and the Divinity School may be able to extend the use of their limited funds to as many students as possible, a student who desires a theological education should be willing to defray as far as possible the cost of such an education. Resources may include savings, earnings, and gifts, support or loans, and if married, earnings of a spouse. In calculating anticipated income, the student first considers personal resources.

Church. Many local churches and conferences or other governing bodies provide gifts and grants for theological education, such as ministerial education funds which provide grants and/or service loans to theological students. The student makes application to the home church, Annual Conference, Presbytery, or other governing body. The financial aid office cooperates with these church agencies in making recommendations and in handling the funds. United Methodist students and others must be under the care of the appropriate church body to be eligible for church support. The school cannot compensate for a student's indisposition to receive church funds when such are available on application through the Annual Conference Ministerial Education Fund or other agencies.

The Divinity School, as a member school of the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools, takes cognizance of and subscribes to recommended policy and practice regarding the administration of United Methodist Church funds for student financial aid as adopted by the association, 1 June 1970, and as bearing upon tuition grants, as follows:

Resources for tuition grants, scholarships or the like are primarily available to students with declared vocational aims leading to ordination or recognized lay ministries and supported by commendation or endorsement of appropriate church representatives. At the same time, we believe that consideration for a tuition grant may be accorded to students who adequately indicate conscientious concern to explore, through seminary studies, a recognized church-related vocation. Finally, it is our judgment that, where the above-mentioned conditions are deemed to be absent respecting a candidate for admission, the decision to admit such a candidate should be without the assurance of any tuition subsidy deriving from church funds. (AUMTS Minutes, 1 June 1970.)

Divinity School Scholarships. A limited number of scholarships are available to encourage qualified students to pursue their preparation for the Christian ministry.

Scholarships for Academic Merit. Each year the Divinity School awards ten scholarships to entering junior students on the basis of academic excellence in their undergraduate programs and promise for Christian ministry. The specific amount of a scholarship for academic merit will depend upon a student's demonstrated financial need and will not exceed a maximum $3,000.

Ten scholarships for academic merit are given for the middle and senior years of study on the basis of class standing, i.e., the top ten achievers in each class receive the scholarships. The scholarships pay up to $2,500 each, depending upon a student's demonstrated financial need.

The Dean's Scholarship. The Dean's scholarships will be awarded to at least ten recipients each year. These persons must represent strong promise for Christian ministry, academic achievement, and demonstrated financial need. Factors which will be taken into account are ethnic origin, missional responsibilities for the Church at home and abroad, and special denominational needs. The specific amount of the scholarship will be based upon demonstrated need and may go up to $2,500 per year. The scholarship is renewable for two years assuming continued academic attainment, development of ministerial promise, and demonstrated financial need.

International Student Scholarships. In cooperation with the Crusade Scholarship Committee of the United Methodist Church and other authorized church agencies, students are selected and admitted to courses of study. Scholarships for such students are provided from the Lewis Clarence Kerner Scholarship Fund and from individual churches and private philanthropy.

Tuition Grants. These are available in amounts commensurate with demonstrated need as adjudged by the Committee on Financial Aid. Entering students may apply, on notice of admission, by submitting the financial aid application to the Office of Financial Aid. Enrolled students may apply by annual renewal of their financial aid request. Because of the purpose and attendant educational objectives of the school, resources for tuition grants are primarily available to students with declared aims leading to ordination or recognized lay ministries.

Field Education Grants. Varying amounts are made available through the Divinity School to students who choose to participate in the field education program. The Offices of Field Education and Financial Aid work together in determining placement and grant amount. This program includes the summer assistants, winter assistants, and student pastors. See full description under the section on field education.

Duke Endowment Student Pastor Grants. United Methodist students serving under episcopal appointment as student pastors in the state of North Carolina may qualify for tuition assistance up to $1,600 through the Duke Endowment. The Financial Aid Committee will determine student eligibility for such assistance after appointments are read at the meetings of the two North Carolina United Methodist Annual Conferences.

Loans. Loan funds held in trust by the University, as well as United Methodist student loans and funds supplied by the federal government through the National Defense Education Act of 1958 are available to qualified students. The application must be submitted by 1 July.

Unless otherwise indicated, all correspondence concerning financial aid should be directed to: Financial Aid Office, The Divinity School, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina 27706.

Employment. Students or spouses desiring employment with the University should apply to the Director of Personnel, Duke University. Students or spouses make their own arrangements for employment either in the city of Durham or on campus.

Special Funds

Certain special funds have been established, the income from which is used to provide financial aid through scholarships and field education grants for students wishing to secure training in preparation for Christian ministry. The resources listed below include endowed funds and funds which have a variety of purposes.

Alumni Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1976 by the alumni of the Divinity School to provide financial support for ministerial candidates.

R. Ernest Atkinson Legacy. This legacy was established in 1952 under the will of the Reverend R. Ernest Atkinson, Trinity College Class of 1917, Richmond, Virginia.

M. M. Brabham Scholarship and Loan Fund. This fund was established in 1981 by Sara K. Brabham in memory of her father, the Reverend Mathew Moye Brabham; her mother, Fannie Cannon Brabham; and her sisters, Maud Brabham and Mary Moey Brabham. The fund is administered on behalf of St. Paul United Methodist Church, Ninety-six, South Carolina.

Fred W. Bradshaw Fund. This fund was established by Fred W. Bradshaw of Charlotte, North Carolina, to be utilized for the enrichment of the educational program of the Divinity School, especially to support distinguished visiting scholars and outstanding students.

Emma McAfee Cannon Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1969 by Bishop William R. Cannon in memory of his mother, Emma McAfee Cannon, and is designated to assist students from the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church who are studying for the pastoral ministry and planning to spend that ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

James T. Cleland Endowment Fund. This fund was established by friends and students of James T. Cleland to create a Chair of Preaching in his honor. He was Dean of the Duke University Chapel from 1955 to 1973 and Professor of Preaching in the Divinity School.

E. M. Cole Fund. This fund was established in 1920 by Eugene M. Cole, a United Methodist layman of Charlotte, North Carolina.

Lela H. Coltrane Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1980 by Mrs. David S. Coltrane of Raleigh, North Carolina, and friends of Mrs. Coltrane.

Robert Earl Cushman Endowment Fund. This fund was established in 1980 to create a professorship in honor of Robert Earl Cushman, Dean of the Divinity School, 1958–1971.

Dickson Foundation Awards. These awards were established by the Dickson Foundation of Mount Holly, North Carolina, to provide assistance to students who demonstrate financial need and superior ability. Preference is given to children of employees of American and Efird Mills and its subsidiaries; to residents of Gaston, Caldwell, and Catawba Counties; and to North Carolinians.

The Duke Endowment. Among the beneficiaries of the Duke Endowment, established in 1924, are the rural United Methodist churches of the two North Carolina Conferences. Under the Maintenance and Operation Program, Field Education Grants are available for Duke Divinity School students to serve in rural United Methodist churches under the Endowment and Field Education Program.

Henry C. Duncan Fund. The Village Chapel in Pinehurst, North Carolina, established this fund in 1982 in honor of its pastor, Chaplain Henry C. Duncan, a member of the Divinity School Class of 1949.

N. Edward Edgerton Fund. This fund was established in 1939 by N. Edward Edgerton, Trinity College Class of 1921, of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Will Ervin Scholarship Fund. An endowment established by Will Ervin in 1980 and administered by the Richlands United Methodist Church provides support for students preparing for Christian ministry.

George D. Finch Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1972 by George David Finch, Trinity College Class of 1924, of Thomasville, North Carolina.

W. Kenneth and Martha O. Goodson Fund. This fund was established in 1981 to honor Bishop Goodson, retired Bishop of the United Methodist Church, and Mrs. Goodson.

James A. Gray Fund. In 1947 James A. Gray of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, presented this fund to the Divinity School for use in expanding and maintaining its educational services.

P. Huber Hanes Scholarship. This scholarship was established by the late P. Huber Hanes of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Trinity College Class of 1900, as a scholarship fund for Duke University, a portion of which is used to provide financial assistance for Divinity School students.

Richard R. Hanner, Jr. Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1973 by friends of the late Richard R. Hanner, Jr., Trinity College Class of 1953, to support advanced work in Christian education.

Russell S. and Julia G. Harrison Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1980 by Russell S. Harrison, Divinity School Class of 1934, and his wife Julia G. Harrison. The income is for support of persons from the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church preparing for ordained ministry as local church pastors.

Margaret Blount Harvey Fund. This fund was established in 1982 by C. Felix Harvey and Margaret Blount Harvey of Kinston, North Carolina.

Hebrew Evangelization Society Scholarship. The Hebrew Evangelization Society, Inc., founded in 1931 by Dr. A. U. Michelson, provides two full-tuition scholarships each year.

Franklin Simpson Hickman Memorial Fund. This fund was established in 1966 by Mrs. Veva Castell Hickman as a memorial fund in memory of her husband, who served as Professor of the Psychology of Religion, the Dean of the Chapel of Duke University, and the first preacher to the University. The income of the fund will support a regular visiting lecturer in preaching and financial aid to students who wish to specialize in the psychology of religion.

George M. Ivey Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1948 by a gift of George M. Ivey, Trinity College Class of 1920, of Charlotte, North Carolina.

George Washington Ivey Professorship. With initial funding by the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and later funding by George M. Ivey, George M. Ivey, Jr., Leon Ivey, and the Ivey Trust, the George Washington Ivey Chair is the oldest named professorship in the Divinity School.

Charles E. Jordan Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1969 by the family of Charles E. Jordan, former Vice-President of Duke University.

Amos Ragan Kearns Professorship. A gift from the late Amos Ragan Kearns was designated to establish a Chair in Religion.

Lewis Clarence Kerner Scholarship. This fund was established in 1959 by Beatrice Kerner Reavis of Henderson, North Carolina, in memory of her brother and designated for the assistance of native or foreign-born students preparing for service in world Christian mission.

Carl H. and Mary E. King Memorial Fund. This fund was established in 1976 by friends and family and is to be used for students preparing for the parish educational ministry.

Thomas A. and Ann Marie Langford Fund. This fund was established in 1981 in honor of Dr. Thomas A. Langford, Dean of the Divinity School, 1971–81, and Mrs. Langford.

Laurinburg Christian Education Fund. This fund was established in 1948 by members of the First United Methodist Church, Laurinburg, North Carolina.

John Joseph Lewis Fund. This fund was established in 1982 by Mario Smith Lewis of Charleston, South Carolina.

Dr. D. M. Litaker Scholarship. This scholarship was originally established by Charles H. Litaker in 1946 in honor of his father, Dr. D. M. Litaker, Trinity College Class of 1890, and was specified for the Divinity School in 1977 by the Litaker family. The income is for support of persons preparing for ministry in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Robert McCormack Scholarship. This fund was established by the Trustees of the Duke Endowment to honor Robert McCormack, Chairman of the Board of the Duke Endowment at the time of his death in 1982.

Myers Park Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1948 by members of the Myers Park United Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

W. Fletcher Nelson Scholarship. This fund was established in 1980 by friends of W. Fletcher Nelson, Duke Divinity School Class of 1930, of Morganton, North Carolina.

W. R. Odell Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1946 by the Forest Hills United Methodist Church, Concord, North Carolina.

The Parish Ministry Fund. This fund was established in 1968 to provide continuing education opportunities for selected parish ministers and lay leaders from the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. The fund sponsors seminars, short study courses, and takes special grants for full-time study leaves. The program is administered by the Divinity School under the direction of the Parish Ministry Fund's Board of Directors.

Cornelius Miller and Emma Watts Pickens Memorial. This fund was initiated in 1966 by the Pickens brothers to honor their parents. Income provides assistance to the Divinity School Media Center.

William K. Quick Endowment Fund. This fund was begun in 1981 by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Kresge to establish a Chair in Methodist Studies to be named for their pastor, William Kellon Quick, member of the Divinity School Class of 1958.

Gilbert T. Rowe Memorial Scholarship Fund. This fund was established in 1960 through the generosity of Divinity School alumni and friends of the late Professor of Systematic Theology.

Elbert Russell Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1942 by the Alumni Association of the Divinity School in honor of the late Dean of the Divinity School and Professor of Biblical Theology.

Hersey E. and Bessie Spence Fund. A gift from the estate of Hersey E. and Bessie Spence was designated to establish a Chair in Christian Education.

Hersey E. Spence Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1947 by the Steele Street United Methodist Church of Sanford, North Carolina, in honor of their former pastor and late professor in the Divinity School.

David Johnson and Mary Woodson Sprott Fund. This fund was established in 1982 by David Johnson Sprott of Winter Park, Florida.

Earl McCrary Thompson Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 1974 in honor of the late Earl McCrary Thompson, Trinity College Class of 1919.

The United Methodist Church. The United Methodist Church makes a substantial contribution to the Divinity School by designating a percentage of its Ministerial Education Fund and World Service Offerings for theological education. The general Board of Education makes available annually two national United Methodist Scholarships having a cash value of $750 each.

The Divinity School Fellowship. This fellowship was established by a group of interested laypersons who provide support for students with demonstrated need.

Dempster Graduate Fellowships. The United Methodist Board of Education offers two fellowships each year for graduates of United Methodist theological schools who are engaged in programs of study leading to the Ph.D. degree in religion. A number of Divinity School graduates have held these fellowships.

CENTER FOR STUDIES IN THE WESLEYAN TRADITION

The resources of this fund are used for teaching, research, and special projects to enhance exploration of and dissemination about the ecclesiastical tradition initiated by John Wesley.

Field Education

A Ministerial Development Program

As the clinical dimension of theological education, field learning is designed to: (1) help students develop vocational identity as ministers by providing experience with a variety of ministry tasks; (2) provide a ground for the testing and reconstruction of theological concepts; (3) develop the ability to do critical and reflective thinking by relating theory and experience; (4) help students develop ministry skills to achieve an acceptable level of professional competence; (5) integrate academic studies, personal experiences, and critical reflection into a personal spiritual foundation that produces a confident and effective ministry.

Field Education Credit Requirements

Two units of approved field education placement are required for graduation in the Master of Divinity degree program. A unit is defined by one term placement, either a summer term of ten weeks or a winter term of thirty weeks at fifteen hours per week. To be approved, the field setting must provide ministerial identity and role, distinct ministerial tasks, qualified supervision, a service-learning covenant, regular supervision conferences, and effective evaluation. Each unit also requires completion of the appropriate field education seminar concurrent with or immediately following the field placement.

The seminar required for each unit of credit will include the use of case material prepared by the student and critical reflection upon the nature and task of ministry as it is experienced in an approved field setting. Seminars will be led by faculty and ministers. The field seminars must be taken in sequence: FE I, Ministerial Development Seminar, must be completed by the end of the third semester of study and is prerequisite to FE II, Ministerial Practice Seminar, taken during one of the last two semesters of study. One unit of clinical pastoral education may be substituted for FE I. Students must be enrolled in the school and have full-time status to be eligible for credited field seminars.

To qualify for credit the student must apply and be approved for a credited placement, develop and complete a learning covenant with acceptable quality of work, cooperate with the supervisor, participate in the assigned seminar, and prepare an evaluation of the experience. Evaluation and grading will be done by the field supervisor, student, and seminar leader.

Administering Ministerial Development

Development of ministerial competency is the responsibility of each student. If the Assistant Dean for Field Education questions a student's readiness for field assignment, a committee consisting of the student's faculty adviser, a member of the Field Education Committee, and the Assistant Dean will assess the student. Divinity School admission materials, evaluation by the Assistant Dean, and if necessary, additional professional evaluation will be used. This committee will approve field assignment, or refer the student to remedial avenues of personal and professional development, including, if necessary, a leave of absence or withdrawal from school. Such action will be referred to the Academic Standing Committee for inclusion in assessment of that student's progress towards graduation.

Field Settings for Ministry Development

Field placements are usually made in settings that have been developed and approved by the Divinity School. They offer opportunities for ministerial service with supervision, pastoral identity, and evaluation.

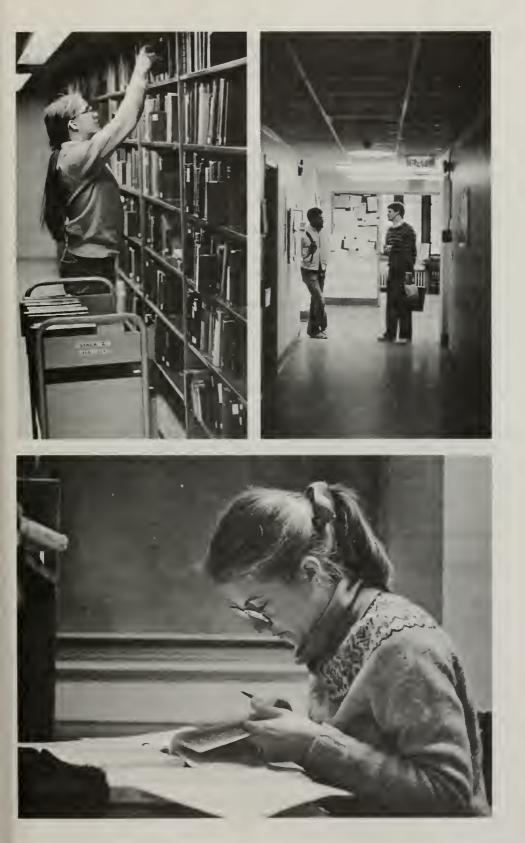

A wide variety of ministry settings is available for varying student interests: parish settings include rural, suburban, central urban, cluster groups, larger parish patterns, and staff team ministries; institutional settings include mental health institutions, prisons, youth rehabilitation centers, mental retardation centers, and retirement homes; campus ministry settings include positions on the campuses of a variety of schools as well as internships in college teaching.

While the Divinity School offers this rich diversity of settings for personal and ministerial development, the large majority of assignments fall in local churches in small communities. Because of the Divinity School's ties with the United Methodist Church, most field placements occur in that tradition. However, the Divinity School will do everything possible to see that each student completes at least one assignment in his or her own denominational tradition.

Internship Program

An internship assignment embraces both a full-time salaried position and a learning commitment in a single context over a period of time ranging from four to twelve months. These assignments are designed to engage the student in considerable depth in particular ministry skills in a setting relevant to the vocational area of interest. They must encompass an advanced level of specialized field experience which is more complex and extensive in its serving and learning potential than the basic field education short-term placement. The internship may be individually designed to meet the needs and interests of the student, provided that the plan includes a student learning covenant, an agency service contract, approved supervisory standards, an investigationresearch project acceptable to the assigned faculty adviser, and participation in either a colleague group or seminar. When these components are satisfactorily met and the evaluation reports are filed, credit for up to two courses (six semester hours) may be assigned for the internship. No additional academic credit may be accumulated during the internship year. Grading for the two course credits will be on a pass/fail basis.

Internship settings may be student-initiated or negotiated by the school. In either case an agency contract covering all agreements must be made and filed with the Assistant Dean for Field Education. Types of settings occasionally available for internship placement include: campus ministry and college chaplaincy positions; parish ministry positions—such as associate pastor, parish director of education; institutional positions; and a world mission internship of one to three years of national or overseas service. Other internships in the church or in specialized ministries in the secular world may be planned in consultation with the Assistant Dean.

To be eligible to register for an internship, the student must have completed at least one-half of his or her degree program and be registered as a student in good standing in the Divinity School. Application forms and processing for internships will be done through the Office of Field Education.

Students Serving As Pastors

Students frequently serve as pastors of churches, or part-time associates, during the period of their study in the Divinity School. These appointments are made by the appropriate denominational official or body. The Divinity School recognizes this arrangement and recommends that the student consult with the Assistant Dean for Field Education, as agent of the Dean, before accepting an appointment as pastor or associate pastor.

The field education office cannot make these appointments. This is within the jurisdiction of denominational authorities, and students should initiate their own arrangements. The field education office, however, will provide current information concerning pastoral appointments open to students and will send references upon request to ecclesiastical officials.

Students who serve in these capacities ordinarily may enroll in no more than three courses per semester, thus requiring, in most cases, eight semesters to complete the Master of Divinity degree. Relaxation of this regulation requires the permission (on the appropriate form) of the supervising church official, the Assistant Dean for Field Education, and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. Students are strongly and actively discouraged from attempting to commute more than fifty miles one way on a daily basis. Extensive commuting tends to jeopardize the student's academic program, health, ministry, and family life.

In keeping with the goal of the school to develop professional competence in ministry, students should use their pastoral appointments as learning contexts for field education programs initiated by the school. Special seminars and reflection groups are arranged in consultation with students to advance their professional growth and performance. For particular field learning projects, a supervisor may be assigned to guide the pastor's learning activity in the parish. Periodic evaluation will be expected from both supervisors and pastors. The required field education units may be done in the pastor's parish, if all the conditions outlined for credit are met, and all reports are completed and filed at the appropriate time.

Field Education Seminars

The two field education units of credit required for the Master of Divinity degree may be earned by approved field placement and participation in the seminars listed below. FE I is prerequisite to FE II. Seminars must be concurrent with, or must immediately follow, involvement in the approved field setting.

FE I. Ministerial Development Seminar. Through the use of case material, critical reflection upon the nature and task of ministry as experienced in a field context with special emphasis upon vocational development and ministerial role. Must be completed by end of third semester of study. Two hours a week. Faculty or staff leadership

FE II. Ministerial Practice Seminar. Case studies to develop competence in church administration, preaching and worship, pastoral care and counseling, and religious nurture and teaching. Must be completed during the last two semesters of study. Two hours a week. Faculty, staff, and professional ministerial leadership

Registration for these seminars should be done through the Registrar's office at the normal registration time. Since no semester-hour credit values are assigned to these seminars, there will be no tuition charge for them. A quarter of clinical pastoral education completed in an approved setting may be substituted for both approved field placement and Field Education Seminar I but students who choose CPE for their Field Education II requirement will be required to take the FE II seminar.

Black Church Studies

The Black Church Studies Program

Black church studies at Duke Divinity School is an engagement of the Divinity School with the black church, black theology, and the black community, and represents an appreciation for study of and involvement in black religious experiences. The Black Church Studies Program exists to illuminate the several dimensions of these experiences, to study the contributions which the black church has made and is making to both the black community and American culture, and to help actualize the potential for service to the Church through its special concerns for ministry and mission to black people in both church and community. The program is a concrete expression of the role of black church studies in theological education which undertakes faithfully to serve Christ and his Church.

The Black Church Studies Program is the visible evidence of a quest for ministry, justice, and community among Divinity School faculty and students. It is a quest of teachers and seminarians, clergy and laity from both races for clearly developed curricular programs, research projects, and continuing education. It is recruitment, counseling, supervision, curriculum development, research, teaching, academic advising, continuing education, and service to black churches and congregations. It is, in conception and nature, an instrument which serves both internal and external interests of the Divinity School; and its immediate clientele is simultaneously the academic and religious communities.

The list of current course offerings in black church studies may be found in this catalogue in the chapter "Courses of Instruction." Faculty include Dr. C. G. Newsome and Mr. William C. Turner, Jr. Dr. Newsome is Assistant Professor of American Christianity; Mr. Turner is Instructor in Theology and Black Church Studies. In addition, black faculty from the religion department and from other departments of the University complement our offerings, and associates in instruction are secured as need arises.

The Black Church Studies Program and the Office of Black Church Affairs work cooperatively. The Black Church Studies Program functions in the areas of academic studies, curriculum development and teaching, and research. The Office of Black Church Affairs provides counsel and advice to prospective black seminarians in undergraduate schools, and has responsibility for continuing education for black pastors, recruiting, advising students about field education, placement, financial aid, adjustment, and a broad range of other student requirements. We encourage and welcome inquiries concerning a program of studies at Duke Divinity School. Further information about the Black Church Studies Program or the Office of Black Church Affairs is available from the Director of Admissions, Duke Divinity School, Durham, North Carolina 27706.

Continuing Education

The Continuing Education Center

Through the Continuing Education Center the Divinity School offers extensive opportunities in education for ministry. The Charles P. Bowles Continuing Education Center in the new wing of the Divinity School includes seminar rooms and spacious study carrels for ministers involved in individual study or in-residence seminars. The Divinity School Library; the Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library; the growing collection of tape recordings of sermons, lectures, and interviews; the Pickens Communications Center; and the Duke Divinity School Review are also available for continuing education for ministry. The Divinity School provides a year-round program of in-residence seminars and conferences, extension seminars and consultations, and special services to ministers and churches throughout the nation.

Admission and Scholarships

Conferences, churches, and other supporting groups and institutions have made available through the Divinity School certain designated funds to assist in continuing education for ministry. Inquiries, applications for admission, and requests for continuing education scholarships for in-residence seminars should be directed to: Director of Continuing Education, Duke Divinity School, Duke Station, Durham, North Carolina 27706.

In-Residence Seminars and Conferences

During the academic year 1982-83 the Divinity School conducted or cosponsored a series of in-residence continuing education seminars, workshops, and conferences, with faculty and guest leaders. These included "Seminar on Wesleyan Theology;" "Nature and Meaning of Christian Ministry;" "Second International Colloquy on the History of Biblical Exegesis in the Sixteenth Century;" "North Carolina Economics Conference for Clergy;" "Interfaith Forum on Religion, Art, and Architecture;" "Rites of Initiation: Baptism and Confirmation;" "Living into Our Baptism: A Retreat;" "Faith, Science, and the Future;" "Christian Writers' Workshop;" and "Religious Themes in Literature." In addition, special seminars have been done for many districts, ministers preparing for ordination examinations, and special interest groups. Numerous individual ministers have been guided in special short-term and semester-long continuing education studies in the Divinity School.

A major week-long conference entitled "The Arts in the Church" was held in May. The conference was designed for ministers, church program directors, Directors of Christian Education, and church musicians. The focus was the practical use of drama, dance, music, and art in the programming needs of the local church. This conference involved faculty from throughout the University.

Extension Seminars, Workshops, and Lectureships

Extension services in continuing education for ministry during 1982-83 included a varied series of seminars, workshops, lectureships, and conferences held in cooperation with district and conference continuing education committees, church agencies, and institutions of higher education and professional training for ministry. The Director of Continuing Education and other Divinity School and associated resource leaders provided such services as lectureships and preaching in pastors' schools and conferences, theological schools, and Christian educators' conferences in many states. Other services included faculty leadership in district colleague group studies and in Institute for Homiletical Studies groups, and cosponsorship of seminars at the Intentional Growth Center, Lake Junaluska.

Two faculty-led "Introduction to Mexico" travel-study seminars included ministers, laity, and divinity students. The Divinity School also offers a study seminar to China entitled: "The Challenge of Changing China."

The Convocation and Pastors' School

The annual Divinity School Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School, a cooperative endeavor with the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the United Methodist Church through the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School, brings together ministers, lay persons, students, and faculty for a series of lectures, sermons, and courses, along with alumni reunions and social occasions.

The Gray Lecturer in 1982 was Hugh Anderson of the University of Edinburgh. Browne Barr was the Hickman Lecturer. Other workshop and worship leaders included Bishop L. Scott Allen, John Cook, Robert E. Cushman, Jane Dillenberger, John Dillenberger, Sam Hill, Thor Hall, Peter Hall, Peter Lee, Roland Murphy, and Robert Rambush. Alumni gathered for class reunions and the general Alumni Association Luncheon, at which M. Wilson Nesbitt, Class of 1941, received the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Lectures and Symposia

The James A. Gray Lectures. These annual lectures, established in 1950 as part of a bequest made in 1947 by James A. Gray of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, are delivered in the context of the Divinity School Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School. The 1982 Gray Lecturer was Hugh Anderson of the University of Edinburgh. The 1983 Gray Lecturer will be Albert C. Outler of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University.

The Franklin S. Hickman Lecture. This lectureship was established in 1966 as part of a bequest by Mrs. Franklin S. Hickman in memory of her late husband, Dr. Franklin Simpson Hickman, Professor of Psychology of Religion, Duke Divinity School, and Dean of the Chapel, Duke University. This lectureship enables the Divinity School to bring practicing ministers of extraordinary qualities to lecture and preach in the Convocation and Pastors' School and to participate in Divinity School classes, worship, and informal sessions with students and faculty. The 1982 Hickman Lecturer was Browne Barr of San Francisco Theological Seminary. The 1983 Hickman Lecturer will be Martin E. Marty of the Divinity School, the University of Chicago.

Symposium on Christian Missions. Each year the Divinity School presents a symposium on the world mission of the Church, usually including a visit by a secretary or missionary personnel. The general aims are "to inform students and faculty of the philosophy and work of missions as seen through the personal experience of speakers; to educate present and future ministers so that they will have a vital concern for the promotion of missionary education in the local church; and to evaluate the missionary enterprise as a significant force in the revolutionary world."

Ministry in the Vicinity

Ministers and churches in the vicinity of Duke University are especially welcome to avail themselves of continuing education programs, facilities, and other services of the Divinity School and its faculty and students. They are invited to attend public lectures, visit with distinguished lecturers, participate in in-residence seminars and conferences, audit selected courses, study in the continuing education carrels, and use the resources of the Divinity School Library, the Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library, and the tape recordings collection. Divinity School faculty, staff, and students are generally available for preaching, teaching, and other services in churches of the community and region.

The Course of Study School

In cooperation with the Division of Ordained Ministry of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Divinity School hosts the Course of Study School for pastors of the United Methodist Church. This school is in session for approximately four weeks each summer and the required studies for one full year can be completed in this period. This is not a part of the regular work of the Divinity School degree program, and no credit toward a seminary degree can be earned. The faculty includes representatives from the Divinity School and other church-related institutions. The thirty-fifth session of the Course of Study School was held 27 June-22 July 1983.

The J. M. Ormond Center for Research, Planning, and Development

This center was established in memory of the late Dr. J. M. Ormond, Professor of Practical Theology of the Duke Divinity School and Director of the Rural Church Program under the Duke Endowment, 1923–48. The North Carolina Annual Conference established the J. M. Ormond Fund in 1951 as part of the special effort of the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences of the United Methodist Church to provide additional programs at the Divinity School. The center is directed by Dr. Robert L. Wilson, Research Professor of Church and Society. It is jointly supported by the Ormond Fund and the program of the rural church under the Duke Endowment.

The center has three purposes. First, it assists the Church in its ministry by providing research and planning services. Second, it provides training for ministerial students in church and community studies. Third, it contributes through basic research to the understanding of the nature and functioning of the Church. Emphasis is given to research and planning studies of rural United Methodist Churches in North Carolina.

The Henry Harrison Jordan Loan Library

Henry Harrison Jordan, (1862–1931), distinguished member of the Western North Carolina Conference, was memorialized by his children by the establishment of an endowment in 1947. The Divinity School Librarian is the custodian of books purchased under this fund for loan, through postal services, to qualified ministers of all denominations or localities. The Jordan Loan Library undertakes to maintain a catalogue of up-to-date publications representative of the several theological disciplines and areas of the minister's professional interest. Books may be borrowed by application to the Librarian of the Divinity School.

The Duke Divinity School Review

The Divinity School publishes a magazine designed to acquaint its readers with current theological thinking through the inclusion of public addresses given at the school, articles by faculty members and others, and book reviews. The Review is circulated free of charge to a mailing list of some 2,600, including alumni of the school, interested friends, campus ministers, teachers, administrators, and librarians. It is also available to students upon request.

Other Programs

Duke Summer Session. While the Divinity School does not presently offer a regular summer program, students may enroll for intensive biblical language courses (Greek in 1983, Hebrew in 1984) or individual directed study. Summer courses of graduate level may also be taken in other departments as cognate credits (maximum of two, see provisions under administration of the curriculum in the chapter "Curriculum."). Permission for such credits must be secured in advance from the instructor and from the Divinity School Registry, but official registration and payment of fees are handled in the Office of Summer Educational Programs, 120 Allen Building, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina 27706.

Facilities for Advanced Study through the American Schools of Oriental Research. Duke University is one of the supporting members of the American Schools of Oriental Research. Accordingly, students in the Divinity School have the privilege of attending the Albright Institute of Oriental Research in Jerusalem, the American Center of Oriental Research in Amman, and similar institutions without charge for tuition. They may also compete for the four fellowships offered annually by the schools, the stipends depending upon available funds.

Programs in Pastoral Psychology. Programs in pastoral psychology beyond the studies incorporated in the M.Div. curriculum are provided in cooperation with the Duke University Medical Center. Three such special programs are available.

1. The Master of Theology degree with a major in pastoral psychology is ordinarily a calendar year program beginning the first full week in June. However, upon the recommendation of the staff, candidates with a quarter or more of clinical pastoral education may begin their program in September. The candidate may plan one of three programs or concentrations: a concentration in pastoral theology relating psychology and theological understanding to professional ministry, especially the parish, through course work and supervised field or clinical experience; a concentration in pastoral care through course work and an intern year in basic clinical pastoral education; and a concentration in pastoral counseling through course work and a year of advanced clinical pastoral education. In the context of clinical pastoral education various professional goals may be sought including general understanding and skills in pastoral care and specialization in pastoral counseling and clinical supervision. The program in clinical pastoral education is certified by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Persons specializing in pastoral counseling will advance toward certification with the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. A quarter of clinical pastoral education (PP 277A or its equivalent) is considered a prerequisite for all programs. Degree candidates who extend their program over the calendar year receive three certified units of clinical pastoral education and nondegree candidates receive four certified units.

2. Single quarters of Basic Clinical Pastoral Education are offered each summer (beginning the first Monday in June and running for eleven weeks) and during the academic year extended over two semesters. When the quarter is completed within one semester, the student may take two other courses in the regular M.Div. program; when it is extended over two semesters, the student may take three other courses. Two transfer course credits will be granted for a summer CPE quarter or two course credits will be granted for the quarter taken during the academic year (unless a course credit has already been granted for PP 177, in which case only one additional credit will be given for the CPE quarter).

Students in CPE may not have other field education appointment or employment. However a CPE quarter will, when satisfactorily completed, count as one field education unit if taken in relation to either Field Education Seminar l or ll. Only one field education requirement may be fulfilled by CPE.

Students are reminded that ordinarily no more than five courses out of twenty-four for the M.Div. degree should be taken in any one subdivision.

3. A one-year certificate or nondegree internship program in clinical pastoral education is available through the Duke Medical Center for persons who hold the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent. Also, students who wish to pursue a pregraduation intern year are invited to apply, provided they have completed at least one year of theological education. The certificate, nondegree intern year can be done at any level of clinical pastoral education (basic, advanced, supervisory) at which the candidate and the supervisory staff judge appropriate. These persons may enroll in the Divinity School as special students for a course or two each semester. Such training usually provides four quarters of certified clinical pastoral education credit.

Admission to either the basic unit or the internship program of Clinical Pastoral Education is distinct from admission to the Divinity School. Applications for CPE enrollment are available in the Chaplain's Service Office, Duke Medical Center. The deadline for filing CPE applications is normally 15 January for the summer quarter and the intern year and 1 March for the extended quarter and the resident year.

For further information concerning any of these programs, write to Dr. Richard A. Goodling, Director, Programs in Pastoral Psychology, Duke Divinity School. See the section on the Master of Theology degree program.

Library Funds

The following funds provide resources to enrich the collections of the Divinity School Library.

Ormond Memorial Fund. Established in 1924 by Dr. J. M. Ormond, '02, and Mrs. Ormond, in memory of his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ormond, the income from the Ormond Memorial Fund is to be used for the purpose of a collection of books on the rural church for the Divinity School Library at Duke University.

Avera Bible Fund. Established in 1895 by gift of Mrs. L. B. McCullers in memory of her husband, Willis H. Avera; the income to be used for the purchase of books for the Divinity School Library and for the support of the Avera Bible Lectures.

Louis W. Bailey Memorial Fund. This memorial fund was established in 1958 by the Reverand A. Purnell Bailey in memory of his father. The income is to be used for books for the Divinity School Library. Stuart C. Henry Collection Endowment Fund. This fund was established by the Class of 1975 in honor of Professor Henry with income to be used to purchase books in the collection on American Christianity.

The William Arthur Kale, Jr. Memorial Fund. William Arthur Kale, Jr. was a member of the Duke University Class of 1958, a lover of sacred art and music, and a member of the University Chapel Choir. In 1964 his parents, Professor and Mrs. William Arthur Kale, Sr., established a fund in his memory for the purchase of books and other materials in the area of fine arts and religious musicology for the perpetual enrichment of the holdings of the Divinity School Library.

The Walter McGowan and Minnie Daniel Upchurch Fund. Established in 1971 by W. M. Upchurch, Jr., an alumnus of Duke University and a member of its Board of Trustees, the fund, honoring Mr. Upchurch's mother and father, is used for the purchase of materials in the area of sacred music and is supplementary to a collection of materials given by Mr. Upchurch to the Divinity School Library. This collection includes 1,487 anthems and other compositions of sacred music, along with sixty-two disc recordings of the Duke University Summer Chapel Choir for the years 1937–41, at which time Mr. Upchurch was Director of the choir.

Curriculum

Degree Programs

The academic work of the Divinity School embraces three degree programs: the Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.) ordinarily of three academic years; a one-year program beyond the basic degree, the Master of Theology (Th.M.); and a third program of two academic years leading to the degree of Master of Religious Education (M.R.E.). All are graduate-professional degrees. Admission to candidacy for any of these three degrees presupposes the completion of the A.B. or its equivalent.

Students preparing for ordination to the Christian ministry and requiring appropriate graduate-professional education will enroll for the Master of Divinity degree. Students whose acquired academic standing, under this basic degree program, entitles them to further specialized study may advance their command of selected theological disciplines by applying for an additional year of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree. Together, these two degree programs constitute a sequence. Although the Master of Divinity degree fulfills requirements for ordination by prevailing ecclesiastical standards, the Th.M. program may assist in assuring a larger measure of professional preparation. Application for admission to the Th.M. program is open to graduates of other schools who have completed the basic theological degree.

The Master of Religious Education degree program is designed to prepare qualified persons, ordinarily not seeking ordination, for a ministry of Christian education in local churches or other organizations. The course of study is arranged to provide grounding in biblical, historical, and theological disciplines as essential background for instruction in and exercise of professional competence in curricular planning, teaching methods, and supervision of educational programs for various age groups.

The specific requirements for each of these degrees are found in the succeeding pages. It is evident that completed course work cannot be credited toward more than one degree. Reciprocal transfer of credit for course work taken under either the M.Div. or the M.R.E. program requires the permission of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs.

Doctoral Studies Accredited by the Graduate School

The Divinity School provides a substantial body of course offerings to an advanced level in biblical, historical, and systematic and contemporary theological disciplines that are accredited alike by the Graduate School and the faculty of the Divinity School, and lead to the Doctor of Philosophy degree. Sharing responsibility with the University Department of Religion for staffing and curricular provision of this course of study, the Divinity School is the principal contributor to the program of graduate studies in religion. However, since the Ph.D. in religion is certified and awarded under the Graduate School, the doctoral student's admission and matriculation are administered under that division of Duke University.

With few exceptions, most courses in the Bulletin of Duke University: The Divinity School carrying a 200 number or above and belonging to the fields noted above are applicable to doctoral programs of study. These courses are open to qualified M.Div., Th.M., or M.R.E. students by permission of the instructor.

Qualified persons who desire to pursue studies leading to the degree of M.A. or Ph.D. in religion, under the administration of the Graduate School, are advised to apply to the Dean of that school. Inquiries concerning fellowships or specific requirements of the Program of Graduate Studies in Religion may be addressed to the Director, 209 Divinity School.

Administration of the Curriculum

Students are required at the time of each registration period to plan their course of study with the consultation and approval of their assigned faculty advisers. Such programs are subject to the review and approval of the Committee on Academic Standing, the Dean, and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. It is the responsibility of each student to see that all requirements for graduation (and for ecclesiastical ordination) are met, and that any special permission granted to deviate from the normal program is properly recorded on the personal files in the registry.

Grading System. The Divinity School employs the grading scale with the following letters, A, B, C, D, and F which have been defined as follows: A, excellent; B, good; C, satisfactory; D, passing; F, failure; WI, withdrew illness; W, withdrew, discretion of the Dean; I, incomplete; P, passed; NC, noncredit; Z, year course. At the discretion of the instructor, individuals or classes may in certain instances be graded simply as pass or fail. Such P/F grades shall be limited to no more than 25 percent of a student's total curriculum at Duke and will not be figured in the grade point average.

The denotations are defined as follows according to quality points: A,4; A – ,3.7; B + ,3.3; B, 3.0; B – ,2.7; C + ,2.3; C,2.0; C – ,1.7.

Limited Program. Students whose work after admission is not satisfactory may be placed on limited programs by the Academic Standing Committee and required to reduce their course loads or to make other academic adjustments. Students who during the first year of Divinity School maintain less than a C (2.0) average, including failures, ordinarily will be required to withdraw from the school.

Incompletes. A student may petition the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs to receive a grade of incomplete in a course. This petition must be filed in writing on the prescribed form with the registry on or before the last official day of classes of the semester in question. Such permission may be granted when a student, through some circumstances beyond control, such as illness, has been hindered from meeting the course requirements. Adjudication of the petition will rest with the Associate Dean and the instructor concerned. The Associate Dean will communicate in writing to the student regarding the joint decision and any conditions attached thereto. An incomplete becomes an F unless it is removed through completion of assigned work by the following dates: for incompletes incurred in fall semester courses, 1 February; for incompletes incurred in spring semester courses, 15 September.

Change of Courses or Withdrawal. Students are permitted to change their course registrations, without incurring a penalty, during the prescribed drop/add period at the beginning of each semester. Any alteration in the number of courses must be officially reported and recorded. The adding of a course requires the permission of the instructor of that course as well as the student's faculty adviser. Any refund of tuition related to withdrawals will be according to the published schedule.

No student will be permitted to withdraw from a course after one-half of the semester without incurring failure, except for causes adjudged by the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs to be beyond the student's control. Conditions of genuine emergency and not considerations of convenience will be determinative in considering requests, which must be submitted in writing on academic petition forms.

Leave of Absence. A student wishing to take a leave of absence for one or two semesters, and intending to return to a degree program in the Divinity School, should so notify the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs in writing in advance. No leave of absence will be granted for more than one full academic year, although an emergency extension may be requested from the Associate Dean.

Withdrawals from School. Students deciding to withdraw from the Divinity School, for whatever reason, should consult with their faculty advisers and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, and must file a written statement of withdrawal prior to departure. All students who have officially withdrawn or whose leave of absence extends beyond one academic year but who wish later to return to the Divinity School will be required to reapply for admission, and provide whatever documentation is required by the Director of Admissions.

Directed Study. Students may, with permission of their faculty advisers and the instructors involved, take one or two units of Directed Study, preferably not in the same semester. These independent study courses under individual faculty supervision are ordinarily in subjects at an advanced level which cover material not available in the regular curriculum. Students wishing to take more than two courses by Directed Study must have permission from the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs in consultation with the student's faculty adviser and the instructor who agrees to direct that study.

Cognate Courses. Students may, in consultation with their faculty advisers, take up to two graduate level courses in other departments of Duke University or at the University of North Carolina. Permission for more than two such cognate courses must be secured from the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, but courses in the Duke Department of Religion do not count within this limit.

Graduation with Distinction. Students who achieve a grade point average of 3.85 for overall academic records in the M.Div. and M.R.E. programs are granted the degree summa cum laude. Students with a grade point average of 3.65 or above are awarded their degrees, magna cum laude. Such distinction is calculated on the basis of letter grades only, totaling at least three-quarters of all courses taken at Duke, and will be indicated on the student's diploma.

Part-Time Students. Students taking less than three courses in any given semester are considered part-time students and are ineligible for financial aid from the school or student health services.

Auditors. Full-time students paying for at least three courses are permitted to audit additional courses, if space permits, with the approval of their advisers, the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, and the instructor of the class. Special students, part-time students, or persons not candidates for degrees in the University are charged an audit fee for each such course.

The Basic Theological Degree—Master of Divinity

The faculty of the Divinity School constantly endeavors to review the curriculum as a whole and to tailor individual courses to meet the needs of a rapidly changing world. Major curricular revisions were instituted in 1948, 1959, and 1967. The curriculum is, therefore, not static but dynamic and is always subject to emendation by the faculty.

This degree program is structured to elicit a positive response to: (1) the challenge to provide an adequate professional education—education for ministry; (2) the needed variability of ministries in today's complex world; (3) the norms of university education; and (4) the Christian tradition.

Aims of the Curriculum. The aims of the basic degree program focus upon four goals, four areas of personal and curricular responsibility, four lifelong tasks which should be strongly advanced during the seminary years.

- 1. The Christian Tradition. To acquire a basic understanding of the biblical, historical, and theological heritage.
- 2. Self-Understanding. To progress in personal and professional maturity—personal identity, life-style as an instrument of ministry, major drives, handling of conflict, resources, and professional competency and so forth. This is to be coupled with a sensitivity to the world in which we minister—its social forces, its power structures, its potential for humanization and dehumanization.
- 3. Thinking Theologically. To have the ability to reflect about major theological and social issues and to define current issues in theological terms and theological issues in contemporary secular terms.
- 4. Ministering-in-Context. To have the ability to conceptualize and participate effectively in some form of contemporary ministry.

Goals of such scope cannot be neatly programmed in any curriculum, and the degree of achievement (in seminary and beyond) will vary with individuals and their own motives and incentives.

The Basic Curriculum—General Description. Graduation requirements for the Master of Divinity degree consist of satisfactory completion of twenty-four courses, including the eight basic courses or their equivalent, with an overall grade point average of C (2.0) or better, plus satisfactory completion of two units of approved field education with appropriate seminars.

The basic curriculum provides for foundational courses in biblical, historical, theological, and ministerial studies, representative of the tradition and regarded as indispensable background for subsequent elective work and individual program information. These required courses total eight of the twenty-four courses necessary for graduation. They are Old Testament 11, New Testament 18, Church History 13 and 14, American Christianity 28, Christian Theology 32, Christian Ethics 33, and Black Church Studies 124. The opportunity of advanced standing adds further variability to the academic program, depending upon the nature and quality of the student's undergraduate academic work. Sixteen courses, two-thirds of the required total, are available for working out an individualized program of studies leading to specialized preparation in academic depth and for purposes of professional ministerial competence.

Required courses may be staffed by one or more professors and are planned to treat subject matter both in scope and depth at the graduate level.

The formulation of the student's course of studies is guided by certain broad but normative recommendations for area distribution of courses and by the advice and counsel of appointed faculty advisers or authorized directors.

Students and advisers are directed to read diligently the paragraphs on elective studies and professional aims and distribution of elective studies in the section on administration of the curriculum.

All academic programs are subject to review and emendation by the Dean and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs for the fulfillment of the aims of the curriculum. The declared vocational and professional objective of the student is of central importance both to the student and to the faculty adviser in planning the student's comprehensive study program.

Six semesters of residential study are ordinarily required for the completion of the degree. With permission of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, certified nonresidential study, not exceeding the equivalent of eight courses, may be permitted to a candidate for the basic degree.

The normal academic load is four courses per semester. A student with demonstrated competence may, with the consent of the academic adviser and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, enroll for an additional course in the middler and senior years.

General Features of the Basic Curriculum. The following is a brief summary of the basic curriculum.

- 1. Twenty-four courses and six or more semesters of residency are required for graduation.
- 2. Each student is required to complete two approved assignments in field education (with or without remuneration) under supervision. Such assignments might include an internship, a summer of full-time work, two semesters of part-time work, or involvement in church or community service. The essential criteria for graduation credits are that the amount and quality of supervision be approved by the Office of Field Education, and that the student be required to evaluate and correlate the experience directly.
- 3. A normal academic load is four courses with credit.

Admission to candidacy for the Master of Divinity degree is admission to the regular program of studies. The suggested paradigm defines the normal sequence of the student's developing program. Students enrolled for less than three courses are considered part-time and are not eligible for financial aid or student health services.

The curriculum intends to serve graduate-professional aims with maximum flexibility. Sixteen elective courses are available and may be programmed to satisfy vocational and professional preferences. In planning a course of study, the student, in consultation with the adviser, should choose a program which will give a broad understanding and appreciation of future professional responsibilities. Members of the faculty and staff welcome inquiries.

Professional ministries include those of the parish, preaching, teaching, and pastoral care; ministries of education in local churches and higher education; missions; campus ministry; specialized urban and rural ministries; chaplaincies—hospital, institutional, industrial, and military; teaching; religious journalism; audiovisual communications; church agencies; and ecumenical ministries at home and abroad. For many of these, further specialized training will necessarily be sought elsewhere beyond the basic degree. For all of these ministries the student's program of studies can be shaped for the particular ministry in view.

Students are encouraged to elect at least one course in each of the following areas or subdivisions of the curriculum beyond the required courses: American Christianity; history of religion; Christian education; world Christianity and ecumenics; biblical exegesis; pastoral psychology; Christian ethics; worship and preaching; care of the parish (including church and community). Such advanced courses should be selected with a view to the individual's vocational and professional aims and in consultation with the student's faculty adviser. Students are also encouraged to concentrate, usually in not more than five courses in any one subdivision of the curriculum, in an area directly related to their vocational and professional intention. The program of each student is subject to review and revision by action of the faculty adviser, the Committee on Academic Standing, the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, or the Dean.

Student Pastors. Students in candidacy for the Master of Divinity degree who serve as full-time pastors or work more than fifteen hours per week in addition to their academic schedule are advised that their degree programs will usually require a fourth academic year. Modification of this schedule requires the approval of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs on recommendation of the Assistant Dean for Field Education.

- 1. Students with pastoral charges or comparable extracurricular responsibilities ordinarily will enroll for not more than three courses.
- 2. Students who accept pastoral charges in their middler or senior year are required to have the prior approval of the Assistant Dean for Field Education. Such students will be required to restrict their course work in accordance with regulation 1 above.
- 3. Modifications of these regulations will be scrupulously administered. Academic achievement, normally a B average, must be demonstrated before any modification of these requirements is allowed. Since adequate indication of the student's academic proficiency is not available before the completion of the first academic year, no modification of regulation 1 is possible for junior students.
- 4. Students who secure minor employment outside the channels of the Office of Field Education are required to inform the Assistant Dean for Field Education. Students carrying an outside employment work load of more than fifteen hours per week will be required to limit their academic load.
- 5. Ordinarily a student may not commute more than fifty miles (one way). Students living farther away than this will be required to stay in Durham during the academic week.
- 6. Student assistant pastors (not pastors-in-charge) may enroll for a full academic load if they are not on limited program, if their work is under the supervision of the Assistant Dean for Field Education, and if their field duties involve no more than fifteen hours per week.

Study Abroad. Study abroad, with transferable credit toward graduation, may be allowed for a candidate for the Master of Divinity degree by approval of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. A strong academic record is a prerequisite. Ordinarily, permission for such study may be granted to students who have completed the work of the middler year. Both the institution abroad and a specific course of study proposed must have the prior approval of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. Required courses and the two field education units must usually be completed at Duke.

Transfer Credits. Transfer of credit to the Divinity School of Duke University, leading to candidacy for the degree of Master of Divinity, will normally be limited to one-third of the academic credits (in proportional evaluation) required for fulfillment of degree candidacy (see the chapter, "Admissions").

Advanced Placement. Students may, on the basis of undergraduate courses, a religion major, or other substantial preparation, be given advanced placement in one or more of the eight required subjects. Such placement normally presumes at least two college courses in a given area (e.g., Old Testament) with a satisfactory grade average.

Students who do not receive advanced placement at matriculation but who believe that they can qualify for upper level work without the introductory course may apply to the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs. The faculty in the appropriate division (biblical, historical, or theological) will set procedures for determining basic competence in the particular field, ordinarily by an examination and assigned paper. A student may apply for such testing only once in a single area, not later than the beginning of the fourth semester.

Ordination Requirements. Students preparing for ordination are strongly advised to ascertain early in their seminary program the precise ordination requirements of their denomination.

United Methodist students must fulfill educational requirements in the Discipline, by completing the year-long course on Methodist doctrine, history, and polity (CP 159 and 160). Most annual conferences also require one or more courses in preaching and worship and/or clinical pastoral education.

Students from other denominations should consult with their appropriate church bodies for specific requirements, which may include biblical languages. Polity courses for certain other denominations may be offered from time to time by faculty members or local clergy on prior request.

Time Limit. Ordinarily it is expected that the work for the Master of Divinity degree be completed in three academic years (four for students who are on limited program, who serve as pastors, or who serve internship years). Extension of the student's work beyond six years from initial matriculation requires the approval of the faculty.

The Master of Religious Education Degree

The course of study leading to this degree is designed for persons desiring to prepare for leadership and service in the educational ministry of the church.

Admission. Applications for admission to the Master of Religious Education program are evaluated by the same standards as those applicable to the Master of Divinity degree, and admission requirements and procedures are also the same. Students planning to specialize in Christian education should study the sections of this bulletin which contain statements of policy regarding the most appropriate prerequisite studies for theological education and the procedures to be followed in applying for admission.

Requirements. The Master of Religious Education degree usually requires two years, or four semesters, of residence and study and the fulfillment of the following requirements:

- 1. Sixteen courses, twelve of them limited electives and four free electives, selected by the candidate in consultation with the academic adviser.
- 2. One unit of supervised field education.
- 3. An overall grade point average of C (2.0) or better in those courses receiving letter grades.
- 4. A final comprehensive examination.

The Master of Theology Degree

The course of study leading to the degree of Master of Theology is designed for graduates of accredited theological schools who desire to continue or resume their theological education for enhancement of professional competence in selected areas of study. Enrollment in the Th.M. degree program is open to a limited number of students who have received the M.Div. (or the equivalent) with superior academic records.

Inquiries on admission may be addressed to the Director of Admission for referral to the Director of the Th.M. Program.

General Requirements. The general requirements for the degree of Master of Theology are:

- 1. Eight course units of advanced studies, with an average grade of B (3.0 average on a 4.0 scale).
- 2. Superior performance in a comprehensive examination covering the major area of study. As an alternative to the comprehensive examination the student may elect to do a research project in one major area if approved by the supervising professor. This project shall carry one course credit, to be counted within the eight units required.
- 3. Residence for one academic year.

There are no general language requirements. However, classical or modern languages may be required for certain programs (for example, in biblical studies, Hebrew or Greek may be required).

The Program of Study. At least four of the required eight courses must be taken in one of the basic divisions of study (biblical, historical, theological, or ministerial) which shall be designated as the candidate's major, and at least two courses in another of the divisions which shall be designated as the candidate's minor. Ordinarily, no more than two units may be taken through directed reading, and no more than one of these in any one semester. In the area of pastoral psychology, up to four course units may be taken through clinical pastoral education.

The comprehensive examination will be given at the close of the course of study for the degree, ordinarily in May or September.

The entire program of studies and comprehensive examination should be completed within twelve months. In some cases, the time limit may be extended, but in no case beyond three years.

The candidate majoring in pastoral psychology may plan one of three programs or concentrations: a concentration in pastoral theology relating psychology and theological understanding to professional ministry, especially the parish, through course work and supervised clinical experience; a concentration in pastoral care through course work and an intern year in basic clinical pastoral education; a concentration in pastoral counseling through course work and a year of advanced clinical pastoral education. In the context of clinical pastoral education various professional goals may be sought, including general understanding and skills in pastoral care and specialization in pastoral counseling and clinical supervision. The Clinical Pastoral Education Program is certified by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Persons specializing in pastoral counseling will be moved toward certification with the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. Course PP 277A (or its equivalent) is considered a prerequisite for a major in pastoral psychology, but is not applicable toward the eight courses required for the degree, although it will be indicated on the student's transcript. Accordingly, the student majoring in this area should ordinarily make provision for a program extending for a full calendar year beginning the first week in June.

Financial Aid. Please note in the pertinent sections of the chapter "Financial Information" that the charges for tuition and general fee for the Th.M. degree are combined and are made on the basis of the number of courses taken, and that in order to be eligible for medical care a student must be taking at least three courses.

Special Programs

Duke Divinity School is a participant in the National Capital Semester for Seminarians conducted by Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. Students may, with the approval of the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, enroll in this onesemester program focused on political issues and social ethics, and receive up to four transfer credits. Applicants must have completed at least two and not more than four semesters at Duke to be eligible.

International Study Programs

For several years the Divinity School has been developing programs of international study and exchange involving faculty and students. The main areas in which the development is centered at this time are the following:

Mexico Seminar. Brief intensive travel-study to foster appreciation of Mexico, its people, history, culture, and religion—with special attention to the faith and mission of the church in Latin America today. Direct encounter with Third World poverty. About twelve persons per seminar. Twice annually.

China Seminar. A travel-study seminar on the re-emergence of the Church in China focusing on the unprecedented response to the Church in a Marxist society. Participants have the opportunity also to learn about China and its people and see firsthand the changes taking place in this remarkable country. Biannually.

Robert E. Cushman Exchange Fellowship. Each year faculty and staff nominate a student to represent the Divinity School in the Bonn/Duke Exchange program. At Bonn University (West Germany) the student for a year becomes thoroughly acquainted with another culture and different church life. Full participation in classes at Bonn required. Language preparation necessary.

Dumfries, Scotland. In cooperation with St. Michael's Parish, Dumfries, Scotland, the Divinity School offers an academic year's experience. A modest stipend provides basic support and trans-Atlantic air fare. This opportunity is open each year to one rising senior who serves as a full-time parish assistant for this parish of the Church of Scotland.

Courses of Instruction

Course Enrollment

The required courses of the curriculum are: Old Testament 11, New Testament 18, Church History 13 and 14, American Christianity 28, Christian Theology 32, Christian Ethics 33, and Black Church Studies 124. Other courses numbered through 199 are elective courses for Divinity School students only. Most courses numbered 200 and above are approved for credit by both the Divinity School and the Graduate School, and require the permission of the instructor. For other prerequisites the student should consult the roster of courses of instruction in this bulletin and should also refer to published registration advices at the time of registration for each semester.

Courses jointly approved by the Divinity School and the Graduate School of Duke University are published in the Bulletin of Duke University: The Divinity School. Courses offered in the Department of Religion of Duke University, or as cognate courses in other departments, must be of graduate level (numbered 200 or above) in order to fulfill requirements for degrees in the Divinity School.

Projected Course Offerings

The following list of proposed course offerings for the 1983–84 academic year is tentative and subject to change. Detailed listings are available at the time of preregistration in the middle of the preceding semester, and more distant plans may be ascertained by consulting the divisional representative or the instructors concerned.

V. Clinical Training and Internships

CLINICAL TRAINING IN PASTORAL PSYCHOLOGY

Students may earn up to two course credits for a quarter or unit of clinical pastoral education in programs accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE).

Students involved in clinical training under the direct supervision of members of the pastoral psychology staff during the academic year should register for credit under PP 277 for two course units unless a course credit has already been received for PP 177, in which case only one rather than two credits will be granted for the CPE quarter. Students should apply for such training through the Director of Clinical Pastoral Education.

Students involved in clinical training in summer CPE quarters should register with ACPE and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs as soon as accepted for training by a chaplain supervisor. Upon the receipt of a supervisor's report at the end of the training period the student will receive two course units of transfer credit.

INTERNSHIPS

In consultation with the Director of Field Education and the Associate Dean for Curricular Affairs, an individually designed internship may be developed in a particular ministerial vocational area of interest. Under certain circumstances it may be possible to earn one unit of field education and two course credits through such internships. Such programs must be formulated and recorded in advance in the offices of both field education and curricular affairs.

125–126. Special Ministry Internship. When a student needs to develop professional competencies in a highly specialized form of ministry, the Director of Field Education will assist in designing an appropriate learning contract and in negotiating for a suitable placement setting, provided the arrangements meet the basic criteria approved by the Field Education Committee.

131–132. Ministry through Social Agency Internship. A twelve-month placement in a regular personnel position in a social service agency to meet the job description of the agency and to develop a personal mode and style of ministry in a secular setting through understanding, appreciation, involvement in, and critical theological reflection upon environment, structures, values, and decision-making processes as conveyed by the conduct of the agency.

137–138. Parish Ministry Internship. A twelve-month placement, individually designed to engage the student in specified learnings in a wide variety of ministry functions in a local parish, under qualified supervision and using the guidelines of a learning contract.

143–144. Campus Ministry Internship. A nine-to twelve-month placement in approved locations designed to provide special learnings in delivering a ministry to college students under qualified guidance and utilizing a learning contract which specifies seminars, a personal journal, directed reading, and consultations to develop competency in these functions.

175–176. Clinical Pastoral Education Internship. A twelve-month placement in a clinical program accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE).

197–198. Mission Internship. A special internship to prepare for service in church missions may be arranged by enlisting in the national or overseas program of the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries for one to three years. As a requirement for agency planning, applications should be initiated in the fall of the middler year. Other denominational and/or work-study experiences abroad may be given field education credit by special arrangement with the Director of Field Education.
