

A Report of The Methodist Men
Duke Memorial Methodist Church
Fourth Quarterly Conference
March 3, 1964

The officers of Methodist Men are listed as the following: W. T. Coman, president; S. L. Mortland, vice-president; Horace Mansfield, secretary; and Jack B. Cliff, treasurer. Committee chairmen of the following committees have been named: attendance, membership, programs, projects, publicity, devotions, music, and arrangements.

In September the secretary wrote letters to members of the Official Board and the Pastors Aides Class who were not Methodist Men inviting them to join Methodist Men. Letters were also sent to all members reminding them of the first meeting and asking them to bring a prospective member.

There are seventy members in Methodist Men with an average attendance of fifty persons at the meetings. It was voted by the cabinet that Methodist Men would offer its support to the scout program at the church. It also decided to help secure an assistant scoutmaster and encourage more boys in the church school to become scouts.

The programs to date for the year 1963-64 were the following:

October - "Inside China Today" - a film presented by Mr. Clyde McKnight of television station WTVD.

November - "The Layman's Part in Law Enforcement" - a talk given by Mr. Rufus Powell, Agent for the F. B. I. Special guest was the Rev. O. L. Hathaway, District Superintendent.

December - A special Christmas message by Rev. Warren Bishop, Associate Minister. Music by Quartet from church.

January - "Was Moses An Electrical Engineer?" - Presented by Dean Walter Seeley. Club voted to spend $25.00 on replacement of little league basketball uniforms.

February - Annual Scout Recognition and Father-Son Banquet. Report on work with seven scouts in church on the God and Country Award was given by Rev. Bishop. Feature of program was presentation of Eagle Scout Award by Mr. S. M. Holton.

March - "A Methodist Mission to Nicaragua" - a talk with slides presented by Miss Gloria Stevens. Special music by quartet from choir. Mr. John McLean was named chairman of nominating committee. New slate of officers to be announced in April and elections to be held in May. Rev. O. L. Hathaway was special guest of club.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. Coman, president
