(a) Features in which the School has made greatest Progress during the Period Board of Education has met each month and has found plenty of work to do. By the efforts of the board a program is being followed to some extent throughout the children's division and the youth division. Departmental meetings have been held regularly and the accomplishments are shown in the statistical records.

(b) Greatest Needs of the School Even though our work has improved we are still in need of more leaders and teachers. we are trying to develop a program of training which will help supply same.
