Dear Dick and Beverly:

You were very cordial to receive me last week and you made my stay there very comfortable. I was happy to see things going well. We feel very good about having you there.

Dick, I was very sorry I did not get to see you further on Thursday morning, but it got clobbered with other appointments and responsibilities.

Let us know if we can do anything to make things convenient and comfortable for you in the house.

Cordially and sincerely,

Thomas C. Oden
