

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MINUTES
NOVEMBER 1, 1984

The Executive Committee of the Wesleyan Theological Society met on Thursday, November 1, 1984, at the Camelot Inn, Atlanta, GA, at 8:45 p.m., having failed to make rendezvous for the traditional dinner meal together. All members were present, David L. Cubie, president; R. Larry Shelton, president elect; Alex R. G. Deasley, editor; Donald W. Dayton, promotional secretary; and Wayne E. Caldwell, secretary-treasurer.

The reports of the officers were received and discussed, each in turn: secretary-treasurer, promotional secretary and editor.

Consideration was given to the long range plans of the Society with reference to the function of the office of secretary-treasurer, the printing and distribution of the Journal, the continuing increase of members and the costs of service pertaining thereto. Suggestions were made and approved for projection to the members of the Society, that all matters pertaining to membership and dues could be sent directly to the membership committee chairman, who could be elected to a three year term of office and be placed on the executive committee.

It was agreed that oral reports should be given in the business meeting by the president concerning the progress made on writing a common statement of faith for the Society and the parent organization, the Christian Holiness Association. The president is also to report on the Faith and Order Commission, to which the Society at the 1983 annual meeting elected David L. Cubie and Donald W. Dayton as liaison members for a five year term. The place of the annual meetings of the Society is also to be announced by the president: 1985--Olivet Nazarene College; 1986--Seattle Pacific University.

The editor and the promotional secretary are also to present highlights of their reports to the Society in the business meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m., the secretary-treasurer having left at 9:45 p.m. to set up the registration desk at Cannon Chapel.

Wayne E. Caldwell

Wayne E. Caldwell
Secretary-Treasurer