PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY—EVENING SESSION.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., October 18, 1898.

The Baptist State Educational and Missionary Convention of North Carolina assembled with the First Baptist Church of Rocky Mount, in its thirty-first annual session, on Tuesday evening, October 18, at 7:30 P. M.

Rev. A. Shepard, D. D., called the meeting to order and presided.

Devotional services were conducted by Rev. A. T. Thomas and Rev. J. D. Lyles, in the following order:

(1.) Sang hymn "I love thy Kingdom, Lord" (2) 23d Psalm was read; (3) Prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Perry. Rev. S. Hicks, pastor of the First Church of Rocky Mount, in well chosen remarks, most cordially welcomed the Convention to the church and to the warm hearts and hospitable homes of his people.

Rev. B. B. Hill, of Asheville, replied to the hearty greetings of Rev. Hicks, saying among other good things: "The Baptist denomination stands for something. The history of the past, of the heroic struggles and achievements of our noble pioneers, all indicate that our great denomination stands for something—it stands for principles, grand and sublime. To represent them, we must now live for something. We come here to do something to strengthen and enlarge our great work."

Rev. C. C. Somerville, District Missionary, in an eloquent and stirring address, made the Convention doubly welcome to the commended hospitality of the city. To this splendid and polished address, Rev. R. H. Harris, of Roxboro, was called to reply, which he did in a most creditable manner.

The President then introduced Rev. H. Pair to preach the Introductory Sermon, assisted by Rev. A. Graves, of Danville. The sermon was preceded by singing hymn "There is a land of pure delight." Reading the first Psalm and prayer. Text used: John, 4:6, "I am the way." The subject discussed was: "Jesus, the way."

The sermon was warm, spirited and inspiring. The speaker said: "These were comforting words of Christ to His Disciples, indicating the Divine plan for the reclamation of man from his lost estate. Man was both lost and ruined. Christ provided the way of escape. He opened the door of mercy to redemption, to peace, and to holiness. We go to God only through Christ—other ways are false. He makes no empty claim in this text. Christ is indeed the way. We must come through Him as the way or be lost."

Rev. A. B. Vincent announced that Rev. A. Graves had received the sad intelligence of the serious illness of his daughter, and sought leave of absence for Rev. Graves, and solicited the sympathy and prayers of the Convention for the distressed brother.

Rev. Wm. Alexander, of Baltimore, Financial Secretary of the District Foreign Mission Convention, was introduced and made welcome to the courtesies of the Convention.

A collection amounting to $2.50 was taken, the doxology was sung, and the meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. A. Covington.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention assembled at 10:25 A. M., Rev. S. W. Dockery, Vice-President, presiding.

Devotional service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Moore and Rev. A. Whitted. "All things are ready, come," was sung, the 84th Psalm was read, and prayer was offered by Rev. Whitted.

The delegates were enrolled. (See roll.)

The following committees were appointed:

On Finance.—C. C. Somerville, T. S. Evans and A. T. Thomas.

On Officers.—J. J. Worlds, R. B. Tilley, S. W. Dockery, B. B. Hill, and I. M. Powers.

On Time and Place.—H. M. Maloy, J. D. Lyles, H. Pair, E. B. Blake and L. D. Moore.

On Ways and Means.—G. W. Perry, G. W. Moore, S. N. Vass, J. A. Whitted, W. T. H. Woodard, L. P. Martin and Thomas Parker.

On Education.—A. W. Pegues, R. H. Harris, S. G. Newsome, P. T. Hall and W. A. Jones.

The President, Rev. A. Shepard, addressed the Convention on the work as being done by it he spoke of the marked improvement noticed since the inauguration of co-operation. He said: Churches have been strengthened, pastors encouraged, and good effects can be seen everywhere throughout the State; much land is yet to be possessed. Co-operation means mutual helpfulness and a multiplication of influences, resources and ability for the glory of God." He recommended, (1) That co-operation be continued; (2) That more attention be given to ministerial education; that a day be designated for the collection of means to strengthen the Theological Department at Shaw University; (3) That some steps be taken for the care of superannuated ministers.

The recommendations were referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Rev. S. N. Vass offered a resolution recommending that steps be taken to have all the Associational Minutes printed together in one volume, with the State Convention Minutes.

The following committee was appointed on Temperance:

A. B. Vincent, I. M. Powers, A. W. Ivey, J. J. Hines, and M. T. Hawkins.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. A. B. Vincent.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention opened promptly at 2:30, P. M., and Rev. W. A. Jones and H. M. Maloy were invited to conduct divine services.

The assembly sang "Soldier of Christ, arise," the 100th Psalm was read and prayer was offered by Rev. Maloy.

Dr. A. W. Pegues read a series of resolutions pertaining to the prosecution of Home and Foreign Missions and Education. These were referred to a special committee for consideration: viz., N. F. Roberts, P. F. Maloy, D. J. Moore, J. C. Williams and H. C. McDonald.

The Committee on Officers reported, (see list of officers) and it was adopted.

A telegram was received from Rev. A. Graves announcing the death of his daughter. The Secretary was ordered to send a telegram of sympathy to Rev. Graves.

A message was received from Rev. John E. White, Corresponding Secretary of the white Baptist State Convention, stating that the illness of his wife prevented his coming to the Convention.

A telegram was also received from Rev. G. W. Holland, of Winston, expressing his regret in being unable to attend the Convention.

“The best method of conducting the Home Mission Work,” was discussed by brethren E. B. Blake, Thomas Parker and M. D. Mathewson; their remarks were good and full of practical suggestions.

The collection taken amounted to $1.36.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. S. N. Vass.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at 7:30 P. M.

Praise service was led by Rev. S. L. Johnson and Rev. A. W. Ivey. “I love thy kingdom, Lord” was sung, the 67th Psalm read and prayer offered.

Rev. H. L. Morehouse, D. D., of New York, Rev. J. M. Armstead, of Portsmouth, Va., and Rev. S. L. Johnson, evangelist, were introduced to the Convention and made welcome to seats.

Rev. A. B. Vincent offered a resolution relating to Foreign Missions and the collecting of funds to carry on the same.

Rev. J. A. Jenkins made a few remarks, urging the adoption of Rev. Vincent’s resolution. It was referred then to the Committee of Resolutions.

Rev. William Alexander, Corresponding Secretary of the District Foreign Mission Convention, was introduced to address the Convention. He presented the necessity for a District Convention in a masterly and convincing manner, and made a magnificent appeal for foreign missions. In his remarks he said: “As Baptists, we have history with us, the Bible with us, and numbers with us, and we must do this great work of evangelization or incur shame on our boasted claims. Co-operation is the proper idea. Our policy is, (1) co-operation with all existing Baptist organizations; (2) organization for work and not play; (3) the introduction of an honest system in our work; (4) to educate our people to give liberally and systematically for foreign missions. We need and must have money now to put our missionaries on the field; we must be honest in handling God's money ; many pastors take money for the heathen and use it at home."

A foreign mission collection was taken amounting to $50.50. Pledges to the same object were taken, which amounted to $365 00.

Prayer was made by Rev. J. M. Armstead, imploring divine favor upon foreign missions.

Rev. Dr. Roberts, managing editor of the "Baptist Sentinel," made an appeal to the brethren to support and aid in circulation of the paper.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Joshua Perry.

THIRD DAY.—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention opened at 10 o'clock with the usual devotional exercises, led by Rev. P. F. Maloy and Rev. Spencer Thomas.

Rev. M. L. Kestler and Rev. Powell, (whites) were introduced and each made a few encouraging remarks.

Rev. T. S. Enworten, Principal of the Enfield Industrial and Agricultural Institute, was introduced and made a splendid address on Christian Education.

The Secretary was ordered to send a telegram of condolence to President C. F. Meserve, of Shaw, bereft of his companion.

Rev. J. A. Whitted, Corresponding Secretary, presented a very excellent annual report, showing the progress of the work under co-operation, the amount of money collected, and mission work accomplished. (See report.)

A motion was made to adopt the report, but the motion was finally deferred until after the address of Dr. Morehouse, to be delivered in the afternoon.

Rev. A. W. Pegues, Dean of the Theological Department of Shaw, delivered a very able and forcible address on Ministerial Education. He stated: "Nothing will be more helpful in uplifting the people than a faithful and a consecrated ministry. Ministers are to give to the people the Gospel. God never does for us what we can do for ourselves. You must know how to preach. If you don't know the way how can you blaze the trees. The only thing to save the colored people from infidelity and to the Baptist church is an intelligent ministry. Now, when you license a man to preach, you ruin him, you unfit him for Sunday-school, prayer-meeting and the school house. Urge the young man aspiring for the ministry to go to school. We should support the Theological Department of Shaw. We must help men prepare for the ministry, as other people are doing.

“God does not call men now by thunder and lightning, but by us who are God’s ambassadors. God wants drill masters all over the State, and not recruiting officers and stations.”

Rev. J. A. Whitted offered a resolution designating the month of November (any Sunday in the month, convenient to church and pastor) to raise money to aid the Theological Department at Shaw University.

The resolution was approved and the meeting closed with the benediction, by Rev. J. L. Fenner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-opened for business at 2:45 with praise service, led by Rev. P. Yancey and Rev. G. O. Bullock.

The Minutes of previous sessions were approved.

Rev. P. F. M. Joy, Statistician, read an interesting report on Baptist Statistics. To make the reports of this kind more accurate, it was on motion agreed to require the District Missionaries to gather the statistics in their respective districts.

Rev. H. L. Morehouse, D. D., was introduced and addressed the Convention on the success of co-operation. He said: “I bring you the greetings of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. It is the intellectual mother of many of you. We rejoice in the progress which you have made in your work and churches. It is but a prophecy of what will be. It has been demonstrated that you are a success. I feel somehow that I am appearing before you for the last time. I have labored long and hard for you. I may go, but God will take care of His work. It does not depend on any one man, or ten men, but on God. What has been accomplished in the three years of co-operation? Your Secretary’s report amply shows. Has anything like it been done in the years before? It has had a wonderful unifying influence on the people; the East and the West have been brought together. The plan of cooperation is not perfect; it came from an imperfect source. Who can suggest a better plan? Co-operation is what we want—It is all in the air. We have had overtures from the National Baptist Convention to co-operate in sending missionaries to Cuba and Porto Rico. We shall likely do so.”

A motion prevailed by an enthusiastic vote to continue co-operation for the ensuing three years.

Rev. R. I. Walden, D. D., requested permission to state his objection to the plan of co-operation as conducted during the past three years. The Convention heard him kindly.

The Corresponding Secretary's report, deferred in the forenoon, giving in detail the work done by co-operation, was heartily approved.

Elder Urgert, a veteran minister, now superannuated, made a few remarks.

A collection of $3.50 was taken.

The Convention closed with the benediction by Rev. W. H. Andrews.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention opened at 7:30 P. M. A warm praise meeting, continuing a half hour, was led by Rev. P. F. Malloy. Many persons took part and expressed gratitude to God for the benedictions which attended their labors during the year.

The President announced that Rev. J. M. Armstead would preach a special sermon, assisted by Rev. S. L. Witherspoon, alternate.

Hymn "Before Jehovah's awful throne" was sung, the 6th chapter of Matthew was read, and Rev. S. L. Johnson led in prayer; text: Matt. 6:10—"Thy will be done on earth." Subject: The will of God.

"The Lord's prayer has been and is still almost universally used—on lip of child and sovereign alike it is heard; all needed petitions are encouched in this wonderful simple prayer.

I. God's Will. What is it? His will is given in the Gospel, and manifested in the death of Christ.

II. God's will Executed on Earth. You cannot defeat God's will. When in His providence He decides to do a thing you cannot destroy God's will. In nature and providence God executes his will. Ministers are entrusted with the execution of the same. Take God's word straight along.

III. The will of submission. We are to teach the people absolute submission to God's will; we must teach it in two ways; (1) by precept, and (2) by example.

IV. What will be the result of doing God's will? Righteousness will reign on earth. Let the ministry carry out God's will. The sermon was full of suggestions and practical spiritual knowledge, and was richly enjoyed by all. Prayer was offered by Rev. S. H. Witherspoon.

The Orphan Asylum work was presented by Rev. R. Shepard, and a collection was taken which amounted to $12.00.

The following telegram was received from Rev. C. H. Williamson, of Charlotte:

"Greetings—Co-operation our motto ever. Same missionaries and plans. Work on, God bless you."

A special committee was appointed to nominate members of the boards: viz., W. A. Pattil, D. J. Moore, R. H. Harris, W. R. Mason, H. Pair, A. W. Pegues, M. D. Mathewson, J. W. Dew and W. A. Roberts.

The committee on place of next meeting recommended Newberne as the suitable place. The report was adopted.

A vote of thanks was tendered Rev. J. M. Armstead for his excellent sermon.

The benediction was announced by Rev. J. H. Dunston.

FOURTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at 9:30 A. M., Rev. W. T. H. Woodard presiding.

Praise meeting was held for a half hour.

The controversy concerning the delegates from the Neuse River Association resulted in accepting the representatives as fraternal delegates.

A communication of greetings was received from the Roanoke Association, and the Corresponding Secretary was ordered to reply.

The Secretary was ordered to telegraph greetings to the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention, in session at Philadelphia.

The committee on Boards read its report. (See list of Boards.)

The committee on Education read its report and it was approved. (See report.)

A resolution of condolence expressing sympathy for President Meserve was passed, and a copy was ordered to be sent to the Baptist Sentinel and to Prof. Meserve.

Rev. A. B. Vincent addressed the Convention on the passage of the aforesaid resolution.

The President announced recess until 2:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention convened at the usual hour, 2:30 P. M., and opened with praise service, led by Rev. W. A. Roberts and Rev. J. B. Barkley.

The house being ready for business, the committee on Ways and Means reported. (See report.) After some remarks urging the points recommended in said report, it was adopted.

Rev. J. C. Barker, Superintendent, was given permission to address the Convention on the proposed "Old Folks' Home," to be located near Raleigh. A collection was given him of $1.35.

Brethren S. N. Vass, A. B. Vincent and J. J. Worlds were appointed to investigate the merits of the "Old Folks' Home."

The committee on Finance made its report. (See report) It was reported that a brother had squandered the representation fee of the Rowan Association of last year, ('97) for which Rev. L. H. Witherspoon had become security, and as the security was in no way responsible for the act, the Convention released Rev. Witherspoon from the obligation.

The Committee on Ways and Means recommended the organization of Woman's Societies to do home and foreign mission work as tributary to this Convention.

The recommendation was approved.

The report of the Treasurer was read and approved. (See report)

Fraternal delegates were appointed to various Baptist organizations as follows :

American Baptist Home Mission Society, A. Shepard and C. S. Brown ; American Baptist Publication Society, Rev. G. W. Moore ; District Foreign Mission Convention, C. S. Brown, A. Shepard, S. N. Vass, M. D. Mathewson, A. B. Vincent, C. C. Somerville, P. F. Maloy and other brethren who may find it convenient to attend.

State Sunday School Convention, A. Shepard and Thomas Parker.

Western N. C. Convention, G. O. Bullock.

Woman's State Convention, A. B. Vincent.

Tennessee Convention, B. B. Hill and R. E. Blake.

Virginia Convention, J. A. Whitted and S. Witherspoon.

South Carolina Convention, W. T. H. Woodard and P. F. Maloy.

A motion prevailed appropriating four dollars each on traveling expenses to the seven delegates named to the District Foreign Mission Convention to meet in Baltimore.

Benediction was pronounced and recess was given until 7:30.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention assembled promptly at 7:30 P. M., and opened with divine service conducted by Rev. D. J. Moore and Rev. H. M. Maloy.

Rev. S. N. Vass, District Secretary for the Southern States of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, addressed the Convention on the "Missionary Department of the Society." In his able statements of the Society's policy, he emphasized the following points:

1. The Society is distinctly and primarily a Missionary Society, having as its first great purpose the doing of missionary work.

2. It is also a Bible Society—the only Baptist Bible Society existing. It is doing invaluable service by spreading the Word of God. We are not afraid of the Bible, we are not afraid of the truth. The Bible proves our church history. We were established by Christ and the Apostles. Identification is the best proof; our policy is identical with the early church.

3. It is also a Sunday School Society. We organize Sunday Schools to teach the people God's word. The Bible is pre-eminently the Book of Life—it teaches us how to live.

A collection of ten dollars was given for the Society's work.

A resolution was adopted expressing thanks to the church, pastor and citizens of Rocky Mount for their hospitality.

The Committee on Temperance read its report, and it was heartily approved.

The Committee on State of the Country read its report. After some discussion and recommendations it was approved.

The Statistician was allowed five dollars for service.

The business of the Convention being completed, "God be with you 'till we meet again" was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. R. I. Walden, D. D., and the Convention adjourned to meet in Newberne, N. C., in 1899.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY AND GENERAL MISSIONARY.

---

To the Educational and Missionary Convention of North Carolina.

DEAR BRETHREN :—As your Corresponding Secretary and General Missionary, I hereby submit for your consideration, my second annual report as General Missionary and a general report of the work of co-operation in North Carolina, for the three years contemplated in the plan terminating with the month of October.

While in some respects we have not accomplished all we had hoped for and earnestly desired, yet we take into account our inexperience, the condition of the field in which we labored, and the opposition which would naturally arise with such a change of plan of work.

We congratulate our selves and the brethren who have contributed so much to the success of the work.

When the plan was first suggested, we saw, as we thought, many complications and features which would meet objections, but we have been agreeably surprised to see how extensively the plan has been understood and how favorably received by the churches and individuals.

Indeed, I think it can be truly said where the churches have been left to themselves to decide upon the merits of co-operation, their opinions have been exceedingly favorable, and their acknowledgments often an inspiration to those engaged in the work.

Our missionaries in the past year having better understood the work than in the two previous years, have labored earnestly and faithfully, and their work is teiling throughout the State.

They have labored not only to the end for present achievements and results, but for the future, while our reports will show an increase in collections and work done as compared with last year. We have many reasons to look forward with very bright hopes in connection with the work for the future.

We have tried to lay stress on systematic work and systematic giving; and while it may require years to bring about a system in all our churches and organizations, yet our progress in some of them is quite encouraging. Cooperation has given quite a stimulus to the development and improvement of the ministry of our State.

It has evidently awakened the churches to see as never before the need of an educated ministry; it has awakened the ministers to better prepare themselves to meet this need.

Some of the pastors who have held charges in this State a number of years have come and connected themselves with Shaw University, others are coming, and many who cannot come realize the importance of fortifying themselves with better libraries, and paying more attention to the preparation of their sermons.

We have labored zealously to increase the attendance at Shaw University and our other schools in different sections of the State.

We have tried to impress the importance of children of Baptist parents attending Baptist schools.

Like representatives of other denominations, we have gone into the homes of our people and sought quality for our schools as well as quantity. How well we have succeeded, the first day of opening of Shaw University is in evidence.

As compared with the first day of last year, the increase is seventy-five per cent. larger, and only three of the young men were assigned to the lower departments.

We do not take all the credit to ourselves, for the efficiency of the work done in the University, and the unusual activity of some of the Professors; I mention Drs. Pegues and Roberts in particular, have added greatly to this great result.

Our Board has endeavored to reach every section of the State in its work for the past year.

To do this they have used every dollar available in the employment of local Missionaries. They have thus very wisely expended nearly four hundred dollars.

For a part of the time they have secured the services of the following brethren :

Rev. D. J. Moore for the Southern section of the State, Revs. A. S. Dunston and J. J. Scarlett for the East, Revs. G. O. Bullock and A. Ellis for the West, and Rev. D. J. Avera for the Northern.

The results of their work were far beyond the expectations of the Board, going into many localities which had not been reached by the District Missionaries.

The Board considered itself fortunate in securing the services of such faithful Christian brethren, for everywhere their work is commended.

The Board has not only tried to carry on the work in North Carolina on the Home field, but by their direction considerable stress has been laid upon the importance of supporting our Missionaries on the foreign fields.

As a result more than two hundred dollars have been raised in our churches and among individuals, and sent to aid our Missionaries in Africa.

By your direction, and for the sake of economy in the prosecution of our work in African Missions, North Carolina, with other States, met in the city of Washington and organized a District Foreign Mission Convention, and we will not only have the honor of introducing its first Corresponding Secretary, Rev. W. M. Alexander, of Baltimore, but its President, one of our own men, Rev. C. S. Brown.

Everything looks bright for the work of Foreign Missions.

I give below a list of churches and organization which contributed to the work of Co-operation and Missions during the past year.

We rejoice, however, that the work already done commends itself. Had the Institute work done more than unite our brethren as it has, and given them a better knowledge of each other and of our institutions and work, that of itself would have been worth the money expended.

Meetings, such as have been held in different sections of the State, bringing more than six hundred of our ministers and thirty thousand of our laity together, each year, instructing and receiving instruction on the doctrines of the Bible, church history, practical church work, etc., gives a precedence to the colored Baptists of North Carolina, such as they have never had before, and awakens in them a pride and spirit of loyalty worthy of the great Baptist denomination.

We give below a synopsis of the work done during the past eleven months, and following a synopsis of the three years' work up to Sep. 30th, 1898.

In addition to the above the Board employed Rev. Joshua Perry for about fifteen months as a Missionary Pastor to labor in one of the suburban churches of Winston.

They are quite anxious to do more work of this kind. Morganton is especially inviting for work of this kind, and quite a number of similar places. They recommend for the next year that several brethren be employed to hold small charges and do mission work in connection with the charges.

God has wonderfully blessed the work and the men engaged. Although many times exposed in trying to prosecute the work, He has sustained them and they have been untiring in their efforts to push the work.

By comparison it may be observed that in the past year, for African Missions and local Missionaries a sum of money has been expended just double the amount raised for all purposes in any year preceding the co-operation. This comparison is made with the largest sum realized in the previous history of the Convention.

For all purposes the amount raised this year is just eight and a half times as large as the greatest sum realized in the previous years of the Convention.

Can it be doubted that co-operation is a blessing? It may be well we have increased our annual collections; for the women in their Convention have realized two hundred and sixty-nine dollars, a sum equal to the amount our brethren raised before co-operation began. Your Secretary tried to present at the sitting of the Convention the amounts contributed by all the Baptist organizations. If the brethren in the Associations and other organizations will kindly forward Minutes to the Secretary it may be easily known.

Although without laws of enforcement where it is definitely known what the Baptists give, it will be found to be little behind amounts given by other denominations.

By your direction our Board has established the Baptist Sentinel to take the place of the Baptist Quarterly.

For the past year it has been published monthly, eight pages of original matter; but your Board is prepared to recommend that it be published weekly, with two pages of original matter and the other six pages be made up of patent matter and advertisements. This will give the same or more original matter a better opportunity to secure advertisements, better suited to the needs of most of our readers, and with a cost but little more than the monthly.

The Board extends many thanks to the editors of the different departments, and recommend that they continue on the editorial staff.

They are especially grateful to Dr. Roberts, the business manager, who has given so much of his valuable time to make the Sentinel what it is everywhere acknowledged to be—the best paper published in the State.

We give below his report for the Baptist Sentinel:

That co-operation in the State has met some objection, we admit, and it could not be a good work unless it did. But if we will make a careful investigation we will find in almost every instance it is due to some designing leader disappointed in not having a coveted place in the work.

We do not say this is true in every instance; some may differ honestly, but the vast majority and the best element of our brethren are highly in favor of co-operation.

Our white brethren who have contributed so cheerfully and so liberally, have already expressed their willingness to enter upon another three years with their money and assistance, just as they have already done. They want it emphasized that in no way do they wish to dictate in the prosecution of this work, but to come and assist us only as the colored brethren find it a necessity.

As we see it, brethren, their motives can be none other than pure and good. They feel that no expenditure which they make bears richer results.

In concluding this report I attach a clipping from the Home Mission Monthly.

CO-OPERATION IN THE SOUTH—GREAT GAINS.

In North Carolina and Alabama this is the third year of co-operative work, while the second year in Virginia and South Carolina is just drawing to its close. The first year was introductory and somewhat experimental; the second year furnished strong evidence of the value of this plan, and the third year will unquestionably furnish a complete demonstration of its incomparable superiority to the old methods and order of thing among the colored Baptists of these States. They are unified as never before; conventions are more orderly and earnest in sober discussion of great questions; higher ideas concerning the functions of a Convention, as well as of the church, the ministry and the individual member, have been set up; more intelligent and well directed effort than ever before is being put forth; the ministry has been stimulated to better work, and the churches are demanding better preaching; attention is being devoted to systematic giving; the bonds of Christian fellowship between the two races have been greatly strengthened; educational and missionary interests have been promoted, and a hopeful feeling is everywhere in the air because of the emerging of colored Baptists from their former chaotic condition in their organized efforts. They earnestly desire that the plan of co-operation in its essential features may be continued, inasmuch as only a good beginning has been made.

The New Era Institutes have proved a great blessing both to pastors and the people. During the past year, in the four States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Alabama, reports show that 192 Institutes were held, with an aggregate attendance of 2,883 ministers and a general attendance of 70,034. The aggregate number of white lecturers were 256. The colored missionaries and other educated colored brethren have also delivered numerous lectures. To estimate the far-reaching influence of such stimulating agencies as these in the plan of co-operation, is utterly impossible. The contracting parties to the plan engaged to prosecute it at least for three years. Such have been its benefits, and such is its promise, and so strong is the feeling that God in His good providence has brought Baptists of the North and South, both white and black, together in the blessed service, that the Home Mission Society would be pained, while the colored Baptists would mourn, were the relationship sundered.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. WHITTED,
Cor. Sec'y and Gen. Miss'y.

The Institute work for the past year has awakened a much greater interest than in the two preceding years. This is due in part to the work being much better understood, and the subjects discussed were suited to the churches.

Many of the brethren, while acknowledging the courses of lectures for the past three years to have been excellent in arrangement, and suited to the needs of the ministers and churches, yet suggest a few changes for the Institute work for the future. We truly hope they will kindly submit these changes before the committee appointed by the Convention and the matter may be satisfactorily adjusted. To meet the needs and requirements of all, can hardly be expected.
