

President Hilda Coble opened the meeting with group singing of hymn, "Day Is Dying In The West". She asked for a moment of silent prayer for our deceased member, Nellie Garrard.

Mrs. Jane Johnson, President, North Carolina Conference of United Methodist Women, gave an enlightening and informative program, using as her topic, "Committing our lives as faithful disciples, joyful servants". Her remarks included specific information about the scholarship fund.

During the business session, minutes of the Executive Board meeting held on August 30, 1989 were read by Secretary Beulah Latta. Treasurer Charlotte Corbin gave her report, reflecting a balance of $4941.25.

On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Grace Cook gave the following report in the absence of Chairman Jean Weynand:

Officers for 1990-91:

President: Ann Marie Langford
Vice President: Helen Fink
Secretary: Beulah Latta
Corresponding Secretary: Ellen Dozier
Treasurer: Doris Bridges

Mission Coordinators:

Christian Personhood: Charlotte Corbin
Supportive Community: Carolyn Shipp
Christian Social Involvement: Carolyn Shipp
Christian Global Concerns: Rhoda Fitzpatrick

Committee Chairpersons:

Program Resources: Mary Hix
Membership: Reid Burton
Nominations: Hilda Coble
Methodist Retirement Home: Eugenia Dixon, Alice Walker
Ways and Means: Betty Craig
Projects: Nancy Stark, Hilda Coble
Community Life Center: Metta Metcalf

Elizabeth Bookhout moved that we accept the slate as presented. Move was seconded and vote was by acclamation in the affirmative.

Discussion followed regarding our Mini Bazaar which will be held on October 21 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Martha Brown will be in charge of the bake sale. Circles 4 and 7 will be responsible for Trash and Treasures. Circle 8 will be responsible for handmade items. Circle 3 will be in charge of lunch.

President Linda Coble opened the meeting with group singing of hymn, "Oye Is Dying in the Heart". She asked for a moment of silent prayer for our deceased member, Nellie Garwood.

Mrs. Jane Johnson, President, North Carolina Conference of United Methodist Women, gave an enlightening and informative program, using as her topic, "Committing our Lives as Faithful Disciples, Joyful Servants". Her remarks included specific information about the scholarship fund.

During the business session, minutes of the Executive Board meeting held on August 30, 1989 were read by Secretary Beulah Latta. Treasurer Charlotte Gordijn gave her report, reflecting a balance of $191.25.

On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Grace Cook gave the following report in the absence of Chairman Jean Reynolds:

Officers for 1990-91:

- President: Ann Marie Langford
- Vice President: Helen Bink
- Secretary: Beulah Latta
- Corresponding Secretary: Ellen Dozier
- Treasurer: Dove Bridges

Mission Coordinators:

- Christian Personhood: Charlotte Gordijn
- Supportive Community: Carolyn Shipp
- Christian Social Involvement: Carolyn Shipp
- Christian Global Concerns: Linda Fitzpatrick

Committee Chairpersons:

- Program Resources: Mary Hix
- Membership: Mild Lorton
- Nominations: Linda Coble
- Methodist Retirement Home: Eugenia Dixon, Alice Walker
- Prayer and Praise: Betty Craig
- Projects: Nancy Stark, Linda Coble
- Community Life Center: Metta Metcalf

Elizabeth Goodmont moved that we accept the slate as presented. Move was seconded and vote was by acclamation in the affirmative.

Discussion followed regarding our Mini Bazaar which will be held on October 21 from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Martha Brown will be in charge of the bake sale. Circles 4 and 7 will be responsible for Trash and Treasures. Circle 8 will be responsible for handmade items. Circle 3 will be in charge of lunch.

Juanita Stott was elected to represent us at our annual meeting in Fayetteville on October 6 and 7.

Our Christmas meeting will be held on December 3 at which time the new officers will be installed. Martha Thumm will present the program. Service pins will be presented to four persons at the Sunday morning worship service. They will be recognized again at this service.

Betty Craig asked for volunteers to help on Wednesday mornings in getting items ready for the Bazaar.

Ann Stallings, on behalf of Rev. Eric Carson, talked with us about the special services scheduled for November 5 through 8, "Come Share the Spirit". At that time Rev. Maurice Boyd from Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, will be our speaker. We were asked to complete a card, indicating our individual participation, and return same to her if we had not already done so at the morning worship service on September 10.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 p.m. Delightful refreshments were served by Circle 17.

Respectfully submitted,

Hilda Coble, President

Beulah Latta, Recording Secretary

Lillian Stott was elected to represent us at our annual meeting in Piquette on October 6 and 7.

Our Christmas meeting will be held on December 3 at which time the new officers will be installed. Martha Turner will present the program. Service girls will be presented to four persons at the Sunday morning worship service. They will be recognized again at this service.

Betty Craig asked for volunteers to help on Wednesday mornings in getting items ready for the Bazaar.

Ann Stalling, on behalf of Rev. Eric Carson, talked with us about the special services scheduled for November 5 through 8, "Come Share the Spirit". At that time Rev. Maurice Boyd from Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, will be our speaker. We were asked to complete a card, indicating our individual participation, and return same to her if we had not already done so at the morning worship service on September 10.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 p.m. Delightful refreshments were served by Circle 1.

Respectfully submitted,

Lillian Stott, President

Benjamin Latta, Recording Secretary