

INFORMATION & INVITATION regarding the

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
AND
WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL JOURNAL

The Wesleyan Theological Society was organized in 1965 with 97 Charter Members and now has approximately 2,500 members. From its beginning it has been affiliated with the CHRISTIAN HOLINESS ASSOCIATION.

The PURPOSE of the Society is "to encourage exchange of ideas among Wesleyan-Arminian theologians, to develop a source of papers for the CHA seminars, to stimulate scholarship among younger theologians and pastors, and to publish a scholarly Journal."

The SOCIETY holds an Annual Conference on the first Friday and Saturday of each November. Scholarly papers are presented at the Conference and an annual business meeting is held. It is a time of rich Christian fellowship. The next Annual Conference will be held at ASBURY COLLEGE, WILMORE, KENTUCKY, November 3 & 4, 1989, as a part of ASBURY COLLEGE'S CENTENNIAL YEAR. It will be the 25th ANNIVERSARY of the Wesleyan Theological Society. We hope that many members and friends of the Society will plan to attend this important session.

Three types of membership are provided: FULL, ASSOCIATE, and STUDENT. The work of the Society is sustained by annual dues: Full Members $15.00; new ASSOCIATE Members $12.00; Student Members $5.00. Members of the Society include interested laymen, as well as theologians, pastors, teachers, and students.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL JOURNAL

The Society publishes a scholarly Journal, and a total of 30 issues have been published to the present time. All issues are still in print and are on display at BOOTH NO. 3. There are a total of 221 scholarly articles in the 30 issues, totaling approximately 3,356 pages. Single issues of the Journal, or sets, can be purchased at BOOTH NO. 3. We are happy to announce that the Editorial Committee of the Society plans to publish three issues of the Journal in 1989, including two issues for 1988 (Vol. 23:1 & 2, Spring and Fall) and a special 25th ANNIVERSARY ISSUE with articles and a COMPLETE INDEX for 25 years of publication, hopefully in time for the 25th Annual Conference at Asbury College in Wilmore, KY, November 3 & 4, 1989.
