2. That churches, societies, and individuals assume, wherever practicable, definite responsibility for definite parts of the Foreign Mission work.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

First is report as to Sunday Schools within the Presbytery.

1. The Committee has received twenty three reports showing 36 schools. These reports show:

- (a) Officers and teachers, 253.
- (b) Enrollment in all departments, 3530.
- (c) Pupils added to the Church on confession of faith, 53
- (d) Total Expenses of Schools, $4026.
- (e) Total gifts to benevolences, $1785.

In making our annual report to the Presbytery respecting our Sabbath School work, there are certain matters we wish to stress and have the pastors and Sessions and Superintendents emphasize constantly with their schools.

1. That pastors, Sessions and superintendents keep close tab on their schools that the evangelistic opportunity may not be overlooked but fully realized and utilized by all the teachers, that the multiplying of machinery and programs be not allowed to eclipse the real purpose of the school, but only so much of it adopted as may be used as means to the end of winning the pupils to Christ and training them for His service.

2. That where practicable the Session of the church arrange for a Standard (Teacher) Training School to be held for the benefit of all officers and teachers and substitutes: Where not practicable that the teachers and officers be advised to avail themselves of the opportunity now provided of taking the course from the Sunday School Department of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, Richmond.

3. That the Presbytery renew its approval of the Vacation Bible School and recommend that, where advisable from the standpoint of facilities, the need of such a school, and the financial ability, the respective churches of Presbytery conduct a standard Vacation Bible School.

4. That the churches pray that an adequate number of the choicest members of our churches will consecrate themselves to the task of teaching in our Sunday Schools that the lamentable lack may be supplied and our schools become more efficient agencies for winning souls from sin and training our young people for Christian service.

5. That Presbytery overture the General Assembly Meeting at Montreat, N. C., May 16th, 1929 to place in the questionnaire on the Sunday School Report Blank—a question calling for the number of persons in the school who are members of the church.

6. That the Presbytery overture the General Assembly meeting at Montreat, May 1st, to approve the principle of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication donating periodicals, books, bibles, tracts etc. and define what shall be the policy and extent of this practice. Second, to appoint a committee to prepare new and suitable, tactful tracts-evangelistic, doctrinal, historical, etc. to be supplied, without cost, to pastors and others who desire them for distributions, in extension work.

1. That we adopt for a period of three years, as a fair trial, the plan of Presbyterian Treasurer of Benevolences.

2. That the following constitute the details of the plan as it shall be used in this Presbytery:

a. The election of a Presbyterian Treasurer of Benevolences, whose business it shall be to receive and distribute the Benevolences of the churches according to the percentages adopted by the Presbytery, except that specially designated funds shall go to objects for which designated, and where churches do not follow the Presbytery's percentages strictly, the distribution shall be according to their percentable scheme.

b. That Presbyterian Treasurer shall keep an accurate set of books showing receipts and disbursements of all funds, both regular and designated; he shall send quarterly statement as to money received and money short on pledges; and also at the close of the year an itemized statement of disbursement of all the funds of each given church.

c. The books of the Presbyterian Treasurer shall be audited in advance of the meeting of the Spring Presbytery by a Committee of three auditors approved by the Stewardship Committee. He shall present his books with the report of said Auditing Committee attached, to the Spring Presbytery; and during the Presbytery his books shall be available as a source of valuable information for the Stated Clerk, the Stewardship Committee, and any other Committee that might desire to look into the finances of the particular cause it represents.

d. The Presbyterian Treasurer shall give bond by a Surety Company for $5,000.

e. The Presbyterian Treasurer shall receive from the Presbytery an expense fund not to exceed $100 per year. This expense item shall be paid out of the Presbyterian Tax Funds of the Presbytery.

f. Should a vacancy occur in the interval between meetings of Presbytery, the Stewardship Committee shall take over the office and request a call meeting of the Presbytery immediately for the selection of a successor.

g. The churches are urged to remit their benevolences check to the Presbyterian Treasurer of Benevolences not later than the 3rd of the month, and he in turn shall remit to the several causes not later than the 20th of each month.

h. The concurrence in this plan on the part of the individual churches shall be entirely optional, rather than mandatory, but all the churches are urged to make use of the Presbyterial Treasurer in the distributing of their benevolences.

j. This plan shall become operative at once, and all the churches in entering into the plan shall remit to the Presbyterial Treasurer not later than May 3rd, as per instructions given above.

EVENING SESSION.

Presbytery met at 8 P. M. with Rev. H. B. Searight, chairman of Presbyterial Home Missions in charge of a popular meeting, and after devotional exercises by the chairman, the report of Home Missions was read, and pending its adoption, the following were heard in brief addresses: Rev. F. Marion Dick, Rev. T. L. Harnsberger, M. W. Doggett, Jr., and Rev. A. J. Crane. The report was adopted.

Your Committee on Home Missions submit the following report for the year ending March 31st, 1929.

The past year has been one of the most successful and fruitful years in our experience of more than twelve years. Most of our fields have been supplied during the year. Where there has not been a regular worker on the ground, Rev. J. L. Yandell and the Superintendent have supplied the fields. This is true at LaGrange, Snow Hill, Jason, Williamston and Nahalah.

Now however we are glad to report that practically all of our fields are in the way of being supplied with regular workers in the very near future. We have secured a very fine young man, Mr. Z. T. Piephoff, of the senior class of Union Seminary for Williamston and Martin county. He begins his work May 15th. Also a fine man from the Seminary, Mr. M. G. Lyerly, for the Wilson County field. Kinston, with which we will associate Snow Hill and Jason, has called Mr. Mauze of the Seminary and has good hopes that he will accept. Thus all our work will be supplied with very fine men.

Since securing the Tent and equipment, which was given by Mr. Henry Belk of Charlotte, C. A. Johnson, of Tarboro, and Mr. A. P. Thorpe, of Rocky Mount, we waged an intensive Campaign all last Spring and Summer and Fall. As has already been reported our first meeting was at Williamston, the county seat of Martin County, where notwithstanding very unfavorable weather, we organized a church with twenty-five members, with a fine outlook. Here we have purchased the finest lot in the town, not far from the court house, large enough for a church and manse. Mr. Belk has given the brick to build a church here and we hope to get to work on that in the near future. We held several other meetings that we felt were not so successful, but feel sure that good seed were sown every where, that will germinate and bring forth a harvest in the future. However we were successful at Jason, where we added twenty two members. Then later in the Fall we crossed the Roanoke river for the first time and held a meeting at Ahoskie, where God wonderfully led us and blessed our efforts, and we organized a church of twenty seven members with the brightest outlook we have ever seen. Here we have secured the services of Rev. F. Marion Dick, who has taken a remarkable hold on the town and is working with great energy and faith. We seemed divinely directed in getting him.

During the Winter and Spring, Mr. Yandell has opened two Mission points in Martin County where he is preaching regularly, and there seems to be a bright promise for our work in both places. Mr. Piephoff will have charge of these together with Williamston, when he comes to the work.

Our plans are all made for the tents meetings to begin on the 28th of April at Ahoskie, and to continue as long as the weather will permit in the Fall. We hope to be able to organize at Aulander and Windsor, and from there to Williamston and the two mission points in Martin County, and thence to a very promising point on the outskirts of Wilson.

We have purchased a manse at Ahoskie, and Mr. Dick and his charming family are very happily located in it. We are expecting things from our meeting there, and soon after expect to take steps to erect a church building there.

Dr. Venable reports the construction of a tabernacle at a mission point in his field, Carraways, where they have been conducting a very successful Sunday School for some years, at the cost of about $800, $200 of which was given by the Presbytery's Committee. They have also purchased a splendid lot for a manse, and hope soon to be able to build a manse there.

Mr. Brown at Elizabeth City and Mr. Doggett have both taken a fine stand in their respective fields and report progress.

We have made some other changes in the work since Christmas. Mr. Wilson is now giving two Sundays a month to Fountain, with the consent of Wm. & Mary Hart, and this seems to be a very happy arrangement.

Mr. Wildman is now serving Falkland and the two mission points in Pitt county, in connection with his other work. This seems to be a fine arrangement: it is giving great satisfaction.

All our other men are doing faithful and effective work. Mr. Smith who has been giving good service in the Wilson Count field, gives up that work the end of this month, and Mr. Lyerly will take his place beginning May 15th.

With the help we have gotten this year from the General Assembly, we have thus been able to enlarge our work, and to reach out into this new territory, as we could not have done otherwise.

We are grateful to God for His signal favor upon our efforts, which has been so manifest to us who have been closely associated with it. He has led us in a wonderful way all along. We have gone forward in faith and prayer, and He has been with us. We earnestly request that all our pastors and people will bear us up constantly before the throne of His Grace in our work this year, for we often come to the place when we feel keenly and ask "Who is sufficient for these things".

I cannot close this report without paying a slight tribute to Mr. Yandell, who has been so faithfully helping in all this work. In fact he is absolutely indispensable to it. And whatever success we have had is largely due to him under God. I have never known a man so absolutely unselfish, and willing to endure such hardness for God. He is always ready to help somebody else at his own expense of body, time and money. Yet withal so humble that he would not allow me to put this in if he knew it. He deserves the thanks of our whole church, and their love and confidence, for his work's sake.

Your Home Mission Committee wishes to express its appreciation of the long and faithful service rendered the Presbytery by our Superintendent of Home Missions, Rev. A. J. Crane, who has entered upon his 13th year of service in this capacity. Under God it is largely due to his diligence and devotion to the work that it has gone forward in such a satisfactory way. He enjoys both the confidence of our Committee, and the affection of the men in the field; and for this happy situation we thank the great Head of the Church.

H. B. SEARIGHT, Chairman.

The apportionments for the various fields for the present year were read by the Superintendent, and were approved by the Presbytery.

The Committee of Christian Education and Relief, made its report, which was adopted as amended.

To the Presbytery of Albermarle, Greenville, N. C., April 16th, 1929:- Your Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief begs to submit the following report for the year 1928-29.

The latest report indicates that the receipts for this cause for the last year show $24,420 more was contributed than the year before, and that the committee has reduced the debt of this committee from $54,330 to $26,233, for which we thank God and take courage.

Since the full report for Christian Education comes in the Fall, we omit further reference to this part of the work, and make the following report of Ministerial Relief:

1. General. The Committee has aided 178 ministers, 248 widows, and 48 orphans in 34 deceased ministers homes, and to 6 commissioned pay workers, a total of 466 homes. This is an increase of 6 homes as compared with last year. Aid to the amount of $193,596 was sent these worthy people during the year.

2. Albermarle Presbytery. The total contributions from the Presbytery was $1,364.78, with total appropriations to the Presbytery was spent as follows: 1 candidate for the ministry, $125, Beneficiaries, $2879.85, 5 Loans, $750.

The plan for permanent relief of aged and infirm ministers called the Minister's Annuity Fund, has been carefully worked out by this committee, has been submitted to the church by newspaper articles, and ought to be familiar to all by this time. The committee urges that some action be taken by this Presbytery on this important movement.

Your committee would recommend:

1. That the present beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief in the Presbytery be aided in the amounts asked for last year, if possible.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance and Family Religion made the following report, which was adopted.

Your Committee on Sabbath and Family Religion submits the following report:

1. That from the sources of information available we find it difficult to determine the true status of these important and vital aspects of true religion. We may attribute the present conditions to a number of things. The spirit of the modern age in which we are living. The spirit of commercialism that so dominates the present time, causing so many to "look upon the things that are temporal", has led many to neglect "the things that are eternal". We could mention many other things that are making inroads upon the Sabbath, but we feel the deep and underlying cause for much Sabbath desecration is the lack of religious training in the home. Mr. R. E. Magill in his little book entitled "Christian Homes The Bulwark of Civilization" says "The family is the unit of the Church as it is of society". Out of the earliest days of recorded history comes the inspired statement. "God setteth the solitary in families". One of the major tasks of the Church is to include in its program a course of instruction which has for its end the creation and maintenance of a Christian atmosphere in the homes of its members. The home is the most influential agency in building the character of youth. It is not enough to provide for the material comforts and the intellectual development of the children. The spiritual nature must be cultivated and the moral atmosphere surrounding the children should be carefully considered. God has given to parents a most sacred opportunity and obligation for the moral and religious leadership of the children who receive their first, deepest, and most lasting impression in the home. Christian parents seek the very best that life affords for their children; they want them to be clean in heart and noble in character. One of the best and surest ways to secure high ideals is to establish a practical family worship service in the home and train the children for Christ.

The family table provides the most suitable time and favorable environment for the moral and religious training of children. Since this is the only time that the entire family is regularly together in most homes, the table hour furnishes the best and most natural opportunity for Religious training. Recognizing the unseen Guest three times a day is a means of spiritual helpfulness and is "Character-making" in its effect upon the children. Your Committee thinks that the failure on the part of parents to dedicate their children to God by Baptism during infancy is another reason for the present condition. We read in Gen. the 17th. Chapter that no sooner had God instituted His covenant with Abraham by the rite of circumcision that Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the male children of his household and administered unto them the token of the Lord's covenant, and in the following chapter is recorded the testimony of God in regard to parental faithfulness. "I know him (Abraham) that he will command his children and his household after him."

Your Committee offers two recommendations:

1. That each minister of the Presbytery be asked to preach on the subject of Sabbath and Family Religion.
2. That an hour be given at the Fall meeting of Presbytery for a full discussion of this vital subject.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. A. SATTERFIELD, Committee.

The Evangelistic Committee was ordered to make its report to the adjourned meeting.

The report of the Committee on Historical Society was postponed until the Fall meeting.
