Dear Dr. Davis,

Thanks for our conversation. It was helpful and I appreciate your thoughtfulness and effort in writing these letters.

I feel sure that letters to Curg Starkey, Dean Canon, G. Ray Jordan, Paul Deats, Alan Knight Chalmers and Harold Bernhardt will turn up some possibility. Please do not inconvenience yourself in this task. But it is deeply appreciated.

You asked about the Trustees of National Seminary. They include Bishops Frank, Dawson, Watts and Clair, Dr. Lewis B. Carpenter, Albea Godbold, William A Love, Laurence R. Davis, Clare Hayes, Ralph Roland and J. Hauser Winter. Mr. Horace Kimbrell, Norvel Saylor, Raymond Rowland, Ted Mason, and Mrs. Charles Mead, and Mrs. H. E. Werner are lay trustees. If you know one or two of these especially well, a note to them might be helpful. But again, please don't allow this to become a burden.

My sincere thanks,
