Dear Brother Harris:

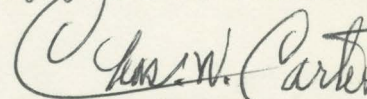

Your letter of June 29 concerning membership in the Wesleyan Theological Society is at hand. Since I seem not to have information as to the identity of the treasurer of this society and think I have not paid the fee I am sending my check to you to be forwarded if necessary. Again, I am not certain of the membership fee, but as faintly my memory dictates $5.00 I am making my check for that sum and if it is not correct you may ^{adjust} accordingly and I shall correct the amount.

You will be interested to know that Vol. V (Romans - Philemon) of the WBC is now off the press and available. It is another beautiful volume for which we have high hopes as a contributor to the the Wesleyan-Arminian emphasis in our day. Excellent reviews continue to come in for Vol. IV.

The summer months are busy times indeed with yet much editorial work to do on the WBC (Old Testament) plus numerous other responsibilities. I trust, however, to find time for some vacation in the near future.

I trust that you are enjoying the blessings of the Lord in your life and service these days.

Cordially yours in Christ

Chas. W. Carter
