

NORTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL RESOURCES

DIVISION OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

CONTRACT OF LOAN

I hereby lend to the Division of Archives and History the following articles for Ten (10) years
December 31, 1993 (length of time), ending December 31, 1993 (date):

1. Dressing chest with mirror, walnut,
att. to Thomas Day, 1850-1860.
2. Settee with open back, upholstered seat, walnut, att. to Thomas Day, 1850-1860.

It is understood that the conditions of this loan are as follows:

The article or articles shall remain the property of the lender and shall be subject to withdrawal by him, provided notice of intention to withdraw shall be given in writing fifteen days prior to withdrawal.

These articles will be delivered upon surrender of this receipt by the lender in person, or upon the presentation of written order by the lender or his duly authorized agent or legal representative, at any time following the fifteenth day after receipt of written notice to withdraw.

The division will give to these articles while in its custody the same care and attention they would receive if they were its property. It can assume no responsibility and will not be liable in any way in case of loss or damage by theft, fire, or otherwise except as covered by insurance.

Should the Division of Archives and History at any time desire to terminate its obligations with reference to these articles or any of them, the owner shall be notified to withdraw them within six months, and if not so withdrawn they shall then be disposed of as directed by the North Carolina Historical Commission.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find signed agreement between Duke Memorial United Methodist Church and the State of North Carolina.

Per our conversation we are also asking that you insure the two items for $5,000.00 and that they be housed at Stagville Center.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

W. T. Coman
