CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Methodist College.....Fayetteville, N. C.....Weekend Session: August 3 - 5
Week Session: August 5 - 8

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP SCHOOL is the major training event of the N. C. Conference.

It features a wide variety of courses - something for everyone!!!

Middle East Mosaic; The Parables; Human Rights and the International Order; United Methodist Women; Basic Lay Speaker Training; Adult Growth and Parent Education (AGAPE); Science and the Bible; Basic Christian Beliefs; Organizing the Church of Small Membership; Understanding Baptism and Holy Communion; Crafts for Everyone; Mission Study for Children; Teaching Children; Teaching Youth; Ministry with Singles; The Importance of the Ethnic Minority Local Church; Dealing with Grief; The Holy Spirit and Christian Experience; The Volunteer Adult Choir; Spiritual Growth Through Chancel Drama; Christian Marriage: Biblical and Practical; The Church in the City; Better Church Meetings: So You Chair a Committee; An Appreciation of Christian Art.

Duke Memorial's Council on Ministries commends this leadership opportunity to you. It also makes its support known in a tangible way - by offering scholarships to persons from our church who will be willing to spend time developing their skills for leadership in our church. The cost of the weekend session is $21.00, and the cost of the Week session is $31.00. The Council on Ministries will grant half of the cost of each session to any person going from our church. ALSO, if at least eight people go to a given session, the church van will provide transportation FREE! Where else can you get a bargain like that + good fellowship, + spiritual nurture + ..oh, well, surely you can see what a bargain it is!!! Call the church office (688-1901), 688-2170) for registration blanks.

THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS meets Tuesday evening, 17 July, in the library at 7:30. Their work is the nomination of leaders of the church for 1980. This task takes wisdom, time, tact and perception. Your prayers are asked for the committee as well as expression of your views on who should fill what office. There will be several meetings of this committee; it is important that your expressions be made to them early in the process. By the Discipline, the pastor is chairman. Elected members are: Class of 1979: Wyatt T. Dixon, Tim Harrell, Faye Rodenhizer. Class of 1980: Anne Clark, Jack Cliff, Shirley Few. Class of 1981: Devon Brown, Tom Coble, Louis Shipp. The slate of nominations will be presented to the autumn Charge Conference for action and election.

CAN YOU BELIEVE that in Durham County, one hundred percent of the blood collected and processed by the American Red Cross comes from six percent of the people! Our community is blessed with excellent medical facilities and people from a very large area for hospitalization here. The need for blood is always high. Cancer research at Duke and the VA hospital as well as major surgical procedures require large numbers of units of blood. What can you do to make the 6% grow? All of us benefit! Telephone 489-6541 for the Red Cross Blood Collection Center. Then go - and give!

ALTAR FLOWERS: We have several openings for altar flowers to be placed in our sanctuary. If you would like to remember a loved one in this way please call the church office.

UPPER ROOMS

In the narthex of our church you will find copies of The Upper Room for July and August. These booklets cost the church 25¢ each. Don't miss this opportunity for spiritual growth.

15 JULY 1979

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost
The Epistle: I Peter 2:1-10
The Sermon: Self-Moving Stones
Greeters: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cliff

TOM CLARK who has been our organist for three years is leaving soon to enter the Medical School of the College of Charleston. Members of the congregation are invited to share in a peculiarly southern sort of festival, a watermelon cutting on the lawn Sunday evening, 15 July, at 6:30 in honor of Tom. That Sunday is not his last Sunday with us but it seems to be the most appropriate day in our calendar of plans. You all come!

CIRCLE 7 wishes to thank everyone who contributed supplies and funds for the school kits for children of Migrant and seasonal Farm Workers. We assembled nineteen kits for this project of United Methodist Women.

HOSPITALIZED:

DCGH: Tamela Davis 4320
T. Lacy Suggs 5326

BIRTH: George and Tamela Davis share with the church family their joy in the birth of Robert Huntley (Hunt) at Durham County Hospital Friday, 6 July 1979. Hunt's older brother is Merrill.

FALL FESTIVAL REMINDER

In cleaning closets this summer, please remember to save items for "Trash and Treasures". Remember also to root and pot plants and save flower pots. We need all colors of embroidery floss and yarn. Thanks!!

ANNIVERSARY: All of us rejoice with Jesse and Virgie Lynn Cole in that last Sunday, 8 July, marked the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage.
