Correction 1

In the paragraph at the bottom of the first page beginning, "Marge Clark stated", in the second sentence after "two attempts to leave gracefully: 1) by requesting a meeting with the Senior Minister which never took place, and 2) by offering to stay on through the busy fall season of program activities."

It should read, "leave gracefully: 1) by offering to resign by June of 1991 or 2) by offering to stay on through the busy fall season of program activities for which she felt commitment to the church and its members."
