Some of the Churches complied with the request of the Association as inserted in the last minutes, and sent in their letter an account of their Constitution, &c. Some of the particulars of which I shall here transcribe.

The Church at Eno Meeting house, was constituted in 1773 by Elders George Roberts and Reuben Pickette. The number of members when constituted is not known; since their constitution, they have had three revivals among them, one in 1787-8, another in 1801-2-3, and the last in 1821-2-3, in the last revival in 1822 there was 553 members added by baptism, Elder James Ferrell is their Mayo Church, Bethel meeting house. This church was constituted in 1774, by Elders Samuel Harris, and perhaps Elder Reuben, for he was ordained two years before at Recdy Bottom, and was instrumental in planting the Church at Mayo, and afterwards took the care of it; "Semples' History of Baptist in Virginia, page 249." The number of members when this Church was constituted was 100, Semples' History, page 232. In 1802-3 they enjoyed a considera-ble out-pouring of the spirit, and about 120 was added to the church. Semple's History, page 248. Also in 1830-1 they had a considerable revival and many were added to the church; Elder Brooks is their Pastor.

The time of the constitution of the Church at Tabb's Creek meeting house, nor the numbers is not known; Elder George Roberts was instrumental in planting the church, they are now without a pastor.

The Church at Lock's meeting house was constituted by Robert Rucks and James Weathers in 1805.

The Church at Island Creek was constituted in 1820, by James Weathers, Zachariah Allen and P. Gold, with 42 members.

The Church at Camp Creek meeting house, was constituted by George Roberts and William Brown, in 1803 with 37 members.

The Church at New Bethel meeting house, was constituted by Jas. Ferrell & William W. Farthing in 1822 with 45 members.

The Church at Hester's meeting house, was constituted by Zachariah Allen and William B. Worrell in 1823 with 18 members.

The Church at Mount Moriah meeting house, was constituted by James Ferrell and William W. Farthing in 1823.

The Church at Brassfield's meeting house was constituted in 1823 with 19 members.

There are Neven Churches, the constitution of which we have not heard,*

The Plat River Association was formed, according to Benedict's History of the Baptist, vol. 2, page 105; by division of the Roansak Association, 1794. In November 1805, the Association met at Wheeley's meeting house, Person County, North Carolina; Reuben Pickette preached the Introductory Sermon; George Roberts was chosen Modera. tor, and Barzellia Graves Clerk. Letters from eighteen Churches were read, and a number of them joined in petitioning for a division of the Association, which was agreed to, and the dividing line described as commencing at Jones' Bridge on Hico, and running South along the Road by Person Court House and Pain's Oadinary to Hillsborough. The lower part retained the name Flat River and the upper part Country-line. Four years after the division, I have the minutes of a meeting of the Flat River Association at Tabb's Creek meeting house, in July 1809. At this meeting there was letters received from eleven Churches, and in these Churches there were six Ordained ministers and 922 Communicants. And twenty-four years after this, the Association met at Camp-Creek, and letters from 16 churches were read, and in these Churches were ten Ordained preachers and 1832 Communicants.

For 28 standing years this Association has been in union and peace; so far as I can learn, they have ever considered themselves as an advisory council, and have contented themselve by giving advice when it was asked for. No Association has any business of her own! She is the creature of the Churches, created by them to do their business and no other. Whenever, therefore, Associations meddle with matters not necessary to the peace and union of the churches, they go in disorder. May this Association ever keep her eye upon that for which she meets, to be advisors and not lords, fellow helpers and not authors of division, is the prayer of a laborer in the vinyard of the Lord.

W. HUDGINS.

*I trust the Breathren will look back upon the foot-steps of the flock, and follow them and feed their kids by the Shepherd's tent.
