

Co-president Linda Wilson convened the United Methodist Women at 3:00 p.m. in the Bradshaw Room. She introduced Associate Minister Clint Spence who presented a thought-provoking study on Galations 5. His topic was, "Freedom is for Freeing."

A brief business session followed. Linda read a thank-you from Contact for our financial contribution. Lenten devotional materials were made available. Announcement was made by Betty Traig that we will be providing the annual luncheon for the Volunteer Service Bureau on April 30. Help was solicited for food preparation on April 29 and serving on April 30.

Eugenia Dixon reported on the items made and distributed by the Wednesday group of workers. These include lap afghans and walker pockets, among other items. She asked for help in making these items.

Hilda Coble has church stationery for $3 per package. All profit goes to UMW projects.

Ann Knight was welcomed as a new member.

Laurie Coffman, representing Outreach Ministry, expressed need for another member of that committee.

Para Drake from Council on Ministries announced that Lenten devotions will be held at 12:15 p.m. starting March 11 and continuing each Wednesday thereafter until Easter.

Church Women United will observe World Day of Prayer on March 20. We were urged to attend.

Ann Stallings advised that a missionary family who are Wickliff Bible Translators are available for programs. This family expects to serve in New Guinea in the near future.

There being no further business, meeting adjourned. Delicious refreshments were served by Circle 7.

Beulah Latta, Recording Secretary

Co-president Linda Wilson convened the United Methodist Women at 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium. The introduced Associate Minister Miss Spence who presented a thought-provoking study on Galatians 3. The topic was, "Freedom is for creating."

A brief business session followed. Linda read a thank-you from contact for our financial contribution. Lenten devotional materials were made available.
Arrangement was made by Betty King that we will be providing the annual luncheon for the Volunteer Service Bureau on April 30. Help was solicited for food preparation on April 29 and serving on April 30.

Eugenia Dixon reported on the items made and distributed by the Wednesday group of workers. These include lap alphas and wallet pockets, among other items. She asked for help in making these items.

Mildred Goble has church stationery for $3 per package. All profits goes to UMS projects.

Our night was welcomed as a new member.

Louise Colman, representing Outreach Ministry, expressed need for another member of that committee.

Pat Burke from Council on Ministries announced that Lenten devotions will be held at 12:15 p.m. starting March 17 and continuing each Wednesday thereafter until Easter.

Church Women United will observe World Day of Prayer on March 30. We were urged to attend.

Ann Stalling advised that a missionary family who are William Bible Translators are available for programs. This family expects to serve in New Guinea in the near future.

There being no further business, meeting adjourned. Religious refreshments were served by Grace V.

Grace Vatter, Recording Secretary